Local golfers can help charities across Indiana

The REPORTER

The Knights of Columbus of Fishers invite you to a charity golf outing at the Sagamore Golf Club in Noblesville. The outing will be held on Oct. 12, 2020, with registration starting at 9 a.m. and the shotgun start at 11 a.m.

Thanks to generous sponsors and golfers, the Knights of Columbus of Fishers have contributed over $450,000 to charities throughout Indiana.

Knights of Columbus welcome single golfers as well as foursomes, and a variety of sponsorship opportunities are available.

When asked about the outing, Dave Benigni, from Window Makeover, a 2019 Sponsor, said, "It was a great event for a wonderful cause on a fabulous course. Lunch, beverages and dinner were plentiful and delicious. I'll be back in 2020!"

With over 1.6 million members, The Knights of Columbus is the world's largest Catholic family fraternal organization. Proceeds from the 26th annual golf outing will benefit Indiana charities including Gibault, Little Sisters of the Poor, The O'Connor House and other Knights of Columbus charities.

Gibault, located in Terre Haute, was founded by the Indiana Knights of Columbus in 1921, and serves children who have been victims of emotional or physical trauma and neglect. Gibault has helped over 10,000 kids and their families from every county in Indiana.

Gibault currently has over 100 children living on campus who are referred to Gibault through the Indiana Department of Education or the Indiana Department of Child Services. The children attend an accredited K-12 school on campus, and are provided a customized treatment plan to address their specific needs. Although the duration of their stays varies, the average length of time a child spends at Gibault is about 175 days.

The Knights of Columbus golf outing also benefits The Little Sisters of the Poor. The Little Sisters of the Poor are an international congregation of Roman Catholic women serving the elderly poor in over 30 countries around the world. Their mission is to offer the neediest elderly of every race and religion a home. Locally they operate the St. Augustine Home in Indianapolis.

Due to the generosity of the community and organizations such as the Knights of Columbus, The St. Augustine Home is able to serve about 100 residents, most are native Hoosiers in their mid- to late-80s.

Register at kofc6923.org/golf and enjoy a fun day of golf while supporting these worthy charities.

Westfield Library Foundation launches tutoring campaign

The REPORTER

The Westfield Library Foundation says it is proud to announce the launch of a campaign to help raise funds for a free tutoring program for students in Westfield and Washington Township.

The Westfield Washington Public Library and the Westfield Youth Assistance Program have partnered to provide a free tutoring program for local students in need. Through this service, the two organizations hope to reach socioeconomically disadvantaged youth within the community, guiding them to academic success while leveraging the library and its resources.

Starting in 2019, this program has been able to help a small number of students; but in 2020 the aim is to help even more, especially with the uncertainty of a normal school year.

For a donation of $225, a student is sponsored for six weeks of tutoring. Westfield Youth Assistance matches the student with an approved tutor. By helping to raise funds for this program, the hope is to alleviate the financial burden students and families are unable to manage for tutoring as well as help compensate qualified instructors that encourage them in their pursuit of learning.

The program also supports the library's mission of fostering exploration, discovery and growth, as well as its vision to serve as the cornerstone of lifelong learning in Westfield and Washington Township. Donations can be made at the library or by clicking here.

Westfield Library Foundation Executive Director Eric Downey said, "The Foundation is excited to be able to help students and the community by raising funds for this worthwhile program."

The Westfield Library Foundation serves to elevate, advocate and fund-raise for the Westfield Washington Public Library.

Fishers named "most educated" city in state

The REPORTER

The City of Fishers has been awarded the 2020 Insurify Most Educated Cities Award for Indiana.

Winners of the award were identified by an analysis of the educational achievement of individuals across the United States. Insurify analyzed over 2.5 million auto insurance applications, including the age and educational background of each applicant, to locate the most educated community in each state. Every individual in the data set was assigned a score based on educational attainment and grade point average (GPA), for current states. The results were then grouped by city, and the highest-scoring community in each state was selected.

"Pursuing educational opportunities demonstrates the drive to succeed, not only for oneself, but for one's greater community," said Insurify CEO Snejina Zacharia. "With this award, we hope to recognize cities whose residents are exemplary in their dedication to educational achievement."

Noblesville's Movies in the Park Series includes five city parks

The REPORTER

The Noblesville Parks Department invites residents to enjoy outdoor movies together as a family at five city parks this summer. The 13th annual Movies in the Park Series has something for all ages to enjoy – from fun adventures to foreign lands to talkative animals and iconic personalities.

