Noblesville Common Council approves Local Income Tax resolution . . .

Done deal, LIT rate will increase 10%

The REPORTER

The Noblesville Common Council unanimously approved a resolution last Tuesday to adopt a local income tax increase of 0.1 percent, raising the 1 percent existing rate to 1.1 percent, a 10 percent increase. The new money will be used to fund 911 emergency services in Hamilton County.

Noblesville represents 17.4 percent of the 50 percent necessary to approve the county increase. The cities of Fishers, Westfield and the town of Arcadia have previously approved their resolutions for a total of 41.85 percent of the necessary vote. Noblesville's vote tipped the scale to 59.25 percent, causing the new LIT to take effect Jan. 1, 2020.

"I applaud the members of our Common Council for approving this resolution. The advantage of this proposal is it distributes the funding of 911 emergency services across the county so Noblesville is no longer paying its cost at a disproportionate rate to the services we receive," said Noblesville Mayor John Ditslear. "The proposed solution is the most equitable manner to fund 911 emergency dispatches and eliminates the cumbersome cost allocation system we use today."

The major change proposed in the agreement is to raise the local income tax 0.1 percent. Instead of municipalities paying their portion, Hamilton County will collect and distribute the funding. There is no new revenue for Noblesville or any city voting on the agreement.

"The new formula spreads the cost among the entire county and not just certain communities. The money saved from the proposal approved today will allow us to fund other public safety needs so we may continue providing the level of service that our community deserves and expects from our police and fire professionals," said Common Council Member Roy Johnson, head of the public safety committee. "Being at the forefront of technology is going to save lives."

HSE teachers to get pay increases

By LARRY LANNAN
LarryInFishers.com

Members of the Hamilton Southeastern Education Association (HSEA) have ratified a new two-year contract with the HSE School Corporation. The new pact calls for a 2 percent salary increase for local educators in calendar year 2020, and just over 1.27 percent in 2021.

The new contract moves toward equalizing the incremental steps teachers earn based on the number of years teaching, per guidance from the state.

For example, the beginning HSE Schools teacher salary for 2019 was $40,158. For 2020, it will be $40,961, and in 2021 the beginning salary is set to be $41,484.

The contract also has new provisions in areas such as teacher pay on e-learning days and extra-curricular pay.

The new contract will be the subject of a school board public hearing Oct. 9, with a board vote to ratify the agreement set for Oct. 23.

Clay Twp. fieldhouse planning in the works

The REPORTER

Clay Township is proceeding with design and construction of a new multi-use indoor fieldhouse at Mark Badger Memorial Park after the Carmel City Board of Zoning Appeals voted unanimously last Monday to approve several variances associated with the project.

Several people from the surrounding area, including church and school leaders, spoke in favor of the fieldhouse, which is expected to exceed 120,000 square feet. While cost estimates associated with the project are still being finalized, officials expect construction to begin by January 2020.

The fieldhouse is one of 19 projects of the Clay Township Impact Program. All projects are being funded by bonds and will be completed over the next three years.

Noblesville pays tribute to Ditslear

The REPORTER

Last Wednesday, members of the community recognized Noblesville's longest serving mayor, John Ditslear.

The tribute honoring Ditslear, and his 16 years serving as Noblesville's mayor, was held at the Embassy Suites Conference Center and was sponsored by the Noblesville Chamber of Commerce.

During the event, Noblesville City Court Judge Matt Cook described Ditslear as a good role model and someone who cares about his community. "There is one word when I think of John, and that is loyal."

Cook also commended Ditslear on his ability to lead Noblesville through a time of unprecedented growth and prosperity.

Former Indiana State Representative, now Hamilton County Clerk, Kathy Williams recanted how Ditslear stepped into the role of mayor as a businessman during a time when Noblesville needed that.

"Noblesville and Hamilton County are better places because of John Ditslear," said Hamilton County Commissioner Mark Heirbrandt.

Mayor Ditslear closed the event by saying, "It has been a great run and we are going to keep on running till Dec. 31."

When describing what the future may hold, Ditslear said, "I'm looking forward to serving someone, somewhere in Noblesville, certainly in the county."

