Fishers will soon have new Design Center

By LARRY LANNAN
LarryInFishers.com

Fishers will soon see a $14 million Hub & Spoke Design Center on 106th Street along what is planned to be the Nickel Plate Trail. A city news release describes this as “a center of activity for the home building and design industry alongside a one-of-a-kind Maker’s Space for hobbyists, entrepreneurs, and students to design and create.”

Hub and Spoke founder David Decker, president of OnPoint Real Estate Solutions Travis Tucker, and Fishers Mayor Scott Fadness jointly announced the project Thursday morning.

“Our goal is to show people the possibilities of success and growth in our industry through project and work-based learning. There is something magical that happens when you take an idea in your head and build it with your hands,” said David Decker in a city news release.

The city is offering a 10-year tax abatement and waiver of fees for the developers of this project. The city is also making a commitment to lease space in the building.

The city council vote was on the agenda for the Monday council session.

Initial tenants for the project include

Battersby Danielson Azbell and Associates, Franklin Window & Door, A/Co, and OnPoint Real Estate Solutions.

“David and Travis’ entrepreneurial stories are inspiring,” said Mayor Fadness. “Hub and Spoke deepens Fishers’ commitment to entrepreneurs of all industries. We’re on a mission to connect residents to their passions, and David and Travis’ leadership in our community will help us bring that mission closer to fruition.”

Decker and Tucker say they intend to use Hub and Spoke’s Maker’s Space and Community Connect area to grow awareness around career paths in the skilled trade industry, where labor shortages abound.

Here’s how the city news release describes the experiences available in the planned structure:

- Retail showrooms, office space and warehousing
- Maker’s space and Training Facility – This dedicated space will feature tools, manufacturing equipment, and art studio space where youth, adults, and entrepreneurs are empowered to create, discover, and innovate their passions alongside training and educational assistance.

• Community Connect – An interactive indoor-outdoor cooperative and agile work space for collaborative work to support industry connection and growth for entrepreneurs, innovators, students and community members.

• Event Space – Leveraging proximity to the proposed Nickel Plate Trail, the event space will be a destination for entertainment and recreation at the unique indoor/outdoor space.

Six first responders injured while assisting with fatal Carmel crash

The REPORTER

A fiery crash last Monday morning in Carmel killed two people. Six emergency responders were also injured.

According to the Carmel Police Department, the single-vehicle accident happened in the area of Ditch Road and Queens Way (south of 116th Street) just before 11 a.m. last Monday morning.

Carmel police and firefighters both responded to the scene and found the vehicle inverted and on fire with both occupants trapped inside.

According to Carmel Police Lieutenant Joe Bickel, four police officers and two fire fighters suffered smoke inhalation and burns as they attempted to rescue the occupants of the car. Bickel says the police officers and firefighters will make a full recovery, at least physically.

“They used fire extinguishers and other means trying to get the fire out during the rescue attempt,” said Bickel.

“Sometimes the end result is very tragic even though you put forth an effort to help save lives,” said Bickel.

Police identified the passenger as Jeanne Feasel, 75, and the driver as William Feasel, 76.

Jeanne, the passenger, died last Monday at St. Vincent’s Hospital, while William, the driver, died last Tuesday at Eskenazi Hospital.

Noblesville shooter sentenced . . .

Judge Paul Felix: ‘You wanted devastation’

A judge has sentenced the 13-year-old who shot and injured his classmate and teacher last May at Noblesville West Middle School.

Judge Paul Felix gave the boy a sentence with the Indiana Department of Corrections until he is 18, unless the IDOC decides the boy should be released sooner. He did not specify which juvenile facility will house the boy, and he said he will place the teenager on probation when he is released.

Felix choked up as he spoke directly to the shooter.

“You wanted devastation. An inexplicable, horrible tragedy for the ages,”

Noblesville Schools issues statement

“The traumatic incidents of May 25, 2018 have forever changed the lives of our students, staff and community. Our sincerest hope is that this boy never hurts anyone again. We appreciate the court’s powerful comments and final decision, and recognize that it was appropriate within the limited confines of what state law will allow. We’re hopeful this will be a step towards closure and healing for the victims and our community overall.”

Felix said.

Felix said the shooter needs extensive psychiatric treatment and likely medication. The teenager sat in an orange and white striped uniform next to his parents. His mother patted him on the back after the judge delivered the sentence.

The boy admitted in court to shooting his teacher, Jason Seaman, and his 13-year-old classmate Ella Whistler.

Alisonn Lowry said her daughter was in the classroom that day.

“I’m glad we are where we are, but it’s been really hard on the kids that were in that classroom,” Lowry said.

The shooter apologized in a written statement last

Police detain suspect in Noblesville High School shooting threat Friday

The REPORTER

On Friday, police investigated a threat to Noblesville High School after what school officials described as an ugly, derogatory racial statement referencing a school shooting this coming Monday was found on a bathroom wall.

Police were made aware of the situation at approximately 11 a.m. Friday, and by evening, a suspect had been detained, according to a news release provided by Noblesville Schools.

Noblesville Schools also announced that the suspect had been removed from school grounds and expulsion proceedings were underway.

Noblesville Schools Director of Communications Marnie Cooke said, “We are sickened that we are facing this situation once again and will aggressively address hatred and threats to the safety of our students and community. We’ll continue to provide our parents updates and plan for school Monday.”

Noblesville Diversity Coalition issues statement in response to threat

The Noblesville Diversity Coalition (NDC) was angered, saddened and disappointed to learn about the racist graffiti discovered at Noblesville High School. This was one student’s attempt to intimidate African-American students with the threat of violence. We applaud school officials and the Noblesville Police Department for taking quick action to investigate the incident, remove the suspected student, address the concerns of parents, students and staff and impose swift disciplinary actions.

