

Too many times a victim of crime or abuse is blamed for the abuse they have endured. The blame often comes from everywhere – family members, close friends, law enforcement, social media .. the list goes on and on. In cases of domestic violence, victims are often asked, “Why don’t you just leave?” or “What did you do to make him/her that mad?” #GoPurplePrevail

Holder mattresses to be featured at new American-made trade show

The REPORTER

Holder Mattress has announced that it will participate in the inaugural Made in America trade show at the Indiana Convention Center in downtown Indianapolis. The show features only businesses with products that are fully made in America, including all raw materials. The show runs from Thursday, Oct. 3 through Sunday, Oct. 6.

This national event was created to feature American-made products and manufacturers across the spectrum of industries, from aerospace and automobiles to textiles and home goods. The organizers hope to be able to showcase the largest collection of U.S.-made machines and products in one place.

Holder Mattress Company has been a family-owned and operated business since 1947 and has a location in Kokomo and showrooms at the Indiana Design Center in Carmel.

“We are proud to take part in this event, as our mattresses are, and have always been, fully American-made with the highest-quality materials,” said Lauren Taylor, owner and president of Holder Mattress Company. “We champion buying local and sourcing the best American-made products, so look forward to connecting with like-minded shoppers and vendors.”

The convention is open to the public and the organizers hope to inspire American-made innovation, drive and passion. Many well-known speakers and musical acts are scheduled to be a part of the event as well. Tickets are available at madeinamerica.com/event-attend.

About Holder Mattress Company

Holder Mattress Co., Inc. began in Kokomo in 1947. For three generations the Holder Family has designed, built, and sold hand-crafted mattresses in Kokomo, Carmel, Fishers, Indianapolis, Greenwood, and beyond, serving mattress needs in Indiana and surrounding states. Each mattress is custom made and built to order at the Holder Mattress factory in Kokomo. In addition to a Kokomo factory and store, Holder Mattress has a showroom in suite 119 of the Indiana Design Center in downtown Carmel. All mattresses are two-sided and can be flipped to ensure a long life without sagging. All raw materials are sourced in the United States, meaning the mattresses are not only made in Indiana, but completely American-made. Holder Mattress’ tradition of building each mattress by hand allows the company to customize shape, size and plushness for each customer. The company’s passion for high quality, local products is evident in the accompanying furniture lines, accessories and gifts featured in the showrooms. Learn more at holdermattress.com.

Annual Parisian flea market will benefit Fair Haven

The REPORTER

Fair Haven will hold its largest annual fundraiser, the STAR Bank Parisian Flea Market (PFM) at Clay Terrace in Carmel this Friday, Oct. 4 and Saturday, Oct. 5. The flea market will be open each day from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. The store is located on the south end of Clay Terrace behind Luxe Home Interiors.

The seventh annual STAR Bank Parisian Flea Market is a one-of-a-kind shopping event inspired by the eclectic flea markets of Paris that attract treasure hunters from all over the world. It features a unique collection of upscale and hand-selected items including home accessories, furniture, mirrors, chandeliers, dishware, estate jewelry, art and gift items. Volunteer designers from Rowland Design will use their talents to transform the former Kincaid's restaurant space into a shoppers' paradise.

Fair Haven hosts PFM annually to support its program to provide a "home away from home" for seriously-ill patients and their families who travel to Indianapolis to receive treatment for cancer, high-risk pregnancy, cardiovascular disease, and organ transplant. More than 250 volunteers work together to make the market a success and introduce Fair Haven's mission to the community.

Tickets are $5 and will be available at the door. You can also get your tickets at fairhavenfoundation.org. Children age 16 and under can attend for free.

About Fair Haven

Fair Haven serves seriously-ill patients and their families who travel to Indianapolis from across the country for treatment by providing a "home away from home." Patients stay free of charge at fully-furnished apartments located downtown near the IU Simon Cancer Center and IU Health University and Methodist Hospitals and located on the south side near the Franciscan Health Cancer Center. Fair Haven's mission is sharing the love of Jesus Christ by providing gracious hospitality and compassionate support to seriously-ill patients and their families. Since 2008, Fair Haven has provided 25,000 nights of lodging to more than 1,000 patients and their families.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep. The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep. I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine. As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep. And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd. Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again. No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father. There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings. And many of them said, He hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him? Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. Can a devil open the eyes of the blind?

