Sweeney Todd kills it in Carmel

For the first time ever, Actors Theatre of Indiana (ATI), Carmel Symphony Orchestra and Indianapolis Arts Chorale came together for one amazing weekend at The Center for the Performing Arts. Sweeney Todd played to a full house at the Palladium Friday night, and the VIP party after the show spilled into the halls of ATI offices. While the planning for this show has been years in the making, the production itself was all brought together in barely two and a half weeks. With this level of success, these groups will surely come together again. A few people at the VIP event told The Reporter they hope someone drops the hint that they should do Phantom of the Opera. (From left) Don Farrell who played Sweeney Todd, Music Director Janna Hymes, Director Richard Roberts, Judy Fitzgerald who played Mrs. Lovett and Cynthia Collins who played Beggar Woman took a moment to smile for The Reporter's camera after a triumphant opening night.

'FOCUS' is on disability inclusion in Fishers

The REPORTER

The City of Fishers and Fishers Advisory Committee on Disability will hold their fourth annual month-long celebration of National Disability Awareness Month in March.

The celebration, presented by Conner Prairie and Fishers YMCA, strives to bring awareness to what life is like for those physical and intellectual disabilities through a series of special events and initiatives throughout the city.

"As a city, we are always striving to make our community more accessible and inclusive for all of our residents," said Mayor Scott Fadness. "Our dedicated Fishers Advisory Committee on Disability programs an entire month's worth of initiatives to raise awareness of this important issue that extends not just in March but impacts our community all year long. I love seeing how our community comes together to support this initiative."

This year's theme, FOCUS 2020, focuses on the past, present and future of disability inclusion in Fishers. The kickoff event on March 2 will feature the stories communities.

Hamilton Southeastern Schools is poised to sign contracts with the City of Fishers, Hub & Spoke, Purdue University and Purdue Polytechnic that will provide new and innovative educational experiences for local high school students.

During a Tuesday morning work session, board members were briefed on the status of negotiations.

Memorandums of Understanding (MOUs) are in the works with both the city and Hub & Spoke to provide space for students to become involved in the building trades. The Hub & Spoke building, nearly completed at its location on 106th Street and Interstate 69, is envisioned as a center for the building trades, including training opportunities for adults and high school students.

Matt Kegley, Executive Director of Secondary Education for HSE Schools, briefed the board on the status of negotiations with the City of Fishers, Hub & Spoke, Purdue University and Purdue Polytechnic. An agreement with Purdue is needed to deal with licensing and trademark issues dealing with the use of Purdue's name. The Purdue Polytechnic MOU will govern the educational program offered to students at Fishers and HSE high schools.

Carmel wants to lend you a tenor

By STU CLAMPITT

ReadTheReporter.com

Carmel Community Players (CCP) will stage Lend Me A Tenor at The Cat, 254 Veterans Way, Carmel, for two weekends starting Feb. 28. The show will begin at 7:30 p.m. The play is set in September 1934. Saunders, the general manager of the Cleveland Grand Opera Company, is primed to welcome the greatest tenor of his generation, Il Stupendo, to appear for one night only as the star of the opera. Mistaken identities and a false diagnosis of death make for a great sensation on Broadway and in London's West End. This madcap, screwball comedy is guaranteed to leave audiences teary-eyed with laughter.

Director Susan Rardin has been involved in theater since she was seven years old.

"I started in the high school productions in our school system. I played one of the younger children in Cheaper By the Dozen, but the first role I ever had was a high school production of A Christmas Carol," Rardin said. "I was the urchin at the very end of the show. Scrooge asked me to go get the goose and my line was, 'The one as big as me?' The was the beginning of when I was addicted to theater."

Having now done "a little of everything except running lights and sound," Rardin, who also directed the historical drama Failure know opera and for people are no egos to step on. It is to Zig Zag is at the helm for this musical comedy.

Because Lend Me A Tenor is making fun of the world of opera, Rardin has some help on this production from inside the industry.

Rachelle Woolston, who not only acting this this play, but she is serving as CCP's opera consultant.

Carmel man at center of FBI raid gained $2M fraudulently through PayPal, eBay

By STEPHANIE ZEPELIN of fraud and identity theft WISH-TV | wishtv.com

A Carmel man is facing 28 federal charges, including wire fraud and aggravated identity theft, after he allegedly used PayPal and eBay to fraudulently gain $2 million, authorities say.

Tuong Quoc Ho, 32, Carmel, was arrested Thursday after a raid at his home in the 11500 block of Mansfield Place. That's near the intersection of Towne Road and West 116th Street.

The FBI, along with the Carmel Police Department, carried out a search of Ho's home Thursday morning.

