Hamilton County prepares for coronavirus

Priorities include public health, government operations

The REPORTER

The Hamilton County Commissioners, along with the Hamilton County Health Department and Emergency Management Agency (EMA), are preparing citizens and employees for the possibility of a COVID-19 outbreak.

"We are monitoring and managing the situation," said County Commissioner Christine Altman. "We are reviewing our pandemic flu and infectious disease plans and are ready to implement them if needed."

The Health Department and Emergency Management team are working directly with local hospitals, health care providers, and local cities and towns to ensure everyone is kept in the loop.

"The biggest thing is getting ahead of it," said Shane Booker, executive director of Hamilton County's EMA. "We went through a very similar situation in 2010 with the H1N1 virus. There were a lot of the same concerns then that there are now. The good news is the H1N1 virus taught us a lot that helps us prepare now."

Currently there are no known cases of COVID-19 in Hamilton County or the State of Indiana. Much is still unknown about how the virus spreads. In the meantime, the Hamilton County Health Department encourages anyone with symptoms of acute respiratory illness to stay home.

"The primary symptoms are fever, cough and shortness of breath," said Chris Walker, emergency preparedness coordinator for the Hamilton County Health Department. "To prevent the spread of COVID-19, citizens should wash their hands with soap and water for at least 20 seconds or clean them often with an alcohol-based hand sanitizer of

Heights celebrates Youth Art Month with artist reception

The REPORTER

Members of the Hamilton Heights Art Department cordially invite the community to join them in celebration of Youth Art Month with a special reception and art exhibition from 5 to 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, March 5 at the Hamilton North Public Library, 209 W. Brinton St, Cicero. The exhibition will feature outstanding two- and three-dimensional work created by students from Hamilton Heights Middle and High schools.

The elite exhibition will run through March 31 and is open 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday and 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday.

Artwork from middle school students like Autumn Anderson and Lauryn Wanczyk will be featured at this year's exhibition. Anderson and Wanczyk earned Honorable Mention at this year's Scholastic Art & Writing Awards at Butler University. They will receive their awards in the category of an original illustration

Anderson, who was surprised by the award, said her inspiration for her painting was her dog Pepper. Wanczyk said she used her imagination to create her piece. Both students enjoy art and are active in the Middle School Art Club.

"We are thrilled to have the opportunity to exhibit student work in honor of Youth Art Month for the third consecutive year," said HHMS art teacher Erin Goodman. "The library in Cicero is a perfect venue for this display and visited by many throughout the month. Also, I am so proud of Lauryn and Autumn for these Scholastic Art Awards. They are two very talented eighth-grade artists and it is nice for them to be recognized at the regional level."

Goodman, along with HHMS art teacher Taylor Myers, will be on hand to welcome guests to the

Finkam calls for Carmichael caution

Thank you to the Carmel City Council for supporting the resolution that calls for a thorough review of the Carmel Redevelopment Commission (CRC) actions as they relate to the Hotel Carmichael.

With this resolution, I am proposing that the Carmel Finance Committee take on the responsibility for thoroughly reviewing the expanded cost of the new Carmichael Hotel.

SUE FINKAM

Vice President

As heard, various members of the public have asked for an external, independent authority perform a comprehensive audit of the CRC. The good news is that this happens annually.

The Carmel Redevelopment Commission, Redevelopment Authority and City of Carmel are all part of this independent, professional audit. During this, all aspects of the CRC's financials and records are subject to audit. This includes cash, receipts, disbursements, bonds, capital assets, minutes, resolutions, ordinances, appropriate approvals and reports prepared for City Council. There is no area regarding the CRC that would not be included. We go a step further in preparing the CAFR, which is the Comprehensive Annual Financial Report. # Fishers preparing for 5G technology

By LARRY LANNAN

Technology nerds have been writing and talking about the new 5G wireless technology for some time, but the City of Fishers is preparing to decide how to handle the rollout of this next step in connecting us without wires.

The technology most of us use for our cell phones is 4G. There are tall towers that have a large range to serve 4G wireless customers. The 5G system will provide much faster downloads and more options for customers. But there is a catch.

5G towers have a much smaller range than the 4G setup. The 5G towers, also called "small cells," have a range measured not in miles but in feet. So, if you are driving through a neighborhood with 5G installed, you will see a small cell tower every two to three blocks at best, sometimes closer together.

