Westfield Lions give $3,100 to Cystic Fibrosis Foundation

The REPORTER

The Westfield Lions Club recently presented awards to the sponsors of the Lions Car Show at Westfield Rocks the 4th, along with a check to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, the recipient of this year's proceeds.

The Cystic Fibrosis Foundation of Indianapolis was presented with a record check of $3,100 from the club's proceeds from just the car show. Ashlee Smith accepted the check.

"Thank you so much.

This does so much for us," said Smith. "We are working hard on fighting CF. We hope to announce a big breakthrough soon in the form of a new drug. And this will help."

This year the car show added a race car exhibit feature F4 cars from SCCA Pro Racing, with team owner – and Westfield's own – Jay Howard, an Indy 500 veteran serving as Best in Show judge, and Carmel's Indy 500 Legend Scott

A little laughter, a lot of rain

They say that laughter is good for the soul. If so, then Chuck and I have happy souls. Chuck has quite the wit and I have, well, quite the crazy stories for him to tell.

A few weeks ago Chuck called me after being out town for the day. It had rained cats and dogs and I think even a few mice that day.

Last year I had given Chuck a new rain gauge. It was a very nice one and he enjoyed checking the amount of rain collected in the glass tube.

Before he called me that evening I checked the gauge. I told him that we had received four and a half inches of rain that day.

There was a pause before he said, "Honey, are you sure about that?"

I assured him that was no exaggeration. He knows I sometimes elaborate on and enhance a story.

When he came in the back door, he had a sweet smirky smile on his face.

I asked why he had such a chuckle in his voice as he said "Honey, I'm home." He said, "I checked the rain gauge and we did get four and a half ... centimeters."

What?

Yes, he let me know that the gauge reads both in inches and centimeters. I had read the wrong side. Now why would a rain gauge sold in the United States have centimeters? That just adds up to not making any sense to me.

Math has never been my strength nor has science. English and Home Economics are where I made my best grades.

Chuck has had fun telling the story about our rain gauge.

I guess laughter is not only good for the soul but for a marriage. He can rest assured that there will be more stories to tell. He can count on that.

Fishers Police planning National Night Out, Citizens Academy

By LARRY LANNAN
LarryInFishers.com

The Fishers Police Department has announced two community programs that local residents should note.

The first is the National Night Out, set for 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Aug. 6 at Billerica Park. This is a national event, but put on by local police departments throughout America. It's a chance for the local community to connect with Fishers Police officers.

There will be face painters, balloon artists, caricature artists, hot dogs, chips, cookies, drinks, with special appearances by Chase from Paw Patrol. There will be public safety educational associations there too. Fishers Police Officers will be available for questions and general conversation.

Second, the Police Department is planning another Citizens Academy. This is the 37th year the local department has sponsored this program.

It is scheduled for 13 weeks and offers "police style" training to Fishers citizens. Some of the training will include: Crime Prevention/Neighborhood Watch, Bicycle Patrol, Criminal Law, Police Canine, Traffic Stops, Weapons Familiarization, Criminal Investigations, Evidence Collection and history of the department.

The instructors will be police officers from the Fishers Police Department. Participants in the Citizen's Academy are eligible to complete a ride along with an on-duty Fishers police officer.

The fall 2019 Citizen's Police Academy will be held from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. each Wednesday at the Fishers Police Department, starting Aug. 21. The academy will be open to individuals who reside in Fishers or are employed in the Hamilton Southeastern School District. You must be at least 16 years old to participate in the Citizen's Academy.

It is the stated goal of the police department to build on the relationships officers have established in the community. The Citizen's Academy consists of classroom and hands on training that will allow citizens to interact and become more familiar with the tasks that are assigned to a police officer. The Citizen's Academy will give community members the opportunity to ask questions about law enforcement and other related activities.

Apply online at fishers.in.us/police or apply in person at the Fishers Police Department. Applications will be accepted until Wednesday, Aug. 14. If you have any questions, contact Officer Chris Owens at owensec@fishers.in.us or (317) 595-3300.

PREVAIL
Advocating for Victims of Crime and Abuse
www.prevailinc.com

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault – it wasn't something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Prevail is strictly confidential, and since their core values include integrity and respect, they provide their services at no charge. Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don't often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we're breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County. – Mike Bragg, GM of Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville

To help Hamilton County families affected by domestic violence and sexual abuse, you can donate the following items:

- Art supplies (for children to journal and express their emotions)
- Bottled water (8 oz. bottles, preferably)
- Individually packaged snacks
- Gas cards (many women have no access to funds after fleeing their abuser)

You can drop off items at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, located at 14701 Tom Wood Way. You can also donate directly to Prevail of Central Indiana by visiting Prevailinc.org.

