Noblesville Parks volunteers for Good Samaritan Network

Photo provided

The Noblesville Parks and Recreation Department recently spent a morning at the Hamilton County Fairgrounds volunteering for a local non-profit and giving back to the community. In addition to learning more about Good Samaritan Network, parks staff helped sort through clothes, shoes, toys and other items that were donated to the charity. Plans for the community day began at a department meeting where the staff voted on the type of service they would like to be part of. From there plans took off and a connection with Good Samaritan Network was formed. (Above, from left) Erin Portman, Nichole Haberlin-Medaris, Amber Mink and Kevin Conner.

Carmel, Fishers police departments to get body cameras

By JENNY DREASLER
WISH-TV | wishtv.com

Body cameras are coming to two major Hamilton County police departments.

The Carmel and Fishers departments plan to equip their officers with body cameras by 2019.

It's all part of an effort to catch up with the times when it comes to technology.

"It holds police officers accountable, along with the public," said Carmel Lt. Joe Bickel. "Because any time that you are recording someone, video recording, their behavior will probably change a little bit. It will probably be better than it normally would have been."

Bickel

Bickel said Carmel will spend $1.3 million to buy 113 body cameras as well as 90 new replacement in-car cameras for police squad cars.

It's a new addition Bickel said will be pivotal in policing, as the new cameras have the technology to sync up with already in-place squad car dash cams. Bickel said Carmel has had cameras in squad cars since 1996.

He said the ability to use technology in unison will give Carmel police multiple angles of video and audio.

"We want to be able to record the camera from inside the patrol car, as well as the body mic that's on the patrol officer," Bickel said.

With the ability for anything to go viral, Bickel said, the video "caught on camera"

Arrowood presents Hamilton Heights State of the Schools

The REPORTER

The September luncheon meeting of the Northern Hamilton County Chamber of Commerce, conducted at Hamilton Heights High School's Anthony "Tony" Cook Media Center, featured a behind-the-scenes look at how Hamilton Heights School Corporation is transforming its learning environment, creating more opportunities for student achievement, and how the collaboration between the corporation and community engagement impacts student success.

Dr. Arrowood, who has been at the helm of the corporation for the past five years, is passionate about Heights, its students, faculty and staff.

Long viewed as a "best kept secret" in Hamilton County, Dr. Arrowood and his leadership team have set out to change that.

"We want people to know as much and be as enthusiastic about the corporation as we are," said Dr. Arrowood, a graduate of Hamilton Heights, who is also a parent to one Heights graduate and a current student.

Carol Sergi named new marketing director at Hamilton County Economic Development

The REPORTER

Carol Sergi, a veteran marketing professional with experience promoting the state and local media organizations, will lead marketing efforts on behalf of Hamilton County Economic Development Corporation (HCEDC). This new role will be responsible for developing integrated marketing, web content and promotional strategies to position Hamilton County as "a great place to work, learn, live and invest."

The position was created after the county's economic development leadership group voted in July to shift its focus to marketing initiatives — such as attracting skilled workers to the area — and away from traditional economic development initiatives which are now handled by the four cities within the county. Sergi will be the face and point-of-contact for investment marketing in Hamilton County and will work closely with local economic development, chamber, workforce development and community engagement professionals.

For the past five years, Sergi has been the director of marketing for the Indiana Accompanying Dr. Arrowood to the meeting were Public Affairs/Media Relations Officer Peggy Georgi, Hamilton Heights Educational Foundation President Melissa Martin, Primary School Media Center Specialist Karen Jones, Middle School Media Center Specialist Emily Beechler, and High School Industrial Technology and PLTW teacher Eric Fisher.

Georgi's role is to help give Heights more visibility and help keep district residents connected and engaged with the corporation. Working closely with Heights leadership, educators and staff, she is spearheading a Community Engagement Focus task force designed to help spread the word about the many great things taking place at Hamilton Heights and foster more collaborative partnerships.

Martin shared with the group the role and function of the Heights Education Foundation, which has been investing in the future of Heights students for three decades. She shared recent projects funded through the Foundation and the impact on student learning.

Jones brought three students, one representing each grade level (kindergarten, first and second), to demonstrate their introduction to beginning computer programming skills through the building's STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math) Lab. Foundation money help purchase tools to help change the way kids collaborate, create, think critically and communicate.

Beecher and her daughters, both in middle school, shared the success and impact of the new community bookmobile launched this summer. The bookmobile was well-received with over 500 books checked by both students and adults who don't have access to books during the summer. She credits a strong team effort and a Foundation grant for bringing the bookmobile to reality.

