Fishers State Rep. Todd Huston chosen as next House Speaker

The REPORTER

Indiana House Republicans met on Monday at the Statehouse and selected State Rep. Todd Huston (R-Fishers) to serve as the next House Speaker.

House Speaker Brian C. Bosma (R-Indianapolis) recently announced his plans to not seek re-election and retire after the 2020 legislative session. To smooth the transition, House Republicans gathered on Monday and chose Huston to serve as Speaker-elect. He will work closely with Bosma during the upcoming short session and is expected to be sworn in as House Speaker by the full House as the session closes.

"I'm incredibly grateful for the support from our caucus and the tremendous opportunity to serve in this new leadership role," Huston said. "Indiana's economic strength is largely rooted in strong, conservative leadership, and I'm honored to work alongside Speaker Bosma during his final legislative session and help continue our state's momentum."

First elected in 2012, Huston represents House District 37, which includes Fishers and a portion of Hamilton County. Bosma announced that Huston will no longer serve as co-chair of the House Ways and Means Committee, but he will remain a member of the committee. Huston authored the state's structurally balanced budget (HEA 1001), which included a historic investment in education funding with $763 million in new money for K-12.

"Todd is an invaluable member of our team and a respected leader, and I'm excited for him to take the reins and continue building on Indiana's success story," Bosma said. "Whether it's serving as a tough budget hawk or finding common ground among differing viewpoints, he's been a reliable, go-to legislator for our caucus time and time again. I firmly believe he

Hamilton County lawmakers support Speaker-elect Huston

Four members of the Indiana House of Representatives recently spoke regarding the selection of Rep. Todd Huston to serve as the next Speaker of the House.

"Todd was my mentor and friend when I first came to the Statehouse in 2014," said Rep. Tony Cook (R-Cicero). "He knows how to lead with integrity and grace. I know these qualities will continue to serve him well as he prepares to take on this new role as the leader of our chamber."

"He has proven that he is a leader and a mentor, and he is uniquely qualified to take on this tremendous responsibility following Speaker Bosma's retirement," said Rep. Chuck Goodrich (R-Noblesville). "I have no doubt he will continue to keep Indiana on the path to success."

"He has proven himself over the past few years, especially as co-chair of the House Ways and Means Committee, which makes him the ideal candidate to carry on the legacy Speaker Bosma will leave behind," said Rep. Donna Schaibley (R-Carmel).

"It's been an honor to serve alongside Todd since he took office," said Rep. Jerry Torr (R-Carmel). "I have no doubt he will continue to be an effective leader in our chamber and uphold our history of civility and respectful decorum while we address issues that matter most to Hoosiers."

Carmel Police Chief Jim Barlow releases statement regarding ticketing percentages

responding to a story published by WISH-TV alleging that Carmel police ticket black drivers at a higher rate than other drivers. The Department also provided its own data on ticketing in the city of Carmel, which readers can access at this link.

On Nov. 18, 2019, a local news station ran a story titled "Carmel police ticket black drivers at higher rate, data shows." This news story paints an inaccurate, incomplete, and frankly unfair picture of how the Carmel Police Department treats drivers. We are committed to treating everyone with respect and dignity.

The Carmel Police Department would like to address several areas of the news story that we believe are incomplete or inaccurate.

The news story failed to account for non-discretionary offenses, people cited for multiple violations in an enforcement event, and the traveling population. The story only included Indiana Code violations, failing to account for city ordinance violations.

After the news story aired, the Carmel Police Department requested the data and information about the statistical analysis processes used by the reporter. The Department only received the raw data used for the news story. Information about statistical analysis processes and source contact information were not shared.

The conclusions in the story were derived from data that failed to account for non-discretionary offenses. Non-discretionary offenses are severe violations of law where an officer would be expected to make an arrest or issue a

Huston previously served on the Hamilton Southeastern School Board, Hamilton Southeastern Schools Foundation Board, Fishers Planning Commission and Indiana Leadership Forum Board of Directors. Additionally, former Gov. Mitch Daniels twice called on Huston to serve the state, first with a four-year term as a member of the Indiana State Board of Education, and from 2006 to 2009 as a member of the Indiana Education Roundtable.

