HSE's own Luke Garrett: Rubik's cube whiz

By LARRY LANNAN
LarryInFishers.com

Imagine taking a Rubik's cube and solving it in about 13 seconds. I could never come close to that, but Fall Creek Junior High eighth grade student Luke Garrett does just that, and better. He has been competing in Rubik's cube tournaments since he was 9 years old.

The Hamilton Southeastern School Board honored Luke at the Wednesday night meeting. He demonstrated his technique for quickly solving the Rubik's cube. He has participated in 44 competitions and has earned 73 podiums (1st, 2nd, or 3rd place finish). His personal best was solving the cube in 5.5 seconds, putting Luke 27th in the world and 10th in the United States. When not in Rubik's cube competition, Luke is a member of his school's academic team.

Noblesville Fire Department holds 'wet down ceremony' for new fire engine

The REPORTER

The Noblesville Fire Department (NFD) officially welcomed a new fire engine into the fleet Tuesday afternoon. NFD hosted a "wet down ceremony" before the new engine was marked into service at Station 73.

The history of the ceremony began when pumpers were horse-drawn. When new horses or pumpers were purchased, neighboring firehouses, department chiefs and citizens in the community came out to celbrate the new addition. Local clergy came to bestow blessings upon the horse by throwing holy water onto it to protect it and give it long life, strength, speed and good health. The blessings were believed to ward off evil spirits that could affect the new addition to the firehouse.

"Traditions are very important in the fire service. They are how we pass down the pride and commitment to those who follow us,"

Carmel celebrating week of tribute to nation's roundabouts

The REPORTER

The City of Carmel is gearing up for a week-long national celebration of roundabouts that will include a special event each day of the week, Sept. 16 to 20. Each year, the Federal Highway Administration celebrates National Roundabout Week during the third week in September. Carmel has been a leader in the construction of roundabouts, currently leading the nation with more roundabouts (126 as of today) than any city in America.

"It is important that we take time to celebrate our increasingly safer streets and intersections by paying tribute to roundabouts, which reduce severe crashes by about 80 percent compared to traditional two-way stop-controlled intersections," said Mayor Jim Brainard. "We also hope to use this week to educate our residents and visitors on how to navigate roundabouts and stay safe while driving."

According to the federal government, there are more than 4,000 roundabouts in the U.S. today.

Federal Highway Administration encourages transportation agencies to consider roundabouts during new construction and reconstruction projects, as well as for existing intersections that have been identified as needing safety or operational improvements. Roundabouts are an effective safety countermeasure. Click here to learn more.

Janus continues to prove its commitment to all its clients to have some association with Janus has been a blessing to me in so many ways. Listening to the stories they share about their clients at the many events held throughout the year brings their purpose closer to our hearts. Their openness has touched many lives over the years and they continue to inspire everyone over and over again.

Being able and to have the physical ability to train, compete and run a marathon at the age of 50 is a blessing, but it takes resources. Time, money, doctors, trainers, food and shoes, lots of shoes! Without these resources I would not be able to attempt something like running 26.2 miles.

Janus clients also have amazing abilities and amazing work ethics. For the ones who work in the community, I can honestly say they have some of the most tireless drive and passion for the work they do. The standard they set raises the bar and becomes a role model for all the workers in the community.

GUEST COLUMNIST

Janus Developmental Services provides clients with job coaching when they go out into the work force. A coach that will be by their side day in and day out making sure the proper training and resources are available to help them apply this drive and talent towards success. Sometimes a week or two of coaching is all that is required. Often time it takes more time, possibly six months to a year to get everything ironed out to make a successful transition to working and competing for jobs in our community.

As an employer hiring a client of Janus for an open position, there are certain things you can count on. You can count on Janus being behind the prospective employee 110 percent. If the job training and coaching takes 30 hours a week for six months, Janus's staff will be there for that support. The employer doesn't pay a dime for that additional coaching and support. It's provided at no cost by Janus and ensures that any and all barriers to success are given full attention. This cost to Janus is substantial and it is a variable burden that cannot just be budgeted for and funds raised to support the effort.

