New pickleball courts grand opening marked by tournament

By LARRY LANNAN
 LarryInFishers.com

Pickleball fans in Fishers were excited when the first four pickleball courts were opened at Cyntheanne Park on the northeast side of the city in late July of 2015. There was a big ceremony and Mayor Scott Fadness played a round or two of pickleball. Many of those attending that opening event were from the nearby Britton Falls neighborhood.

Fast forward to 2018 and pickleball fans were before the city again. There was such a demand for the pickleball courts at Cyntheanne Park, only a few of the people wanting to use the courts could get time to play. Pickleball lovers were before the city wanting more courts constructed.

Mayor Fadness said there was money in the budget to fund two more courts, but not enough to pay for the four additional courts residents were requesting.

Then local entrepreneur Steve Cage entered the picture. An avid pickleballer himself, Cage offered to donate $63,000 for the two additional courts.

As a result of that donation, all eight pickleball courts at Cyntheanne Park are named "Cage Pickleball."

The grand opening of the new Cage Pickleball Challenge Courts will be marked with a new pickleball tournament, which is expected to become an annual event. Tournament activity will take place from 4 to 8 p.m. on Friday, April 26, and extends from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, April 27.

Registration is $25 per player. (Please note this tournament is not USAPA sanctioned.) Spectators are welcome and are free to attend. Click here to register.

Greenaway booked into jail Friday

WISH-TV | wishtv.com

A former Hamilton County magistrate who lost his job after he was caught in a drug sting is now in jail, Indiana State Police said Friday.

William Greenaway, 50, Noblesville, was released about noon Friday from Community North Hospital in Indianapolis Friday and later taken to the Hamilton County Jail where he was booked on charges of possession of methamphetamine, resisting law enforcement and obstruction of justice. A special judge from Tipton County had ordered the former magistrate to be booked into jail immediately upon release from the hospital.

By 5 p.m., Greenaway had been released from jail on his own recognizance, according to online records.

Greenaway has been accused of buying meth from an undercover police informant, attempting to conceal the plastic bag of drugs from authorities by swallowing it and biting a detective who tried to pry his mouth open to retrieve the evidence, according to a probable cause affidavit obtained by News 8.

Lee Lonzo receives Richard G. Lugar Award for young athletic service

By FRED SWIFT
 ReadTheReporter.com

Lee Lonzo, longtime teacher, coach, athletic director and assistant principal at Carmel High School, has won the 2019 Richard G. Lugar award for Distinguished Service to Interscholastic Athletics for his work in helping to create the IHSAA Student Advisory Committee and his leadership in bringing about a partnership between Special Olympics Indiana and the IHSAA.

Lonzo has spent his career of more than 40 years in education and youth athletics. He has served on the Indiana High School Athletics Association Board of Directors. He is currently an education consultant for the IHSAA.

He is also director of Champions Together and it was this group that arranged for statewide competition in track and field, flag football, bowling and bocce for both students with and without intellectual disabilities to represent their high schools in sports competition.

Appropriately, since Lonzo spent so many years at Carmel, the award presentation was made last Saturday night at the half-time of the Carmel-Ben Davis state championship basketball game in Bankers Life Fieldhouse. Governor Eric Holcomb presented the award.

Janus Golf & Batting Center one step closer, thanks to Duke Energy

The REPORTER

Janus Developmental Services plans to open the Janus Golf and Batting Center on April 13 for the 2019 season. This will be the third year that Janus will operate the recreational facility, previously known as the Noblesville Golf and Batting Center.

As a nonprofit, Janus has been challenged with a lack of funding and staffing to make all the changes it dreams of happen immediately. However, Janus has also been extremely fortunate in receiving community support that is helping it get closer its vision of an updated and fun destination.

Most recently, a crew of volunteers from Duke Energy brought some heavy duty equipment over and removed a row of poles along the driving range. Several of the poles were leaning and/or broken and posed potential risks for damage. To say that Janus did not have the resources to remove the poles on its own would be a major understatement.

