

Goodman named Heights' 2020 Teacher of the Year

The REPORTER

Hamilton Heights School Corporation is pleased to announce that Erin Goodman has been selected as its Teacher of the Year. Goodman, who is the art teacher at Hamilton Heights Middle School, was among four outstanding professionals from the district nominated as the top pick for their building for this year's recognition. Goodman will represent Hamilton Heights at the state Teacher of the Year competition in Indianapolis in the fall of 2022.

In addition to Goodman, this year's building nominees included: Lauren Knapp (third grade, Hamilton Heights Elementary School), Kelly Stroup, (fifth grade, Hamilton Heights Elementary School); and Eric Fisher (Industrial Technology/PLTW, Hamilton Heights High School).

"It was quite an honor to be selected first as the middle school teacher of the year," said Goodman. "Winning at the corporation level was not even on my radar! Considering the amazing teachers that won at the primary, elementary, and high school levels, I did not think I had a chance! I am so grateful that this committee sees such value in exploratory/fine arts/electives classes. These classes are difference makers in the day for so many students! Becoming an art teacher was the best decision I ever made and applying to HHMS three years ago was the second-best decision I ever made!"

Goodman says she was destined to teach art and it has been her passion for as long as she can remember. She credits her third-grade art teacher, Mrs. Simmons, with changing her life at a time when she needed it most. Two years later, she was selected as "artist of the year" and this, added Goodman, was an impactful moment of her life. She knew where she was going and never looked back.

It's not just the positive impact Goodman knows she can have on her students as a teacher every day, it's that she is able to show her students how much she cares about them and this has earned her their trust and admiration. Weaved into her daily instruction is teaching her students how to think creatively, critically, solve programs, and skills needed to live, happier, fuller lives.

"Mrs. Goodman is a kind, compassionate, creative and skilled teacher," said Bret Bailey, Hamilton Heights Middle School Principal. "She works hard to know, help, and inspire her students to become their best. We are so thankful she has made HHMS her home because she is a joy to work with and makes us a stronger team. Both students and staff respect

Westfield Washington Schools appoints McGuire Administrator of Alternative Learning

The REPORTER

Westfield Washington Schools (WWS) has announced that Dr. Stacy McGuire, current Westfield High School Principal, has been appointed as the new Administrator of Alternative Learning for WWS.

In this new, district-wide role, Dr. McGuire will develop, implement and oversee alternative student programs and services in alignment with district and state learning objectives. Additionally, Dr. McGuire will research and propose alternative learning opportunities and experiences for students who have extenuating social, emotional, and/or academic circumstances which may interfere with their ability to be successful in a traditional educational environment. Furthermore, she will provide the necessary support services and create individualized learning plans that can lead to graduation and student success.

The concentrated focus on alternative learning is part of the district's five-year strategic plan, Growing the Rock Way, and will provide additional resources to meet its mission to "Provide rigorous and engaging experiences to prepare all children – socially, emotionally, and academically – for their future."

"Now more than ever we realize that alternative learning is vital for bridging gaps for students who may not thrive in a traditional school atmosphere," said WWS Superintendent Dr. Sherry Grate. "Dr. McGuire's passion and commitment for ALL students makes her a perfect fit to lead this new operation for WWS."

Carmel Waterpark opening June 14

The REPORTER

The Waterpark in Carmel is preparing to open on Sunday, June 14 with additional safety precautions in place, presuming Hamilton County enters Stage 4 of Governor Holcomb's Back on Track Indiana Plan on this date. The phased reopening plan for The Waterpark is based on guidance from the Center for Disease Control and the Indiana State Department of Health. Initially, from June 14 until July 3, attendance will be limited, some features will remain closed, and policies will be adjusted in an effort to mitigate the spread of COVID-19 and best ensure the safety of visitors and staff.

The Waterpark will be open to daily admissions from noon to 7 p.m., with advance entry available to current members and season pass holders beginning at 11 a.m. Daily admission will initially be limited to Carmel/Clay Township residents and first responders (with ID) until Indiana reaches Stage 5 of its Back on Track Indiana Plan.

"While we take great pride in welcoming people to The Waterpark from throughout the state, our reduced capacity and other COVID-19 related precautions have significantly limited how many people we can serve," said Michael Klitzke, Director of CCPR. "Unfortunately, we simply cannot operate as a regional destination until we enter Stage 5 of the state's reopening plan and capacity limitations are eliminated."

Additional safety measures that are being implemented during this three-week period include:

- Capacity will be limited to no more than 50 percent.
- Use of credit/debit cards is encouraged for all purchases.
- Large group sales will not be available this summer. Groups larger than six individuals will be turned away.
- Guests must enter The Waterpark through the main gate. Access to The Waterpark will not be available through the Monon Community Center.

