Arcadia to hold its first Market on Main

The REPORTER

The town of Arcadia will host its first Spring Market on Main from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, May 25.

The festival, held on the town's Main Street, will focus on local artisans and craftsmen. Attendees can shop booths with vintage pieces, hand crafted items and boutique finds. The event will also include food vendors and a scooter/car show featuring classic models by Arcadia-based Cushman Company.

"We are so excited to partner with Steve Lorenz, owner of Arcadia Cushman Company, to bring Arcadia a fun-filled day of entertainment and special events," said Rebecca Marlott, committee member for Market on Main. "We hope everyone comes out to support our efforts to bring people to small town America!"

The Nickel Plate Express will offer rides during the festival, boarding out of Arcadia for the first time since beginning excursions this past September.

by a ceremony at Riverside Cemetery and finally at Crownland Cemetery's veterans memorial about noon.

Construction set to begin on new apartments, parking garage

The Levinson construction is getting underway in downtown Noblesville. City officials have been working with Rebar Development and our community partners to help minimize the impact from construction on public parking.

Check out NoblesvilleNOW.com and follow us on Facebook and Twitter to get the latest updates, and help share our downtown parking map to alleviate the inconvenience from the construction.

We look forward to the day when we can add 83 high-end apartments, a 300-space parking garage and 5,000 square feet of commercial space. However, before we break ground on this transformative project that will help support and sustain our downtown well into the future, it's important to remember our past – and how we got here.

Many residents are curious about what the excavation may uncover once it begins. Fred Swift devoted a column in the Hamilton County Reporter to this topic on Aug. 25, 2018, when he asked, "What lies beneath new project site?" The city plans to dedicate a display in City Hall about the Levinson construction and showcase any interesting artifacts.

The half-block area where the Levinson will be constructed on Maple Avenue between 8th Street and 9th Street has served many purposes throughout our history. The site evolved over time from the days of The Wild Opera House facing 9th Street, which stood from 1895 to 1959, and the Houston Hotel on the corner of 8th Street and Maple Avenue that was built in 1898, but burned down in 1984.

Even during the Wild Opera House's lifetime, its use changed over time as well. Built for stage productions, the Wild was converted to mostly show silent movies in 1919 before eventually transitioning to "talkies," but closed as a full-time movie theatre in 1936.

The current structure at Maple Avenue and 9th Street was originally envisioned as a 50-foot-tall, four-story hotel – but the builder's plans got downgraded. Ownership has changed hands over the years as well, along with the buildings' facades. Previous occupants included a telegraph office, a telephone exchange, an electric railway company, a music store popular with musicians, and lastly, attorney and real estate offices.

Carmel Mayor issues statement on passing of Les Olds

The following statement was submitted by Carmel Mayor Jim Brainard on the passing of Les Olds.

I am deeply saddened to receive the news today that one of the City of Carmel's redevelopment pioneers has passed away. Les Olds, who worked with our administration, died after a tragic accident Saturday night.

Les served as the executive director of the Carmel Redevelopment Commission when we were putting together the vision of what our City Center, including the Palladium and Center for the Performing Arts would

Fishers City Council holds The Great Goat Debate of 2019

By LARRY LANNAN
LarryInFishers.com

The Fishers City Council had a lengthy agenda Monday with a total of 27 items. Most were handled quickly and routinely, including economic development projects and a revised ordinance on weeds and vegetation standards within city limits.

However, the item that fueled the most discussion was about allowing one goat at Riverside Intermediate School.

That's right, the Fishers City Council spent 15 to 20 minutes debating goat policy.

The city Planning Department explained that the Unified Development Ordinance (UDO) was previously amended to allow the Fishers Director of Planning approval authority for fowl animals located in and around Hamilton Southeastern (HSE) Schools. Other farm animals were not included.

The staff was asking council members to allow an exemption from the current UDO to allow the one goat on the school corporation's property adjacent to Riverside Intermediate, and to allow the city Planning Director approval authority for not just chicken coops (fowl) but also farm animals.

Councilman Pete Peterson was the first to speak and voiced concerns about how the goat will be handled, and staff explained that the Riverside principal asked for the exemption and is confident the school can handle this goat.

Councilman Todd Zimmerman asked how many animals could be approved as a result of the UDO exemption authority, saying he is not against what Riverside is trying to do, he's concerned about what may come later.

