Sheridan Rotarians honor eight graduating seniors

The REPORTER

Every year the Sheridan Rotary club holds a special dinner event honoring the academic top 10 percent of students in the Sheridan High School graduating senior class. The club was pleased to honor eight young people at this year's event. In addition, the Rotarians also recognize and honor both the elementary and the secondary teachers of the year.

Historically, Rotarian membership is comprised of successful business and professional people in their communities. And generally speaking, these are individuals whose success began early in lives with the academic success they achieved school. Today's generation of young people is no different. In all probability, those honored by Sheridan Rotary each year will turn out to be tomorrow's teachers, doctors, lawyers, business owners and even librarians. Hopefully they will want to become Rotarians someday themselves.

The Sheridan Rotary Club said that part of the success these young students have achieved is due to the dedicated teachers who have devoted their lives to passing knowledge and skills to the next generation.

Carmel superintendent proposes rebuild of two elementary schools

By JENNY DREASLER
WISH-TV | wistv.com

Declining enrollment and aging buildings left the fate of two Carmel elementary schools up in the air after a Carmel Clay Schools meeting Monday night.

Roger McMichael, interim superintendent with Carmel Clay Schools, recommended rebuilding both Carmel and Orchard Park elementary schools.

About 100 parents showed up at the Educational Services Center, where McMichael made three recommendations. Many parents spoke out against closing Carmel Elementary and Orchard Park Elementary at the meeting.

McMichael called for demolishing and rebuilding Carmel Elementary at its current location. He also suggested closing the current Orchard Park Elementary and using it for adult education purposes or for use by the Parks and Recreation Department, while building a new Orchard Park campus off Clay Center Road.

McMichael said he hopes to have construction started on both sites by February of 2020 and the schools ready to use by June of 2021.

These recommendations are still subject to board approval, which could happen as early as June 25 at the board's next regular meeting.

Heights sets calendar for next two years

The REPORTER

Hamilton Heights School Corporation has set its school calendars for the 2018-19 and 2019-2020 school years. The calendars, approved by the Hamilton Heights School Board at its May 16 meeting, set the first day of school for students at Aug. 7, 2018, and the last day at May 30, 2019. The first day of school the following year for students will be Aug. 6, 2019, and the last day will be May 29, 2020.

"The minor adjustments to the next two years' calendar were the result of careful review of data from the previous year and input from the leadership team comprised of parents, teachers and administrators," explained Dr. Derek Arrowood, Hamilton Heights School Corporation Superintendent. "We believe we are providing the best possible corporation calendar to meet the diverse needs of our students, teachers and families for academic excellence as well as to plan for extra-curricular activities, vacations and other events."

These calendars include a start date after the beginning of the Indiana State Fair;

one full week for Fall Break; three days at Thanksgiving; final exams and bringing the first semester to a close before Christmas break; two weeks (including three weekends) for Christmas Break; and two full weeks for Spring Break the last week of March and first week of April.

The most notable change involves extending the Wednesday early release day to the middle, elementary and primary buildings. "At the high school, the

New app lets you view crime trends

The REPORTER

Hamilton County Sheriff Mark Bowen is pleased to announce a new tool for keeping the public informed of crime activity and trends around the county. After months of planning and development, the Sheriff's Office unveiled its partnership with CrimeReports.com, an interactive mapping system that allows the public to see law enforcement calls. Mapped incidents specific to the Hamilton County Sheriff's Office are found at crimereports.com/agency/HamiltonCoIN or users can enter through the main page crimereports.com.

"While we have provided our calls for service in list form on our website for years, Crime Reports offers the public a more interactive way to view the information," says Sheriff Bowen. "Using the filter feature, viewers can narrow down a search or broaden it to include multiple agencies,

Judicial Center expansion delayed

The REPORTER

The planned expansion of the Hamilton County Judicial Center has been delayed after Commissioners received bids that were $311,000 more than expected.

Commissioners announced they will evaluate the project and likely re-bid the project later this year or early 2019.

Originally the county had budgeted $24.17 million to expand the facility with hopes of adding additional courts and moving the auditor, recorder, assessor and treasurer from the county's historic courthouse.

The county will continue with plans to move utilities on the Judicial Center property in preparation of a future expansion.

