Brendan Carr (right) a Federal Communications Commissioner, toured Fishers' Internet of Things (IoT) Lab on Tuesday. He also looked at the small cell towers in Fishers. Earlier, Carr appeared at the Indiana Statehouse to talk about how local officials are preparing the area for the implementation of a 5G wireless network, which will speed up cell phone and other wireless connections. Carr spoke with John Wechsler (left) and Fishers Mayor Scott Fadness (center) at the IoT Lab.

'Let's Make History' with the Levinson

At the meeting of the Noblesville Common Council on Aug. 28, I was proud to introduce the proposed mixed-use project on Maple Avenue known as the Levinson that would add new apartments, commercial retail and structured parking to downtown.

Fishers mom spearheads Memory Café at Conner Prairie

Jean Ross is the kind of person who jumps out of bed each morning ready to change the world. When she sees a problem, she looks for solutions. Even though Ross is a nurse, owns her own business, and is the mother of three boys ages 10, 8 and 5, she wanted to do something to help seniors.

Ross

It all began after reading a study that showed Indiana didn't rank very high in taking care of its seniors, so she signed up to become a volunteer at CICOA Aging & In-Home Solutions to see if she could help. She's not only helping, she's making a real difference.

Noblesville National Night Out rescheduled

The REPORTER

The Noblesville Police Department has rescheduled its National Night Out event for 5 to 7 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 12 at Federal Hill Commons, 175 Logan St. The original date in August was postponed due to inclement weather.

"This is our second year for our National Night Out and we had a great turnout last year," said Sgt. Matt McGovern, event organizer. "Children are often interested about police work and this is a great way for kids to see who we are and interact with the vehicles we use. It's also a great opportunity for adults to ask questions and find out what services we provide."

Guests at this year's event can learn about crime scene evidence collection and crime prevention information, experience the "drunk goggles," watch a K9 demonstration, take and fill out a Child ID kit, and see the department's boat, bicycle, motorcycle and SWAT vehicles. New to this year's event are several activities for children including inflatables, a Dunk-A-Cop dunk tank and a Race-A-Cop tricycle race. Free hot dogs, popcorn and water will be available while supplies last.

"This event provides a great opportunity to bring police and residents together under positive circumstances," said Noblesville Police Chief Kevin Jowitt. "The safety of our community depends on both law enforcement and the neighbors they serve. National Night Out enhances that cooperation."

LEVINSON

Cities throughout Indiana are leveraging the demand from people young and old who want to live and work in urban, walkable areas like ours that are accessible to attractive amenities such as restaurants, coffee shops, retail stores, service providers, entertainment venues and other cultural hotspots.

Fortunately, Noblesville already has these amenities in addition to the small-town charm and historic architecture that other cities are trying to emulate. But while imitation is the sincerest form of flattery, we can't rest on our laurels.

A major goal of the Mayor's has been to attract more residents to downtown with a housing type that's missing from our community. The Levinson's 83 apartment units will create greater density with people who will support our businesses on the square and help jumpstart a nighttime culture that's as vibrant as what we see in Noblesville during the day.

We certainly don't need to look to other cities to figure out we also need greater parking capacity. Just ask the Downtown Parking Taskforce. Since 2015, volunteers have spent hours examining current conditions, conducting public outreach and discussing best practices in parking management and technology.

I've personally talked with downtown business owners who are considering leaving due to this single issue. They simply cannot grow without more parking. And I know of other businesses that we failed to attract for the same problem.

Let's stop talking about the parking problem and do something about a parking solution.

That's why, as proposed by Rebar Development, the Levinson will have 337 total parking spaces. Approximately 50 to 100 will be reserved for apartment residents, leaving at least 237 spaces for public use by permit holders and hourly visitors – a net gain of 167 spaces above the 70 spaces of the current surface lot.

By approving the Levinson, members of the 2018 Noblesville Common Council will have made history by effectively ending the parking debate once and for all.

Speaking of history, I know some residents are worried about the impact of this project on our downtown and the quaint charm that defines Noblesville. We believe the Levinson is the right project in the right location to strengthen our downtown and add to its vibrancy. However, we also have to achieve the right look.