Janus would like to express its great appreciation for Duke Energy's commitment to the community and its generosity in sharing its resources and expertise in helping resolve a significant challenge.

The Duke crew that volunteered their time and talents included Ryan Delphia, Jason Maus, Allen Rednour, Matt Walpe, Jason Washburn, Zach Wright and Mark LaBarr.

PREVAIL

Advocating for Victims of Crime and Abuse

www.prevailinc.com

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault - it wasn't something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Prevail is strictly confidential, and since their core values include integrity and respect, they provide their services at no charge. Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don't often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we're breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County. - Mike Bragg, GM of Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville

To help Hamilton County families affected by domestic violence and sexual abuse, you can donate the following items:

- Art supplies (for children to journal and express their emotions)
- Bottled water (8 oz. bottles, preferably)
- Individually packaged snacks
- Gas cards (many women have no access to funds after fleeing their abuser)

You can drop off items at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, located at 14701 Tom Wood Way. You can also donate directly to Prevail of Central Indiana by visiting Prevailinc.org.

HSE Schools survey 6,300 parents, students on e-learning experiences

By LARRY LANNAN
LarryInFishers.com

The Hamilton South-eastern (HSE) school board reviewed a lengthy survey of e-learning experiences, collecting responses from 4,800 parents and 1,500 students (students include grades 7 through 12 only).

The overall data show parents and students happy overall, particularly with the policy of using e-learning days to prevent adding school days at the end of the year, which would reduce the summer vacation.

Comments submitted as part of the survey indicate that three consecutive e-learning days may be too many. You can review the survey results at this link.

In other items from the Wednesday night's board meeting:

- Superintendent Allen Bourff briefed the board on a proposal to make changes in Social and Emotional Learning, and combining Digital Citizenship with that curriculum. Dr. Bourff cited the influence some online sources have over students as a major reason to consider this change.

- Kim Day has agreed to accept the offer of the principal position at Fall Creek Intermediate. (Note: LarryInFishers had incorrectly reported that Brian Behrman would become principal at Riverside Intermediate School. Mr. Behrman and current RIS principal Dana Kaminski will remain in their current jobs. LarryInFishers apologizes for the error.)

- The board spent a period of time on building projects, first authorizing the issuance of general obligation bonds to fund several physical projects. Plans were allowed to move forward after board action, including renovations at Fishers Junior High, renovation work at both high school auditoriums and LED lighting upgrades for several school buildings. The board also approved work on the Fishers Junior High School parking lot.

- Students and administrators made an impassioned plea to the board for help in funding playground upgrades at Riverside Intermediate School. This was for information only. The board will consider acting on the request at a future board session.

- Safety issues have resulted in a major change in polling places for the upcoming May 7 primary election. No schools will be utilized as polling places. "I want to make it clear that the schools remain open to assist our community if polling places are needed,"

Dr. Bourff told the board. "But for security and safety issues, the (Hamilton County) superintendents came together, at the invitation of our County Clerk, Kathy Williams, some weeks ago and discussed the safety of polling places within the schools." It is possible county election officials may need to use some schools as polling locations in the November general election.

- Board members will be receiving media training from an outside firm, Sease-Gerig, at a future work session.

Eight spring spruce-up tips

Looking for some suggestions to bring spring alive in and around your home? Here are eight easy suggestions for a quick home mini makeover or freshening up.

KRISTIN BERGUNDER
Interior Designer

1) Consider a new front door and/or garage door(s). The return on investment on this is fantastic and will give your exterior a quick new look. It's an easy way to add a new color or texture to your exterior.

2) Touch up your interior and exterior trim. I get asked a lot whether painting interior trim is necessary if there is an interest in putting a new color on the walls. If you wipe it and it still looks scuffed or dingy, it will look worse with a fresh coat on the walls, so my answer would be yes.

3) Swap out your bedding.

4) Clean walls, windows and screens. Windows should be professionally cleaned. It is well worth the investment. Replace any screens with holes so those flies and mosquitoes don't get in!