The 2020 legislative session will convene on Jan. 6 and conclude by March 14.

Dillinger has also served on the County Drainage Board, County Board of Finance and County Solid Waste Board, and the County Plan Commission. Dillinger currently holds the position of Vice President of the Indianapolis Airport Authority Board, on which he has served since 2000.

The Association of Indiana Counties has honored

Dillinger on five different occasions with its Outstanding County Achievement Award and three times with the association's Government Cooperation Achievement Award.

On a personal side, he is a member of the Green Valley Church of Christ, Local Chamber of Commerce, coached Noblesville's elementary football travel team, Noblesville Grinders, for 25 years, and was elected as an inaugural Inductee into the Elementary Football Hall of Fame in 2010. Advocating for Victims of Crime and Abuse

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault – it wasn't something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don't often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we're breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.

To help Hamilton County families affected by domestic violence and sexual abuse, you can donate the following items:

- Art supplies (for children to journal and express their emotions)
- Bottled water (8 oz. bottles, preferably)
- Individually packaged snacks
- Gas cards (many women have no access to funds after fleeing their abuser)

ticket. Non-discretionary offenses include felonies, misdemeanors, and driving while suspended offenses. Non-discretionary offenses that were not removed from the data used for the story include alcohol, drug, and driver's license offenses. Non-discretionary offenses are not what most people consider a traffic ticket.

Officers are allowed latitude when making the decision to issue tickets for minor offenses including, but not limited to, speeding, stop sign and equipment violations. These types of offenses are considered discretionary offenses. In 2018, 4,737 individuals were issued tickets for discretionary offenses by the Carmel Police Department. Of those individuals, 3,428 were white (72.4 percent), 967 were African American (20.4 percent), and 342 were listed as other race (7.2 percent).

The conclusions failed to account for people who were cited for multiple violations during a single enforcement event. For example, if an officer cited a driver for driving while suspended and speeding during a single enforcement event, each violation was counted as a separate person.

The data used for the story included only violations of Indiana Code. The data did not include city ordinance violations, which make up a significant portion of enforcement events. Many city ordinance violations are traffic related and are considered discretionary. In 2018, 15.3 percent of all tickets written were for violations of city ordinance.

Population demographic data from the 2018 American Community Survey (ACS) by the United States Census Bureau differs drastically from data presented by the reporter during the news story. The ACS showed that Carmel residents that reported their race alone or in combination with "Black or African American" was 5.3 percent of the total population. Further, the daytime working "Black or African American" population of Carmel was 11.7 percent. The ACS only accounts for resident and daytime working populations. Additionally, the news story failed to consider any data regarding visitors and travelers. Carmel has multiple major travel corridors, including Interstate 465, U.S. 31, U.S. 421, and Keystone Parkway. These roadways accommodate tens of thousands of vehicles daily. Visitors may go to one of the many medical, office, hospitality, or retail destinations throughout the city. To accurately characterize a traveling population, a traffic study would be necessary.

The Carmel Police Department takes numerous measures to be as transparent as possible. The Department is accredited by the Commission on the Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies (CALEA). Part of that transparency is that we are one of few agencies in Central Indiana that document every traffic stop whether it results in a citation or warning. This documentation includes race, gender and age.

The Department has used in-car video cameras for more than 20 years. Also, on March 1, 2019, officers began wearing body-worn cameras that are integrated with the in-car cameras, but can also be used independently from the in-car camera system if the officer is away from their vehicle. Video recordings are randomly reviewed by supervisors as part of their ongoing evaluations of officers' activities.

The Department has a policy that prohibits biased-based policing and discriminatory practices. Complaints regarding bias-based policing or discriminatory practice are reviewed by the Deputy Chief of Staff.

The Carmel Police Department is committed to excellence in everything we do. We perform our sworn duties ethically, maintaining respect for individual rights, human dignity, cultural diversity and community values. We will continue to implement and follow policies related to best practices in the field of law enforcement, provide the best training possible, and utilize technology to increase transparency and efficiency.

The Carmel Police Department would like to thank its dedicated officers and support staff for the important work that they do every day.