Like running a marathon at 50, job coaching for Janus's clients takes resources. I will be healthier for running 26.2 miles and it's my hope that Janus can be healthier too. They urgently need resources to help continue the tireless work of providing opportunities and support for their clients.

I urge you to help Janus's efforts directly by donating to this run and putting an extra hand behind them to help push them along a race that is far bigger and harder than any challenge that will ever be set before me.

AG Curtis Hill: U.S. Supreme Court is right to allow enforcement of Trump administration's asylum rule

The REPORTER

Indiana Attorney General Curtis Hill expressed support Friday for a U.S. Supreme Court decision allowing enforcement of a Trump administration rule designed to more effectively process migrants seeking asylum in the United States.

The rule stipulates that an asylum seeker who has traveled through another nation after leaving their country of origin must, before gaining entry into the United States, show they first have sought protection in that third nation and been denied.

The rule's stated aim is to identify migrants "who are misusing the asylum system to enter and remain in the United States rather than legitimately seeking protection from persecution or torture." The rule includes certain safeguards and exceptions to protect the most vulnerable asylum seekers.

This week, the Supreme Court held that the rule may be enforced while a legal challenge against it is pending. Earlier this month, Indiana signed onto an amicus brief supporting the Trump administration's rule.

"Indiana has a compelling interest in protecting our state from those who would abuse the asylum process and overrun the system," Hill said. "The Trump administration's rule makes logical sense in that its aim is to create a safer process for the asylum seekers and U.S. citizens alike."

Governor Eric Holcomb proclaims Sept. 15-21 “Forensic Science Week”

The REPORTER

National Forensic Science Week brings recognition to the role that proper forensic science plays in the investigation of crimes throughout the nation, from exonerating the innocent to identifying the guilty.

For more information about National Forensic Science Week, visit forensic-scienceweek.org. For information about the Indiana State Police Laboratory Division and the services they provide, visit in.gov/isp/labs.

Below are some interesting stats from 2018:

- There were 23,876 new cases submitted for analysis at the four Indiana State Police laboratories.
- Crime Scene Investigators responded to 1,366 different crime scenes throughout the state.
- Polygraph Examiners conducted 712 polygraph tests.
- The number of Indiana offender samples being searched in the Combined DNA Index System (CO-DIS) was more than 318,000 of which 5,822 cases in Indiana were linked to a potential suspect (offender) by a CODIS DNA match.

• A notable case aided by DNA analysis was that of an eight-year-old girl who was abducted, sexually assaulted, and murdered in 1988. Since that time, numerous agencies contributed to the investigation, and the Indiana State Police Laboratory's Biology Section had completed more than 100 examination requests, that included the testing of crime scene evidence and several hundred DNA standards from persons of interest. In July 2018, all this eventually led to the identification, arrest, and prosecution of the person responsible for this horrific crime. The perpetrator pled guilty and received an 80-year prison sentence. While this case was aided by forensic genealogy from a private laboratory, the DNA matches were made by the ISP laboratory.

There are four Indiana State Police laboratory facilities statewide and for additional information; please contact the Public Information Officer (PIO) listed adjacent to the named laboratory location:

- Indianapolis Laboratory PIO email contact is Sgt. John Perrine at jperrine@isp.in.gov or F/Sgt. Ron Galaviz at rgalaviz@isp.in.gov
- Lowell Laboratory PIO email contact is Sgt. Ann Wojas at awojas@isp.in.gov

Below is the text of Governor Holcomb's Proclamation:

Whereas, forensic science is a vital public service; and

Holcomb

Whereas, access to quality forensic analysis dramatically improves the investigation of criminal activity, leading to the exoneration of the innocent and the prosecution of the guilty; and

Whereas, forensic science plays a critical role in public outreach and crime prevention, and is evolving in its role as an important member of the criminal justice community; and

