Young Republicans host Presidents’ Day Dinner

Submitted

The first annual Indiana High School Republicans (IHSR) Presidents' Day Dinner was a stellar success. Chairman Chris Elmore and Vice-Chairman Nicholas Yax hit the ground running with their first event for IHSR.

This year, guest speakers included State Representative Chuck Goodrich, State Auditor Tera Klutz, and Speaker-Elect Todd

Huston. The organization's goal through this dinner was to bring out supporters of the organization to be updated about the group's successes and future plans.

Chairman Elmore addressed the crowd, recapping the last year of the organization during his tenure, with an emphasis on IHSR's club growth and achievement of corporate status.

Elmore also announced that the group plans on becoming "the most involved high school political organization ever" during this 2020 election cycle, and wants to continue building a community for students who feel their views alienate them from their peers.

The Indiana High School Republicans are currently planning out next year's dinner, set for mid-February 2021. Learn more at ihsrepublicans.org.

Election Board hearing challenges to local candidates

By FRED SWIFT
ReadTheReporter.com

The Hamilton County Election Board will convene today to hear ballot challenges from both Republican and Democratic chairmen.

Democratic county chairman Joe Weingarten claims eight ineligible individuals filed for state convention delegate in the May 5 Democratic primary election. The eight have either no record of party affiliation or have voted Republican in past primary elections.

Republican Chairwoman Laura Campbell has filed seven challenges against persons who filed for precinct committeeman or convention delegate (or both) who cannot be identified as members of the GOP.

Election Board members Ray Adler, Greg Purvis and Kathy Williams may remove a candidate's name from the ballot upon evidence that the person has no record of proper party affiliation.

There is no indication that members of one party are trying to infiltrate the other party's organization, but convention delegates and committeemen are party positions and not actual public offices. And, political parties have the right to make certain candidates belong to their party.

Names of those being challenged were not released prior to a board determination. Party affiliation in Indiana is usually determined by a person's ballot request in past primary elections.

Convention delegates elected May 5 will choose nominees for Attorney General and Lieutenant Governor of the state, adopt a party platform and elect Indiana delegates to each party's national convention.

Fishers City Council has first party-line vote

Republicans reject Dems’ proposal on meeting procedures

By LARRY LANNAN
LarryInFishers.com

In last year's city elections, two Democrats were elected to the council, for the first time in anyone's memory. At Monday night's meeting, council members split a vote along party lines for the first time.

Councilwoman Jocelyn Vare, a Democrat, proposed an amendment to a measure restoring a past policy of having the council review planning and zoning items before sending the proposal to the Plan Commission. Vare's amendment originally proposed inserting a phrase in the council procedures to utilize Roberts Rules of Order, citing a suggestion by AIM, the state-wide association of cities and towns.

Councilman Brad DeReamer cautioned against the idea, saying it caused problems when he was mayor of Greenfield, due to the technicalities in Roberts' rules. Vare changed her amendment allow council comments before a vote is taken.

Vare

Vare's amendment was seconded by her fellow Democrat on the council, Sam DeLong. Republican councilors objected, saying council presidents always allow for council comments before calling a vote.

Vare made it clear that simply to state that the council, once a motion is made and is seconded, will while she has no objections to the way Council President Cecilia Coble has been running the meetings, she argued the rules should be in the procedures so it is written down as a council rule for the future.

Vare's amendment was voted down 7-2, with Democrats Vare and DeLong the only yes votes. All Republicans on the council voted against Vare's amendment.

The measure on first readings being presented to council members before going to the Plan Commission for a public hearing passed the council Monday.

Demon Barber of Fleet Street hits Carmel stage for just one weekend

Submitted

The time is here at last, the first ever collaborative production by Actors Theatre of Indiana (ATI) and Carmel Symphony Orchestra (CSO).