5) Swap out couch and/or chair toss pillows or bring in a new rug.

6) Bring out or uncover the outdoor furniture. There is something about bringing out the spring/summer furniture that makes me feel great! Consider new cushions for a fresh look.

7) Change your dining table center piece.

8) Add flowers, inside and out! If filling some pots outdoors, watch the weather for freezing temps overnight. Be sure to put a bag over, wrap or bring inside for the night anything that is sensitive to frost. Just a little longer until that is not a concern.

Sen. Spartz's bill to develop election audit procedures passes House

The REPORTER

A bill authored by State Sen. Victoria Spartz (R-Noblesville) that would allow for the creation of election audit procedures recently passed the House of Representatives unanimously.

Senate Enrolled Act 405 would allow the Indiana secretary of state to develop risk-based post-election audit procedures using statistically valid techniques and procedural audits to verify the accuracy of voter registration procedures.

A post-election audit is used to ensure the equipment and procedures used to count votes during an election work correctly and that the election outcome is correct.

"Audit procedures are important to increase confidence in the results of elections, identify errors, and detect and deter fraud," Spartz said. "I am pleased SEA 405 continues to move through the legislative process, and, if signed into law,

Spartz

I believe it would have a positive impact on our communities and state."

Thirty-four states and the District of Columbia currently have post-election audits, and three states have a statutory requirement for a risk-limiting audit, according to the National Conference of State Legislatures.

SEA 405 will now be considered by Gov. Eric Holcomb.

McMahon calls for more women in politics

Dear Editor:
As Women's History Month comes to a close, I find it interesting that after women secured the legal vote 100 years ago, the State of Indiana has never elected a female governor and has never elected a female United States Senator.

While it is true that we have had at least three females as Lt. Governors, we are now among a shrinking number of states which has never elected a female to that position. The same holds true for the office of U.S. Senator.

Although we do have U.S. Representative Susan Brooks as a District representative, we need to do more to encourage and support women of all political parties to seek higher office and represent our state both here and in D.C. In fact, if you look at the diversity in our local legislature, you will not find much.

As our demographics shift and as women become more involved in running businesses, universities and communities, I believe it is time to put away long-held prejudices (yes, I said that) and realize that we ARE all "in this together." Only by equal representation of men and women without prejudicial regard for ethnicity, color, religion and gender can we move forward in a world that is vastly different than the one in which Congress passed the bill which led to the right of women to vote on June 4, 1919 and was ratified on Aug. 18, 1920.

Hoosiers can do better, in my opinion, and I encourage all women who have the interest in serving our state and the public, which deserves the best representation possible, to strongly consider how you can serve Indiana as we move forward in the 21st century.

Carmel reader asks two questions of City Council

Dear Editor:
Once again, the president of the Carmel City Council publicly evades the two issues a citizen raised at the council meeting two weeks ago:

1. What has or is the Council doing to enforce guarantees provided by a developer who promised five buildings would be built by 2019, and none are built?
2. What documentation can the Council provide to give evidence of its enforcing the guarantees?

Instead, the Council president fills the bandwidth with minutiae – bond amounts, bond payments, payments due, actual and anticipated payments and the arcane workings of Payments In Addition To Taxes (PIATT).

With re-election staring him in the face, the councilor might wish to be a little more candid. (Unless his council has done nothing or can't prove it did nothing.)

It would help us all a lot.

Noblesville opens public golf courses for the 2019 season

The REPORTER

As the weather and outdoors begin to feel more like spring, Noblesville Parks' golf courses will be open for the season on Monday, April 1. The City of Noblesville operates two public golf courses – Fox Prairie, 8465 E. 196th St., which is currently open for daily tee times and golf outings, and Forest Park, 701 Cicero Road.

"It's been a long winter that Mother Nature doesn't seem to want to let go of, but we are very excited to be able to have both golf courses open and we look forward to a great 2019," said Noblesville Golf Director Gary Deakyne.

