

Rep. Brooks welcomes Carmel residents as her State of the Union guests

The REPORTER

On Tuesday evening, Congresswoman Susan W. Brooks (R-Ind.-05) welcomed Carmel residents, Mike and Lee Corr as her guests to the President's State of the Union Address.

Mike Corr, who was diagnosed with hairy cell leukemia in 2002, became a patient in clinical trials at the National Institutes of Health (NIH) in 2010. Hairy cell leukemia, which affects over 1,200 individuals annually, is a slow-growing cancer of the blood in which one's bone marrow makes too many B cells. Hairy cell leukemia is considered a chronic disease because it may never completely disappear. Mike is currently patient No. 13 in a small clinical study with the National Institutes of Health. After battling hairy cell leukemia for 17 years and joining the NIH study, Mike is now in ongoing remission.

"Throughout Mike's long, difficult battle with hairy cell leukemia, he was finally able to gain hope after joining clinical trials at the National Institutes of Health (NIH)," said Brooks. "It is because of our government's increased investments in biomedical research at the NIH, Mike is able to continue being a loving son, father, husband, and a managing director for one of the world leaders in real estate services at JLL. In my role as a member of the Energy and Commerce Committee, we worked hard to pass the 21st Century Cures Act into law to provide an extra $8.75 billion to the National Health Institute to help individuals like Mike be a part of find-

New state laws affect property tax deductions, exemptions

The REPORTER

Newly-enacted laws have changed some qualifying limitations for Property Taxes Deductions and Exemptions, and as such, Hamilton County Auditor Robin Mills wants the citizens of Hamilton County to know about them and the effects they will have.

"People hear about legislation being passed all the time and may not truly understand the ramifications and what that legislation means for them," said Mills. "Senate Enrolled Act 280 is one of those. It not only provides changes to qualifying limitations to the Over 65, 65 Circuit Breaker and Disabled Veterans Deductions, it also increased the deduction amount from $12,480 to $14,000 for both the Disabled Veteran Deduction as well as the Over 65 Deduction."

Prior to enacting the new law, the Over 65 Deduction assessed value limitation was $182,430. Under the new law, it is now $200,000 and the income limitation went from $25,000 to $30,000 for single and $40,000 for married/joint tenants. Previously, the Over 65

Heights Educational Foundation launches personalized brick sale

The REPORTER

Hamilton Heights Educational Foundation (HHEF) has launched a personalized brick sale to help raise money for the Foundation and the Heights Chapter of the Buusiness Professionals of America (BPA). The engraved bricks sold will become part of new legacy benches located in front of the main entrance of the high school.

These specialty bricks cost $100 with a portion allocated to the BPA and a new therapy dog at the high school, with the remainder to the Foundation. There is a maximum of three lines of text (18 characters per line) per brick. There are over 500 bricks slated to be included as part of the redesigned entrance. Bricks will be sold through Thursday, March 27 and are tax deductible.

HHEF President Melissa

Fishers Redevelopment Commission elects officers, acts on three projects

By LARRY LANNAN

Dan Canan will serve as president of the Fishers Redevelopment Commission in 2020, following a vote taken during the Thursday meeting. Tony Bonacuse was voted vice president of the commission and Damon Grothe will be secretary.

The commission approved an amendment to the project agreement approved by the commission last year to the Flexware Innovations AMP West building, under construction near the Nickel Plate Amphitheater.

Economic Development Director Megan Baumgartner says the original plan was for an 8,000 square-foot facility, but the project is facing some construction "challenges," and as a result, will increase the building space to about 12,000 square feet to maximize the plans. As part of the amendment approved by commission members, AMP West will be allowed access to some additional parking.

The closing date has been pushed back to June first of this year, due to these changes.

An agreement was approved for the developers of the new Nickel Plate Hotel, part of the large project underway along 116th Street near City Hall. The 116-room facility will be part of the Hilton Tapestry brand.

