I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault - it wasn't something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Prevail is strictly confidential, and since their core values include integrity and respect, they provide their services at no charge. Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don't often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we're breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County. - Mike Bragg, GM of Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville

To help Hamilton County families affected by domestic violence and sexual abuse, you can donate the following items:

- Art supplies (for children to journal and express their emotions)
- Bottled water (8 oz. bottles, preferably)
- Individually packaged snacks
- Gas cards (many women have no access to funds after fleeing their abuser)

You can drop off items at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, located at 14701 Tom Wood Way. You can also donate directly to Prevail of Central Indiana by visiting Prevailinc.org.

Fishers student wins $10K in national memory championship

The REPORTER

Tobin Seiple is just 11, but his ability to memorize facts is amazing. So amazing, in fact, that the Fishers student won a national memory championship and a $10,000 cash prize April 30.

The gregarious sixth-grader was one of 16 finalists in the National Memory Master (NMM) competition held April 30 during a five-day cruise to the Bahamas aboard the Carnival cruise ship Liberty. Twelve 10- to 12-year-olds remained after the first round of competition, and six remained after the second. Finally, after a third and final round and six hours of grueling recitations, Tobin was the sole competitor left standing.

"I am excited and thankful that I won the National Memory Master competition!" Tobin said. "I could not have done it without the love and strength of God to get me through the difficult days and the support and encouragement of my family. My favorite aspect was competing alongside such amazing finalists and becoming friends with all of them."

From his winnings Tobin plans to invest $8,000 in an IRA, give $1,000 to his church and buy an iPod. But his planning didn't stop there: He also plans to take his fellow Classical Conversations classmates and friends on a movie outing to see Endgame and give a meaningful gift to his fellow NMM finalists.

Tobin attends a Classical Conversations community in Indianapolis. He is the son of Thomas and Robin Seiple and has two siblings. He has finished his fourth year as a Classical Conversations student and has been a Memory Master for all four years. His favorite school subjects are writing, reading and science.

Tobin enjoys playing tennis, golf and pickle ball. He loves to travel to see new places, and Australia, Niagara Falls, and Cozumel are among his favorites so far. He is a natural performer and loves presenting, singing, playing the piano, and acting. He is really excited because he just started breakdancing classes. He enjoys serving others, and some of his favorite service opportunities have been helping at a local food pantry and serving dinner at a men's shelter.

He was accompanied on the cruise by his parents, sister, brother and grandparents.

The 16 finalists had to survive a rigorous series of local and regional competitions to reach the finals. They were tested on more than 500 facts in their local community and memorized more than 1,200 facts for the finals. Each of the finalists received two free tickets to the cruise and $800 in traveling money.

Scholarly young ladies honored for 2,803 hours of community service

The REPORTER

The Crossroads Chapter of National Charity League (NCL) held its annual awards ceremony to recognize its 2019 scholarship winner along with mothers and daughters (grades 7 through 12) for their community service efforts, which culminated in the chapter donating 2,803 volunteer hours over the past year.

NCL Crossroads Scholarship Winner

The local chapter – the first one in Indiana – has awarded Elizabeth Martine a $500 scholarship for her consistent involvement in community service, leadership and cultural activities. Martine, a senior at Zionsville Community High School, will attend Indiana University's Kelley School of Business this fall. She plans to pursue a career in Entrepreneurial Business and eventually earn her MBA.

Community service is at the heart of the NCL scholarship and in the heart of Martine. She has been a steadfast volunteer at Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church for both Greek Fest and in the Hellenic Dance Troupe. She has served with Best Buddies, The Lord's Pantry, Women in Engineering at Purdue University and in the Business Professionals of America, among other organizations. After participating in two mission trips to Guatemala, Martine was motivated to get involved with Project Mexico, an organization that helps build homes for deserving families.

Martine also has proven leadership skills. Some of her roles include serving as Vice President and President for Greek Orthodox Youth of America (GOYA). She has played lacrosse at Zionsville Community High School and was the Attack Captain in 2018. Since 2010, she has been a National Parks Jr. Ranger 15 for National Parks of America.

Cultural involvement is another key focus of this scholarship and Martine excels in this area as well. She founded and served as Vice President for her high school Greek Club. In 2017, she participated in the IU Honors Program for Foreign Language, where she studied abroad in Spain. Additionally, she has taken mission trips to Mexico and Guatemala.

Modelette Award

Westfield High School student Chloe Owens received the chapter's Modelette Award. This award is given to a girl each year who best models the three pillars of the NCL mission: Community service, leadership development and cultural experience. In addition to volunteering as the Vice President of Programs for her NCL class and serving at several NCL philanthropies, Owens helps lead Blankets from Joe, a blanket drive that benefits Indiana University Health Foundation. She also plays volleyball and has been involved with the United Way of Hamilton County Youth Leadership Board.

