Quakenbush awards Medals of Honor

The REPORTER

Sgt. Bill Clifford and Deputy Jeremy Kousen were recently awarded the Sheriff's Medal of Honor by Sheriff Dennis Quakenbush.

On Jan. 28, Hamilton County Public Safety Communications received a report of an attempted suicide in the area of 156th Street and Prairie Baptist Road. Initial reports were that a female subject had cut her wrists and was losing consciousness.

Deputy Kousen and Sgt. Clifford, along with a Noblesville Police officer, responded to the call. Upon arriving, the NPD officer and Deputy Kousen applied tourniquets to her arms, both of which had been cut and were bleeding profusely.

As the patient was losing consciousness, Sgt. Clifford applied direct pressure to the wound on her right arm. The actions of these three men allowed the medics to immediately administer fluids and other lifesaving measures instead of having to stop the bleeding first.

Without the fast response, use of issued equipment and proper training of Deputy Kousen and Sgt. Clifford, the likelihood of a positive outcome would have been greatly decreased.

Each Hamilton County deputy is equipped with and trained in the use of tourniquets to assist in lifesaving efforts involving traumatic injuries with bleeding. Deputies are trained annually in First Aid and CPR as they are often the initial first responder on the scene of an injury or accident. The Medal of Honor may be presented to members of the Sheriff's Office who, through an extraordinary effort, attempt to contribute to the saving of a human life. Additionally, when death of the victim seems imminent, the member's actions significantly assist the lifesaving effort.

Carmel seeks proposals for Main & Range Line project

The REPORTER

The Carmel Redevelopment Commission (CRC) has issued an official Request for Proposal to developers seeking to partner with the City in the redevelopment of 1.7 acres at the northeast corner of Main Street and Range Line Road. The City acquired part of the property, informally known as the "PNC property" in December.

The Request for Proposal is the first step in the process to redevelop the land into a mixed-use development that will bring more residents, more jobs and more opportunities for small businesses to the Arts & Design District. PNC Bank, which sold the land to the City, will remain on location during and after the redevelopment project.

"This is an exciting step forward for our business community and our local residents who have wanted a lively and vibrant area in the heart of our community," said Mayor Jim Brainard. "This project in particular will benefit our local, small businesses to the east of Range Line Road, bringing with it more activity from sunrise to sunset with a mix of office workers and residents."

The Arts & Design District - which extends several blocks in all four directions from this intersection - is already a thriving, mixed-use community of retail, restaurants, office and housing which brings together a variety of design-related businesses from art studios and galleries to restaurants and professional offices. In close proximity to the Monon Greenway, Carmel High School, Carmel Clay Public Library and the Midtown District, this redevelopment project promises the best views of Carmel's urban core and walkable access to many amenities which contribute to Carmel's recognition as one of America's best places to live, work and play.

er to propose and construct a development which will enhance and anchor the main crossroads of the Arts & Design District. The CRC will collect and review proposals before selecting a developer, if any, that meets the objectives and terms of the RFP.

"We are looking to partner with the best developer who offers up the best proposal that is fitting for such a high-profile corner as Main Street and Range Line Road," said CRC Executive Director Henry Mestetsky. "This particular parcel is already receiving some national attention, so we expect the competition for the winning proposal to be intense."

The land is now being referred to as "Lot One" as a portion of the site incorporates lots 1 to 4 of the original town of Bethlehem, Ind. plat. Carmel was founded as Bethlehem in 1837 before officially changing its name to Carmel in 1874.

The CRC will host a pre-proposal meeting at 10:30 a.m. on Wednesday, March 27 at Carmel City Hall, with plans to open proposals on May 1.

Developers will be asked to include the following in their proposals:

(a) Construct a mixed-use development with architectural design characteristics commensurate with neighboring developments and the City's vision for Main Street.

(b) Construct retail space within the mixed-use development, including a retail bank branch;

(c) Provide adequate underground on-site parking for the development and the public, of which, 25 percent of total parking may be reserved for the development.

(d) Include a setback on the southwest corner featuring the Carmel Rotary Clock.

