Russell named president of Cicero Kiwanis Club

The REPORTER

The members of the Kiwanis Club of Cicero inducted its officers and board for the 2019-20 year at its annual meeting last month. Mitch Russell was elected as President; Robin Mills, Immediate Past President; Jan Unger, President Elect; Rhonda Gary, Treasurer; and Earlene Gibson and Emily Holt as Secretary. Directors at Large include Nick Barger, Tony Heath, Perry Williams and Keith Ecker. Sycamore South Division

Lt. Governor Sharon Canaday attended the meeting and performed the officer induction ceremony. Robin Mills, who officially turned the reins over to Russell at the event, said she is excited about what the new Board brings to the club in terms of leadership, experience, and vision.

"I think they will provide great direction and energy in the year ahead," said Mills. "We remain very strong in our mission of service to the greater Northern Hamilton County area."

"Changing the world one child at a time is powerful motivation to keep up the club's good work," said Russell of his involvement with the club.

Russell, a long-term resident of Arcadia, is a familiar face in the community. He has worn many hats personally and professionally and is well known for improving the quality of life in the area through his dedication and contributions as a public servant over the years.

"Service leadership works and together, we can make a difference that can be seen and felt," Russell noted. "I'm honored to follow in the footsteps of my predecessors who have made great strides in the organization through their leadership. As we start a new Kiwanis year, I look forward to working together with an impressive leadership team and engaged members toward keeping

What we need is ...

"When I say to be kind to one another, I don't only mean the people that think the same way that I do. I mean to be kind to everyone." – Ellen DeGeneres.

A simple sentence that spoke volumes.

It all began with a picture of Ellen with George W. Bush hanging out at a Dallas Cowboys football game. It sparked conversations. It also sparked a bit of controversy.

Some applauded Ellen, some criticized her.

I applauded as my heart cheered.

We live in a society that seems to tell us that we cannot be friends with anyone who does not think the way we do. I find that sad.

It seems that so many sit in front of a computer screen and yet they hide behind it as well. Social media is used as a weapon, assaulting those with opposing beliefs. If those who oppose cannot be seen, they are protected.

They spew ugliness. The venom of hate and anger and hypocrisy and prejudice and bigotry is tapped from their fingertips onto the keys of their keyboards.

They think that people will listen to their words. They think that they will change the mind of others.

JANET HART LEONARD
From the Heart

It won't happen. If only they would change their heart, then we would have a kinder, softer world where we, like Ellen, can be friends with people with whom we don't share the same beliefs.

We live in a society that simply argues with loud, angry voices. Is anyone listening? No.

Opinions are stated (actually screamed). There is an impatient pause waiting for someone to begin the argument. Instead of "put your dukes up" it's "put your opposing words up." Let the battle begin.

Words are shouted while writing in capital letters. Who can be the loudest? Who can be the angriest? Sadly, no one wins.

We, as a society, have hardened our hearts and closed our minds to anyone who thinks differently or opposes our views. Society tells us we cannot be friends if we do not have the same beliefs and thoughts. In my humble opinion, I think that is a whole lot of bologna sandwiches ... in other words, BS.

Kindness has been lost in the forest of opposing views.

I'm just one little, a bit over middle aged lady, who

According to CCP Director Jan Jamison, she chose this play in large part due to her love of the original 1967 movie it

"I have always loved this movie because of the acting from Spencer Tracy and Katharine Hepburn," Jamison told

"I connect with this role on a lot of different levels," Dean said. "I like to consider myself educated. Growing up, my own father was on me all the time making sure I made the grades. I feel like you get a lot of that with Dr. Prentice. He feels like he is living under the pretense of what his father wants him to be. It seems like sometimes no matter what he does he can't make him fully happy. I think there are moments in my life I have felt that way. As I got older, I have been able to have those conversation. Mine didn't end up quite as crazy as his situation. Also, I

Fire Chief Greg Wyant added, “Ben has been a constant presence at NFD for many of us for our entire careers. His 30 years of service will most certainly be missed. We wish Ben all the best as he starts this much deserved new chapter in his life.”

