

Hamilton County Council concludes 2020 budget hearings

New hires, employee raises top list of expenditures

The REPORTER

Hamilton County Councilors wrapped up two days of budget hearings at the Judicial Center Wednesday afternoon. They finalized a budget of just under $100 million for the 2020 fiscal year.

“I’d like to commend our council for doing a great job,” Council President Brad Beaver said. “There are seven different viewpoints on this council and a lot of passion in the decision-making process, but overall I’m happy with the outcome. We spend very wisely.”

The proposed budget includes six new full-time positions, one each in the Surveyor’s Office, Parks and Recreation Department, Sheriff’s Department, Office of Emergency Management, and Soil and Water Conservation District. A new full-time and part-time employee have also been budgeted for the Youth Assistance Program as well as a part-time employee for the Purdue Extension Office. The proposed budget includes raises averaging 7 percent for county employees and 3 percent for elected officials. A total of $1.2 million was also budgeted to support 13 Hamilton County not-for-profit agencies, including Janus, Aspire and the Humane Society.

“All in all, budget deliberations went extremely well,” said Council Vice President Rick McKinney. McKinney will become Council President in January. “Hamilton County government is in a solidly strong financial position today, which will continue through the end of 2020.”

A public hearing on the budget is scheduled for 7 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 4 at the council’s next monthly meeting. The council is scheduled to formally adopt the proposed budget at a special meeting at 8:30 a.m. on Monday, Sept. 16 in Conference Room 1A. Once approved, the budget will be sent to the State of Indiana for approval before going into effect Jan. 1, 2020.

Fishers Police Chief Gebhart: Please secure your firearms

By LARRY LANNAN
LarryInFishers.com

When finishing up a podcast recording session with Fishers Police Chief Ed Gebhart on Aug. 7, I asked the Chief if there was anything he wanted to add before wrapping up. He immediately went to gun safety.

Chief Gebhart comes from a family with guns, but says his father taught him strict lessons growing up on the importance of gun safety and security.

“I would just ask my community to please keep their weapons out of their vehicles and lock them up,” Gebhart said. “Let’s keep our community safe.”

A recent Facebook page post by Fishers Police says seven guns have been stolen from vehicles in the city during a one month.

“If you own a gun, please be a responsible gun owner and secure it in your residence in a proper gun safe,” the Facebook posting says. “Your firearm could end up in the hands of criminals, which is extremely dangerous to our city, our children, and our police officers. If you have any information regarding these thefts, please call (317) 595-3300.”

During the podcast, the Chief also talked about how Fishers Police are now working with the Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department in running down guns suspected of being used in criminal activity. Gebhart says both Fishers and Indianapolis have seen success in that program.

Increase in local income tax to finance 911 communications

By FRED SWIFT
ReadTheReporter.com

Hamilton County wage earners will find their local income tax increased by 10 percent next year if a proposed countywide tax for operating the 911 communications system is approved. The new tax requires approval of the Local Income Tax Council made up of the county’s eight municipalities and county government, with representation of each roughly equal to population.

The new tax comes essentially in answer to a long-discussed inequity in financing the vital communications operation where 911 calls are answered and dispatched to appropriate police, fire or EMS units. For years the largest cities along with county government have paid most of the costs. The new tax, which would increase local income tax from the present 1 percent to 1.1 percent, will mean income earners will pay their share. About $15 million annually will be raised by this additional tax.

If a majority of the local tax council’s proportional vote is affirmative, the tax will be effective on Jan. 1. Carmel and Fishers can achieve this majority because together they represent more than half the votes needed.

The proposed ordinance originated as a group effort of local government units, according to County Commissioner Christine Altman. The ordinance does not mandate the tax be revenue neutral. In other words, several million dollars now contributed by the county, Noblesville, Carmel, Westfield and Fishers may be used for any other expenses these units incur.

The municipalities and county government must vote for the ordinance by Oct. 1 in order for it to take effect next year. It is unclear when each of these votes will take place, but they should show up on council agendas prior to consideration.

Fishers-based OfficeWorks to donate funds for teachers’ lounge renovation for IPS School 51

The REPORTER

As Indianapolis Public Schools (IPS) began their school week on Monday, OfficeWorks pledged to overhaul and renovate the teachers’ lounge at James Russell Lowell School 51. Fishers-based OfficeWorks made the announcement at WISH-TV’s WishPATROL event in partnership with Teachers’ Treasures.

The morning was full of surprises. Several companies came together to gift the entire school, from students to teachers, necessities to make the school year a successful one. As Brooke Martin from WISH-TV hosted, more than 12 donations and surprises were revealed.

“Prior to designing the teachers’ lounge, I met with Principal Patrick Lumbley to understand his vision and goals as to what the renovation would do for the teachers,” said OfficeWorks CEO Tom O’Neil. “We know the space will be an energizing environment to foster collaboration and the recharging that needs to take place for teachers to be at their best.”

“Whether we are hosting a back-to-school drive or donating our expertise to a special cause, we know that by making continual impact, we are making a difference in the lives of others,” said O’Neil. “And that’s very important to us.”

Mr. David’s Flooring has donated flooring for the teachers’ lounge renovation as well. The renovations should be complete by the end of the month. Stay tuned for before and after pictures, and a feature on WISH-TV coming later this month.

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault – it wasn't something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Prevail is strictly confidential, and since their core values include integrity and respect, they provide their services at no charge. Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don't often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we're breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County. – Mike Bragg, GM of Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville

Four returners, including state singles champion Thienenman

Carmel boys tennis going for 4-peat this season

By RICHIE HALL

The Carmel High School tennis teams have accomplished many achievements over the decades, such as multiple team, singles and doubles state championships.

But believe it or not, the Greyhounds boys team will be trying to do something this season that it has never done before. Carmel enters the season as the three-time defending team state champion, so it will be going for an unprecedented fourth consecutive state title this year.

Only one school has won state four times in a row: North Central, the Greyhounds' biggest rival. The Panthers have won four consecutive titles on three different occasions, and extended one of those to five consecutive titles, from 1983 to 1987.

Winning state four years running will not be an easy thing to do, but Carmel does have the personnel to give it a run. That includes defending state singles champion, senior Presley Thienenman. The Northwestern University commit finished last year with a 21-1 record, and sailed to the singles championship with a loss of just five games in two matches.

Carmel coach Bryan Hanan said that Thienenman "is not only a great player but an even better person."

"I am looking forward to him stepping it up this year and being more vocal at practice and really take the leadership role and lead this team to success which I know he can do," said Hanan. "It helps when your best player is also your hardest worker."

Another key returning player is sophomore Broc Fletcher, who played No. 2 singles for the 'Hounds as a freshman. Also back are Carmel's No. 2 doubles team, senior Uday Lomada and junior

The Carmel boys tennis team celebrated a third consecutive state championship last year. The Greyhounds will be going for a fourth straight title this year, and return four players from last year's state team.

Jones McNamar. Lomada and McNamar were dominant at their position last year, winning all 18 of their matches without the loss of a set.

"I look for this year to be a challenging year," said Hanan. "We are going for our fourth state team title in a row. We know we are going to get the best from everyone we play so we really have to be ready to get everyone's best every match.

"Our success this year really is going to come from being strong mentally and handling the peaks and valleys along the way. We have the talent to go far in the state tournament and compete for a state title, but it is never an easy road and if we want to accomplish this goal we are going to have to work hard at practice every day and push one another to get better."

The Greyhounds begin their season on Tuesday, Aug. 20 at Hamilton Southeastern, then play their home opener the next day against West Lafayette.
