Democrats taste electoral success for first time in Fishers and Carmel

By FRED SWIFT
ReadTheReporter.com

For the first time in history, Democrats have been elected to city councils in Fishers and Carmel.

While it may not seem like winning a total of three seats out of 11 contested council races is impressive, it is a major breakthrough for Democrats. And, it is likely to build momentum for next year.

In Fishers, Democrat Samantha DeLong defeated Republican Eric Moeller by 32 votes, and Jocelyn Vare bested Rich Block by more than 500 votes for an at-large council seat. Republicans prevailed for the other seven. Mayor Scott Fadness was re-elected without opposition.

In Carmel, Miles Nelson, a Democrat, won over Debra Minott in a new council district by a margin of 1,467 to 1,151, while the GOP won the other eight seats on the nine-member council. Mayor Jim Brainard got more than 10,000 votes but didn't need them. He was unopposed.

Republicans swept the election for council in Noblesville and in Westfield where Mayor Andy Cook fended off a challenge from Libertarian Donald Rainwater 3,168 to 1,991, and Mike Johns won the only contested council race over independent Kate Snedeker. Voters made Chris Jensen officially the city's mayor-elect. He was unopposed and has already begun forming his new administration.

DeLong

Jerry Cook was elected to the town council in Cicero over Brad Baker in the only race on the town's ballot.

Republicans were surprised and disappointed by the Democratic wins in Fishers and Carmel, but their fortunes may not be fading as straight ticket Republican votes outnumbered straight ticket Democrat votes 8,878 to 1,867 countywide. The total voter turnout was very low at only 15.6 percent countywide.

Democrats had figured

"This is a major change when you look at the county. The county has always been solid Republican. This time many of our candidates were in the high 40 percent of the vote range, and we had three candidates that won."

"We have now broken into Carmel and Fishers that have previously been 100 percent Republican council. Now we have a voice on those councils and hopefully a higher degree of transparency and question answering, which the councils have avoided over the past years."

"It is a major change. Last year we had the first Democrat elected in 58 years. Now we have the first Democrat elected to city councils."

"A lot of people are moving into the county with a very high educational and income level. They are more inclined to look and ask questions of the candidates."

"People are interested in what's going on. That the councils have been approving things without any public comment is one of the factors that we promoted a lot with our candidates."

— Hamilton County Democratic Party Chair Joe Weingarten

they would do better with a low turnout if they could get their hardcore supporters to the polls.

Carmel had the best turnout at just under 20 percent, and that may have been because of a school tax referendum in which voters were asked to consider increasing property taxes to provide more school security. That referendum passed with 69 percent approval.

Construction now underway on Westfield's Grand Junction Plaza

The REPORTER

On Nov. 4, Westfield Mayor Andy Cook joined city leaders and community members in breaking ground on the Grand Junction Plaza. The $35 million project will be the centerpiece of the city's new downtown.

"This is truly a remarkable day for the city of Westfield," said Cook. "We have worked long and hard to develop what we know will be a wonderful amenity for our residents now and for generations to come. This was a true community-inspired project from the very beginning more than a decade ago. I am proud of the level of involvement this community put behind the Plaza."

The six-acre park, designed by the renowned firm David Rubin Land Collective, will feature greenspace, trails, an amphitheater and ice-skating rink. The Grand

The Grand Junction Plaza is reportedly already bring economic development to downtown Westfield, and Old Town Properties has announced a $25 million investment in a mixed-use project in the heart of Westfield.

Junction Task Group, a volunteer citizens group, included the Plaza as an integral part of its master plan designed over the last ten years. The organization was instrumental in the concept development and design of the Grand Junction Plaza. In October 2018, the City announced the reconstruction of State Road 32, which was also a fundamental element of the Task Group's master plan.

As a result of the funding package approved by the Westfield City Council last spring, there will be no tax increase for residential property taxpayers through the City's funding plan for the Grand Junction Plaza. The Plaza is set to open in 2021.

Noblesville opens Riverwalk Trail extension to Southside Park

The REPORTER

Noblesville leaders have opened the extension of the Riverwalk Trail's southern portion from Division Street to Southside Park. This portion of the Riverwalk adds 1,530 feet of 8-foot-wide trail. It was completed by Midwest Paving LLC.

"The Riverwalk is a fantastic amenity for the city that provides trail connectivity and the beauty of nature and the White River," Mayor John Ditslear said. "This portion provides Southwest Quad residents with easier pedestrian access to downtown and extends this highly-used amenity."

Construction on the Riverwalk, a joint project between Noblesville and Hamilton County, began in 2008. Phase One of Riverwalk was a county project and consisted of creating a trail from the county employee parking lot east, underneath the Conner Street/State Road 32 Bridge and back up to the Hamilton County Judicial Center. Phase Two of Riverwalk was a city project, extending the trail under the Logan Street Bridge and up to where it now connects with the pedestrian bridge to Forest Park, which also connects to trails at Potter's Bridge

In 2016, the city created the southern portion of Riverwalk trail behind Riverside Cemetery that connected Maple Avenue to Division Street. Phase Three, a joint city-county project, connected the two portions behind the Judicial Center and joined with the City of Noblesville's southern extension.

The latest extension of the Riverwalk is the third major trail project the city has completed in 2019.

Carmel Parks' Inclusion chief receives NADTA national award

The REPORTER

Last Friday, Carmel Clay Parks & Recreation (CCPR) inclusion supervisor Michelle Yadon received the North American Drama Therapy Association (NADTA) 2019 Performance Award at NADTA's 40th Annual Conference in Philadelphia, Pa. The NADTA Performance Award recognizes exemplary use of live or recorded performance to facilitate individual or collective awareness and transformation. Yadon was nominated for the award by her peers in the drama therapy community and confirmed by the NADTA board of directors.

