Options-Noblesville freshman honored for volunteer service

The REPORTER

Connor Reiff, 15, Noblesville, a ninth grader at Options Charter Schools, has been honored for his exemplary volunteer service with a Certificate of Excellence from The Prudential Spirit of Community Awards, and with a President's Volunteer Service Award.

Presented annually by Prudential Financial in partnership with the National Association of Secondary School Principals (NASSP), The Prudential Spirit of Community Awards honors young people across America for outstanding volunteer service.

"Across the United States, young volunteers are doing remarkable things to contribute to the well-being of the people and communities around them," said Prudential CEO Charles Lowrey. "Prudential is honored to celebrate the contributions of these students, and we hope their stories inspire others to volunteer, too."

Certificates of Excellence are granted to the top 10 percent of all Prudential Spirit of Community Award applicants in each state and the District of Columbia. President's Volunteer Service Awards recognize Americans of all ages who have volunteered significant amounts of their time to serve their communities and their country.

Options Schools nominated Connor for national honors this fall in recognition of his volunteer service. Known as the "Can Opener Project," Connor's most-impactful service project involved his sister Madeline and benefitted the White River Christian Church food pantry. In order to make canned goods more accessible to food pantry guests, Connor and Madeline worked together to raise money and awareness, before donating over 355 can openers to food pantry guests. Connor has served as a volunteer at the WRCC food pantry since the fall of 2015. The project also extended to benefit Noblesville Schools' food distribution program.

"Connor Reiff has been a valuable member of the White River Christian Church Food Pantry volunteer team for several years," said Fred Knoll, White River Christian Church Missionary Living Pastor. "He overheard a food pantry guest mention that he would accept canned food from our food pantry if he owned a can opener. In response, Connor has collected hundreds of can openers and donated them to food pantry guests to ensure they are all able to open canned food to help feed their families."

"During the project, I found myself creating friendships with both the volunteers and the people I was able to help," said Connor Reiff. "Whether they were guests or volunteers didn't matter, what mattered most was that nobody went hungry. I didn't do this just to benefit the food pantries, I

Ivy Tech recognizes Noblesville woman for academic excellence

The REPORTER

Ivy Tech Community College Kokomo Region recognized students who have demonstrated outstanding academic achievement and leadership during its commencement ceremony Friday.

Genevieve Phillips, Noblesville, who is graduating with an Associate of Applied Science degree in Medical Assisting, was honored with the Chancellor's Award for Academic Excellence.

Phillips was selected from those students nominated for the Dean's Award in each program who have a 3.75 grade point average or higher. Phillips's GPA was a perfect 4.0. Other considerations for this award include leadership, community service and school involvement.

In nominating Phillips for the honor, Medical Assisting Program Chair Kathy Bunker described her as a leader in class, always willing to assist classmates and professional in interacting with instructors. She outlined Phillips's many activities, including service as president of Ivy Tech Kokomo's Alpha Pi Phi chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, the international academic honorary for community colleges, and as student representative on the Medical Assisting Advisory Board. Phillips also was one of two students who represented Ivy Tech Kokomo at the Indiana Academy of Science annual meeting this spring where they presented their microbiology research.

Phillips

Outside of the classroom, Phillips has been active in her community, as a member of the Noblesville Adult Swim Team and a USA Swimming official for club-level swimming. She has served as a team parent for a son's baseball team, volunteered for a daughter's youth theater program, and been a volunteer grant writer for several school corporations. She credits Ivy Tech for offering the support she needed to successfully balance her educational life with her personal life that includes a husband and four children who range in age from 13 to 23.

Dean's Awards honor students who are selected by the faculty chair for each program as the program's outstanding graduate. Locally, Kari Totten, Noblesville, received the Dean's Award for 2019 for Nursing.

Noblesville crime down 34% in two years

The REPORTER

Crime statistics in Noblesville have taken a substantial drop in the past three years. Statistics for the FBI's Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) show a 34 percent reduction in Part I crimes from 2016 to 2018.