The City of Fishers has received legal advice that local governments cannot take into account any health risks, if there are any, because only the federal government can make health risk determinations. That

Sheep die in Atlanta barn fire

The REPORTER

Seven local fire departments were called to Atlanta after a barn caught fire Sunday morning.

According to Jackson Township Fire Department, crews were called to the 2100 block of East 296th Street around 5 a.m. Sunday on reports of a barn fire.

Fire Chief Jeff Muszar said crews could see the fire from miles away and when they arrived to the scene, they found a large barn "fully engulfed" in flames. Sheep were inside the barn at the time of the fire.

The fire was contained to the barn; however, several sheep died as a result.

Fire crews from Noblesville, Cicero, Sheridan, White River Township, Wayne Township and Cicero Township/Tipton County responded to the fire.

A cause for the fire has not yet been released. An investigation is ongoing.

A teacher from Smoky Row Elementary in Carmel has volunteered to go into quarantine after returning from a trip to Italy, where coronavirus has claimed 34 lives.

In a note to parents, Carmel Clay Schools said the educator returned from Italy on Friday after a personal trip. The nation has recorded more than 1,600 coronavirus cases.

The note added that the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention as well as local health officials have not required people who have traveled to Italy to quarantine themselves:

“However, out of an abundance of caution for the safety of our students and staff, the teacher has met with administrators and has volunteered to self-quarantine for 14 days. This staff member has not been diagnosed with the virus and there are no confirmed cases of COVID-19 in our schools.”

Smoky Row Elementary has more than 700 students in prekindergarten and grades K-5.

In light of the coronavirus, Carmel Clay Schools and other Hamilton County school districts have announced that they are performing extra sanitizing of high-traffic areas and commonly used surfaces including door-knobs, toilets, keyboards, light switches and phones.

Like any business, Hamilton County is working to help reduce transmission among staff and maintain business operations.

“No matter how bad it gets, we want to keep essential functions up and running,” Altman said. “If that means telecommuting or flexible work hours to increase the distance among employees and avoid increased absenteeism, so be it. means cities like Fishers will be handling applications from wireless companies wanting to install 5G small cell towers in Fishers neighborhoods.

Fishers Mayor Scott Fadness says there are about 40 small cell 5G tower requests pending in Fishers neighborhoods. He expects there are roughly 400 more set to get into the pipeline soon.

One major impact the city can have is doing its best to keep these towers out of the way of residents’ homes to the extent possible.

ble. For example, if a wireless firm wants to erect a small cell tower in front of a family home, impacting the window view or just in the way, the city can work to move that tower slightly, perhaps to a common area in the neighborhood or next to a pond.

The complication is just how close these towers need to be spaced in order to provide the full 5G wireless service. There may be instances where moving a small cell tower away from a home may not be possible.

The Fishers Board of Works and Public Safety has legal jurisdiction over the small cell tower placement issue locally, and the board plans to have a work session, planning how to move forward on the 5G network in Fishers. The next scheduled meeting of the board is 4 p.m. Monday, March 9 at the City Hall Council Chambers.

The Board of Public Works and Safety is comprised of Mayor Scott Fadness and his two appointees, Jeff Lantz and Jason Meyer.

that our departments can go under a more rigorous audit. The audit will begin the first week of April.

The CRC is audited annually by the independent body called the Indiana State Board of Accounts. For 2019, the SBOA will be the auditor of the Redevelopment Authority and the CRC. Their mission statement is to provide "the citizens of the State of Indiana with complete confidence in the integrity and financial accountability of state and local government."

In whole, the City pays approximately $75,000 each year for the SBOA audit.

To further strengthen the review of the hotel project, this resolution proposes that the Carmel Finance Committee undertake an additional review of actions taken by the CRC which resulted in the hotel coming in at $18.5 million higher than originally estimated.

The finance committee's purpose is to review ordinances, resolutions and projects involving finance and governance. Given the main questions the public has are around project finances and the supporting statutory authority, this seems like a best, first step.

By having the review done with the finance committee, the entire review is done publicly, differing from the private process used by consultants. In fact, during the hotel review process done by this committee in 2017, 40 to 50 members of the public participated by attending. We spent hours of review, in public, which included project consultants and CRC members.

