Westfield Lions helping at-risk Hoosier veterans

The REPORTER

The Westfield Lions Club hosted Robert White, community engagement director for the Hoosier Veterans Assistance Fund of Indiana (HVAF) at the club's program meeting for February.

The mission of HVAF is to house, support and advocate for all veterans and their families in order to help them achieve the best possible quality of life. Founded by three Veterans Administration staffers, the HVAF has a unique partnership with the VA to help and support at-risk American military veterans.

Director Robert White, an Air Force veteran himself, said, "We have around 500 homeless veterans right here in Central Indiana. We have both transitional housing where we provide not only homes, but also substance abuse counseling services, as well as more long-term apartments for our vets."

HVAF's Veteran Services Center at 964 N. Pennsylvania St., Indianapolis, provides food, clothing, furniture, household items and personal hygiene supplies to all vets in need.

HVAF has over 200 beds now, but the need greatly exceeds this capacity. At the meeting, the Westfield Lions donated a huge amount of food and supplies as well as $1,500 to the organization. Several Lions opened their hearts and wallets with additional donations to HVAF. The Lions also supported HVAF with a donation at the last Lions Poker for Sight tournament this past fall.

Advocating for Victims of Crime and Abuse

www.prevailinc.com

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault – it wasn’t something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don’t often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we’re breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.

To help Hamilton County families affected by domestic violence and sexual abuse, you can donate the following items:

- Bottled water (8 oz. bottles, preferably)
- Individually packaged snacks
- Gas cards (many women have no access to funds after fleeing their abuser)

Westfield voter supports Heirbrandt for re-election

Dear Editor,

I am writing to you today because I am thrilled to see current Hamilton County Commissioner Mark Heirbrandt will be the Republican nominee in November 2020. I have no doubts that he will win re-election and will continue to lead Hamilton County responsibly, with taxpayers in mind.

Hamilton County is flourishing under the leadership of people like Mark Heirbrandt. Since becoming commissioner, he has always focused on the needs and desires of those within the county. He has been proactive in enhancing training for both firefighters and police officers, and has always worked to stay educated on the latest technology in the public safety sphere.

Mark is also constantly working to assess our traffic needs for the future. Already, construction is beginning on State Road 37 to attend to traffic concerns. Once construction is finished, the corridor will become an economic hub and reduce commutes. He continues to prepare our county for a growing population and successful future.

I will continue to give Mark my unwavering support as he campaigns for re-election, and urge you to do the same.

First since 2014 for Fishers girls...

Tigers roar back to Sectional 8 title

By RICHIE HALL

WESTFIELD - Everyone talks about what championship teams do to win, but there's one thing they don't do: They never quit.

"These kids, they don't know what 'give up' is," said Fishers girls basketball coach Lauren Votaw. She was speaking minutes after her Tigers team had come back from way down to win the Class 4A Sectional 8 championship at Westfield. Third-ranked Fishers trailed 21-5 in the second quarter to fifth-ranked Hamilton Southeastern, but roared back in the second half to win 50-42, securing the team's second sectional title. The Tigers won their first in 2014.

"And they came in today with this mission that this was our time," said Votaw.

The Royals were in control for most of the first half. Sydney Parrish opened the game with back-to-back baskets, then a Lauren Morris 3-pointer put Southeastern up 7-2. Fishers' Katie Burton cut into that lead with her own 3-pointer, keeping the Tigers within 7-5.

The Royals then went on a 14-0 run that extended into the second period. Ryan Viele hit a 3-pointer that put HSE up 14-5 at the end of the first quarter, and Morris promptly hit a 3 to begin the second. Baskets from Parrish and Makayla Hinshaw gave the Royals a 21-5 lead.

Lydia Stullken ended the run when she made a layin with 4:35 left in the second period. No one knew it at the time, but that would be the start of a 17-2 run for Fishers. Burton drained a 3 and made a layin, then Tamia Perryman's two foul shots with 1.9 seconds left got the Tigers within 23-14 at halftime.

Votaw characterized Fishers' locker room as "unique" during halftime.

"We haven't been down a whole lot at half," said Votaw. "And that was a relatively significant margin against a team as good as Southeastern. But I reminded them that we were down eight twice, including eight in the fourth quarter against them the first time."

Fishers' Kaitlynn Feagan (11) and her teammates hold up the Sectional 8 trophy after the Tigers' 50-42 win over Hamilton Southeastern Saturday at Westfield. It's the second girls basketball sectional title for Fishers.

That first time was the Mudsock game earlier in the season - "48-40, I can still see it in my head," said Votaw. "And so I was like, 'This is nothing.' They just don't have any quit. We hit big shots. We took care of business."