Fox Prairie Golf Course is a mature, traditional style course with 27 championship holes and is considered one of the top public facilities in Central Indiana. Built in 1970, the course includes a clubhouse, sandwich shop, fully-stocked pro shop, practice green and driving range. Greens fees for a round of 18 holes start at $20 on weekdays and $34 on weekends and holidays. Special rates are available, including a weekday and evening weekend round with cart and twilight rate after 5:30 p.m.

Built in 1927, Forest Park Golf Course is Hamilton County's oldest golf course. The nine-hole course features postage stamp greens, manicured fairways and challenging elevated tees and greens. The golf course is free of water hazards, which makes it enjoyable and playable for novice golfers, but its green contours make it a challenge for advanced players as well. All greens fees at Forest Park include carts and start at $14 for a round of nine holes on weekdays and $15 on weekends and holidays.

Season passes can be purchased for both courses and new member season passes start at $1,000 for Noblesville residents and $1,080 for non-residents. A 12-round punch pass also is available for those who pay up front for 10 rounds.

For more information or to book a tee time, call (317) 776-6357 for Fox Prairie and (317) 773-2881 for Forest Park. Tee times may be made online for either course at noblesvilleparksgolf.com.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

And as he spake, a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat. And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner. And the Lord said unto him, Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness. Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also? But rather give alms of such things as ye have; and, behold, all things are clean unto you. But woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone. Woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets. Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

Running for the kids...

Brian Revercomb using Mini-Marathon as fundraiser for pediatric cancer research

Brian Revercomb has spent the past year improving his health. Now he wants to pay that forward.

Revercomb, the head softball coach at Westfield High School, will be running in the Indianapolis 500 Mini-Marathon this year and plans to use it as a fundraiser for pediatric cancer research. With the backing of the St. Vincent Hospital Foundation and Peyton Manning Children's Hospital, he is hoping to achieve a goal of $13,100 - $1,000 for each mile.

Over the past year, Revercomb has lost 90 pounds and has started running. He also remembers hearing the stories of families whose children have been affected by cancer, whether is one of his players or one of their siblings.

"Truly always a tough situation for them and something that makes me appreciate my children and their health," said Revercomb.

The coach had thought of the idea of fundraising "many years ago," but said he wasn't healthy enough to do it until now. Revercomb was introduced to Nancy Frick, Vice President Development at the St. Vincent Hospital Foundation, who gave Revercomb her endorsement in January.

In addition, Revercomb's employer, Stanley Security, said it would match donations up to $10,000, "so I have the potential to raise a significant amount of money should I reach my goal," he said.

Anyone who is interested in donating should visit the official donation page, which can be accessed by clicking here. There is also a Facebook page, Brian's Run for the Kids, which features information about Revercomb's journey. The coach said he has about $1,000 in donations so far.

Westfield softball coach Brian Revercomb will run the Indianapolis 500 Mini-Marathon this year and plans to use it as a fundraiser for pediatric cancer research. Revercomb, pictured with his daughter Emily and wife Michelle, hopes to raise $13,100, or $1,000 for each mile.

"The money goes directly to St. Vincent's," he said.

Revercomb said he is looking for corporate sponsors, offering to put them on a t-shirt he will wear on the day he runs. Anyone interested should email him at brian.revercomb@gmail.com.

Tigers win offensive battle, lose pitcher's duel

Fishers split its first day in Tennessee, defeating Beech (Tenn.) 13-12 in an offensive back and forth game before losing 2-1 to Beaver Creek (Ohio) in a pitcher's duel.

In Game 1, the Tigers broke the game open by scoring seven runs in the second inning. Fishers led 10-3 after five innings and appeared to be in control of the game. However, aided by three defensive errors, Beech scored seven unearned runs in the top of the sixth to tie the game at 10. The Tigers answered right back scoring three runs in the bottom of the sixth and then held off a late rally as Beech scored two runs in the top of the seventh and left the bases loaded.