Report finds no violations of law by Fishers City Clerk Jennifer Kehl, but cites "management issues"

By LARRY LANNAN
LarryInFishers.com

Fishers City Council President Rich Block issued a statement Friday afternoon, saying an investigation of City Clerk Jennifer Kehl "concluded that no violations of law occurred." However, Block says the report did contain "management issues" brought to the attention of council members.

"... changes have been implemented which have transferred duties previously assumed by the Clerk (but not legally required to be performed by the Clerk) to current City staff which will streamline the administration of government and maximize efficiencies," according to Block's statement.

On May 23, the Fishers City Council issued a statement saying Ms. Kehl was being investigated for possible violations of Title VII, part of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, which prohibits employers from discriminating against employees on the basis of sex, race, color, national origin and religion. The council news release from May 23 did not specify which part of Title VII was involved in this case.

The council utilized the law firm of Barnes & Thornburg to conduct the investigation into the allegations lodged against city clerk, which found no law violations.

Jennifer Kehl was contacted by LarryInFishers.com for her reaction, and she said that she still does not know the specific allegations against her. The report has not been shared or explained to her, she said.

"I have completed tasks assigned to the best of my ability," Kehl told LarryInFishers.

She has asked for information on the report, but has been told it is confidential and cannot be shared with her.

"I have done the job I was elected to do, which the city chose to distribute to others," said Kehl.

Here is the full text of the statement issued Friday afternoon by Council President Rich Block:

The Common Council for the City of Fishers engaged Barnes & Thornburg, LLP to investigate allegations made against the separately elected City Clerk. The investigators concluded that no violations of law occurred; however, several management issues related to the Clerk's office were brought to the Council's attention. Accordingly, changes have been implemented which have transferred duties previously assumed by the Clerk (but not legally required to be performed by the Clerk) to current City staff which will streamline the administration of government and maximize efficiencies.

We believe that they will greatly benefit our community by improving our parks and our public safety initiatives across the entire township.”

Through an agreement between Carmel Dads’ Club, Carmel Clay Parks Department, and the Township, the fieldhouse will give the parks access to the space without the costs associated with constructing its own fieldhouse. Likewise, the fieldhouse will provide the Carmel Dads’ Club to reach 12,000 kids in 12 sports on a year-round basis.

“We are grateful for the support of our community partners with this effort,” said Jack Beery, president of the Carmel Dads’ Club. “We believe the new fieldhouse will help us continue to foster the development of thousands of township youth in this community. Carmel Clay Parks & Rec. awarded reaccreditation for quality, management and service to community

Carmel Clay Parks & Recreation (CCPR) was awarded reaccreditation from the Commission for the Accreditation of Park and Recreation Agencies (CAPRA) at this year’s National Recreation and Park Association Annual Conference in Baltimore, Md.

CAPRA requires reaccreditation every five years, CCPR was first awarded CAPRA accreditation in 2014. Reaccreditation demonstrates CCPR’s dedication to providing the community the highest level of service.

“As a department, we have worked diligently over the last five years to strengthen our processes and have utilized accreditation to make our department stronger and a national leader for the parks and recreation industry,” said Kurtis Baumgartner, Assistant Director for CCPR. “The accreditation process also served as an effective team-building exercise, providing staff the opportunity to both realize how much we have accomplished and discover opportunities for improvement to better serve our community.”

“Reaccreditation is a reflection of our staff and the hard work they continue to do every day to make a positive impact in our community,” said Michael Klitzing, Director for CCPR. “Receiving CAPRA Reaccreditation is the culmination of years of dedication by our staff to document our policies and procedures and updates required to meet the stringent standards. Only four parks in Indiana hold this accreditation, and only 169 total across the United States.”

CCPR staff will celebrate this accomplishment with a banner presentation on Oct. 22 in the Monon Community Center gymnasium.

The constant pressure to write

Editor’s Note: The Sheridan Student Column is brought to readers by Sheridan High School’s 10th grade English class, taught by Abby Williams.

“You will have 40 minutes to write an essay relating to the prompt given. Blah blah blah. Start.” In every classroom around America, kids are forced to write essays, book reports and articles, and I’ll be honest, I don’t enjoy writing. I’m not horrible at it though, but I’m not great; I just need lots of time to think.