Fishers opened the third quarter with eight unanswered points: Perryman scored off a steal, Hailey Smith converted a three-point play, then Kaitlynn Feagan made a 3. The Tigers were now within one, 23-22.

The Royals pushed their lead back to 28-22 after Viele's layin and a triple by Parrish. Southeastern still led 29-26 after three periods, and a Parrish putback gave them a 31-28 lead with around five min-

Then Perryman took over. The senior hit a 3-pointer to tie the game, then Burton's free throws gave Fishers its first lead, 33-31 at the 3:57 mark. Parrish scored on another putback, but Perryman nailed another 3. The Tigers were now up 36-33 and would hold the lead until the final buzzer.

Perryman hit two more 3s in the quarter, with her fourth triple giving Fishers a 42-35 advantage.

"I was wide open, and if I'm open, I'm going to shoot it," said Perryman. "They kept doing it. After I hit the first one, I was like 'All right, confidence booster.' Then I just kept hitting them and kept hitting them. When I got to the fourth one, our coach is like 'Layup only.'"

"I'm so proud of that kid," said Votaw. "I don't think there is another player that I've coached who has grown up as much as a person and a player in her four years than that kid right there."

Perryman did make a layin to get the Tigers up 44-37. Fishers then closed the game from the free-throw line, with Burton going 4-for-4 and Hailey Smith making 2-of-2.

Perryman finished the game with 18 points and six rebounds, while Burton added 14 points.

Parrish earned a double-double of 23 points and 12 rebounds in her final game for Southeastern, as she now heads to the University of Oregon. She finished her career with 1,925 points, setting a new Hamilton County girls scoring record a few days ago. Viele collected five rebounds and Jackie Maulucci handed out four assists. The Royals finished their season 22-3.

The Tigers are 23-1, extending their school record for wins in a season. Fishers will play next Saturday in the Marion regional, taking on No. 1 Northwestern in the first semi-final game. The second semi-final will see Fort Wayne Carroll take on No. 4 Homestead, giving the regional three of the top four teams.

"This team is so special," said Votaw. "As I said last night, I was just grateful that we got one more night to play together, and now I get one more week, at least one more week to spend with them. I'm just so excited."

At Hamilton Southeastern, Fishers won the team sectional title, scoring 556 points. The Royals were a strong second with 491 points, and newcomer Hamilton Heights placed sixth, totaling 187 points.

The Tigers won eight of the 12 events, and qualified eight other swimmers to state by times. Fishers won the first four events: Jo Jo Ramey, Lydia Reade, Alexandra Stein and Kalli Agapios teamed up to place first in the medley relay, Kate Mouser took the 200 free, Jo Jo Ramey was first in the IM and Ellen Fero won the 50 free.

Other event victories came from Abigail Miller in the butterfly, Ramey in the 500 free, the 200 free relay team of Fero, Agapios, Stein and Hannah Pratt, and Lydia Reade in the breaststroke.

Fishers achieved state cut times from the following swimmers: Pratt in the 200 free, Reade and Corinne Yorkman in the IM, Fero in the 100 free, Abby Jahns and Yorkman in the 500 free and the 400 free relay team of Jo Jo Ramey, Mouser, Yorkman and Pratt. In addition, divers Morgan Casey and Grace Mossing placed second and third respectively, and will head north to Tuesday's diving regional at Fort Wayne South Side.

"We feel good about the step today, the performance today," said Fishers coach Joe Keller.

"We've been talking to the kids about, this is like a four-step process," said Keller. "Step one was Thursday, today was step two, so we're at halftime now. Step three and four are the most important coming up. Hopefully we've saved our best for last."

The Royals picked up four event victories. Sarah Ballard was first in diving (qualifying for the regional), Molly Pedersen won the 100 free, Abigail Harter ran away with the backstroke, and Southeastern finished the meet with a win in the 400 free relay. Kayleigh Witt, Grace Newton, Pedersen and Harter teamed up for that victory.

The Royals qualified both of their relays to state by time. Rebecca Ang, Kennedy Fisher, DaBin Jung and Harter made the cut in the medley relay, while Kennedy Fisher, Bri Saple, Witt and Pedersen qualified in the 200 free relay. Pedersen and Witt both qualified in the 200 free relay and Fisher got a state cut time in the breaststroke, giving Southeastern a total of nine swimmers at state, with some callbacks possible as well.

"Swam really well," said Royals coach Andy Pedersen. "I'm very pleased. The girls were excited and took advantage of opportunities where they could. I was really pleased with the effort and the enthusiasm. We got a great team."