Yadon

Yadon is a Registered Drama Therapist, Certified Recreational Therapist, and Certified Parks and Recreation Professional. This award recognizes the robust drama therapy program she has built at CCPR. In 2016 she launched The Roundabout Playback Troupe, the nation's first inclusive playback troupe. She then introduced Shakespeare in the Park in 2017 and her take on Barrier-Free Theatre – as developed by Sally Bailey – in 2018. Through drama therapy and performance, she provides a safe space for participants to explore their identity as well as societal ideals.

"I'm incredibly honored and humbled to receive this award. My passion for drama therapy and inclusion is three-fold: supporting and empowering people to achieve their goals, supporting families in being inclusive, and supporting communities to break through stereotypes and accept all people," Yadon said. "Through drama therapy programming with Carmel Clay Parks & Recreation including The Roundabout Playback Troupe, Shakespeare in the Park and Barrier-Free Theatre, I've led a process that confronts societal stigma and systemic issues, and challenges our participants to understand themselves and the world around them. I'm thankful that I work for an organization that aligns so well with my ideals and allows me a platform to do the work I am so passionate about."

This Christmas, Westfield Playhouse is going Over the River and Through the Woods

By STU CLAMPITT
ReadTheReporter.com

Main Street Productions is counting down its final plays at the existing Westfield Playhouse, 1836 W. State Road 32, before the doors open at the new facility in downtown Westfield next spring. Next weekend will be the premier of the final holiday show in the old playhouse, Over the River and Through the Woods, written by Joe DiPietro and directed by Doug Davis.

According to Davis, this holiday comedy is a little different.

"They were looking for something that is not your regular Santa or Scrooge Christmas show," Davis said. "This has more of a family message for Christmas. We all grow up near our relatives and there comes a time when we have to decide – often due to work – if we are going to take a better job and move away from our relatives."

The six-person cast is made of veterans who have done quite a bit of theater and quite a bit of comedy. They are bringing a message that appeals to a wide audience this holiday season.

Penny Meyer

October 27, 1959 – November 4, 2019

Penny Meyer, 60, passed away peacefully Monday, November 4, 2019, due to a sudden urosepsis event. She was born on October 27, 1959 in Elwood to Russell and Mary Baugher. She married her friend and love, Ronald Meyer, in November 2016.

Penny loved to care for people. She was always looking for ways to support and offer guidance, often paired with her beautiful smile and laughter. A kind word, an embrace, or one of the many "cures" she had for any possible ailment was the manner she used to remedy any issue. Her ability to inject humor into a situation was a gift she had and shared generously with all who knew her. The health and happiness of her loved ones was of upmost importance and, if you were on the receiving end of that comfort, you were blessed by her servant heart.

Penny had a long work history that spanned many careers from banking, law enforcement and dentistry. She had a strong work ethic and lived by the motto that you "Leave things better than the way you found them."

She never lived in a house because she made her dwelling into a home. It was warm, comfortable and always smelled good. She would tell you that she wasn't a very good cook, but she could "doctor anything up" and make it delicious. Even her famous mac-n-cheese was a doctored-up version of Kraft Deluxe! When she married a man who loved to cook, she made happy memories learning to cook what she called "real" food.

Her strong faith and devotion to God was a hallmark of her life. She loved to share her knowledge of God's love and help people develop their own personal relationship with the Lord. Beginning at a young age at the knee of her grandfather, she learned of the unconditional love and support that strong faith provides. She studied from his very Bible until her last day.

Penny is survived by many loving family members and a host of friends, all of whom she loved deeply and shaped their lives into the people they are today.

A Celebration of Life was held on Friday afternoon, November 8, 2019, at Randall & Roberts Funeral Center, 1685 Westfield Road, Noblesville.

Penny loved flowers, but would appreciate donations be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital®, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105-9959, and Give Kids A Smile®, ADA Foundation, P.O. Box 6291, Chicago, IL 60680-6291 in her honor.

Michael Baker Kraft
November 2, 2019

Michael Baker Kraft, 84, Noblesville native, died November 2 in Washington, D.C. of complications from dementia. Immediate surviving family include Elizabeth Harvey Kraft, formerly of Crawfordsville, his daughter Katherine, her husband Michael, and their daughters Lindsay and Julia of Chicago. His three remaining brothers, Jacob, Timothy and John, grew up in Noblesville and now live in Florida and New Mexico.

Though he lived most of his adult life in Washington, D.C., his devotion to his Indiana home defined his life and his long political career. After serving three years as an officer in the U.S. Navy, he was briefly a reporter for the Logansport Pharos Tribune. It was in that capacity that he interviewed Senator Vance Hartke, which led to a job as press secretary in Hartke's Washington office. He played a guiding role in the election campaigns of former Congressman Philip Sharp of Muncie, for whom he worked as Chief of Staff. He was a founder of Sagamore Associates (now Faegre Baker Daniels Consulting), and served as a liaison to cities including Indianapolis and South Bend.

Kraft remained dedicated to the welfare of his hometown and led the efforts to renovate buildings around the town square of Noblesville. The buildings he revitalized include the old Wild Building, which now houses Alexander's On the Square and Little Bloomers, and the old Western Auto location, now home to the Noblesville Antique Mall. Those buildings are now owned by his Noblesville cousin, Bret Richardson. He also, with a partner, renovated the location of Matteo's Restaurant on North Ninth Street. For his work there he received a Downtown Revitalization Award from the Indiana Main Street organization, as well as an award from the Noblesville Preservation Alliance.

For decades, Kraft was the connection in Washington for dozens of Hoosier political aspirants arriving in the capital. He often hired some of the newcomers as interns in the Sharp congressional office, including current Indianapolis mayor Joe Hogsett. He was a past president of the Indiana Society of Washington, D.C., an organization which celebrates Hoosier pride with events including the Indiana Inaugural Ball. In 1994, Governor Evan Bayh designated Kraft as a Sagamore of the Wabash. The award, which was considered the highest honor that could be bestowed on a Hoosier, described the recipient as "distinguished by his humanity in living, his loyalty in friendship, his wisdom in council, and his inspiration in leadership."

