Jeff Bryant resigns as NHS principal

The REPORTER

Noblesville Schools has announced that Jeff Bryant plans to step down as principal of Noblesville High School effective June 30. Bryant, who became principal in August 2011, did not give a specific reason for his departure.

"After accepting the principal's position in 2011, I presented a plan to the Board of School Trustees to re-envision the high school experience. We have accomplished all of those goals and I now look forward to my next challenge," Bryant said. "I'm excited about the opportunities that exist in my future. I am committed to ensuring a smooth transition as NHS looks forward to continuing high levels of achievement."

Bryant served as NHS principal for eight years. The school achieved great success throughout his service, including receiving Four Star school ratings, an "A" grade on both state and federal requirements, and the creation of the largest internship program in Indiana. He previously served as an assistant principal and English teacher.

"It has been an absolute honor and privilege to serve the students, staff and community as NHS principal," Bryant said. "I have enjoyed celebrating with a wonderful staff the best academic performance in the history of NHS."

The district will begin the recruiting process for Bryant's replacement immediately and will work with the high school's four assistant principals and two deans to ensure a smooth transition for the start of school in August. An announcement of Bryant's replacement will be made at a later date.

First elected to the Indiana State Senate in 1992, Luke Kenley brought a unique combination of Hoosier values and experience to the Statehouse. Kenley served as an officer in the Army during the Vietnam War era, graduated from Noblesville High School, Miami of Ohio, and Harvard Law School, and grew a small family business of 20 employees to a larger one of 200 employees successfully. Kenley later sold the operating business to Marsh Supermarkets but kept the properties involved, and now owns and manages a commercial real estate operation in Noblesville. What you need to know about new traffic changes on 96th and Keystone in Carmel

By ANGELI KAKADE
 WISH-TV | wishtv.com

New traffic changes at 96th Street and Keystone Parkway are underway, and they're expected to last through 2019.

Drivers will not be able to turn left onto 96th Street going northbound or southbound due to newly constructed lanes. The traffic light at the intersection is being removed and replaced with two roundabouts. Carmel already has 125 roundabouts – more than any other city in the country. These new ramps will allow the parkway to be elevated up and over 96th Street.

The hope is that once construction is complete, getting around the city will be safer and faster, but there will be some re-routing in between.

"During the overnight hours, construction crews will begin changing traffic and remove the signal at 96th and Keystone. So that will cut access off across 96th Street, but it will also make Keystone Parkway free flowing north and south. And you'll also be able to access 96th Street by turning right," said city engineer Jeremy Kashman.

This is the last construction project on Keystone Parkway to 146th Street.

Noblesville releases Fourth of July Festival details

The REPORTER

The city of Noblesville is actively preparing for a spectacular 2019 Noblesville Fireworks Festival and has announced details to the expanded, free events taking place on July 4.

The festivities kick off with the annual Fourth of July Parade presented by Gaylor Electric Inc. at 2:30 p.m. The parade is starting earlier this year, but its route will remain the same through downtown – 16th Street to Logan Street; Logan to Ninth Street; Ninth to Monument Street; and Monument to 16th Street.

Deadline to register for the parade is Friday, June 28. Registration is $20 (non-profits are not charged) and forms are available at NoblesvilleFireworksFestival.com. Luke and Sally Kenley will be leading this year's parade as grand marshals.

The free Fireworks Festival, presented by IDI Composites International, will take place at Forest Park from 4 to 10 p.m. The location move was caused by road construction around the high school this summer. The event will include traditional festival items including a food court, the U.S. Army (with a swearing-in ceremony at 8 p.m.), Kids Zone and fireworks show at 10 p.m.

"This year's event will be bigger and more inclusive than ever through new opportunities and enhanced partnerships," said Mike Hoffmeister, festival co-chair. "Forest Park provides guests with the traditional park amenities such as playgrounds, shelters – and most importantly, nature providing plenty of shade. It also expands our festival area and layout."