Hamilton Heights did well in its first meet at the HSE/Fishers sectional. Huskies diver Alexa Williams placed fourth and qualified for the regional. Heights also had all three relays place fifth.

Huskies coach Sue Beale was named as one of the three coaches of the meet, along with Keller.

"I thought we swam really well," said Beale. "Most people had a personal record, or personal best time. Relays placed really well. Next year I'd like to get a few more in that were 17th, but all in all, I think we swam great."

Martin's 26 leads 'Blazers to victory

Joe Martin scored a career-high 26 points to lead University to a 70-50 victory over Sectional 43 rival Heritage Christian Saturday afternoon at The U Center.

The Trailblazers took control from the opening tip, scoring the first seven points of the game and led 14-7 after the opening period. Max Greenamoyer and Jacob Sager had five points each in the first period.

University took a 10-point lead at 23-13 midway through the second period and maintained a double-digit lead for the remainder of the game. That 10-point lead came as a result of one of the more exciting plays of the afternoon. Larry Pierce blocked a Heritage Christian layup attempt leading to a Sam Mervis run out and lay in at the other end. That basket sparked an 11-0 University run that had the Trailblazers take a 32-15 lead at the half.

University's lead reached 25 during the third period as Martin went off for 12 points in the quarter. The Trailblazers led 53-30 after the third period and maintained at least a 19-point lead for the rest of the game.

Greenamoyer had 14 points including four three point baskets and four steals. Camden Brown had nine points and Sager added seven points. Mervis had seven of University's 14 assists. The Blazers had an excellent assist to turnover ratio, committing only seven turnovers.

GC falls to Panthers

Guerin Catholic dropped a 78-69 game to North Central Saturday afternoon at the Eagles Nest.

The Golden Eagles got off to a good start, leading 19-11 after the first quarter. The Panthers began chipping away at that advantage in the next two periods, cutting Guerin's lead to 32-26 by halftime. The Golden Eagles still held a 52-49 led after three quarters, but North Central poured in 29 points in the fourth to take the game.

Bernie McGuinness had a great game, scoring 29 points for Guerin Catholic. Joseph Bobilya added 18 points, while Kaleb Edwards scored 15 points, in addition to eight rebounds and four assists. McGuinness pulled six rebounds and Matthew Gillis collected five.

The Golden Eagles are 12-6 and play Tuesday at Shortridge.

'Hawks stunned by South Putnam's big fourth quarter

Sheridan was stunned at South Putnam on Saturday, as a big fourth quarter from the Eagles sent the Blackhawks to a 65-49 defeat.

Sheridan led 15-10 after the first quarter, but South Putnam came back to hold a 25-22 advantage at halftime. The 'Hawks cut that lead to 38-37 after three periods, but the Eagles poured in 27 points in the fourth to take the game.

Kyle Eden scored 23 points for Sheridan, with Nolan Buckner adding 10 points and making four steals. Ethan Moistner led the rebounding with nine.

The Blackhawks are 5-13 and return to Hobbs Memorial Gymnasium on Friday to host Carroll in a Hoosier Heartland Conference game.

Pacers fall to Pelicans for fifth straight loss

The end of game struggles continued for the Pacers (31-22), as they fell to the visiting New Orleans Pelicans (22-31), 124-117, Saturday night at Bankers Life Fieldhouse. It is the fifth-straight loss for the Blue & Gold.

Despite the absence of its two leading scorers, Zion Williamson and Brandon Ingram, New Orleans got 31 points on 10-of-22 shooting from Jrue Holiday. The eldest brother of the Holiday bunch tallied 11 of the Pelican’s final 13 points in the last 1:47 of the contest. Conversely, the Pacers went cold, missing three consecutive attempts in a 1:03 span with less than two minutes to go.

With 45.5 seconds remaining, Holiday iced the game, nailing a wide open three from the left elbow to put New Orleans up, 118-110.

Jeremy Lamb ended the night with a team-high 26 points, five boards, and four assists. In a somber locker room, he summarized the end of the game succinctly.

“They made shots. We didn’t. They got stops. We didn’t.”

In his first game since missing three due to a concussion, T.J. Warren finished with 22 points on 9-of-12 shooting. Malcolm Brogdon added 17, eight boards, and six dishes, while Domantas Sabonis added 16 and eight rebounds.

Complimenting Holiday for New Orleans tonight was 13-year veteran J.J. Redick. The consisten sharpshooter tallied 23 points, including 19 in the first half that helped the Pelicans grab a 60-55 halftime lead.