I am suggesting this review start March 18, and continue on March 25 and April 1. It is also my hope that these meetings can be held in chambers and recorded for members of the public to view online or at home if they desire.

The review would focus on the actions taken by the CRC since receiving approval in September 2017, the statutory authority that allows them to do each step and the impact on the budget resulting from each decision. It is my intent to have the finance committee joined by an outside attorney, hence the dollars included in the resolution. I will also ask the CRC to make its consultants available to the council at CRC expense. I expect to have included the CRC attorney, the City controller, the bond consultant, the hotel consultant engaged throughout the process, the construction partner and, if needed, Marriott Hotels.

The review will end by the Clerk's office compiling a summary report for finance committee to approved, and to be released publicly. Should there be items of concern or dispute, we can vote to have those items looked at more carefully by consultants at the conclusion of this review.

Regardless of the outcome of this review, I believe that it's in the best interest of the CRC and City Council to determine a better way in which to collaborate regarding communication, financial management and project leadership. Following the conclusion of this review, I will work with legal council to draft a proposed interlocal agreement for a better working relationship between the CRC and the Council. To this end, together, we can create a mechanism for better insight into CRC actions by all council members and the public.

In summary, I am confident the finance committee can do a comprehensive, public review of this project, that will complement the State Board of Account's annual comprehensive audit. I move we approve this resolution.

Syringe-packing Noblesville pickup driver broadsides NPD cruiser while intoxicated

The REPORTER

On Saturday, police officers from the Noblesville Police Department (NPD) responded to the intersection of 10th and Pleasant streets following a report of a two-vehicle crash – one of which included an on-duty NPD officer.

Based on witness statements and other evidence at the scene, at the time of the crash a 1998 Chevrolet pickup was traveling northbound on 10th Street when the driver reportedly disregarded a red light and crashed broadside into an NPD police vehicle that was traveling westbound on Pleasant Street.

The driver of the police vehicle was an on-duty officer. The officer was transported to Riverview Health in Noblesville and released a short time later with minor injuries. The officer was not on a call at the time of the crash and was not operating with emergency lights and/or siren activated. There were no passengers in the vehicle.

The driver of the pickup truck was treated and released by medics at the scene. While on the scene, crash investigators reportedly observed indications of possible intoxication and as a result, an investigation ensued.

At the conclusion of the investigation, the driver, Jay M. Portman, 40, Noblesville, was placed under arrest without incident. He was transported and booked at the Hamilton County Jail on the following preliminary charges: Possession of Syringe, I.C. 16-42-19-18 (Level 6 Felony); and Operating While Intoxicated, I.C. 9-30-5 (Class A Misdemeanor).

Carmel Police invite public to participate in Citizens' Academy

The REPORTER

Have you ever wondered why police do what they do? Do you want to learn about the Carmel Police Department? If you answered yes, CPD has an exciting opportunity for you.

Twice a year, CPD conducts its Citizens' Academy. This program provides insight on the operations of the department as well as an opportunity for the department to learn about citizen concerns.

The academy is an 11-week series of classes on policing. Classes are taught by various members of the Carmel Police Department who provide instruction and information regarding their particular area of expertise, allowing citizens the opportunity for an in depth look into how the department operates. Classes meet one evening per week and each week has different topics. Academy curriculum includes overviews of investigations, patrol, support, school resource unit, and administration.

Applicants must be at least 18 years old and will be subject to a criminal background check. Class size is limited to 16 people. This is not a police officer candidate school nor an open forum to discuss grievances; rather, an opportunity to educate citizens on the operations of CPD and for the department to engage communication with citizens.

County Councilman McKinney seeks to set the record straight on 146th Street

Submitted by RICK MCKINNEY

County Council 2020 President, At-Large County Council member since 1997, and Republican candidate for re-election

I read with both great amusement and disappointment the Hamilton County Reporter article submitted by the “Friends of Sue Maki” on Saturday, Feb. 29 ... Amused because it was quickly evident to me as an incumbent County Councilor that Ms. Maki and her campaign research team failed to check their statements versus history for accuracy and truthfulness; disappointed because this candidate is trying to blend two disparate topics into one and by not being truthful to the public, which causes the general public to be jaded and cynical towards all who run for elected office. Shame on her.