He will be remembered by many for his customary farewell to friends and family: "Go forth and do good."

There will be a memorial service at 11 a.m. on Saturday, November 16 at Foundry United Methodist Church, 1500 16th St. NW, Washington, D.C. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that any donations be made to the International Rescue Committee (rescue.org) or to Martha's Table (marthastable.org).

Early in her life Peggy worked for American States Insurance Company and later retired alongside her publisher husband, Bill Pace, from The Topics Newspapers in 1986. She attended Faith Community Church. Peggy was an avid Bingo and Bridge player. She enjoyed sitting out on her patio of her home on Morse Lake watching the water and the boats. Peggy and Bill would vacation in Destin, Fla., during the winter months. She seldom missed a Thursday night at Pebble Brook Golf Club to listen to Dave Lowe, who always played "Sentimental Journey" for her. Peggy loved spending time with her family.

She is survived by her daughters, Patti (Mike) Lewis, Cindy Leinhos and Sandy (Jeff) Dunham; grandchildren, Michael (Jennifer) Lewis, Jr., Billy Lewis, Mandi (Aaron) Gilliland, Denny Leinhos, Taylor (Eric) Freeman and Samantha West; great-grandchildren, Andrew, Lily and AJ Lewis, Nora, Charlotte and Nash Gilliland, Ayden Jones, and Camryn Leinhos-Mattingley; nieces, Sherri Hazelwood and Selina Copeland.

Betty Ann Ogden
June 2, 1925 – November 1, 2019

Betty Ann Ogden, a long-time resident of Fall Creek township, passed away on November 1, 2019, at the age of 94.

Betty was preceded in death by her husband of 53 years, Oren; a daughter, Phyllis; her eldest son, Kenneth; as well as her siblings, Florence, Fanny, Clifford, Mildred, and Dorothy.

Survivors include her children, Dennis (Jeanie), Richard (Kathy), Patricia Johnson (Chris), and Keith (Jeniffer). Betty was grandma and "mommer" to 9 grandchildren, Steven Ogden, Michael Ogden, Haley Wild, Matthew Ogden, Jennifer Milliken, Scott Lumpkin, Daniel Johnson, Andrew Johnson, and Lucas Ogden; as well as six great grandchildren. Betty's favorite niece, Beth Ann Adams, provided comfort and support prior to Betty's passing.

One other survivor requires mention, that being Katie, Betty's trusted American Bulldog. Katie's big booming bark spoke caution to any who entered and she was intensely protective of her friend and master. Getting back to her dog became her prime motivator to return to her home after several weeks of hospitalization. Near the end, the two old friends were reunited.

Betty was born the youngest of the six children of Lon and Pearl Cox, née Comer, and throughout her lifetime spoke fondly of her childhood on Herschel Street, near Riverside Park in Indianapolis. And while her memory faded somewhat in later life, on driving trips through the old neighborhood she was always able to identify names and the homes of all her childhood friends. Betty attended Shortridge High School, was a lifelong crossword puzzle enthusiast, and enjoyed music and relating stories about her children and grandkids.

After raising her own children, Betty became a frequent babysitter to several of her grandchildren as well as other kids in the Geist Road/111th Street neighborhood, where she lived from 1965 until her death. She was also a trusted homemaking advisor to many in the neighborhood. Betty was an avid cook and baker and her apple pie was truly the stuff of legend. Until very late in life, Thanksgiving transport from her home required multiple trips or vehicles, one for her and another for the pies.

Betty was not a demonstrative person but her children and others never questioned her love for her family and friends. With the loss of a child in infancy and her eldest son's debilitating illness in the 50s, Betty learned that with life's bigger challenges, you can't sweat the small stuff. Whether transporting her wheelchair-bound son across town in order to avoid a segregated handicapped/disabled classroom in the 50s (she was a pioneer for "mainstreaming" in education), hauling lumber to build a new home in the 60s, or transporting kids and grandkids in the 70s, 80s, 90s and beyond, Betty was always there when needed.

While Betty will be sorely missed by family and friends. We celebrate her long life, well lived, and a peaceful passing.

Services were held on Tuesday, November 12, 2019 at Randall & Roberts Fishers Mortuary, 12010 Allisonville Road, Fishers, with Pastor Michael McDonough officiating. Visitation was held prior to the service. Burial was at Highland Cemetery in Fishers.

Memorial contributions may be made to Humane Society for Hamilton County, 1721 Pleasant St., Suite B, Noblesville, IN 46060.

In the aftermath of last Tuesday's election, which resulted in two Democrats being elected to the Fishers City Council, I requested a reaction from Fishers Mayor Scott Fadness. His statement is below:

"I'm sincerely disappointed to lose two great members of our city council. Rich Block has been instrumental in much of our economic development success over the last few years and Eric Moeller has been a strong advocate for neighborhoods in his district.

"Our community is growing and change comes with that. Over the coming weeks, I am committed to meeting with incoming councilors Samantha DeLong and Jocelyn Vare to discuss ways we can work together to continue the progress in Fishers to be a smart, vibrant, and entrepreneurial city."

Why football is important

The seasoning of life

Editor's Note: The Sheridan Student Column is brought to readers by Sheridan High School's 10th grade English class, taught by Abby Williams.

Many football players in Indiana played their last game of the season this past week. For some, it was the last game of their entire high school career.

My team was amongst the many that didn't win. It was sad to see the season end as this was one of the closest teams I have ever been on. What made it even sadder was the fact that this was the last time the seniors would play on this field. The feeling that these seniors had were feelings that every player will unfortunately go through. Knowing that you just played your last game, and that the next time you step in this stadium you'll just be a spectator, is completely devastating.