I’m someone who can read like no other, but if told to write an essay in a class period, I will struggle. I have sat in an English class and stared at a blank screen the whole class trying to find the words to start.

JOELLA COX
Sheridan High School Student

When I was told to write this article, I freaked out. Where do I start? What should I write about? This whole thing brought too much stress. Then it hit me: The pressure to write in school is overwhelming and should be taken less seriously.

Now here’s the thing: I’m an artist, not a writer. I spend most of my time with a brush in my hand and paint all over my arms. That’s what I love. Writing and painting don’t go together. Artists don’t spend their time writing a 5,000-word essay. They spend their time painting, sketching, sculpting, or creating. No one expects them to write a five-page essay over their piece. Writing in that sense is not applicable to their situations.

In adult life, most workplaces won’t need you to write up an entire essay in one sitting. Now don’t get me wrong here, offices, English jobs, and some businesses might expect that of you. In that circumstance, I agree that you should know how to write, that you’ll need to know how to properly write a sentence, paragraph, how to spell, proper grammar and most importantly, how to properly formulate an email or text. My point is that the adults in my life have never been told to write an essay for work. They write reports, but never an essay. It’s just not an applicable skill to take with you.

People will tell you it’s necessary for college. College courses will expect you to write an essay for the class; it’s a requirement. After college though, what do you do with all those writing skills you acquired? Nothing. You let them sit and rot. I asked my parents the other day how to cite a source in an essay and they told me they genuinely had forgotten. Neither of them has had to use those skills in a long while, proving that it’s not useful after you finish schooling.

This is why writing isn’t something that should be so heavily pushed. For some professions, it’s just not a needed skill. Though it is a skill that in small portions is good, such as writing an email to an employer, it’s just not practical to force students to sit and write an essay in one class period. Essays are pointless. Instead, I believe we should teach how to communicate in ways that would be practical and useful for students after school and in the future, such as grammar and proper formatting; instead of harsh timed essays, we should be prepared, practically, for the real world.

A hard chapter

Life is hard. This week was especially hard.

3:15 in the afternoon on Wednesday I checked in with my mom. She was fine.

4:30 the director of nursing at mom’s assisted living called to tell me that Mom had been unable to communicate as she sat with her friends at dinner. All she could say was, “Call Janet.”

911 was called and then me.

As I drove up Allisonville Road to 146th Street to River Road I found every red light, a line of rush hour traffic going nowhere and a fleet of gravel trucks moving at a snail’s pace.

Yes, I’m exaggerating, but I needed to get to my mother.

When I arrived at the hospital she was just getting back to her room in the ER after having a CT scan. A stroke was what they were looking for as her speech was garbled.

Looking into her eyes I saw her fear. I tried to hide mine.

She struggled to answer the doctor’s commands. He asked her, “What is your daughter’s name?” Silence. You could see her trying to answer as she looked at me. She just shook her head.

I kept reassuring her that she would be okay. I tried to reassure myself.

The hand that has always held so tightly to mine had grown weak, very weak.

I spent the night tucked into a hospital recliner. I said spent the night, not “slept” the night.

The IV alarm went off every time Mom moved her arm. As she would try to get out of the bed the alarm on the bed would go off. Respiratory therapy checked on her as she needed oxygen. About 3:00 a.m. a baby was born ... Brahm’s lullaby announced it. Blood tests were needed at 5:00 a.m.

I will tell you that she got the absolute BEST of care. Knowing how much she was checked on meant so much to this trying to hold it together daughter. They even checked on me and got me blankets and pillows. I cannot begin to thank everyone who was part of her care. The staff at Riverview Hospital are such caring people.

I cannot express how much my heart smiled when Thursday afternoon I heard her say, “Janet, I’m hungry.” It was as if someone flipped a switch and everything was clicking and working.

The tests have not all come back and I have not spoken to the neurologist but it appears to be a TIA small stroke.

Friday evening she was moved to rehab. It’s a wait and see. It’s hoping and praying.

Life is hard. It will continue to get harder. I know that. My heart knows it. Mom knows it.

I struggle with writing about this chapter of my life.

I just cherish every day I can hear from my mom and hear her say, “Janet.”

Cut in gas line forces evacuation of two Noblesville villages

The REPORTER

Last Wednesday, Noblesville fire and police departments responded to the scene of a cut gas line in the area of Moontown Road and State Road 32.