Let’s examine some of her inaccuracies:

“Not much attention has been given to this recent study” – totally false.

In December 2019, less than a month after the study was published, the Hamilton County Council approved $500,000 in new consulting agreements to have recommendations created for improvements to the 146th Street intersections referenced.

Mayors have been previously involved in considering improvements but they have been reluctant to embrace losing land for roundabouts south and north of 146th Street, per my discussions with both County Commissioners and County Highway staff. To turn the mentioned segment of East 146th Street – from Carey Road to River Road – into interchanges would cost a minimum of $28 million each or a total over $100 million and at least seven years, if started today! The 146th Street and Allisonville Road intersection is currently being engineered and anticipated to cost nearly $36 million all by itself in order to make it an interchange.

“...some members of the County Council have been unwilling to invest in much needed improvements” – totally false.

Not only were the above agreements unanimously approved, but the street lights added to the 146th Street bridge over U.S. 31 in 2018 were done so at the initiative of County Council members McKinney, Beaver and Glynn, and the County Council passed it unanimously.

“It is sad that our current Council continues to delay when it comes to supporting much-needed improvements to our infrastructure” – totally false.

The County Council has been very supportive of infrastructure improvements all over the county, not just a select segment of one road. MILLIONS of tax dollars from local, state and federal sources are spent annually on these projects.

Perhaps this candidate should travel other parts of the county where it would be noted these all occurred in part or whole by the County Council appropriating funds to make these projects a reality: Expansion of 146th Street west from Spring Mill Road to the county line; the new Lowes Way south-bound ramp; the new Keystone bridge over 96th Street; the 106th Street bridge over Interstate 69; 276th Street widening and reconstruction from U.S. 31 to Gwinn Road; and not to be omitted, the massive State Road 37 reconstruction, which, while it has taken four years to actually get dirt moving, will result in the removal of all stoplights and a Keystone-like travel experience from 126th to 146th streets. (This is only a PARTIAL list of recent Hamilton County road and bridge projects; there are many more.)

“Maki is already working with neighboring city officials about this issue” – in exactly what capacity? Please provide details to substantiate.

Finally: “It is important to remember some of our current County Council members have rejected public safety concerns in the past” – totally false.

Masking concern over a road’s safety status with a separate pet project of the firefighters’ UNION is sad. The training center was and apparently still is a chief goal of the union, which makes enormous financial campaign contributions and tasks its members with working the polls on Election Day for its preferred and endorsed candidates. The project was defeated by a 4-3 vote in 2015. It has not been reconsidered.

In 2018, Maki received $5,000 from the Firefighters’ union. Was that disclosed in her article? Watch other candidates who advocate for this project and see how much the firefighters’ union gives them; watch how many mailers are sent out by this union for their preferred candidates and see how many firefighters are told to work the polls for these candidates.

The bottom line is that the county does NOT have a fire department and there are other existing facilities within a short drive which can be used for joint training. Why isn’t joint training being done NOW?

I value the intelligence of Hamilton County voters and expect they will easily see through my opponent’s disingenuous statements on Election Day.

Cheryl Lynne Dennison

June 9, 1948 – February 18, 2020

Cheryl Lynne Dennison, 71, Noblesville, passed away peacefully in her home on Tuesday morning, February 18, 2020, following a long and courageous battle with cancer. Born June 9, 1948 in Lebanon, Ind., she was the daughter of the late Bryce Leon and Betty Jo (Johnson) Pickett.

Cheryl graduated from Sheridan High School with the Class of 1966; she went on to earn her BS in Elementary Education from Indiana Wesleyan University in 1971 and her Master’s Degree in Early Childhood Development from Ball State University in 1977.

Cheryl was fortunate to discover at an early age a field of study that she was passionate about and then follow that path to create her life’s work. Much of her adult life was spent as a childcare provider. Her kids were her everything. Early on in her career she implemented a learn and play philosophy, helping her children take a more active role in their own learning. The thought behind this was that you structure the children’s learning environment in a way that while they are playing, they are learning valuable life skills. The lessons didn’t stop with the kids; she also included the parents in the process, helping them to find new ways to encourage learning at home. She made sure that every one of her kids felt loved and were being nurtured in a true Christian environment.