Republican Beth Henderson running for 5th District seat

Submitted

On Thursday, Atlanta resident Beth Henderson announced her candidacy for Congress in Indiana's 5th District. Beth's background as a nurse, small business owner, farm manager and mother have uniquely prepared her for this opportunity to serve Indiana in the U.S. House.

Beth released the following statement upon her announcement:

"As a nurse, businesswoman, wife, and mother who has lived in Indiana's 5th District for 30 years, I am prepared to take my real world business experience, first-hand knowledge of our healthcare system and my conservative values to serve our state in Congress.

"I've had countless conversations with fellow Hoosiers since I began considering running in this race. The main question I've gotten from folks is, 'Why would you want to do this?' For me, the answer is simple: I have a heart for Indiana, and truly care about our district and the people in it. I believe that we are all in this together, and my desire is to be a voice in Washington sticking up for the values and principles that have made the American people the most prosperous in the history of the world.

"I'm not a career politician now, and I never will be. We need to get back to the idea of citizen servants in public office who will put their skills and talents to work for the people, not themselves. That's how I'll treat my time in Congress, and I'm asking for the support of each and every voter across the 5th District who shares that belief in how our government should work."

About Beth Henderson

The REPORTER

This week in Indiana's history ...

1849 – Charity Dye was born in Kentucky. She moved with her family to Indianapolis where she graduated from the Normal School and became an English teacher at Shortridge High School. She authored books about state history and promoted peace and women's suffrage. In 1916, she served on the state's Centennial Commission.

1853 – The second Indiana State Fair was held in Lafayette. The first fair had been the year before in Indianapolis. For the next few years, the event would be held in different cities, including Madison, New Albany, Fort Wayne and Terre Haute. The special guest speaker at the Lafayette fair was New York newspaper editor Horace Greeley.

1927 – A trailer carrying the Sahara Grotto Drill Team was struck by an interurban car near 23rd and Emerson in Indianapolis. It was the worst interurban accident in city history, with 14 people killed and 6 injured. The trailer was being towed to a dance barn near Pendleton.

1931 – The ferry boat between Madison, Ind., and Milton, Ky., tied up at the dock for the last time. The Margaret J was the last of her kind to carry passengers back and forth across the Ohio River. The opening of a steel bridge in 1929 spelled the beginning of the end for the ferry system, which had operated for over 125 years.

1933 – United States Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins visited Indianapolis. The first woman ever to serve on the Presidential Cabinet, she attended a downtown conference on labor. Later she was a dinner guest of Governor Paul V. McNutt at the Governor's Mansion. That evening she addressed a crowd at the Murat Theater on the topic "The New Challenge to Industry."

1962 – A crowd of over 18,000 greeted President John F. Kennedy as Air Force One landed at Weir Cook Airport in Indianapolis. It was JFK's first visit to the city since his election, and he was welcomed by Governor Matthew Welsh, United States Senator Vance Hartke, and Senate candidate Birch Bayh. The Indianapolis Star reported that "the President looked tan and healthy" and that he wore a "Navy blue suit with a blue tie pin-pointed with small white dots."

Diana Marie McCullough-Biddle

July 2, 1941 – October 9, 2019

Diana Marie McCullough-Biddle, 78, Sheridan, passed away on Wednesday morning, October 9, 2019 at Prairie Lakes Health Campus in Noblesville. Born July 2, 1941 in Sheridan, she was the daughter of the late Myron H. and Lulu Madge (Pickett) McCullough. Diana was a 1959 graduate of Sheridan High School and held a Master's Degree in Speech and Hearing from Purdue University. For many years she was a teacher in the Lee County, Fla., School System and a member of the Lee County Teachers Association.

When she wasn't in the classroom, Diana loved spending time with her grandchildren. She shared her love of animals with them and never missed a chance to take them to the zoo or do some bird watching (or watching whatever critters happened to be around). She was also a collector of animal potholders. Those potholders came in handy when it was time to do a little baking. Cookies were her confection of choice, and since she was in charge of the oven, chocolate chip and oatmeal raisin were always on the menu. Another favorite activity of Diana's was swimming. She loved to be in the water – it really didn't matter what the reason. As her health began to fail, Diana needed to start going to water therapy. This was a welcomed activity in her daily routine; for Diana, it was just a trip to the pool. In her later years she loved watching TV shows and movies on her VCR.