(e) Provide storm water management for the parcels and coordinate storm water management to include surrounding areas and existing City infrastructure coming from

Westfield Historic District named to National Register

The REPORTER

The Westfield Preservation Alliance has announced that on Jan. 31, 2019, the Westfield Historic District (roughly bounded by Penn Street on the north, Walnut Street on the east, Park Street on the south and Camilla Court on the west) was entered in the National Register of Historic Places.

The Westfield Historic District becomes the second district in Westfield listed on the National Register of Historic Places. The first district designated was the Union High Academy Historic District, which has been on the National Register since March 1995.

Westfield Preservation Alliance will receive official State and National certificates during a special ceremony at the Indiana State Fair this August.

Designation for listing on the National Register of Historic Places is authorized by the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966. The National Park Service administers the National Register of Historic Places which is the official inventory of buildings, districts (neighborhoods, commercial areas and structures) with national, state or local significance in the development of our nation's cultural heritage. A professional review board in each state considers each property nominated and makes the determining recommendation to the National Register.

For owners of a property listed on the National Register, there can be benefits in addition to the honorific recognition. The potential benefits may include eligibility for certain tax provisions, ability to apply for matching federal or state grants.

For more information on the benefits please visit in.gov/dnr/historic and indianalandmarks.org.

Importance of local primary underrated

In 48 days Noblesville voters will essentially select the next mayor of what is now Indiana's 12th largest city. It doesn't seem possible that only a generation ago Noblesville was a typical county seat city of only 8,000.

Now, with a population estimated at 60,000, there is added importance when choosing a new administration. The growth and development is dynamic, and certainly qualified leadership is needed to guide that kind of growth.

Do voters understand the importance of the coming primary election on May 7? You would like to think so, but participation in local primaries is notoriously light. Sometimes no more than 20 percent of the eligible voters show up on Election Day.

FRED SWIFT
The County Line

Primary elections are so important in Hamilton County because the winner of a Republican primary is almost certain to be elected in the November general election.

To date, there has been no indication that Democrats will field candidates for the highest office in any of the county's four cities. And, if they do, chances are slim they can win. Noblesville elected only two Democratic mayors in the 20th century and the other communities have elected none.

It seems that longtime residents tend to appreciate the importance of the primary, but newer citizens often do not understand the situation and skip the opportunity to voice their opinion in the city's leadership.

Noblesville has four GOP mayoral candidates from which to choose. That offers a wide selection for voters. The four are: Vincent Alan Baker, Mike Corbett, Christopher Jensen and Julia Church Kozicki.

Besides mayor, city council candidates and candidates for city clerk and city judge are also on the ballot. And the same offices are at stake in Carmel, Fishers and Westfield, except there is no judge in Westfield.

Most of these candidates will do everything they can to get voters to the polls on primary election day. Hopefully they will be successful in at least getting a larger than average number of folks to participate because in Hamilton County it is likely THE election.

“When thunder roars, go indoors” PROJECT

When you hear thunder, you are close enough to be struck by lightning. It is important to heed the warning, “When thunder roars, go indoors.”

Lightning is only one of the many threats from thunderstorms. More homes are damaged by severe thunderstorms than tornadoes due to their destructive winds, large hail and lightning.

It is important to understand a severe thunderstorm watch means conditions are favorable. You need to make a plan where you will go in the event of a warning, which means take action.

“Your safe place for a tornado should be the same safe place you go to when a severe thunderstorm warning is issued,” said Shane Booker, Executive Director of Emergency Management for Hamilton County. “As thunderstorms build, there are times when the storm becomes too large and it can no longer support itself resulting in a tremendous amount of air pushed to ground at high rates of speed. Know that severe thunderstorm warnings are serious and heed the warning by going to your safe place.”

Weather Safety
Severe Thunderstorm & Tornado

Watch Vs. Warning

- ✓ Watch : The potential exists for severe thunderstorm/tornado development.
- ✓ Warning : Severe weather is imminent or occurring based on radar or relayed severe weather reports.