Lamb was the go-to guy for the Blue & Gold on the offensive end beginning early in the first. He scored seven of the Pacers first 11 points, including a deep triple with the shot-clock sounding, to knot things at 11 apiece with 7:05 to play in the first quarter.

Later in the period, after an emphatic right-handed slam from Jaxson Hayes threatened to pull the momentum away from Indiana, Lamb once again brought the Blue & Gold back into it. Five straight points from the former UConn star cut Indiana’s deficit to 21-20 with 3:49 to go.

With 1:18 showing and Indiana trailing by one, Warren gave the Pacers their first lead of the ball game, 24-23, on a crafty reverse layup through a foul call.

However, the Pelicans would soon retake the lead, and exit the quarter with a 31-26 lead behind back-to-back trips to the charity stripe with less than 30 seconds remaining.

Early in the second, it was Doug McDermott who sparked the Pacers offense. The sharpshooter scored the first seven Pacer points in the frame, including a wide-open triple from the left wing, to cut the Pacers’ lead to 35-33 with 10:21 left to play in the first half.

But for the next few minutes, the Blue & Gold struggled from the floor. A 3:35 scoreless streak allowed the visitors to accrue a 45-33 lead before a pair of Justin Holiday free throws trimmed the lead back to 10 with 6:46 to play. During the drought, Redick tallied six of New Orleans’ 10 points.

But the Pacers found a way to claw back to within striking distance behind a team effort. Warren, Myles Turner, Sabonis, and Brogdon all scored buckets as part of an 8-2 spree that cut Indiana’s deficit to 52-48 with 2:31 to play before Pelicans’ head coach Alvin Gentry halted play with a timeout.

After five quick points from Redick put Indiana back into a 57-50 hole, Lamb’s three from the left wing cut the deficit down to 57-53 with 1:17 to go. But a Lonzo Ball triple helped pushed New Orleans’ lead to five before time expired.

To start the third, a string of five unanswered points combined with a gritty defensive effort allowed the Pacers to tie things at 60 apiece on a Warren jumper with 8:35 left in the period. The stifling defense held New Orleans scoreless until the 8:21 mark of the frame, including a possession in which New Orleans snagged three consecutive offensive rebounds.

For the next few minutes, the teams battled in a close game. Sabonis was involved in three straight Pacers possessions, scoring five points and assisting on a Warren layup with a nifty one-handed overhead pass to bring Indiana back to within one, 70-69. A pair of Brogdon free throws with 5:17 remaining then gave the Blue & Gold a 71-70 lead.

Later, it was Brogdon again who helped the Pacers keep up. After Jrue Holiday’s trey from the right wing gave the Pelicans a 78-75 lead, Brogdon swiftly responded with a three of his own to tie it up.

Then, with 2:19 to play, Brogdon once against found a response to a Pelicans’ three. Favoring an isolated matchup against Frank Jackson, Brogdon drove left and finished a three-point play to knot things at 81 apiece.

With time winding down, the Pacers kept things tied, 85-85, on a pair of Warren free throws. But, with 0.9 seconds left in the frame, Holiday completed a three-point play from the right elbow of the paint to give New Orleans the slim lead entering the final frame.

Five unanswered Pacers points, including a corner three from Justin Holiday, quickly grabbed a 90-88 lead early in the fourth quarter. But Redick’s first points of the second half, a floating jumper in the paint, quickly put New Orleans ahead 92-90 with 9:58 remaining.

Indiana appeared to gain some headway in the tight battle after scoring seven straight to jump ahead 103-99 on a Lamb tip-in with 5:57 remaining.

However, the Pelicans responded quickly. Holiday and former Purdue guard E’Twaun Moore pushed New Orleans ahead by one, 104-103 with 4:51 to go.

Then it was Indiana’s turn. A clutch three from Turner followed by a Lamb jumper grabbed a 108-106 lead with 3:26 remaining.

Though, the familiar faces of the night put the Pelicans in front again. Redick knotted things up on the next Pelicans possession with a driving finger-roll layup. Holiday then sandwiched a Sabonis hook shot with five points, including a crafty fadeaway jumper to earn a 113-110 lead with 1:47 to go.

As Indiana struggled to find the net late, Holiday iced the game by drilling a wide-open three from the left elbow with 45.5 seconds to go, putting New Orleans up 118-110.

With Indiana forced to foul, he added four free throws as an exclamation mark to his near-perfect finish. It was yet another disheartening ending for Indiana.

The Blue & Gold hope to end their skid against the Brooklyn Nets on Monday, Feb. 10 at Bankers Life Fieldhouse.