"The Movies in the Park Series has been an ongoing tradition in Noblesville for over a decade," said Recreation Program Coordinator Erin Portman. "Attendees can enjoy family-friendly movies, bring a blanket, their dinner or snacks and enjoy an evening of cinema

2020 Movies in the Park

Friday, Aug. 14 – Flick 'N Float featuring The Shallows (PG-13, 87 min.)

Friday, Aug. 21 – Flick 'N Float featuring Lilo & Stitch (PG, 85 min.)

Friday, Aug. 28 – Jumanji 2: Next Level (PG-13, 123 min.) at Finch Creek Park, 16233 Boden Road

Friday, Sept. 4 – Frozen 2 (PG, 103 min.) at Dillon Park, 6351 Midland Lane.

Friday, Sept. 11 – Dolittle (PG, 101 min.) at Federal Hill Commons, 175 Logan St.

Friday, Sept. 18 – A Beautiful Day in the Neighborhood (PG, 109 min.) at Southside Park, 396 Washington St.

at Noblesville's parks. Instead of one location for the movie series, this year we are bringing the movies to various parks across the city in order to give residents an opportunity to enjoy them closer to home."

To kick off the series, the Noblesville Parks Department is partnering with the Forest Park Aquatic Center, 1077 Cicero Road, to host two Flick 'N Float events, which include The Shallows on Aug. 14 for a 21-and-over crowd, and Lilo & Stitch on Aug. 21 for all ages. The movies will start at dusk and will be shown on the pool deck while attendees view the movie from the pool. Pool admission after 5 p.m. is $4 and food and beverages will be available for purchase.

The remaining movies in the series will be shown at various city parks the next four weeks. Movies will begin at dusk and are free to the public. This year's schedule includes:

CDC social distancing guidelines will remain in place during the movie series. Attendees are asked to keep a distance of six feet from others. Screen setup at each park will allow space for attendees

Fishers Arts Council to feature local artists in first Juried Exhibit

The REPORTER

Fishers Arts Council (FAC) will soon hold its first ever Juried Exhibit of Hamilton County Artists, sponsored by Jiffy Lube of Indiana.

This exhibit will become an annual fundraiser for the arts organization. Artists pay a fee to enter, and jurors review their works digitally before deciding if they can be part of the exhibit. Once chosen, artists bring their art to the gallery where the jurors review the art in person, and select winners based on their skill and presentation. The jurors for 2020 are artists Jeanne McLeish and Mark Burkett, selected by FAC board member Pat Grabill.

Grabill took on the task of managing the Juried Exhibit for FAC, based on her years of experience with the Watercolor Society of Indiana and their juried exhibits. When asked why she selected these two artists as jurors, Grabill said, "Jeanne McLeish and Mark Burkett are artists with success in many areas: Oil painting and watercolor painting, and Mark is also a printmaker and specialist in creating wood block prints. I have admired their work for a long time, and I feel that their experience in more than one genre makes them excellent judges for this competition."

Steve Sanner, President of Jiffy Lube of America, has stepped up to sponsor this event. Sponsoring the event involves covering the cost of cash prizes for the winning juried artists, musical guests, event advertising and more. FAC is excited to partner with Jiffy Lube of Indiana, as they opened their first location in Fishers earlier this year and have been a major arts

Register now for Boys & Girls Club cornhole tournament this Friday

The REPORTER

The Tom & Soni Sheehan Boys & Girls Club of Noblesville will hold the fifth annual Cornhole Tournament this Friday, Aug. 7, presented by Sysco Foods of Indianapolis. Check-in will begin at 11:30 a.m. with the first round of play starting at 12:30 p.m. at Forest Park Shelter No. 1.

The afternoon will consist of a three-game guarantee to include a double-elimination tournament and a "toilet bowl" bracket. Competitive play will culminate in a championship game paying out cash prizes to first and second place. Each participant will receive a commemorative

T-shirt and an entry into a door prize drawing. All players are invited to bring their own adult beverages, and multiple silent auction packages will be offered.

This year's event will look a little different to ensure the safety of everyone in attendance. All attendees will be asked to bring their own chairs and spread out while social distancing at the park. Before and after each cornhole game, players will be required to use the provided hand sanitizer. Players will also be allowed to bring their own bags if they prefer. Masks will be encouraged but not required.

"Each year, our event has successfully grown under the shade of Forest Park," said BGCN Sports Director Tony Eslamirad. "Those who attend not only have the opportunity to network and relax on a Friday afternoon, but they are making a difference in the lives of over 2,400 local kids that utilizes the Club's services. In the past four years, the event has raised nearly $30,000 for our Club Kids."