There are many deserving teaching professionals in the school but we only honor two each year and those two for 2018 are kindergarten teacher Angie Viehe and language arts teacher Becky Pitzer. As their principals will tell you, both of these ladies have had positive impacts on each of the eight students being honored as well all the other students passing through their teaching lives.

Education is one of the corner stones of the Rotarian credo. Educational achievement is honored by Sheridan Rotary in a variety of ways including celebrating academic achievement, honoring those in the teaching profession and providing economic support through the awarding of scholarships. And every year Rotary clubs worldwide sponsor exchange student programs that sends students, including American students, to foreign countries for a year of study and travel. Sheridan Rotary is proud and pleased to be a part of that legacy.

Sheridan Rotary meets formally on the first and third Tuesday of each month at 6:15 p.m. for a meal and an interesting guest speaker. The remaining Tuesdays of the month are dedicated to various committee meetings and community projects of various sorts. If you are interested in attending a meeting to find out more about Rotary, please contact any Sheridan Rotary member or come by the public library and talk to Sheridan Rotarian Steve Martin.

Narcan public training set for May 30

The REPORTER

The Friends of the Hamilton North Public Library and Cicero Kiwanis Club cordially invite the public to attend a free education and training seminar on the life-saving drug naloxone from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, May 30 at the Hamilton North Public Library in Cicero.

Jim Ginder, Health Education Specialist, Hamilton County Health Department, returns to Cicero to share how to save lives through administering the opiate antidote naloxone, which is sold under the drug name Narcan. The session provides the opportunity to learn about this growing problem and the impact on the community.

Ginder, who is the Health Education Specialist for the Hamilton County Health Department, has dedicated the better part of more than two decades to accessing local health needs and developing presentations on all topics related to public health and safety education.

A grant provided by the Indiana Department of Health for the Narcan treatment helps provide the funding for Ginder to educate lay people around the county about the opioid drug problem, signs and symptoms of use and abuse, prevention tips and how to administer Narcan in the case of an overdose. Those who attend the entire one-hour training session will be given one dose of the medicine which they can keep or donate it to their local police or fire department.

"While we may be the healthiest county in the state, we're not immune from this nationwide problem," explained Ginder. "This problem, which kills around 115 people a day nationwide, extends into every corner of our county, and it's going to take every one of us to fight it."

For those who don't plan to utilize their dose, a representative from the Cicero Fire Department will be on hand to accept the doses for emergency personnel to use. On average, the Cicero Fire Department administers one to two doses of Narcan per month. Today, it costs the department about $60 per dose. Before the opioid epidemic, the cost per dose was just under $4.

Cicero Fire Chief Lance Overholser said their department has it in its protocol to consider administering Narcan if a patient is found unconscious of unknown origin because it is effective in an opioid overdose with no known side effects. It simply stops the effect of the opioid without harming the patient.

"No one plans to overdose but it can and does happen," continued Ginder. "Naloxone has no effect on non-opioid overdoses (e.g., cocaine, benzodiazepines, or alcohol)."

Libby Miller, a registered nurse and resident of Cicero attended the March 14 training session at Red Bridge Park in Cicero to learn more about this issue. "The program was well worth attending," said Miller. "My biggest takeaway was how quickly and easily anyone of any age can slip into problematic and addictive behavior through prescription pain medication."

"We hope members of our community will come out in force to take advantage of this one-hour educational workshop right in our backyard," said Emily Pearson. "This is a timely topic and an opportunity to be trained to potentially save a life during a medical emergency with this proven treatment. Communities are key to making a difference and reducing the upward trend of opioid addiction."

weekly early release has been well-received and successful for more than a decade," said Jarrod Mason, Hamilton Heights High School Principal. "It only shortens our normal instructional period by two minutes because we do not have an SRT period on Wednesday. Yet, it offers a much needed 44 minutes for ongoing professional development activities and collaborative projects. Extending the professional development opportunity for educators in the other buildings makes good sense."

Six flex days have been worked into the calendar to be used in the following order: The first two days include a potential of a four-day weekend in February. The third is set for the last Monday in April and fourth is the last Friday of May. The fifth and sixth Flex Days include the first two days of Spring Break.

