Sheridan florist named CICOA Caregiver of the Year

The REPORTER

When Jim "Bob" Mitchell was diagnosed with cancer in spring 2018, it never occurred to Lori Christy that she wouldn't be there any way she could. She took him to doctor's appointments, helped him with his bills and around the house and more recently, helped him transition to a senior living community in Carmel. Lori is as much as Bob's advocate as his friend.

When she learned she was being named CICOA's Caregiver of the Year, Christy insisted she doesn't – and couldn't - do it alone. CICOA presented Christy with the award during its annual Signature Breakfast this morning

Christy is the second non-relative to earn the annual honor for the nonprofit that provides services for low-income seniors and adults in Central Indiana. In Christy's eyes, Mitchell has always been family.

When Christy opened her business, Elsie's Flower Shoppe in Sheridan, Mitchell often went with her on deliveries or helped her set up for funerals. Christy didn't want him sitting alone at home, especially in the winter, when the golf course where he worked wasn't open. It's what friends do. It's what families do to help each other.

The role of friend turned to the role of caregiver in March 2018, when Mitchell became ill. When doctors couldn't find a diagnosis, Christy insisted Mitchell be transferred to Methodist Hospital, where doctors diagnosed him with internal bleeding, a non-functioning kidney and cancer in the other kidney. Christy was there to help Mitchell make the difficult decision to have kidney surgery, something that was risky,

Celebrating Earth Day Spring cleaning?

As the pages of the calendar turned to April, my mother would begin her spring cleaning. Now her version of spring cleaning and mine are on two entirely different levels.

Mom would down the painted walls in every room. She and Dad would wrestle the venetian blinds into the bath tub. Every throw rug would be washed. Every doily would be re-starched. The sheets would be hung on the clothesline in the back yard to get that real scent of spring. Forget the laundry sheets. They were not invented back then. Mom actually still calls the sheets ... the bed clothes.

Me? I take off every item on my furniture and dust every nook and cranny on them. I seem to never put the items back just the way they were before I started. I call it creative rearranging. My goal is to somewhat (?) clean and give the room a new look.

My way of cleaning ... refresh and renew.

On Friday, I began the spring ritual. I started in our bedroom. About an hour into cleaning I looked into a basket of cards and notes. Let's just say I got a bit sidetracked.

pictures tucked wash into my worn out, tattered and well-loved Bible. There was a picture of me with my ventriloquist dummy, Danny. I was probably about 14 as I was wearing the eighth grade Recognition dress that my mother had made me. Yes, I still have Danny tucked into an old suitcase ... somewhere. About an hour later I realized at the rate I was going I would have my spring cleaning and refreshing done sometime in the fall.

Those old memories are quite the hindrance. I often wish to be more of a minimalist when it come to my home but in my heart I know that will never happen. Every time I read a sentimental note from someone I put it back in the basket. It's just hard for me to throw anything away that has a string fastened to my heart.

I found a journal in which I wrote my thoughts in 2001. I am sure I will be writing a column about what was written in that journal. I had no idea what I keep every note and my life would look like Earth-related items in stores, new trees being planted, and even children bringing home school projects that are made from old plastic bottles: All of this can be seen on Earth Day. This awareness day has been celebrated for 49 years. According to The Earth Day Network, in 1969, Wisconsin senator Gaylord Nelson is also beneficial. The less came up with the idea of a national day that brings awareness to environmental issues.

The next year the first official Earth Day began with 20 million Americans across the country participating in environmental rallies and protests, which helped pass many acts to protect our planet and created the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA). In 1990, Earth Day went global with 200 million people in 141 different countries bringing awareness to environmental issues and helping start recycling all around. This year, Earth Day will be celebrated on April 22.

Today, Earth Day is celebrated by more than 1 billion people worldwide, according to an article from historv.com. This day is now the largest environmental movement in the world. Many organizations have started taking action on Earth Day Learning Hub claims paper as well. This includes an el-

Even then, they do not fully degrade, says the organization Get Green Now. If animals get ahold of these and mistake them for food, it can kill them. A great way to stop this is by using metal straws. They even come in different colors and can be personalized. Most stores nowadays carry metal straws in the utensils area. If reusing the same straw sounds like a pain, another alternative to plastic is paper straws. These are even sold in grocery stores for a price less than the plastic ones. ### Larry Alan Fahrenkamp August 13, 1940 - April 7, 2019