Diana is survived by her son, Brent Lee Biddle (Diana L. McDonald-Biddle), Bean Blossom; daughter-in-law, Julie Biddle-Pankau, Enterprise, Ala.; six grandchildren, Jackson Biddle, Zoe Biddle, Abigail Whitaker, Katie Biddle, Hanna Springer and Sarah Biddle; three great-grandchildren, Merida E. Whitaker, Lee D. Whitaker and Ryan Z. Springer; one brother, Dale H. McCullough, Westfield; and her sister-in-law, Marcia McCullough, Sheridan.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her son, Myron Zane Biddle; brother, Neil Meredith McCullough; sister-in-law, Loretta McCullough; and by Larry Lee Biddle on February 10, 2019. She and Larry were married on April 16, 1961 in Ojai, Calif.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. on Monday, October 14, 2019 at Kercheval Funeral Home, 306 E. 10th St., Sheridan, with visitation from noon until the time of service. Burial will follow at Crown View Cemetery in Sheridan. Diana's son Brent Lee Biddle will be officiating.

Memorial contributions may be presented to the Sheridan High School Scholarship Fund or to the charity of the donor's choice.

It is noted that his “second birthday” was on January 6, 2011 when he received a liver transplant.

He is survived by his wife, Jodi; daughter, Heather M. Schulenburg and husband Bert, Tipton; and “Poppie's Girls,” his granddaughters Ada Emaline and Emery Ann Schulenburg, both of Tipton; and his sister, Sharon Pace, Atlanta.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him. The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her; when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there. Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her; he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled, And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see. Jesus wept.

Boys soccer sectionals

Reporter photos by Kent Graham

The Noblesville boys soccer team shrugged off an early deficit and went on to win its first sectional championship since 2013 on Saturday. The Millers beat Hamilton Southeastern 4-3 and will play Harrison in next weekend’s Kokomo regional.

Millers dig in, claim sectional title

By RICH TORRES
NOBLESVILLE – The Noblesville Millers were down, but they were never out. As their early 1-0 lead against rival Hamilton Southeastern quickly turned into a 2-1 deficit during the Class 3A Sectional 8 championship on Saturday night, the eighth-ranked Millers didn’t panic. They dug in deeper. “We just can’t drop our heads in that situation because as soon as you drop your head, they get another one and another one. With that one goal lead, it just wasn’t enough,” Millers’ junior Drew Barnes said. “We came back. We knew we were going to do it, and we did it.” The Millers didn’t only storm back to tie the game 2-2 in the first half behind a header goal by Palmer Ault, they kept pouring it on to win 4-3 and dethrone No. 15 Hamilton Southeastern, which had won four straight sectional titles and five in the past seven years. “I wouldn’t say we played a perfect game considering we were down 2-1 at one point with a couple of mistakes, but you know what, they persevered through. They were down, but they weren’t down,” Noblesville head coach Ken Dollaske said. “You could see that even when we were down 2-1, the bench had high energy the entire time.” Motivated by what ifs and what could have been in recent postseasons, the Millers (14-2-2) clawed back to capture the program’s 13th sectional title under IH-SAA affiliation and 19th overall in school history. The key to claiming the team’s first title since 2013 and a clean sweep of the Royals (10-5-2), who they defeated at home 2-1 during the regular season on Oct. 1, was belief and persistence. “Their approach was cool, calm, collected the entire time,” Dollaske said. “We probably had the best training session we had all season yesterday, so you could just kind of feel it. Everybody was locked in, and they were ready to go. They were going to be even keel but still bring as much energy as they possibly could.” Jack Miller hammered home the game’s first goal in the third minute off a free kick to give Noblesville a 1-0 lead before HSE scored a pair of goals off deflected saves by goalkeeper Adam Carter as Isa Sayeed and later Neel Wetzel attacked the net. Then, the 25th minute struck and so did Ault. “That’s when we knew because we went down and they had all the momentum. He got that goal and it brought all the momentum back to us,” Barnes said. “That’s all we needed.” Barnes fired in the go-ahead goal in the 38th minute off a ricocheted save that slipped past HSE goalkeeper Jacob Kane. “We were down early, and it was a great feeling to get the go-ahead goal in,” Barnes said. “I couldn’t have done it without the cross, and the keeper fumbled it, and I was just there to put it away. They won the last four, and we wanted to break that streak. We knew with these guys we could do it.” A goal with 40.9 seconds left in the first half by Kyle Goad off a header assist by Barnes provided the cushion the Millers desperately needed. “We knew it was going to be a high-scoring game going into it. I let off a few I shouldn’t have, but my teammates held my back, and we kept playing through it,” Carter said. The defense held its ground in the second half as HSE increased the pressure at midfield, disrupting the Millers’ attempt to add another insurance goal. The Royals nearly tied the game in the 65th minute but a Brendan Hench goal was waved off due to an offside call. An interference call against Tyler Puliam as he collided with Carter in goal erased another would-be goal in the 49th minute