The calendars can be found below or on the school's website at hbschuskiies.org.

Noblesville Parks' teen mentorship program deadline extended to May 25

The REPORTER

Noblesville Parks and Recreation has extended its deadline for those interested in applying for the summer teen mentorship program. This is the second year for ages 13-16 to learn and lead children at Noble Kids Camp, the full-day, week-long summer camp.

All interested teens will interview for the mentorship, be required to go through staff training from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. June 5-7, and be given specific tasks for the week. To set up an interview, contact Nichole Haberlin at (317) 770-5750 or email nhaberlin@noblesville.in.us. Interviews must be set up by Friday, May 25 and a maximum of 15 people will be selected for the program.

"With last year's success, we are excited to offer the program again," said Recreation Director Nichole Haberlin. "The program helps to mold our community's future leaders and provides an outlet for teens seeking something fun to do during the summer. It also helps teens learn skills that will continue to benefit them long after camp is over – like interviewing skills, organization and scheduling."

In addition to providing a place to grow friendship amongst other teens looking to become leaders, the mentorship program will provide a unique adventure opportunity, as well as engage the teens in a service project each week. Participants will get to create their own schedule with an average minimum of six hours a week. Teens will be assigned different rolls and tasks each day, which will include creating games for children, making a child feel welcomed at camp, help the staff member stay on schedule and manage campers.

To protect the mentorship program participants, no teen will be one-on-one with campers, able to assist with restroom issues or provide first aid beyond calming a camper.

"We encourage six to 20 hours a week working with the campers to ensure they get the most out of this program," said Haberlin. "We know teenager schedules are busy which is why we designed such a flexible program schedule. Participants also can use their camp time as service hours for other organizations."

The cost of the program is $250 which includes a staff shirt and all the expenses with their adventure days. Adventures include Topgolf, Edge Adventures, horseback riding, laser tag, an Indy Fever game, Escape Room and canoeing. On these adventure days, counselor staff will focus on a professional development subject.

Republicans training, gearing up to fight off a November Democratic 'blue wave'

The REPORTER

GOP volunteers from all over Indiana took to the streets on Saturday as part of the National Day of Action, the Republican National Committee's (RNC) second big ground game event of the year.

Working in conjunction with the Indiana Republican Party (INGOP), Republican events across the Hoosier state brought out friends and neighbors to train and recruit new volunteers building upon a data-driven field operation for November.

"We had a great state-wide turnout with 10 trainings and 85 new Republican Leadership Initiative fellows trained, building on the success of last month's event," said Michael Joyce, the RNC's Communications Director in Indiana. "Ongoing events like this are how we build out our ground game for November. We start by training a core of activists, who then have the tools to train others, who in turn train volunteers."

For all the talk of building a blue wave, Republicans have a major breakthrough in place – historic fundraising and major investments in data and field operations. Party officials say they plan to spend upwards of $250 million on ground operations during the 2018 midterm cycle alone.

Republicans currently hold a major fundraising advantage over Democrats, giving them an edge on the ground. For Indiana, that means campaigns armed with the most up-to-date information possible and a volunteer army with thousands of engaged, skilled activists ready to defy history in November.

"We have people on the ground in more than two dozen states — more than we've ever had at this point in any cycle in party history," said Joyce. In Indiana, a majority of the trainings were led by volunteers, building a volunteer army as we ramp up for November. This year alone, we've seen a big increase in participation with our intensive Republican Leadership Initiative program."

To date, the Republican Leadership Initiative (RLI) program has trained more than 250 fellows. Those fellows form the core of neighborhood-based teams that add layers and grow as the cycle progresses. When crunch time arrives this fall, INGOP and RNC will have trained volunteers ready to knock on doors in their own neighborhoods.

"Democrats may think they can ride a blue wave into November, but we're just getting started," said

Joyce. "Our volunteers are energized and already pounding the pavement, working harder than ever before to defy history in November and retire Sleep-in' Joe Donnelly."