While we remain excited about the initial rendering, we are confident in Rebar's ability to gather public input and incorporate even more of the history and architecture of the existing downtown – without creating a Frankenstein of design that tries to please everyone.

As the Mayor has said, sometimes you need to make history as well as preserve it. And in the case of the Levinson, building the first new downtown apartments in 100 years that complement and strengthen the historic square, we can do both – while finally putting to rest the debate about parking.

Let's make history.

Learn about 'all things safety' in Fishers Saturday

The REPORTER

Fishers Fire Department and St. Vincent Hospital Fishers have once again partnered to bring "All Things Safety" to the Fishers Community. From 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. this Saturday, Sept. 8, over 60 vendors and emergency responders will set up on the St. Vincent parking lot at 13861 Olio Road, exit 210 off Interstate 69.

This free event will have safety messaging and handouts for all ages covering fire safety, back safety, helmet safety, texting and driving, CPR, self-defense, animal safety, mental health, burns, fall prevention and much more.

Indiana Diaper will perform car seat inspections for kids, Stat Flight helicopter will land and give tours of their air medical transport, kids can get fingerprinted, the Fishers Fire Department will do car extrication demonstrations, and local schools will perform with their choir and strings orchestra. While supplies last, there will be bicycle helmet giveaways and fittings, face painting, a jump house, an appearance by Blue and Kasey the Firedog will be on hand to teach safety as well.

New this year is a diaper donation event for Indiana

Diaper. Indiana Diaper will accept new diapers to distribute to Indiana families in need. All sizes are welcome, and as every parent knows, babies go through a lot of diapers. Grab a package, bring it with you and help a baby out.

This will be the second year of "Taste of 210" where area restaurants will hand out free samples of their food. Every 30 minutes, a new vendor will hand out samples while supplies last. This is a very exciting and fun event for the community that helps assure having the information for kids, parents and adults to make informed decisions about their daily lives.

Fire Chief Steven Orusa said, "Life experience can be guided in a preventative measure to assure the safety and well-being of our community. This is a family event that allows the family to learn together, interact with our emergency responders and make safer choices in their day to day activities."

This will be a rain or shine event. However, if the weather becomes dangerous, the event may be canceled for the safety of the community as well as countless volunteers and responders.

MEMORY

“With Jean’s involvement, our communities are literally improving before our eyes. I don’t take her role in that for granted for one second,” said Dustin Zeigler, CICOA’s director of community programs.

While Ross has been a volunteer less than a year, she spearheaded efforts to start a Memory Café at Conner Prairie this summer. It’s part of a partnership between the museum and CICOA-led Dementia Friends Indiana movement, which is working to break down stigmas and make it easier for those with dementia to engage in the community. Ross also has helped train Conner Prairie staff about dementia, and the museum will have maps and more signage to highlight areas with resting benches and quiet spots, thanks to Ross.

Memory Café is a series of 90-minute programs offering people with dementia and their loved ones a safe place to get out of the house and get engaged. This summer, about two dozen people with dementia and their loved ones explored 19th century artifacts. Guests for the Oct. 15 Memory Café will make cornbread, churn butter and dip beeswax candles.

“Memory Café brings people together once a month where they can hang out, be themselves, have a fun activity and connect with other people,” Ross said. “The museum is so cool to do this. There are a thousand different programs we can do – storytellers, World War II, music programs. The sky is the limit.”

As a nurse and owner of Kaybee, where she helps caregivers navigate care for aging family members, Ross has seen first-hand the challenges associated with dementia. Too often people with dementia become isolated, because of fear of how they may be treated or misunderstood when they are in public. As a volunteer for CICOA and its Dementia Friends Indiana movement, Ross wants to look for more opportunities to make people more aware of how to respond, treat and engage with people who have dementia.

To recognize her efforts, CICOA recently presented Ross with its annual Spirit Award, which honors the contributions of a volunteer who has made a long-term commitment to the mission of CICOA and the people it serves.

Ross said her goal is to give back and utilize her nursing background and perspectives to help make an impact in the community. In addition to volunteering for CICOA, Ross also is a volunteer advocate with The Center for At Risk Elders, board chairwoman for Indiana Community Health Worker Association, and vice president of Indiana Nurses Foundation.