Kam Greenwald cut the Royals’ deficit 4-3 in the 71st minute, but several crucial saves by Carter in the final 8:53 and two more in the final 1:30 preserved seventh straight win and the championship trophy celebration. “We felt it turn. Even when they got their third goal, you could tell we were still locked in,” Dollaske said. “It was fantastic. It should have been 2-0 when Harrison Christman hit the post (in the first half), but yeah, we feel behind and our defense kind of bailed us out a couple of times. Our goalkeeper bailed us out a couple of times, so it was a collective team effort.” It took everything the Millers had to stop the Royals, who had been a thorn in Noblesville’s side since 2015, eliminating Noblesville every year during their title runs. “It feels good because honestly, we felt like this the past two years when they knocked us out. Two years ago, they beat us with eight seconds to go. Last year, they beat us in PKs, so it definitely feels great to reverse the tables,” Dollaske said. Up next, the Millers travel to Kokomo for regional the coming Saturday where they will face unranked Harrison (11-6-1) in the semifinals at 10 a.m. “It’s a dream come true. We have some of the best, youngest talent out there with (sophomores) Palmer, Spencer (Holland), (junior) Drew Barnes. It just adds to our senior crew as well,” Carter said. “It’s been great, young and old, and feeding off each other.”

The Noblesville girls soccer team won the Sectional 8 championship on Saturday, beating Hamilton Southeastern 3-1. It's the third sectional title in four years for the Millers, who play Fort Wayne Carroll next weekend at the Logansport regional.

Millers, 'Hounds, Huskies are champions

Three Hamilton County girls soccer teams won sectional championships on Saturday.

At Hamilton Southeastern, No. 2-ranked Noblesville beat the No. 3-ranked Royals to win Class 3A Sectional 8. It marked the third sectional title in four years for the Millers, and their first since 2017.

Noblesville dominated the first half. Jenna Chatterton scored the Millers' first goal in the 19th minute. The lead held at 1-0 until the 3:03 mark, when Makenna Maloy's goal put Noblesville up 2-0. But the Millers weren't done yet: Elana Chatterton scored with 18.4 seconds left in the half, with Jenna Chatterton providing the assist.