Indiana State Police will tolerate no excuses for seat belt violations

The REPORTER

As the unofficial start of summer, the Memorial Day holiday weekend is a busy time for Americans. Each year, the highways fill with families in vehicles on their way to start their summer vacations. To help keep drivers and passengers stay safe, the Indiana State Police is reminding motorists to Click It or Ticket. Aimed at enforcing seat belt use to help keep families safe, the national seat belt campaign will take place May 21 through June 3, concurrent with the busy travel season. "Buckling up is something that should become second nature," said Indiana State Police Superintendent Doug Carter. "Besides that, buckling up is the law. The consequences of not buckling up is real and can include the loss of life. Often, this tragedy could have been prevented with the use of a seat belt. No excuses, buckle up!"

According to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, nearly half (48 percent) of the passenger vehicle occupants killed in crashes in 2016 were unrestrained. At night from 6 p.m. to 5:59 a.m., that number soared to 56 percent of those killed. That's why one focus of the Click It or Ticket campaign is nighttime enforcement. Participating law enforcement agencies will be taking a no-excuses approach to seat belt law enforcement, writing citations day and night. In Indiana, the maximum penalty for a seat belt violation is $25.

Carter

"In 2016, almost twice as many males were killed in crashes as compared to females, with lower belt use rates, too. Of the males killed in crashes in 2016, more than half (52 percent) were unrestrained. For females killed in crashes, 40 percent were not buckled up.

"If you know a friend or a family member who does not buckle up when they drive or ride, please ask them to consider changing their habits," said Indiana State Police First Sergeant Rich Myers. "Help us spread this life-saving message before a friend or family member is killed as a result of this senseless inaction. Seat belts save lives, and everyone – front seat and back, child and adult – needs to remember to buckle up – every trip, every time."

Girls track and field regional

Royals dominate, many county athletes headed to state

By RICHIE HALL

Reporter Sports Editor

On paper, Hamilton Southeastern was favored to win the Lafayette Jefferson girls track and field regional.

Of course, meets aren't won on paper. They are won on the track and in the field - and the Royals certainly did win on the track and in the field on Tuesday, to the tune of 121 points.

"That's exactly what we pre-seeded ourselves at," said Southeastern coach Julie Alano. "So that's really scary. Someone upstairs said we should go to Vegas now. We didn't score exactly in the same spots that we were seeded, but to score the same amount of points that's on the sheet, that's crazy. You don't always do that."

In order to get that win, the Royals had to perform at their seed, which is never an easy thing to do. But Southeastern was up to the challenge. The Royals were top-seeded in seven events and won six of them, and also got other athletes to step up as well.

"We had a lot of No. 1 seeds, so it's hard to maintain that," said Alano. "You have to win. The only place you can go in those events is down. That's really telling of how well we did."

Leading the way was senior Camille Christopher. She took two individual events, the 100 and 200 dashes, and was part of the winning 4x100 relay team, along with Olivia Burgess, Tierra Sydnor and Alyssa Barker.

"Everything went really good, as a team and personally," said Christopher. The senior said that everyone is ready for state and compete at a bigger level.

Christopher's 100 and 200 times were incredible - and new regional and HSE school records. She won the 100 in a time of 11.66 seconds and the 200 in 24.18 seconds. In the 200, Christopher finished over a second ahead of second place, which just does not ordinarily happen in high-level competition.

"I was actually really shocked," said Christopher. "I was so surprised that actually happened and I can't wait to drop more time."

Sydnor was a double winner, as she also placed first in the long jump in addition to the relay success. Mia Mackenzie won the 100 hurdles, and was a close second in the 300 hurdles, going to state in both events. The top three finishers in each event earn a spot at the Friday, June 1, state meet at Indiana University.

"I definitely think I did a lot better in the 300," said Mackenzie. The senior said that while her times over the year have been "a little rough," but she was finally able to get down to the "44s," running the 300 race in 44.65 seconds.

"Next week I'll hopefully have enough to get me good placements for the 300 and 100," said Mackenzie.

Southeastern's pole vaulters continued to dominate. Kennedy Drish, the defending state champion in that event, and Jessica Bray both cleared 12 feet, 2 inches, topping the old regional record by two inches. Drish finished first on Tuesday, with Bray taking second on misses.

Other state qualifiers for HSE include Olivia Burgess in the 200, Sydnor in the 400 dash, Lulu Black in the 3200 run - "Lulu finally broke 11 minutes, that's awesome," said Alano - and the 4x400 relay team of Burgess, Mya Hammons, Annice McFarland and Sydnor. West Lafayette won the race by a quarter of a second over HSE, but the Royals are happy to get the team on to state.