Acts of hatred like this are precisely why the Noblesville Diversity Coalition’s mission is so important, which is to create a culture that understands, accepts, celebrates and respects our diversity. To achieve the culture of respect and kindness that we all want for Noblesville, we must stand together as a community to oppose those who promote and commit racism, hatred and violence towards others.

About Noblesville Diversity Coalition

The Noblesville Diversity Coalition was formed in 2018 by concerned citizens and representatives from education, government, business and faith-based organizations. NDC’s advocates stand together for diversity, equity and inclusion in the Noblesville community. NDC is committed to creating and maintaining a culture that respects and values all individuals and families by promoting community efforts that celebrate our differences. Please visit NDC on Facebook at facebook.com/noblesvildiversity and on Twitter at twitter.com/nobdiversity.

NHS will be in session Monday with increased police presence, and weekend activities will continue as scheduled.

Noblesville Schools wants to ensure parents that police began investigating the threat in question immediately and extra safety precautions were taken.

Noblesville Schools Superintendent Dr. Beth Niedermeyer released the following statement Friday evening:

Construction is underway at Westfield High School and local officials conducted a groundbreaking last Tuesday to celebrate. The new construction will add approximately 90,000 square feet to the school. The project is part of an overall $90 million renovation of Westfield's Intermediate, Middle and High schools.

THREAT

“The cruelty, hatred and ugliness that we’ve seen in our community is heart-breaking, and as a school district and community we are better than this. We must stand together against violence and racism. We have engaged our Noblesville Diversity Coalition (NDC) and NHS student leaders to join us tomorrow for an important conversation about ensuring all our students and staff feel safe, respected and included in our community. Community members are invited to attend this conversation from 3 to 4:30 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 17 at Ivy Tech in Noblesville. The event will be a time to share and listen to one another, think about ways we can stand together to show our love and support of all people, and discuss ways we can help to unify our community. Noblesville Schools counselors will also available at the event for those who need support.”

week. Felix said he “rejects” that statement. He said the boy “said the right words” but did not show remorse.

“Our client is a hard kid to read,” the shooter’s attorney, Chris Eskew, said. “I do believe he is remorseful for what he did.”

Eskew said he expects his client to be released from the IDOC sooner than his 18th birthday. He argued in court he should be treated not by the state, but at a residential treatment center in Dyer, Ind.

He said he is “concerned about the resources available within the Department of Corrections.”

“He’s going to get through these exams and through his treatment. He’s not someone incapable of that. He does have issues he needs to work through and hopefully he gets through those,” Eskew said.

The judge said his school record shows at least 21 marks of misconduct.

He said the boy lit a bucket on fire at his home a week before the shooting and his mother was so upset she took him to the fire department for a safety lesson. The judge did not say whether he feels that incident played a role in the boy’s decision to commit the shooting.

“It is hard for anyone within the community to understand,” Hamilton County Prosecutor Lee Buckingham said.

Buckingham’s team played a video in court last week, during the first day of the hearing, showing the boy before the shooting. He is seen with a gun in the video.

“Tomorrow is Friday. You know what that means,” the boy said. “I need to take other peoples’ lives before I take my own.”

A Noblesville police officer testified that he also discovered the teenager searched online the day before the shooting for the phrases “Noblesville Middle School blueprint” and “What was the largest mass shooting in America?”

Seaman testified last week that he threw a miniature basketball at the boy after he started shooting. He then tackled the teenager, pinned him down and removed weapons from his pockets.

Ben Jaffe, a lawyer for the juvenile, said last Tuesday that prosecutors made it clear that the boy’s family owned the guns.

Prosecutors played a video last week of the shooter at the juvenile detention center in Hamilton County building something with Legos that resembled a rifle.

Felix emphasized to the shooter that the victims’ lives will never be the same. Whistler’s parents testified that she is still recovering, can’t currently play volleyball, and sometimes needs help getting dressed. Her right arm may never get back to 100 percent, according to her mother.

Seaman testified last week that he is also recovering. He was not in court.

The judge ordered that the boy cannot try to contact Seaman or Whistler. He also praised Noblesville Schools for training their staff on how to respond to a threat. Seaman said the training helped him respond to the incident.

Another covered bridge
for Hamilton County

Carmel seeks applications for 2019 Arts Grants

Hamilton County is probably the only county in America where the number of iconic covered bridges is increasing. Most areas have either a decreasing number of the wooden structures or none at all.

Locally, we will soon have three. That may not seem like many, but given the small number of these picturesque bridges still standing, it is remarkable. And, the way it happens is a tribute to local interest in acquiring the structures from other counties where they can no longer afford to be maintained.

The most recent acquisition is the Bell Ford Bridge from Jackson County built in 1868. It has been stored in a barn since it was taken out of service on the East Fork of White River near Seymour a few years ago.

County Commissioner

FRED SWIFT
The County Line

Mark Heirbrandt, who is acquainted with a commissioner in Jackson County, made the deal on behalf of Fall Creek Township and county park officials. The bridge will be moved in coming months to Geist Park on Fall Creek to become the historic centerpiece for the relatively new park.

"This bridge is the only combination post and truss bridge remaining anywhere," Heirbrandt said Thursday. It has been placed on the National Register of Historic Places. The deal with Jackson County provides for a $25,000 donation to the Jackson County Round Barn Restoration Fund to enable that county to complete a move and restoration of a rare barn.

Potters Bridge just north of Noblesville was built in its present location in 1870 and is also now the focal point of Potters Bridge Park. Conner Prairie Pioneer Museum acquired another covered bridge several years ago. After repairs were made, it was placed on museum grounds over a small ravine as part of the Conner Prairie pioneer village.

Help give Noblesville
kids a great Christmas

The REPORTER

For the third year in a row, downtown Noblesville merchants will participate in "Stuff Your Stocking" in support of local families needing a little help during the holidays. The event takes place during Noblesville Main Street's "First Friday" from 5 to 8 p.m. on Friday, Dec. 7 in downtown Noblesville.

