Couple is looking for the "Goldilocks of Temperatures"

My husband John and I get along very well. We typically present a united front when it comes to parenting our teenage sons, we have the same important values in life, and we even have similar tastes in music. We both love to help people in our own ways and we share a rather unusual sense of humor.

However, like many couples, we do have our "hot button" topics – in fact, in one instance, this phrase is quite literal. We RARELY, if ever, can agree on the ideal temperature.

When I met John, I thought it was kind ing to 76. About an hour before John comes of cute the way he liked to crack the window open during the winter when he slept in his apartment. Studies show it's good to sleep in a cooler environment, right? What I didn't realize is that John likes it cooler/colder ALL THE TIME. In fact, as I write this column, he's counting down to winter.

They said in the late 90s that men are from Mars and women are from Venus. This must be true in our case, because Mars is cold and Venus is hot.

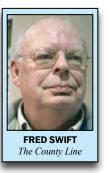

During the summer, I like to work at home with the windows open until about noon, then I typically set the air condition-

Too many county planning boards, libraries, museums? Maybe not

Hamilton County is a place where individual communities like to keep their separate agencies and organizations. Whereas many Hoosier counties go countywide on such things as planning commissions, library districts, historical societies and even school districts, in our county most communities keep their own systems and with this, their own identities.

Hamilton County has nine planning jurisdictions, nine fire departments, six school corporations, five library districts and five historical museums. This has been the case for years, leading some to say that's too many organizations to be efficient, but at the rate the county is growing, it has probably proved wise to have multiples of such institutions and agencies.

But, it is painful sometimes. Right now county officials are trying to get all fire departments and police departments to agree on how to pay fairly for 911 emergency communications costs. Larger jurisdictions have been paying smaller departments' costs and want to end that practice while still keeping a centralized communications system.

Our five public library systems have joined in resisting state administration efforts to have (with a few exceptions)

NOBLESVILLE SCHOOLS

REFERENDUM 2018

Strong Schools, Strong Community

Strong schools make for a strong community. The ability to attract new businesses to Noblesville, prepare our future workforce, and achieve a high quality of living as a community are all directly related to the strength of our school system.

The 2016 referendum was about maintaining the status quo and was a reduction in the tax rate. The 2018 referendum is about enhanced mental health, increased safety and retaining top-quality staff. It's about keeping our schools and our community strong.

Due to the teacher shortage and recent pay increases by neighbor districts, our teachers are leaving for positions that can pay $5,000-$15,000 more.

MENTAL HEALTH

Enhanced focus including student screenings & more counselors

SAFETY

Expanded protections including more police officers & safety equipment

STAFF PAY

Pay competitively with neighbor district to keep good teachers & staff

How Much Will This Referendum Cost Taxpayers?

A median Noblesville home valued at $206,000 currently pays $192/year for the 2016 referendum. The new 2018 rate would cost this home $376/year. That's an additional $184/year—an additional $15/month— for enhanced student mental health, school safety and teacher pay.

Since 2009, Noblesville Schools has lost $46.5 million in funding.

The 2018 referendum will replace the 2016 referendum and will provide funding through 2026.

53% of the additional funding would be spent on mental health & safety, while 47% would be spent on staff pay.

The current referendum rate is 18.9 cents and the new proposed rate is 37 cents.

This referendum would raise an additional $6.25 million/year for Noblesville Schools.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others. And have ye not read this scripture; The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner: This was the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes? And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people: for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

Mark 12:9-12 (KJV)

Howard A. Kenley Jr. September 29, 1919 - October 30, 2018

Howard A. Kenley Jr., 99, Noblesville, passed away Tuesday, October 30, 2018. He was born on September 29, 1919, in Terre Haute. His wife Marcia

In 1941, Howard enlisted in the United States Army. Later, he went to Officer Candidate School in the Army in El Paso, Texas, and served as a Lieutenant. While there, he married his first wife, Elvera Hayter, who passed away in 1953. In 1943, Howard transferred to the Air Corps and was trained as a navigator on a B-17 at San Antonio, Texas, and then flew with the 15th Air Force out of Foggia, Italy, logging 35 missions in 1944 and 1945, all with the same crew he had trained with. Howard was awarded many combat medals, including the Distinguished Flying Cross, and accumulated 175 points at a time when 75 points was sufficient for a discharge. He was transferred back to the states and was awaiting reassignment to Japan at San Diego, Calif., when the war ended with Harry Truman dropping the bomb. Howard liked to say, "I never loved a d_____ Democrat so much in my life." Howard was discharged as a Captain.