This year's Kids Zone will include activities than ever before, including 11 inflatables with sizes for different age groups.

The area will have its own entertainment stage with a Dr. Seuss, pirate and comedy-magic shows and a DJ playing music specifically for children. The area also will have six balloon artists, six face painters, two stilt walking jugglers, a trackless train to ride and an art project through Caravan Classes.

"Other exciting new additions to cater to all ages include a 300-foot zip line, beer garden, a ninja warrior course, cornhole and an Indy Eleven activity," Hoffmeister said. "We also will have live music on the main stage with headliner Road Trip, a fantastic cover band from Milwaukee, and School of Rock as the opener."

More announcements about the upcoming Fourth of July festivities will be released soon. For more information about sponsoring or donating to the holiday activities, contact Robert Herrington at 317-776-6324.

Contest set for Westfield mayor

By FRED SWIFT
ReadTheReporter.com

Donald G. Rainwater II has filed for mayor of Westfield on the Libertarian Party ticket, which creates a contest with incumbent Republican Mayor Andy Cook. The mayor was unopposed in the primary election. There is no Democratic candidate.

Originally Rainwater had filed for city council, but following the May GOP primary when an apparent undercurrent of voter discontent ousted three incumbent members of the city council, Rainwater withdrew from the council race and filed for mayor.

Rainwater, 55, is a veteran of the U.S. Navy and former vocational computer and business teacher. He and his wife, Leslie, are parents of six children. He ran for state representative as a Libertarian last year in a contest won by incumbent Republican Rep. Donna Schaibley.

Fishers City Council approves apartment project with 3 no votes

By LARRY LANNAN
LarryInFishers.com

The Fishers City Council approved an apartment project at Lantern Road and Fishers Point Boulevard Monday night, despite the objections of three council members. Scannell Properties intends to build the $29 million multi-family development with a tax increment bond to be financed by Scannell. The developer will receive fee waivers from the city as part of the 180-unit project agreement.

Scannell says this development will be an important gateway to the Nickel Plate District and the Fishers downtown.

The council approved the project agreement with Scannell by a vote of 5-3, with Councilors David George, Todd Zimmerman and Cecilia Coble voting no (Councilman Eric Moeller did not attend the meeting). George said he has concerns about building apartments at that specific location because the apartments could limit the development possibilities north of the location, heading toward 116th Street.

Also approved Monday evening was a zoning variance Crew Carwash was seeking for its new corporate headquarters to be located at 116th Street near Interstate 69, allowing plans to move forward. A car wash operation will be part of the complex.

Additionally, councilmembers voted in favor of a rezoning of a house located near 126th Street and Olio Road to be utilized as an insurance agency office. The vote was 7-1 with Pete Peterson casting the no vote. Peterson said this use is not part of the 2040 comprehensive plan and he is concerned about how this will impact the area in the future.

Carmel wins urban design award

The City of Carmel was recently honored for the design of the Monon Boulevard Corridor with a Charter Award from the Congress for the New Urbanism at its conference in Louisville. Joining Carmel Mayor Jim Brainard at the podium are renowned urban planner Jeff Speck, Carmel City Engineer Jeremy Kashman, Carmel Deputy Director of Redevelopment Jenell Fairman and Carmel Director of Redevelopment Henry Mestetsky.

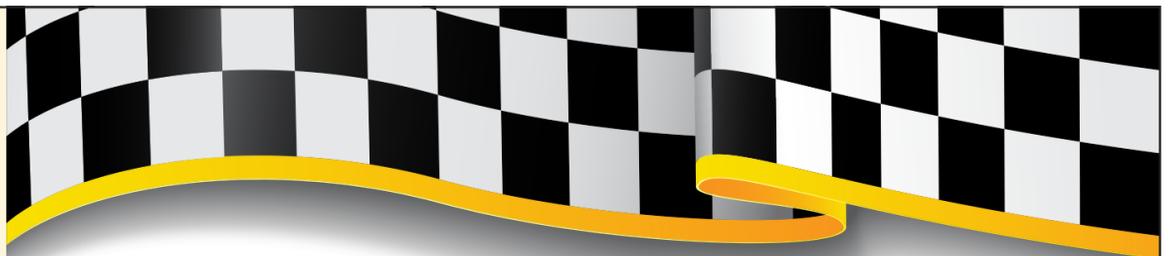

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault - it wasn't something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Prevail is strictly confidential, and since their core values include integrity and respect, they provide their services at no charge. Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don't often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we're breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County. - Mike Bragg, GM of Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville

To help Hamilton County families affected by domestic violence and sexual abuse, you can donate the following items:

- Art supplies (for children to journal and express their emotions)
- Bottled water (8 oz. bottles, preferably)
- Individually packaged snacks
- Gas cards (many women have no access to funds after fleeing their abuser)

You can drop off items at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, located at 14701 Tom Wood Way. You can also donate directly to Prevail of Central Indiana by visiting Prevailinc.org.

Carmel tavern owner opposes smoking ban for bars, private clubs

WISH-TV | wishtv.com

A local tavern owner spoke out Monday night against the City of Carmel's proposal to outlaw smoking at bars and private clubs.

Bruce Calabrese, the 31-year owner of Old Town Tavern, said at a City Council meeting, "I think it's a travesty after 31 years that you're going to do something that's almost illegal."

He said smoking at "a private enterprise" is different from setting limitations for public facilities. "That kind of just sums it up. That sums it up a whole lot."

Old Town Tavern is among a handful of bars in Carmel that allow smoking.

The original ordinance was introduced in May to regulate the use of e-cigarettes in "public places" following reports of rampant vaping among Carmel High School students.

During a Finance, Utilities and Rules Committee meeting on June 10, officials discussed adding parks, trails, multiuse paths and school buses to the list of public places covered by the ordinance. The committee also discussed adding police officers and community service officers to the list of officials eligible to enforce the ordinance, and creating a "comprehensive smoke-free policy" by revoking smoking ban exemptions from bars and private clubs.

At the June committee meeting, business owners, a physician, a Breathe Easy Hamilton County representative and Carmel High School students urged city officials to enact a comprehensive smoking ban.

Jeff Worrell, president of the Carmel City Council, said Monday night that the proposal remains with the committee. It next meets at 6 p.m. on Wednesday, June 26 at Carmel City Hall. The council could vote on the ordinance as soon as its July 1 meeting at 6 p.m.

University of Indianapolis, Ivy Tech announce credit transfer agreement

The REPORTER

Ivy Tech Community College and the University of Indianapolis have signed a credit transfer agreement that will make it easier for students to earn a bachelor's degree.

Under the new partnership, students can move seamlessly from the Associate of Science in Business Administration (TSAP) curriculum at Ivy Tech to the Bachelor of Science in Business Administration accelerated adult program at the University of Indianapolis. Designed for working adults, courses in UIndy's accelerated programs meet face-to-face and online in eight-week sessions. Classes are offered in both the fall and spring semesters, as well as seven-week sessions during the summer.

Students from any Ivy Tech location are eligible to transfer and apply a minimum of 60 credit hours for admission with junior standing to the University of Indianapolis, provided they have a cumulative 2.0 or higher grade point average on a 4.0 scale and meet the definition of 'adult learner' per University policy.

"This is an excellent transfer opportunity for our students at Ivy Tech who want to complete their bachelor's degree in business," said Russ Baker, vice president for academic affairs at Ivy Tech Community College. "Students will be assured that they won't lose any credits after completing their associate degree. We are optimistic that we will soon have more 2+2 agreements with the University of Indianapolis."

"This is another example of how the University of Indianapolis is working with partner institutions to solve community needs by providing students with lasting, valuable academic experiences. We look forward to welcoming new Greyhounds to campus," added Executive Vice President and Provost Stephen H. Kolison, Jr.