Whereas, crime scene investigators, forensic examiners, and forensic scientists provide unbiased, accurate, and reliable analyses of evidence recovered from across the nation; and

Whereas, numerous professional organizations have recognized September 15-21, 2019, as National Forensic Science Week; and individuals across the country will be celebrating; and

Whereas, individuals all across the country will be celebrating this event; and

Whereas, the hard-working people that comprise our forensic science organizations deserve universal regard and appreciation for their commitment to proper scientific investigations for the cause of justice;

Now, therefore, I, Eric J. Holcomb, Governor of the State of Indiana, do hereby proclaim September 15-21, 2019 as Forensic Science Week in the State of Indiana, and invite all citizens to duly note this occasion.

In Testimony Whereof, I hereto set my hand and cause to be affixed the Great Seal of State. Done at the City of Indianapolis, this 1st day of August in the year of our Lord 2019 and of the Independence of the United States 244.

County bonus antlerless quotas lowered due to EHD

The REPORTER

Indiana DNR has reduced the County Bonus Antlerless Quotas (CBAQ) for deer hunting in the affected areas in southern Indiana to a maximum of two because of the effect of epizootic hemorrhagic disease (EHD) on the deer herd this year.

The CBAQ of counties that already have quotas of two or fewer will remain the same. The Special Antlerless Firearms Season is only allowed in counties marked in green on the CBAQ map. These counties previously had a county bonus antlerless quota of four, but were reduced to a maximum of two.

Humans are not at risk for contracting EHD.

EHD is a viral disease that may affect white-tailed deer to some degree every year. It typically occurs during late summer and early fall, and there is evidence that outbreaks can be more severe in years in which there is a wet spring followed by a hot, dry fall. EHD is transmitted by flies commonly known as biting midges, sand gnats, and "no-see-ums."

EHD is often fatal to deer but some survive it. Not every deer in an affected area contracts EHD. One sign that a deer has contracted and survived EHD is that its hooves will show evidence of sloughing or breaking. As a result, the DNR asks that successful hunters use the After Hunt Survey to report the condition of their harvested deer's hooves, including both normal hooves and hooves that show evidence of sloughing or breaking.

The DNR monitors for EHD annually. The most recent significant EHD outbreaks were in 2007 and 2012. Severe outbreaks rarely occur in consecutive years due to immunity from previous infections. EHD is not believed to have long-term impacts on the deer population.

The effects of the harvest and EHD will be evaluated after the hunting season. If necessary, additional changes will be made next year.

Anyone who finds a deer they suspect died of EHD is asked to file a report using the "Report a Dead or Sick Deer" form at deer.dnr.IN.gov.

Friday night football - Week 4

No. 8 'Rocks take control early, defeat Millers to stay unbeaten

By CRAIG ADKINS
WESTFIELD – The eighth-ranked Westfield Shamrocks proved their ranking and made it known right away that they were undefeated for a reason. They put together a steady ground game and consistent air attack that made it tough for Noblesville to make a comeback, taking down the Millers on Friday, 34-14.

The Shamrock defense forced a punt from the Millers right away and had the itch on offense to make something happen quick.

Facing pressure up the middle, Camden Simons was able to find junior wide-out Mason Piening for a 41-yard touchdown strike. The two-point conversion run failed for an early 6-0 Westfield lead.

Another three and out for the Millers gave the ball back to Westfield once again.

The 'Rocks had a third down and five at the Noblesville 28. Simons hooked up with speedy sophomore Micah Hauser on a screen pass and he raced 28-yards untouched into the end zone for Simons' second TD of the night that made it 13-0.

"We obviously like to run it, but that's not because our quarterback can't pass. We have plenty of weapons on the perimeter. We are just a little more of a run first team. But man, what can you say about Jayden Barrett?" said Westfield head coach Jake Gilbert on his senior signal caller's great night at QB.

"If he's not one of the best quarterbacks in the state, he completes an extremely high amount of passes. I think that was his first interception of the season, so one pick in four games and it was off of a tipped pass, several touchdowns. You know, he's just terrific," Gilbert continued on his standout quarterback.