City Planning and Zoning Director Tony Bagato said his staff was just trying to keep the council from approving every two different city hall buildings, the first constructed in the 1870s and the second in 1954, until City Hall was relocated in the 1980s to its current site, repurposing the old Carnegie Library that had been built in 1912. Police and fire departments also moved – but across Maple Avenue to where they stand today, occupying the former U.S. Post Office building.

Delving into this history proves that change has always been part of Noblesville's past – it's a sign of the community's growth. But that doesn't mean we have to forget our history. In fact, the 1950s-era City Hall sign that once stood over the entrance of that building, and is currently facing 8th Street, will continue to be preserved. The sign and much of the brick work from the two buildings on Maple Avenue that will soon come down will be incorporated into the Levinson's interior.

These are some of the ways the city and Rebar Development are honoring Noblesville's past while moving forward with downtown's first apartment building in more than a century.

Another way we are honoring history is by the name of the project itself, which we were fortunate to learn about from county historian David Heighway. The Levinson family homestead stood on 8th Street and was described in a Noblesville Ledger article from Feb. 23, 1938, as a landmark of the community during its heyday and "at one time the center of many social events and charity programs."

The Levinsons emigrated from Germany and settled in Noblesville in 1857 to open a successful clothing shop that operated on the square for more than 40 years. This prominent Jewish family gave much of their time, attention and money to important causes and community endeavors – including funds for a new high school gymnasium, a high school scholarship and construction of Forest Park to name a few.

According to the Ledger, with the donation of their homestead in 1938, the "property belongs to the city and perhaps some way may be arranged to commemorate the memory of this popular and helpful family of the early days of Noblesville."

Their memory deserves more than a parking lot. As the project bearing their name rises from the ground, the Levinsons will be remembered forever for their service to the community in which they lived, worked, raised two generations and gave so much of their success back to Noblesville.

I am proud that the City of Noblesville is both making history with this project as well as honoring our history for generations to come.

of the Greatest Generation passed away during the past year, Martin noted.

On Saturday the 25th, the Cicero Legion and VFW will host their annual Memorial Day Parade from the Legion post across the Morse Lake bridge to the Cicero Cemetery. A memorial ceremony will be held there shortly after 11 a.m.

Carmel Legion and VFW posts will hold cemetery services on Monday, the 27th beginning at 9 a.m.

at the Hamilton Gardens Memorial Park.

The honor guard will proceed to the Westfield Veterans Memorial for a service at about 9:30 followed by a ceremony at Eagle Creek Cemetery around 10:15. Next will be a service at Farley (Blue) Cemetery at 106th Street and Keystone, and finally at Carmel Cemetery at approximately noon.

As always, members of the public are invited to attend a ceremony near them.

able and beautiful area it is today.

His guidance was instrumental in helping our administration and the City Council have the confidence that we were on the right track when it came to the redevelopment of the heart of the city when few suburban communities were taking such bold steps to redefine what the city would become.

Les had years of experience as an architect and structuring public-private partnerships that enhance communities, both in Carmel and Indianapolis. We were fortunate to have him on our team to help us build the City we love today. Carmel is better off because of Les's singular focus on thoughtful planning and beautiful architecture in our redevelopment districts.

Les strongly believed that architecture, particularly public architecture, should be beautiful, inspire people and create pride in our city.

Recently, Les had been serving as a consultant to Henry Mestetsky, the current executive director of the Redevelopment Commission.

Here is a statement from Mestetsky:

"Les has been the heart of the city's redevelopment from the very beginning – as the city's architect when he was in private practice more than 20 years ago, as the head of the redevelopment commission after his retirement and as a consultant and mentor to me and my staff until the end. I was lucky to spend time with Les just last week, when we opened our new office. Les's bright and caring demeanor never changed. He will be truly missed by everyone."

request for farm animals by schools.

Peterson responded that he trusts city staff to handle the approvals, however, "... if something happens to those animals, it falls back on the city's lap and (City Attorney Chris Greisl's) lap ... if they have a horse, if they have a bull, you have four cows, and they create chaos running down the middle of 116th Street, and some stampede, because they're animals," he said. He wants to be sure any approval takes all this into consideration.

Mayor Scott Fadness chimed in to say that there is precedent for city planning staff to allow for animals in Fishers under the current rules in place. He recommends the City Council enact rules and let the staff handle specific animal requests.

Bagato recommended that the council approve the one goat requested by Riverside Intermediate, because council action is needed for a grant application by the school.