Winner of the 1979 Tony Award for Best Musical, Stephen Sondheim's Sweeney Todd, The Demon Barber of Fleet Street will be performed at the Palladium at the Center for the Performing Arts on Feb. 21 and 22. Under the musical direction of CSO Maestro Janna Hymes, this fully-staged spectacle will feature ATI co-founders Don Farrell as Sweeney Todd, Judy Fitzgerald as Mrs. Lovett and Cynthia Collins as Beggar Woman.

Called a tasty, thrilling theatrical treat, Sweeney Todd has simultaneously shocked, awed and delighted audiences across the world. It is an infamous tale of an unjustly exiled barber returning to London to seek revenge on the judge who framed him. Lush, operatic and full of soaring beauty, pitch-black comedy and stunning terror, it is one of the signal achievements of the American Musical Theatre in the last 50 years.

Building on ATI's highly successful 2015-16 production, Sweeney Todd will be directed by Richard J. Roberts and feature the Carmel Symphony Orchestra using original Broadway orchestrations under the direction of Hymes.

In addition to Farrell, Fitzgerald and Collins, players include Elizabeth Hutson (Johanna), Matthew Conwell (Anthony), Tim Fullerton (Judge Turpin), David Cunningham ( Tobias), Mario Almonte III (Pirelli), Michael Elliott (Beadle), Rory Shivers-Brimm (Jonas Fogg) and Karaline Feller (Bird Seller).

phony Orchestra are thrilled to be joined by a talented 80-member chorus facilitated by the Indianapolis Arts Chorale in this presentation of Sweeney Todd.

"Collaborating with other arts organization is one of the ways we continue to present exciting, unique, entertaining and relevant works to the community," said CSO Music Director Janna Hymes. "We are very excited to be working this year with ATI and trust our audience will love it as well."

"Here is a show that, in the heartland of capitalism, attacks greed and exploitation," added ATI Artistic Director Don Farrell. "Its hero is not a sympathetic compassionate, but a vengeful barber turned serial killer. And, musically, it is so sophisticated. Sondheim's score for Sweeney Todd is one of his richest and most complicated, while the subject matter provides its own weight as an unusual plot for a Broadway musical."

Tickets are available now at the Center for the Performing Arts box office or through the Center for the Performing Arts, ATI and CSO websites.

Spartz: DCS must provide better value to children and taxpayers

The REPORTER

A bill authored by State Sen. Victoria Spartz (R-Noblesville), which would require the Indiana Department of Child Services (DCS) to provide a breakdown of spending per child, recently passed the Senate.

"I applaud the work of DCS and appreciate the tremendous responsibility this agency has," said Senator Spartz. "DCS has an annual budget of nearly one billion dollars. We spend about $50,000 per child per year, although most money doesn't go directly to the kids and families. You can pay for Harvard Business School with that much money. We need to understand what is driving these expenditures and how we can deliver better value to our children and keep DCS accountable to taxpayers."

A recent editorial commended Spartz and

Protect access to health care: Include independent dispute resolution in ‘surprise billing’ legislation

Most Hoosiers agree on the need to reduce health care costs, to improve access to care and to end the practice of surprise medical billing. And Indiana physicians would agree.

They have witnessed families struggle to pay for emergency or unplanned medical services from providers that are outside their health insurance network. However, the two pieces of “surprise billing” legislation moving forward in the Indiana General Assembly, Senate Bill 3 and House Bill 1004, lack any methods to determine fair payment for the medical professionals who are there when patients need them most.

That’s why doctors in Indiana and across the country are advocating for independent dispute resolution, or IDR, a process by which an unbiased third party is available to settle payment disputes between insurers and out-of-network physicians. Otherwise, there will be no obligation for insurers to pay physicians a fair rate.

Without an IDR process, physicians are concerned the repercussions will lead to higher health care costs and less access to critical care – the exact problems lawmakers have vowed to fix.