Severe Thunderstorm Safety

- ✓ If a severe thunderstorm warning is issued:
 - ✓ Take shelter in a substantial building
 - ✓ Get out of mobile homes that can blow over in high winds
 - ✓ When thunder roars, go indoors!
 - ✓ Do not take a bath, shower or use plumbing

Tornado Shelter Tips

Safest place. Basement or interior room, stairwell or hallway on a low floor.

Worst place. Avoid windows, doors and outside walls.

Cover yourself with blankets or a mattress for protection. A helmet can be used for added protection against head injuries.

Tornado Safety

- ✓ If a tornado warning is issued:
 - ✓ Stay away from windows
 - ✓ Go to a basement or an interior room on the lowest floor
 - ✓ Abandon cars and mobile homes
 - ✓ If outdoors, seek sturdy shelter

HSE school board meeting centered on building issues

By LARRY LANNAN
LarryInFishers.com

The Hamilton Southeastern (HSE) school board dealt with a number of issues at its last meeting, but most of the time was spent on building and facility issues throughout the district.

The board took action on several of those building proposals.

First, $500,000 was approved to demolish the bleachers at HSE High School and replace them.

Seating capacity will be reduced from 3,355 to 2,852 to accommodate current code requirements. Handicap seating positions and center rails will be added as part of the improvements.

Next, $375,000 was authorized to replace a skylight at New Britton Elementary.

Then, more than $500,000 was approved to buy new furniture for New Britton Elementary.

Finally, the school corporation will spend $922,000 to replace part of the roof at Riverside Intermediate School.

The board received information on projects set to come before the board in the future. They include:

- Fishers Junior High School renovations are planned for the Media Center and Academic Corridor. The projected price tag of this project is $1.7 million.

- Auditorium renovations at both high school were explained. At Fishers High School, the upgrades are expected to cost $1.16 million. At HSE, the projected price tag is just over $1 million. Most of the funds would be used to replace outdated sound and lighting systems.

- LED lighting upgrades are planned for Sand Creek Elementary, Sand Creek Intermediate, HSE Intermediate/Jr. High and HSE High School. The anticipated cost for this project is $1.8 million.

Multiple railroad crossing repairs

Several railroad crossings will be under full road closures within the next few weeks.

Westfield Rotary Club celebrates 10 years

The REPORTER

Rotary Club of Westfield celebrated its 10th anniversary on Saturday, Feb. 23, at the Historic Hoffa Barn in Westfield.

Over 50 people attended this special occasion. Many of the original chapter founders of this service organization were present to talk about how this club began.

Program Chairman David Mueller said, "It was a lot of fun, music and fellowship. Many past Rotarians who have moved away came back for this 'flannel and jeans party' in the historic 1855 barn."

Rotary serves many needs in the community, including Open Doors food pantry, Student Impact, Youth Assistance, Midwest Food Pantry, the Sensory Garden, an international exchange student program, and it supports the Rotary Interact Club at Westfield High School.

The theme for the evening was to celebrate the Rotary International Foundation project of eliminating polio throughout the world. It was recently stated by Bill Gates in the Wall Street Journal that there are only 31 known cases of the disease left in the world. In one generation, this crippling disease has been almost eliminated. Rotary International has donated over $1 billion to help this worthwhile cause.

Both men and women are invited to be Rotarians. Rotary Club of Westfield meets at 7:30 a.m. every Tuesday morning at the Bridgewater Club.

An open letter to the Carmel City Council . . .

“Taxpayers were ‘guaranteed’ buildings that do not exist”

Dear Editor:

At the Carmel City Council meeting on Monday, the taxpayers of Carmel respectfully requested that the Council provide a clear, succinct and transparent response to a simple request: "Where are the buildings that developer Pedcor 'guaranteed' but which are not constructed?"

In 2015, the Carmel City Council awarded $20 million in taxpayer debt to the developer Pedcor based on Pedcor's "guarantee" to build a series of new buildings between 2015 and 2019. The City Council was quoted as saying that the taxpayers were "completely protected," because of those developer 'guarantees.' The aerial photo at right shows that buildings that were 'guaranteed' to begin construction in 2015 do not exist. Buildings that do not exist do not generate TIF.