While this was sad, it also helped me realize the importance of football in the lives of my teammates and me. For us, this wasn't just a sport. For all of us that have played football, it's more than just a game: it's a pathway for young boys to turn into men through the brotherhood it creates and the lessons it teaches. These qualities are what makes football an important sport.

In my opinion, football teams are the closest of any sports team. From an outside perspective, football may just be a game, but for us players, it's a brotherhood. Most of us have been in this brotherhood since elementary school. So, when the day comes of the final play, the final snap, the final game, it isn't just the end of a football career, it's the end of a family. Nothing can replicate this closeness. I believe football is the most team-oriented of all K-12 sports. Everyone has a job to do every play. If one person messes up, the whole play can be ruined. Players have to be able to trust their teammates. This trust turns to a bond, which develops into a brotherhood. This brotherhood teaches young boys how to connect to others and leads to healthy relationships.

Playing football teaches many valuable life lessons. It holds us accountable for our actions, showing us that only we can make ourselves better. If someone makes a mistake, they own up to it and fix it the next play. Players learn that without hard work and perseverance you'll get nowhere. We are expected to give our 100 percent, both mentally and physically, on and off the field.

During the season we learn how to focus and get serious when needed, but also how to have fun. In the off-season players must continue to work out and better themselves. Football demands only our best. This helps create a healthy work ethic and prepares us for adult life. Players will be better prepared to work a job and raise a family. These are very important lessons for young boys to learn.

Football has personally made me more of a man. I have learned many things through the years of my football, from fifth grade to now. Football truly is more than just a sport. It creates a brotherhood for many young boys and men from a young age. Players become very close with each other, creating many memorable and meaningful relationships. This brotherhood teaches us how to communicate and form healthy bonds with others.

Football also teaches us how to trust and have faith with those we work with. We also learn many valuable lessons. Players learn how to hold themselves accountable for their actions and mistakes. Players reach and surpass expectations by putting in 100 percent effort and working hard.

Football creates a good foundation for young boys in leading a successful life. These qualities are what makes football such an important sport. If given the chance, every young boy should at least give football a try. They definitely won't regret it.

"In my humble opinion."

Whenever I say that, my husband gets a smile on his face. I know what he is thinking. Humble?

Well, in my opinion.

You see at the age of 64 my opinions are at the least ... seasoned.

Over the years, as I have reached the "fall" of my existence, my opinions have changed.

I am less judgmental. I am more understanding and I am slower to speak ... well, most of the time.

I realize that life is truly too short to put up with the negativity that others want to spew onto me. Too short to allow others to clutter my brain with their opinion of me. Too short to waste my time trying to please the unpleasable.

I am just doing the best I can to live life with a purpose – a purpose that includes kindness mixed in with a bit of empathy and sympathy.

Sometimes I am at a loss for words, so I just show up. Sometimes my friends just need someone to sit and cry with them.

I avoid clichés like, "Everything happens for a reason." I don't believe it does. Life just happens and we deal with it the best we know how.

I don't try to read into what someone says or what I think they are meaning to say. If they have an ulterior motive for saying what they say, so be it. I am neither their judge nor their jury. If someone misinterprets what I am saying, that is on them, not me.

If someone says something about me that is untrue, that is on them.

I often wish I could say or do something more for someone who is hurting. I've learned that showing up with a homemade meal can say a lot.

I have learned the value of complimenting a stranger. Words sweetly spoken can make a heart smile. We never know what that heart is going through.

I have learned that a note of concern or encouragement is worth its weight in gold. Oh, the gift of a handwritten note.

Words of appreciation go a long way in any relationship. Taking someone for granted is a huge NO NO.

I will continue to give my opinion, humble or not. However, I will always try to season it and serve it with a spoonful of sugar and a grain of salt.

Smith's Jewelers, Kirk Hardware for sale following historic runs

By FRED SWIFT
ReadTheReporter.com

Two of the longest-running businesses on the Noblesville Courthouse Square are up for sale with owners planning retirements.

Smith Jewelry Store, owned and operated by Odell Lakes, and Kirk Hardware, owned by Bill Prater, have both been in business longer than most folks can remember. They are truly institutions on the Square. Smith Jewelers opened 73 years ago at its present location in the historic building at 98 N. 9th St., built in 1870 by the Masonic Lodge, which occupied an upper level until moving to its South 9th Street location.

Lakes offers watch repair and engraved gifts in addition to jewelry and watches. He purchased the business in 1970. He has a potential buyer and will give the buyer first option to also purchase the building.

Odell will retire in March. He currently has a "retirement sale" in progress, but hopes to see the business remain after the sale. He will keep his home in Carmel, but also plans to spend time in the South during retirement.

Kirk's is the iconic small-town hardware store jammed with hardware and houseware items of all sorts. It still has ladders on rollers to allow access to items of high shelves. The repair of window screens and storm windows and the repair of lamps are among the services Prater offers.

The store was started in 1889 by the Griffin Brothers. The name Kirk was adopted in the early 1950s when Roy Kirk bought the store. Later owned by David Kingsolver, Prater, who has worked at the store for 38 years, purchased the operation in 2002.

The building at 848 Logan St. dates to 1889. For several years it housed the Noblesville Boys Club on the third floor until the club moved to facilities on East Conner Street.

A change of "personality" will certainly be seen on the square with the retirement of Lakes and Prater, two of its most dedicated and longest-serving business owners.

County's Veterans Court helping to fight addiction, mental health issues

The REPORTER

Corporal Kyle Reynolds was arrested five times in the first three years after returning from active duty in Afghanistan. The U.S. Marine Corps gunsmith was charged with disorderly conduct and felony assault on a police officer. He was starting down prison time.

"I drank all the time," says the now 30-year-old. "But it caught up with me real fast when I got out of the Marines. I got divorced and wasn't coping with my feelings well. I was letting rage come out without control. If I hadn't found Veterans Court, I'd be drunk or in jail."