"Distance stepped up to get those points and spots at state, too," said Alano. "We didn't have much of that last year. We didn't have a 4x4 last year. It's so exciting to have a 4x4 in it. West Lafayette ran amazing, but we did really well there, too. 3:54, that's huge for us right now. After not even going to state in 4x4, that's going to be helpful."

Carmel placed second as a team with 76.5 points. Sophomore Phoebe Bates won two events, the 1600 and 3200. Bates held of Zionsville's Sophia Rigg to win the 1600, then cruised to victory in the 3200 with a winning margin of almost 13 seconds.

Bates said that she went into the meet "just taking it one race at a time," and knew that there would be more competition. "So I just went out as hard as I could and just had to hold until the end."

Junior Reagan Hune had a nice day, earning a place at state in three events. Hune finished third in the 400 dash and was part of two qualifying Greyhound relays: The 4x100 with Kiara Gill, Carly Markley and Josie Upton, and the 4x400 with Abbey Grogan, Beverley Thompson and Alexis Waples.

"Today was a great day," said Hune. "It was beautiful weather, I made sure I got real stretched out and just got support from my teammates. I thought I did pretty well with all of our handoffs, the 4x1 and 4x4, and I just remembered all my training for the 400."

Also qualifying to state from Carmel are the 4x800 relay team of Annie Christie, Mahalet Zeruesenay, Anna Morozov and Sydney Haines; Maddie Dalton in the 1600 run and Kara Deady in the pole vault. Deady finished fourth in the pole vault, but made the state standard of 11 feet, 2 inches, which ensured a place at state.

Fishers finished in fifth place with 50 points. Tamia Perryman made it to state in three events, placing second in the 200, third in the 100, and second with Toni Grace, Danielle Harrison and Grace May in the 4x100 relay.

Harrison finished second in the 100 dash. Kanya Lapsley took third in the 800 to earn a place at state.

"It was really nice," said Lapsley. The senior said her goal wasn't just to get to state - it was to get to state and race well there.

"Now I have the opportunity and now I can see what I can do there and hopefully beat my place from last year," said Lapsley, who finished sixth at state last year in the 800.

Noblesville scored 25 points, with Shelby Tyler taking second in the high jump. Tyler is the defending state champion in the high jump, so she will get the opportunity to defend her title. The Millers also had a couple fourth-place finishes that could receive a callback to state.

Westfield senior Sydney Spears qualified for state in two events. Spears was third in the long jump and placed fourth in the 400, but made the state standard in that event.

"I've been for relays, but never for individual events," said Spears. "It feels great, honestly. Like right at the right time, my senior year. So it feels great to go out on a good note."

Noblesville and Carmel advanced to the championship game of the Westfield softball sectional on Tuesday.

The two teams will play each other at 6 p.m. Thursday in the title game.

In the evening's first semi-final, the Millers beat Fishers 4-3. Noblesville got on the board in the second inning when Emily Minett hit a home run in the inning's first at-bat.

Minett struck again in the fourth inning, smacking a two-run homer into left field. Madison Taylor got on base with a double in the previous at-bat, then Abigail Harvey came in to courtesy run, and Minett sent her home.

Noblesville was now up 3-0, but the Tigers tied the game in the sixth inning. Brooke Benson batted in Fishers' first run with a single to score Courtney James. Benson was sent home soon after, as Hannah Mays stepped up and knocked in a two-run homer.

The Millers responded with a run in the seventh inning, and that would be the difference. Julia Furiak got on base with a hit, after which Alyssa Solomon came in to courtesy run for her. Solomon moved to third on Olivia Stinson's sacrifice bunt, then Kyleigh Lowry sent Solomon home on a sacrifice fly.

Minett finished the game 2-for-3 at the plate. Taylor pitched a complete game for the win. As for Fishers, James also was 2-for-3. Mays pitched a complete game. Noblesville is now 18-10 for the season, while the Tigers finished their season 15-11-1.

Carmel won the second semi-final 8-0 over North Central. The Greyhounds were led by Sommer Edwards, who pitched a no-hitter. Edwards tossed five strikeouts and allowed only one walk.