Fisher brought several of his students to share a live demonstration on the capabilities of drone technology. The presentation also served as a real time exercise in preparation, teamwork, preparation, skill mastery and public speaking in which the students proved successful from beginning to end. The new drones, which also received funding from the Foundation, are being used in architecture, CAD, Civil Engineering and Digital Photography classes at the high school.

Arrowood credits great kids, outstanding educators, involved parents and a supportive community that continues to make Heights a school of choice and draw to the community. This year marks another record year of transfer-in students, which Arrowood noted is a direct result of a corporation that offers great value, opportunity and challenge.

Arrowood summed up that he is excited about the future of the corporation. "We are in good shape from our financial health to student performance ... investments in student learning, staff development, facilities, safety and programming."

Northern Hamilton County Chamber of Commerce President Wade Wiley agreed. Wiley, who works in the community, moved his family to the Heights district, a place he now calls home.

will also help shed light on situations that could have been controversial.

"It's also protecting the officers from any false allegations of misconduct," Bickel said. "Because we do get citizens' complaints. One thing to help resolve that or to see what exactly maybe occurred is we look at the in car camera. Now that we'll have body mics interfaced with our in car cameras, we'll be able to see what's going on no matter where the officer is."

The Reporter recently published an article that announced Fishers Police Department will be adding 100 body cameras to its toolbox as well.

Like Carmel, the body cameras will be a first for the department.

"Any time that we can have quick access to real time accurate video of an incident that will always assist our officers as they continue to safely and effectively resolve any situation," said Sgt. Tom Weger.

Weger said the Fishers Police Department is still narrowing down the cameras between two vendors and how to pay for them.

"Our officers are assessing many different aspects of the individual companies and the technology that they offer," Weger said. "From everything to how user-friendly it is to how wearable it is, and then to overall what the capabilities are and how well it will interface with our current technology."

Both departments plan to use the cameras for anything from evidence support to training purposes.

With the new devices in place, both Carmel and Fishers hope the devices will not only help the departments keep up with technology, but better police the streets in a safer way.

"I think this is just another tool that we can have access to help us do our job more safely and effectively," Weger said.

Carmel expects to have body cameras in place by January 2019. Fishers hopes to have body cameras ready to go by September 2019.

"Carol brings an understanding of how marketing, government and economic development work together," said Tom Dickey, HCEDC board president. "We are thrilled to have someone with her broad skill sets leading this new initiative."

Sergi, a Fishers resident, serves on several local community boards including the marketing boards for Downtown Indy and the Indiana Historical Society and the organizing committee for the FFA Convention.

"I look forward to listening to the county's community leaders to understand where the areas of critical need are," said Sergi. "I also am delighted to be working alongside the talented marketing team at Hamilton County Tourism (HCT) and see so many synergies in this new initiative."

Firefighters raise $21K for Fill the Boot campaign

The REPORTER

During the 2018 MDA Fill the Boot campaign, the dedicated members of the Hamilton County Professional Fire Fighters IAFF Local 4416 took to the streets to help kids and adults with muscular dystrophy, ALS and related life-threatening diseases live longer and grow stronger. Through Labor Day Weekend, $21,152 was raised to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA).

"The firefighters of Hamilton County Professional Fire Fighters IAFF Local 4416 have once again shown their immense dedication and care for MDA's families during this year's Fill the Boot campaign," said Executive Director Kelsey Buettner. "This year's Fill the Boot was a success and we are grateful for the generosity of those in the Hamilton County community who have helped individuals with muscular dystrophy, ALS and related muscle-debilitating diseases truly live unlimited."

Tony Murray, President of Hamilton County

Professional Fire Fighters IAFF Local 4416, said, "Our members believe in the importance of these efforts, the cause that it serves and the people that are affected."

Firefighters have taken part in MDA's Fill the Boot tradition for more than 60 years, hitting the streets or storefronts asking pedestrians, motorists, customers and other passersby to make a donation to MDA, joining the fight to find treatments and cures for devastating diseases that take away everyday abilities like walking, talking, hugging and even breathing.

Funds raised help MDA's efforts to fund groundbreaking research and life-enhancing programs such as state-of-the-art support groups and Care Centers, including the MDA Care Center at the Neuroscience Center at IU Health and Riley's Children's Hospital in Indianapolis. They also help send more than 92 kids to "the best week of the year" at MDA Summer Camp at no cost to their families at Bradford Woods in Martinsville, Ind.