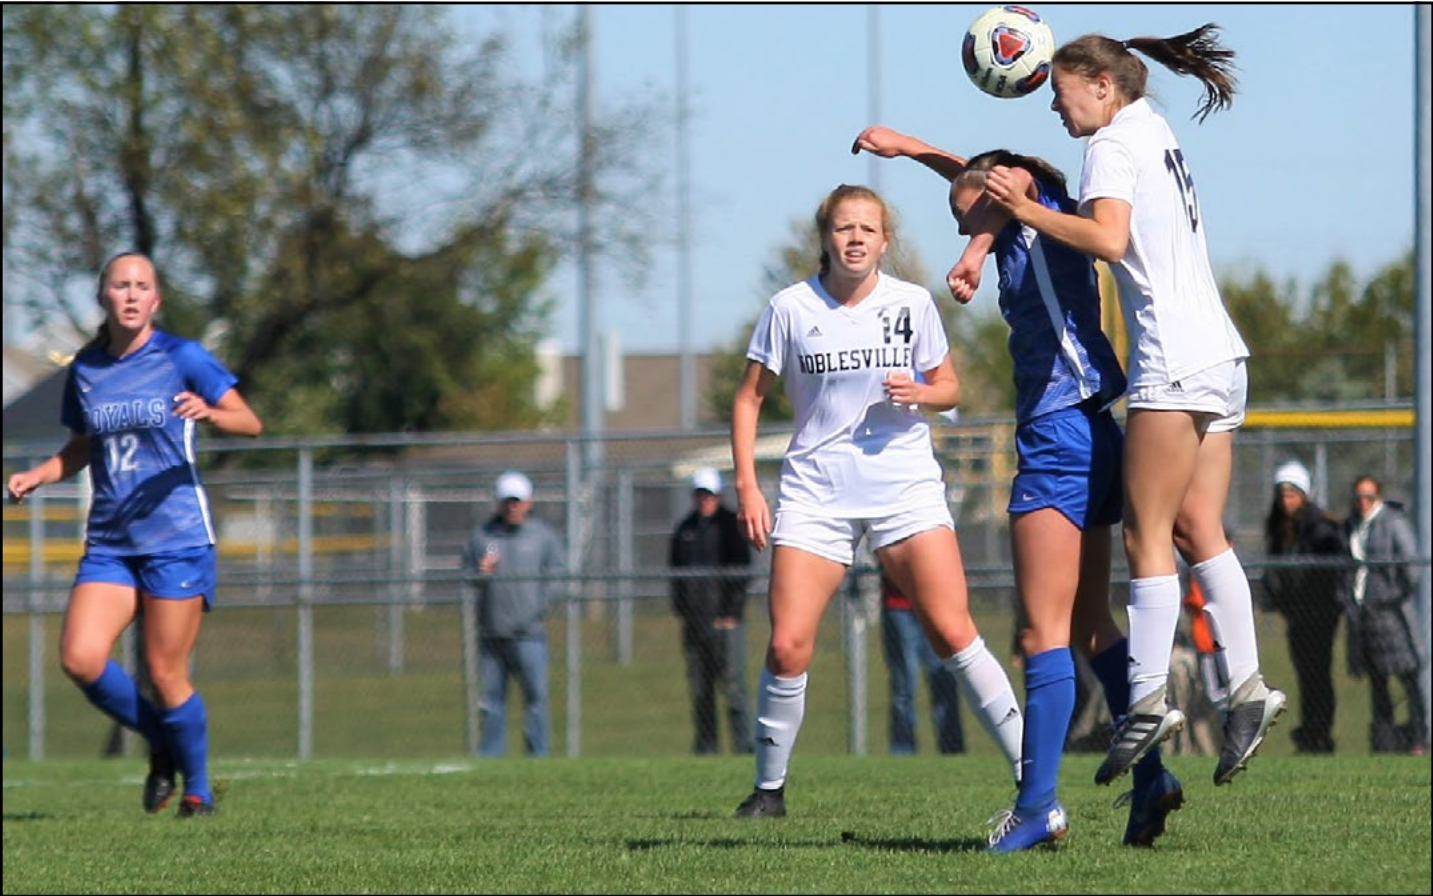

After all that, Noblesville led 3-0 at halftime. The Royals came out aggressive in the beginning of the second half, but the Millers' defense was able to hold them off. Southeastern got on the board with 8:43 left in the game; Ashley Wilson scored with Layla Brown making the assist. But Noblesville held on for the win, collecting the school's 10th girls soccer sectional title.

The Millers advance to next Saturday's Logansport regional, where they will play No. 15 Fort Wayne Carroll. Noblesville is 13-0-3, while Southeastern finished its season at 16-3.

Over at Carmel, the No. 1-ranked and defending 3A state champions beat Guerin Catholic 2-0 to win the Sectional 10 championship.

The Greyhounds scored both of their goals in the first half. Brooke Bailey got Carmel on the board in the sixth minute with Kelsie James making the assist.