The mayor recommended a 30-day delay, allowing the staff to have more UDO language prepared for the council. A motion was made and seconded to allow Riverside its one goat. Then Councilman David George said he planned to vote against that motion because goats are much different animals than chickens.

At that point the motion was suspended and a new motion was passed to table the entire matter, which passed unanimously.

After the longest discussion about any agenda item considered that night, the Fishers City Council made no decision on the one goat requested by Riverside Intermediate.

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault – it wasn't something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Prevail is strictly confidential, and since their core values include integrity and respect, they provide their services at no charge. Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don't often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we're breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County. – Mike Bragg, GM of Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville

To help Hamilton County families affected by domestic violence and sexual abuse, you can donate the following items:

- Bottled water (8 oz. bottles, preferably)
- Individually packaged snacks
- Gas cards (many women have no access to funds after fleeing their abuser)

You can drop off items at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, located at 14701 Tom Wood Way. You can also donate directly to Prevail of Central Indiana by visiting Prevailinc.org.

Construction to begin on I-465 on northeast side

The Indiana Department of Transportation will begin work on the northeast quadrant of Interstate 465 next week.

Contractors will work to patch and repave segments of I-465 and I-69 from U.S. 31 all the way down to I-70.

Work is scheduled to begin next week after Memorial Day. Crews will do night and weekend work from the end of May through October.

Work will be completed in four different segments. At least one lane in each direction will always be open during this project.

Fishers City Council approves rezone request for RE/MAX firm at 126th Street and Olio Road

By LARRY LANNAN

After deadlocking on a 4-4 vote on April 15, the Fishers City Council voted 8-1, approving a rezoning for Jeffrey Cummings of RE/MAX Real Estate, allowing his firm to use what was once a residential for his office. The lone "no" vote Monday was cast by Councilman Pete Peterson.

On April 15, the council had a lively debate on the pluses and minuses of rezoning the property from residential to commercial.

Peterson said he wouldn't stand in the way of this project, but still voted no.

The measure approved by the council contains the following conditions, recommended by city staff:

- Uses be limited to general office (no medical office)

- Signage and lighting shall be residential in character

- Property owner will voluntarily annex into City Limits

- If property to the west rezones to commercial, shared access to both sites will be through one driveway off of 126th Street.

State grants available for field trips to state parks, lakes

The REPORTER

Educators interested in taking K-12 students on field trips to an Indiana state park or state-managed lake in the 2019-2020 school year can receive financial help through the Indiana Natural Resources Foundation (INRF).

Grants from the Discover the Outdoors Fund are available for public, private, parochial, or home-school educators, according to INRF director Jody Kress.

"The Foundation's mission is to celebrate and preserve Indiana's natural legacy," Kress said. "This grant gives children an adventure that showcases some of Indiana's natural and cultural treasures and teaches the importance of protecting and preserving them for everyone to enjoy."

Since the grant program's inception in 2013, a total of 135 grants have been awarded, providing the opportunity for more than 10,000 students to visit state parks at less cost to the schools and students.

Indiana has 24 state parks and eight state-managed lakes eligible for field trip funding that will engage students in learning about Indiana's fish, forest, wildlife, natural habitats and conservation.

"These trips help children understand how previous generations viewed the significance of Indiana's natural and cultural resources, and at the same time let them make great memories that they will carry into adulthood," said Ginger Murphy, deputy director for stewardship for DNR State Parks.

The maximum grant award is $250 per application.

Applications are accepted now through June 30 prior to the school year for which the grant is requested. Applications must be postmarked no later than June 30.

Applicants will be notified by Sept. 1 regarding potential grant awards.

The grant application is available at IN.gov/inrf/educate.html.

The INRF is accepting donations to the fund from individuals, businesses, or anyone who supports the idea of getting kids outdoors. The fund was established in memory of Tom Huck, a longtime DNR employee who was an ardent supporter of outdoor experiences for children.

Citizens Police Academy gives insight, training

The REPORTER

The Noblesville Police Department is currently accepting applications for the next Citizens Police Academy. The academy is a 12-week course, free of charge, designed to provide community members with an opportunity to become better acquainted with professional staff and to learn about police procedures.

The Academy will familiarize citizens with the operations of the police department. This includes classes on patrol procedures, criminal law, narcotics, search and seizure, tactical operations, investigations, juvenile law, firearms demonstration, emergency vehicle operations, use of force issues and police canine demonstration. Participants will also have the option to ride with a patrol officer and witness the street activity the officers encounter on a day-to-day basis.