Several Hamilton County firefighters participated in this year's Fill the Boot campaign, including: John Huseman, Noblesville; Zack Flowers, Noblesville; Chris McClure, Noblesville; Tony Murray, Hamilton County Professional Fire Fighters IAFF Local 4416 President; Chet Mills, Westfield; Kevin Livingston, Noblesville; Jason Maners, MDA Coordinator for Hamilton County Professional Fire Fighters IAFF Local 4416; Gary Biggs, Westfield; Scott Wolfe, Westfield; Jeff Stephenson, Fishers; Michael Durall, Noblesville; and David Holloway, Noblesville.

MDA and IAFF Partnership

As MDA's largest national partner, the IAFF fuels MDA's mission to find research breakthroughs across diseases, care for kids and adults from day one and provide families with services and support. IAFF's support for MDA began in 1954 when the organization committed by proclamation to support MDA until a cure is found, and the organization's unwavering commitment to MDA has remained strong to this day. In 2017, more than 100,000 firefighters participated in Fill the Boot events across the country and raised more than $24 million. To date the IAFF has raised more than $630 million for MDA.

About the IAFF

The International Association of Fire Fighters represents more than 300,000 professional firefighters and paramedics who protect 85 percent of the nation's population. More than 3,200 affiliates and their members protect communities in every state in the United States and in Canada.

About MDA

MDA is leading the fight to free individuals – and the families who love them – from the harm of muscular dystrophy, ALS and related muscle-debilitating diseases that take away physical strength, independence and life. MDA uses its collective strength to help kids and adults live longer and grow stronger by finding research breakthroughs across diseases, caring for individuals from day one and empowering families with services and support in hometowns across America. # David Leyda to run for Noblesville School Board

The REPORTER

David Leyda, local business professional, community leader, husband and father of three boys, announced this week he is running for one of two open seats on the Noblesville School Board.

"My family has lived in Noblesville for 20 years," said Leyda. "My oldest son is a graduate from Noblesville High School, my middle son is a senior at NHS and my youngest son is an eighth grader at Noblesville West Middle School. My entire family is extremely proud of our community and our schools."

Leyda continued, "Just recently having served as President of Noblesville Youth Baseball, I have a strong desire to continue to serve my community and I care deeply about the youth of Noblesville and ensuring their success toward becoming our future leaders."

Leyda is running on a platform of safety and security, technology and fiscal responsibility.

"I have a unique experience involving the tragic event of May 25 and to me, safety and security are more than just buzzwords. We must never fail in ensuring our kids have a safe and secure learning environment," said Leyda. "There are processes and technologies the Board must consider that will help to prevent the next potential tragedy."

"As an IT Professional, I have a vested interest in the responsible use of technology. Technology is pervasive in our society today and kids start using it at an earlier and earlier age each year. The Board must continually evolve strategic plans that enable students to successfully utilize technology as a learning aid," added Leyda. "In addition, we must manage and monitor the use of technology, especially how it relates to social networking and cyberbullying to ensure kids are comfortable with the tools and devices they are provided."

"Fiscal responsibility is one of the keystones of any successful company. A school corporation is no different. We must continue to practice wise budgeting, expense control and timely communications with the taxpayers," said Leyda. "The state continues to cut funding, which leads to the need to seek out funding through referendums and other creative methods. My experience in business and with successfully running Noblesville Youth Baseball, as a non-profit, positions me well to seek out opportunities to continue to be fiscally responsible while maintaining successful education."

Leyda is Director of Delivery Management for Microsoft Corporation. He has a Bachelor of Science in engineering ('94 CIMT) from Purdue University. He is Media Director at Family Worship Center in Kokomo.

You can find more information or ask questions on Leyda's Facebook page.

Cybercriminals targeting direct deposit accounts, FBI says

WISH-TV | wishtv.com

Cybercriminals are targeting employee payroll direct deposit accounts through phishing emails to change bank account information, according to an alert from the FBI.

The alert said the FBI's Internet Crime Complaint Center (IC3) had received reports of emails designed to capture an employee's login credentials, which are then used both to change to redirect funds to accounts controlled by the criminal and to keep the victim from being alerted to the account change.

Education, health care and commercial airway transportation were the most affected industries, according to the alert.

The FBI recommends employers and employees do the following:

Let your workforce know about the payroll phishing scheme and provide preventative and reactive strategies.

Employees should use their computer mouse to hover over any hyperlinks included in an email so they can see the actual URL and ensure it is related to the company it claims to be.

- Employees should avoid providing login credentials or identifying information in response to any email.

- Employers should ask employees to forward suspicious email to information technology or human resources.