Reynolds is one of 25 veterans to graduate from Hamilton County's Veterans Court in the last three years. Superior Court 3 Judge William Hughes launched Veterans Court in 2016 after noticing an uptick in substance abuse and crime among the county's former military personnel.

"There is a culture in the military that you work hard, and you play very hard," Judge Hughes explains. "Because of where the military serves, often that's in a restricted area, and unfortunately drugs and alcohol are almost always there."

The National Institute on Drug Abuse says more than one in 10 veterans have been diagnosed with a substance use disorder, slightly higher than the general population. And to further complicate the matter, "they face an array of challenges – unpredictable deployments, the risk of injury, and being away from home." Veterans are also at risk of being diagnosed with a co-occurring disorder – such as substance abuse and PTSD.

"Where these folks are coming from and their journey in life is different than you and me," Judge Hughes explains. "If we're going to respond and make sure they have the best possibility of not reoffending we have to understand those differences."

Reynolds' substance abuse escalated after a near-fatal car accident upon his return from Afghanistan. A traumatic brain injury caused him anxiety and partial blindness. Veterans Court helped put him in touch with the Department of Defense and Veterans Administration. Reynolds has been sober for six years and is living on a disability pension he earned through his service.

Reynolds is now a proud homeowner and volunteers as a counselor at his church's youth group.

"Veterans Court gave me something that I hadn't had since the Marines; structure and accountability," said Reynolds.

Judge Hughes agrees: "This program works because there is a very distinct chain of command, just like in the military."

Veterans Court provides access to a continuum of medical, mental, alcohol and drug treatment, and rehabilitation services. Participants are required to follow and successfully complete an evidence-based treatment plan as well as attend regular court appearances. Abstinence from alcohol and other drugs is monitored by frequent testing. The entire process can take up to three years to complete.

The Carmel football team won its seventh straight sectional last Friday. Turn to Page A7 for the story.

Carmel beats Westfield for sectional title

By RICHIE HALL

CARMEL – The Carmel football tradition added yet another chapter to its already large book last Friday.

The Greyhounds won their seventh consecutive sectional, beating Westfield 35-7 at Carmel Stadium for the Class 6A Sectional 4 championship. The victory also extends the Greyhounds’ record of total sectional titles to 31, and sends them up to next week’s Regional 2 championship at Homestead.

“I don’t want to ever take it for granted,” said Carmel coach John Hebert. “I don’t feel like the kids are. You win them and you take a couple hours and then you start thinking about the next week. But after the season’s over we’ll reflect back on it, sure.”

The Greyhounds scored two touchdowns in each of the first two quarters. In their first possession, Carmel quarterback Christian Williams got into Shamrock territory with a 44-yard pass to Dylan Downing. Another pass to Colton Parker moved the ‘Hounds into the red zone, and Downing was soon in the end zone, scoring on a 10-yard run.

Williams finished the quarter by connecting with Parker again for 36 yards, and that pass resulted in Carmel’s second touchdown of the period. It was the first of two TD receptions for Parker in the game.

“The first one was contested, he had to turn himself around and caught that ball with a guy hanging on him,” said Hebert. “But he’s an excellent player.”

Early in the second quarter, Williams tossed a 34-yard throw to Downing, who got it down to the one-yard line. Williams then punched the ball in on the next play.

The Greyhounds’ fourth touchdown of the game came from Zach White, who ran 35 yards into the end zone. Spencer Hanna made all four extra-point kicks in the first half, which finished with Carmel ahead 28-0.

Williams had one more touchdown pass to throw, and Parker had one more to catch. That came with 8:43 left in the third quarter, with the two connecting on a 32-yard scoring pass play. Hanna made the extra point, giving him a perfect mark of 5-for-5 for the game.

Also perfect was Williams, who completed all nine of his passes in the game. Williams totaled 193 yards through the air – not bad for someone who started the season as a receiver and was initially supposed to be a backup quarterback.

“We had some injuries a couple games in and we started getting him in and preparing him to be a backup in case we needed him,” said Hebert. “He just kept proving to us that there was something really special about him and that’s what we’re seeing. And he’s a natural leader. He’s a 4.2-point grade point average and a 1400 SAT scorer. He’s almost too good to be true and a great athlete, too.”

Parker totaled 78 yards receiving in his three catches, while Downing had two receptions for 76 yards. White was the leading rusher with 45 yards.

Westfield scored its touchdown in the fourth quarter. Bryson Hoover blocked a Carmel punt, then scooped it up near the 20-yard line and ran it into the end zone. Sean Sullivan kicked the Shamrocks’ extra point.

Quarterback Camden Simons had a solid night, completing 12 of 21 attempts for 102 yards. Mason Pienings led the receptions with four, and Eli Patchett had 36 yards rushing. Micah Hauser had 11 tackles.

“I’m just proud, mainly, of the kind of kids that they are,” said Westfield coach Jake Gilbert. “They’re great kids, they’re great people. We care about each other deeply. We’re a very close group. I know we didn’t play well enough tonight. All credit goes to Carmel, they were awesome tonight.”

Westfield finished its season 6-5, while the Greyhounds improved to 8-3.

Heights hosts Noblesville on Friday . . . Huskies drop two games

Hamilton Heights opened its season by dropping two games last week.

Last Wednesday, the Huskies traveled to and fell to the Bulldogs 58-40. Brownsburg got on top of the Huskies early, leading 19-9 after the first quarter. Heights played even with the Bulldogs in the other three periods, but Brownsburg still outscored them in each of those quarters, leading 29-18 at halftime.

Junior Jillian Osswald led the Huskies scoring with 12 points, while sophomore MyKayla Moran added 11 points and led the rebounding with six boards. Sophomore Sydney Runyan pulled five rebounds.

In addition to Osswald and Moran, other returning starters include seniors Bayleigh Runner and Payton Dissett.