By purchasing a $15 Christmas stocking, shoppers can stop in during First Friday to visit participating merchants and collect fun treats and toys for children to "stuff" into their stockings. Families also are encouraged to buy an extra stocking to "stuff" and donate for a child in need. Proceeds from the one-night event organized by Noblesville Youth Assistance go to fund gifts, food and other holiday expenses that some families struggle to afford.

All year round, the non-profit's early intervention advocates coordinate these resources and more for local children ages 3 to 17, providing food and clothing, tutoring and mentoring, mental health counseling and recreational opportunities. In 2018, NYA and its partners served 9,600 summer lunches to children in Noblesville who otherwise might not know where their next meal was coming from.

ing" tickets are limited and should be purchased in advance while supplies last. Visit tinyurl.com/StuffYourStockingTickets to purchase tickets.

In addition to this opportunity to give back to the community, participants are invited to dine in downtown and enjoy all the festivities of Noblesville Main Street's "First Friday" to include Santa Claus, carolers, hot chocolate and more. Free trolley rides are available to take visitors around downtown and to the Ice Plaza at Federal Hill Commons for ice skating and other activities provided by Noblesville Parks and Recreation.

The REPORTER

The City of Carmel is now seeking applications for 2019 City Arts Grants, a program designed to support local arts organizations whose work keeps Carmel vibrant and appealing to residents and visitors alike. Since 2004, more than $10.6 million in arts grants were awarded from the City budget.

Last year's 2018 Support for the Arts program awarded $990,450 to 29 arts organizations located in Carmel or who hold programs/performance in Carmel. The money is based on 1 percent of the city budget. Mayor Jim Brainard reviews each application and recommends the arts grants.

"We view the support of our arts organizations as a strong economic development tool for the City of Carmel. Since the creation of the Arts & Design District and Center for the Performing Arts, Carmel has become a destination for those who appreciate the Arts," said Mayor Brainard. "It is important for us to continue to invest in those things that help elevate the quality of life in Carmel and help us continue to attract corporate headquarters and a highly educated, qualified labor force to fill those jobs."

The world-class performing arts center, The Palladium, with a diverse variety of musical and entertainment performances, helps draw visitors from all over the Midwest and beyond. Many also come for events at The Tarkington and The Studio Theater, the three venues that comprise the Center for the Performing Arts. Carmel is also home a vibrant Arts & Design District with art galleries, the Indiana Design Center, shops and restaurants, where major events are staged throughout the year, including monthly gallery walks, classic car shows and the popular International Arts Festival.

All this helps attract families and visitors to the city, and helps local businesses. According to the most recent studies by Visit Hamilton County, visitors that stay in Carmel spend about $332 million annually in lodging, food and beverage, transportation and attraction purchases and contribute significantly to the overall tourism impact. This spending by visitors supports 14,000 jobs in Hamilton County and helps generate more than $100 million in state and local taxes, saving local residents $850 per year in taxes they would otherwise need to pay for the same services.

Local arts groups are encouraged to apply. The deadline for the initial round of applications is Friday, Nov. 30. You can find a copy of the 2019 Arts Grant Application at carmel.in.gov/ArtsGrants.

Shop local on Small Business Saturday

We all know about Black Friday, the day after Thanksgiving when you camp outside a store for discounts, leading to customers body slamming each other over a TV in some cities. You might know about Cyber Monday, the online shopping holiday on the Monday after Thanksgiving.

But more important than those two might be Small Business Saturday, an event that falls on the Saturday after Thanksgiving when consumers are encouraged to spend their dollars locally. A merican Express came up with the day in 2010 and it's been an opportunity for small mom-and-pop businesses to advertise deals.

ADAM AASEN

In 2017, 108 million shoppers spend $12.9 billion on Small Business Saturday at independently-owned businesses, according to the National Federation of Independent Business.

Some cities like Carmel are using it as an economic development tool. The Carmel Arts & Design District Facebook page is posting discounts and deals from local business to assist in their marketing.

Even arts organizations are getting in on it. Main Street Productions of Westfield is running a coupon in this issue of the Hamilton County Reporter. (See Page A2.)

"A community theater, while being a not-for-profit endeavor, should be considered as a small business lending it's presence to the community it serves," said

Why is this all important? Because small businesses help make a city great.

I've never had anyone say they chose to live in a neighborhood because of its proximity to fast food chain restaurants. People want small unique stores and vendors that offer a personal touch.

For those of you that are concerned about debt or the economy, keep in mind that small businesses reinvest a greater percentage of their profits back into the community, whether it's through donating to local schools or non-profits or purchasing supplies from fellow local small businesses. More of their taxes go back into the city's coffers instead of being sent out of state.

Indeed, the economic impact of small businesses can't be overstated. They were key in the nation's recovery from the recent recession. From the middle of 2009 to the middle of 2013, 60 percent of all jobs created came from small businesses. Depending on how you measure, they make up 60 to 80 percent of all U.S. jobs.

Yet, they are vulnerable. Only two-thirds of all small businesses survive two years, half will survive five years and only a third will survive a decade in operation.

So please support a locally owned small business this Small Business Saturday.

Diversity, equity and inclusion, oh my!

What does it all mean and why isn't diversity enough?

Last month at the Noblesville Diversity Committee's learning series we tackled the foundation of diversity and its meaning. This topic can be a bit confusing and overwhelming. I've often wondered if there is a Diversity for Dummies book I could get my hands on. It isn't something most of us have been equipped to talk about and sometimes just lack the language. Sometimes we can be afraid to say something wrong so we don't say anything.

In case you missed our last event, let's catch you up and define a few things to get us started.

Diversity in the simplest of explanations is just variety ... the presence of difference.

Equity understands that when people come together, some have more power than another. There are built in advantages and disadvantages in this life. Equity in practice assures that everyone has the same opportunities and access.