The table at right itemizes the buildings which Pedcor 'guaranteed' to be constructed, the square footage alleged to be 'guaranteed' for each building, and the construction schedule commitment which Pedcor made, as reported by the CRC.

Since buildings that do not exist do not pay property taxes, it would appear that Carmel taxpayers are left unprotected in repaying the $20 million debt. So, we respectfully ask the Carmel

Joe Weingarten criticizes bill arming teachers

Dear Editor:

Guns in school dumb move. House Bill 1253 to arm is an extremely dumb move and may in time result in the death of a teacher or other school employee. Will these teachers be wearing a police uniform or just regular clothes and have a weapon? What's to stop a police officer from seeing someone with a weapon after shots have been fired in a school from shooting the teacher in the heat of the moment.

After all Carmel Police Chief Jim Barlow put it best when he said "It could be difficult to police officers responding to an active shooter to determine the good guys from the bad guys."

Just because the gun lobby thinks this is a good idea we should not follow and see a teacher in the future being shot in a mistaken identity.

Westfield student calls for later school day start times

Dear Editor,

I believe middle and high schools in Hamilton County should have later school start times.

Many studies show that an extra hour or 45 minutes of sleep would have middle school and high school kids more energized and ready to learn. Many elementary students learn best in the morning when they have the most energy.

A main worry of parents is that the sports will run too long into the night that the kids would be losing sleep after they are done with homework and ready to go to bed. But, I believe the pros of waking up later and having students more energized outweigh the cons of having a select number of kids go to sleep a few minutes later.

I am glad to say next year I will be a freshman at Westfield High School. I am thrilled that Westfield has followed the trend and pushed back middle and high school start times.

I believe switched start is what's better for the growth of students.

Sincerely,
Zach Purtlebaugh

Kozicki clarifies her positions while member of Noblesville school board

Dear Editor,

I have been asked by several persons about my position as a member of the Noblesville School Board who sought a tax increase by referendum. As this is an important issue to our community, I want to make my position clear.

My 12 years of service on the school board were a privilege. I am very proud of the body of work that was accomplished during that time. A closer look reveals the actions taken during my tenure certainly do not support the allegation that I am a spendthrift, nor was the board or Noblesville Schools. The necessity for a referendum was a result of state legislation that directly impacted high-growth school corporations like Noblesville. The additional funds sought by our referenda were necessary to maintain the status quo level of funding, provide additional class space, and expand Noblesville High School after the sale to Ivy Tech.

Following the incident at Noblesville West Middle School last May, it was clear that as a community, we wanted to do everything reasonably possible to ensure the safety of our students and staff. That, together with meeting the competitive needs of our teachers, led the board to unanimously seek the additional funds needed to maintain our excellent school system. The voters approved the referendum, indicating that a majority of our citizens agreed with that need.

My experience has taught me that not every decision is easy, but it is not about winning a popularity contest.

Governing is about setting a course for the future that is best for the community you serve and listening to and communicating to constituents about those actions. Maintaining an excellent school system is a worthy goal for our children and our community for many reasons, not the least of which is that the quality of a community's school system is the No. 1 impetus for people to live, work and play in a city or town. That equates directly to maintaining high property values that benefit all of us.

As mayor of Noblesville, I will work to protect the tax base while deeply considering the impact on taxpayers, especially the elderly who are on a fixed income. My larger concerns at present are the currently unchecked and unaccounted for tax abatements, TIF projects (which further erode taxes that would otherwise go to schools and other taxing units) and other subsidies for developers.

When public dollars are spent to support private investment, it is critical that the dollars are accounted for to confirm that the expected return on investment occurs. And when public dollars are requested to support private investment, the return on investment needs to be more than one new job (as with a recent abatement request granted by the city council.)

While I am not opposed to offering incentives to companies that promise opportunities like attracting new residents and increasing overall assessed valuation, we will discuss and share with the public the return on investment . . . just like any business would need to do for such a hefty expenditure, and if the promises are not kept, we will seek reimbursement.