A 22-inch gas pipe was leaking and caused officials to establish a cautionary 1,000-foot perimeter around the leak. Representatives of Hamilton County Emergency Management and Noblesville first responders performed a door-to-door evacuation of Villages at Pebble Brook and Cranbrook neighborhoods.

The gas pipe is operated by Eastern Panhandle. The company was able to bleed down the line at a lift station located at State Road 19, just south of Cicero, nearly six miles from the leak. State Road 19 was closed during the bleed down operation.

No injuries were reported during the incident.

Water main flushing scheduled in Sheridan

The REPORTER

Indiana American Water will conduct water main flushing in the Sheridan service area starting on Monday, Oct. 7 and continuing through Friday, Oct. 11 from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day.

The company conducts the annual maintenance program to assure high-quality water service and to ensure fire hydrants are operational.

According to Operations Superintendent Ryan Smith, “Water main and fire hydrant flushing is an important part of a regular maintenance program for water distribution systems. Indiana American Water consistently meets or exceeds all drinking water standards.”

No interruptions in water service are anticipated as a result of the work. Customers may experience a slight drop in water pressure or temporary water discoloration while this program is underway. Customers should refrain from doing laundry during the time of day the flushing program is taking place in or near their neighborhood.

If tap water is discolored, Indiana American Water recommends allowing several cold-water faucets to run for a short time until the water runs clear. Using more than one faucet allows the water to clear more quickly.

Customers who have questions regarding hydrant flushing may call the Customer Service Center at 1-800-492-8373.

The water main flushing will be performed by Indiana American Water crews. They will be working out of trucks identified with the company logo. All employees will also have photo ID badges.

Friday night football - Week 6

Noblesville gets first win of the season

Noblesville broke through for its first win of the season last Friday, holding off host Franklin Central 20-13 in a Hoosier Crossroads Conference game that saw the Millers hold firm in the final two minutes.

Noblesville held a 14-7 lead for the majority of the game, until the Flashes scored a touchdown with 1:21 left in the fourth quarter. But the Millers blocked the extra point attempt, keeping them ahead 14-13.

Jayden Barrett recovered an onside kick for Noblesville. Eventually, Franklin Central forced the Millers to punt, but Greyson Addison pinned the Flashes back at their five-yard line. The game finished with Noblesville's Mason Bohland intercepting a final FC pass at the 25-yard line, and he ran the ball into the end zone with the clock at zero.

"Our kids needed that," said Millers coach Justin Roden. "Sometimes you win because you want to win a championship or you want to win because it's a payback game. But for us, we just needed to win because we needed to build some confidence. We have good kids. We have a lot of younger players. We're not going to be favored in the next three weeks, not going to be favored the rest of the season, so we just want to keep hanging around people like we did tonight and find a way to win."

Richardson
Franklin Central scored the first touchdown of the game, and threatened to score again in the first half, but Noblesville made a stand to prevent that. Roden believed that to be a turning point of the game.

"Everything that could've went wrong at the beginning went wrong," said Roden. "We had a fumble, we turned the ball over. We could've been down 14-0 and it could've been 'Woe is me, here we go.' We make a big play, defensively get a stop. The defensive hold there when it was 7-0 was really big, I think just for the whole dynam-

The Millers got on the board when they used a fake punt to get to the two-yard line. That allowed Jayden Barrett to easily run the ball into the end zone on the next play. Later, Aidan Richardson got Noblesville's first pick six of the game, and that would get the Millers ahead 14-7 with 6:22 left in the second quarter. That would be the score until the game's final minutes.

"We've been practicing a couple different fakes on punt for a while, and I've been waiting to run that for the right opportunity," said Roden. "There's lots of plays in games that kind of change momentum, but I think that fake there really energized the fans, energized the kids."

Noblesville is now 1-3 in HCC play and 1-5 overall. The Millers travel to Hamilton Southeastern Friday.

Huskies hold off Twin Lakes for Homecoming victory

Hamilton Heights held off Twin Lakes for a 27-20 Homecoming win last Friday.

Twin Lakes got on the board first with 4:27 left in the first quarter, but Heights answered quickly, with Brent Pennington catching a 21-yard touchdown pass from Guy Griffey just 14 seconds later.