Interested students can schedule an appointment with a UIndy adult learning enrollment counselor at 317-788-3294 or ALadmissions@uindy.edu.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat: But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren. And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death. And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me. And he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing. Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one. For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, And he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end. And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough. And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to the mount of Olives; and his disciples also followed him. And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation. And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed, Saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done. And there appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him. And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground. And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow, And said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

State baseball finals

The Hamilton Southeastern baseball team won the program's first-ever state championship Monday night (Tuesday morning!), scoring a walk-off run in the seventh inning to beat Columbus East 3-2 for the Class 4A state title. The Royals finished their season 23-8.

Royals walk off with first-ever state title

Hamilton Southeastern's Anthony Eggers heads home to scoring the winning run for the Royals.

By RICHIE HALL
INDIANAPOLIS - The strategy couldn't have been more simple for Hamilton Southeastern as the Class 4A state championship baseball game was heading towards its conclusion.

The game was tied at 2-2, with the Royals to bat in the bottom of the seventh inning. The plan was about as basic as it could get: Get on, get in, walk off with the trophy.

Southeastern did just that, scoring the winning run in dramatic fashion to claim a 3-2 victory over Columbus East. The Royals thus won the school's first-ever baseball state title in a game that didn't start until 9:50 p.m. on Monday and didn't finish until after midnight on Tuesday due to weather delays that disrupted the earlier 1A game.

"I was pretty confident, although the weather was a little sketchy today," said Southeastern coach Jeremy Sassanella. "I knew playing at Victory Field with their full grounds crew and with the tarp, and per Mr. Faulkens saying, 'We'll play late,' I was okay. We walked in the door and I said 'Hey, we're prepared to play at 3 o'clock in the morning.' He says, 'I like to hear that.' So we don't want to come back. Thankfully the weather broke enough for us to get the game in."

Southeastern started its final drive to the championship with perfect defense in the sixth and seventh innings. In the sixth, two Royals players made spectacular catches for outs in foul territory, starting with Greyson Droste nabbing a foul ball for the first out. After Tyler Schweitzer got a strikeout, Cam Bolling stepped up with another big foul catch to end the inning.

"Well, that's huge. Making those foul outs and getting the hard plays," said Droste. He noted that if a foul ball isn't caught, the batter can come back and get a huge hit.

"Taking pressure off the pitcher is huge," said Droste. "Getting outs on tough plays and everybody really played great defensively today, and that really helped out the pitchers. It made us only have to put up a couple runs to win the game."

Minutes later, the Royals played probably the best seventh inning of any baseball team in Indiana this season. In the top of the inning, pitcher Tyler Schweitzer faced the top of the Olympians' order. No problem: He struck out the side, one-two-three.

"I was all in the moment right there," said Schweitzer. "I didn't hear anything around the crowd. It was just me and Jack." That would be catcher Jack DeWolf, and Schweitzer credited him with doing a good job calling the game.

With the top of the inning finished, HSE brought up the top of its order in the bottom of the seventh. With one out, Anthony Eggers got on base with a single. That brought up Brayton Harrison, and he reached on error, moving Eggers to second base.

Greyson Droste was up next, and he sent a 1-1 pitch into the infield. Columbus East tried for a double play, but while the Olympians got the out at second, they overthrew to first base. Meanwhile, Eggers had already passed third, and he was soon home to score the winning run.

The University baseball team won the school's first-ever state championship in any sport Monday at Victory Field. The Trailblazers beat Washington Township 4-1 in the Class 1A state title game, scoring three runs in the first inning and getting a dominant performance from pitcher Reese Sharp.

Great offense, 'Sharp' pitching sends 'Blazers to 1A title

By RICHIE HALL

INDIANAPOLIS - So just how ready was University to play in the IHSAA Class 1A baseball state championship game?

Here's the answer: It only took two pitches for the Trailblazers to score their first run.

Any other questions?