"Public safety is the No. 1 priority of our community," said Mayor John Ditslear. "Despite our continued population increase, the city's crime rates have dropped for three consecutive years. This is a testament to the tireless work of our police officers to ensure Noblesville is a safe city for our residents and guests."

UCR is a nationwide, cooperative statistical effort of nearly 18,000 law enforcement agencies voluntarily reporting data on crimes brought to their attention. UCR Part I crimes consist of four violent and four property crimes.

In 2017, the Noblesville Police Department (NPD) responded to 851 reports of UCR Part I crimes. That number dropped to 649 reports in 2018, a difference of 202 incidents or a 23 percent reduction. When compared to 2016's 983 crimes reported, the difference to 2018 drops by 34 percent.

"These are significant double-digit drops in our crime rate. We knew this approach would work but these results were beyond our expectation," said Noblesville Police Chief Kevin Jowitt. "I am unequivocally committed to the safety and protection of this community and these stats are evidence that our initiatives and efforts are producing results."

Jowitt

Jowitt said the police department is encouraged to see that trend continue. Through March, Noblesville has had a total of 148 Part I crimes reported in 2019. Compared to the 153 reports in 2018, this is a 3.2 percent decrease in the past two first quarters. Jowitt attributes the success in part to Noblesville Police establishing Problem Oriented Policing (POP) and Crime Analysis units in 2016.

"With the addition of our POP and Crime Analysis units, along with the relentless work of our patrol and criminal investigations divisions, we are taking every step to ensure that Noblesville remains one of the safest cities in Indiana," Jowitt said.

The overall success of crime reduction takes involvement from the entire community. In addition to the policing changes, the department continues to implement new outreach initiatives including Coffee with a Cop, neighborhood crime watch programs, Citizens Police Academy, National Night Out and expanding its social media presence. The patrol division's District Policing Program divides the city into 16 districts and assigns officers to each district. Residents are encouraged to contact the officer assigned to their neighborhood whenever they have a question or concern.

"Everything we do is about building trust and relationships with people in the community," said Jowitt. "This is a team effort and we want residents to call us and express their concerns."

Carmel Gala breaks fundraising record

The REPORTER

The third annual Carmel Gala: Design Bright Futures hit a milestone this year raising approximately $71,000 on behalf of the Carmel Youth Assistance Program (CYAP) making this event the largest single fundraiser for the organization to date.

Held each April, the Carmel Gala provides an evening of dinner, dancing and fun activities for attendees while raising valuable funds to benefit the private, nonprofit CYAP organization. More than 250 people gathered at 502 East Event Centre on April 13 to celebrate the work done by the organization in the past year and learn more about what is planned for the future. Carmel Mayor Jim Brainard once again served as honorary chair of the event and spoke to guests about the importance of communities taking care of one another.

The evening was emceed for a second year by FOX 59 and CBS 4 reporter, Larra Overton. Attendees watched a video generously produced in-kind by Adam Grubb Productions which highlighted the

Pleasant, 19th streets roundabout warranty work to begin next week

The REPORTER

Warranty work for the asphalt surface at 19th and Pleasant streets roundabout will take place during the week of May 13. Motorists should expect delays as the contractor will mill and re-surface the entire project area. Work is scheduled to take five days – weather permitting – and the roadway will remain open during that time with flaggers directing motorists.

"We must hold the contractor responsible. The asphalt surface does not meet our standards and would require resurfacing much earlier than it should – which would cost our taxpayers," Assistant City Engineer Jim Hellmann said. Approximately 15,000 vehicles travel through the intersection daily. In the fall, the three-leg intersection with 19th Street under stop control was converted to a single lane roundabout – providing vehicles with safer and more efficient travel at that location. Lighting and sidewalks also were installed.

The overall project cost approximately $1 million, but because of funding received from the Indiana Department of Transportation the City of Noblesville's portion is $194,284. Next week's warranty work will not be an additional charge to the project.

These schools and officially-designated local organizations nominated Local Honorees, whose applications were advanced for state-level judging. In addition to granting Certificates of Excellence and President’s Volunteer Service Awards, The Prudential Spirit of Community Awards selected State Honorees and Distinguished Finalists. Volunteer activities were judged on criteria including initiative, effort, impact and personal growth.