The recent big developments, announced with much fanfare, have not resulted in lower taxes for our community. Rather, we are paying more taxes (by way of the trash fee) and higher rates than our neighbors looking strictly at the city rate. I will ensure that public dollars are spent in ways that increase assessed valuation, which lowers the rate for everyone.

This position has not made me particularly popular with the developers who are benefiting from these incentives. But I'm not representing them; I'm working to represent you, the residents of my hometown, Noblesville, Indiana. That is why my campaign is committed to not taking political contributions from any developers or contractors who work with the city.

Don't be distracted. I am a proud fiscal conservative and I will work hard every day to see that every tax dollar is spent wisely. I ask for your support and your vote on May 7.

Julia Church Kozicki
Candidate for mayor of Noblesville

Gov. Holcomb, INDOT kick off 2019 Next Level Roads construction season

The REPORTER

Governor Eric J. Holcomb joined Indiana Department of Transportation Commissioner Joe McGuinness, law enforcement, and road construction industry partners on Tuesday to kick off the 2019 Next Level Roads construction season.

The kickoff event was held at INDOT's Office of Materials Management in Indianapolis. The office develops, inspects and tests materials used to construct and maintain highways to ensure products used are efficient and effective.

INDOT is embarking on its second full year of delivering Gov. Holcomb's Next Level Roads plan, which leverages long-term, sustainable funding to make record-setting investments in Indiana's transportation system.

"Maintaining our leading position as the Crossroads of America is vital to growing Indiana's economy, attracting new employers, expanding existing businesses and providing a quality of life we can be proud of," Gov. Holcomb said. "Because of our state's fully-funded plan, INDOT and local communities are making meaningful infrastructure investments with results that will be felt throughout Indiana for years to come."

More than 1,100 projects are scheduled for construction along INDOT routes in 2019. When combined with preventative maintenance activities, the state is investing more than $2 billion in its highway network this year.

Gov. Holcomb's Next Level Roads plan spends an estimated $10 billion on construction and maintenance of state highways over the next five years and more than $30 billion in the next 20 years.

Additionally, INDOT is making available an estimated $140 million to help address winter damage for projects like repaving portions of Interstate 465 in Indianapolis.

With construction season kicking into high gear, Indiana residents and travelers to the Crossroads of America will see an increasing number of "Road Work Ahead" signs.

"INDOT is delivering a record number of projects in 2019 on top of many cities, towns and counties that are also delivering more construction projects than ever before," McGuinness said. "In the short term, that means that Hoosiers will see a lot of orange barrels this year and should expect some delays. The payoff will be thousands of miles of smoother pavement and hundreds of improved bridges in all corners of Indiana."

Hoosiers are encouraged to visit nextlevelroads.com to use INDOT's Google Map tool to find projects happening near them. Motorists should also check INDOT's CARS program for real time traffic conditions and construction project updates. To report a roadway concern, call 855-INDOT4U or visit indot4u.com.

With the record breaking construction sites across the state, INDOT and the Indiana State Police are partnering together to remind the public about Work Zone Awareness Week. Hoosier motorists are encouraged to slow down, avoid distractions and drive with extra caution in work zones.

Next month, in conjunction with a national awareness effort, Gov. Holcomb will declare April 8 to 12 Work Zone Awareness week to remind all drivers of their responsibility to keep work zones safe for workers and other drivers.

You can help promote work zone safety by wearing orange on Wednesday, April 10. More information on work zone safety is online at workzonesafety.in.gov.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight. All things are delivered to me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him. And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see: For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

Hazel Marie Young
November 10, 1940 – March 17, 2019

Hazel Marie Young, 78, Sheridan, formerly of Indianapolis, passed away on Sunday morning, March 17, 2019 surrounded by her loving family at Sanders Glen Assisted Living Community in Westfield. Born November 10, 1940 in Harlan County, Ky., she was the daughter of the late Arnold Young and Ena Davis Young-Houchens.