Meanwhile, Carmel did its job on offense. The 'Hounds got on the board in the top of the first inning when Stormy Kotzelnick scored after Sarah Goddard reached on error. Kotzelnick got home again in the third inning, tagging up and scoring after Sydney Fox hit a sacrifice fly.

Carmel ran away with the game in the sixth inning, pouring in six runs. Megan Nichols hit a sacrifice fly to score Cate Harden. Fox smacked a center field hit to send Edwards and Ariana Zdobylak home.

Carmel's Sommer Edwards pitched a no-hitter for the Greyhounds in their sectional semi-final win over North Central Tuesday at Westfield. Carmel won 8-0 and plays Noblesville in Thursday's championship.

Goddard singled in Kotzelnick, then Fox scored on Darby Roberts' sacrifice fly. Goddard made the score 8-0 when she got home after Sophia Derziotis reached on error.

Edwards was 2-for-4 at the plate, with Fox totaling three RBIs and Kotzelnick scoring three runs. Carmel is 12-16 for the season.

Mays' three-run homer helps Fishers stun HSE

By RICH TORRES

WESTFIELD — When the Fishers Tigers lost by run-rule to rival Hamilton Southeastern last month, they were a team searching for its identity.

Not anymore.

Pitted against No. 12 HSE in the first-round of Class 4A Sectional 8 on Monday night, the Tigers once again fell behind 2-1 early in the rematch, but freshman ace Hannah Mays had other plans and supplied the payback.

Mays blasted a go-ahead three-run home run in the bottom of the third and scattered six hits over seven innings en route to a 4-3 win over the Royals at Westfield High School.

On April 13, the Tigers lost 10-0 in six innings to the Royals (20-7) at HSE, but that was then, and this is the postseason.

"I think our girls played to the level they are capable of today. We were still figuring things out the last time, so I think it worked to our advantage because they didn't really play us the first time," Fishers head coach Bridget Langan-Puckett said. "Now, we're us. We weren't us then."

The playoff Tigers were both opportunistic and resilient, and those traits powered them into Tuesday's semifinals against Noblesville, who run-ruled Westfield 11-1 in five innings to open Sectional 8 on Monday.

Fishers entered the postseason on a three-game losing streak, but Mays halted the skid with one swing, and her timing couldn't have been better.

Down 2-1 with two outs in the bottom of the third, the Tigers needed a big hit, and with Courtney James on second base and the Royals walking Indiana commit Brooke Benson, a sophomore, intentionally, Mays seized her chance.

"We talked to Mays a lot that she just needs to put the ball in play. When she puts the ball in play, good things happen," Langan-Puckett said. "Before that at-bat, I told her to put the ball in play, and she did it."

Mays crushed the first offering she saw

Fishers' Hannah Mays (10) heads home to her cheering teammates after hitting a three-run home run during the Tigers' sectional first round game with Hamilton Southeastern on Monday. Fishers won 4-3.

from HSE starter Jaylah Guillian over the left-field fence, flipping the score 4-2 with her fifth home run. She finished 2-for-2 with four RBI.

Benson, who went 2-for-2 with two runs scored, laced a two-out double off the left-field wall in the bottom of the first, which Mays followed up with an RBI-single up the middle to cut the Tigers' deficit 2-1.

A .418 hitter this season, Benson was issued a free pass to first in the bottom of the third to create a force-out situation on first, second and third bases, but the strategy backfired.

"Do it all night long," HSE head coach

David Cook remarked on the intentional walk. "It's the right move. We got a pitch up, and they took advantage of that. I told the girls, I wouldn't change anything. I'd walk her again. Benson is a good player. And they made us pay for it."

The Royals built a 2-0 lead in the top of the first behind a two-run, two-out single by Nicole Lang to score both Lillian Leiner and Jordan Rager.

HSE later added a run in the top of the fifth off of Ahliza Moore's second home run of the season, but despite a .357 team batting average, they couldn't muster more than six hits.

Mays retired seven straight after HSE's three-hit top of the first, and she sat eight consecutive down after Moore's solo shot out of left-center field.