The Carmel Gala would not be possible without the support of the generous sponsors who are committed to the mission of Carmel Youth Assistance Program. The fourth annual Carmel Gala will be held April 25, 2020. More information about sponsorships may be obtained by contacting the Carmel Youth Assistance Program offices at 317-501-1739.

The Carmel Youth Assistance Program was founded in 2015 to serve as an early intervention advocate for youth ages 3 to 17 throughout Carmel who are facing challenging life circumstances. Since its inception, CYAP has served 427 children in Carmel. CYAP is one of six organizations under the umbrella of the Hamilton County Youth Assistance Program, which was founded in 2009.

Each YAP has the same mission to serve their respective communities around the county including Fishers, Hamilton Heights, Noblesville, Sheridan and Westfield. CYAP’s Early Intervention Advocates work with local schools, police, fire and other community leaders to accept referrals of youth and families in need. Advocates identify community resources available to these families such as food and clothing assistance, camp and recreational opportunities, mentor pairings, tutoring, and counseling services.

PREVAIL
Advocating for Victims of Crime and Abuse

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault – it wasn’t something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Prevail is strictly confidential, and since their core values include integrity and respect, they provide their services at no charge. Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don’t often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we’re breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County. – Mike Bragg, GM of Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville

To help Hamilton County families affected by domestic violence and sexual abuse, you can donate the following items:

- Art supplies (for children to journal and express their emotions)
- Bottled water (8 oz. bottles, preferably)
- Individually packaged snacks
- Gas cards (many women have no access to funds after fleeing their abuser)

You can drop off items at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, located at 14701 Tom Wood Way. You can also donate directly to Prevail of Central Indiana by visiting Prevailinc.org.

Service and diversity live in Noblesville community

Coretta Scott King said, "The greatness of a community is most accurately measured by the compassionate actions of its members."

The Noblesville Diversity Coalition is proud to partner with SERVE Noblesville again this year for the second annual Cultural Celebration. Did you know there are currently over 55 languages spoken within our school district? This event gives our community the opportunity to celebrate the dynamic diversity we have and inclusion we strive for.

NDC and SERVE believe that by creating space for neighbors to serve alongside neighbors we allow for the beauty of our community to shine through. This unique focus on service, community and togetherness fosters a sense of belonging and respect for one another. It's open to all ages and is a great way for your team, organization or family to contribute to the health of our community.

SERVE Noblesville is a partnership of neighbors, churches, businesses and organizations whose goal is to "Connect Compassionate Neighbors." They do this by creating a sense of pride and ownership in Noblesville through a series of service projects. This year the events take place from June 26 to 29, with the Cultural Celebration from 6 to 9 p.m. on Friday, June 28 on the square.

At last year's event 18 different countries were showcased. Neighbors from Puerto Rico, Kenya, Venezuela, Jamaica, Vietnam and more shared food, music and their traditions with the community. It was a wonderful opportunity for neighbors to meet, interact and develop a stronger appreciation of one another. It's a beautiful time to learn more about customs and countries other than our own and a perfect way to expose your children to other cultures without the expense of leaving town. If you are a member of our community interested in sharing your culture, contact servenoblesville@gmail.com.

True inclusion and equity comes not when we are all trying to be the same or in forcing people to give up their beliefs and traditions because they don't jive with our own but in celebrating our differences. Each of us has a unique set of experiences, gifts and talents that make us who we are. Our community needs you. There is only one like you and we are designed to be in fellowship with one another. Helen Keller once said, "Alone we can do so little; together, we can do so much."

I love that NDC and SERVE have this focus of connecting others to build a stronger community. It is efforts like these that can have a profound impact on our lives. You can find more information on the SERVE Noblesville website or their Facebook page to get you or your family involved. Come celebrate with us at the Cultural Celebration on June 28 and take the time to make connections that will enrich your life. Enjoy a walk through the world without leaving the square. I'll see you there.