- Employees should ensure payroll credentials are different from login information used for other purposes.

- Employers should apply heightened scrutiny to employee changes or updates to direct deposit information or logins that occur outside normal business hours.

- Employers should restrict access to the internet on systems handling sensitive information or implement two-factor authentication.

The FBI encourages victims to report information concerning suspicious or criminal activity to their local FBI field office, and file a complaint with the IC3 here. If your complaint pertains to this particular scheme, note payroll diversion in the body of the complaint.

Company will pay up to $1K a day to taste test pizza from home

WISH-TV | wishtv.com

One company is offering people up to $1,000 a day to sit at home and taste test pizza.

According to CNBC, pizza oven company Ooni is going to pay 10 people $350 to $1,000 to be pizza taste-testers.

Ooni, the maker of wood-fired pizza ovens, is interested in "novices through to professional pizzaioli," Darina Garland, co-founder of Ooni, told

CNBC Make It.

The tasters will be expected to make their own pizzas with a variety of ingredients and provide feedback on new pizza products. Ooni will even pay for all your ingredients.

Pay depends on experience, and how much time a person spends tasting the pizzas.

According to Garland, the $300 rate would be someone who can make and stretch their own dough, but has never worked professionally in a kitchen.

The person making $1,000 would be someone who has added skill sets of making pizza, filming their baking skills and/or has worked as a cook.

To apply for the job, send a video by Oct. 14 explaining why you would be great as a pizza taste-tester.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into an house, and would have no man know it: but he could not be hid. For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet: The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter. But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs. And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs. And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter. And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

Noblesville gets big Senior Night victory

The Noblesville boys soccer team celebrated Senior Night on Thursday with a huge win over Class 3A No. 18 Lawrence Central, 3-1.

"It was great," said Millers coach Ken Dollaske, who saw his team win its fourth straight game. "We were clicking. I would say it was great for Senior Night. Our 10 seniors were really amped up for the game. We started all 10 of them. Considering it wasn't a normal starting lineup, I wasn't quite sure what to expect. They came out, brought the energy and everybody who came off the bench really fed off of that."

The Bears scored the game's first goal off a corner kick with 14:56 left in the first half. But the Millers answered a minute-and-a-half later, when freshman Spencer Holland kicked the ball into the goal from 10 yards out. That made the score 1-1, and that's what it would be at halftime.

"Our response was great," said Dollaske.

Holland got Noblesville into the lead five minutes into the second half with his second goal of the game. The Millers scored their third goal in the game's 55th minute when senior Tommy Gregory put it in from about six yards.

With the win, Noblesville improves to 8-5-1 for the season. The Millers play at 3A No. 4 Hamilton Southeastern Tuesday in a Hoosier Crossroads Conference game.

Carmel, ranked No. 15 in 3A, beat Cathedral 1-0 on Thursday.

Senior Sam Hildebrand scored the Greyhounds' goal, with junior Drew Finkam making the assist. Senior goalkeeper Brody Sullivan recorded the shutout.

"I am proud of the effort the team played with tonight," said Carmel coach Shane Schmidt. "We worked hard to preserve the shutout. Now we need to prepare for the defending MIC champions on Saturday."

The defending champion is Ben Davis, and the Greyhounds will play there on Saturday. Carmel's record is 4-1-8.

Sheridan fell to Eastern 3-0 on Thursday.

The Blackhawks played solid defense in the first half, allowing the Comets one goal before halftime. Eastern then scored two more goals in the second half. Sheridan's goalkeeper Nick Roberts made 28 saves under the Comets' attack.

The 'Hawks will host Western Boone Saturday morning.

Tigers upset No. 3 Avon, Royals beat Zionsville

The Fishers volleyball team scored an upset of Class 4A No. 3 Avon in four sets Thursday, 25-19, 25-14, 20-25, 25-20 in a Hoosier Crossroads Conference match.

The Tigers were led by their blocking, as they made 12 blocks in the match and had all six front row players get at least one block. Haley Soper collected three blocks, while Jada Allen made 2.5.

"Closing to their teammates and sealing the net allowed Fishers' defense to be at its best," said Tigers coach Steven Peek.

As for the offense, Camryn Haworth put down 12 kills on 0.346 attacking, also making seven digs and serving two aces. Audrey Haworth spiked 11 kills on 0.259 attacking, collecting eight digs and hitting three aces. Bryn Roberts added nine kills and five aces.

Senior libero Emma Rosenberg made 17 digs, while setter Rose Duffy handed out 35 assists, along with three digs, three kills and two blocks.