When Cheryl had some time to herself you could usually find her curled up with a good book. Romance novels were her favorite read, though she probably wouldn’t admit it. Working crossword puzzles was another favorite activity. Cheryl also had quite the green thumb; she loved growing flowers and looking after her houseplants, making sure they felt loved and nurtured as well. When the temperature started to drop, Cheryl looked forward to the start of basketball season. She followed the Pacers for many years, but when Reggie Miller retired, her interest seemed to slowly fade away. She also enjoyed listening to the Gaithers.

Family played a very strong role in her life. She took an active role in her children’s lives while they were growing up, and when she became a grandma, she happily started all over again without missing a beat. Even though she loved being a mother and a loving wife, being a grandma was her starring role. If the grandkids were involved in it, Cheryl was going to become an instant fan and true supporter. Cheryl also loved traveling with her family. She took many trips throughout the United States and loved every minute of the adventure, but trips to Myrtle Beach and Florida were among her favorites.

Cheryl’s church family was an integral part of who she was. She was a life member of the Sheridan First United Methodist Church where she sang in the choir, taught Sunday School and proudly served as a member of the Church Council. Cheryl loved being involved in whatever projects were underway at the church; however, when there was a church dinner or it was time for the annual coal supper, that is where she truly shined. She loved to cook, loved to serve and absolutely loved being around people.

Cheryl is survived by her loving husband, Ronald Dean “Ron” Dennison. She and Ron were married on August 9, 1969. Also surviving are her three daughters, Kimberly R. Toloday (Pete), Livonia, Mich., Sheila D. Dailey, Noblesville, and Emily L. Dennison, Noblesville; seven grandchildren; three brothers, Gordon Pickett, Sheridan, Richard Pickett (Connie), Charlotte, N.C., and Brad Pickett (Rod), Frankfort; two sisters, Paula Arbuckle, Lafayette, and Jeannine Sample, Sheridan; and many nieces, nephews and cousins who will miss her dearly.

She was preceded in death by her parents.

A Celebration of Cheryl’s Life will be held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, March 7, 2020 at the Sheridan First United Methodist Church, 207 E. 2nd St., Sheridan. A dinner will be held immediately following the service, giving everyone a chance to visit and tell stories while enjoying one last church dinner in Cheryl’s honor. Cheryl will be laid to rest at Crownland Cemetery in Noblesville.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be presented to the American Cancer Society for use in Breast Cancer Research.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Kercheval Funeral Home in Sheridan.

TODAY’S BIBLE READING

But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, And kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles’ feet. But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land? Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God. And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things. And the young men arose, wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him. And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in. And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much. Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out. Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

Eagles buzzer-beater stuns Tigers, Greyhounds pull away from Royals

By RICHIE HALL

NOBLESVILLE - Anyone who has ever had an investment in an Indiana basketball sectional knows one thing: Anything can happen.

That was the case in the first game of Class 4A Sectional 8 at Noblesville on Tuesday. Fishers and Zionsville were locked in a defensive slugfest, and the Eagles came out on top after a last-second shot, sending the Tigers to a 23-21 loss.

In the second game, Carmel and Hamilton Southeastern played each other for the second time in 18 days. The Royals won the earlier game by one point, and Tuesday's contest was just as close until the Greyhounds pulled away late for a 50-43 victory.

Tuesday's winners advance to the Friday semi-finals, where Zionsville takes on Westfield and Carmel will play host Noblesville.

DIFFERENT RE-MATCH

The Fishers-Zionsville game was a re-match as well – in fact, the first time the two teams played was on Feb. 21, the regular-season finale for the Eagles. The Tigers won 58-39 at the Zionsville gym.

"I think it was kind of fool's gold when we beat them at their place," said Fishers coach Matt Moore. The Tigers made shots early in that game and got out to a big lead.

"Now you're playing with a lead and that changes how they have to play," said Moore. "When they take a minute off the clock in each possession, when they try to stretch, shorten a game, every shot matters."

Any lead was a big lead in the sectional re-match. The Tigers held a 7-4 lead at the end of the first quarter, after Isaac Farah made a 3-pointer and Jeffrey Simmons added a layin.