In the second quarter, the Indians scored on a long run to lead 13-6. The Huskies got the touchdown back when Homecoming king Camron Knott caught a 30-yard pass from Isaac Wilson. That made the score 13-12 at halftime.

The third quarter would make the difference. Heights scored with 4:55 left in the period after Pennington caught his second TD pass of the game from Griffey. Deshawn King then converted a two-point run, and that sent the Huskies into the fourth quarter ahead 20-13.

King scored Heights' only rushing touchdown of the game midway through the fourth, and Michael Lecher's kick extended the Huskies' lead to 27-13. The Indians answered back immediately with a kickoff return touchdown, but Heights was able to hold on for the win.

King had an outstanding game, leading the Huskies in both rushing (124 yards on 13 carries) and receptions (five for 45 yards). Griffey finished the game 11-of-20 for 130 yards, while Wilson was 5-of-8 for 49 yards.

Heights is now 2-4 and returns to Hoosier Conference East Division play Friday when it travels to Tipton.

Southeastern got on the board in the first quarter, when Ben Boysen caught an 18-yard touchdown pass from Andrew Hobson. The senior quarterback was just getting

The Royals ended the first half with a flourish, as junior running back Jace Alexander took a seven-yard carry into the end zone. Southeastern led

Blackhawks roll past Taylor

Sheridan rolled to its fifth straight Hoosier Heartland Conference win last Friday, beating Taylor 47-0 in an away game.

The Blackhawks had several players step up to score touchdowns. Silas DeVaney threw for two TDs, one to Cayden Hunter in the first quarter and another to Keenan Warren early in the second period.

“It was a good win for us,” said Sheridan coach Bud Wright.

The ‘Hawks were dealt with adversity early in the game when Cameron Hovey, their star running back, was injured.

“He’s probably out for six weeks,” said Wright.

That meant other Sheridan players had to step up, and they did. Evan Bourdon scored three rushing touchdowns, two in the second period and one in the third. Gavin Renner and Cale Cummings also picked up running scores in the second half. Dylan Cork stepped in as kicker and converted four extra-point kicks.

Wright was pleased that his team stepped up, noting it’s what good ball clubs do. Bourdon finished the game with 130 yards in 22 carries, while Renners gained 113 yards in nine rushes. DeVaney completed 4 of 8 passes for 71 yards.

Gabe Holler led the Blackhawks’ defense with 11 tackles, while Chris Starks had nine, including four tackles for a loss. Holler and Charlie Cronin each had two tackles for a loss.

Sheridan remains unbeaten in HHC play at 5-0. Eastern is still in second place at 4-0. The Blackhawks take a break from conference action this week, playing Friday at Seeger.

Shamrocks stopped by Bulldogs

Westfield ran into a tough Brownsburg team on Homecoming night last Friday, with the Bulldogs beating the Shamrocks 34-14 in a Hoosier Crossroads Conference game at River-view Health Field.

Brownsburg jumped up 10-0 after the first quarter and led 17-0 at halftime. The Bulldogs were up 31-0 early in the fourth before Westfield got on the board, which it did when Micah Hauser made a six-yard run into the end zone.

The Shamrocks got one more touchdown late in the fourth, when Nick Talley threw a pass to Jack Pfeiffer, who scrambled his way into the end zone.

Panthers stun Greyhounds

Carmel was dealt a Homecoming stunner last Friday, as two late fourth-quarter touchdowns by visiting North Central sent the Greyhounds to a 27-21 Metropolitan Conference defeat at Carmel Stadium.

Carmel was the first team on the board, as Jacob Weaver took a fumble recovery 51 yards into the end zone midway through the second period. Spencer Hanna's kick made the score 7-0, and that would hold through halftime.

The Panthers tied the game just 16 seconds into the third quarter with a 95-yard kickoff return. Two field goals by Scott Hoeg (one in each of the second-half periods) put NC ahead 13-7. But the 'Hounds scored two quick touchdowns, first on a 60-yard pass to Colton Parker from Christian Williams, followed by an 11-yard run from John Rogers. Hanna made both kicks, and Carmel was ahead 21-13.