Cost of Health Care

A priority for the Indiana General Assembly is to lower health care costs for Hoosier consumers, and rightfully so. But doctors are not the problem here. According to the Health Care Cost Institute, physician fees in Indiana cost employers 22.5 percent less than the national average. In fact, Hoosier companies spend less per person on their employees’ professional medical services than all but three states in the U.S. – and less than every neighboring state.

Cutting physician fees in Indiana when such fees are already well below the rest of the nation will not make health care cheaper and more accessible. It will lead to more practice groups getting acquired by health systems or simply closing altogether. Such consolidation will result in less competition in the market, higher prices, longer wait times and fewer doctors available to serve our communities.

Access to Health Care

For vulnerable populations, especially in rural areas, the only thing worse than surprise medical billing is not having any medical providers at all. Some independent physician groups contract with rural facilities to staff evening and weekend hours. These arrangements could be impacted without a fair solution for payment disagreements between insurance companies and out-of-network providers, leaving rural citizens without 24/7 emergency medical care.

An Effective Solution

To be a truly effective solution, surprise billing legislation at both the state and federal level needs to include an unbiased, market-based approach – the kind that IDR provides.

The competing federal bills up for consideration in Washington, D.C. include independent dispute resolution. A bipartisan effort to end surprise billing was recently proposed in the U.S. House Ways and Means Committee by the ranking Republican, Rep. Kevin Brady (R-Texas), and the committee chair, Rep. Richard E. Neal (D-Mass.). Their bill, “Consumer Protections Against Surprise Medical Bills Act of 2020,” would eliminate surprise billing AND provide a method for fair payment with IDR serving as a backstop to incentivize parties to contract in good faith.

I urge you to contact your state and federal lawmakers to support this approach to end surprise billing – including an independent, third-party arbitration that is fair, fast and free of bureaucracy. That way, patients can focus on getting the medical care they need, when and where they need it, at a cost they can reasonably afford.

Emalou Jane Leonard

November 2, 1919 – February 15, 2020

Emalou Jane Leonard, 100, Sheridan, passed away on Saturday morning, February 15, 2020 at Riverview Health in Noblesville. Born November 2, 1919 in Hamilton County, she was the daughter of the late Lindley Perry and Lemon C. (Steffey) Pickett.

After graduating from Sheridan High School with the Class of 1937, she, like many women of the day, attended technical school to learn additional skills to help support the war effort. Emalou decided to attend the comptometer school in Indianapolis.

Emalou was as much a part of the town of Sheridan as the town was a part of her. Having lived for a century in northwestern Hamilton County gives you a certain perspective on things, and being born shortly after the end of the First World War, growing up in the midst of The Great Depression, and spending the first part of your young adult life engaged in the war effort during WWII will give you an education most people have only read about in books or seen in the movies. Growing up and coming of age during those times teaches you the importance of family and looking after your neighbors, and helps to instill a sense of service to your community.

For 18 years, Emalou proudly served the Town of Sheridan as Clerk Treasurer. After stepping down from that position, she would devote another 25 years working in the front office at Town Hall. For over four decades, Emalou was one of the familiar faces that people looked forward to seeing when they had business to take care of uptown. Most residents could just as easily have mailed in their water bills or other paperwork, but that wasn't nearly as fun as dropping it off in person and getting to talk to Emalou and the other ladies at the front window and catching up on what was going on in town. It takes a very special group of people to make someone look forward to going into a government office, let alone giving them your money.

Emalou also was very active in many community organizations. She was a 75-year member of the Sheridan Chapter #226 Order of Eastern Star, served for many years as a member of the Sheridan Kiwanis, the Hamilton County Republicans Women's Club, served as Republican Precinct Vice Committeeman for several years, and was a charter member of the Sherettes Home Ec. Club. She was also proud to be a life member of the Sheridan First United Methodist Church. Throughout the past 100 years, Emalou has been involved with countless groups, projects, and activities around the area. In recognition of her community involvement and life of service, in December of 1985, Emalou Leonard was appointed a Chieftain of Governor Robert Orr's Staff with the Rank and Title of Sagamore of The Wabash, one of Indiana's highest honors.