During his career, Martin was a Physician Assistant in the U.S. Air Force for 10 years. He has worked at numerous libraries and organizations across Indiana, including the Kokomo Public Library, Atlanta-Jackson Township Public Library (Hamilton North PL), North Madison County Public Library System, Veterans Affairs Medical Center, and Indiana Cooperative Library Services Authority (INCOLSA).

When Martin became director of the Sheridan Public Library, he found it important to instill a sense of friendliness between the library staff and its customers.

"As a small community library, we are able to interact with our customers on a personal level. It is that reaching out — that one-on-one relationship — that means so much to people," said Martin. "I feel that is perhaps the primary reason why the library has become such an important 'go-to' spot in this community. I fully expect it to continue."

Martin continued, "This community has been a pleasant experience for me because of its size. I grew up on a farm in a small community in western New York, so Sheridan is a very comfortable fit for me. I immensely enjoy chatting with and getting to know the people in the community."

making sure his office door is always open. He has helped craft countless resumes, created online job applications, opened email accounts, searched the internet for official forms, and many other things.

"The most enjoyable part of being a librarian is seeing the smiles on the faces of the customers after I have been able to help them find or do what they need," said Martin. "And as the library staff will tell you, it does not have to be library related for me to help with something. It is just in my nature to be helpful and more often than not, I prefer to provide that help behind the scenes."

During his retirement, Martin will enjoy day trips with his wife, Vicky, and time spent interacting with his children, granddaughter and grand dog. A self-proclaimed homebody, he still likes places to go and things to do during the busy times of the day. He plans to pursue volunteer positions in the many non-profits in the Hamilton County area.

"The experience and fellowship are important to me," Martin said.

And while he doesn't have any aspirations of seeking a public office, the thought of becoming more politically involved has occurred to him.

While Martin may be retiring from the library, he will not be retiring from the Sheridan community, where he is involved in several community boards, committees and program events.

"I will not become a stranger to the community," said Martin. He will continue to be part of Sheridan's development through his work as the vice president of the Sheridan Historical Society, president of Economic Development Commission, a member of the Sheridan Coalition, and a member and officer of the Sheridan Rotary Club.

"If you are looking for me, the first place to try is the new Sheridan Historical Society Museum on Tuesday and Friday afternoons," said Martin.

A Retirement Open House will be held from 1 to 4 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 29 in the Community Room at Sheridan Public Library. The library board invites the entire community to come and wish Steve well.

Letter to the Editor

Doctor praises Congress for work on new obesity bill

Dear Editor:
To see just how many people are affected by the obesity epidemic, take a look at the numbers.

The World Health Organization states that worldwide obesity has nearly tripled since 1975. In 2016, more than 1.9 billion adults, 18 years and older, were overweight. Of these, over 650 million were obese.

Right here in our own country, the Centers for Diseases Control and Prevention (CDC) estimate that over 93 million American adults are considered obese, while the rates for children and adolescents aged 2 to 19 is equally bleak with 13.7 million considered obese. The statistics in Indiana are no better – a third of Hoosiers are considered obese, and two-thirds are considered overweight.

Why does this matter? Because today we know that obesity is closely associated with increased risk of disease such as heart disease, stroke, type 2 diabetes, high blood pressure and even certain types of cancer. Stopping the obesity epidemic would mean saving lives and living longer, healthier lives.

Obesity is taking a serious toll on our nation in other ways as well. Obesity is a public health crisis that strains our nation's economy. The CDC estimates that the annual cost of obesity in the United States is a staggering $147 billion, with obese patients accruing almost $1,400 more in health care costs than Americans with a healthy weight. Medicare and Medicaid patients specifically cost $61.8 billion per year! In Indiana, those costs in healthcare and lost productivity are estimated at $8.5 billion per year, according to the Richard H. Fairbanks Foundation.

The substantial negative impact of obesity is therefore manifested in increased risk of disability, poor health, obesity-related depression and higher health care costs. The longer a person is obese, the more significant these factors become and so the prevention and treatment of this condition is extremely important.