Westfield was able to again drive on the Millers. This time, they got into field goal range for junior placekicker Sean Sullivan. The attempt was botched as holder was unable to get the snap down and was tackled.

Two plays later, Hauser intercepted Jayden Barrett's pass at the Noblesville 28, getting the Shamrocks in prime position for a short series.

With the ball at the one, Simons converted connected on his third passing touchdown of the first half. Levi Kaster snagged the one-yard score that extended the lead to 20-0.

The Millers had a prime chance to get on the scoreboard late in the second quarter. Barrett sailed a pass over the middle and into the hands of senior receiver Carson Sanders for a 32-yard gain down to the two.

On second and goal at the two, Barrett dropped back to pass and tossed a pick, right into the hands of Micah Hauser for his second takeaway of the first half, returning the ball all the way up to the 47. Westfield took a knee to go to halftime up 20-0.

"We knew when we were going to play Jayden at quarterback that we would have some mistakes," said Noblesville head coach Justin Roden on senior quarterback Jayden Barrett's first start under center.

"Jayden has been a wingback and a slot receiver for three years and he asked to play quarterback and so, the reps we do in the summer and the 7-on-7's and all the things you teach your quarterback, he's had to learn those in a few days. Some of the bad decisions are just kind of a result of inexperience," Roden continued on Barrett's on-the-fly learning experience at quarterback.

Westfield would make quick work to start the third quarter, marching 80 yards in just eight plays, capping the drive off with a two-yard touchdown run from senior tailback Eli Patchett to make the score 27-0.

The Millers were back to punting again, despite a much better offensive output this week.

Another good Shamrock drive down to the Miller 14 lined them up for another Sullivan field goal attempt from 31-yards away.

Senior Kody Leach came unimpeded through the line and blocked Sullivan's kick, send the ball 20 yards down field, where the ball was recovered by Carson Sanders and ran back 60 yards for a touchdown. This cut the score to 27-7.

Westfield's next drive ended fast and nothing how they intended. On their own six, Simons threw a pass that was tipped and intercepted by Noblesville's Lucas Williams at the Shamrock seven.

On second and goal at the five, Barrett fooled Westfield's defense, faking the handoff to Drew Knieper and throwing a quick screen to junior Zach Blevins for a five-yard touchdown pass. This gave hope for the Millers, trimming the deficit to 27-14.

Time was getting away from Noblesville's defense as Westfield drove down the field on the ensuing drive, milking as much clock as they could.

The 'Rocks had a third and goal at the 10 and that's what Simons put the cherry on top of this conference win with a 10-yard touchdown toss to senior receiver Dane Wheeler that would make for the final score of 34-14.

Wheeler helped put the final nail in the coffin, intercepting Barrett, allowing Westfield's offense to run the rest of the 1:53 left off the clock to retain the Midland Rail Trophy.

"This is the second week in a row in the second half we outplay people and we just caught ourselves with too many mistakes in the first half," stated Roden on the Millers' great second half that kept them in the ball game.

Overall, Westfield had a great night on both sides of the ball. Its defense was able to hold Noblesville's offense to just one score and that occurred late in the fourth quarter.

"Defensively, we didn't give up any points, except for the seven off of the turnover where they started at the seven-yard line," stated Gilbert on his Shamrock's defense playing a solid game.

"It was a pretty complete win, to be honest with you, against a good opponent in our conference, a well-coached team," Gilbert continued on how big of a win this was over rival Noblesville.

Noblesville dropped to 0-4 overall and 0-2 in HCC play. The Millers return home next Friday to host Zionsville for Homecoming. The Eagles (2-2) lost at HCC foe Franklin Central on Friday, 17-14.

The Millers were led by quarterback Jayden Barrett with 102 yards on 18 carries. He did have a rough night passing the ball, going 6-of-18 for 58 yards and three interceptions.