"That sort of decided the game, I think," said Greyhounds coach Frank Dixon. "We missed two or three other ones that were just there, and then all of a sudden, you get those chances and then you don't get them anymore. We could've put the game away early, and all of a sudden it turned into 'just hang on.'"

James then scored her own goal with 2:22 left in the half, off an assist from Cassidy Eckstein.

Erin Baker made three goalkeeper saves for Carmel, with Olivia Labus making five saves for the Golden Eagles. Guerin Catholic finished its season 8-7-2, but Greyhounds coach Frank Dixon noted that came against a tough schedule, having finished its season against top 10 teams Penn and South Bend St. Joseph.

"I knew that they would be better than their record would indicate," said Dixon.

Carmel won its 16th sectional championship. This was the first time the 'Hounds won back-to-back sectional titles since their 11-year streak of championships from 1994 to 2004.

The Greyhounds are now 15-0-3 and advance to the New Palestine regional, where they will play No. 8 Center Grove next Saturday.

tional championship since 2014, beating Yorktown 1-0 to claim the Class 2A Sectional 24 trophy at New Castle.

It was battle of ranked teams, with the Huskies rated No. 18 and the Tigers No. 20. As such, it was a close game the entire way, with the first half ending in a 0-0 tie. Heights began to work more balls across the middle in the second half, and finally broke through in the 58th minute when Emily Stirn sent a ball into the 18. Kyndall Ferguson won it and put it into the net.

This marks the 10th sectional championship for Heights, which is 13-2-4 for the season and will play No. 9 Bishop Dwenger next Saturday at the Northwestern regional.

NHS girls win first title in 10 years, Carmel boys continue streak, Fishers sweeps Huskies' Maria Mitchell takes girls race in school record

The Noblesville girls cross country team gave its home field a performance to remember on Saturday.

The Millers won their own sectional, scoring 34 points to easily take the team championship at the Chanquapin Ridge course at White River Elementary School. Noblesville had four of the top nine runners, all of whom finished the 5,000-meter course in under 19 minutes.

Bella Sharples-Gordon led the way by taking fourth, then Brooke Lahee, Paige Hazelrigg, Sophie Reichard and Madison King finished in places six through nine. After all that, the Millers won their first sectional title since 2009 and third in school history.

Several other teams had great days. Hamilton Heights’ Maria Mitchell won the individual race, setting a new Huskies’ school record by clocking in at 18:14.63.

Westfield finished in second place as a team. Sophia Brown and Sophie Porter took 10th and 11th respectively, and the Shamrocks were the only team to have all of their runners finish under 20 minutes.

Carmel took third place with 77 points, Emily Hand led the Greyhounds by finishing in 12th. Guerin Catholic was fourth as a team, with Bridget Gallagher cruising to a third-place finish.

The top five teams and top 10 individuals not on an advancing team move to next week’s regional, also at Noblesville. Mitchell is the first individual to advance, and she will be joined by Heights teammates Morgan Guthrie, Chloe Henderson and Madison Dotlich. University sent two runners on to the regional: Charlotte Kumler and Jada Swearingen.

In the boys event, Carmel won the team championship, scoring 26 points. This marked the 12th consecutive title for the Greyhounds, and extended their state-leading total to 45 championships.

Carmel had five of its runners finish in the top eight, including individual champion Kole Mathison, who clocked in at 15:32.71. Charlie Schuman placed fourth, then Ben Myers, Will Murphy and Ben Johnson took sixth, seventh and eighth.

Noblesville finished second with a score of 49 points. The Millers had two of the top three runners, with Cole Kimmel placing second and Travis Hickner taking third. Andrew Anderson finished in ninth place.

Westfield was third as a team, with Kai Connor placing fifth for the Shamrocks. Guerin Catholic took fourth; Austin Callahan led the Golden Eagles by finishing 11th.

In addition to those teams, three runners each from Hamilton Heights and University advanced to the regional. Noah Laramore, Lucca Conti and Isaiah Smith moved on for the Trailblazers, while Price Knowles, Preston Miller and Clayton Forrer advanced for the Huskies.