Hazel spent most of her adult life living in the Indianapolis area, both in the city and a little bit to the north in Sheridan. For many of those years she worked as a waitress and hostess at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway motel. Hazel loved the excitement that surrounded the place, especially during the month of May. She loved visiting with the VIP guests that were experiencing the 500 for the first time, but her favorite part was catching up with the drivers and celebrities that returned year after year. They were her regular customers when they came to town, asking for her by name whenever they would come in. After the IMS motel had seen its final years, Hazel spent the remainder of her career with Aero Drapery and with Meijer in Carmel before taking her retirement.

When Hazel had some time to herself, she enjoyed cooking and baking. Her homemade chocolate pies were in constant demand by family and friends. She also loved getting out in her garden and tending to her many flowers.

Her favorite activity, however, was spending as much time as she could with the people that she loved the most. Her family and friends were what truly made her the happiest.

Hazel is survived by her daughter, Tina Vawter (Phil), Sheridan; two grandchildren, Christina Vawter, Sheridan, and Megan Vawter-Ward (John), Greencastle; two sisters, Wilma VanLaningham, Indianapolis, and Sharon Huffaker, Monticello, Ky.; and several nieces and nephews. Hazel is also survived by her very special friends, Teri-Ann and Bill Slauter, and Jeannie McKay.

She was preceded in death by her parents; stepfather, Frank Houchens; her infant son, Eddie Dean Burgett; and by her loving husband, Lewis "Glen" Burgett in 1977. She and Glen were married on September 8, 1956.

A Celebration of Life will take place at 7 p.m. on Friday, March 22, 2019 at Kercheval Funeral Home, 306 E. 10th St., Sheridan, with visitation from 5 p.m. until the time of service. Pastor Carol Fritz will be officiating.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial contributions be presented to the American Lung Association, 115 W. Washington St., #1180-South, Indianapolis, IN 46204, or to Sanders Glen Assisted Living Community, 334 S. Cherry St., Westfield, IN 46074.

Millers dominate WeBo in season opener

By RICHIE HALL

NOBLESVILLE - The Noblesville softball team opened its season with a dominating win over Western Boone on Tuesday.

The Millers beat the Stars 12-0, ending the game after six innings on the 10-run rule. Noblesville scored five runs in the sixth inning to finish the contest: Alyssa Solomon scored on an error, then Myah Stuckey got home on a passed ball. Julia Furiak then stepped up and hit a three-run home run, also scoring Abby Brown and Chloe Tragesser, both of whom drew walks.

All in all, it was a nice way to start the season for the Millers, who were ranked No. 5 in the Class 4A post-season poll and are returning several players from a team that made the semi-state championship game last year.

"For being our first game out, I thought we played well," said Noblesville coach Deke Bullard. "I thought we made some mistakes, which we anticipated. I thought we ran the bases well. Overall for our first game out, being cooler weather and chilly, we're pleased with how we performed."

The Millers began the game the way they ended it, with a home run. Ella White blasted a two-run homer into center field to get Noblesville on the board. The Millers added four more runs in the second: Emily Minett doubled, then scored on a wild pitch. Later, Tragesser hit her own double with the bases loaded, getting three more runs. Brown, Shea Sterrett and Kyleigh Lowry all got home.

After a scoreless third inning, Noblesville got a run in the fourth after Rylie Moore scored on a wild pitch. In the fifth inning, Furiak's singled sent White home.

Bullard was also pleased with his team's base running, as the Millers had eight stolen bases. Solomon made two steals.

Maddie Taylor got the pitching win, striking out 10 in five innings of work. Baily Ryan relieved her in the sixth inning and went three-up, three-down.

Noblesville is off for Spring Break, and will return to action Monday, April 8 by

Huskies hold off Zionsville, Greene goes 5-for-5

Hamilton Heights got off to a good start, then held on for a wild finish to beat Zionsville 10-6 in its season-opener Monday at the Eagles' field.

The Huskies got their first run after Isabella Neiling drew a bases-loaded walk to send Faith Hittle home. Heights had to wait until the fifth inning for its next run, but it was worth it: Adyson Baber smacked a two-run home run, also scoring Hayley Greene.