Noblesville girls win HCC championship

The Noblesville girls soccer team came from behind to beat Hamilton Southeastern 2-1 on Wednesday. The victory gave the Millers the Hoosier Crossroads Conference championship; Noblesville finished conference play with a 6-0-1 record.

Once again, the Hoosier Crossroads Conference girls soccer championship came down to the final game between Noblesville and Hamilton Southeastern.

It was quite a game, and it took place Wednesday night at the Class 3A No. 1-ranked Royals’ field. Southeastern took an early lead, but the 3A No. 3 Millers scored right before halftime, and scored again right before full time to get a 2-1 victory and win the HCC championship outright.

Noblesville finished with a 6-0-1 record in the conference, with the Royals completing play at 6-1.

“This is the best soccer conference in the state, so to win this is an accomplishment for the girls and the hard work they’ve put in,” said Millers coach Mike Brady. “I just told the team, runner-up was nice last year, but I lied to them. We want to win the conference, which we did tonight. And they have something to celebrate, but they also know they have to come back tomorrow. Now our goals are bigger than conference, now we want to make that state tournament run.”

Southeastern scored first, with Izzie Wallace getting the ball in the back of the net in the sixth minute. Layla Brown provided the assist. The Royals’ lead held until there was 5:25 left in the first half, when Jenna Chatterton made the equalizer off an assist by Elana Chatterton. Thus the game went into halftime tied 1-1.

The game stayed knotted at 1-1 until the 73rd minute, when Elana Chatterton scored to get Noblesville up 2-1. The Millers held on from there, and the celebration was on the second the clock hit zero.

“I was following the ball,” said Elana Chatterton, minutes after making one of the bigger goals of the season for the Millers.

“We’re usually a second-half team,” said Jenna Chatterton. “We knew the first half was kind of rough, so we just needed to come out and get after it in the second half.”

This was the final regular-season game for both teams. Noblesville is now 11-0-3, while Southeastern is 14-2.

“Two great teams battling it out,” said

Royals coach Greg Davidson. “I loved how my team started the game. We really had the game in hand the first 25 minutes, but there’s an 80-minute game. We kind of dropped some momentum in that last 15 minutes, and they were able to capitalize on that and tie us at halftime.”

Southeastern hosts Class 3A Sectional 8 next week. The Royals play the first game Tuesday against Muncie Central. The Millers will play Anderson Thursday in the bye semi-final game.

In another HCC game, Westfield played to a 0-0 tie with Avon Wednesday at the Orioles’ field.

The Shamrocks finished conference play 2-4-1, placing them sixth in the league. Westfield completed the regular season with a 9-6-1 record, and plays Zionsville Monday in Class 3A Sectional 10 at Carmel.

Carmel, ranked No. 2 in 3A, won an undefeated Metropolitan Conference championship on Wednesday by beating 3A No. 7 Center Grove 5-1 at the Trojans’ field.

The game was scoreless at halftime, but Emma Antoine got the Greyhounds on the board in the 50th minute, off a double assist from Kelsie James and Tamara Smith. Emily Roper quickly got Carmel up 2-0 with a goal, assisted by Morgan Parker.

Center Grove scored its lone goal in the 58th minute, but the Greyhounds poured in three more goals in a nine-minute span to clinch the game. James added two goals, the first unassisted, the second assisted by Emily Roper. Susie Soderstrom finished the scoring, assisted by Mia Glass. Goalkeeper Erin Baker made nine saves.

Carmel finished the season 7-0 in MIC play and 13-0-3 overall. The Greyhounds will host Class 3A Sectional 10 next week; Carmel received the bye and will play Monday’s Zionsville/Westfield winner next Thursday, Oct. 10.

Tennis

Sectional finals set for today

Carmel and Guerin Catholic advanced to the championship match of the Carmel boys tennis sectional after semi-final victories Wednesday at the Todd Witsken Tennis Center.

The No. 1-ranked Greyhounds beat No. 10 Westfield 5-0. Carmel won all five matches in straight sets over a strong Shamrocks team.

“I thought we came out and we stepped it up,” said Greyhounds coach Bryan Hanan. “I told them beforehand, this is probably one of the best teams we’ve played in the sectionals. Our sectional’s up a little bit this year with Westfield, Guerin’s got some positions. I said ‘Hey, we’re going to have to bring our A game tonight.’ This is the 10th-ranked team in the state, they’ve won a lot of matches this year and they’re a good team, well-coached.”