Fishers will play at the Martinsville

Invitational on Saturday.

Hamilton Southeastern, ranked No. 4 in 4A, also won a hard-fought, four-set match on Thursday, beating Zionsville 25-19, 27-29, 25-15, 25-21 in an HCC match.

Four Royals reached double-digit kills: Grace Hunter hit 15 kills, while Taylor Shelton had 26 digs to go along with her 13 kills. Delaney Garner and Zada Anderson both put down 13 kills as well.

Carly Mills collected 25 digs, while Lillian Leiner had 21 digs. Olivia Phillips handed out 43 assists.

"Defensively I thought we were incredibly good tonight," said HSE coach Jason Young. "The passion and effort that the kids played with was the difference in the match."

The Royals are now tied for the lead in the conference at 4-1 and are 18-5 overall.

Noblesville dropped a Hoosier Crossroads Conference match to Franklin Central on Thursday, 25-22, 20-25, 24-26, 25-20, 15-6.

Ava Nichols handed out 46 assists and collected 14 digs, while Lexie Almodovar put down 24 kills and also had 14 digs.

Sheridan fell to 2A No. 4 Lapel in straight sets on Thursday, 25-15, 25-13, 25-17.

University, Carmel win Thursday games

The University girls soccer team cruised past Western Boone 6-1 in a Thursday game.

The Class 1A No. 14 Trailblazers led 2-0 at halftime. Senior Lily Snyder scored three goals and also handed out an assist. Seniors Brooke Andrus and Halle Von Ah each got one goal, with sophomore Brooke Toombs scoring University's final goal of the game. Seniors Meredith Malott and Lucy Snyder each made one assist.

The 'Blazers also won the junior varsity game 2-0. Both goals were scored by freshmen: Ella Longoria scored from outside the 18 in the first half, then Sydney Epstein found the back of the net with a few minutes left in the game.

Carmel, ranked No. 4 in 3A, beat Brebeuf Jesuit 3-1 on Thursday at Murray Stadium.

The Greyhounds scored two goals in the first half in quick succession. Tamara Smith put in a cross from Ashley Witucki in the game's 22nd minute, then Emma Antoine finished a shot in front of the goal 37 seconds later, with Elyse Reed making the assist.

Susie Soderstrom got Carmel's third goal unassisted in the second half on a high hard shot from the 20. Greyhounds goalkeeper Erin Baker made five saves, with Autumn Ackerman getting two saves.

"The good news is the team will have faced all of the other five schools in IHSAA 3A Sectional 10 in regular season matches by next Monday evening," said Carmel coach Frank Dixon. "The bad news is we will complete three of those games in a six-day period beginning with tonight's game. The girls passed tonight's test with a 3-1 win over a Brebeuf Jesuit team which has been ranked in the top 20 almost all year long. We were able to do this while getting everyone on the team some competitive minutes."

The Greyhounds are 10-1-2 and host Zionsville on Saturday evening.

Smith and Voigt win for Noblesville, Huskies battle Pendleton

Noblesville dropped a 4-1 dual meet to Cathedral on Thursday.

The Millers' No. 1 doubles team of senior Ben Smith and junior Evan Voigt got the lone win, 6-3, 6-2.

Hamilton Heights fell to Pendleton Heights 5-0 on Thursday.

The Huskies were playing their fourth match in four days. All the matches were won in straight sets, with No. 2 doubles Liam Huss and Jake Martin extending their opponents to 6-3, 6-4.

Heights' junior varsity team won 5-3. Kal Colter won in singles, while the doubles team of Drew Pennington and Tanner Maynard won two matches. Eli VanHaaren won two matches, one with Grant Cavanaugh and the other with Ethan Hall.

"We've had a long week so far and I have been impressed with how much fight our team has in them," said Huskies coach Justin Davis. "Even when they are tired, they keep fighting. Just like a lot of other matches this season, our players have been in the match, getting to deuce in many games, just haven't been able to finish those games on the winning side. The scores don't reflect how well everyone did today. It'll be nice to have an easy practice tomorrow, then back to work against Lebanon on Saturday."

Westfield won a dual meet over Kokomo 5-0 on Wednesday for the Shamrocks' Senior Night.

All five seniors - WeiBin Cheah, Alex Mullet, Shekar Supanekar, Jason Gabennesch and Dominic Kazeck - won matches. Junior Connor Maris and freshman Brett Barnes also picked up wins.

This was the regular-season finale for Westfield, which is 9-3 for the season. The 'Rocks will play at the Carmel sectional next week.