Letter to the Editor

Shaffer ponders another non-run for 'non-mayor'

Dear Editor:

For several weeks friends and neighbors have been after me to run this November in Carmel for another term as non-mayor.

I'm torn.

On the one hand, I've been a non-mayor for as long as I can remember.

On the other hand, politics in Carmel has gotten really ugly lately and someone's liable to discover I got a D in conduct in the seventh grade.

I would welcome any reader suggestions. Please watch your language. Children might read this stuff.

Humbly, I don't know if I can properly handle a $1.4 billion debt or keep track of all the contractors who owe the city favors – and show it.

So, consider the options and please let me know on the Non-Mayor page on Facebook.

The newspaper reported that "as far as is known, it was the first time in the history of jurisprudence that a playhouse has been used as a courtroom and the silent art employed as evidence."

1927 – Over 200,000 Hoosiers cheered Colonel Charles Lindbergh as he rode in a 14-mile parade from Mars Hill Airport to the State Fairgrounds Coliseum. It had been less than three months since "Lucky Lindy" had completed his historic flight over the Atlantic Ocean. He spoke at the Coliseum and later at the Columbia Club. The reporter for The Indianapolis Star said the reception was so great that "previous demonstrations in the city's history faded into obscurity."

1928 – Hollywood producer Frank Melford was in Indianapolis to produce a local "Our Gang" two-reel comedy. Broad Ripple Park was the locale for the silent film which featured local youngsters as "stars" and over 500 more as "extras." The plot involved a pie-eating contest which ended up with more pies being thrown than eaten. The movie premiered a week later at the city's Palace Theater.

1987 – The Pan American Games opened in Indianapolis. Participating were more than 4,300 athletes from 38 different countries. Over 1,000 medals were awarded in 30 sports at 23 venues in and around the city. The major international event was carried out with the help of 37,000 volunteers.

“Do I have to stop for that school bus?”

The REPORTER

In Indiana, late July and early August brings hot weather, the State Fair and also the start of a new school year.

Every school year the Indiana State Police receives numerous complaints about school bus stop arm violations from school corporations around the state. The Indiana Department of Education surveys school corporations annually for stop arm violations on one given day, and reports those numbers to the National Association of State Directors of Pupil Transportation Services (NASDPTS).

There are just over 16,000 school buses on the road in Indiana, and according to the yearly statistics, as the number of school buses on the road has increased, so has the number of school bus stop arm violations.

The Indiana State Police would like to remind motorists of the Indiana law concerning school buses, flashing lights and stop arms. Remember, when approaching a school bus from any direction, which is stopped with its flashing red lights activated and its stop arm extended, MOTORISTS ARE REQUIRED TO STOP, EVEN ON MULTIPLE LANE HIGHWAYS IF THERE IS NO BARRIER OR MEDIAN SEPARATING LANES OF TRAFFIC.

Motorists who are on a highway that is divided by a barrier or unimproved median (i.e. a concrete or cable barrier or a grass median) are required to stop only if they are traveling the same direction as the school bus. If there is no unimproved median or barrier, then all lanes of a highway, in all directions must stop for a school bus stop arm.

When approaching a school bus always be prepared to stop and watch for stopped traffic.

Disregarding a school bus stop arm is a serious moving violation and one that school bus drivers are quick to report. Violation of this law is a Class “A” infraction and is punishable by a maximum fine of up to $10,000.

The Indiana State Police is committed to the safety of children, motorists and highways, and will continue its enforcement and education efforts to ensure that safety. To learn more about national stop arm violation statistics, click here to visit the National Association of State Directors of Pupil Transportation Services website.

How does Social Security fit into your retirement income strategy?

It might not be on your calendar, but Aug. 14 is Social Security Day. Since it was enacted on Aug. 14, 1935, Social Security has provided some financial support for millions of Americans during their retirement years. While Social Security benefits by themselves probably aren't enough to enable you to retire comfortably, they can be a key part of your overall retirement income strategy – if you use them wisely.

To help you make decisions about Social Security, you will need to answer these questions:

When should I start taking my benefits? You can take Social Security once you reach 62, but if you wait until your full retirement age, which will probably be between 66 and 67, you'll get much bigger monthly checks, and if you wait until 70, you'll get the biggest possible payments. Before deciding when to begin receiving your benefits, you'll need to weigh a few factors, including your estimated longevity and your other sources of income.

COREY SYLVESTER

How should I consider potential spousal benefits? If you are married, or if you're divorced but were married for at least 10 years, you could receive up to half of your spouse's full retirement benefit (offset by your own benefit, and reduced if you claim early). If you outlive your spouse, you could claim survivor benefits, which can provide either your own benefits or 100 percent of your deceased spouse's, whichever is larger. Consequently, the higher-earning spouse might want to postpone taking benefits for as long as possible to maximize the survivor benefit.