Family was by far the most important part of her life. On May 4, 1941, Emalou married the love of her life, Clayburn E. "Jack" Leonard, and they would spend the next 57 years by each other's side. Jack and Emalou loved to fish and hit up just every lake, pond and gravel pit in the area. She loved going to Morse Reservoir and Lake Freeman but was just as happy sitting out at a fishin' hole behind somebody's field. As long as she was with family, she was right where she wanted to be. She didn't shy away from hunting either. Emalou was always present for the annual Pickett Family Thanksgiving Day Hunt. She also loved giving her friends a run for their money at cards. She played with the Felix Grex Bridge Club, and with her Saturday Evening Euchre Club for over 70 years.

Emalou is survived by her son, Donald E. Leonard (Nancy E.), Monticello; two daughters, Mary Ann Lowder, Sheridan, and Nancy J. Tansy (Bob), Loveland, Ohio; seven grandchildren, Mary Lou Finchum (John), Lewis Morford IV (Kathryn), Catherine Lyn Wilson (Daren), Donald Earl Leonard (Lisa), Daniel Eric Leonard (Aurora), Kelly Cocco (Nick) and Kyle Tansy (Michelle); 19 great-grandchildren; sister-in-law Martha Pickett, Cicero; two nieces, one nephew, and several great-nieces and nephews who will be missing their "Aunt Jane"; and by her sister and partner in crime, Kathryn Marie "Kate" Pickett, Sheridan. Between the two of them, they had more energy, orneriness and stubbornness than the rest of the family put together.

She was preceded in death by her parents; two brothers, Richard L. and Ralph "Hap" Pickett; sons-in-law, Lewis F. Morford, Jr. and Eugene "Butch" Louder; and by her husband Jack, on April 9, 1998.

Services will be held on Thursday, February 20, 2020 at Kercheval Funeral Home, 306 E. 10th St., Sheridan. Burial will follow at Crown View Cemetery in Sheridan. Pastor Carol Fritz will be officiating. Visitation will take place from 4 to 8 p.m. on Wednesday, February 19, 2020 at Kercheval Funeral Home in Sheridan.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be presented to the Sheridan First United Methodist Church.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

And he leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God. And all the people saw him walking and praising God: And they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him. And as the lame man which was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering. And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk?
Acts 3:8-12 (KJV)

Jay Warren Hammack

September 11, 1924 – February 9, 2020

Jay Warren Hammack, 95, Sheridan, passed away peacefully, surrounded by his loving family on Sunday morning, February 9, 2020. Born September 11, 1924 in Hamilton County, he was the son of the late Emil and Icie (Gray) Hammack.

After graduating from Sheridan High School with the Class of 1942, Jay proudly served his country during WWII. He was attached to the 1st Cavalry Division of the United States Army, receiving an Asiatic Pacific medal, Army of Occupation medal, and a WWII victory medal.

Jay worked for many years with Stahl Brothers Lumber Company before hiring on with Biddle Screw Products in Sheridan. He worked with the heat treating and metal tempering machines for 32 years before taking his retirement.

You would be hard pressed to find many people who loved putting around their property as much as Jay did. Messing around in the garden could keep him busy for hours. He grew peanuts, cotton and just about anything else you could imagine; if he could get the seeds or the starts, he'd give it a try. Jay was also very, VERY meticulous about the yard. He loved mowing his own yard and was able to do so until August of 2019. At that point everything changed. The kids took over the mowing responsibilities, and shortly thereafter the first unsightly weeds were discovered, documented, and made known by management. Although the exact conversation is unknown, the situation was quickly rectified.

Jay also had a passion for photography. He loved taking photos, and as the technology advanced, he embraced it and fell in love all over again. The digital age allowed him the opportunities to convert his older photos and movie reels to newer formats so he could share them with family and friends more easily. Jay also loved to listen to Big Band and Swing music; Guy Lombardo was his favorite band leader.