"She feeds on her team's energy, and she feeds on at-bats. She's really great at that," Langan-Puckett said. "When she feels it, she goes with it."

Mays struck out two without a walk to earn her ninth win.

Guillian, who dropped to 13-5, posted three strikeouts, issued two walks and hit two batters while surrendering four hits

Millers cruise past Shamrocks in first round

By RICH TORRES

WESTFIELD – As a freshman making her first career postseason start, Madison Taylor admitted she was a little nervous coming into the Class 4A Sectional 8 opener on Monday night.

It sure didn't show.

Taylor, a verbal Florida State commit, tossed a three-hit gem with three strikeouts and drove in four runs as Noblesville cruised past host Westfield 11-1 by run-rule in five innings.

The Millers logged 14 hits and plated nine runs through the first three innings to win their fourth straight game and secure a meeting with Fishers in the sectional semifinals on Tuesday at Westfield.

"We had some great hitting, and everyone did their job today," Taylor remarked after improving to 15-4 on the season. "Just go out and play, and see what we can do."

The Millers did exactly what they wanted against Westfield, led by Taylor and fellow freshman Ella White, who finished 4-for-4 with three runs scored and two RBIs.

Taylor went 1-for-3 with a run and four RBIs, plating runs in all three of her at-bats.

In the bottom of the first, Taylor's hard-hit single to second, which was misplayed for an error with the bases loaded, scored two of the Millers' four runs in the inning.

Her infield groundout brought home White in the bottom of the second, and a single to center field put Noblesville ahead 10-0 in the bottom of the fourth.

White capped the run-rule victory in the bottom of the fifth with an RBI-single, scoring Grace Smith from second base after she reached on one of Westfield's four errors.

"We wanted to come out and get a W tonight. That's what we worked for all year," White said. "We were pretty confident, but you can't think too highly of yourself. You want to come out and play every game like it's the best competitor you've faced."

In the first, the Millers sent nine batters to the plate, and they used seven at-bats to build a 7-0 lead behind a three-run second inning.

Smith, who went 2-for-3, and Kyleigh Lowry both posted RBI swings in the bottom of the third. Emily Minett was a perfect 3-for-3 with an RBI single in the first, and leadoff hitter Abby Brown was 2-for-4.

"This is what you play for. This is the tournament, so you never know how they're going to react to that additional pressure and that additional scenario, and I thought they responded well," Noblesville head coach Deke Bullard said. "I felt we played all aspects of the game well."

Noblesville's Madison Taylor pitched a complete-game win and batted in four runs during the Millers' first-round sectional win over Westfield on Monday.

No more so than in the circle where Taylor retired the first six batters she faced and six in a row after the Shamrocks posted their first hit with a leadoff single by Corrine Molter in the top of the third.

Westfield had five base runners total and made the Millers work for the win after an error supplied its lone run in the top of the fifth, cutting the margin 10-1.

The Shamrocks delayed the Millers' initial run-rule attempt as Emily Revercomb muscled a single up the middle to start the top of the fifth.

A Caroline Maymon one-out single put two runners on base, while a passed ball advanced both into scoring position. A two-out error on a Regan Oland contact swing scored courtesy runner Maddie Hunter from third.

In the bottom half, White closed it out with a two-out base hit.

"That was kind of our game plan. We knew we could play a little small ball and move runners and be quick. Their pitcher is fantastic though, and it's hard to do those kinds of things against her, but we could have knelt down. But we fought," Westfield head coach Brian Revercomb said. "I thought they did a great job and fought to get that one run."

Westfield concludes the season with a record of 9-16 despite contending with the loss of several starters due to injuries.

They will graduate five seniors, including Ashley Swartout, a Trine recruit, who ended the year hitting .533 with 41 RBI and 11 home runs – all three led the Hoosier Crossroads Conference.

In her career, Swartout clubbed 25 home runs, drove in 115 RBI and recorded 115 hits with a .421 batting average.

"Our program is getting there. These kids worked 11 months out of the year. Where we're at today from three years ago, I couldn't be more proud of a group of 36 kids," Revercomb said. "Ashley Swartout is the kind of kid everyone should want on their team. She's a leader. She knows the game, and she's a smart kid. She's got so much ahead of her."