How much can I earn without reducing my Social Security benefits? If you are younger than your full retirement age and you are receiving Social Security, the Social Security Administration will withhold $1 from your benefits for each $2 you earn over a certain threshold (which, in 2019, is $17,640). For the year you reach your full retirement age, your benefits could be withheld by $1 for every $3 you earn over $46,920. But once you reach your full retirement age, you can earn as much as you want without your benefits being withheld, although your benefits could still be taxed, depending on your income.

How much of my pre-retirement income will Social Security replace? Generally speaking, you should expect Social Security to replace slightly more than a third of your pre-retirement income. However, the higher your income during your working years, the lower the replacement value of Social Security will be.

What other sources of retirement income should I develop? Contribute as much as you can afford to your IRA and your 401(k) or similar employer-sponsored retirement plan. You may want to consult with a financial professional, who can look at your entire retirement income picture and recommend moves to help you achieve the lifestyle you've envisioned for your later years.

Keep in mind that your decisions about Social Security filing strategies should always be based on your specific needs and health considerations. For more information, visit the Social Security Administration website at socialsecurity.gov.

One final word: You may have concerns about the stability of Social Security. While no one can predict the future, many potential solutions exist to put the program on more solid footing. Consequently, try to focus on the actions you can control.

It is general information and not meant to cover all scenarios. Your situation may be different, so be sure to discuss this with the Social Security Administration prior to taking benefits.*

Annabelle L. Ogle

December 22, 1929 – August 1, 2019

Annabelle L. Ogle, 89, Carmel, was born on December 22, 1929 in Indianapolis, the year of the great stock market crash. She died on August 1, 2019 in Carmel.

As a young girl, she helped collect tin during the great war to end all wars (WWII). She was raised by Floyd and Isabel Church, two great teachers, who sought to bridge the racial divide during the '50s. After graduating from Butler with a BA in journalism, she put her great writing skills to work at The Indianapolis Star.

Annabelle then married college sweetheart Ray Ogle, a sailor, who had helped with a great rescue mission for survivors from the USS Indianapolis. She helped Ray get through architecture school by working at General Electric and drafting components for aircraft. She and Ray began to raise a family when our nation sought great opportunities and landed on the moon.

While she lived through many great periods in history, her loved ones will remember her as great! She was a great daughter, great wife, great friend, great mom and a great grandmother. She put family first and her family is forever grateful.

As a friend of Annabelle, please join her five children, 11 grandchildren, and seven great-grandchildren at noon on August 7 at College Park Church, 2606 W. 96th St., to remember her great mark on all of our lives.

Visitation with the family will be held at 11 a.m. until the time of the service. Sympathy remarks can be shared by visiting flannerbuchanan.com.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him. God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth. The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things. Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he. And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her? The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men, Come, see a man, which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ? Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

Director of DNR Fish & Wildlife Mark Reiter retires

The REPORTER

Mark Reiter, director of DNR's Division of Fish & Wildlife, has retired after 39 years of service.

Reiter started as a biologist aide in 1977. He quickly rose through the ranks as a laborer, property manager, staff specialist and eventually wildlife chief. After leaving the division for three years to work for the National Rifle Association, he returned as a wildlife staff specialist and public lands program manager before becoming director of Fish & Wildlife in 2009.

Reiter had several notable achievements during his DNR tenure. While director, Reiter was instrumental in the creation of the Healthy Rivers Initiative, modernizing shooting ranges at Fish & Wildlife Areas, establishing the Gamebird Area Program, and creating the deer bundle license.

In June 2019, Reiter received the Sagamore of the Forest, Fields, and Streams lifetime achievement award from the Midwest Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies (MAFWA). This award is given to directors who have dedicated years of service to the association. Reiter's 10 years of service to MAFWA included serving on the executive and Recruitment, Retention, and Reactivation (R3) committees.

His passion for competitive and recreational shooting, hunting and fishing translated well into his work, having worked closely for years with hunter, angler and shooter recruitment initiatives inside and outside the division. His leadership helped both Indiana and the Midwest region lead in not only R3 initiatives, but also landscape scale conservation, urban conservation, wildlife health and public access.

During retirement, Reiter plans to focus on time with his family and wants to build a house on property he owns in Owen County.

Colts have spirited practice, prepare for Buffalo

By RICHIE HALL

Indianapolis Colts fans who attended Saturday's Training Camp practice at Grand Park – and there were many of them – saw what coach Frank Reich called “a spirited practice.”

The Colts will be busy the next three days as the team prepares for its first pre-season game, which is Thursday at Buffalo. With that game on the horizon, Reich is pleased to see his team in high spirits.