INDOT repairing culvert, bridge

The Indiana Department of Transportation has announced a culvert replacement on State Road 13 in Hamilton County and a bridge replacement project on State Road 38 in Madison County. Both projects will require road closures to complete the work.

Crews have plans to replace a culvert on SR 13 between Strawtown Avenue and East 226th Street, north of Lapel. SR 13 will be closed for up to 20 days to replace the culvert. The official detour for this project will be State Road 37 south to State Road 32, then east back to SR 13. Specific dates will be announced after a project schedule is submitted by contractors.

Crews will replace a bridge on SR 38 over Mud Creek between SR 32 and SR 13 in Madison County, west of Clarksville. SR 38 will be closed for up to 90 days for the bridge replacement. Traffic will detoured via SR 13, SR 32 and SR 38 to get around the closure.

Help end lupus, walk downtown Indianapolis

The REPORTER

The 12th Annual Indianapolis 2018 Walk to End Lupus Now™ presented by the Lupus Foundation of America, Indiana Chapter is scheduled for Saturday, Sept. 29 at Historic Military Park and Downtown Canal Walk. This familiar venue is centrally-located, with free parking this year offered by IUPUI Parking Services. Sponsors of this year's WTELN include Eli Lilly, Duke Energy and Kroger.

Lindsey Monroe, WTHR meteorologist, will emcee the event. In addition, DJ Rusty Redenbacher of Mudkids will provide the soundtrack for the day, and Andre "The Beast" Crayton will lead the warm up before the Walk begins at noon.

Hot dogs, brats, popcorn, chips, slushies and lupus merchandise will be available to purchase. Exhibitors are also welcomed this year to share products and services with more than 1,000 walkers. The Kid Zone will be a blast as children enjoy the bounce house and face-painting. Walkers can stroll the one-mile route or walk the three-mile route along the canal and alongside the many cultural attractions of downtown Indianapolis.

The purpose of this event is to raise money for lupus research, increase awareness of lupus and rally public support for those who suffer the brutal impact of this chronic, autoimmune disease. There is no fee to walk this year; however, participants are encouraged to register and fundraise early to receive their fundraising T-shirt on Walk day.

Check-in and day-of registration for the Walk begins at 10:30 a.m. followed by the Walk scheduled for noon. Each individual who raises at least $100 or more earns a 2018 commemorative Walk to End Lupus Now™ T-shirt.

The Lupus Foundation of America estimates that 1.5 million Americans and 36,000 Hoosiers have a form of lupus. Although lupus can strike men and women of all ages, 90 percent of individuals diagnosed with the disease are women. Most people develop lupus between the ages of 15 and 44. Moreover, two out of three lupus patients reported a complete or partial loss of their income because they are no longer able to work full time due to complications of lupus.

For more information on the Indianapolis Walk, becoming a sponsor, walker, exhibitor, or volunteer, visit lupusindiana.org.

About the Lupus Foundation of America, Indiana Chapter

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

And they went out, and preached that men should repent. And they cast out many devils, and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them. And king Herod heard of him; (for his name was spread abroad:) and he said, That John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him. Others said, That it is Elias. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets. But when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.

Girls soccer

Royals win Mudsock, move to 4-0 in HCC

Mudsock week continued Wednesday night with girls soccer, and although it was another tense battle, an early score gave Hamilton Southeastern the victory.

The Class 3A No. 1 Royals beat 3A No. 9 Fishers 1-0 in front of another large crowd at the HSE field. With the win, Southeastern moved ahead in the overall sports point standings, 3.5-2.5. (Tuesday's boys soccer game finished in a 1-1 tie, thus the half-point). Also, the Royals remain perfect in the Hoosier Crossroads Conference at 4-0.

The Royals' goal came seven minutes into the game, when Ava Keaffaber made a steal and kicked the ball into the upper 90. Southeastern maintained control of the game for the first half and then for most of the second half as well, stopped only by a lightning delay that extended halftime to 45 minutes.