Mother/Daughter Award

The chapter also recognized eight mother-daughter pairs for volunteering 25 hours together over the past year. The Mother/Daughter Award was given to:

Yellow Rose & Mission Bell Awards

Additionally, Ashlyn Benner and Maggie O'Neal, also from Westfield High School, were awarded the Yellow Rose Award for completing 75 hours of service to the chapter's philanthropy partners. Benner and O'Neal also received the chapter's Mission Bell Award for volunteering 50 hours of service to one NCL Crossroads philanthropy partner. Both girls earned the award for volunteering at Wheeler Mission.

About NCL

The National Charity League is the nation's most distinctive, well-respected mother-daughter membership organization committed to community service, leadership development and cultural experiences. NCL Crossroads is the first NCL chapter in Indiana. NCL promotes civic awareness by considering the local community's needs and selecting appropriate non-profit organizations to serve. Each chapter then supports its philanthropic partners through hands-on volunteer activities.

NCL, Inc. is unique because of its multi-generational membership and its mission-focused program, "The NCL Experience," which inspires and empowers women and their daughters to become confident, well-rounded and socially aware contributors in their communities. For more than 90 years, NCL, Inc. has been developing women leaders through volunteerism and supporting philanthropies in local communities throughout the nation. Last year's Relay for Life at Forest Park raised over $65,000. This year's event takes place this Saturday.

Gear up for Relay for Life Saturday in Noblesville

The REPORTER

Bill Russo, who has volunteered on the Relay for Life of Noblesville committee for the past four years, was the featured guest speaker at a recent meeting of the Cicero Kiwanis Club. Russo recently spoke on this annual, day-long event held to celebrate cancer survivors, raise money, and remember those who have lost their battle with cancer. This year's event is set for 10 a.m. to midnight this Saturday, May 11 at Forest Park in Noblesville.

The Relay for Life movement is the American Cancer Society's signature fundraiser dedicated to helping communities attack cancer. Through funds donated, time given, and/or awareness raised, communities across the county are teaming up to make a difference in the fight against cancer.

The Relay for Life of Noblesville event, now in its 11th year, has grown in scope. Jen Morris and LuAnn Harger have chaired the event since its inception. Funds raised from the event make many services possible, including Road to Recovery, which offers free rides to and from treatments; Look Good Feel Good, which helps female cancer patients learn beauty tips for navigating the effects of treatments including offering wigs; 1-800-227-2345 number, which is a 24-hour number to call for information, advice, support for patients and caregivers; Hope Lodge and hotel partnerships, which offer free lodging for patients and their families. Where no lodge is available, hotel partnerships are available at a discounted rate. Funds raised also go towards research, which provides support for grants for research for drugs that are being used to treat cancer and the symptoms of treatment. "Participants set up campsites, participate in activities, sell items or donate items for the auction, and team members walk around the track or path for the entirety of the event," said Russo, who serves as the Advocacy and Mission Chairman of the committee. "The walking mirrors a cancer patient's journey from diagnosis, treatment and cure. Throughout the event several special activities occur. Our opening ceremony honors cancer survivors and their caregivers and is followed with a survivor brunch."

"Many activities throughout the day are planned by our entertainment committee," Russo continued. "The community of the Relay for Life of Noblesville is a tight-knit, committed, selfless group of people. They work tirelessly for many months fundraising and organizing and then, rain or shine, spend their weekend at Relay dedicated to the fight against cancer."

Russo cordially invites the public to participate and see what Relay for Life is all about on Saturday. For more information, visit relayforlife.org/noblesvillein.

Fox Prairie Golf Course expands partnership with First Tee Indiana programs for Jr. Golfers

The REPORTER
Fox Prairie Golf Course is partnering with First Tee Indiana golf instruction for Junior Golfers and adding sessions for children as young as 4 years old. For the third consecutive year, LPGA Teaching Professional Mary Rabb will provide weekly golf instruction for Junior Golfers during June and July.

and 7 years old. No experience is needed and no clubs are needed. Little Foxxes will be held from 8:15 to 9:30 a.m. on Thursdays in June. The cost is $95, which includes a T-shirt, and clubs are provided for the session. The Little Foxxes program is sponsored by 24 Hour Dental Care.

"Every year, parents ask me how young is too young to see if their child is interested in golf. Little Foxxes is a great way to introduce the sport to them, let them hit balls and establish a foundation to see if there is passion for golf to continue as they get older," Rabb said. Children ages 7 and older have the opportunity to participate in First Tee Indiana weekly sessions from 8:15 to 10:30 a.m. on Tuesdays (June 4 to 25 and July 2 to 23). Participants are invited to return to Fox Prairie Golf Course on July 29 for a 3-hole scramble and a chipping and putting contest. The cost is $125 per session. Golf clubs will be provided for those who need them at no additional fee. To register for a First Tee Indiana session, visit thefirstteeindiana.org.