After the war, in keeping with his membership in the Greatest Generation, Howard returned to Noblesville with his wife, took over the family grocery business with his brother, Jack, and ran that business with Jack, his dad, his Uncle Robert, and later with his sons, Luke, Jim, and Tom for more than 50 years. Kenley's Market was the hometown grocer of Noblesville, ultimately employing thousands of Hamilton County natives and serving the people of Hamilton County with good meat, produce and groceries at a good price and superior service. He ran a successful business, was a member of many service clubs, served on the Noblesville City Council, raised eight children successfully, and was regarded in the community as a gentleman, a supporter of good causes, and a man whose word could always be trusted. He gave up golf at 95, saying that a 21 handicap was more than anyone should tolerate. Howard was a member of the Christian Science Church.

Howard is survived by his brother, Jack Kenley (wife Nancy); children, Luke (wife Sally and three children, Bill, John and Betsy), David (wife Jacky and four daughters, Juliann, Katie, Lisa and Jennifer), Carol Jo Gumz (husband Sherman), Pam Cammack (husband Greg and three children, Matt (deceased), Megan and Mindi), Jim (wife Judy and three sons, Alex, Paul and Colin), Greg Swhier (three children, Alison, Gregory and Jimmy), Tom (two daughters, Holly and Heather), and Bob (wife Barbara); and 24 great-grandchildren.

Visitation will be from 4 to 8 p.m. on Tuesday, November 6, 2018 at Randall & Roberts Funeral Center, 1685 Westfield Road, Noblesville. Services will be held at 11 a.m. on Wednesday, November 7, 2018 at the funeral home, with an additional visitation one hour prior to the service. Interment will follow at Crownland Cemetery in Noblesville.

Memorial contributions may be made in lieu of flowers to the Great Futures Fund of the Boys and Girls Club of Noblesville, 1700 Conner St., Noblesville, IN 46060; or Wheeler Mission, 205 E. New York St., Indianapolis, IN 46204.

Knight scores 19 for Noblesville...

Millers drop opener to No. 3 Wildcats

By RICHIE HALL

NOBLESVILLE - The Noblesville girls basketball team probably couldn't have had a tougher assignment for its first game.

The Millers played Lawrence North Thursday at The Mill. Noblesville was able to hang with the Class 4A No. 3 Wildcats for a little over a quarter, but LN ramped up its defense in the second period, and pulled away from the Millers, eventually winning 52-32.

The first quarter was very low-scoring, and finished with the Wildcats ahead 4-2. Sophomore Jayla Smith scored four points for Lawrence North, while sophomore Emily Wood got Noblesville's lone basket.

Senior Maddie Knight tied the game at the beginning of the second quarter with a layin. That made the score 4-4. But the Wildcats began pressing, inducing several turnovers from the Millers. That allowed LN to cruise through the rest of the period, going on a 16-3 run to take a 20-7 lead at halftime.

Smith added eight more points in the quarter, while the Millers got a free throw from Knight and another basket from Wood.

"We just turned the ball over and gave them some easy opportunities," said Noblesville coach Donna Buckley. "And they're so talented, you can't do that. They struggled to score at times, but when we turn it over, it got them going, then they can set their press.

Noblesville got its offense going in the second half, but the Wildcats' first-half lead was too much to overcome. The Millers did get some good minutes from several players, and the leader was Knight, who scored 16 of her 19 points in the second half.

"She played a great basketball game," said Buckley. "She had a lot on her, obviously. We're very shorthanded right now." The coach credited Knight with leading the way for the younger players, some of whom had limited experience at the varsity Noblesville senior Maddie Knight scored 19 points for the Millers in their season-opening game with Lawrence North Thursday night at The Mill.

"She was phenomenal," said Buckley. Wood finished the game with six points. Junior Anna Kiser pulled 11 rebounds and also handed out four assists to go with her four points.

We'll get there," said Buckley. "This was a great experience for those really young kids and when we get everybody back, we'll be in a good situation."

Noblesville travels to Fort Wayne ider on Saturday.

Noblesville junior Anna Kiser had 11 rebounds and four assists.

Familiar faces will play for Fishers this season

By RICHIE HALL

This year's Fishers girls basketball team will have familiar faces, yet there will also be a new look for the Tigers.

Fishers did graduate six seniors from last year's 13-12 team, including Toni Grace, who is now playing at Davenport University. But the Tigers have four players returning who played all or almost all of the varsity games last year, along with a few others who got some playing time as well.

"While we graduated six seniors and a great deal of our scoring in point guard Toni Grace, we return several players with multiple years of varsity experience," said Fishers coach Lauren Vail. "Juniors Lydia Stullken and Tamia Perryman and Seniors Skylar Fulton and Cierra Tolbert all contributed last year and I look for each one to have an increased role this season."

Perryman was the second-leading scorer last year, averaging 7.2 points per game. She was also far and away the top rebounder for