Jay was a loving husband and father, but grandpa was the role he was built for. He loved following all of their activities. He was a loyal Blackhawk fan and enjoyed following Andy's games.

Jay is survived by his daughter, Rebecca Aldred (Michael), Sheridan; three sons, Jeffrey Hammack, Indianapolis, Roger Hammack, Sheridan, and Chris Hammack, Indianapolis; four grandchildren, Andrew Aldred (Amy), Angola, Diana Aldred-Griffin (Matthew), Westfield, Heather Hammack-Cochenour (Jesse), Columbus, and Ryne Hammack, Indianapolis; two great-grandchildren, Ellie and Quinn Aldred, both of Angola; and by his brother, David Hammack (Carole), Brownsburg.

He was preceded in death by his parents; two infant siblings, Wilma Jean Hammack and Edwin Gene Hammack; and by his loving wife, Dorothy M. (Irick) Hammack on November 17, 2018. She and Jay were married in 1947.

The family would like to thank the doctors and nursing staff at Witham Hospital, Suburban Hospice and Homewood Health Campus for their wonderful care.

There are no services being planned at this time. Jay will be laid to rest at Crown View Cemetery in Sheridan.

Kercheval Funeral Home has been entrusted with the arrangements.

Balance, hot shooting at The Mill...

Millers pull away from Golden Eagles

By RICHIE HALL

NOBLESVILLE - If there were words that could be assigned to the Noblesville boys basketball team's Tuesday win over Guerin Catholic, the primary word would be "balance."

Nine players took to the floor for the Millers at The Mill against the Golden Eagles, and all nine scored in the 73-63 victory. The game was close for the first one and three-fourths quarters, but Noblesville got hot from the 3-point arc to pull away at the end of the first half – the secondary word of the game would be "three" – then made a run in the fourth quarter to close the game.

It was a nice win for the Millers, and a good way to bounce back after a tough loss on Saturday to Fort Wayne Wayne.

"At Mount Vernon and at Brownsburg, our team grew more than we have at any other point in the season," said Noblesville coach John Peckinpaugh. "We had a little hiccup on Saturday, but our guys responded really, really well at practice on Monday. And then at film again this morning, I thought we were really well-prepared."

The first quarter finished in a 7-7 tie. Guerin Catholic's Matthew Gillis gave his team a 4-2 lead by making back-to-back putbacks, then Noblesville's EJ Smith and the Golden Eagles' Bernie McGuinness traded 3-pointers for the last baskets of the period.

McGuinness' 3 began a 7-0 run for Guerin, which led 11-7 with 5:50 left in the second quarter. The Millers' David Lloyd ended the run with a 3-pointer, and it was his free throw that tied the game at 13-13.

Noblesville then turned up the heat from beyond the arc, making four consecutive 3-pointers. Evan Wilson nailed the first two, then Noah Harris and Smith each hit a triple. That allowed the Millers to get some separation by halftime, leading 25-19.

Smith drained his third 3 of the game at the beginning of the third quarter, making it five 3-pointers in a row for Noblesville. Brendon Fisher added a couple more triples later in the quarter, and his second 3 put the Millers up 34-24.

"Our guys shot it like they do in practice," said Peckinpaugh. "Their confidence was good. Midway through that first quarter, I told them 'Hey, at some point the lid's going to come off the hoop and we're going to start making some of these.'"

The Golden Eagles continued to battle. Joseph Bobilya hit a 3 at the end of the third, then Kaleb Edwards made a couple of foul shots to keep GC within 43-38 just a few seconds into the fourth.

But Noblesville went on a 10-0 run after that to take control of the game. Preston Roberts started the run with a 3 (of course), and Harris added four more points during the run.