But North Central quarterback Harry Abell threw two long touchdown passes in the final four minutes, and that clinched the game. The second score came with 51 seconds left, and the Panthers also made a two-point conversion to get to the final margin.

Williams completed 6 of 15 passes for 99 yards, with Parker getting four receptions for 108 yards. Zach Osborne was 4-of-9 passing for 35 yards. Rogers led the rushing with 57 yards in 11 carries.

This was Carmel's first loss in the MIC, making the Greyhounds 3-1 and placing them in a three-way tie for second in the conference. Warren Central, a 28-14 winner over Pike on Friday, is on top of the MIC at 4-1.

Carmel is 4-2 overall and plays at Ben Davis Friday.

Tigers start strong before Avon rallies

Fishers put a scare into one of Indiana's best high school football team last Friday.

The Tigers, playing in front of their Homecoming crowd, went up 14-0 on Avon after one quarter of play. But the Orioles asserted themselves in the next three quarters, holding Fishers scoreless and scoring five touchdowns to hand the Tigers a 35-14 Hoosier Crossroads Conference defeat.

Fishers scores both of its touchdowns in the middle portion of the first period. Dylan Scally took an 18-yard run into the end zone, then Marcus Roux connected on a 15-yard TD pass to Reece Boland. Jack Phillips converted both extra-point kicks.

The Orioles got on the board in the second quarter, cutting Fishers' lead to 14-7 at halftime. Avon then added two touchdowns in each of the next two periods. Orioles quarterback Henry Hesson took over the game, throwing four passing touchdowns and running 35 yards for Avon's final score of the game.

Roux finished the game 10-of-17, totaling 61 yards, with Boland catching three of those passes. Scally rushed 21 times for 80 yards.

The Tigers are 2-2 in conference play and 4-2 overall. Fishers will remain at home Friday, taking on Franklin Central.

Girls golf regionals

Consistency sends three teams to state

Playing steady led to state for three Hamilton County girls golf teams last Saturday.

The Carmel and Westfield teams finished second and third respectively at the Roncalli regional, which took place at Smock Golf Course in Indianapolis, thus earning a spot at this weekend's state meet at Prairie View Golf Club in Carmel. In addition, the Pfefferkorn sisters will represent Guerin Catholic by qualifying for state as individuals.

Meanwhile, Noblesville placed second at the Lapel regional, which took place at Edgewood Golf and Country Club in Anderson. The Millers will be returning to state for the first time in six years.

The Greyhounds have consistency down to a science, and that produced another solid round at Smock. Carmel scored a 313, second only to regional champion Zionsville's 299. But getting to state is the ultimate goal, and the 'Hounds will go there for the 28th time in program history.

Katie Kuc and Sydney Longstreth both had 77s for Carmel, with Kuc making three birdies in her round and Longstreth draining one birdie. Ava Hedrick's 78 and Elizabeth Hedrick's 81 each contained two birdies.

Westfield placed third by scoring a 316, earning the school's fifth trip to the state meet. Jocelyn Bruch led the way for the Shamrocks, placing fourth individually with a 73, making four birdies in her round.

Brette Hanavan's 83 included a birdie on the 18th hole.

Guerin Catholic finished seventh as a team, but will send the Pfefferkorn sisters on to state. Christina Pfefferkorn had a sensational day, tying for second individually with an even-par 72.

Angelica Pfefferkorn carded a 76 to also make it to state. Both Christina and Angelica had three birdies in their respective rounds.

University had two golfers compete at the regional. Becky Williams scored an 84, including one birdie, while Kelsey DuBois carded a 93.

Noblesville hadn't qualified for the state meet since 2013, so the Millers ended a six-year drought with their performance at Edgewood.

The Millers scored 324, behind only winner Columbus North's 313. Host Lapel finished third with a 325. Noblesville qualified for state for the 26th time in school history.

Noblesville had a consistent day, with Caroline Whallon's 78 leading the way. Sarah Brunnemer scored a 79, and the other three Millers scored in the low to mid 80's.

Hamilton Southeastern finished fifth with a team score of 336. Ashley Marcinko led the Royals with a 78.

Hamilton Heights' Sydni Zebrauskas played at the regional, scoring an 83. Fishers' Lilly McVay carded 85 and Kaitlyn Brunnemer scored 86.