The objective of the Citizens Police Academy is not to create quasi-cops, but to produce informed citizens. The academy is intended to open lines of communication between the community and the police department. By allowing citizens a firsthand look at the police department and how its operations are handled, citizens take away a better understanding of the police role in the community.

Additionally, citizens bring a wealth of knowledge about their community, particularly the problems in their neighborhood. In this way, police are able to learn and better understand the concerns of the citizens.

Eligible candidates must:

1. Be at least 16 years of age
2. Have no felony convictions and no misdemeanor or convictions within the last (3) years
3. Pass a limited background check
4. Reside or be employed in Noblesville

The next academy session (Fall 2019) will begin on Sept. 11 and will conclude on Nov. 19 with a graduation ceremony. Classes will be held every Wednesday evening from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m.

AG Curtis Hill files lawsuit against members of Purdue Pharma's founding family

The REPORTER

Indiana Attorney General Curtis Hill filed a lawsuit Tuesday against members of the Sackler family, alleging that as owners and directors of Purdue Pharma, the Sacklers have played a key role in worsening the opioid crisis in Indiana.

Purdue Pharma is best known for making and marketing the painkiller OxyContin.

In November 2018, Hill filed a lawsuit against Purdue Pharma, alleging the company intentionally understated the health risks of long-term opioid use and deceptively marketed several drugs in ways that violated Indiana law. That matter remains pending in Marion Superior Court.

In this new lawsuit, the State of Indiana alleges that members of the Sackler family directed, approved of and participated in their company's destructive strategies. The lawsuit further alleges that the Sacklers enriched themselves to the tune of billions of dollars from these schemes. In fact, the Sacklers instructed Purdue Pharma to distribute approximately $4.3 billion to the Sackler family from April 2008 until 2016 alone.

The lawsuit alleges that these members of the Sackler family — who individually served as Purdue Pharma's CEO, vice presidents and/or board directors — violated the Deceptive Consumer Sales Act, the Prescription Drug Discount and Benefit Card Statute, the False Claims Act and the Medicaid False Claims Act, among other unlawful activities.

"We believe the Sacklers' wrongful acts have left a wake of addiction, death and devastation in Indiana and across the country," Hill said. "I hope this lawsuit serves notice to all that this office will continue to hold accountable companies and individuals who are engaging in abusive, deceptive, illegal and/or unfair conduct that causes harm to Indiana consumers."

The lawsuit seeks civil penalties, treble damages, disgorgement of ill-gotten gains, and restitution of sums constituting unjust enrichment.

The Office of the Attorney General intends to continue working to ensure that any funds becoming available through this action would be used to help address the public health crisis brought on by Purdue Pharma's and the Sackler family's misconduct.

"The Sackler family and Purdue Pharma bear substantial responsibility for causing this crisis," Hill said. "Now they must bear substantial responsibility to help fix it."

Assisting the Office of the Attorney General in this matter are the law firms of Cohen Milstein Sellers and Toll PLLC and Zimmerman Reed LLP.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

And Jesus entered and passed through Jericho. And, behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich. And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature. And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way. And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zacchaeus, make haste, and come down; for to day I must abide at thy house. And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully. And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner. And Zacchaeus stood, and said unto the Lord: Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold. And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as he also is a son of Abraham. For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

Mary Louise Kiely

1928 – May 12, 2019

Our mother, Mary Louise Kiely, nee Weschler, died peacefully on Mother's Day, May 12, 2019. While we will miss her greatly, we know that she was looking forward to joining our father, Dr. John T. Kiely, who loved her unconditionally. Of that, she was grateful, laughing that it was no easy task.

Mom attended high schools in Erie, Pa., and Los Angeles, and graduated from Anderson High School in 1946. She lived most of her life in Anderson and cherished her summers at Lake Wawasee, where she tended her hosta and flower gardens. Though born in Erie, she had deep roots in Indiana, having descended from Thomas Carr, one of the signatories of the Indiana State Constitution.

Mom was an excellent cook, collecting recipes by the thousands and sitting the family down for a homemade dinner every night. Her chocolate fudge was the best, her Italian Roast Beef sandwiches rivaled Art's, and her birthday cakes were always homemade, never from a box.

She was a prodigious letter writer to friends and family, had to drive us to the emergency room a few too many times, and had a voice that carried throughout the neighborhood: Just ask any of the Weis or Michael family members.