After a lengthy series of negotiation sessions with the city, Baumgartner told commission members the city will reimburse

$2.1 million of the construction costs, which are estimated to total $21 million. The reimbursement will come from the city's Tax Increment Financing (TIF) reserves.

Included in this agreement is a $100,000 contingency fund, should there be additional costs in constructing this building next to the Nickel Plate Trail, Baumgartner says. The hotel will have access to the parking garage, and hotel guests will not pay for the parking privilege. The hotel is projected to be finished at about the same time as the First Internet Bank headquarters.

In one more action, the commission approved an amendment to the development project to the north of 116th Street downtown, east of the municipal complex. This will postpone the closing date by two months due to delays in the design process. Construction on this part of the plan should begin in about two months, Baumgartner says. The agreement also deals with the projects interface with the Nickel Plate Trail construction, which will be adjacent to the development.

TAXES

Circuit Breaker Deduction assessed value limitation was $160,000 and it is now $200,000. The income limitation stayed the same at $30,000 for a single and $40,000 for married/joint tenants.

The assessed value limitation for Disabled Veterans (totally or partially disabled over 62), goes from $175,000 to $200,000. The deduction amount increases from $12,480 to $14,000. SEA 280 also added some qualifying factors for surviving spouses that include:

The individual:

- Was killed in action
 - Died while serving on active duty in the US Military or Naval Forces, or
 - Died while performing inactive duty training in the US Military or Naval Forces
- “The Real Property Department will run various reports that will include individuals who already have the deductions in place or who had these deductions, but were disqualified due to past assessed value limitations,” explained Sadie Eldridge, Lead Real Property Deductions Deputy. “For everyone who qualifies with the increased assessed value, we will automatically apply the benefits. However, we want to encourage everyone to follow up with our office after they receive their tax bill in August to see if they qualify or if they have any questions about the new limitations.”

family and friends. They serve as strong Americans and role models for all who are suffering with difficult diseases.”

“A cancer diagnosis changes your life and perspective in an instant,” said Corr. “Thankfully for me, I was accepted into a Phase II clinical trial at the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda, Maryland. I was patient number 45 in a successful immunotoxin treatment that required my wife and me to fly to the NIH once a month for 10-day hospital stays. This breakthrough allowed me a partial remission for five additional years until 2015, when I was readmitted to NIH as patient number 13 in a gene inhibitor trial. Currently I am on this treatment protocol, but for the first time in the 17 years since diagnosis I am able to say I am cancer free. I owe this to the great research teams, clinical trial participants, the tireless work of the staff at NIH, our country’s investment in innovation, and the immeasurable research that provides immense hope to families like mine.”

Background

The National Institutes of Health (NIH) support a wide variety of biomedical research, advancing knowledge of health and disease. It was founded in the late 1870s and is now part of the United States Department of Health and Human Services.

NIH is an integral part of a biomedical research ecosystem that includes universities, researchers, private companies and other government agencies. It is the largest public funder of biomedical research in the world, investing more than $39 billion each year to achieve its mission to enhance health, lengthen life, and reduce illness and disability.

The 21st Century Cures Act (Cures Act) was signed into law on Dec. 13, 2016 and was designed to help accelerate medical product development and bring new innovations and advances to patients who need them faster and more efficiently.

The Cures Act enhanced NIH’s ability to modernize clinical trials, by increasing the use of real-world evidence and clinical outcome assessments, which will speed the development and review of novel medical products, including medical countermeasures.

The Cures Act also allowed the FDA to create more intercenter institutes and reauthorized the NIH, resulting in more coordination activities for major disease areas including drug, biologics and device centers, and improved the regulation of combination products.

Hinton pledges to support Congressional term limits

The REPORTER

U.S. Term Limits (USTL), the leader in the national, non-partisan movement to limit terms for elected officials, is gathering support from state lawmakers across the nation. Its mission is to get 34 states to apply for an amendment proposal convention specific to term limits on Congress.

2020 Indiana House candidate for District 39 Mark Hinton has committed support for term limits on Congress by signing the Term Limits Convention pledge. Hinton is the first signer in this race. The primary election is scheduled for Tuesday, May 5.