The case started in October 2018: Carmel police arrested Ho on charges of forgery, theft, corrupt business influence, fraud and synthetic identity deception.

"Fraud cannot and will not be tolerated at any cost, especially when it involves identity theft," said United States Attorney Josh Minkler in a release sent to News 8. "This can devastate people's credit, which often times takes them years to repair. This office is committed to prosecuting such crimes to the fullest extent of the law. Today Mr. Ho's streak comes to an end."

Investigators say more than 500 PayPal accounts were found linked to Ho's personal bank accounts. Ho also used stolen credit card numbers and personal information of others in order to buy and sell merchandise, including electronics.

Ho is facing charges of wire fraud, aggravated identity theft, credit card fraud, money laundering and other federal offenses. Ho could face up to 20 years in prison if convicted of these crimes.

A news release from the U.S. Attorney's Office states Ho and other people overseas used the internet to get personal information of hundreds of people around the world. Ho then allegedly used that information to fraudulently open PayPal and eBay accounts and link those accounts to his bank accounts and transfer money. The indictment also states Ho used eBay to advertise and sell items bought with stolen credit card information.

Minkler's office said Ho sent the money to friends and family in Vietnam, and also used the money to buy his Carmel home, among other things.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole; Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole. This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner. Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus. And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

State wrestling finals

Eldred, Irick get runner-up finishes

By RICHIE HALL

INDIANAPOLIS - Saturday turned into a fine day for Hamilton County wrestling, as five senior athletes earned top eight places at the IHSAA state finals at Bankers Life Fieldhouse.

Two of those wrestlers finished as runners-up in their division: Westfield's Carson Eldred placed second at 120 pounds, while Hamilton Southeastern's Andrew Irick was the 285-pound runner-up. This marked the first time county wrestlers reached a championship match since Fishers' Mitch Sliga won back-to-back 195-pound titles in 2012 and 2013.

Both Eldred and Irick were beaten by Cathedral wrestlers in their respective bouts. Eldred took on unbeaten sophomore Zeke Seltzer in the 120 final. Seltzer got a quick takedown in the first period and steadily increased his lead from there.

Eldred finished the season at 42-3 and was the first Shamrocks wrestler to reach a championship match since Lukas Schaeffer got to the 182 final in 2012.

"It feels good," said Eldred. "I wish I could've won my last match, obviously. But I think it's all kind of worked out. I've put in a lot of effort this year and just tried my hardest to win and gave everything I had and that's all I could do."

Eldred began his run to the title match with a quarter-final fall over Churubus-co senior Dominic Heath, then defeated Wheeler senior Giovanni Diaz in the semi-finals by a 3-1 decision.

Irick probably had the toughest road to the final of anyone at the meet. The senior got past Western junior 3-2 in the quarter-finals, then took on Brownsburg's Dorian Keys, who was 44-0 coming into the semi-finals. It took double overtime, but Irick won the match 3-2 in an ultimate tiebreak, making an escape to get the win.

That put Irick in the final against Cathedral senior Holden Parsons. After a scoreless first period, both wrestlers got escape points in the next two periods. Thus the score was tied at 1-1 after regulation, so it went to a sudden victory overtime, where Parsons made a takedown to get the win get the win.

Irick finished his season 37-2 and became the first HSE wrestler to make it to a championship match. He later posted a Twitter message saying "Thank you @ HSE_wrestling for everything. No other team or program I would have wanted to do it with. I gave it all I have, much love." Irick has committed to wrestle at Indiana

Two more county wrestlers placed third in their weight divisions. Suhas Chundi earned the bronze at 106 pounds and Fishers' JD Farrell took third at 195.

Chundi won his quarter-final over Crown Point freshman Sammy Goin by a 5-3 decision, but lost to Brownsburg sophomore Logan Miller 4-3 in the semi-finals. In the third-place match, Chundi got a 4-2 decision win over Roncalli freshman Bryce Lowery.

"I think I wrestled all right," said Chundi, who finished his senior season 39-4. "There were some ups and downs throughout the tournament and for the most part, I did okay recovering from those downs."

Farrell opened his day with a 7-0 decision over Heritage Hills senior Phoenix Rodgers in the quarter-finals, but fell in the semi-finals to Mishawaka senior Jacob LaPlace by a 4-3 decision; LaPlace was unbeaten going into the finals. Farrell then won the third-place match, 3-1 over Culver Academies junior Eli Pack, getting a takedown in the final few seconds.

Farrell said that before every match he usually has his nerves "on a hundred. But before every match, I put my ankle bands on, I thank God, say a little prayer, and usually the match ends up the way I want it to, the way we need it to.