Far too often, our leaders in Washington avoid addressing issues that impact us each and every day. It's time to address this epidemic, and thankfully a group of bipartisan legislators have done just that. The Treat and Reduce Obesity Act (TROA) of 2019 was introduced into the 116th Congress by a bipartisan group of Representatives and Senators, and now includes Indiana's own Rep. Susan Brooks and Sen. Todd Young as cosponsors. To date, the bill has acquired over 100 bipartisan cosponsors in the House and 13 bipartisan cosponsors in the Senate. It's the type of collaborative solution we need more of in Washington.

The bill takes on the obesity problem in America by providing the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) with the authority to provide beneficiaries with the tools to manage weight and treat obesity.

It also expands benefits to include behavioral counseling from qualified health care providers and allows Medicare Part D coverage to include FDA-approved drugs for chronic weight management.

As our population ages, it is imperative that we look into long term, permanent health care solutions such as this common-sense legislation because the benefits would be significant. First, seniors who have faithfully paid into the system would directly benefit from necessary care and treatment, thereby reducing the risk of experiencing other serious obesity-related diseases. Secondly, the bill will save taxpayer money in the long run.

By investing in preventive care, we will see a cost reduction which is critically important as Medicare faces insolvency by 2026 – three years earlier than expected.

Ultimately, this bill is about ensuring our seniors have access to the quality health care they need and we urge members of Congress to join in this bipartisan effort to solve a real problem, facing real Americans.

Masked mani-pedi robber makes off with customer cash

The REPORTER

At 2:34 p.m. on Monday, police officers from the Noblesville Police Department (NPD) responded to the Exotic Nails Spa, 13398 Tegler Drive, Noblesville, in reference to a report of an armed robbery.

Officers from NPD and surrounding departments responded immediately and were advised by dispatchers from the Hamilton County Communications Center that the suspect had left the scene in a vehicle prior to police arrival. Several officers canvassed the area while other officers continued to the scene. Officers were unable to locate the alleged suspect's vehicle.

Based on statements from witnesses, video footage and other potential evidence at the scene, it would appear that a male subject came into the business and held several employees and patrons at gunpoint. Witnesses stated that the suspect demanded money from each of them and all of the victims complied. The suspect retrieved an undetermined amount of cash from the victims before fleeing the scene. There were no injuries reported by either patrons or employees.

Investigators from the criminal investigation division processed the crime scene and checked with nearby businesses for security video footage. The suspect has been described as a white male, skinny, and wearing a black coat and black shoes.

Anyone with information regarding this case is encouraged to contact Detective Joe Jerrell at jjerrell@noblesville.in.us or p3tips.com/713.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

These words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee: As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him. And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent. I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do. And now, O Father; glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was. I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.

Mary Jane Bilby-Harmeson September 10, 1946 – November 27, 2019

Mary Jane Bilby-Harmeson, 73, Sheridan, passed away Wednesday evening, November 27, 2019 at Harbour Manor in Noblesville. Born September 10, 1946 in Lebanon, she was the daughter of the late Robert O. Bilby, Sr. and Virginia Eloise (Waitt) Bilby. She was a 1964 graduate of Sheridan High School and attended the Sheridan First Christian Church.

On October 29, 1967, Mary Jane married the love of her life, Kent F. Harmeson, and they would spend the next 52 years by each other's side. Family was very important to Mary Jane. That phrase is often overused; however, in this case it would be considered an understatement. Mother was her favorite role. She loved being involved in her girls' activities while they were growing up. For many years she was actively involved with the Marion-Adams band booster program. When the kids were grown and started having families of their own, she quickly realized that Grandma was her new favorite role and spoiling her grandkids rotten every chance she had was her mission.

Even though she loved being a mother and a grandmother, the role of loving wife was the one she cherished the most. After Kent retired and the kids were grown, they had plenty of time to do more activities together. They loved rescuing strays in the neighborhood, including the occasional opossum and raccoon. Kent and Mary Jane also loved taking walks around Sheridan. They never seemed to have a particular route, they just went down whichever streets they hadn't been down in a while, stopping and visiting with people they knew along the way. When it was no longer possible to take their walks around town, they would hop in the truck and drive instead, still stopping and visiting as they went. Kent would run his errands for the day and Mary Jane was always right there by his side. She also loved traveling, whether it was going up to New York to see Central Park and Yankee Stadium, heading out west to enjoy the beautiful landscapes, traveling to see the grandkids, going on band trips, or just putting around Sheridan. Her favorite part, no matter where she traveled, was getting to enjoy it with her family.