Westfield finished the season with a 12-2 record.

“We played well and we worked hard all season,” said Shamrocks coach Tony Peters. “It’s a tough first-round draw. We had a terrific season. Hats off to my guys, working hard. All the seniors all year were fantastic and really the heart and soul of our team. I think we gave Carmel a good match and we had some opportunities to maybe turn it around a little bit and get some momentum, but they’re a real good team.”

The Golden Eagles beat University 5-0, also winning each match in straight sets.

“We’re happy to get a win today and we’re excited to play the No. 1 team in the state tomorrow,” said GC coach Chris Sciaudone. “We’ve played them once already this year, we had some close matches, and we’re hoping that tomorrow maybe we can take it that step further.”

Carmel and Guerin Catholic will play for the sectional title at 4:15 p.m. today.

season Wednesday with a 4-3 win over Pendleton Heights.

The 2A No. 18 Huskies scored twice in the first half. Cassidy Felger got the first goal off an assist by Jayla Logan, then Logan scored the second goal with Shanna Moffatt assisting.

The Arabians scored three goals in the first 20 minutes of the second half to lead 3-2, but Heights tied it up quickly when Jenna Peterson sent a ball to Katie Smith, who kicked it 30 yards into the goal. The Huskies took the lead for good when Logan converted a penalty kick.

Heights is 9-2-4 for the season and plays at Sheridan this afternoon.

Sheridan fell to Tipton 6-0 on Wednesday.

The Blackhawks played solid on defense in the first half, but dealt with injuries in the second half. Leah Hopper had a strong game for Sheridan as a defender.

BOYS GAMES

University beat Tri-West 2-1 in a Wednesday home game.

The 1A No. 2 Trailblazers finished its regular season 10-2-4 with the victory. They will play in the Class 1A Park Tudor sectional, taking on Seccina Wednesday.

Hamilton Heights defeated Liberty Christian 2-1 in its regular-season finale and Senior Night game on Tuesday.

The Huskies' Max Stallsmith got the game's first goal off an assist by Hunter Toll with nine minutes left in the first half. Heights then went up 2-0 after Luke Vanderwall scored with 14 minutes left in the second half. Lance Jones provided the assist.

The Lions converted a penalty kick with 10 minutes left, but the Huskies were able to hold on for the win. Owen Martin made a big save with two minutes remaining to preserve the win. Marcus Shaffer had four saves.

Heights finished the regular season 5-11-1. The Huskies play Class 3A Sectional 26 host Brebeuf Jesuit Tuesday in the first game of that sectional.

Football preview

Many county teams go on the road for Week 7

With the Homecoming games all finished for the 2019 season, the majority of Hamilton County football teams are hitting the road for their Week 7 games.

There are only three games in the county this Friday, although one of them is an all-county contest: Noblesville travels to Hamilton Southeastern's TCU Field. Meanwhile, Fishers and Guerin Catholic host relatively new opponents, and Carmel and Hamilton Heights take on old rivals.

NOBLESVILLE-SOUTHEASTERN

Noblesville will head to HSE with its first win of the season in the books. The Millers defeated Franklin Central 20-13, holding on to the lead from the second quarter forward, and holding off a late charge by the Flashes. Noblesville is 1-3 in Hoosier Crossroads Conference play and 1-5 overall.

Senior Jayden Barrett is the Millers' quarterback, rushing for 234 yards and a touchdown this season, and passing for 131 yards and a touchdown. Senior Carson Sanders has nine receptions and a TD of his own. On defense, junior Skyler Tolliver leads the list with 53 tackles, including 3.5 for a loss. Sam Steinhofner has 50 tackles.

The Royals have won their last two games, roaring past Westfield 34-10 and Zionsville 35-14. Southeastern currently is 2-2 in conference play and 3-3 overall; the Royals are tied with Fishers and Westfield for third place in the HCC standings.

Senior quarterback Andrew Hobson is the county's leader in passing this season, throwing for 1,258 yards and nine touchdowns. Senior DeAndre Rhodes leads the receivers with 33 catches, including five TDs. Sophomore Blaine Wertz has been outstanding since returning from an injury, rushing for 383 yards and two scores over the last three games.