"We moved the ball well," said Royals coach Greg Davidson. "We penetrated their midfield very well. They're a great defensive team, very organized, so our shot selection just was a little off."

Southeastern is now 7-1-1 overall. Fishers is 2-2 in HCC play and 4-2 overall.

In another big HCC game, 3A No. 2 Noblesville and Westfield played to a 0-0 tie at the Millers' White River Elementary School field.

With the tie, both teams are now 2-0-1 in conference play and share second place in the HCC standings. Noblesville is 5-1-2 overall, while the Shamrocks are 3-4-1.

University defeated International 6-0, clinching an undefeated Pioneer Conference championship.

Lily Snyder scored three goals for the 1A No. 12 Trailblazers, with Arya Narayanan, Lucy Snyder and Halle Von Ah all scoring one. Von Ah handed out three assists, with Tessa Hudson making two and Audrey Blocksom one.

University finished conference play with a 4-0 record. The Trailblazers have a 5-3 record overall.

The seniors of the Hamilton Southeastern girls soccer team show off the Mudsock trophy after the Royals beat Fishers 1-0 Wednesday night. The win also gives HSE a 4-0 record in the Hoosier Crossroads Conference.

Carmel, ranked No. 4 in 3A, improved its Metropolitan Conference record to 4-0 with a 2-0 win over Lawrence Central on Wednesday.

Emily Roper scored both goals for the Greyhounds. Erin Baker made one save.

"Emily Roper had a great game tonight scoring a brace against Lawrence Central," said Carmel coach Frank Dixon. "Both scores came off corner kicks served by Jessica Greven."

Carmel is 7-1-1 overall and hosts another MIC game Monday against North Central.

Football previews

Mudsock game, Millers-'Rocks are big Week 4 rivalry games

There is always so much at stake whenever a Mudsock trophy is up for grabs, and that will be especially true for this year's Fishers and Hamilton Southeastern football teams.

The two teams will meet Friday night at Southeastern for the 18th time. Last year, the Tigers beat the Royals both times they played each other. First was a 20-14 victory in Week 4 of the season, then Fishers triumphed 9-6 in a bitterly cold sectional semi-final.

Both teams will come into the season with 1-2 records. The Tigers defeated Pike 31-14 in their Week 2 contest; that came in between a 31-7 loss to North Central in Fishers' opener, then Noblesville beat the Tigers 21-9 last week.

Southeastern started its season with a dramatic 21-20 win over Lawrence Central at Lucas Oil Stadium, but then fell to North Central 31-13 in Week 2 and lost to Avon 29-6 last week. This means that both teams started out Hoosier Crossroads Conference play 0-1, so that puts added emphasis on this game as well.

Senior HL Lewis has been a leader on the ground for Fishers. Already Lewis has run for 328 yards in 57 carries, including three touchdowns. Another senior, Mason McCartney, has caught two touchdown passes, and overall has six catches for 75 yards. Junior Geoffrey Brown leads the defense with 27 total tackles (21 solo, six assists, five for a loss).

The Royals played well in a difficult assignment against Avon, which is ranked No. 2 in Class 6A, behind only unanimous No. 1 Warren Central. Matt Harris scored HSE's touchdown, a 36-yard run in a fourth-and-1 situation. Manny Daniels caught an interception, Crae Kunkleman made a sack and forced a fumble, Ben Boysen had 11 receptions for 73 yards, and Mitch Hebenstreit punted the ball seven times for an average of 44 yards, with his longest punt 68 yards.

WESTFIELD-NOBLESVILLE

Another big rivalry game featuring two Hamilton County teams is on tap for Friday, as Westfield travels to Noblesville for a 7 p.m. kickoff. The two teams played a close game last season, with the Shamrocks winning 30-26.

The 'Rocks will enter the new Beaver Materials Field with a 2-1 record. Westfield beat Harrison 28-16 in its opener, then took care of Zionsville 41-28 in its Hoosier Crossroads Conference opener last week. The Shamrocks have only lost to Decatur Central 35-21; the Hawks moved up to No. 2 in this week's 5A poll. (Zionsville is No. 10 in 5A).