- It is strongly advised to wear a face covering when not actively swimming or in line for a ride or attraction. Staff, except when actively guarding the pools, are required to wear face coverings.
- Inner tubes will not be available for use, requiring closure of the Lazy River. Adventure Slides will remain open for guests to use without tubes.
- Cabanas will be available to rent on a first-come, first-served basis each day. Advance cabana rentals are not available.
- Lawn chairs will be unavailable for use this season. Guests will be permitted to bring in their own seating.
- Drinking fountains are closed; water bottle refill stations will be open – bring a water bottle and fill all season at no cost.
- Concessions will be open, with social distancing parameters in place. Guests can also bring their own food and drink; however, glass and alcohol are prohibited. Coolers and bags will be checked by staff before guests are admitted.

- Half of the tables in the concession area will be removed and tables will be sanitized every hour.
- Portable hand wash stations will be available around the park.
- Dedicated staff will be focused on frequently cleaning restrooms and trash receptacles.
- At the end of each day all common contact items will be sanitized including: Slide entry and handles, Activity Pool and Kiddie Pool play features, concessions tables and seats, cabana furniture, FlowRider® boards, pool ladders, pool lift chairs, and entry gates.
- Remember that if you are experiencing a cough, fever, or other symptoms of illness, as recommended by the CDC, please stay home.

D1 Training is bringing a new facility to the Finch Creek Fieldhouse in Noblesville. The gym franchise, with locations all over the country, is opening up its second in Indiana.

They train up-and-coming athletes, starting at kids as young as 7 and going all the way up to the professional level. They also train adults trying to meet their general fitness goals.

Starting in July, people in Hamilton County will have access to the training facility's services and the skills of Kray' Shawn Brewer, a local performance coach with a passion for helping kids.

Brewer played football at North Central High School, Indiana University and Eastern Michigan University before ending his college career at Marian University, where he found success winning a NAIA national championship in 2018.

"My whole life I've been around sports," Brewer said. He talked about his inspiration behind using his experience to train athletes with dreams like he had growing up. "I want to give these athletes a chance," he said. "All it took was a chance for me, and I know all they need is a chance."

Finch Creek Fieldhouse is a multi-sport facility for young athletes, their families, and fans. Located north of Hamilton Town Center, Finch Creek Fieldhouse includes approximately 65,000 square feet of turf. The turf will feature two full infields for baseball and softball as well as two fields for football, soccer, lacrosse and rugby. The fieldhouse also has five basketball/volleyball courts, six pickleball courts and 11 batting cages for baseball and softball players.

teachers of the year are an exceptional group of educators,” said Dr. Derek Arrowood, Hamilton Heights School Corporation Superintendent. “Each exemplifies what a teacher should be – caring, skilled, knowledgeable, curious, and first and foremost, focused on the well-being, potential, and success of their students. They are highly respected leaders in their schools and within our school corporation. It is a high honor to be recognized by your peers as the Teacher of the Year.”

“Mrs. Goodman’s natural ability to relate and bring out the very best in her students was evident from her first day,” Arrowood continued. “Her creativity and compassion is contagious inside and outside her classroom. Hamilton Heights is fortunate to have so many skilled, professional, and highly effective educators leading and teaching our children. Especially in this unprecedented year, I remain grateful for all the many ways our teachers contribute to the success of our students and the quality of our community.”

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault – it wasn’t something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don’t often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we’re breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.

museums, zoos, aquariums and other venues – will open at 50 percent capacity.

- Movie theaters and bowling alleys will open at 50 percent capacity.

- Community youth and adult recreational games, leagues and tournaments may resume.

- Racing venues may open at up to 50 percent capacity while maintaining social distancing.

- Parimutuel horse racing will begin with no spectators at Hoosier Park and Indiana Grand facilities.

- Charity gaming and casinos may open June 15 with approval of the Indiana Gaming Commission.

- Amusement parks and water parks may open at 50 percent capacity. A reservation system is recommended.

- Playgrounds may reopen. Children should wear masks and use hand sanitizer. Multiple children playing on equipment should wear masks. Avoid eating food at the playgrounds. Guardians may want to change children's clothes after visiting playgrounds.

- State government buildings may reopen by appointment.

- Festivals, fairs, parades and carnivals remain closed until Stage 5, which would arrive July 4 if the coronavirus numbers continue to show hospitals are accessible and the COVID-19 remains under control.

Holcomb said he does not want to predict whether Stage 5 might arrive a few days earlier as Stage 4 did.

Dr. Kristina Box, commissioner of the Indiana State Department of Health, said, "I don't want to predict where we're going to be two weeks or two and a half weeks from now, but our numbers do look really good right now, and we will continue to look at the state as a whole but also look at individual counties and individual regions because we want to work with them and make sure that they are doing and we are doing what's the safest things for their communities also."

Box also warned people who are 65 and older to continue to take precautions because the virus can affect them with greater effect. Face coverings continue to be recommended for everyone. She added that more than 90 percent of Indiana's deaths have involved people 60 or older.