Nick Lukac led the offense with a 3-for-4 game that included an RBI triple in the bottom of the sixth. Lukac also walked, scored three runs, and had a stolen base. Kaid Muth contributed a double, single, two RBIs, and three runs scored. Jack Braun reached base five times with two hits and three hit by pitches. Tristan Baker delivered a two-run triple, and JJ Woolwine finished with a triple, two runs, and two stolen bases. The Tigers stole seven bases in the game.

Jon Vore started the game and finished with a no decision. Vore threw four innings, struck out eight, and allowed three earned runs. Daniel Owens worked a perfect 1-2-3 inning in relief. Michael Hart also threw well in relief despite being the victim of the seven unearned runs. Jack Minns picked up his first win of the season on the mound striking out three in one and a third innings of work. He finished the game with a strikeout that left the bases loaded for Beech.

After all the scoring and offense, Game 2 was the exact opposite: A pitcher's duel. Starter Anthony Castellani was brilliant for the Fishers on the mound. Castellani took a no hitter into the fifth inning before allowing an infield hit with two outs. Castellani left the game after the sixth inning due to early season pitch count precaution. He did not allow a run and struck out nine in his one-hitter performance.

Ahead 1-0 in the bottom of the seventh, the Tigers again fell victim to defensive miscues with two errors in the final inning. With the game tied at 1-1, two outs, and a runner at second, the Fishers misplayed a ground ball that allowed the winning run to race home from second on a walk-off error.

Offensively, Woolwine doubled to lead off the game and scored on Kiel Brenzcwski's RBI single to center field. Owens and Charlie Walker both had two hits with one of Owens hits a double off the center field fence. Beaver Creek's pitcher also pitched well, striking out 12 Tigers in his complete game victory.

The Tigers return to action on Saturday when they play Collierville (Tenn.) at 12:30 p.m. and Bob Jones (Ala.) at 3 p.m. Both games will be played at Riverdale (Tenn.).

Strong start carries Fishers softball to victory

Fishers got off to a strong start, and that carried the Tigers to a 9-6 win at Evansville North on Friday.

Fishers scored five runs in the top of the first inning, starting with a two-RBI double from Olivia Latimer to score Courtney James and Jade Frye. Latimer scored on Caroline Bernhardt's RBI groundout, then Hannah Mays and Kaylee Kardash got home after Sara Bumps reached on error.

Evansville North scored three runs in the

The Tigers are undefeated at 3-0 and play two games today at Castle. Fishers plays the host Knights at 11 a.m., then takes on Gibson Southern at 1 p.m.

In what was likely a preview of the playoffs, the Pacers fell to the Celtics 114-112 in Boston.

Friday night's game was an exciting one, and it came down to the final moments. Trailing 112-110, an incredible hustle play tied the game for Indiana.

Bojan Bogdanovic dove for a loose ball near half court, got it to Darren Collison and with his back to the basket, Thad Young caught Collison's alley-oop pass and somehow laid it in to tie the game at 112 with 1:19 to play.

After a miss from each team and then a Boston turnover, Collison had a chance to give Indiana the lead but missed a mid-range jumper. With 10.2 seconds left, the Celtics put the ball in the hands of Kyrie Irving, and he scored the game-winning layup with .5 on the clock.

"Kyrie (Irving) just made a good move, great hesitation," Collison said. "He made a good move."

On Indiana's last effort, the inbounds pass was tipped, and the Pacers weren't able to get a potentially game-winning shot off. Tonight's result gave the two teams the same overall record, but allowed the Celtics to move into the No. 4 seed in the East because they now lead the season series with Indiana, 2-1.

Tonight's game was a back-and-forth battle throughout. The Celtics struck first, jumping out to a 9-1 lead, which eventually turned into a 20-9 advantage with 6:08 left in the opening quarter. Boston would lead by as much as 12 in the first, but at the end of the quarter Indiana trailed by 10, 35-25.

Bogdanovic finished with a team high 27 points. Thad Young added 18, and Myles Turner had 15 points and 11 rebounds.

Kyrie Irving led the way for Boston with 30 points. Al Horford scored 19, and Jaylen Brown added 16 off the bench.