The Millers had to absorb losses against two of the state's best teams in its first two games. Noblesville fell to Cathedral (this week ranked third in 5A) 31-7 at Lucas Oil Stadium in its opener, then dropped a rivalry game to Carmel (No. 5 in 6A) 34-7. But the Millers rebounded to beat Fishers 21-9, giving them a big win to open HCC play.

Junior quarterback Camden Simons has done well for Westfield, with a 58.2 percent completion rate (39-of-67) and 444 yards. Another junior, Eli Patchett, is already at 200 yards rushing and three touchdowns in 34 carries. Senior Nathan Nguyen, who was out injured last week, has 177 yards and one touchdown to his credit. Senior Colin Caldwell is up to 22 tackles on defense (12 solo and 10 assists).

Senior Luke Blevins is off to a good start on the ground, with 191 yards in 29 carries and a touchdown. Senior quarterback Grant Gremel has thrown for 257 yards and two TDs. Noblesville's defense has been tough, with eight players already at 20 tackles or more. Jacob Hamm leads with 42 total tackles (17 solo and 25 assists), with senior Eddie Dziennik next in line with 28 stops (19 solo and nine assists). Dziennik and senior Dalton Davis both have four tackles for a loss.

CARMEL-PIKE

Carmel will look for its first Metropolitan Conference win of the season on Friday when it welcomes Pike to Carmel Stadium for a 7 p.m. kickoff.

The Red Devils are 1-2, starting with a season-opening victory over Zionsville 27-19. Pike then lost to Fishers 31-14 and Ben Davis 40-19 in its MIC opener. Clauson organ recipients to serve as Driven2SaveLives BC39 grand marshals

The inaugural Driven2SaveLives BC39 presented by NOS Energy Drink will have a fitting pair of honorary race starters in a celebration of the life and legacy of late race car driver and event namesake Bryan Clauson.

Dan Alexander and Dan Gerdes, two Nebraska residents who received life-saving organ donations from Clauson, will serve as grand marshals of the event and wave the green flag on the 39-lap USAC P1 Insurance National Midget Championship feature Thursday, Sept. 6 at The Dirt Track at IMS.

The race on the new, quarter-mile clay oval inside Turn 3 of the famed IMS asphalt oval honors late USAC champion and three-time Indianapolis 500 starter Clauson and increases awareness of the Indiana Donor Network and its Driven2SaveLives campaign. A USAC-record 118 Midget cars are entered.

"Seeing both Dan Alexander and Dan Gerdes wave the green to start this historic race will provide an emotional and worthy tribute in Bryan's honor," Indianapolis Motor Speedway President J. Douglas Boles said. "So many members of this record-breaking field knew Bryan well, and they'll be racing with extra passion and inspiration on Thursday night after such a moving celebration of his living legacy."

Alexander, a 65-year old resident of Papillion, Nebraska, received Clauson's heart. Gerdes, a 29-year-old resident of Auburn, Nebraska, received Clauson's lungs. Clauson passed away following injuries sustained in a Midget car crash in 2016, but he saved five lives through organ donation and healed up to 75 people through tissue donation.

Clauson's family works tirelessly in support of Driven2SaveLives, a grassroots effort among the racing community to support increased organ, tissue and eye donor registration. Indiana Donor Network and Verizon INDYCAR Series driver Stefan Wilson launched the campaign in April 2016 following the death of his brother and fellow INDYCAR driver Justin Wilson. Today, the campaign honors both Wilson and Clauson. To register to become an organ and tissue donor or to learn more, visit the following website: <https://driven2savelives.org/>.

Clauson was one of the most popular USAC racers in history and also climbed to the Indianapolis 500. He raced in the 2012, 2015 and 2016 Indy 500's, leading laps in the 100th Running of "The Greatest Spectacle in Racing" in 2016. He was a three-time USAC

National Midget Series Champion, two-time USAC National Sprint Car Champion and three-time USAC National Drivers Champion. He also won the 2014 Chili Bowl and was elected into the National Sprint Car Hall of Fame in 2018.

Tickets for both nights of the Driven2SaveLives BC39 presented by NOS Energy Drink are on sale now at IMS.com.