Inclusion, at its heart, is a culture of belonging and sense of worth. Inclusion is your voice being valued and empowered, an inherent dignity of all people. Inclusion isn't about tolerance. Inclusion is about embracing our differences and valuing the richness that brings to the environment.

Diversity, equity and inclusion are all crucial to a healthy community. There is a popular quote by DEI consultant Verna Myers swimming around social media that says, "Diversity is being invited to the party; inclusion is being asked to dance." I would alter that a bit in regard to our above definitions.

Equity is getting an invitation to the party.

Diversity is everyone showing up.

Inclusion is dancing to the music you requested.

This month's Learning Series will take us farther into the discussion of diversity and hit key topics of fostering an equitable and inclusive community. We are delighted to present Cornelius Minor as our speaker at our fourth installment, "Going Beyond Diversity," at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 29 at Noblesville High School.

Mr. Minor is a Brooklyn-based educator and staff developer with the Teachers College Reading and Writing Project. Cornelius works with teachers, community-based organizations and leaders to support equitable literacy reform across the globe. By utilizing his love for hip hop, social media and technology, he brings together communities and broadens access to learning for all.

"We're in a place where collective study can save us," said Minor. "Movements are splintered because people don't understand each other ... As long as the rhetoric keeps us divided, then nothing big happens. I'm thinking about how I can create intersectional moments."

Come be a part of that moment with us! Cornelius Minor recently released his first book entitled, "We Got This." He is an engaging speaker with an interactive style and we are excited to host him for what is sure to be a memorable evening. All ages are welcome!

Let's grow in this conversation and come together as a community that embraces our humanity, lives together in unity and deeply cares one for the other. In a world that can focus on division and ugliness, let's be that place that doesn't. I look forward to seeing you at 6:30 p.m. on Nov. 29 at the Noblesville High School auditorium.

Safety in our schools

Editor's Note: The Sheridan Student Column is brought to readers by Sheridan High School's 10th grade English class, taught by Abigail Williams. This column was originally published in the Sunday, Nov. 18 edition of The Reporter.

ABBI CLOUSER
Sheridan High School Student

situation turned out to just be a misunderstanding, but it was still one of the scariest moments of my life. I remember calling my mom afterward and crying because the Santa Fe shooting had only happened a few days before and resulted in multiple deaths. For weeks after the incident at our school, I was scared every moment during class because I feared that somebody could gain entry into the school. I knew in the back of my mind that if somebody really wanted to get in, they most likely could.

Student activists have been demanding change for years now, saying that something needs to be done about gun control. Sure, gun control might help to a certain extent, but if a person wanted to get a gun and murder students, he could. Maybe gun control isn't the answer. Maybe we should start turning to our schools and seeing the holes in our safety regulations. This year, Sheridan High School had a new security system installed on the doors. The doors are supposed to make it harder for somebody to gain entry during the school day, but there could be loopholes around these doors to give an intruder just enough time to gain entry before an alarm starts going off. Other schools have given students clear backpacks in order to see what students are carrying into school with them. This will make sure that students aren't bringing shotguns into class, but that doesn't mean that a student can't sneak a different kind of weapon in. Different schools have installed metal detectors at every door, but the metal detectors can't protect us against every weapon.

Perhaps it is time that we start looking at the health of the human population. The symptoms of people who commit mass murders are feelings of anger, lack of friends, social alienation, and making threats about hurting others. According to counseling.org, one-third of school shooters have had mental health evaluations and out of that one third, one-fifth have actually been diagnosed with mental illness. Not only that, but 61 percent of all school shooters have reported feeling depressed and lonely. Even though one-fifth of one-third does not sound like a lot of people, one-ninth of all Americans are taking antidepressants, which sometimes can cause symptoms of depression to worsen. Antidepressants aren't made for all people. We as a society need to find a way to solve the mental health issue that is affecting people across the country. Most people who have depression aren't going to harm people, but there is always the chance that it could happen when the perpetrator has suffered from mental health issues. There are other ways to cure depression besides taking antidepressants, and we should find different solutions that will fit different kinds of people.

I am by no means an expert, so I don't know what is going to stop tragedies in schools. I am saying that we need to find a way to prevent harm from getting into our schools. Maybe the solution is gun control, or better security, or the solution could be to stop prescribing so much medicine to people because it could actually be causing our society harm. I don't know how we are going to figure out what to do, but something needs to be done. Something needs to be done, and instead of everybody just saying that it needs to be done, we need to actually take some action. If we don't take action, we are just going to keep hearing about these tragedies more frequently. In conclusion, I think that not only do we need to find a way to better the security systems in our schools, but we also need to look at the mental health side of things and see if we can prevent people from being so far gone due to mental health that they end up creating these tragedies.

Good decision for your health: Find contentment this season

"I have decided to be happy because it is better for my health."

— Voltaire

SHARON McMAHON

ical intervention. This column's purpose is not to explore the causes and treatments for depression, and this writer does not have the knowledge and expertise to do so. However the holiday season can bring about stress and anxiety so here are some tips which might help:

- Watch/listen to fewer news reports. Today's information cycle is 24/7 and it is never good regardless of your political or ideological views. On that same note, refrain from political discussion with family and friends during holiday gatherings. PLEASE!
- Make a practical list of any holiday gifts you are expected to provide, and stick to it! Easier said than done; I know from personal experience!
- Make sure you continue to exercise regularly despite a busier schedule. Exercise releases endorphins important in controlling stress. Additionally, as we are all excited about the yummy candies and cookies available, remember that sugar can also elevate the heart rate and affect anxiety levels.