Hamilton Heights fought back to overtime at Danville last Saturday before falling to the Warriors 54-51.

The Huskies trailed 29-22 at halftime, but outscored Danville 16-10 in the third quarter to pull within one point. Heights got that point back in the fourth period, which ended at 49-49, but the Warriors outscored the Huskies 5-2 in the extra period.

Osswald led in scoring with 20 points; Cherry said she was “spectacular” in the game. Moran also had a great game, scoring 12 points and leading the rebounds with eight. Osswald pulled five rebounds. Runner added 11 points and five rebounds.

Principal payable at The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A., Indianapolis, Indiana, or by wire transfer to depositories on the payment date; Interest payable by check mailed one business day prior to interest payment date or by wire transfer to depositories on the interest payment date to registered owners or depositories as of the fifteenth day immediately preceding the interest payment date; Maturing on January 15 and July 15 beginning no earlier than July 15, 2020 through no later than January 15, 2023 on the dates and amounts as provided by the Library prior to the sale.
The Library reserves the right to adjust the maturity schedule following the sale in order to accomplish the Library's financial objectives by reallocating debt service based upon the rates by the successful bidder (the "Purchaser").
Notice is hereby given that electronic proposals will be received via PARITY®, in the manner described below, up until the hour of 11:00 a.m. (Indianapolis Time), on November 21, 2019. Bids may be submitted electronically via PARITY® pursuant to this Notice until the time specified in the Notice, but no bid will be received after the time for receiving bids specified above. To the extent any instructions or directions set forth in PARITY® conflict with this Notice, the terms of this Notice shall control. Additionally, upon request, the written responses will be emailed to any other interested bidder. Bidders should review this notice as well as the preliminary official statement and submit any questions in advance of this deadline to submit questions.
The Bonds have been designated by the Library as qualified tax exempt obligations for purposes of Section 265(b)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended to the date hereof (the "Code").
The Bonds are not redeemable at the option of the Library prior to maturity.
Bidders for the Bonds will be required to name the purchase price, not less than 99.50% of par and the interest rate or rates which the Bonds are to bear. Such interest rate or rates must be in multiples of 1/8th or 1/100th of 1%. Bids specifying two or more interest rates shall also specify the amount and maturities of the Bonds bearing each rate, but all Bonds maturing on the same date shall bear the same single interest rate. The Bonds will be awarded to the lowest responsible and responsive bidder whose bid is submitted in accordance herewith. The winning bidder will be the one who offers the lowest net interest cost to the Library, to be determined by computing the total interest on all of the Bonds to their maturities based upon the schedule provided by the Library prior to the sale and deducting therefrom the premium bid, if any, and adding thereto the discount bid, if any. Any premium bid must be paid at closing as a part of the purchase price. Although not a term of sale, it is requested that each bid show the net dollar interest cost from the date of the Bonds to final maturity and the net effective average interest rate. No conditional bids will be considered. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids. If an acceptable bid is not received for the Bonds on the date of sale hereinbefore fixed, the sale may be continued from day to day thereafter without further advertisement, during which time no bid which provides a higher net interest cost to the Library than the best bid received at the time of the advertised sale will be considered.
A good faith deposit ("Deposit") in the form of cash or certified or cashier's check in the amount of $30,000 payable to the order of Carmel Clay Public Library is required to be submitted by the successful Purchaser not later than 3:30 p.m. (Indianapolis time) on the next business day following the award. If such Deposit is not received by that time, the Library may reject the bid. No interest on the Deposit will accrue to the Purchaser. The Deposit will be applied to the purchase price of the Bonds. In the event the Purchaser fails to honor the accepted bid, the Deposit will be retained by the Library as liquidated damages.
The Purchaser shall make payment for such Bonds and accept delivery thereof within five days after being notified that the Bonds are ready for delivery, at such place in the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, as the Purchaser may designate, or at such other location mutually agreed to by the Library and the Purchaser. The Bonds will be ready for delivery within 45 days after the date of sale. If the Library fails to have the Bonds ready for delivery prior to the close of banking hours on the forty-fifth day after the date of sale, the Purchaser may secure the release of the bid upon request in writing, filed with the Library. Unless otherwise requested by the winning bidder, the Purchaser is expected to apply to a securities depository registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") to make such Bonds depository-eligible. If the Bonds are reoffered by an underwriter, at the time of delivery of the Bonds to the Purchaser, the Purchaser will be required to certify to the Library the initial reoffering price to the public of a substantial amount of each maturity of the Bonds.
All provisions of the bid form and Preliminary Official Statement (as hereinafter defined) are incorporated herein. As set forth in the Preliminary Official Statement, the Purchaser agrees by submission of their bid to assist the Library in establishing the issue price of the Bonds under the terms outlined therein and shall execute and deliver to the Library at closing an "issue price" certificate, together with the supporting pricing wires or equivalent communications, with such modifications as may be appropriate or necessary, in the reasonable judgment of the Purchaser, the Library and Ice Miller LLP ("Bond Counsel").
Bidders must comply with the Rules of PARITY® (the "Rules") in addition to requirements of this Notice. To the extent there is a conflict between the Rules and this Notice, this Notice shall control. Bidders may change and submit bids as many times as they wish during the sale, but they may not withdraw a submitted bid. The last bid submitted by a bidder prior to the deadline for the receipt of bids will be compared to all other final bids to determine the winning bid. During the sale, no bidder will see any other bidder's bid, nor will they see the status of their bid relative to other bids (e.g., whether their bid is a leading bid).
It is anticipated that CUSIP identification numbers will be printed on the Bonds, but neither the failure to print such numbers on any Bond nor any error with respect thereto shall constitute cause for failure or refusal by the Purchaser therefore to accept delivery of and pay for the Bonds in accordance with the terms of its proposal. No CUSIP identification number shall be deemed to be a part of any Bond or a part of the contract evidenced thereby and no liability shall hereafter attach to the Library or any of its officers or agents because of or on account of such numbers. All expenses in relation to the printing of CUSIP identification numbers on the Bonds shall be paid for by the Library; provided, however, that the CUSIP Service Bureau charge for the assignment of said numbers shall be the responsibility of and shall be paid for by the Purchaser. The Purchaser will also be responsible for any other fees or expenses it incurs in connection with the resale of the Bonds.
The Bonds are being issued for the purpose of procuring funds to be the renovation, expansion and construction of library facilities, including site improvements, the acquisition of real estate and the purchase of equipment and technology in the Library district, and will be the direct obligations of the Library, payable out of ad valorem taxes to be collected on the taxable property within the Library; however, the Library's collection of the levy may be limited by operation of I.C. 6-1.1-20.6, which provides taxpayers with tax credits for property taxes attributable to different classes of property in an amount that exceeds certain percentages of the gross assessed value of that property. The Library is required by law to fully fund the payment of debt service on the Bonds in an amount sufficient to pay the debt service, regardless of any reduction in property tax collections due to the application of such tax credits. The Library may not be able to levy or collect additional property taxes to make up this shortfall. The Library is a library organized pursuant to the provisions of I.C. 20-23; the bonds will not be "private activity bonds" as defined in Section 141 of the Code.
The Library has prepared a Preliminary Official Statement ("Preliminary Official Statement") relating to the Bonds which it has deemed nearly final. A copy of the Preliminary Official Statement may be obtained from the Library's municipal advisor, Baker Tilly, 8365 Keystone Crossing, Suite 300, Indianapolis, Indiana 46240-2687. Within seven (7) business days of the sale, the Library will provide the successful bidder with sufficient copies of the Final Official Statement (the "Final Official Statement") in order for the Purchaser to comply with Section (b)(4) of SEC Rule 15c2-12 and the rules of the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board at the Library's expense. Additional copies, at the Purchaser's expense, must be requested within five (5) business days of the sale. Inquiries concerning matters contained in the Preliminary Official Statement must be made and pricing and other information necessary to complete the Final Official Statement must be submitted by the Purchaser within two (2) business days following the sale to be included in the Final Official Statement.
If the Bonds are reoffered by an underwriter, the Library agrees to enter into a continuing disclosure undertaking agreement, as amended and supplemented (the "Master Agreement"), in order to permit the Purchaser to comply with the SEC Rule 15c2-12, as amended to the date hereof. A copy of such Master Agreement is available from the Library or municipal advisor at the addresses below.
Further information relative to the Bonds and a copy of the Preliminary Official Statement may be obtained upon application to Bob Swanay, Director of the Library, 55 Fourth Avenue South East, Carmel, Indiana 46032. If bids are submitted by mail, they should be addressed to the Library, attention of Baker Tilly, 8365 Keystone Crossing, Suite 300, Indianapolis, Indiana 46240-2687.
These Bonds are offered subject to the approving opinion of Bond Counsel. The Library will furnish at its expense the bond counsel opinion, printed bond forms, a transcript of proceedings, and closing papers in the usual form showing no litigation questioning the validity of the Bonds at the time of delivery.