Mary Jane is survived by her husband of 52 years, Kent F. Harmeson, Sheridan; two daughters, Jennifer Lynn Adams (Chris), Sheridan, and Gwendolyn Dawn Grinstead (Brice), Jasper; seven grandchildren, Courtney Adams (fiancé Luke Hopper), Rachael Adams, Jacob Grinstead, Maggie Adams, Abbie Grinstead, Valerie Adams and Beth Adams; and two brothers, Robert O. Bilby, Jr. (Carol), Pendleton, and Carl Eugene "Gene" Bilby (Shirley), Southport.

Services will be held at 11 a.m. on Wednesday, December 4, 2019 at Kercheval Funeral Home, 306 E. 10th St., Sheridan. Burial will follow at Crown View Cemetery in Sheridan. Pastor Jeff Higgins will be officiating.

Wimmer retires as Fishers head football coach

Rick Wimmer is retiring as the head football coach at Fishers High School.

Wimmer told his players about his retirement Monday afternoon, and news spread outside of the high school soon after. Wimmer had coached the Tigers since the school re-opened in 2006.

“I just felt like it was the right time,” said Wimmer, who was already a highly-accomplished coach by the time he came to Fishers. But just by getting the opportunity to start the program, that gave Wimmer the chance to fulfill a dream.

“That was one of the things that was most attractive about the job. I was one of those guys that always dreamed of starting a football program,” said Wimmer.

Fishers quickly became a force in Indiana high school football. The Tigers played their first varsity season in 2006 without any seniors, and finished the regular season 0-9. “We were in a couple games and had chances,” said Wimmer.

But Fishers got its first-ever win in that year’s sectional, beating Kokomo 33-7. The very next season (2007), the Tigers picked up their first Hoosier Crossroads Conference win, and Fishers won the first of its four HCC championships in 2009.

“Our first conference championship in 2009 was certainly a high point,” said Wimmer. The Tigers also won HCC titles in 2010, 2013 and 2017.

The biggest title of all came in 2010, when Fishers won the Class 5A state championship. The Tigers beat Lawrence Central 38-19 in that game. It made Wimmer only the fourth coach in Indiana high school football history to win state championships at two different schools.

Overall, Wimmer compiled a record of 99-61 at Fishers. In addition to their 2010 state title run, the Tigers also won sectional championships in 2013 and 2017.

Wimmer’s first state title came in 1987, during his fifth year as the coach at Zionsville. Wimmer got his head coaching start with the Eagles in 1983, after five seasons of being an assistant coach at Rushville. At Zionsville, Wimmer went 44-12 and coached teams that won three Rangeline Conference and two sectional titles, plus had three undefeated regular seasons.

Wimmer also had nine-season stops at Merrillville (1988-96) and Greenwood (1997-2005). At both schools, Wimmer’s teams won two conference championships and at least one sectional title, and he also won a regional title at Merrillville in 1992. Wimmer’s overall coaching record is 263-144.

Prior to coming to Fishers, Wimmer noted that he had never been at any school longer than nine years.

“Obviously this was a good place for me,” said Wimmer. He plans to stay on as a physical education teacher at Fishers High School.

“Coach Wimmer ends his 37th year of guiding student-athletes through the lessons of leadership, perseverance, and teamwork,” said Fishers athletic director Rob Seymour. “Fishers HS would like to thank Coach Wimmer for his commitment to the Tigers and his passion for the game of football.”

In addition to the victories and championships, Wimmer is also happy to see his former players go on to have success in college, and then after college in other fields. He also enjoys hearing from players who come back and let him what’s going on in their lives.

“That’s probably the most rewarding part of it,” said Wimmer.

'Rocks improve to 2-0 with win over Pendleton

Westfield's Braden Smith scored 24 points and was one of three players in double figures for the Shamrocks in their 70-52 win over Pendleton Heights Tuesday at The Rock.

The Westfield boys basketball team played its first home game of the season Tuesday, and gave a large home crowd quite a bit to cheer about.