The Eagles led 10-9 late in the second period, but Lucas Prewitt nailed a 3 for Fishers, sending it into the locker room with a 12-10 halftime advantage. The Tigers' Alex Szilagyi scored the first basket of the second half: Another 3, giving Fishers a 15-10 lead.

Zionsville clawed its back to within one point, 18-17 by the end of the third quarter, with Szilagyi making a traditional three-point play as the Tigers' only other points of the period. A free throw by Gunnar Vannatta tied the game, then Anthony Scales made a layin to put the Eagles ahead 20-18.

Dominic Castellani gave Fishers back the lead, with his triple getting the Tigers up 21-20. Scales tied the game by making a free throw with 36.5 seconds left. Zionsville got the ball back, and Vannatta passed it to Jackson Hughes, who made a floater as time ran out.

Szilagyi's six points led Fishers, who finished the season 18-7, but not before setting a record for most wins in a season.

"It just continues to show the direction we're trending," said Moore. "I think Year 1 to Year 2 to Year 3, the progress that we've made across the board has been nothing but positive. That's what you build off of."

ANOTHER CLOSE GAME

The second game was close as well. After some initial back and forth, Carmel used a 6-0 run (back-to-back 3-pointers by Brian Waddell and Connor Gioia) to jump out to a 10-5 lead in the first quarter. The Greyhounds never trailed again, but the Royals stayed in contention for the entire game.

"We've got some guys that can shoot it," said Carmel coach Ryan Osborn. "We're far from a one or two-man show. Guys give it everything they've got. They like each other. It's an awesome group to coach."

Carmel led 12-7 after the first quarter, then went up 17-12 with three minutes left in the second after Peter Suder made a floater. Southeastern cut that advantage to 17-16 by halftime after Mabor Majak made a hook shot, then DeAndre Rhodes scored off a steal. Josh Whack hit a 3 to open the second half, getting the 'Hounds up 20-16. The Royals got within one again, 23-22, when Majak made a dunk and Kole Hornbuckle hit two free throws. Jackson Jannsen drained a 3 to get Carmel up by four, then Nick Frische's layin put the Greyhounds ahead 30-25 after three. Waddell took over for Carmel in the fourth quarter, scoring 16 points. He helped the Greyhounds hold off one final push by Southeastern, which included six consecutive free throws by Hornbuckle to tie the game at 37-37 with 4:23 left. "Waddell's been great," said Osborn. "Since he's come back from his injury, he's gaining some confidence, he's going to the boards hard, he's hitting shots. He defends, he's long." Waddell made a layin to put Carmel back up front, then after HSE's John McCall made a free throw, the 'Hounds went on an 7-0 run to lead 46-38. Waddell finished the run with a dunk. "They're tough and you got to give Coach Osborn a lot of credit for what he's done this year," said Royals coach Brian Satterfield. "But the toughest thing was is, we had to battle back, took a lot of energy. But yes, when we got to that stage, you can see the confidence in our guys' eyes and I thought that we were going to do it. But we didn't take advantage." Waddell finished the game with 19 points, including a 12-of-13 performance from the free-throw line. Suder added 11 points and led the rebounds with five.

BASKETBALL

'Blazers pull away from Sceecina

March basketball is different. Pressure and intensity are ratcheted up. Defenses become more physical. Wide open shots are rare. Even the most skilled teams are forced to grind out tournament wins.

So it was for University, playing its first Class 2A Sectional game. Max Greenamoyer made seven three pointers on his way to a game high 23 points as the No. 5 Trailblazers pulled away in the second half for a 54-31 win over host Indianapolis Sceecina Memorial in the Sectional 42 opener.

The Trailblazers struggled to score in the opening quarter and trailed 8-5 after the first. Sam Mervis gave University a 2-0 lead one minute in to the game, but the Blazers managed only a Greenamoyer three pointer the rest of the period. Neither team score in the last 2:47 of the quarter after Max White hit a three pointer to put the Crusaders on top.

University knotted the game just 25 seconds in to the second quarter when Greenamoyer hit another three pointer. Neither team scored for over three minutes before Greenamoyer gave the Blazers the lead for good at 11-8 with 4:24 left in the half. Patrick Denney scored Sceecina's only points of the second quarter with 3:48 left to cut the lead to 11-10, but University scored the last eight points of the half to take a 19-10 lead to the locker room. Camden Brown hit a three pointer before Aaron Stallings split a pair of foul shots. Brown scored again off a feed from Joe Martin and Brown found Martin for a lay-in with three seconds left in the half.