‘Rocks fall to Panthers, beat Pendleton

By RICHIE HALL
WESTFIELD – The Westfield girls basketball team gave itself a tough test in its season opener last Tuesday.

The Shamrocks hosted North Central at The Rock. Westfield got out to a hot start, but the Panthers’ depth and size soon took over, and sent North Central to a 62-39 victory.

The Panthers led 4-3 early in the first quarter, with Jasmine McWilliams scoring all of NC’s points and Shamrocks sophomore Alyssa Crockett hitting a 3-pointer. Westfield then went on a 10-0 run to jump ahead 13-4. Senior Ava Henson and sophomore Olivia Robey both made layins, then Robey and senior Ashtin DeCraene both drained 3s.

North Central finished the quarter on a 7-0 run to cut the Shamrocks’ lead to 13-11 by the end of the quarter, then made it an 8-0 run by opening the second with a free throw. DeCraene’s basket got the ‘Rocks back up 15-12, but the Panthers then scored nine unanswered points to go ahead 21-15.

A Robey layin and Crockett 3 cut North Central’s lead to 21-20. The Panthers finished the half with another scoring run, pouring in seven straight points to lead 27-20 at the break. That pattern would remain true in the second half: North Central made a run, Westfield would stop it with a couple baskets, then the Panthers would make another quick run.

“I feel like we just stopped managing the game,” said Shamrocks coach Ginny Smith. “We didn’t control the controllables.”

Smith was pleased with the first half, noting that her team held NC to only three offensive rebounds. But that changed in the second half, when the Panthers began to dominate on the glass.

“Maybe it was a little bit of fatigue,” said Smith. “Maybe it was just a little bit of, we just lost our mental focus.”

Smith complimented North Central, calling the Panthers “a good basketball team. They’re big, they’re long, they’re physical and they just find ways to score.”

Three Westfield players finished in double figures. Crockett scored 13 points, including three 3-pointers, and earned herself a double-double by grabbing 10 rebounds. DeCraene also nailed three 3s on her way to 12 points, while Robey, seeing her first significant varsity minutes, added 10 points.

“All in all, our effort was good, our kids played with heart and I felt like when we executed and did the things we were supposed to do, we were solid,” said Smith. “And we just fell apart from time to time.”

Henson pulled five rebounds. Robey handed out five assists, while Crockett dished out four. As for North Central, Meg Newman, a 6-foot-3 junior, scored 14 points, with Nakaih Hunter adding 12 points and McWilliams scoring 11 points.

“We knew going into it that they were bigger than us, that they were going to be more physical,” said Smith. “I think it’s just a good gauge for us right out of the gate. That’s game one. We don’t have to win that game. We’re working on getting better so we’re prepared for the end of the season, not the first game of the season.”