Mom loved drinking Margaritas with her Anderson girlfriends and Bloody Marys with her Lake friends. She had quite a laugh, especially after a few drinks. We are thankful that she and Dad worked hard for the lovely weekend getaways that the lake provided.

She somehow managed to get all six of us kids to Mass every Sunday morning, with spit-washed faces, albeit a little late some weeks. Her Christmas Eve parties were beautiful and epic, complete with Swedish meatballs and bourbon punch, and she never lost a silver fork, thanks to her sons' heroic rescue efforts.

Each summer after swim season ended, Mom and Dad would load the whole family into the station wagon so we could travel all over the U.S. She planned each trip without the internet, credit cards or cell phones. We survived trips to Custer's Last Stand and Gettysburg (though it seemed the larger battles were fought in the car), the South, the East Coast, Cape Cod, Canada, Seattle, San Francisco, and a few lively Spring Breaks in Panama City.

Our last big childhood trip was in 1971, with the whole family piled into a VW bus for a legendary journey through the European Alps. Mom only made reservations for the first and last nights, finding guest houses along the way. We all seemed to inherit this sense of wanderlust, for which we are eternally grateful. Though some of us moved far away from our beloved Hoosier state, Mom always made an effort to visit-making trips to California, Europe, New Mexico, Texas, Florida and Virginia.

Mom and Dad valued education, with all six of us receiving at least one degree from Indiana University.

Mom missed her parents Charles and Achsa (Miller) Weschler every day after their passing. She was also preceded in death by her sisters Shirley (Bob) Sonnenberg and Louise (Carl) Kranz and her favorite dog Bandit.

She is survived by her six children, Robert (Susie) Kiely, Santa Fe, N.M., Anne (Jay) Merrell, Noblesville, John (Meilin) Kiely, Richmond, Va., Susan (Joe) Krauss, Redwood City, Calif., James (Lise) Kiely, Vienna, Austria, and Lisa (Tommy) Decker, Lafayette. She loved her 10 grandchildren, John, Andrew, Daniel and Catherine Merrell, Kiely and Thomas Decker, Kaile and Rachel Krauss, and John Mario and Michael Jao Kiely; and her many favorite grand dogs.

She is also survived by her brother, John (Linda) Weschler; and her beloved Weschler and Sonnenberg niece and nephews.

Mass of Christian Burial will be conducted at 11 a.m. on July 25, 2019 at St. Mary Catholic Church, 1115 Pearl St., Anderson. Burial will be at East Maplewood Cemetery. Following interment there will be a celebration of life at 4 p.m. at 1010 Westfield Road, Noblesville.

Randall & Roberts Funeral Homes of Noblesville has been entrusted with Mary's care.

In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to the Dr. John T. and Mary Kiely Medical Scholarship Fund, c/o Madison County Community Foundation Inc., 33 W. 10th St., Anderson, IN 46016.

Girls track and field regional

Southeastern edges out West Lafayette for team title

By RICHIE HALL

LAFAYETTE - Hamilton Southeastern went into the final event of Tuesday's Lafayette Jefferson girls track and field regional with the slimmest of leads: One-half of a point over West Lafayette.

All the Royals had to do was finish ahead of the Red Devils, and the regional plaque was theirs again. No problem: Southeastern won the 4x400 relay, which clinched another championship for HSE. The Royals finished with 104.5 points to West Lafayette's 101, thus winning their 15th regional title.

Just as important, if not more so, Southeastern had 10 qualifiers for the IHSAA state finals, which will take place Saturday, June 1 at Indiana University. The Royals will head to Bloomington as defending state champions.

The seniors led the way for the Royals. Kennedy Drish claimed her third straight pole vault title. Drish, in fact, broke the regional record with her vault of 12 feet, 6 inches.

It was a remarkable result for Drish, the two-time defending state champion in that event, as she had been injured for most of the season. Drish herself said her goal was just to get the state standard of 11-2, thus automatically qualifying for state.

"That was my goal, was just to clear 11-2, and then see how high I could get," said Drish.

Senior Lulu Black won the 3200 run, and was part of the state-qualifying 4x800 relay, which finished second. Senior Maddie Mirro, sophomore Annice McFarland and junior Ellie Pedersen were also on the 4x800.

Senior Tierra Sydnor was part of the Royals' two relay wins. Sydnor joined senior Mya Hammons, junior Olivia Burgess and sophomore Alyssa Barker in winning the 4x100 event. Burgess, Hammons, Sydnor and freshman Regan Wans were on HSE's victorious 4x400 relay.