"The off-season we worked hard, we got things down, we accomplished goals and now we're here today," said Farrell, who finished his season 41-3.

Carmel's Gabe Davin finished eighth at 170 pounds. He dropped his quarter-final match to Plymouth senior Graham Calhoun in a 19-7 major decision, then fell to North Central senior Bradley Harrington by an 8-5 decision in the wrestlebacks and lost an 11-3 major decision to Evansville Mater Dei sophomore Gabe Sollars in the seventh-place match.

Still, it was a good season for Davin, who finished the season 36-7 and called the experience of wrestling at state "unreal."

"Eighth place isn't ideal, but being here is a big deal," said Davin. "I've trained almost my entire life to get here, so it's still a good thing and it still feels great."

In the team standings, Westfield placed 19th with 20 points, Hamilton Southeastern was 23rd with 18 points, Carmel scored 18 points to take 24th and Fishers scored 13 points to place 30th. Cathedral won the team state championship by scoring 102 points, with Crown Point the runner-up by totaling 93.5 points.

Three wrestlers finished as unbeaten state champions: Seltzer at 120, Roncalli's Alec Viduya at 145 and Shenando-ah's Silas Allred at 195.

University won their third consecutive Pioneer Academic Athletic Conference championship Saturday afternoon with a 48-47 road win over previously undefeated Greenwood Christian.

Senior Sam Mervis made the second of two foul shots with 3.2 seconds remaining for the winning points. The Cougars threw their inbound pass to half court and immediately called timeout with 2.7 seconds remaining. Jacob Sager and Max Greenamoyer combined to knock away the inbound pass and Mervis gathered the ball and ran out the clock to seal the victory.

Joe Martin scored 23 points for his fifth consecutive 20-point game and Sager had a career-high 17 points as University consistently attacked the paint.

The Trailblazers battled foul trouble through the first three quarter of the game and held a 33-31 lead midway through the third period when Camden Brown picked up his fourth foul. Greenwood Christian outscored the Trailblazers 8-2 the remainder of the quarter and led 39-35.

The Cougars Andrew Anderson hit a three pointer from the left corner one minutes in to the fourth quarter for a 42-35 lead. Brown re-entered the game for University and the Blazers began to climb back in the contest. Mervis found Greenamoyer for a corner three pointer and then passed to Martin in the same left corner for another triple and the Blazers were within 42-41 with 5:26 left.

Martin put University back on top with 3:38 left at 43-42, but Champ Mc-Corkle drove the baseline and was fouled as he scored. His free throw put Greenwood Christian ahead 45-43 with 3:13 left. Martin split a pair of foul shots on each of University's next two possessions to tie the game at 45.

Coach Brandon Lafferman began with compliments for his rival. "Hats off to Greenwood Christian for a great season," he said. "They are a phenomenal team and are well coached. They are big and strong and played really hard. They will be a tough out in the postseason."

"I can't say enough about our senior leadership in the fourth quarter of that game," said Lafferman. "We were down seven and made two huge shots and clawed our way back in the game. It was an impressive finish with (Sam) Mervis and Joe (Martin) making plays for us handling the basketball. The key for us was Jacob Sager and his defense, particularly in the fourth quarter. I thought he did a phenomenal job following the game plan. It was a tough, hard fought game and I'm proud of our guys for winning another conference championship."

Mervis had a team-high eight assists and Mervis and Greenamoyer each pulled down five rebounds.

University improves to 18-4 on the season. The Trailblazers close out the regular season next week with a pair of home games - Tuesday against Irvington Prep Academy and Thursday against Bishop Chatard. Greenwood Christian finishes the regular season with a 22-1 record.

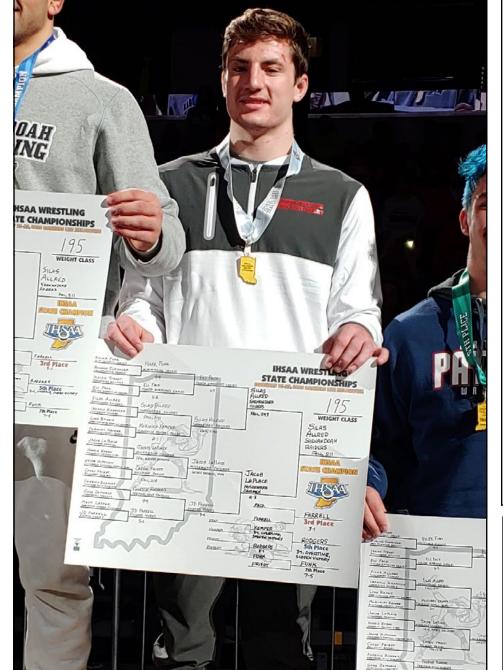

University won both the boys and girls PAAC basketball championships for the second consecutive season.