"First Tee Indiana is a great program that helps introduce youth to the game of golf and we're excited to partner with Coach Rabb and offer the sessions at Fox Prairie again this year," said Noblesville Golf Director Gary Deakyne. In addition to the golf instruction, a PGA Jr. League for children under the age of 13 will focus on sportsmanship, course management, rules and golf etiquette. This program is a great opportunity for kids to play on the course and learn the whole game in a non-stressful developmental environment. League practice dates are 4:45 to 6 p.m. on Tuesdays (June 4 to July 9). The league includes six matches throughout the summer against other teams at different courses. League registration will close on Tuesday, May 14 and the program will have a maximum of 14 players. Cost is $235 and includes practices/matches, uniforms and a gift. Shaffer runs the numbers on Performing Arts attendance

Dear Editor: I have been scolded in an e-mail from the spokesman for the Palladium. He challenged my statement that the Center for the Performing Arts averages just 467 patrons per event. I had quoted the mayor who said in his State of the City address: "Since the Palladium opened in 2011, our Center for the Performing Arts has become a leader ... hosting more than 1,800 performances, welcoming more than 840,000 patrons." Naively, I divided 840,000 by 1,800 and got 466.667. Asked if he thought the mayor's words were baseless, my correspondent wrote, "The mayor's words are correct. Your premise is faulty." He rightly noted the Center includes three venues of different capacities - the Palladium at 1,600, the Tarkington at 55, and the Studio Theater at 200. I gladly recalculated. First, I divided the 1,800 events by 8 years since 2011 - annual average of 225 events. The 2018-2019 schedules for the three venues is 48 - 177 short of 225. But, by proportioning the 840,000 attendance proportioned to capacity and dividing that by 8 years and that by the 2018-2019 event number:

- The Palladium shoe-horned 1,974 patrons into 1,600 seats.
- The Tarkington crammed 4,565 bodies into 500 seats.
- And, the Studio Theater creatively places 1,522 folks into 200 seats.

Even in artsy-craftsy, creative, cushy Carmel, that's some act.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day: And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores, And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores. And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried; And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame. But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented. And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence. Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house: For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent. And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

U.S. House passes bill aiming to increase broadband access in underserved areas

The REPORTER

Representatives Susan W. Brooks (R-Ind-05) and Paul Tonko (D-N.Y.-20) heralded passage of H.R. 1328, the ACCESS BROADBAND Act, in the House today by a unanimous voice vote. This bipartisan legislation would help expand broadband access in underserved areas and create a simpler process for small businesses and local economic developers to access federal broadband resources. "This NextLevel connections program is exactly the kind of idea that the ACCESS BROABAND Act will help support," said Brooks. "By making federal resources easier to access, Indiana will be able to better support its own internet access efforts."

BAND Act:

- Stands for Advancing Critical Connectivity Expands Service, Small Businesses Resources, Opportunities, Access, and Data Based on Assessed Need and Demand
- Establishes an Office of Internet Connectivity and Growth at the National Telecommunications and Information Administration (NTIA).
- Directs this office to simplify access for small businesses and local communities, possibly including small business workshops and other support resources.
- Streamlines process for small businesses & local governments to apply for federal broadband assistance; improves coordination across government and the private sector. "This bill is about bringing the benefits of broadband communications into the lives of our constituents," said Brooks. "I am glad Congress is acting on a solution to help address this problem faced by Hoosiers and Americans across the country. I thank the gentleman from New York, Representative Tonko, for letting me partner with him on this legislation and look forward to working with him in the future." Click here to watch Rep. Shamrocks win all-county game at Heights

Brooks

Westfield won an all-county softball game at Hamilton Heights on Wednesday, 17-6 in six innings.

The Shamrocks got ahead early, scoring two runs in the first inning. Avery Parker led off with a double, and Reghan Oland singled her home. Oland later scored when Sara Harmeyer hit a sacrifice fly.

In the third inning, Zoe Klink hit a three-run home run to put Westfield up 6-0. Oland's RBI bunt made the lead 7-0.

The Huskies got two runs back in the third inning. Bayleigh Runner led off with a double and scored on Adyson Baber's RBI groundout. Belle Neiling singled in Hayley Greene to get Heights within 7-2. But the Shamrocks added 10 runs over the next three innings, giving them a run-rule victory.

"Last couple years, we've played some really competitive games with these guys, and I think tonight, we just got some timely hitting, had some breaks," said Shamrocks coach Brian Revercomb. "But always a good team to play against and good competition for us."

Natalie Deck finished the game 4-for-4 at the plate, including two doubles. Deck scored three runs and batted in one more. Zoe Klink was 4-for-5, totaling five RBI. Oland had three hits, while Parker, Lexi Martin, Harmeyer and Alexis McClure all had two. Klink and Parker each hit a double. McClure also got the pitching win.

Hayley Greene had two hits for the Huskies, including a double.

The Shamrocks are 6-14 and play a doubleheader Saturday morning at Southmont. Heights is 4-12 and plays at 5:30 p.m. today at Pike.