Sydnor also finished second in the 300 hurdles, sending her to state in three events. The top three in each event head to state, along with anyone who equals or betters the state standard in an event.

"Tierra and Lulu did really well," said HSE coach Julie Alano. "Kennedy coming back and winning the pole vault, that's huge."

Other state qualifiers for Southeastern included Barker and Burgess, who were second and third respectively in the 200 dash; Wans, who placed second in the 400 dash, and Ella Wilhelm in the pole vault, who tied for fourth but matched the state standard of 11-2.

Fishers placed third as a team with 56.5 points and had five regional qualifiers. Freshman Ella Scally had a part in four of those efforts.

Scally won the 200 dash, placed second in the long jump and took third in the 100 dash. Scally also ran on the Tigers' runner-up 4x100 team, along with senior Myah Donaldson, junior Gabby Lewis and senior Grace May.

"It's been a pretty cool year," said Scally. "I worked really hard to get here and it's just been really fun with all my teammates helping me get here."

Sophomore Alison Casey tied for fourth in the pole vault, but qualified for state as she was one of six vaulters to make the 11-2 state standard.

"It was a good meet tonight," said Fishers coach Andrew Belloli. He called Scally's performance "outstanding again," and had praise for other athletes as well, including the Tigers' 4x800 relay. Fishers finished fourth in that event, but could get a callback to state, depending on the results from other regionals around the state.

"The 4x1 was excellent again tonight and Alison Casey in the pole vault was one of six to hit the state standard, which is incredible," said Belloli.

Noblesville had a solid meet, placing fifth and getting five state qualifiers. Shelby Tyler made it to state in two events, winning the high jump (where she is the two-time defending state champion) and the pole vault, where she placed sixth but made the state standard of 11-2.

Freshman Kiana Siefert had an outstanding day in the long jump, placing second. Her best jump of 17-6 was a personal best by more than a foot.

"It's insane," said Siefert. "I'm a freshman. I've been doing track since I was like, 5 or 6 since my mom did it all throughout high school and college. And it's just such a cool experience. I love all my teammates. It's just a really fun sport."

Senior Maria Anderson qualified for state in two events, placing third in the 400 dash and joining sophomore Bella Sharples-Gordon, senior Aubrie Deal and junior Anna Hazelrigg for a third-place result in the 4x800 relay.

Carmel finished seventh as a team. Junior Phoebe Bates qualified for state in both long-distance events, placing second in the 1600 run and third in the 3200.

Hamilton Heights sophomore Maria Mitchell earned a place at state in the 1600 run. Mitchell finished fifth, but her time of 5:02.10 beat the state standard.

"I was pretty excited," said Mitchell. "I

John Peckinpaugh hired as Noblesville boys basketball head coach

Noblesville Schools announced the hiring of John Peckinpaugh as the new Noblesville High School varsity boys basketball coach.

The hiring was made official at Tuesday's Noblesville Schools board meeting. Peckinpaugh replaces Brian McCauley, who resigned last month.

Peckinpaugh joins the Millers from his role as head men's basketball coach for Wheeling Jesuit University, where he coached this past season. Peckinpaugh started his coaching career as an assistant for the men's basketball team at the Indiana Institute of Technology (2012-13), then served as a graduate assistant for his alma mater, Indiana University Purdue University Fort Wayne in 2013-14.

He returned to Indiana Tech in 2014 as the head men's basketball coach, staying for three seasons. During his second season at Indiana Tech (2015-16), Peckinpaugh led his team to the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) national tournament and was named Hoosier Wolverine Athletic Conference coach of the year. During one season, Peckinpaugh's Indiana Tech team ranked second in the nation in blocks per game and total blocks, sixth in the nation in field goal percentage defense and eighth in the nation in scoring defense per game. He then returned to IPFW as an assistant for the 2017-18 season.

Tom Izzo, the nationally renowned head coach of Michigan State University's men's basketball program once said about Peckinpaugh, "as a player, John was tenacious and driven to succeed. Now that he's in the coaching profession, I'd expect nothing less from his teams."

"We're very pleased to welcome John to NHS," said NHS Athletic Director Leah Wooldrige. "He has a track record of rapidly turning around teams, and his focus on consistency and servant leadership, as well as his college experience and connections, will serve our student athletes well. John has already hit the ground running developing program goals, principles and a development philosophy. We're excited to see where the basketball program can go under his leadership."