'Blazers drop opener to Covenant Christian

University finished its season on Monday after falling to Covenant Christian 12-2 in the first round of the Bethesda Christian sectional.

The Trailblazers had an excellent season with their best record in program history at 7-10. Throughout the season, the Trailblazers scored 117 runs, had three home runs, seven triples, 107 RBIs, and pitched 139 strikeouts.

through six innings.

The sophomore ace responded after each setback, retiring five in a row after Mays' run-scoring hit in the first and four more after her home run.

The right-hander left three Tigers stranded in the bottom of the fifth as Fishers loaded the bases twice. Guillian induced a popup in foul territory for the second out and struck out Jade Frye, a .375 hitter, to end the threat.

"I thought we could take that momentum, getting out of that mess, and we didn't take advantage," Cook said. "We only had six hits, and we're a pretty good hitting team up and down the lineup. We got a little impatient. It wasn't our night. It wasn't the way we wanted it to end."

The Royals won the Hoosier Crossroads Conference title outright this year with a perfect 6-0 record. Fishers was fifth in the final HCC standings.

"This is a really great group of athletes, who has learned to work together," Langan-Puckett said. "I'm even more excited for Noblesville. They were our first conference game of the season and we got rocked. That game was not pretty, but just like HSE, the team that played them back then is not the team we have on the field right now. I think it's going to be a brand new game."

Huskies fall to Yorktown

Hamilton Heights' season came to an end on Tuesday, with the Huskies falling to Class 3A No. 3 Yorktown in the first round of the Heights sectional.

The Tigers scored their run in the second inning. Jessica Kaurich went 2-for-2 at the plate. Huskies coach Landi Lockwood said pitcher Adyson Baber "threw her best game of the season." Heights also played well defensively.

"We played a really good game on defense tonight but just fell short at the plate," said Lockwood. "We had a couple of opportunities with runners in scoring position but just couldn't get that breakout moment we needed."

"I'm really proud of this team for fighting until the last out of the game. We were very young this season starting six underclassmen. They learned a lot, progressed a lot and have great potential to build off of what they accomplished."

UHS baseball wins regular-season finale

University won its regular-season finale on Monday, beating Seccina 12-6.

The Trailblazers led from the start, scoring four runs in the top of the first inning. Dawson Estep got the first run, after Garrett Hill reached on error. Brock Moore's base hit to left field sent Hill home. Later, Asher Thompson smacked a center field double to score Ben Ewer and Tyler Galyean.

Ewer hit a second-inning single to get Hill in for his second run of the game. In the third inning, Estep's sacrifice fly scored Thompson, then Hill doubled in Ryan Williams.

Ewer scored again in the fourth inning on an error, then Galyean's right field single got Cade Carlson home. In the fifth inning, Estep singled in Williams, then Moore's double got Estep home. Ewer scored on a Galyean single in the seventh inning; it was Ewer's third run of the day.

Hill and Galyean both had three hits, while Moore, Ewer and Carlson all had two. Moore pitched four innings for the win.

University finished the regular season 23-5 and will host Bethesda Christian on Thursday in a sectional semi-final game at RoundTripper Academy.

Royals, 'Hounds tennis advance to regional finals

The Hamilton Southeastern girls tennis team advanced to the regional championship match with a 5-0 win over Lawrence North in Tuesday's semi-finals at North Central's Barbara Wynne Tennis Center.

The No. 8-ranked Royals won all five matches in straight sets. That included a 6-0, 6-0 victory for Tea Vrkic at No. 3 singles.

"Tea is really starting to find her groove since coming back from her injury," said HSE coach Kirk Webber. "She's playing very smart tennis and constructing some great points."

No. 1 singles Audrey De Witt and No. 2 singles Ashley Spurrison both had 10 winners in their matches, while Vrkic made 14 winners, seven of them at the net. The No. 2 doubles team of Nikki Hite and Jillian Pence won 6-3, 7-6, with the tie-breaker going to 7-3. Both players had eight volley winners in the match.

"I think our experience in our 10 previous tiebreakers might have helped us through this one," said Webber. Georgia Templin and Taylor Cleary easily won at No. 1 doubles.

Southeastern is now 15-4 and will play No. 2 Cathedral at 4:30 p.m. today for the regional title.