USTL President Philip Blumel commented on Hinton's pledge, saying, "Mark's support of term limits shows that there are individuals who are willing to listen to the majority of voters who want term limits. America needs a Congress that will be served by citizen legislators, not career politicians."

The U.S. Term Limits pledge is provided to candidates and members of state legislatures. It reads, "I pledge that, as a member of the state legislature, I will cosponsor, vote for, and defend the resolution applying for an Article V convention for the limited purpose of enacting term limits on Congress."

In the 1995 case, Thornton v. U.S. Term Limits, the Supreme Court of the United States opined that only a Constitutional Amendment could limit the terms of U.S. Senators and Representatives. According USTL Executive Director Nick Tomboulides, the best chance of imposing term limits on Congress is through an Article V Proposal Convention of state legislatures.

"The Constitution allows for amendments to be proposed by either 2/3 of Congress or 2/3 of the states. While we'd like for Congress to take the high road and propose term limits on itself, our goal is to trigger the latter, a national convention specifically for a term limits amendment," said Tomboulides. "That is why it is important to get buy-in from state legislators," he added.

Once proposed, the amendment must be ratified by 38 states.

Blumel noted, "More than 82 percent of Americans have rejected the career politician model and want to replace it with citizen leadership. The way to achieve that goal is through a congressional term limits amendment. Mark knows this and is willing to work to make sure we reach our goal."

According to a 2018 nationwide poll on term limits conducted by McLaughlin & Associates, term limits enjoys wide bipartisan support. McLaughlin's analysis states, "Support for term limits is broad and strong across all political, geographic and demographic groups. An overwhelming 82 percent of voters approve of a Constitutional Amendment that will place term limits on members of Congress."

AG Hill urges Hoosier businesses to boost cybersecurity protections

The REPORTER

Indiana Attorney General Curtis Hill, co-chair of the Indiana Executive Cybersecurity Council's Legal and Insurance Working Group, on Tuesday warned Hoosiers and especially business-owners to take proactive measures to protect online security. Cyberattacks, he said, are near an all-time high.

"These malicious efforts are coming in the form of phishing attempts, malware attacks and ransomware demands," Hill said. "They are a concern for both the public and private sectors. My office takes very seriously the security of all Hoosiers and the companies where they work. We will continue to do everything possible to ensure the online safety of Indiana residents."

To that end, Hill urged

Hoosier businesses to complete a cyber risk planning survey. While many businesses will receive mailings, anyone may find the survey online. The survey should take no more than 25 minutes and will help the Indiana Executive Cybersecurity Council better understand the cybersecurity threats Indiana is facing.

Several high-profile data breaches in recent years – involving such large companies as Equifax, Neiman Marcus and Premiera – have served as stark reminders of dangers lurking online. Data breaches sometimes destroy companies' ability to even stay in business.

"Our goal is to identify barriers that prevent effective cyber-risk planning," Hill said. "Further, we want to encourage Hoosiers to be proactive when it comes to cybersecurity rather than simply reacting to issues once they arise."

That starts with assessing measures already in place to protect cybersecurity and making improvements if such measures are found to be deficient.

The Indiana Executive Cybersecurity Council is working in collaboration with researchers at Indiana University and the University of Arizona to explore how Indiana organizations perceive and manage cyber risks. To participate in the online survey, go to go.iu.edu/cybersurvey. The responses provided will only be reported in the aggregate. Mary Anne Shinault

November 17, 1958 – February 1, 2020

Mary Anne Shinault, 61, passed away at her home in Sheridan on Saturday morning, February 1, 2020, surrounded by her loving family. Born November 17, 1958 in Indianapolis, she was the daughter of Vern Allen and Patricia Mae (Gaston) Ping. After graduating from North Central High School with the Class of 1977, Mary continued her education at Clark College, graduating Cum Laude with the Class of 1979.