Westfield scored its first win of the season last Saturday, beating Pendleton Heights on the road 57-50.

The Shamrocks were in control in the first half, leading 17-10 in the first quarter and 31-18 at halftime. The Arabians blasted through the third period to take a 35-33 lead, but Westfield poured in 24 points in the fourth quarter to get the victory.

Ava Henson had an outstanding game, scoring 23 points. Alyssa Crockett added 18 points, including four 3-pointers, and pulled eight rebounds, dished out eight assists and blocked three shots.

The Shamrocks are 1-1 and play Friday at New Castle.

Sheridan starts 1-2 . . . 'Hawks win hard-fought game with Monrovia

By RICHIE HALL
SHERIDAN – The best way to deal with a tough loss is to come back and win right away.

The Sheridan girls basketball team had the opportunity to do that last Wednesday night. After falling at Frankton 66-23 in their season-opener last Tuesday, the Blackhawks returned home the next day and gave their crowd a reason to cheer with a hard-fought 74-66 win over Monrovia.

“It definitely felt good, especially after last night at Frankton,” said Sheridan coach Jaidlin Delph, who is beginning her second year as head coach of the ‘Hawks. “It was rough, and I think it was really good for the girls to be able to come back and play today, two days in a row, because they were still pretty mad from the night before. So I think it actually worked out, that back-to-back game.”

After a back-and-forth first quarter, Sheridan hit a couple baskets at the end of the period to take a 17-14 lead. That was actually the beginning of a 7-0 run that stretched into the second quarter. Katy Crail, Lillie Dickerson and Berkley Williams all made baskets during the run.

The Blackhawks got hot from beyond the arc in the second period. Williams hit an early 3-pointer to put the Blackhawks up 23-15. Monrovia answered with a basket, but Sheridan then embarked on an 11-0 run. Two freshmen led the way: Chaney Smith nailed two 3s and Jacquelynne Bates made one. Allie Delph added two free throws during the run.

Williams and Smith each hit one more 3-pointer late in the second quarter, which finished with the ‘Hawks ahead 43-23.

“We told them that they really need to make a name for themselves,” said Jaidlin Delph. “Prove a point and prove to everyone that we’re not a bad team, that we’re going to be a team that people struggle with this year some, and then hopefully we can improve upon our record from last year.”

The Bulldogs made a run of their own to start the third quarter, scoring 12 unanswered points to cut Sheridan’s lead to 43-35. But the ‘Hawks got their outside shooting going again, as Williams, Crail and Allie Delph all hit 3s and put Sheridan back up 56-39.

The Blackhawks led 59-44 after three quarters. Monrovia whittled that lead down to single digits and stayed around there for most of the fourth period, but Sheridan was able to make timely baskets in order to keep the Bulldogs at arm’s length. The closest Monrovia got was 69-64 with 29 seconds left, but the ‘Hawks finished the game out from the free throw line, with Emma Went making 3 of 4 free throws and Crail going 2-for-2.

Coach Delph credited maturity for helping her team to hang on for the win.

“We are a young team, but we do have experience and I think that helped a lot, some of the kids have had experience playing in these stressful games last year,” said Delph. “That definitely helps and our leadership from Allie Delph is unmatched. She put the team on her back and really handled it.”

Allie Delph was one of three players in double figures with 16 points, and also had seven steals, six rebounds and four assists. Crail and Williams both added 13 points, with Williams and Smith both making three 3s. Sheridan had 12 3-pointers for the game.

“I don’t know where it came from, but I hope it sticks around all season,” said Jaidlin Delph.

In the game with Frankton, Kaylie Kantz led Sheridan with eight points. Went scored six, followed by Delph with three, Crail and Dickerson with two points each, and Reed and Taylor Bates both had one.

Sheridan dropped an away game at Bethesda Christian last Friday, by the score of 65-28.

The Patriots led 16-3 after the first quarter and 39-9 at halftime. Allie Delph led the Blackhawks with 11 points and also made four steals. Kaylie Kantz pulled seven rebounds, with Emma Went collecting six rebounds.

Sheridan is 1-2 and will host Covenant Christian on Tuesday and Carroll on Friday.

Tigers begin season 3-0

Fishers got off to a 3-0 start to open the season last week.

Last Tuesday, the Tigers got a 60-38 victory at Warren Central Tuesday. Fishers outscored Warren in each quarter, leading 30-19 at halftime. Katie Burton led all scorers with 16 points, and also had four steals.

Burton was the first of four Tigers players to reach double figures: Audra Emmerson added 12 points, Tamia Perryman scored 11 points and Kaitlynn Feagan hit three 3-pointers on her way to 10 points. Lydia Stullken had seven rebounds.

Fishers won both of its Southeastern Classic games last Saturday.

In the morning, the Tigers beat Ben Davis 64-54 in a game played at the Royals’ gym. Fishers jumped out to a 15-10 lead after the first quarter, then was up 34-24 at halftime.

Burton scored 20 points to lead the Tigers, and also had seven rebounds and four steals. Feagan made three 3-pointers on her way to 13 points. Audra Emmerson and Hailey Smith both pulled five rebounds.

Later that evening, Fishers hosted Center Grove in its second game of the Classic, and used a strong defensive effort to sail past the Trojans 51-31.

Center Grove led 23-20 at halftime, but the Tigers outscored the Trojans 16-2 in the third period to take a 36-25 lead. Burton poured in 23 points, including five 3-pointers. Smith added 11 points, hitting three 3s.

Burton grabbed seven rebounds, while Perryman collected five. Stullken made four blocked shots.

Fishers is 3-0 and will host Anderson on Tuesday, then play two games at the Lake Central Classic on Saturday.

The Royals will be back in action Saturday when they play Valparaiso and Lake Central at the Lake Central Classic.

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault – it wasn't something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don't often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we're breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.