The Shamrocks beat Pendleton Heights 70-52, accomplishing two achievements in one game: It was the first time Westfield had beaten the Arabians since 2012, and the first time the ‘Rocks got off to a 2-0 start since 2008.

“That was definitely on our guys’ mind,” said Westfield coach Shane Sumpter about beating Pendleton. “It’s a program with a lot of tradition. It’s very well-coached. They play hard, they get after it. It was one of those games, again. So, very excited for our guys, our program to finally get over the hump against them. They do a really good job there.”

The Shamrocks outscored the Arabians in each of the four quarters. The first one was tight, but Westfield managed to get out of it with an 18-15 lead. Braden Smith scored seven points for the ‘Rocks.

Westfield took control in the second period, outscoring Pendleton Heights 21-12. Six different Shamrocks players scored, with Cam Haffner throwing in two 3-pointers, and adding another basket for eight points in that quarter. That helped the ‘Rocks to a 39-27 lead at halftime.

Westfield continued to play well defensively in the third quarter, only allowing the Arabians 11 points. Smith said that the Shamrocks “work for it every day” in practice on defense.

“We’re diving on the floor, we have blood all over ourselves and we have hard practices, man, and we just work for this,” said Smith.

Three Westfield players finished the game in double figures. Smith led with 24 points, including three 3-pointers, while Haffner scored 12 points. Benji Welch added 11 points.

“I thought we had a lot of other guys step up offensively tonight,” said Sumpter.

Royals battle close with No. 6 Orioles

The Hamilton Southeastern wrestling team pushed a tough, No. 6-ranked Avon team throughout a Tuesday Hoosier Crossroads Conference dual meet, before falling 36-25 at the Orioles’ gym.

The Royals got out to a 12-10 lead after the first four matches. After dropping the first match, Southeastern got a sudden-victory win from sophomore Ryan Cast at 160 pounds, then classmate Charlie Irish won an exciting decision at 170 to tie the score at 6-6.

Sophomore Max Broom scored a first-period pin at 182 pounds to get the Royals up 12-6. Avon won the next three bouts to take a 19-12 lead and would hold the lead from there.

But Southeastern kept fighting. Sophomore Mat Benson won the 106-pound match in a major decision. Later, unbeaten Jacob Simone took the 120-pound bout with a fall, and the Royals were within 25-22 with three matches left. Avon won the next two to clinch the dual, but Southeastern got the last word, as senior Reece Luhmann upset Jaden Reynolds, the No. 3-ranked wrestler at 145 pounds, 9-3 to finish the meet.

The Royals are back in action next Wednesday when they travel to Zionsville.

Royals score sweep of Avon

The Hamilton Southeastern swim teams scored a sweep at Avon on Tuesday.

In the girls meet, the Royals won 131-54. Southeastern won nine of the 12 events, including seven individual victories: Ellie Pedersen in the 200 freestyle, Anna Stolle in the individual medley, Sarah Ballard in diving, Bri Saple in the butterfly, Amelia Vicory in the 100 free, Kayleigh Witt in the 500 free and Madison Kertin in the breaststroke. Southeastern also got first place in the medley and 400 free relays.

“Your Royals looked strong and were able to use some spots for younger members of the team to step up and show how hard they have been working in practice,” said HSE coach Andy Pedersen. “It was all about opportunities and many team members were very opportunistic this evening.”

Southeastern’s boys team won 124-61, also finishing first in nine events. Andrew Christopher was a double winner in the 50 free and backstroke. Other individual victories came from Keegan Streett in the IM, AJ Ricafort in diving, Connor Harrison in the butterfly, DJ Rogers in the 100 free and Zack Bostock in the breaststroke. Southeastern won the medley and 400 free relays as well.

“This was an inspirational victory for a team that has very high goals - this team really showed some maturity by realizing that this meet also pointed out some areas to focus on,” said Pedersen. “Starts and turns need improvement - we are asking these young men to accept that challenge and look to the future.”

Etchison wins IBCA/Subway Player of the Week honors

On an emotional night, Gus Etchison poured in 41 points in his only game of the week, and the Hamilton Heights High School junior leads the honorees in this week's IBCA/Subway Player of the Week program.