When the dust settled, the Millers led 53-38. Guerin Catholic continued to fight, getting within eight points a couple times. Bobilya scored eight points in the final two minutes of the game, including a pair of 3s. But Noblesville stayed comfortably ahead. Foul shooting was a factor; the Millers made 16 of 20 free throws in the fourth quarter, with Smith going 7 of 8 from the line.

Smith finished the game with 18 points, including three 3s, and eight rebounds. Wilson was next with 13 points. Roberts added nine, while Gadis and Lloyd (who had a great game off the bench) both scored eight.

More proof of balance: All seven Millers players that attempted a 3-point shot made at least one 3. Smith led the way with three, while Fisher and Wilson both had two triples.

Guerin Catholic had good balance as well. McGuinness led the scoring with 18 points, with Bobilya adding 17. Gillis finished with eight points, as did Cameron Weitzel, who made two 3-pointers. Gillis had six rebounds and McGuinness collected five.

Noblesville is 11-11 and will play its Hoosier Conference Crossroads and regular-season finale Friday at The Mill by hosting Avon. The Golden Eagles are 14-7 and are off until next Tuesday then they play their regular-season finale at Anderson.

Double-double for Brown... 'Blazers clamp down on defense, beat Firehawks

Joe Martin had his third consecutive 20-point game and Camden Brown had a double-double as University overcame a poor defensive first period to defeat Victory College Prep 73-51.

Martin had 23 points, five rebounds and four assists to pace University in scoring. Brown had 16 points and 12 rebounds. Sam Mervis was in double figures with 13 points and had team highs with seven assists and three steals.

The Trailblazers pride themselves on being one of the top defensive teams in the state. University entered the game allowing just 43.15 points per game, 12th best in Indiana and third best in Class 2A. The Firehawks scored 26 points in the first period and led 26-20 at the end of the period.

The Trailblazers clamped down after the first quarter, holding Victory College Prep to just five points in the second period and nine points in the third period to steadily build their lead. University went with the same five players for nearly the entire second quarter. Brown, Martin, Mervis, Max Greenamoyer and Larry Pierce turned that six-point deficit in to a 40-31 halftime lead.

"Larry Pierce gave us a spark off the bench tonight. His energy was huge" said University coach Brandon Lafferman of the sophomore who had four of his eight points in the second quarter, including a breakaway dunk off a steal to cap a 10-point run that put the Blazers up 30-26. Martin had five points in the second quarter and Max Greenamoyer added five, including a deep three pointer at the buzzer.

Lafferman also had praise for Brown and Martin. "Cam was great on the glass tonight, dealing with their size. He did a good job finishing at the rim. Joe continued his good play. We did a nice job finishing the game in the fourth quarter, sharing the ball and playing smart basketball."

University, ranked fifth in the latest Associated Press Class 2A poll, improved to 17-4 with the win. Victory College Prep is now 11-9.

University is next in action Saturday morning in the Pioneer Academic Athletic Conference championship game. The two-time defending champion Trailblazers, champions of the PAAC North for the fourth straight season, will travel to South Division champion Greenwood Christian. The junior varsity game will tip at 10:30 a.m., with the varsity game to follow after just ten minutes between the games. The early start times are a consideration to the host Cougars. The Greenwood Christian girls will play in the Jasper semi-state at 4 p.m. The Greenwood Christian boys are ranked first in Class 1A at 21-0 and are one of two undefeated teams left in the state (along with Bloomington South).

IMS adds Dustin Lynch, Riley Green to FGL Fest lineup

Country music stars Dustin Lynch and Riley Green will perform during FGL Fest, the exciting concert headlined by global music superstars Florida Georgia Line on Saturday, July 4 at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway. Visit IMS.com or call the IMS Ticket Office at 317-492-6700 to buy tickets for this show, which takes place during the Big Machine Vodka 400 at the Brickyard Powered by Florida Georgia Line event weekend July 3-5 at IMS. The concert is part of an all-new Independence Day celebration at IMS, preceded by the Pennzoil 150 at the Brickyard for the NASCAR Xfinity Series on the IMS road course and followed by one of the largest fireworks displays in Indiana.