Westfield continued to stay undefeated at 4-0, 2-0 in HCC action. The Shamrocks hit the road in conference play to face Hamilton Southeastern (1-3, 0-2). The Royals fell at Fishers in the Mudsock game, 27-6.

The Shamrocks were led on the ground by Eli Patchett's 23 rushes for 105 yards and a TD. Camden Simons threw 21-for-26, amassing 274 yards for four touchdowns and his first pick of the season, putting his total at 10 TD passes and one interception.

The Fishers football team won the Mudsock trophy Friday night, beating Hamilton Southeastern 27-6 at Reynolds Tigers Stadium.

Confident Tigers win Mudsock trophy

By RICHIE HALL
FISHERS - A football team needs several different personality traits to play in and win a Mudsock game.

Fishers coach Rick Wimmer mentioned a trait that is probably not immediately thought of, but obvious in retrospect: Confidence. As his team celebrated winning the Mudsock trophy over Hamilton Southeastern 27-6 Friday night at Reynolds Tiger Stadium, Wimmer kept using the word ‘confidence.’

“Football’s hard work and you’ve always got to push them in practice hard,” said Wimmer. “Just because it’s HSE Week didn’t make things easier. Now come game time, everybody’s ready to play. If you put the preparation in and your guys know what they’re doing, they’re going to play with confidence, and I think that’s what happened tonight.”

The game was tight through the first quarter before Fishers was able to get the first score of the game. The Tigers began their drive with good field position at the Royals 26, and used short runs to get themselves to first-and-goal at the 10.

Fishers eventually got to the 1-yard line on fourth down with just a few seconds left in the first quarter. The Tigers then showed their confidence by going for it, and they succeeded, with quarterback Marcus Roux punching the ball in from the 1 with 1.8 seconds left in the quarter.

Jack Phillips made the extra point kick, and Fishers led 7-0. That would be the score at halftime, as neither team scored in the second quarter. The Royals came close to getting in the end zone in the final seconds of the period, but the Tigers didn’t allow them in, then blocked a field goal.

“That was huge,” said Wimmer. “Absolutely huge. They’re a dangerous offense. We pinned them down there, they didn’t have much time.”

“I felt like we moved the ball really well in the first half, we just couldn’t finish drives,” said Royals coach Adam Morris. “We missed a field goal, go for it on fourth and don’t get it. I thought we moved the ball in the first half, we just couldn’t finish drives.”

Fishers took control in the third quarter with two touchdowns. Jeffrey Simmons caught a 26-yard TD pass from Roux with 7:29 left in the period. On their next possession, the Tigers got to the HSE 44, then Shaun Kim made a 29-yard run to get Fishers in the red zone. Two plays later, Dylan Scally got the ball into the end zone on a 7-yard run. Phillips made both extra-point kicks.

“Our offensive line gained confidence and our running backs gained confidence as the night went on,” said Wimmer. “We came in at halftime and felt like we were getting good pushes. We had too many penalties. There’s a negative offensively tonight, we put ourselves in bad situations, took away a lot of first downs because of penalties, mostly holds. So we got to clean that up.

“When we didn’t do that, they didn’t really stop us. We just stopped ourselves with some penalties. I think we gained confidence as the game went on and that showed in the way our offensive line played and our running backs.”

Roux scored his second rushing touchdown of the game in the fourth quarter on a six-yard run. Southeastern got on the board on the next series, with DeAndre Rhodes catching a 16-yard touchdown pass from Andrew Hobson.

“I think they just played tougher than we did,” said Morris. “They came out, played better in the second half.”

Scally led the Fishers rushing with 76 yards, while Roux gained 63 yards. Roux was 8-of-19 passing the ball, with Nick Leath making four receptions.

Hobson had a huge night passing for Southeastern, completing 20 of 38 passes for 271 yards. Ben Boysen made seven of those catches, with Rhodes getting five receptions. Nija Wilson led the Royals’ rushing with 28 yards.