The Huskies scored another run in the sixth; Greene singled in Bayleigh Runner. Heights then poured in six runs in the top of the seventh. Sydney Massicotte singled in Alayna Baber and Kelsie Albright, Greene's double got Massicotte and Hittle home, and Adyson Baber hit her second two-run homer, getting Greene in again. Zionsville scored six runs in the bottom of the seventh, but a flyout to Greene at third base finished the game.

Greene had an outstanding game, hitting 5-for-5, while Adyson Baber went 4-for-4.

Baber also pitched six innings for the win, giving up only five hits.

Heights will host Frankton at 5 p.m. today.

'Rocks stopped by Monrovia homer

McClure

Two home runs summed up Westfield's season-opener Monday at Monrovia.

After falling behind, the Shamrocks blasted their way back into the game with a grand slam in the fifth inning. But after forcing Monrovia into extra innings, the Bulldogs hit a walkoff homer in the bottom of the eighth, sending Westfield to a 7-5 defeat. The 'Rocks trailed 5-0 after four innings. In the top of the fifth, leadoff woman Alexis McClure got on base with a single, then moved to second after Reghan Oland's base hit. Savannah Arvin hit a sacrifice fly that advanced both runners.

Lexi Martin was hit by a pitch to load the bases. That brought up Avery Parker, and her right field line drive turned into an inside the park home run. Westfield was now within 5-4.

Martin tied the game up in the seventh inning. She doubled into center field, moved to third on a wild pitch, then scored on Parker's ground out. The score was now 5-5 and stayed there through the end of the seventh. But in the bottom of the eighth, Monrovia hit a two-out, two-run home run to win the game.

Ohland finished the game 3-for-5, while Sara Harmeyer went 2-for-4, including a double. Avery Wagner pitched a complete game, striking out five.

Westfield plays at Taylor on Thursday.

Lacrosse

Fishers girls get big HCC victory

The Fishers girls lacrosse team picked up a big Hoosier Crossroads Conference win on Tuesday, beating Brownsburg 17-2.

Emily Guaspohl, Gracie Bicknell, Abigail Garrison and Anna Schneckle led the Tigers defense, which limited the Bulldogs' opportunities with turnovers that led to 17 goals. Fishers' midfield continued to score in bunches: Skylar Fulton had five goals and one assist, Nina Dilliard had four goals and one assist; and Mac Miller scored two goals. Stephanie Wright led the attack with two goals on three shots. Aleris Crum, Renata Garcia, and Sarah Peterson each score one goal.

On Saturday, the Fishers girls lacrosse team lost to undefeated Evansville North 15-5. The Tigers fell behind 9-1 at halftime before rallying in the second half, scoring four goals. Kelsey Bolin made 14 saves.

Fishers will host North Central at 6:30 p.m. Thursday.

Carmel's girls team beat Zionsville 12-10 on Monday.

Sarah Jackson scored four goals for the Greyhounds. The Carmel JV Blue team won 7-3.

Hamilton Southeastern's boys team beat Henry Clay (Ky.) 15-5 in a Sunday game.

The Royals jumped out to a quick 8-2 lead by halftime and never looked back. Tony Cassiere went 9-2 at the face-off X and Ty DeSplinter scooped up six ground balls, leading Southeastern to several "make it, take it" situations in the first half. The attack of Cam Smith, Ryan Kemp, and EJ Reichard did a solid job riding, which forced the Blue Devils to fail 11 clears. Cam Smith was the Man of the Match with five goals, one assist, three caused turnovers, and three ground balls.

Pacers struggle with turnovers in loss to Clippers

By GREG RAPPAPORT

Courtesy nba.com/pacers

On the second night of a back-to-back and missing their starting point guard, the Pacers struggled with turnovers all game, falling 115-109 to the Los Angeles Clippers on Tuesday night.

Despite shooting the ball well (51.7 percent), Indiana's 20 turnovers as a team provided the Clippers (42-30) with ample chances to score as L.A. managed to close out the game in the fourth quarter despite a furious Pacers (44-28) run.

