Did you know Janus is now international?

Submitted

In case you've ever wondered, "Where in the world have Janus products gone?" come take a look at the new maps. It all started with a story ...

At the second annual "For the Love of Janus" Guild's fundraiser at Donatello's in Carmel, Pastor Doug Gast of Bethel Lutheran Church in Noblesville shared some experiences he had on a recent mission trip to Ethiopia.

As he had prepared for his trip, his wife Teri (a Guild member) gave him some Hidden Talents' Nativity figures so that he could give them as gifts. As he presented the gifts to his hosts in Ethiopia, he shared the story of the Janus artists who made the figures. He said the recipients were deeply moved to hear about the Janus artists. The Nativity figures are now proudly displayed in several homes and offices in Ethiopia.

As you know, one story leads to another.

Soft words and sandpaper people COLUMNIST

JANET HART LEONARD

From the Heart

Life is hard. repeat...life is

Each opens up new promises and opportunities.

It also opens up challenges and hurts.

We all have sandpaper people in our life. You know, those that irritate you, get on your first and last nerve and ves. make you feel less than.

Ugh and double ugh. What we do with them depends on the day.

Some days I can shrug off a negative word. Other days, I carry it around like a blanket made with porcupine needles.

I recently had a longtime friend(?) rake me over the coals and back for something I had no control over. I was just the messenger and I was verbally shot. Needless to say I allowed those words to ruin my day. Shame on her. Shame on

I simply listened and said, "I'm sorry you feel that way."

I heard her words over and over that day. Words ly matter. They build up or they break down.

Sadly, words once spoken can never be erased. Even a sincere "I'm sorry" cannot totally mend a relationship.

I try so hard to watch my words. I try to show and speak appreciation to those in my life. I try to compliment strangers when given the opportunity.

A kind, sincere word of appreciation goes a long way. It is a verbal hug.

A compliment is heard over and over, once it is given. Never under estimate the power of a sincere compliment.

The United States Postal Service is making passport application a bit more convenient for you this next weekend.

The Noblesville Post Office, 1900 Pleasant St., is offering extended hours next Saturday for anyone who needs a passport. The Passport Fair will offer customers the option to get a U.S. passport book or passport card from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday, Aug. 17. Walk-ins are welcome.

According to Noblesville Post Office Lead Clerk Mike Cimarossa, "The passport book is the normal passport. It allows you to travel any way you'd like. I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault - it wasn't something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Prevail is strictly confidential, and since their core values include integrity and respect, they provide their services at no charge. Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don't often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we're breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County. - Mike Bragg, GM of Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville

To help Hamilton County families affected by domestic violence and sexual abuse, you can donate the following items:

- Art supplies (for children to journal and express their emotions)
- Bottled water (8 oz. bottles, preferably) • Individually packaged snacks
- Gas cards (many women have no access to funds after fleeing their abuser)

You can drop off items at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, located at 14701 Tom Wood Way. You can also donate directly to Prevail of Central Indiana by visiting Prevailinc.org.

Newly-minted dentist visits Sheridan Rotary

Sheridan Rotary had the pleasure of a special guest recently: Dr. Orey Pence, the grandson of Rotary member Les Pence. Dr. Pence graduated from the IU School of Dentistry just this past May and was invited to speak to the club members about the newest developments in the field of general dentistry. It was an eye-opening talk because most of the members remember the old days when a trip to the dentist was an occasion of great anxiety. Dr. Pence was able to allay some of those fears with an informative talk of a modern dental practice including new procedures, new medications and especially new and improved anesthesia administration. (That's the part we remember the most, right?) If you are looking for a new dentist, give Dr. Orey Pence a call. He is located in Avon, he is accepting new patients and his appointment desk can be reached at (317) 559-4662. Pictured above are Orey and Grandpa Les.

Crime or abuse is not the victim's fault

By JESSICA REYNOLDS Prevail Adult Advocacy Supervisor

Too many times a victim of crime or abuse is blamed for the abuse they have endured. The blame often comes from everywhere – family members, close friends, law enforcement, social media ... the list goes on and on. In cases of domestic violence, victims are often asked, "Why don't you just leave?" or "What did you do to make him/her

Rain Barrels continue to grow in popularity across the country and beautifully painted rain barrels increase their desirability and encourage water conservation by the use of recycled rainwater. Rain barrels sit under gutter down spouts to collect and store rainwater from roofs that would otherwise be lost to runoff and diverted to storm drains, streams and rivers. The collected water can then be used to water plants in the landscape instead of using treated water which saves water and energy.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way. And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth. Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house. This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judaea into Galilee.

Westfield takes 2nd at State Preview

By RICHIE HALL

It's been an eventful week for Jocelyn Bruch, a week that ended on a winning

Bruch played at the USGA Women's Amateur tournament at the start of the week, then returned home to Westfield to join the Shamrocks team in their meets at Crooked Stick Thursday and the State Preview meet at Prairie View on Saturday. Bruch won individual medalist honors at Prairie View and helped Westfield to a runner-up finish in the team stand-

Bruch went three under par for the day, carding a 69. She did so with a remarkable streak towards the end of her round, making four consecutive birdies.

"The beginning was kind of slow," said Bruch. "My putting was a little cold. I was coming up short. But then I birdied 16, 17, 18 and 1, so I had a hot streak there at the end. My last hole was No. 2. I just got in a zone there at the end and I was finally matching the speed of my putter."

Bruch played at the Women's Amateur tournament earlier in the week, at Old Waverly Golf Club in West Point, Miss.

"It was so cool," said Bruch. "The course was amazing. All the volunteers and officials treated us great. It's just a great event overall and it was a lot of fun to be a part of."

As a team, the sixth-ranked Shamrocks finished with a score of 314, behind only top-ranked and defending state champion Evansville North, which totaled 303. Westfield had solid scored all around, with Sophie McGinnis adding a 78 and Natalie Shupe scoring 81.

"We had a lot of kids that worked really hard this summer and it's showing last year, this just gives us a lot of confion our scorecards, the improvement that we made," said Shamrocks coach Trevor Neu. "So it was nice to come out today