Back to Voltaire's quote — joy and happiness have a direct benefit to our heart health, our digestive system, muscle pain, quality of sleep and energy level. During this holiday season and always, I wish you joy, peace and contentment, a word we seldom hear in today's society. Theodore Roosevelt said "comparison is the thief of joy" so don't allow yourself to be caught up in comparing your holiday season — and your life — with anyone else. Eat well, exercise, spend time with family and friends (away from the "news") and perhaps look around you to see how you might reach out to those in need through volunteer activities and outreach.

And to change the topic entirely, thank you to all who have purchased my book, "Sweetie's Scars: A Journey of Hurt, Hope, and Healing." I am pleased to say it has been well received locally and in sales on Amazon. Proceeds are donated to the Humane Society for Hamilton County. I appreciate your support of Sweetie's legacy to end animal abuse.

In early May of 2018, I was sitting in my choir class when an announcement came on the speakers. Our principal spoke to us in shaky voice, telling us that we were on lockdown and that it was not a drill. Frantically, my classmates and I rushed to hide in our small classroom. Thirty-one students and my teacher crammed together, and my teacher stood, trying to protect us if bullets were to come through the door. I could hear muffled cries in the room and the girl beside me stood shaking, whispering over and over again that she was going to pass out. In that moment, I held hands with people I didn't even consider my friends and I told them that we were going to be safe. The entire

All or a portion of the Bonds may be issued as one or more term bonds, upon election of the successful bidder. Such term bonds shall have a stated maturity or maturities of January 15 and July 15 as determined by the successful bidder, but no later than the final maturity set forth above. The term bonds shall be subject to mandatory sinking fund redemption and final payment(s) at maturity at 100% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest to the redemption date, on dates consistent with the above schedule.
Principal is payable at the office of a registrar and paying agent to be selected by the Township. Interest shall be paid by check mailed to the registered owners or by wire transfer to depositories. The Bonds will be issued in fully registered form.
The Bonds maturing on and after July 15, 2029 are redeemable at the option of the Township on January 15, 2029, and on any date thereafter, on thirty days' notice, in whole or in part, in the order of maturity as determined by the Township and by lot within a maturity, at face value, together with no premium, plus accrued interest to the date fixed for redemption.
Each bid must be for all of the Bonds and must state the rate or rates of interest in multiples of 1/8 or 1/20 of 1%. Any bids specifying two or more interest rates shall also specify the amount and maturities of the Bonds bearing each rate, but all Bonds maturing on the same date shall bear the same single interest rate. The rate on any maturity shall be equal to or greater than the rate on the immediately preceding maturity. The award will be made to the best bidder complying with the terms of sale and offering the lowest net interest cost to the Township, to be determined by computing the total interest on all of the Bonds to their maturities and deducting therefrom the premium bid, if any, and adding thereto the discount bid, if any. Although not a term of sale, it is requested that each bid show the net dollar interest cost to final maturity and the net effective average interest rate on the entire issue. No conditional bid or bid for less than 99% of the par value of the Bonds will be considered. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids. In the event no satisfactory bids are received at the time and on the date herein fixed, the sale will be continued from day to day thereafter, without further advertisement for a period of thirty (30) days during which time no bid which provides a higher net interest cost to the Township than the best bid received at the time of the advertised sale will be considered.
Each bid must be on a customary bid form which shall be either enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the undersigned Township Trustee or sent via e-mail to diane.crim@gmail.com and marked "Bid for Wayne Township, Hamilton County, Indiana, General Obligation Bonds of 2018." The winning bidder will be notified and instructed to submit a good faith deposit which may consist of either a certified or cashier's check or a wire transfer in the amount of $20,000 ("Deposit"). If a check is submitted, it shall be drawn on a bank or trust company which is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and shall be submitted to the Township (or wire transfer such amount as instructed by the Township) not later than 3:30 p.m. (Noblesville time) on the next business day after the date of the award. In either case, the Deposit shall be payable to the "Wayne Township, Hamilton County, Indiana," and shall be held as a guaranty of the performance of the bid. No interest on the Deposit will accrue to the successful bidder. If the successful bidder fails to honor its accepted bid, the Deposit will be retained by the Township. The successful bidder will be required to make payment for such Bonds in Federal Reserve funds or other immediately available funds and accept delivery of the Bonds within five days after being notified that the Bonds are ready for delivery, at such bank in the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, or the City of Noblesville, Indiana, as the purchaser shall designate, or at such other location which may be mutually agreed to by the Township and such bidder. It is anticipated that the Bonds will be ready for delivery within thirty days after the date of the sale and if not ready for delivery within forty five days after the sale date, the purchaser shall be entitled to rescind the sale and obtain the return of the Deposit. The successful bidder is expected to apply to a securities depository registered with the SEC to make such Bonds depository eligible. The successful bidder will also be required to certify as to the price at which a substantial amount of Bonds of each maturity was reoffered to the public. The opinion of Ice Miller LLP, Bond Counsel of Indianapolis, Indiana, approving the legality of the Bonds, together with a transcript of the Bond proceedings, and closing certificates in the usual form showing no litigation, will be furnished to the successful bidder at the expense of the Township.
The Bonds may be issued, at the option of the successful bidder, by means of a book entry only system with no physical distribution of Bond certificates made to the public. One Bond certificate for each maturity will be issued to and registered in the name of Cede & Co., as nominee of The Depository Trust Company, New York, New York ("DTC"), and immobilized in its custody. The successful bidder, as a condition of delivery of the Bonds, would be required to deposit the Bond certificates with DTC, registered in the name of Cede & Co., nominee of DTC.
It is anticipated that CUSIP identification numbers will be printed on the Bonds, but neither the failure to print such numbers on any Bond nor any error with respect thereto shall constitute cause for failure or refusal by the successful bidder therefor to accept delivery of and pay for the Bonds in accordance with the terms of its bid. No CUSIP identification number shall be deemed to be a part of any Bond or a part of the contract evidenced thereby and no liability shall hereafter attach to the Township or any of its officers or agents because of or on account of such numbers. All expenses in relation to the printing of CUSIP identification numbers on the Bonds shall be paid for by the Township; provided, however, that the CUSIP Service Bureau charge for the assignment of said numbers shall be the responsibility of and shall be paid for by the successful bidder. The successful bidder will also be responsible for any other fees or expenses it incurs in connection with the resale of the Bonds.
The Bonds are being issued under the provisions of Indiana Code 36-6-6-14 for the purpose of providing funds to finance the construction of a combined community center and fire station, together with all necessary appurtenances, related improvements and equipment. Principal and interest on the Bonds are payable from an ad valorem property tax levied and collected on all taxable property within the Township. In the opinion of Bond Counsel, under the federal statutes, decisions, regulations and rulings existing on this date, the interest on the Bonds is excludable from gross income for purposes of federal income taxation.
The Bonds are subject to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as in effect on the date of their issuance ("Code") which imposes limitations on the issuance of obligations like the Bonds under federal tax law. The Township has covenanted to comply with those limitations to the extent required to preserve the exclusion of interest on the Bonds from gross income for federal income tax purposes. The Bonds have been designated for purposes of Section 265(b) of the Code to qualify for the $10,000,000 annual exemption from the 100% disallowance, in the case of banks and other financial institutions, of the deduction for interest expense allocable to obligations acquired by financial institutions.
All provisions of the bid form are incorporated herein. As set forth in the bid form, the winning bidder agrees by submission of its bid to assist the Township in establishing the issue price of the Bonds under the terms outlined therein and shall execute and deliver to the Township at closing an "issue price" certificate, together with the supporting pricing wires or equivalent communications, with such modifications as may be appropriate or necessary, in the reasonable judgment of the winning bidder, the Township and Bond Counsel.
The Township has not prepared an official statement, but further information relative to the Bonds and the Township may be obtained upon application to the Township Trustee, 12450 State Road 32 East, Noblesville, Indiana 46060. The successful bidder will be required to sign an investment letter addressed to the Township to the effect that it is a sophisticated investor and understands the terms of and security for the Bonds.