Senior Seth Smarelli leads the HSE defense with 58 tackles, while junior Nate Haas has 55 stops. Senior Chris Stein has made six tackles for a loss.

FISHERS-FRANKLIN CENTRAL

Fishers will host Franklin Central in an HCC game Friday at Clarian Field.

The Flashes come into the game with a 1-3 conference mark and a 3-3 overall record, but have dropped their last two games. Franklin Central fell to Avon 42-7 two weeks ago and lost to Noblesville 20-13 last week.

A pair of juniors lead the Flashes' offense. Jordna Ruley has rushed for 680 yards and seven touchdowns, with Peyton Viewegh passing for 577 yards and three scores. Senior Jacob Whitney has 17 catches, including one for a touchdown. Senior Nate Talhelm has 82 tackles on defense, including five for a loss, while junior Luke Shomaker has 65 stops, six for a loss.

The Tigers are 4-2, but have also lost their last two games, although they have been to top 10 teams: Class 6A No. 7 Brownsburg 42-17 and 6A No. 1 Avon 35-14. Fishers is 2-2 in HCC play.

Senior quarterback Marcus Roux has totals of 665 yards and nine touchdowns as quarterback, while senior Dylan Scally leads the rushing with 504 yards and four TDs. Sophomore Jeffrey Simmons has 17 receptions, four of them for touchdowns. Senior Geoffrey Brown has been solid on defense with 57 tackles, including seven for a loss. Senior Alex Lemaich has six tackles for a loss.

GUERIN CATHOLIC-

PONTIAC NOTRE DAME

Guerin Catholic will play the second game of its three-week homestand this week, and the first of two Michigan opponents when it hosts Pontiac Notre Dame on Friday.

Notre Dame, like its college namesake, calls itself the Fighting Irish. The team has fought its way to a 5-0 record this season. Notre Dame has defeated Linden 27-19, Muskegon Catholic Central 42-22, Divine Child (Dearborn) 38-0, Fishers' Geoffrey Brown (38) leads the Tigers' defense in tackles with 57 tackles, including seven for a loss.

Berkley 50-7 and the Detroit Leadership Academy 49-20. This will be the Fighting Irish's only trip south to Indiana.

The Golden Eagles are 4-2 and tied for No. 8 with Gibson Southern in the latest 3A coaches poll. Guerin Catholic lost to Bishop Chatard 35-7 last week; the Trojans are tied with West Lafayette for the No. 1 spot in the 3A poll.

Senior Christian Gelov is the Golden Eagles' quarterback, and has passed for 797 yards and nine touchdowns. His top receiver is senior Bernie McGuinness, who has 26 catches, five of them TDs. Senior Gus Baumgartner has rushed for 767 yards and eight scores. Senior Tom Hokanson leads the GC defense with 61 tackles, followed by junior Jagger Albert's 52 stops.

HAMILTON HEIGHTS-TIPTON

Hamilton Heights will travel up State Road 19 Friday evening to take on its big rival Tipton.

The game is not only a rivalry game, but an important one in the Hoosier Conference East Division standings. Both teams are 1-1 in the division, putting them in a tie with Western for second place. Lewis Cass leads the East with a 3-0 mark.

The Blue Devils are 4-2 overall. They won their first three games of the season over Madison-Grant 19-6, Elwood 62-14 and Twin Lakes 19-14, then fell to Cass 28-7 and Lafayette Central Catholic 24-14 before rebounding with a victory over Northwestern 51-7 last week.

Junior Sam Edwards is Tipton's quarterback, and he has thrown for 717 yards and 10 touchdowns. All of the Blue Devils' offensive leaders are juniors: Jayvin Lyons is the top rusher with 340 yards and four TDs, and Drew Pearce has 18 receptions, five of them for scores. Sophomore Drew Servies leads the defense with 51 tackles.

The Huskies are 2-4 overall, but won their game last week over Twin Lakes 27-20. Heights has been using two quarterbacks, and both have been successful: Sophomore Guy Griffey has totaled 630 yards and six touchdowns, while junior Ian Wilson has thrown for 546 yards and five scores.

Senior Camron Knott has 24 catches, including six for TDs. Senior Deshawn King not only leads the rushing with 174 yards and one touchdown, but also the defense with 94 tackles.

WESTFIELD-AVON

Westfield gets the toughest assignment in the HCC on Friday, as the Shamrocks travel to No. 1-ranked Avon.