Peckinpaugh holds a bachelor's degree from IPFW, where he also played basketball and graduated from in 2012. At the high school level, he graduated from Muncie Central in 2008 and played basketball. Peckinpaugh was a starter on a pair of state runner-up teams and earned three North Central Conference championships.

Red hot Tigers beat Millers, move into title game

By RICH TORRES

CARMEL – There’s no secret to the Fishers Tigers’ postseason success. It’s a matter of see ball, hit ball, and repeat.

On Tuesday night at Carmel’s Cherry Tree Softball Complex, the Tigers (15-9) followed their season-long pattern with a 13-hit outburst against defending Sectional 8 champion Noblesville to win 10-2 and advance into the title game against rival Hamilton Southeastern.

HSE run-ruled North Central 10-0 in the five innings during the evening’s second semifinal game, setting up a Mudsock rematch, which Fishers won 5-4 during the regular season this past month.

However, the Tigers are red hot, posting 23 hits in two postseason games to increase their runs total to 230 in 24 games, and they’re not looking to slow down.

“We had this plan from the start. We knew this team was good. We work together as one. We’re not individuals. So we knew going into this season that this team is special and we’re going to get far,” Fishers’ junior shortstop Brooke Benson said. “We knew we could get past sectional, to regional, semi-state and then a state championship. That’s our goal.”

The Tigers are one step away from crossing off the first of four items on their playoff to-do list, and they did it with their bats.

Seven of the Tigers starters recorded at least one hit against Noblesville and they did it with five more hits compared to their eight-hit effort to beat the Millers 5-2 during the regular season.

Focused on avenging last year’s 4-3 sectional semifinal loss to Noblesville, the Tigers led 6-0 and later 8-2 after churning out seven hits and six runs across the fourth and fifth innings.

The Tigers drove in runners in every inning but two and despite two errors, little fazed the surging Fishers’ lineup and defense.

victory by run-rule in five innings, continued her dominance with a five-hit outing against Noblesville.

Mays struck out five and walked one while not allowing a single earned run. The Millers broke up the shutout bid in the bottom of the fourth after a fielding error in left field opened the door.

Julia Furiak lined an RBI double to left-center field to plate the Millers’ first run with one out, and Maddie Taylor helped her cause with a two-out RBI single to cut the deficit 6-2.

Mays retired 10 of the final 12 batters she faced to protect the Tigers 10-2 advantage. The Millers stranded two runners in scoring position as Mays induced eight flyball outs and seven ground outs.

Similar to the Tigers’ .392 team batting average, the Millers were hitting .358 entering the semifinals, but they couldn’t get going against Mays.

“She’s had our number. We’ve played her three times now. Last year, in sectional, we did win, but she kind of stifled our offense,” Millers coach Deke Bullard said. “She throws well, mixes her pitches up, locates extremely well. And when you can do those things, it makes it very tough on an offense and you must take advantage of situations. We just weren’t able to get runners on and take advantage.”

The Tigers capitalized at will against Taylor, who had a 12-5 record entering the game with 94 strikeouts.

Courtney James went 2-for-4 with two RBI from the leadoff spot and a laced double to left field to start the game. Benson was 2-for-4 with two RBI, scoring James from third with a one-out sacrifice bunt.

Benson had an RBI double in the top of the fourth and stole home on a heads up squeeze play that failed, but she converted with her speed and the Millers finding themselves out of position to run her down.

“We didn’t have our best, and they did exactly what they needed to do. They put the ball in play and hit a lot of gaps, and they executed and scored runs,” Bullard said. “We just couldn’t do the same. We had no answer for what they were doing, so hats off to them. They were by far the better team today.”

Kaylee Kardash was 3-for-4 from the seventh hole for the Tigers, while Jade Frye went 3-for-4 with an RBI double in the fifth. The Tigers built a 2-0 lead following Kardash’s RBI single in the second inning, but the lineup caught fire in the fourth with a four-hit, four-run frame.

Fishers added four more runs in the fifth and sixth innings. Olivia Latimer led off the fifth with a double, while Sarah Bumps drove in a run with the bases loaded in the fourth despite grounding out. Caroline Bernhardt’s RBI single in the sixth pushed Fishers lead to 10-2.

“We got here last year, and we know how it feels, and so we’re just going to continue to overpower and do what we can,” Benson said. “We have the drive. We want this W, and we want to win.”

The Tigers are vying for their first sectional title since 2015-16 against HSE at 6 p.m. on Wednesday.