Huskies turn on the defense, beat Golden Eagles

By RICHIE HALL
ARCADIA - Hamilton Heights pulled its record to the .500 mark on Tuesday after beating Guerin Catholic 47-27 in a game at the Huskies' gymnasium.

Heights got off to a rough start, as the Golden Eagles led early. But the Huskies turned up their defense and sailed to a convincing win.

Guerin skipped off to 9-1 lead midway through the first quarter. Carly Wilson capped the run with a 3-pointer. Heights began to get going after that, with Mykayla Moran making a putback for the Huskies' first basket of the game. Abby Christiansen had made a free throw earlier.

Wilson's layin put GC up 11-5 before Heights cut the lead to 11-10. Lauryn Wiley and Jillian Osswald each made baskets. Still, Guerin led 13-10 after the end of the quarter, with Sarah Holba's two free throws getting her team up by three.

But the Huskies took over from there, allowing the Golden Eagles no points in the second period. Bayleigh Runner tied the game with a 3-pointer, then Payton Dissett's jumper put Heights up 15-13, and the Huskies stayed in the lead from there. Heights held a 23-13 advantage at half-time, with Runner also making 6 of 6 free throws in the second period.

"That's a little bit disappointing, having a start like that, but it was somewhat expected," said Heights coach Keegan Cherry, who admitted that his team had a bit of a letdown after its big win over Noblesville on Friday. But once the Huskies settled in, things started going their way and Cherry was proud of his team's effort.

"To hold them scoreless in the second quarter there is impressive," said Cherry. "And then five and nine there, nine in the fourth quarter."

In the third quarter, Christiansen took over, scoring six points in the early stages. Then Moran got going, with two baskets in the later part of the period. Heights led 37-18 at the end of three.

Osswald got her turn for the Huskies in the fourth quarter, scoring six points. Heights led 47-20 with 1:14 left before Guerin Catholic scored the last seven points of the game. MT Ford scored five of those points.

"We started out well and then they turned up the defense a little bit," said GC coach Jeff Buckner. "Shots weren't falling for us like they were in the first quarter and they were able to hit some shots and start to increase that lead a little bit. And then we started to try to get it all back really quickly, which doesn't always work."

Runner led all scorers with 14 points and all rebounders with six. Osswald added 10 points and made five steals, while Moran scored eight and pulled five rebounds.

"The thing that we preach is, we play to a standard," said Cherry. "We don't ever want to get caught up playing the scoreboard. Luckily we had Bayleigh Runner again tonight and she was really good. I'm super proud of her effort."

Nicole Cunningham scored seven points to lead the Golden Eagles, while Claire Sawyer and Holba each had four rebounds.

OTHER GAMES

Hamilton Heights ran its win streak to four on Saturday with two wins at the Fort Wayne Snider Kilmer Classic.

The Huskies first beat Fort Wayne Northrop 60-44. Heights led 15-9 after the first quarter, then was ahead 27-22 at halftime. The Huskies then rolled through the second half, outscoring Northrop 33-22.

Runner had an incredible game, scoring 26 points and making four 3-pointers. Wiley added 17 points. Both Runner and Wiley joined Christiansen in pulling four rebounds. Runner and Osswald both handed out four assists, and Runner also had four steals.

Heights then took care of the host Snider, 49-37. The Huskies led 11-3 after the first quarter, then absorbed a Panthers comeback in the second quarter, as Snider cut Heights' lead to 21-17. But just like in the first game, the Huskies outscored the Panthers in the second half.

Runner added another 20 points and pulled nine rebounds. Osswald poured in 12 points and collected six rebounds, while Wiley scored 11 and corralled seven rebounds.

Heights is now 4-2 and hosts Greenfield-Central on Tuesday, then plays Saturday at Mount Vernon.

Guerin Catholic dropped a Circle City Conference game at Heritage Christian 70-24 on Saturday.