Vacation and retirement: Different goals require different investment strategies

To achieve any of your financial objectives, you need to save and invest – that much is clear. But just how you save and invest may differ from goal to goal. Let's look at two common goals to see the differences in your savings and investment strategies.

COREY SYLVESTER

The first goal we'll consider is a dream vacation – one lasting a couple of weeks or more, possibly to an exotic locale. So, for the investments you've designated to fund this vacation, you need two key attributes: Liquidity and low risk. The liquidity requirement is pretty self-explanatory – you want to be able to get to your vacation funds exactly when you need them, and you don't want to be slapped with some type of early withdrawal or tax penalty.

The low-risk part of your vacation strategy means you want investments that won't drop in value just when you need to sell them to use the proceeds for your trip. However, you need to be aware that those types of stable-value investment vehicles likely will not offer much growth potential. As you may know, the investments with the greatest possible rewards are also those that carry the highest degrees of risk. Yet, by starting to invest early enough in more conservative investments, and putting away money regularly, you may be able to compensate for the lack of growth opportunities.

Now, let's turn to your other goal – retirement. When you are saving for retirement, your primary objective is pretty simple: to accumulate as much money as you can. Consequently, you will need a reasonable percentage of your portfolio devoted to growth-oriented investments. But what's a reasonable percentage? There's no one-size-fits-all solution – the amount of growth investments in your portfolio should be based on several factors, including your age, risk tolerance and projected retirement lifestyle.

Furthermore, this percentage may need to change over time. When you're just starting out in your career, you may be able to afford to take on the greater risk that comes with having a higher percentage of your portfolio in growth investments. But as you get closer to retirement, you might want to begin shifting some dollars toward more conservative vehicles – you don't want to be overexposed to the volatility of the financial markets just when you need to start selling investments to help fund your retirement.

Nonetheless, you won't want to give up all growth investments, even during your retirement years. You could spend two or three decades as a retiree, and over that time, inflation could take a big toll on your purchasing power. To counter this effect, you will need to own some investments that have the potential at least to equal, and ideally outpace, the cost of living.

The examples of taking that extensive vacation and enjoying a long retirement illustrate the importance of recognizing that you will have many goals in life – and you'll need to prioritize and plan for them, sometimes following significantly different investment strategies. When you do, you'll give yourself a better chance of reaching your destinations.

Indiana State Police warns of Click It or Ticket patrols

The REPORTER

This month troopers from the Indianapolis District, and districts across the state will join law enforcement agencies across the nation to increase enforcement of seat belt laws for Click It or Ticket. Multiple weeks of highly visible patrols will be watching for unrestrained passengers in cars and trucks, both children and adults, the front seat and back, both day and night.

Click It or Ticket continues through the Memorial Day holiday and the start of the summer travel season. Overtime police patrols are paid with National Highway Traffic Safety Administration funds administered by the Indiana Criminal Justice Institute (ICJI).

"It is absolutely heartbreaking to see the aftermath of a crash where a fatality could have been prevented by wearing a seat belt," said Indianapolis District Commander Lieutenant Jeffrey Payne. "Click It or Ticket is more than an enforcement campaign, it is an educational effort to increase seat-belt use and decrease fatal crashes."

Indiana law requires the driver and all passengers to buckle up. Children under age eight must be properly restrained in child car seat or booster seat.

Don't be a statistic

The share of Hoosiers not buckling up has dropped to 6.6 percent, below the national average of 10.4 percent. But new data from ICJI and the Indiana University Public Policy Institute show that unrestrained motorists still make up 53 percent of traffic deaths.

Unrestrained motorists are more likely to die in crashes by 10 times in cars and SUVs, 14 times in pickup trucks and 15 times in vans.

"Has this message 'clicked' for you?" Lieutenant Payne asked. "If you have a friend or a family member who does not buckle up, speak up! Ask them to change their habits."

Drivers under age 25, especially young male drivers, are the least likely to be buckled during a crash. Injury rates among unrestrained motorists are also higher:

- In rural counties
- When a driver is speeding or impaired
- On weekend nights between 11 p.m. and 4 a.m.