University got off to a great start on offense in the first inning, and the dominant performance of pitcher Reese Sharp led the way for the 'Blazers, who beat Washington Township 4-1 Monday at Victory Field for the school's first-ever state championship in any sport.

Even the soggy weather couldn't keep University from cooling down. The start of the game was delayed by 35 minutes, then lightning interrupted play in the second inning for another half-hour. But those proved to be minor delays on the path to a Trailblazers victory.

"Trying to hold them back all week and having two extra days has been a nightmare, because they're so loose anyway," said University coach Chris Estep. "Their little clock's going off and when they're supposed to be focused to play, we still had two more days to go. It's been tough to go, 'Listen, everybody chill out, sleep in! Relax!' It's a great thing."

The Trailblazers came to play right from the beginning. Dawson Estep took the game's first pitch into right field for a base hit, then Reese Sharp smacked the next pitch into center field. It was a triple that just missed the fence, but it was enough to score Estep.

"It definitely felt a lot better to pitch with the lead," said Sharp. "It just felt great to win with this great group of guys."

Ethan Johnson came in to run for Sharp. Alex Washlock got on base with a walk, then Tyler Galyean batted Johnson in with a single, also moving Washlock to third base. Washlock later scored on a throwing error.

"Our offense was really good early," said Chris Estep. "Dawson really helped set the tone, comes out, first pitch, wham, rocket into right and scores from first. The next pitch, Reese hits a triple. It was pretty awesome to go out and post three."

The Senators loaded the bases in the first inning, but did so around two strikeouts from Sharp, who got the third strikeout to end the inning.

The second-inning rain delay stopped play, but not the momentum of Sharp or William Roberts, the Senators' starting pitcher. After rough first innings, both of them settled down. Roberts took care of University three up, three down in the second and third innings, while Sharp allowed a leadoff hit in to start the second, but retired the next seven batters.

University's Nate Shatkowski won the L.V. Phillips Mental Attitude Award for Class 1A baseball. Shatkowski is pictured with his parents Laura and David Shatkowski and received a full scholarship to Indiana University's Kelley School of Business.

The 'Blazers came close to adding runs in the fourth inning, but Washington Township made plays at the plate for the second and third outs. In the bottom of the fourth, the Senators got runners on first and second with one out, but Sharp took care of business with consecutive strikeouts.

Washington Township got its run in the bottom of the fifth. Stephen Hernandez got on base with a one-out double, then after another Sharp strikeout, Matt Rogers doubled him home.

But University answered in the top of the sixth. With one out, Matt Moore got on with a base hit, then moved to second when Kolton Stevens drew a walk. Rogers came out of the game at that point, with Hernandez coming in to relieve him.

Hernandez threw a strikeout for his first at-bat. That brought up Dawson Estep, and he delivered his second hit of the day, which scored Moore.

After that, Sharp finished up the game in style. He struck out the side in the sixth inning, then started the seventh inning by inducing a groundout to shortstop. Two more strikeouts ended the game, with Sharp totaling 118 pitches - he was close to the pitch-count limit of 120, but got the job done.

"I dialed it in that rain delay, it gave me a minute to stay within myself and do what I do best," said Sharp.

"When we told him he had 11 pitches, he goes, 'That's all I'm needing,'" said Chris Estep. "That's a beautiful thing when a kid tells you that, especially of his caliber. Pretty awesome."

Sharp totaled 17 strikeouts in the game, and only allowed four hits.

Meanwhile, University totaled 10 hits in the game. Tyler Galyean went 3-for-4 at the plate, with Estep and Moore both getting two hits.

The Trailblazers were making their second consecutive appearance at state, and also got their second consecutive Mental Attitude Award winner. Nate Shatkowski won the L.V. Phillips Mental Attitude Award, following in the footsteps of Ryan Williams, who won last year.

"It's just a complete honor," said Shatkowski. "It's a testament to my parents, my background, my coaches, my teammates, everybody that's backed me throughout the years. So really, this is for them, and if it weren't for them I wouldn't be in the position that I am."