The Golden Eagles trailed 21-11 after the first quarter, after which Heritage outscored GC 23-0 in the second period to lead 44-11 at halftime. Cunningham led Guerin with 10 points, including two 3-pointers.

"Although we tried to prepare for it, the speed of HC got them off to a quick start and we fought to stay within striking distance in the first quarter," said Buckner, who noted that his team was still diving on the floor for loose balls and tieups late in the fourth quarter.

Guerin Catholic is now 0-2 in the conference and 2-4 overall. The Golden Eagles are off until Nov. 29, when they host Yorktown.

"The girls are determined to continue working to be a better team each time we take the floor," said Buckner.

Two big runs send Tigers past Shamrocks

By RICHIE HALL
FISHERS - Friday's girls basketball game at the Tiger Den was about as big as a game could get: Two undefeated teams playing their Hoosier Crossroads Conference opener.

Fishers hosted Westfield, and the game was hard-fought for the entire 32 minutes. But the Tigers used two big runs to take control, eventually winning 51-40. Fishers remains unbeaten at 6-0, while the Shamrocks are now 4-1.

Westfield got the first point of the game on a free throw by Ava Henson. The Tigers scored six straight points to go ahead 6-1, with Lydia Stullken scoring off a steal by Audra Emmerson, then Katie Burton and Tamia Perryman both made jump shots. Westfield quickly tied the game up after Shipley made a free throw, Gigi Eldredge hit a jumper, and Jade Shipley made a layin.

But after a quick timeout, Fishers turned it up, scoring 12 unanswered points in a run that stretched into the second period. Kaitlynn Feagan got hot, making a 3-pointer, then hitting another '3' while getting fouled. Feagan made the subsequent free throw to convert a rare four-point play.

"That's what I continue to be impressed by with us, is that on any given night, we can have any kid step up," said Tigers coach Lauren Vail. "And tonight, Kaitlynn Feagan hit some big shots for us. It's fun when you have that many kids that can contribute."

Burton's 3-pointer finished the run and put the Tigers ahead 18-6. Regan Dimond got Westfield going in the second with her own '3,' and that helped the Rocks to stay close through the period. Fishers led 22-13 at halftime.

Alyssa Crockett opened the third quarter with a 3-pointer, brining Westfield within 22-16. The 'Rocks then got as close as 24-20, after Henson scored on a putback and Eldredge made a layin.

But the Tigers embarked on their second big run of the game, outscoring Westfield 12-2 to take a 36-22 lead. Burton, who scored on a layin earlier in the quarter, contributed six points to the run, while Feagan drained another 3.

"I feel like all night Westfield had runs in them," said Vail. "We would hit a big shot and then they would hit a big shot. We would hit a big shot and they would hit a big shot. I feel like we did get a couple of times where we could get out and run in transition and that really broke it open for us."

"I think they shot the ball incredibly well," said Shamrocks coach Ginny Smith of Fishers. "We were out of sync. That match-up zone certainly gave us some problems. Not something we see every day or play against every day. Those Fishers kids, they just play so hard. Now our kids played hard too, we just didn't do some of the little things down the stretch."

Westfield continued to battle, but Fishers kept its double-digit lead for the entire fourth quarter. Perryman and Burton both had 3-pointers during the period. Burton led all scorers with 21 points - and she's only a sophomore.

"I have to remind myself sometimes that they're still young, and many of them playing in their first varsity season," said Vail. But those young players are off to a great start.

"I'm really proud of just the way they carry themselves and the great teammates that they are," said Vail.

Feagan, a junior, finished with 10 points. Perryman, Lydia Stullken and Cierra Tolbert all pulled five rebounds.

As for Westfield, Henson scored 11 points to lead the 'Rocks. Crockett scored 10 and pulled seven rebounds, with Henson and Eldredge both collecting six.

"I felt like second half, we picked up and tried to get some stuff going for us offensively through our defense," said Smith. "And still, it was just a struggle for us. All in all, that's a pretty good lesson learned for us. It gives us a good idea about things that we need to get better at. And we're just going to get back in the gym. That's what we're going to do, get better at some stuff."

Westfield got back on the winning track on Saturday, beating Kokomo 51-26 on the road.

The Shamrocks outscored the Wildkats in each of the four quarters, leading 12-6 after the first period and 25-18 at halftime. Westfield then outscored Kokomo 26-8 in the second half.

Crockett was all over the place, scoring 13 points, pulling nine rebounds, handing out five assists and blocking four shots. Henson added 12 points, in addition to collecting seven rebounds and making five steals.

Ashtin DeCraene added 10 points and made four steals. Shipley handed out six assists.

Westfield is 5-1 and hosts Western Boone on Tuesday.

Fishers plays its second HCC game of the season on Tuesday at Zionsville, then will play Elkhart Central on Saturday at New Castle.

Carmel football beats Valpo, heads to state

Forty-three years later, the Carmel football team got the ending it wanted at Valparaiso.

The Greyhounds beat the Vikings 14-10 in the Class 6A north semi-state game, claiming their 12th semi-state championship and punching a ticket to the state finals. Carmel will play Warren Central in next Friday's 6A title game at Lucas Oil Stadium; the Warriors held off Center Grove 27-20 in the 6A south semi-state final.

The 'Hounds played Valpo in 1975 for the 3A state title, but lost 14-13. This game was nearly as close. Carmel scored first, with quarterback Gabe Quigley streaking in to the end zone from 49 yards midway through the first period. Spencer Hanna made the extra point kick, and the Greyhounds led 7-0.

The Vikings' Liam Shepherd made a field goal in the second period, cutting into Carmel's lead. Still, that was all the offense for the first half, which ended with the 'Hounds up 7-3. Carmel made that 14-3 early in the third quarter, when Dylan Downing capped an 11-play drive with a nine-yard touchdown run. Hanna again made the extra point kick.