“Mudsock, baby,” Courtney James said. “We wanted this win tonight, and we’re not done yet. We want to keep it going. We were all upset last year. We were like, we have to go this year, we have to give it all we got.”

The Tigers aren’t leaving anything to chance, not with their lineup, which carries six players with batting averages at .400 or higher.

“With that team and what they did, they should have a pretty deep run into the tournament,” Bullard said.

But the Tigers aren’t overlooking the challenge ahead with HSE, which is eyeing a potential 15th sectional title in program history.

“That’s a dangerous team. They’re record doesn’t reflect how good they are,” Daren James said. “It was a 5-4 game when we played them during the regular season. That’s a good ball club and they have a lot of weapons over there, too. There will be a lot of spirit tomorrow night.”

Royals take care of Panthers, reach championship

By RICH TORRES

CARMEL – The game plan was simple for the Hamilton Southeastern Royals on Tuesday night. Don’t overlook anyone and generate some offense.

The Royals (14-9) accomplished both with a dominating 10-0 run-rule victory over the North Central Panthers in five innings during the Sectional 8 semifinals at the Cherry Tree Softball Complex.

HSE sophomore Ava Aguilar led the way going in 2-for-4 with a double and four RBI, while junior Jaylah Guillian struck out 10 and allowed one hit over 4 1/3 innings to setup a Mudsock rematch with Fishers for the sectional title.

The Fishers Tigers ousted defending sectional champion Noblesville 10-2 in the evening’s first semifinal matchup, and the Royals did their part with a decisive 12-hit performance.

The two will play at 6 p.m. on Wednesday night with Fishers eyeing its first title since 2015-16 and HSE seeking its 15th championship all time and second in three years.

“We didn’t overlook (North Central), and I liked that,” HSE coach David Cook said. “We knew we could play Fishers, so there could be a chance of overlooking them, and we didn’t.” Instead, the Royals went to work early as Guillian established the tone.

The right-hander retired the first 12 batters she faced and improved to 6-6 on the season. Guillian struck out three in a row to open the top of the first and had a stretch of four straight strikeouts through the third and fourth innings.

She walked none and only allowed a single to Carly Page in the fifth before striking out Megan Maher. Olivia Bucher relieved Guillian in the fifth and kept the trend going with a walk and two strikeouts.

“It was a great effort by Jaylah,” Cook said. “We wanted to give Olivia Bucher some time, and it’s tough to take somebody out there, you know, but (Jaylah) did a great job. Out of the 15 outs tonight, the two combined for 12 strikeouts.”

The Royals’ bats were just as efficient, driving in three runs in the second and six more in the third as HSE sent 10 batters to the plate.

“We had some solid at-bats. Even some outs were really balls that were hit hard,” Cook said. “The girl made a running catch against Ava. I thought it was heading for the gap and going, and Kaelin Wincek’s ball hit to the third baseman, I think the ball was caught behind her head. She didn’t know she had it. We hit the ball hard.”

HSE’s hitters were aggressively looking for hard contact, and it created opportunities, including three bases-loaded scenarios in the third inning.

Abby Taylor drove in the game’s first run with a two-out fielder’s choice hit and Aguilar muscled a two-run single to right field to put HSE up 3-0.

Aguilar added a two-run double in the third after Taylor connected for an RBI single and one runner on base.

The Royals loaded the bases with no outs in the third, which Libby Ratliff nearly cleared with a two-run single. Nicole Lang increased HSE’s lead 9-0 with an RBI single.

“We didn’t have any big hits, extra base hits, they were solid singles, and that’s good,” Cook said. “I talked to them about it. If you get double-digit hits, you got a chance. If you get double digits, you can compete.”

Jordan Rager drove in the game-winning run in the bottom of the fifth with an RBI pop out to right field that scored Reece Massey from third base.

Taylor finished the game 3-for-4, Olivia Capuano went 2-for-3 and Ratliff was 2-for-3 with three RBI.

The Royals are hitting .362 as a team and have 156 runs driven in through 23 games and 170 runs scored, which will come in handy against Fishers.

In two postseason games, the Tigers (15-9) have 23 hits, 20 runs scored and 230 runs overall this season in 24 games. Fishers beat HSE 5-4 to win the Mudsock on April

23. “We’re going to have to play a great ball game tomorrow night,” Cook said. “We’re going to need some runs. We don’t talk about playing Fishers. We talk about winning a sectional championship, so we just have to come out and play.”