On August 13, 1940, the United States government, certain they were about to be drawn into conflict with Japan and Germany, decided to conduct a dangerous experiment. They aggregated all the best attributes of human beings - speed, strength, courage, leadership - and attempted to create a Super Soldier who could turn the battle of the coming war. That Super Soldier was none other than ... Steve Rogers, Captain America ... beloved by all Americans. What few knew is that there was another born that day. All the leftover attributes congealed on a nearby countertop that became Larry Alan Fahrenkamp, beloved by Cadillac dealers, manufacturers of voice activated switches, concrete truck drivers, Home Depot, liquor store owners, and of course, family and legions of friends. A towering 5'10" of intimidating bow-leggedness, for 78 years Larry imprinted his indomitable will on his multiple businesses, his never-ending construction projects designed to defeat nature itself, and his family and friends. His greatest superpower may have been an uncanny knack to simply "will" his beloved Purdue Boilermakers to consistently disappoint him. With the aid of his ever-present sidekick/wife Shirley (Cook), the two shared a whirlwind of comic adventures for 60 years, leaving laughter, warmth, inspiration, a fair amount of destruction ... and memories that would last for lifetimes. They started their journey as Noblesville Millers where Larry proudly wore the '56 and '57 "Honeycomb" Millers jersey while Shirley enthusiastically sat in the stands letting all know how special he was, a sentiment that never ceased.

Patricia L. "Pat" Mars May 30, 1938 - April 4, 2019

Patricia L. "Pat" Mars, 80, Sheridan, passed away on Thursday evening, April 4, 2019 at Maple Park Village in Westfield. Born May 30, 1938 in Jefferson County, Ind., she was the daughter of the late Edgar Franklin and Nellie Marie (Day) Rausch. She was a 1956 graduate of Westfield High School and a member of the Arcadia Christian Church.

God, family and friends directed her life. For a little over a decade, roughly 1982 to 1993, Pat helped run the cafeteria at Adams Elementary School in Sheridan. Her favorite part of the job had nothing to do with preparing meals or making sure everything ran smoothly - it was the friendships she made at the school and the opportunity to follow an entire generation of Sheridan students from their first day of kindergarten until they moved over to the Jr./Sr. high building. Even after they changed buildings, she enjoyed keeping tabs on them as they matured into young adults.

When her oldest daughter joined the high school band program, Pat became a member of the Blackhawk Band Boosters. She remained very active within the organization for over 13 years, seeing both of her girls through the program and for many, many years after they had graduated. She loved the kids, and even more, she loved the friends she made through the years. Pat was an enthusiastic chaperone whenever the band traveled and was a second mom to many kids when they were away from home. She was also a dedicated fundraiser for the Booster program. For many years Pat helped run the concession area for McClain Auction Company, serving up Coney dogs, ham and beans, homemade pie, and Pat's specialty – good conversation.

After she left the Sheridan school system, she went to work at Smokey Row Elementary School in Carmel until her retirement in 1995. Pat tried retirement for a bit, and it didn't set too well with her. She didn't miss the work – she missed the people. She hired on with Pioneer Seeds for several years as a seed corn sorter. You could hear the excitement in her voice when it was getting close to harvest time and time to go back to work at Pioneer. Pat also spent many years helping with various special activities at the Sheridan Healthcare Center. Many of her friends from over the years became residents, and that was her opportunity to do what she did best, visit and just be a friend.

Pat was a dedicated farm wife and the family farm in northwest Hamilton County was her favorite place in the whole world. Any animal (and yes that included all of the livestock) that found its way onto Pat and Harold's farm instantly became a named pet and found its forever home. She was a woman of strong faith and when she needed alone time with God, her garden was her sanctuary. She could spend hours weeding, mowing and talking with God. From her flowers to her wind chimes, she took great pride in the task of keeping everything at the farm looking its best, because quite frankly, nobody else knew how to do it the right way.

Pat is survived by her loving husband, Harold Wayne Mars. She and Harold were married on January 8, 1961. Also surviving are two daughters, Kimberly Sue Stakelbeck (Michael), Noblesville, and Melinda Jo Mars-Bowyer, Noblesville; her grandchildren, Kendra Stakelbeck-Hartle (Derek) and Brock Stakelbeck, both of Noblesville; her sister, Sue Ann Lents (Pete), Tuscan, Ariz.; her loving cat, Angie; and by her grand dog, Hyzer.

She was preceded in death by her parents.