Click here for more seat belt statistics in the first of several 2018 Crash Fact Sheets.

Don't buckle up just for yourself

During a crash, unrestrained passengers become projectiles that can injure or kill others in the car.

Traffic crashes are the leading killer of children ages 1 to 13, and adults set the example. Parents and caregivers who do not buckle up are more likely to have kids who are improperly restrained. That means one ticket for the driver and one for each unrestrained child.

Choose the safest car seat for your child's height and weight at nhtsa.gov/campaign/right-seat. Find a certified car-seat safety technician to assist with installation and proper usage at preventinjury.pediatrics.iu.edu.

Seat belt tips

What is the best way to reduce your chances of injury or death? Buckle up! Below are tips for proper seat-belt use:

- Secure the lap belt across your hips and pelvis, below your stomach.
- Place the shoulder belt across the middle of your chest and rib cage, away from your neck.
- Never put the shoulder belt behind your back or under an arm.
- If your seat belt doesn't fit you, or you have an older car with lap belts only, ask your dealer or vehicle manufacturer about seat belt adjusters, extenders or retrofits.

Hill joins coalition urging FCC to take action against robocalls, caller ID spoofing

The REPORTER

On Tuesday, Indiana Attorney General Curtis Hill joined a coalition of 42 attorneys general calling on the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) to take further action to stop the growing proliferation of illegal robocalls and caller ID spoofing.

In formal legal comments delivered to the FCC, the attorneys general urged the FCC to adopt its proposed rules on enforcement against caller ID spoofing of calls to the United States originating from overseas, while also addressing spoofing in text messaging and alternative voice services. These provisions are included in the FCC appropriations authorization bill also known as the RAY BAUM'S Act of 2018.

The number of spoofed calls and the consumer financial losses tied to these scams have increased by nearly 50 percent in recent years.

"Hoosiers should be able to enjoy peace and privacy without the disturbance of unwanted calls and texts," Hill said. "Further, some of these calls are coming from scammers intent on stealing people's identities or taking their money. We need stronger measures and better technologies aimed at stopping illegal robocalling."

Americans received almost 18 billion scam robocalls in 2018, and overall, robocalls increased in the United States by 57 percent from 2017 to 2018. The FCC reports that imposter scams have cost consumers $488 million in 2018.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

And it came to pass, as he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee. And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afar off: And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us. And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed. And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God, And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan. And Jesus answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine? There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger. And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole. And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation: Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you. And he said unto the disciples, The days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it. And they shall say to you, See here; or, see there: go not after them, nor follow them.

Royals win Game 2 over 'Rocks, take lead HCC

Hamilton Southeastern broke out of a 2-2 tie with Westfield in the sixth inning, scoring a run and a victory over the Shamrocks 3-2 at Ken Seitz Field. The win gave Southeastern a split in the Hoosier Crossroads Conference series.

Westfield scored a run in the first inning; Bryce Dorton and Trey Anderson hit back-to-back singles, and Dorton followed that with a double to get Dorton home. In the fifth inning, it was Dorton's turn to hit a double, and that scored Maximus Webster, putting the 'Rocks up 2-0.

The Royals got on the board in the fifth inning. Jack DeWolf got on with a single, then Jake Stout came in to courtesy run for him. Greyson Droste hit a single, moving Stout to third base. Matt Buckingham doubled in Stout, and later, Cam Bolling singled home Buckingham, tying the game.

Southeastern took the lead in the sixth inning, Cole DeWael scored when Buckingham drew a bases-loaded walk. Dorton hit a double to begin the top of the seventh inning, but the Royals got the next three batters to preserve the win.

Tyler Schweitzer pitched five innings for the win, striking out nine. Cole Graverson threw the last two innings for the save. Dorton finished the game 3-for-4 at the plate.

Southeastern is now 8-4 in the conference and leads the standings, while the Shamrocks are 7-5. The Royals finish HCC play next week with two games against Franklin Central. Overall, HSE is 13-7 and hosts Cathedral on Monday. Westfield is 10-8 and plays Monday at Kokomo.