The Trailblazers pushed their lead to 13 early in the third quarter on two Mervis free throws and a Martin basket before Sceecina battled back to cut the lead to 28-23 with 1:20 left in the quarter.

University ran off the next 12 points of the game to take control. Greenamoyer hit a pair of three pointers, the second with two seconds left in the third quarter to put University up 34-23 heading to the fourth quarter. Martin figured in the next six University points. Mervis scored off a Martin steal, before Martin made two baskets and University led 40-23 with 5:15 left. University led by at least 14 points the rest of the contest as it closed out the game.

"I'm really proud of our defensive effort," said Trailblazers coach Brandon Lafferman. "We had to grind through the first half. Our seniors stepped up in the Carmel improved to 16-7 with the win. Hornbuckle was the Royals' top scorer, with 18 points, including a 14-of-15 performance from the line. Majak had 13 points, nine rebounds and two blocked shots. He will play for Cleveland State University this fall, while Satterfield said Hornbuckle is also getting college looks. Rhodes will play football for Indiana State University. "It was such a fun group to coach," said Satterfield, whose team finished the season 17-6. "These guys, the way they came out, worked hard every day. It was fun to be in the gym with them."

Fishers' Burton, Carmel's Dunn named to girls Junior All-Stars team

Two Hamilton County basketball players are among the 18 that have been selected for the IndyStar Indiana girls Junior All-Stars for 2020.

Fishers' Katie Burton is one of the six players voted to the Core Group. Burton, a 5-foot-9 guard, averaged 15.4 points per game and helped the Tigers to Hoosier Crossroads Conference and sectional championships. The other players voted to the Core Group are Ally Becky of Brownsburg, Trinity Clinton of Penn, Lilliann Frasure of North Judson, Jayla Smith of Lawrence North and Ariana Wiggins of Heritage Christian.

In addition to the core group, six players each were voted to teams labeled Red Group and Blue Group. Carmel's Bridget Dunn was voted to the Red Group. Dunn is a 6-foot-3 forward and averaged 12.4

points per game. The other Red Group players are Maddie Bischoff of Roncalli, Hanna Knoll of Angola, Mercedes Rhodes of Oregon-Davis, Brynn Shoup-Hill of Goshen and Trinity Thompson of Michigan City.

The Blue Group players are Maycee Lange of Vincennes Lincoln, Chloe McKnight of Bedford North Lawrence, Tenleigh Phelps of Triton Central, Vanessa Shafford of Linton-Stockton and Nakaih Hunter and Meg Newman of North Central.

The coaches for the Junior All-Stars have not yet been announced.

The Junior All-Stars will play one game against the Kentucky Junior All-Stars, tentatively set for June 1 at an Indiana site. The Junior All-Stars also will play one game against the Indiana All-Star senior girls on June 3, also at a site to be announced. Both games will be doubleheaders with the 2020 Indiana boys Junior All-Stars, who will be chosen in late March.

The players listed as core group players will play in two games each. The players listed in the Red and Blue groups each will play in one game, the assignment for specific games to be announced.

The Indiana senior All-Stars will play the Kentucky senior All-Stars on June 5 at a site in Kentucky that has not yet been announced. The Indiana senior All-Stars will play Kentucky's seniors again on June 6 in Southport Fieldhouse in Indianapolis. The senior game in Indianapolis has been moved to Southport for 2020 because Bankers Life Fieldhouse will be undergoing renovations and not be available in June.

The Junior All-Star team is determined by the 20-member Indiana Basketball Coaches Association all-state panel in conjunction with its selection of the IBCA/Subway Underclass All-State Team. The selection process allows all IBCA-member head coaches to nominate players through the IBCA all-state process. Representatives from 16 regional areas from across the state, three district representatives from the three IHSA districts (one each from District 1, District 2 and District 3) and the committee chair then meet to review the nominations, vote and finalize the selections.

The IBCA/Subway girls basketball Senior All-State and Underclass All-State teams for 2020 will be released later this week.