Carmel, HSE win team championships

The Carmel boys swimming team rolled to another sectional championship Saturday afternoon at their home pool.

The Greyhounds scored 558 points to claim their 13th consecutive sectional title and 33rd overall. In addition, Carmel won 11 of the 12 events and qualified 19 swims to next weekend's IHSAA state finals. Several other swims by the 'Hounds and other county teams are in good position to get callbacks to state as

The 'Hounds started the meet with a new sectional record in the medley relay. The team of Wyatt Davis, Ryan Malicki, Griffin Hadley and Jake Mitchell clocked in at 1:30.30. Davis would later set a new record in the individual medley, breaking his own mark with a winning time of 1:48.61. Gus Rothrock finished second in that event with a time of 1:49.24, clocking in under the old sectional record.

Davis also took first place in the backstroke, giving him two individual wins on the day. Jake Mitchell also scored a double victory, sweeping the 200 and 500 freestyles. Other Carmel wins came from Brandon Edwards in the 50 free, Rothrock in the butterfly, Hadley in the 100 free, Malicki in the breaststroke, the 200 free relay team of Christopher Holmes, Malicki, AJ Robertson and Kayden Lancaster and the 400 free relay team of Nolan Kopp, Rothrock, Edwards and Ethan Johns.

Winners automatically advance to state, as do any other swims that beat state cut times. Carmel had eight of those: Rothrock and Malicki in the IM, Griffin Seaver in the butterfly, Edwards in the 100 free, Lancaster and Seaver in the 500 free and Hadley and Kopp in the backstroke. The Greyhounds' JT Curcio placed third in diving and will advance to Tuesday's Homestead diving regional, which will take place at Summit Middle School in Fort Wayne.

Westfield had a fantastic meet, scoring 372.5 points to finish in second place. Cameron Clayton took second in the butterfly in a state cut time, advancing him to the state meet. Ben Hobson finished fourth in diving, which qualified him for the regional.

Noblesville placed third with 275.5 points. The Millers were strong in their relays, with the medley relay team of Cameron Kramer, Aidan Biddle, Eduard Buna and Nicholas Beeson, and the 200 free relay team of Kramer, Isaac Stephan, Tyler Cox and Beeson both placing third.

and had a diver advance to the regional: Dane Leonard picked up the eighth and final spot to send him to Fort Wayne. ROYALS DEFEND CHAMPIONSHIP

Hamilton Southeastern continued its winning tradition by winning the Fishers sectional. The Royals scored 537 points to the Tigers' 506. Southeastern thus defended its title from last year and won the school's 26th sectional championship overall in boys swimming.

The Royals won seven events, starting with the medley relay team of An- ney (GC) 1:52.39. drew Christopher, Andrew Truxall, Connor Harrison and Zack Bostock. Harrison would later win the butterfly event, with Bostock placing first in the breaststroke.

Other winners for HSE were DJ Rogers in the 50 free, AJ Ricafort in diving, Keegan Streett in the 100 free and Marcus Eden in the backstroke. All of the swimmers advance to the Friday state preliminaries, while Ricafort heads to Fort Wayne on Tuesday for the diving regional.

Ricafort will be joined in the diving regional by teammates Jack Bisesi and Gabe Ruiz, who placed fifth and seventh respectively to earn qualifying spots. Southeastern also had three state cut swim times: Rogers in the 100 free, the 200 free relay team of Harrison, Streett, Christopher and Rogers, and the 400 free relay team of Streett, Evan Sellers, 22.789, 16. Hoffmann (GC) 23.72. Eden and Rogers. In all, HSE qualified nine swims for state, and several callbacks are possible as well.

wins and qualified eight swims for the state meet. Tigers individual winners were Aaron Frollo in the 200 free, Kyle Ponsler in the IM and Jackson Carlile in the 500 free. All three swimmers were part of the winning 200 and 400 free relays, joining Bruno Kitazuka in the 200 and Tyler Schwertfeger in the 400.

Fishers' medley relay team of Logan Ayres, Daniel Bennett, Connor Carlile and Kitazuka earned a state cut time, as did Frollo and Ponsler in the 500 free. The Tigers also had three divers qualify for the regional, with William Jansen, Sebastian Otero and Ethan Weiss going Hamilton Heights competed in this sectional for the first time and placed seventh with 117 points. The Huskies the medley relay team of Eli VanHaaren, (N) 52.85, 16. Cox (N) 53.50.