Huskies beat Twin Lakes

Hamilton Heights finished Hoosier Conference play on a winning note Friday, beating Twin Lakes 5-0 in a conference placement game at the Indians' field.

The Huskies scored their first run in the fourth inning, when Sam Wahl got home on an error. In the fifth inning, Alex Hewitt got on with a left field double, and Sam Allen batted him in with a hit to right field.

Heights added three more runs in the seventh inning. Erik Malott singled in Allen, then Andrew VanOeveren batted in Wahl and Brody Piel.

Allen, Wahl and Nate Hulen all had two hits. Sam Fulton pitched a complete game, striking out nine.

"Sam Fulton was terrific," said Huskies coach JR Moffatt. "It's the best command he's had so far this spring. Offensively we made some things happen and got some key hits. We have struggled all season at the plate but this week playing five nights in a row helped a bunch."

Heights is 8-9 and plays at Class 2A No. 5 Alexandria on Monday.

Carmel beats Terre Haute North on Senior Night

Carmel won its Senior Night game on Friday, beating Terre Haute North 4-1 at the Cherry Tree Softball Complex.

The game was scoreless until the bottom of the fifth inning, when the Greyhounds brought in three runs. Ella Ohrvall hit a double to score Ariana Zdobyak, then Sarah Goddard smacked a home run over the left field fence, also sending Ohrvall home.

The Patriots got a run back in the top of the sixth, but Carmel answered, with Sommer Edwards hitting a right field single to score Caroline Roop.

"I thought it took us a while to make some adjustments, and she had a change-up that was throwing us off-balance a little bit," said Greyhounds coach Ginger Britton, referring to the Terre Haute North pitcher. "I thought the girls did a good job later in the game, getting aggressive a little earlier in the count, hitting their pitches."