For over 26 years Mary was an Assistant Manager at the Beech Grove Walmart. She, along with her sister Becky, also ran a successful daycare service for several years.

Family always came first for Mary. No matter what her boys were involved in growing up, she was there to encourage them. When they grew into young men and started going their own separate ways in life, she was there to support them. Whether the family was celebrating their joys and accomplishments or struggling during tough times, Mary was always there. Her family was her Church. Becoming a grandmother was as equally exciting for her. She may not have appreciated the title at first, but the role was what she lived for. It was her chance to be there for the next generation of her family, watching them grow and supporting them in all their endeavors. Mary's family also includes many stray cats and dogs that she brought home and adopted over the years, even though she always claimed that she "didn't like animals."

Mary enjoyed crafts and knitting, and always seemed to be making something for someone. She also had a very deep appreciation for music. When she had some time to herself, she would always find a reason to be outside. Whether it was camping, gardening, or just putting around out in the yard, if she could feel the sun on her, she was right where she wanted to be. All that outdoor time paid off this holiday season, as Mary took second place in Sheridan's town-wide Christmas decoration contest.

Throughout the journey that her family has taken her on, she couldn't have done it without the love of her life, her husband David, by her side. She and David were married on August 4, 1979.

Mary is survived by her loving husband, David Lane Shinault, Sheridan; her mother, Patricia Mae (Gaston) Ping; her four boys, David L. Shinault, Sheridan, James Andrew Shinault (Lauren), Nashville, Tenn., William CA Shinault (Alison), Sheridan, and Logan Sloan Shinault (Samantha), Oshkosh, Wis.; 11 grandchildren, Brendan, Zachary, Grayson, Christopher, Olin, Amelia, Mackensie, Violet, Victoria, Eleanor and Annabelle; one brother, Tom Ping (Mary Beth), Cicero; and three sisters, Becky Paul (Dan), Fishers, Donna McManis (Craig) of Ohio, and Jenny Lamkin, Elwood.

She was preceded in death by her father, Vern Ping; and by her daughter-in-law, Melissa Shinault.

Services will be held at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, February 5, 2020, at Kercheval Funeral Home, 306 E. 10th St., Sheridan, with visitation from 3 p.m. until the time of service. Mary's brother, Tom Ping, will be officiating.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be presented to the Boy Scouts of America, the Band Program at Sheridan Community Schools, or to the Breast Cancer Research Foundation at give.bcrf.org/Marys-fight.

Parrish sets county girls scoring record...

'Rocks, Royals advance to Sectional 8 semis

By RICHIE HALL

WESTFIELD - Sectional 8 is known throughout Indiana to be one of the toughest sectionals in any sport, especially in girls basketball.

That was certainly true Tuesday night's two first-round games. Host Westfield took to the court first, and the Shamrocks defended their home gym with a 54-44 win over Zionsville. In the second game, No. 5-ranked Hamilton Southeastern held off a late surge from No. 10 Carmel to get a 51-44 victory.

Westfield will take on No. 3-ranked Fishers in the first semi-final on Friday, which tips off at 6 p.m. The Royals play Noblesville in the second semi-final.

THREE-FOR-ALL

The Westfield-Zionsville game started as a "three-for-all." The Eagles used a pair of 3-pointers to take an 10-5 lead with 4:30 left in the first period. Jessica Castor also made a 3 during the early part of the quarter.

But the Shamrocks let loose from beyond the arc in the later part of the period. Alyssa Crockett hit a 3, then Ava Henson drained back-to-back triples, giving Westfield a 14-10 lead. The run continued into the second quarter, with Crockett's basket putting the 'Rocks ahead 16-10.

"We did a lot of mental training before and just this whole wee

Westfield never trailed again, although Zionsville would remain close for the entire game. The Shamrocks led 27-25 at halftime, but Crockett quickly pushed that lead to 32-25 just a few seconds into the third quarter, making a layin and a 3-pointer.