"I thought the effort was there but the sharpness was not," said Pacers head coach Nate McMillan. "You can't have 20 turnovers this time a year and expect to win a game."

Even with the double-digit deficit, the Pacers managed to claw back into the game in the fourth quarter when Doug McDermott, who scored 17 points off the bench, dropped in a floater to bring the score to a 96-91 Clippers lead with 7:31 remaining.

Minutes later, it was Bojan Bogdanovic helping the Pacers pull closer, as he drove the lane and finished high off the glass to bring Indiana within four.

With the game in striking distance, rookie Shai Gilgeous-Alexander helped push the Clippers ahead, getting tough layups to fall on consecutive possessions to balloon L.A.'s lead to eight.

But just as they had all night, the Pacers continued to dig deep. Domantas Sabonis — who racked up 13 points and 16 boards — converted an and-one and Tyreke Evans scored on a drive to get it to a one-possession game.

However, when the Pacers needed a stop the most, they were unable to get one as Patrick Beverley drove down the middle for a floating layup to push ahead 114-109 with 10.7 seconds remaining.

From there, the Clippers were able to close out the six-point win as the Pacers lost their third straight game of a four-game road swing.

Without Darren Collison (right quad contusion) in the starting lineup, Indiana's offense struggled to find its footing. The Pacers started the game just 8-of-23 from the field and trailed 25-16 by the end of the first quarter.

To start the second, Indiana's bench unit starting clicking as Sabonis delivered a dime to McDermott for a one-handed slam, helping lift the Pacers to a 14-8 edge to begin the quarter.

In the final minutes of the half, the Pacers got back-to-back threes from Thaddeus Young and Cory Joseph to bring the score to just a two-point Clippers lead. To close the second quarter, however, Danilo Gallinari canned a 3-pointer for the Clippers, giving Los Angeles a 55-49 lead at the break.

Indiana opened the second half on a strong note, getting five straight points from Bojan Bogdanovic. But every Pacers run in the third was met with an answer by the red-hot Clippers, who forced a timeout when rookie Landry Shamet drained a 3-pointer to put L.A. ahead 72-63 with 6:20 remaining in the third.

The Clippers closed the quarter strong from there, using a 13-4 run to end the frame as L.A. entered the fourth leading 89-75.

While the Clips quickly extended their lead to begin the final quarter of play, a 7-0 run from the Pacers that included a 3-pointer from Bogdanovic helped force an L.A. timeout with 8:58 remaining and the Pacers down eight.

Indiana was able to get the deficit to three points, but in crunch time, the Clippers had the edge. A Lou Williams jumper with 40.8 seconds left and a Beverley floater with 10 seconds deflated the comeback bid and sent the Pacers to their third straight defeat.

"Just go out there and stay the course, put together a 48-minute game," said Thaddeus Young when asked how the team can avoid extending its losing streak. "Just make sure that we execute and pay attention to detail."

Brickyard Crossing opens today with 'Pay The Temp' promotion

INDIANAPOLIS - The 2019 season at Brickyard Crossing Golf Course will start when the course opens today with a fun greens fees special that continues through March.

The popular "Pay the Temp" promotion returns Wednesday at the championship-caliber course at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, which includes four holes inside the famous oval. The greens fee for 18 holes and a cart will be equal to the air temperature within one hour of a golfer's tee time, providing significant savings in the cooler weather of spring over regular greens fees. This promotion continues daily through Sunday, March 31.

Call 317-492-6417 or visit brickyardcrossing.com to book tee times.

Players on the challenging, Pete Dye-designed layout will benefit this season from a continuing project to rebuild sand traps around the course. The project is aiding drainage, helping to avoid bunker washouts after heavy rain and increasing challenge for players with stacked sod on the bunker face.

Opening Day marks the start of another exciting season for the award-winning Brickyard Crossing. Professional golf will return for the third consecutive year with the LPGA Indy Women in Tech Championship Driven by Group 1001 on Sept. 23-29, with the best female players in the world competing on the course.