General admission starts at $45, with Front Stage Concert Pit tickets $85 and VIP Concert tickets $195. All tickets include admission to all NASCAR action that day, including the historic inaugural NASCAR Xfinity Series race on the IMS road course and NASCAR Cup Series practice. Buy tickets now, as prices will increase closer to the show.

"FGL Fest just became even more of a can't-miss show with the addition of Dustin Lynch and Riley Green to the lineup," IMS President J. Douglas Boles said. "Fans will enjoy hit after hit from Riley, Dustin and the headlining Florida Georgia Line during a Fourth of July party at the track that will be remembered for a long time."

Since his debut with Platinum-certified single "Cowboys and Angels," Dustin Lynch has "steadily built one of the most consistent recording careers in modern country music" (Billboard ) with six No. 1 hits, three Top 5 albums and tours with the genre's biggest names (Luke Bryan, Florida Georgia Line, Brad Paisley).

Lynch's latest album, "Tullahoma," was released in January 2020. That record came after the release in 2019 of the highly anticipated "Ridin' Roads" EP, which featured Top 30-and-charging single "Ridin' Roads." After making his UK performance debut last spring, Tennessee native Lynch spent summer 2019 on the road with Thomas Rhett's VERY HOT SUMMER TOUR.

Scoring over 1.5 billion total career streams, Grand Ole Opry member Lynch continues to affirm his place as one of Country's elite stars. He has earned industry recognition with Billboard Music Awards, iHeartRadio Music Awards and CMT Music Awards nominations, and has made high-profile appearances at the ACM Awards, CMA Awards, CMA Fest and on "Good Morning America," "Jimmy Kimmel Live!," "Late Night with Seth Meyers," "Lip Sync Battle," Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade, "TODAY" and more.

Born in Jacksonville, Alabama, Riley Green was raised on the sounds of traditional Country, Bluegrass and Southern Gospel music. He learned the spirit of songwriting and performing at a young age while spending time with his grandfather, Bufford Green, who ran the Golden Saw Music Hall. Riley Green shared the stage with him and other men of his generation, laying a foundation for the songs he'd craft in the years to come, reflecting on the experiences of a young Southern man trying to find his place in the world.

Green's 2018 "In A Truck Right Now" EP (BMLG Records) introduced his mixture of outlaw rebellion and respect for tradition across his self-penned four tracks, including his debut No. 1 hit single "There Was This Girl." His follow-up single "In Love By Now" ascended Country radio from his newly released "Get That Man a Beer" EP (BMLG Records). Released last June, the EP served as a second collection of songs, co-written by Green and produced by Dann Huff, that gave fans a preview of his September 2019 debut album, "Different Round Here."

FGL "charged out of the gate with enjoyable rural swagger" (Indianapolis Star) for the packed crowd of 25,000 fans inside Turn 4 at their IMS debut last September, and they will return for a revved-up second year in celebration of Independence Day.

FGL Fest is one of the highlights of the exciting, re-vamped event on Fourth of July weekend. Fans can "Go 4th" and enjoy many new star-spangled attractions, including a move of the NASCAR Xfinity Series Pennzoil 150 at the Brickyard to the IMS road course and a huge fireworks display July 4, infield camping and gourmet barbecue at concessions all weekend, and much more.

The Big Machine Vodka 400 at the Brickyard will start at 3:30 p.m. Sunday, July 5. The Pennzoil 150 at the Brickyard will start at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, July 4. Both races will have live network telecasts on NBC.

United States Auto Club (USAC) open-wheel track racing also will return to The Dirt Track at IMS with the Driven2SaveLives BC39 Powered by NOS Energy Drink USAC National Midget Championship event July 1-2 during the new NASCAR event week.