Westfield coach Ginny Smith said her team had been talking about being mentally tough, "that in this sectional, probably every game's going to be close," she said. "We got to be able to take some punches and be able to come back from those. And I felt like tonight we had a really good game plan defensively. I felt like we stuck to the game plan."

Henson said the team did "a lot of mental training" while preparing for the game. "And I think because of our preparation, that gave us confidence and just to not panic and be calm and play our game, because when we play our game, it doesn't matter what the other team's doing. We know that we can come back. They make a shot, that's over with, we can come back and get the next one. So that's our mentality. When stuff like that happens, just keep playing and just fix what happens."

Henson hit a 3 to give the 'Rocks their largest lead of the game, 35-27, early in the third. Ashtin DeCraene stepped up in the later part of the period, with a triple and two foul shots, making the free throws with 2:06 left. Neither team scored for the remainder of the quarter, which ended with Westfield up 41-33.

"I think we had a great third quarter, and that's not been the norm for us this year," said Smith. "We've always struggled somewhat in the third. It was really good to see the kids come out with a level of just grittiness to them. They resolved to not let down. I think it showed in the end."

The Shamrocks maintained a four-to-eight-point lead for most of the fourth period, pulling away in the final minute as the Eagles were forced to foul. Henson made 3 of 4 free throws in the final 18.2 seconds, with Castor and DeCraene both chipping in two.

Henson, a senior, finished the game with 18 points, including three 3s, and led the rebounding with four. Crockett added 16 points and DeCraene scored 10. Olivia Robey helped out with five steals and four assists.

Westfield improved to 14-10 after the win, while Zionsville finished its season 6-17.

FIGHT TO THE FINISH

The Southeastern-Carmel game started in similar fashion to the first contest, with a back-and-forth first quarter. The Greyhounds' Hannah Lach opened things up with a 3-pointer, then Jackie Maulucci answered with five straight points, a layin and a 3.

Kiara Gill tied the game with a basket, and Bridget Dunn hit a 3-pointer, but HSE's Lydia Self made a 3 to tie the game again. Lach drained a second triple to put Carmel up 11-8.

Sydney Parrish then scored seven straight points for the Royals, ending the first period with a jumper, then opening the second with a 3 and a layin. Lauren Morris made the run 10-0 with a 3-pointer; that put Southeastern up 18-11 and it would stay in front the rest of the way.

"We knew coming over here that this wasn't going to be easy," said HSE coach Chris Huppenthal. "They got some really, really good players and they battled the whole game."

The Royals led 27-20 at halftime, with Parrish making a 3 to finish the half. Southeastern then took a 42-29 lead late in the third quarter; Parrish added another nine points, with Self and Morris each hitting another 3-pointer.

Carmel made a 9-0 run that bridged the third and fourth quarters. Kate Clarke started it with a triple, then Dunn's layin was the final basket of the third period. Clarke opened the fourth with two foul shots, and a putback from Dunn got the 'Hounds within 42-38.

"We knew they'd make runs," said Parrish. "We knew it was going to be a game of runs. I give credit to them for making that run. It's really hard to come back in the fourth quarter and do that. But credit to our team and our defensive end.

We were able to get stops, score, stop, score and handle the ball under the pressure and I think that's what won us the game."

Parrish ended the run with a layin, then added two free throws to give HSE a 46-38 lead. Lach cut it to 46-40 with a clock, and ran it down before Self was fouled in a 1-and-1 situation with 1:39 left. She made both foul shots to put the Royals up 48-40, and HSE was able to hang on from there.

"Something that we've talked about all year is, you don't try to win this game in February," said Huppenthal. "You start preparing for this back in June and July and get your kids ready to play basketball."

Parrish finished the game with 25 points, including three 3-pointers, and broke the Hamilton County girls scoring record with a second-quarter putback. Parrish now has 1,887 career points, moving past the 1,869 points scored by Noblesville's Courtney Cox, a record that had stood for over 30 years.

"A lot of it's my teammates," said Parrish. "You can't put up that many points without getting the ball from your teammates and setting you up, so big credit to them."