University finished the season 22-10-1. Next year, the Trailblazers will be in Class 2A, but the goal will remain the same.

"We'll get back to work when we're allowed to and we're going try to get back here next year," said Estep.

"I rounded it just to look where it was at because I was running to third hard, because I don't know why I thought the ball was going to three," said Eggers. "It wasn't. But I just rounded. I saw it go by, and then everything just went silent. I just scored. I turned around, like, did we even win? It was just so, so quiet. I didn't even feel like we won, because I thought it was a delay of game or something, until my whole team just came and tackled me. It was just crazy. I'm happy the way it ended. It couldn't have ended any better."

"Everything happened so fast," said Sassanella. "The kids had a tremendous amount of grit all year long. In our league, we just have to fight. We had some hard-fought wins early, and I said 'Guys, this is going to pay dividends and I'm really proud of you for doing that.' It's fitting that we had rain. It's fitting that it went down to the wire. And we're just blessed, more times than not this year we've come out on the winning side of these tight ball games. I'm incredibly proud of the kids."

Here's one more reason to be proud of the HSE players: During the trophy presentation, they made sure that Ken Seitz was the first one to take hold of the trophy. Seitz has been with Hamilton Southeastern for 44 years - he was the head baseball coach for 25 years, and also served as the athletic director for 25 years. Seitz came out of retirement to be an assistant coach for the Royals in 2010, and it is his jersey that will be on display in Victory Field for the next year.

The Royals also scored one run each in the first and third innings. In the first, Cole DeWael smacked a double on the very first pitch. He moved to third on a passed ball, then got home on a single by DeWolf.

Columbus East scored in the top of the third, but Southeastern responded with a run in the bottom of the inning. Harrison singled on to first, stole second, and was batted in by DeWolf; it was DeWolf's second RBI of the game. The Olympians scored again in the fifth inning, and the game stayed in a 2-2 tie until the Royals' walk-off score.

Southeastern totaled seven hits, with DeWolf going 2-for-3 at the plate.

"It was certainly an awesome experience, different from any other baseball game I've ever played in," said DeWolf.

Schweitzer came in during the fifth inning, relieving Michael Dillon. The starter Dillon pitched well in four innings, with three strikeouts against four hits. Schweitzer finished the game, tossing five strikeouts.

Southeastern finished the season 23-8. The Royals also won their 12th state championship in school history. Add that to the HSE girls basketball team winning state in February, and it's the second time the Royals have won two state titles in the same school year. Southeastern won boys swimming and softball state championships in 2007.

Women's Western Junior...

Bruch, Gilrowski advance to match play round

Two Hamilton County players advanced to the match play round of the Women's Western Junior Championships, which is taking place this week at Woodland Country Club in Carmel.

Jocelyn Bruch, an incoming senior at Westfield, finished tied for fifth in the stroke play round with a two-day score of 145, one-over par. Bruch had two birdies in each of the two rounds, which took place Monday and Tuesday.

"I played pretty solid," said Bruch. "I just tried to play one shot at a time and just play as best as I could. I wasn't really making as many putts as I would've liked, but I just had to grind on because I knew it was pretty close."

Westfield's Gabriella Gilrowski tied for 10th in the stroke play with a two-over 146. Gilrowski made four birdies in her Monday first round, and five more on Tuesday.

"I think I played good," said Gilrowski. "I had a really good start, actually." Gilrowski made four birdies in her first five holes.

"Solid start out of the gate," said Gilrowski. "I had a couple rough holes out there, but didn't let that hold me back. The weather was tough, it was playing really wet." Gilrowski said her goal was to get on to the greens, "make a couple putts and have fun out there, most importantly."

The match play portion begins at 7 a.m. this morning with the Round of 16. Gilrowski will play Alexis McMurray of Oakville, Ontario, with a 7:24 a.m. start, while Bruch plays Caroline Jordaan of Denver with a 7:40 a.m. start. Winners play in the quarter-finals later today.