The Tigers remain undefeated with the win at 4-0, while the Royals drop to 1-3.

Hamilton Southeastern's DeAndre Rhodes scored a touchdown for the Royals in the fourth quarter.

Sheridan may have a young team this year, but the Blackhawks are starting to grow up.

Friday night at Bud Wright Stadium, Sheridan was in a tough battle with Delphi. The Oracles, a newcomer to the Hoosier Heartland Conference, had just scored with 2:47 left in the fourth quarter and were leading 35-28.

It was up to the Blackhawks to respond, and they did just that, scoring a touchdown and making a two-point conversion to edge out Delphi 36-35. The win keeps Sheridan unbeaten in HHC play at 3-0.

Sophomore Christian Clausen caught a 47-yard reception to get Sheridan into favorable position, then junior Cameron Hovey scored a touchdown on a three-yard run with 26 seconds to go. Now the 'Hawks had a decision to make: Kick the extra point or go for a two-point conversion.

Wright called a timeout and asked the players what they wanted to do. They all voted to go for two.

"It was their decision," said Wright. "It was their ball game."

It was the right call, as Silas DeVaney made the two-point conversion run to push Sheridan ahead. The 'Hawks then held off one last furious charge by the Oracles to clinch the victory.

"After we got started, we played pretty good," said Wright. "We're slow starting for some reason. They come back and won it, so that's what matters right now."

All five of the Blackhawks' touchdowns were scored on short runs. DeVaney made a two-yard scoring run in the first quarter, and got the ball into the end zone from the same distance in the fourth period. In addition to his fourth-quarter score, Hovey ran the ball in from the 6 in the second quarter. Noah Ehrie also scored in the second period, on a two-yard run. Hovey kicked all four extra-point attempts.

Sheridan had awesome offensive numbers, making 31 first downs and totaling 535 yards of offense. The 'Hawks rushed 73 times for 407 yards, with Hovey gaining 318 yards in 48 runs.

Huskies pick up first win, are 1-0 in conference

Hamilton Heights got its first win of the season on Friday, and it was a perfect way to start conference play.

The Huskies played a strong first half, and that carried them to a 36-0 win over Northwestern at the Heights stadium. It was the Huskies' first Hoosier Conference East Division game of the season.

Heights scored two touchdowns in the first quarter, with Camron Knott taking an eight-yard pass from Isaac Wilson into the end zone, then Colin Denham ran the ball in from five yards.

The Huskies added three more scores in the second quarter, all in different ways. Blake Webel ran the ball in from three yards out, Brent Pennington caught a nine-yard TD pass from Wilson, and Isaac Tuma grabbed an interception and took it 48 yards to the end zone.

Michael Lecher finished the scoring in the third quarter with a 35-yard field goal. He also kicked three extra points.

Wilson had a nice night passing, completing 11 of 22 throws for 208 yards. Tuma had the most receptions with five, for 98 yards. Deshawn King led the rushing with 29 yards.

Heights is 1-3 overall and continues conference play next week at Western.

'Hounds stay perfect in MIC

Carmel improved to 2-0 in Metropolitan Conference play with a 24-7 victory at Pike on Friday.

The first quarter was tight, as it ended in a 7-7 tie. Dylan Downing got the Greyhounds on the board first, punching the ball in from the one-yard line. The Red Devils followed that up with a 22-yard run to score.

But Carmel took control after that, not allowing Pike anymore points. Zach Osborne put the 'Hounds up for good with a one-yard TD run in the second quarter. Carmel added 10 more points in the fourth quarter, with Spencer Hanna kicking a 26-yard field goal, then Zach White scored on a six-yard un midway through the period.

Downing had another solid running game, gaining 140 yards on 18 carries. Osborne was efficient in passing, with 178 yards at a 12-of-23 clip. Zach Gish and Aidan Ellison both made three catches. Hanna was perfect by making all three extra point kicks in addition to his field goal.

The Greyhounds are 3-1 and return to Carmel Stadium next Friday to host Lawrence North.