The Orioles are 6-0 overall and 4-0 in the conference. Most of Avon's games have been blowouts, but the Orioles did have a couple close ones: Hamilton Southeastern made a fourth-quarter comeback before Avon held on for a 35-27 win, and the Orioles squeaked out a win over rival Brownsburg 7-3.

Junior Henry Hesson is Avon's quarterback, having thrown for 1,098 yards and 18 touchdowns. Senior Cohen Murrell has 22 receptions and three scores to his credit, with junior Carmelo Mitchell catching 21 passes, seven of them for touchdowns. Sophomore Chrishon McCray leads the rushing with 304 yards and three TDs. Junior Clayton Peters leads the defense with 53 tackles, while senior Ross England has nine tackles for a loss.

Westfield is 4-2 for the season and 2-2 in HCC play, but has lost its last two games, including a Brownsburg 34-14 last week.

Senior Camden Simons is having an incredible year, throwing for 1,126 yards and 10 touchdowns. Junior Mason Piening has 22 catches and senior Dane Wheeler has 21 receptions; both have caught three touchdown passes. Senior Eli Patchett has rushed for 419 yards, seven for TDs. Sophomore Micah Hauser has 47 tackles, with Patchett making 46 stops.

CARMEL-BEN DAVIS

Carmel will travel to Wayne Township on Friday night to take on Metropolitan Conference rival Ben Davis.

The Giants are 3-3, but have won their last two games. The win streak began with a huge upset, 27-24 in double overtime against Warren Central. Ben Davis followed that up with a 35-21 victory over Lawrence North. As a result, the Giants entered the 6A coaches poll this week, tied for No. 10.

Ben Davis' third win came against Pike 35-34, while losses have come against Brownsburg 29-24, Avon 41-17 and Center Grove 48-20. The Giants are 3-1 in the MIC, tied for second with the Greyhounds and North Central.

Senior Trent Gipson is Ben Davis' quarterback, totaling 833 yards and seven touchdowns. Senior Adrian Reese II leads the receptions with 21, including one for a score. Senior Alijawon Hassel leads the rushing with 110 yards and four touchdowns, with Gipson running for 106 yards and nine scores. Charles Knuckols leads the defense with 64 tackles.

Carmel is 4-2 for the season and was dealt its first MIC loss of the year last Friday when North Central beat the Greyhounds 27-21. Carmel is ranked No. 4 in this week's 6A coaches poll.

Senior Dylan Downing is the Greyhounds' offensive leader, with 531 yards rushing and six touchdowns. Sophomore Zach Osborne has thrown for 389 yards this season; senior Zach Gish and junior Colton Parker both have 11 catches, including one each for a touchdown. Junior Dominic Padjen leads the defense with 63 tackles, with senior Ty Wise making eight tackles for a loss.

SHERIDAN-SEEGER

Sheridan travels back to West Lebanon on Friday for a game with Seeger.

This marks the second year in a row that the 1A No. 9 Blackhawks will take on the Patriots, after hosting them (and winning 40-7) last year. Seeger is 4-2 for the season, with wins against Benton Central 61-21, Riverton Parke 50-0, Covington 33-21 and Fountain Central 47-6. The Patriots have lost to Parke Heritage 52-7 and Attica 36-20.

Junior Khal Stephen is Seeger's quarterback, throwing for 716 yards and nine touchdowns. The Patriots' leading receiver is a freshman, Owen Snedeker, and he has 17 catches. Senior Tristan Bahns has 542 rushing and 10 touchdowns to his credit. Senior Brock Thomason leads the defense with 45 tackles.

Sheridan is 5-1 for the season, having won five games in a row since an opening-week loss to defending 2A state champion Western Boone. The 'Hawks are taking a break from Hoosier Heartland Conference play this week, but finish the season with their two remaining HHC contests.

Sheridan was dealt a blow last week when leading rusher, junior Cameron Hovey was injured. Hovey has run for 1,225 yards and 16 touchdowns this season, and he will be out for around six weeks. In his place, sophomore Evan Bourdon had a good running game last week; Bourdon has season totals of 383 yards and five TDs.

Sophomore Silas DeVaney is the quarterback, and he has thrown for 462 yards and three touchdowns. Junior Keenan Warren has seven catches, two for scores. Hovey also is the leading tackler with 46 stops, with senior Chris Starks making 45 tackles, including 13 for a loss.