Valparaiso answered a few minutes later on a long drive of its own, with Jesse Harper finishing a 10-play series by running the ball in from seven yards. Shepherd's extra point kick made the score 14-10.

That would be all the scoring, and the Greyhounds' defense carried the team through the fourth quarter. With 1:42 left in the game, JD Rodgers sent a punt down the Valpo four-yard line. The Vikings made their way to the 30, but would get no further, as a fourth-and-15 pass fell just incomplete.

Downing led the rushing with 86 yards, while Quigley gained 73 yards on the ground. Quigley also completed six of 13 passes for 66 yards.

Wrestling: Millers finish close second at Husky Super 6

The wrestling season began for several Hamilton County teams on Saturday.

One of those starting tournaments was at Hamilton Heights, where the Huskies hosted their annual Super 6 event. It was a very competitive meet: Three of the six schools finished the event with 4-1 team records: Pendleton Heights, Noblesville and North Central.

The Arabians won the tiebreaker based on most total points scored, with 238. The Millers scored 225, while the Panthers totaled 219. Noblesville won its first four meets of the day, beating Cascade 57-21, Tipton 56-18, Pendleton Heights 40-36 and Hamilton Heights 41-22. The Millers lost to North Central in a close dual, 40-31.

Five Noblesville wrestlers were champions, with four of them finishing the tournament with 5-0 records: Dalton Huffman at 126 pounds, Justin Johnson-Sparks at 138, Sebastian Dillon at 152 and Zach Knoll at 182. Keaton Sepiol was the 113-pound champion with a 4-1 record. Gary Kitko went 4-1 at 145 pounds.

"I was very proud of how the team rallied together during our Pendleton Heights dual," said Millers coach Michael Weimer. "It was a very high-energy dual with a lot of adversity going on. We had losses we expected to win and a lot of our younger guys stepped it up in that dual."

"Overall, I was proud of the guys, how they competed," said Weimer. While he acknowledged it was tough to drop the last dual of the day, the coach noted that last year Noblesville was 2-3 at this meet, so there was improvement.

The host Huskies finished fourth at their event, going 2-3 for the day. Heights defeated Tipton 61-18 and Cascade 61-17, while in between falling to Pendleton Heights 45-30, North Central 41-24 and Noblesville 41-22.

Two Huskies wrestlers were undefeated champions at 5-0: Isaiah Rodriguez at 106 pounds and Bobby Williams at 170. Three other wrestlers finished 4-1: Cole Cowan at 113, Devonte Henson at 120 and Dreiken Dunn at 160.

"We're starting seven underclassmen and seven upperclassmen," said Heights coach Gary Myers, who also said there are a few Huskies wrestlers out with injuries. "So I thought we did pretty good overall. We hung tight with a lot of people."

After two swim meets...

Experienced Heights girls are ahead of last year

By RICHIE HALL
ARCADIA - After two meets, the Hamilton Heights girls swim team is making the most important progress of all: The Huskies are ahead of where they were last year.

Heights hosted Lebanon on Thursday in its first home meet of the season. The Huskies beat the Tigers 104-76, winning all but one event. Heights dropped its opener at Oak Hill on Monday, the first time it had lost a regular-season meet in a couple years, so the Huskies were happy to start a new winning streak.

"It feels good to know that we're back on track," said Heights coach Sue Beale. "I know the girls took it a little hard to lose after so long winning, so I think this is really good for their morale and to boost them."

The Huskies got two wins each from four different swimmers, all of them returning from successful seasons last year. Senior Rachel Sanqunetti, a state qualifier last year in the backstroke, won that event and the 50 freestyle. Junior Ryleigh Poe was first in the butterfly and 500 free. Sophomore Tara Holder took the 200 and 100 freestyles, with sophomore Emily Lester winning the individual medley and breaststroke. The four swimmers also combined to win the medley relay and 400 free relay. Bailey Haworth won the diving event.

"I think they did really well for the meet setup," said Beale. Since the boys can't begin their season until next week, it was girls only this week, which Beale said is "really difficult." In addition, Heights wasn't in school Thursday because of the ice storm that morning, so everyone "was a little tired," said Beale.

"But our times are ahead of last year at this time, so I think we're headed in the right direction," said Beale.

Beale noted that Sanqunetti has already swam the backstroke at 1:00 this year, as compared to "the 1:02 area" last year at this time. "And the same thing with her 200 freestyle, we're about three seconds ahead of where she was last year at this time," said Beale.

Poe, meanwhile, spent the summer training at the Fishers Swim Club, concentrating on the butterfly.

"We've really got her going after that," said Beale. "I know that she has her sights set on making state, so we're going to do the best we can to get her there."

Heights also has nine freshmen this season, and they're already producing good results. Mady Hutcherson and Kennedy Weaver were part of the second-place 200 free relay (with sophomores Kat Cox and Maria Mitchell), with Weaver also taking third in the individual medley.

Beale said that some of the swimmers have been participating in club, with others coming from the middle school. Regardless, those swimmers are finding their place on the team.

"I think they're doing really well," said Beale, who noted that the freshmen are already dropping time. "Their enthusiasm keeps them going."

The Huskies' next meet is Tuesday, when they host Anderson. It will also be the first meet of the year for the Heights boys team.

While Oak Hill won the Monday meet with a score of 103-82, Huskies coach Sue Beale said her team had a great meet, with veteran swimmers Sanqunetti, Poe and Holder leading the way.

Sanqunetti and Poe both won two events; with Sanqunetti claiming the 200 freestyle and backstroke, and Poe taking the 500 free and butterfly.

Holder won the 100 free, placed second in the 50 free and swam on the medley relay. Lester also swam on the medley relay, and finished second in the individual medley and breaststroke.

Freshman Weaver took third in the IM and breaststroke. Heights' 200 free relay team of Alaina Stohler, Cox, Weaver and Hutcherson finished second.