“That’s good,” said Reich. “That’s a sign that we’re ready to play another opponent. A few more days of preparation here before we go to Buffalo.”

It was Armed Forces Day at the practice, and members of the military were on hand, also being honored at the end of Saturday's practice.

The Colts practiced in front of a big crowd that turned into a standing room only crowd: Some of the fans were allowed to stand along the edge of the field to watch practice, getting a chance to see at ground level the players push themselves, and each other.

“The competition is very high from all positions,” said veteran wide receiver T.Y. Hilton. “They’re very high, guys are competing. Offense pushing the defense, defense pushing the offense. Special teams guys are competing. That’s what you need. And this team is special.”

“I do think the pre-season games are the best opportunity for the youngest players to really shine,” said Reich. “But it’s really a good test for every player, right? You’re competing, so you got to show yourself well.”

Talk continued about the health of quarterback Andrew Luck, who has been unable to practice due to a stubborn calf injury. Reich prefers to take things slow with Luck.

“You won’t see him out here this week, but just ramping it up from last week,” said Reich. “It was so productive last week that we feel like we’re on the right track.”

That means Luck will likely be out for the Buffalo pre-season game. Reich also indicated there would be a few players who wouldn’t take to the field.

“It’s not a long list, but it’s a couple guys and we may add one or two to that in the next day or two,” said Reich. “We got to see how these practices go. We do think it’s important for everybody mentally to get ready. And then in the next two days, we see how those go, see what our health is going into that first game in order to get through the whole game. We’re expecting most guys to play.”

The Colts will be practicing at Grand Park from 2 to 4:15 p.m. today for their Fan Appreciation Day. Monday is First Responders Day, with practice taking place from 2 to 3:40 p.m. The Tuesday practice is scheduled for 2 to 4:15 p.m. The Colts will then be off Wednesday as they make the trip to Buffalo, returning to camp on Saturday.

Colts City will be open from 1 to 5 p.m. today, Monday and Tuesday.

After being down 20 points Fever make historic comeback to beat Minnesota

The Indiana Fever made history Saturday night, coming back from way down to beat Minnesota 86-75 at Bankers Life Fieldhouse.

Down 41-21 with 4:55 left in the second quarter, Indiana outscored Minnesota 65-34 the rest of the game. The 20-point comeback win is the largest for a regular season game in franchise history.

Minnesota scored 11 of the game's first 13 points and led 23-19 after the first quarter. All 11 of the Lynx's points came from Sylvia Fowles and Odyssey Sims. After Indiana trimmed Minnesota's lead to 23-21 early in the second quarter, the Lynx scored 18 straight points to build a 41-21 advantage.

The Lynx shot 60 percent (21-of-35) from the field in the first half while holding the Fever to 38.9 percent (14-of-36). Indiana started four reserves to begin the second half and went 20-of-35 (57.1 percent) after halftime. Minnesota was 10-of-28 (35.7 percent) in the final 20 minutes.

Indiana scored seven consecutive points to open the third quarter as part of a 25-5 run. The Fever were up 63-53 after the burst and never trailed again.

"So many positives tonight," said Fever coach Pokey Chatman. "I have to start with that second half unit, the same group that ended the first half [Shenise Johnson, Stephanie Mavunga, Natalie Achonwa, Tiffany Mitchell, Kelsey Mitchell]. They brought the energy and kept the momentum going for us. Fifty-five bench points, that's pretty incredible. When I went into the locker room after the game, I gave the game ball to the kids from Ohio State [Mavunga & Kelsey Mitchell]. Kelsey was solid with the ball in her hands and Steph was so active. She was disruptive, got steals, deflections, blocked shots, rebounds. Some of the best things they did were maintaining our defensive schemes against Sylvia [Fowles] and DRob [Danielle Robinson]."

Indiana forced a season-high 22 turnovers that resulted in 30 points. The Lynx turned the ball over 15 times in the second half.

Indiana got 55 points from its reserves. Kelsey Mitchell (20 points), Shenise Johnson (12 points), Natalie Achonwa (11 points) and Stephanie Mavunga (10 points) all contributed at least 10 points off the bench.

"You know, they're connected when they get their minutes," said Chatman. "They play together in practice. I have to single out Mavunga just because she's the most vocal. She never misses a workout, she stays ready and she's got great energy. She seized the moment and played great when she was matched up against Syl. And I can't say enough about Achonwa. Nat's always just solid. Tonight again, whether she starts or comes off the bench. She's so smart, she's someone you always can count on."

Mitchell led all scorers with 20 points, finishing 7-of-16 from the field and 4-of-10 from beyond the arc.

The Fever have won back-to-back games for the first time since June 1 and June 7. The victory puts the Fever two games back in the win column from a playoff spot. Minnesota and Phoenix both have 10 wins.