The health commissioner said Elkhart and Lagrange counties have seen increases in positive virus cases that are concerning but may be a result of increased testing availability. She said targeted testing may be needed in those counties to identify the cause of the rising numbers. Most concerning, she said, is an increase in hospitalizations in Lagrange County.

The state is having meetings today representatives in northeastern Indiana counties in regard to the Amish population, Box said. Amish faith-based gatherings such as weddings are sometimes large, and the state is wanting to work with the counties to educate the Amish population about the risks.

Earlier on Wednesday, the Indiana State Department of Health announced 339 new COVID-19 cases and 15 additional deaths.

In total, there are 38,337 COVID-19 cases and 2,173 deaths related to the virus in Indiana.

According to the department, there have been 320,094 tests administered in the state.

According to the Center for Systems Science and Engineering at Johns Hopkins University, there have been more than 7,271,000 confirmed cases worldwide, with more than 3,398,000 recoveries and more than 412,000 deaths.

Senators call for U.S. to welcome Hong Kongers fleeing Chinese Communist Party

The REPORTER

U.S. Senators Todd Young (R-Ind.), Jeff Merkley (D-Ore.), Tom Cotton (R-Ark.), Kevin Cramer (R-N.D.), Jerry Moran (R-Kan.), Kelly Loeffler (R-Ga.), and John Boozman (R-Ark.) sent a letter to U.S. Secretary of State Mike Pompeo encouraging the United States to work with the United Kingdom and Australia to welcome Hong

Kongers seeking refuge outside of Beijing's authoritarian rule after recent actions effectively ended Hong Kong's autonomy from China.

"We stand in solidarity with Hong Kongers as they fight to defend their basic democratic rights and remain free from the oppression that Beijing seeks to impose. While evaluating next steps for a broader response to the evolving situation in Hong Kong, we must recognize the immediate concern that some Hong Kongers are no longer safe living there and are seeking refuge outside of the region. As China becomes increasingly assertive, we must provide an alternative for those who desire to live in a land that shares their democratic values, protects human rights, and upholds the rule of law," the Senators wrote.

"We commend the recent actions by the United Kingdom and statements by Australia to welcome Hong Kongers who are seeking to live outside of Beijing's authoritarian rule. We strongly encourage the United States to follow suit and work arm in arm with our allies to find a solution to this challenge," they added.

Letter to the Editor

Reader says it's time for new leadership at Noblesville Schools

Dear Editor:

Just when you thought the Senior Class at Noblesville High School had been through enough with the COVID-19 pandemic, they get another huge slap in the face.

The Senior Parade on June 1 was awesome as the students got to ride in vehicles being cheered and announced as they passed by cameras streaming the event. Then passing by their teachers from over the years cheering them on.

Graduation on this past Saturday, again being streamed because the weak leadership of Noblesville Schools, Beth Niedermeyer (Superintendent) and Craig McCaffrey (Principal) couldn't possibly plan a live event to honor our graduates. The speech by McCaffrey was weak at best and a rehash of someone else's prior speech ... nothing original.

Now the slap I mentioned. My granddaughter goes to get her diploma when she turns in her books and tablet and gets her diploma from someone she doesn't even know. Beth Niedermeyer and Craig McCaffrey, one of which should have done it you'd think, didn't have the humanistic quality to be there for our graduates!

It's time for new leadership in Noblesville Schools because neither of these two have it.

Congratulations to the Class of 2020, the LEADERS of TOMORROW! All the best to you.

Philip Rivers sets up shop in Indy

By OLIVIA RAY

For the first time since moving to Indianapolis, the Colts new quarterback, Philip Rivers, details life in the Hoosier State.

"I guess we've been here for almost a week now, but it's been great. Haven't really moved in a long time. So, quite a different move with 11 of us, but the transition has been smooth," said Rivers.

As Indy's newest resident, Rivers said he's more than excited to be here, especially since it's a city that loves its quarterbacks.

Speaking of, while Peyton Manning still holds a long list of records in the league and here in Indy, there is one number that the Colts new gunslinger is about to blow out of the water.

Peyton Manning started a consecutive 227 games in the NFL, and that streak is topped only by three others in league history. Philip Rivers' magic number is 235 straight starts and counting.

"I was always aware of his streak as well," said Rivers. "That is one thing that's always meant a lot to me. You know, there's a lot of things that go into that. I've obviously been blessed and healthy enough to be out there. There is an element of toughness to it. And certainly the desire and hope is to keep that thing going."

As Rivers tries to keep that rolling, for the first time in his 17-year career, it's with a new team, that he's barely met, thanks to a virtual offseason.

new, and not knowing really any of these guys," said Rivers.

The only interaction he's had with his new team is in top-secret throwing sessions. Invites are only extended to Rivers' receivers.

"We've actually, a handful of us, have thrown already," Rivers added. "Seeing Jack and Parris the last couple of days. You know I've been in a meeting with them for eight weeks, but saying, 'hey nice to meet you in person finally.' So, it certainly is a little weird, but it's been great."