Lake Central Senior Nick Anderson, Silver Creek junior Trey Kaufman, Goshen junior Brynn Shoup-Hill, Roncalli senior Alana Vinson, and Bloomfield junior Kylee Shelton join Etchison as recipients for the week of Nov. 25-Nov. 30 in the recognition program coordinated by the Indiana Basketball Coaches Association.

Anderson is the boys' winner and Shoup-Hill is the girls' winner for District 1. Etchison is the boys' honoree and Vinson the girls' honoree for District 2. Kaufman and Shelton received the District 3 boys' and girls' awards, respectively.

Last Wednesday, Etchison lit up the scoreboard, knocking down six of nine 3-point attempts and nine of 11 free throw attempts, on the way to his 41 points. The 5-11 guard also grabbed five rebounds, handed out a pair of assists, and collected six steals, helping his Hamilton Heights Huskies to a 71-69 overtime win against the Lebanon Tigers.

In District 1 last week, Nick Anderson posted a pair of nice shooting performances, helping Lake Central to a 2-0 start to the season. Monday night the Indians picked up a 58-47 win over nearby Andrean, as the 6-2 guard buried four 3-pointers and 13 of 14 free throws, en route to 35 points on the evening. He added four rebounds, two assists, and two steals to the cause.

Saturday at South Bend Washington, the senior guard again shot it well from the line, going 12-13 on free throws, while knocking down three more treys and scoring 31 points. He added an identical four rebounds, two assists, and two steals in the narrow 58-56 win.

Down South, Trey Kaufman was strong in his only outing of the week Wednesday, an impressive 75-40 victory over Columbus East. The 6-8 junior forward was dominant at both ends of the floor, as he scored a game-high 36 points, while collecting 12 caroms and blocking five shots on the night for his IBCA #4 ranked Silver Creek Dragons.

6-3 front-liner Brynn Shoup-Hill had three nice games over the holiday, helping Goshen to a 2-1 record during that span. On Tuesday, the junior approached a triple-double, with 15 points, 11 rebounds, and seven blocked shots in a 50-44 win against Columbia City. She also handed out a pair of assists.

Saturday, the Redhawks played in the Tippecanoe Valley Classic, falling 39-30 to Bremen in the afternoon contest. In defeat, Shoup-Hill still managed 18 points, nine rebounds, and five blocked shots. She returned later that evening in impressive fashion, scoring 31 points, grabbing 15 rebounds, and blocking five more shots in a big 55-42 win over the host Vikings.

Alana Vinson had it going last week as well, with a pair of nice performances. Wednesday the Senior wing helped Roncalli to a 67-52 win against a gritty Cardinal Ritter squad. She was an efficient 8-12 from the floor, 4-6 from 3-point range, and 6-7 from the line, scoring 26 points in the contest. She was active elsewhere, adding seven rebounds, a pair of assists, and three steals.

The Eastern Illinois University commit returned to action Saturday, but fell in a tight one 63-60 at Center Grove. Still, Vinson scored 24 points on 3-4 shooting from 3-point range, plus she grabbed four rebounds, handed out two assists, collected three steals, and blocked a shot in the effort.

Our District-3 girls' winner, Kylee Shelton, had her best week of the season to date, helping Bloomfield to a pair of road wins. Tuesday evening, the 5-10 wing helped the Cardinals pick up a 49-38 conference win at Shakamak, as she tallied 23 points, nine rebounds, four assists, and an impressive eight steals.

Saturday, in a 54-48 victory at Owen Valley, the junior posted 30 points, partly due to a tremendous defensive effort, as she stole the ball 13 times in the win. She also added three rebounds and six assists in the contest.

This is the 12th season for the Indiana Basketball Coaches Association Player of the Week program, and the eighth season it is presented by Subway Restaurants of Indiana, a banner sponsor of the IBCA. Subway, in its eighth season as an IBCA sponsor, encourages athletes to "train hard and eat fresh".

Player of the Week winners are chosen each week from each of the IHSAA's three districts. Girls winners will be chosen through the Monday following the IHSAA Girls State Finals. Boys winners will be chosen through the Monday following the IHSAA Boys State Finals.