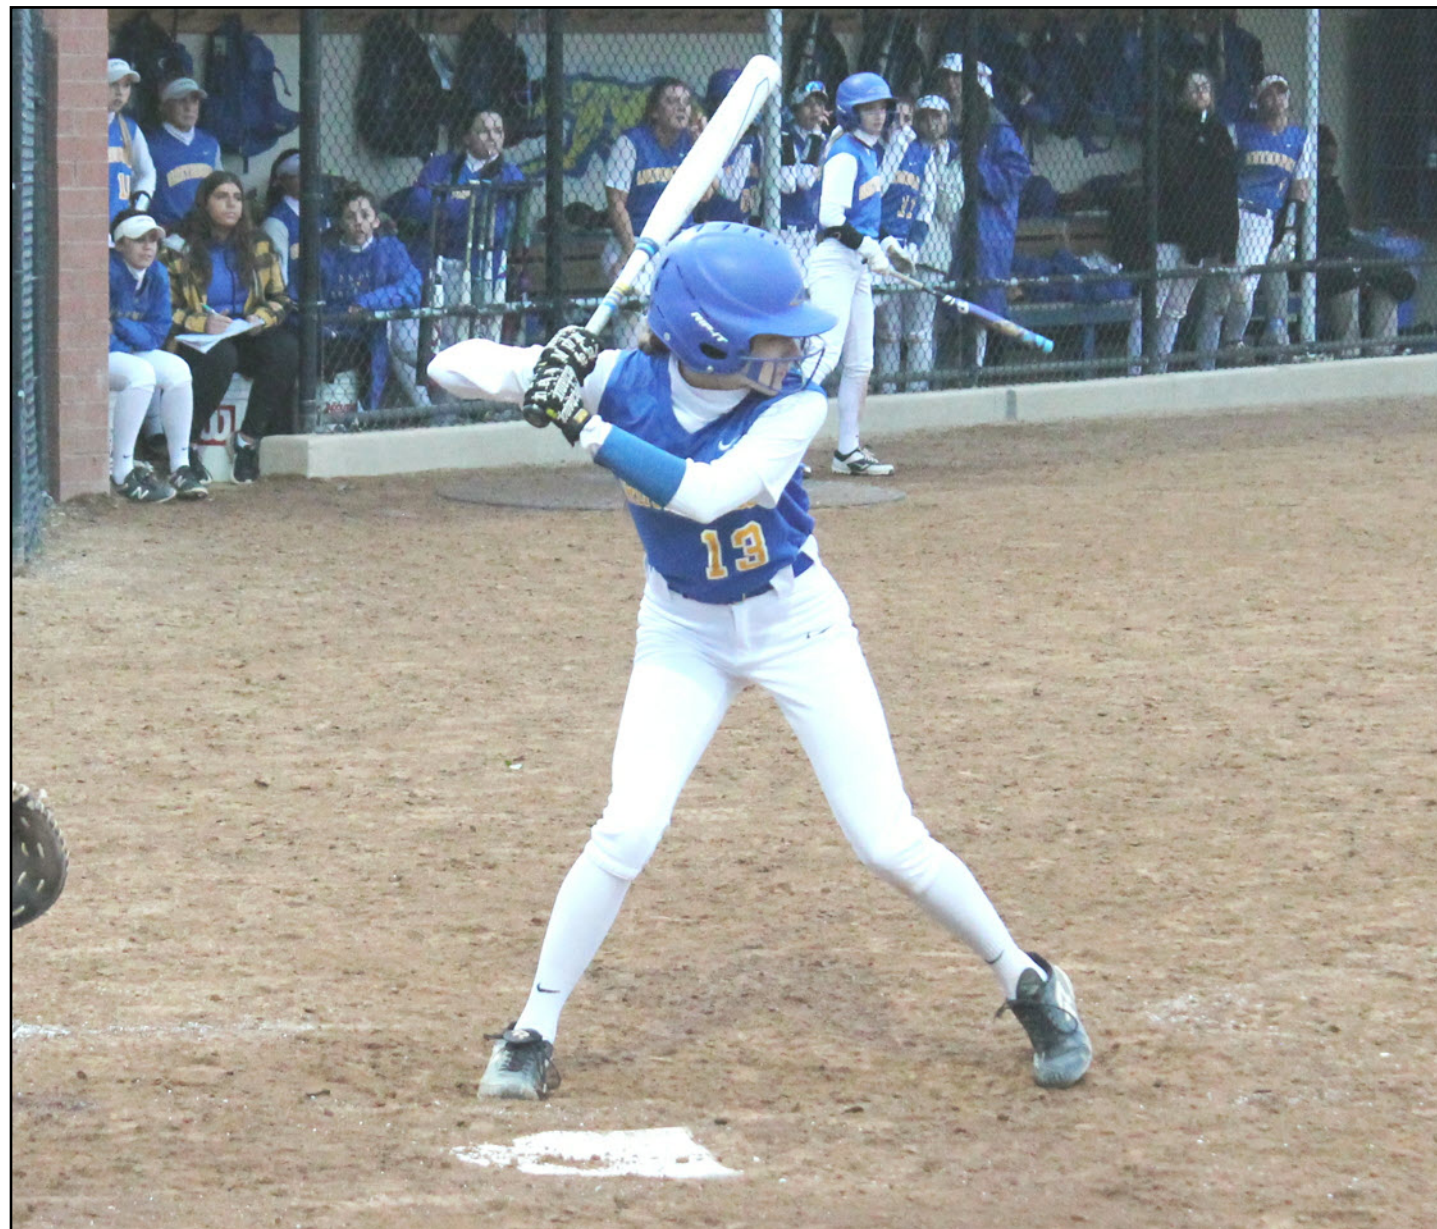

Kaitlyn Grimes got the win, pitching six innings with five strikeouts against three hits. Zdobyak and Grimes are the seniors on this year's Carmel team.

"It's been amazing," said Zdobyak, who has been with the team all four years. "Every year has been something that I've learned something new moving up. I've just learned from other players how to be a leader and it showed this year."

Meanwhile, this was Grimes' first year with the Greyhounds, but she had a good experience as well.

"The girls are great," said Grimes. "They were very welcoming and it was just nice to be able to be myself so fast."

Carmel is 11-6 and will play games at Crown Point and Kankakee Valley today.