"It's good she has the record," said Huppenthal. "You look at one of the best

Millers gymnasts compete in two meets

'Blazers open with win over Cascade

The Noblesville gymnastics team hosted a home meet Tuesday with New Palestine, Lapel and Fishers.

The Millers finished second to New Pal, with a score of 82.90. Hailey Knoll took fifth on the balance beam with a score of 7.65, with Ella Deno placing sixth by scoring 7.325. Both had “beam sticks,” meaning no falls from the beam, which Noblesville coach Jody Ramey said is “always a good thing especially that we are now having some consistency on the balance beam.”

Deno had the Millers’ highest score of the meet, with a 7.925 on the floor exercise, good for sixth place.

“Overall we do have some challenges to face as we enter into mid-season,” said Ramey. “We will continue to strive to increase our skill levels and create more connections with our skills which helps create value in a routine. I am looking forward to the second half of our season as I believe we will be seeing improvements in our individual score which of course will have our team score to continue to rise.”

On Saturday, Noblesville competed at the Northwestern Invitational, placing fifth with a score of 78.125. Cailey Hurst had the Millers’ highest score with a 7.975 on the floor, while Hailey Knoll placed eighth on the uneven bars with a 6.55.

The University girls opened Class 2A Sectional 43 play Tuesday night with a 65-44 win over Cascade in a contest played at Western Boone.

University's seniors led the way. Lindsey Syrek had 21 points and Maddi Sears had 13 points and 11 assists. Syrek's final basket of the night gave her 1,800 points in the 100th game of her career, just the third girl in Hamilton County history to reach the milestone. Syrek made 9 of 12 field goals for the game.

Freshman Jordan Patterson came off the bench to contribute 10 points. Kelsey DuBois had eight points and eight rebounds, Payton Seay had seven points, seven rebounds and four steals. Sierra Hinds rounded out the scoring for University (22-1) with six points and chipped in with six rebounds and three steals.

A 19-0 run over a nine-minute stretch of the second and third quarters was the decisive stretch for University. The Blazers led just 18-15 with five minutes left in the first half. University scored the last 11 points of the half to lead 29-15 at the break. Syrek started the run off a pass from Hinds. Patterson hit a three pointer off a Sears assist and Seay had a steal and lay-in to get the lead to 25-15. DuBois followed with a rebound basket and Syrek scored before the half.

The 8-0 start to the third quarter included a pair of Syrek foul shots, a DuBois basket, a Sears basket and another Patterson bucket after DuBois grabbed an offensive rebound. 13 of University's 31 rebounds came on the offensive glass. The University lead was as high as 25 at 45-20 and the Trailblazers led 47-26 after three periods.

Cascade cut the lead to 16 on three occasions in the fourth quarter, but could not get closer.

Cascade was led by Carley Gibbs with 12 points. The Cadets finish 12-11.

The second ranked Trailblazers advance to play 14th-ranked Covenant Christian in Friday night's second semi-final. Host Western Boone plays Park Tudor in the opener on Friday.

Parrish was named as one of the 10 semi-finalists for the Naismith High School Girls Trophy, presented to the top girls player in the United States.

“What people get to see here and what we’ve got to see for the last four years is special with her,” said Huppenthal. “She’s obviously a great basketball player. She’s a heck of a teammate.”

Self scored eight points; she and Morris both had two 3s. Parrish led the rebounds with eight, while Maulucci collected seven rebounds and handed out five assists. Parrish also blocked two shots.

Dunn scored 15 points for Carmel and pulled nine rebounds, with Clarke adding 10 points. Dunn had two blocks.

“I am just so proud of them,” said Greyhounds coach Erin Trimpe. “They never quit.” She credited her team with fighting back after getting down by 13 points.

“But HSE is just such a good team, so you have to credit the things that they did,” said Trimpe. “But I was really proud of our effort and the way we fought back and the way we kept in it and didn’t quit, ever.”

Southeastern is 21-2 for the season, while the Greyhounds finished 15-8.