The registration fee per team of two will be $60 with all proceeds benefiting the Boys & Girls Club of Noblesville. Teams may register online by noon on Thursday at bgcni.org. For more information, contact the Boys & Girls Club of Noblesville at (317) 773-4372 or email teslamirad@bgcni.org.

to spread out and enjoy the films.

Per Governor Holcomb’s statewide mask mandate, masks are required (for ages 8 and older) in indoor public spaces or in outside public spaces when it is not possible to socially distance. Masks are strongly recommended for ages 2 to 7. The City of Noblesville follows the Governor’s Back on Track plan and will continue monitoring for any changes that could impact future events or the movie series.

In the event of rain, movies may be re-scheduled or moved inside Ivy Tech Community College, 300 N. 17 St. Light concessions will be available for purchase at all showings. The 2020 Movies in the Park Series is made possible through the contributions of Logan Street Signs & Banners and Urban Air Adventure Park.

supporter throughout Indiana.

“Jiffy Lube began our “Every Part Matters” mural project in 2016,” Sanner said. “Last year, we won an Americans for the Arts ‘Business pARTnership’ national award for our efforts, the first business in central Indiana to ever receive that honor.”

Jiffy Lube’s newest location in Fishers, located at 13855 Olivia Way just off of exit 210, features a trompe l’oeil (deceive the eye) mural by Indianapolis artist Carl Leck. Sanner says they are “happy to help as the new guys in town!”

FAC Board President Tom Rich has wanted a juried exhibit in Fishers for years. “We’ve never had a juried exhibit in Fishers before, and now is the time,” Rich said. “There are so many talented artists in Fishers, as well as Hamilton County, and we want to showcase that in a very professional way.”

FAC Board Vice President Laura Villanyi echoed Rich’s thoughts. “This exhibit is a super opportunity to showcase some of the best artistic talents in Hamilton county,” Villanyi said.

Rich says he is also excited about the jurors selected for the exhibit.

“Jeanne and Mark are just perfect for the exhibit,” Rich said. “They are artists who are very respected in their fields.”

Besides offering cash prizes for the top three pieces selected by the jurors, the community gets a say as well.

“I think it’s fun for the those who visit the gallery to get to select their favorite piece from the exhibit,” FAC Board Treasurer Les Reinhardt said. “We’ll tally up the votes the night of the reception and see who wins.”

Due to COVID-19, FAC has hosted its art gallery on the FAC website, in addition to the live gallery. Reinhardt says that those who can’t visit in person can vote for their favorite through the website Oct. 5-8, 2020.

Sanner and Rich will present the awards to the winners at the reception and awards ceremony on Oct. 9 at the Art Gallery at City Hall in Fishers. The reception will start at 6 p.m. and winners will be announced at 7 p.m.

Artists who want to participate should visit the arts council’s Residencies and Opportunities page at FishersArtsCouncil.org/blog, which has details for the Juried Exhibit as well as other opportunities for artists to sell art and be paid to perform.

“We do our best to keep our site as updated as possible with opportunities that come up, even if they aren’t from us,” said Reinhardt, who manages their website and social media. “When we learn about special classes, grants, or other opportunities for artists of all mediums, we do our best to share.”

Board member and owner of High Frequency Arts Jill Lehman urges artists to submit their works and connect with the Fishers community.

“Art plays a critical role in building a community,” Lehman said. “Thank you to our volunteers, judges, and sponsors for helping us make this opportunity available to local artists and connect the arts into our vibrant community.”

Both the online and in-person galleries will go live on Oct. 5. Guests can visit the gallery in person at 1 Municipal Drive from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, excluding holidays, and from 10 a.m. to noon on Saturdays during the Fishers Farmers’ Market.

You can see the current online gallery at FishersArtsCouncil.org/art-gallery-exhibit.

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault – it wasn’t something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don’t often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we’re breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.

AG Curtis Hill: Courts should allow FDA to continue regulating chemical abortions as usual during pandemic

The REPORTER

On Monday, Indiana Attorney General Curtis Hill said federal courts should not use the COVID-19 pandemic as a reason to interfere in the U.S. Food and Drug Administration's regulation of chemical abortions.

A U.S. district court recently ruled that the FDA must suspend several of its normal rules during the pandemic – including a requirement that mifepristone, an abortion drug, be dispensed only in a clinic, medical office or hospital.

Such rules protect women's health and "are not unduly burdensome even in the current public health emergency," according to an 11-state amicus brief filed in a U.S. appellate court. The brief, which is co-led by Indiana and Louisiana, supports the FDA's motion for a stay of the district court's ruling pending an appeal.

"When a woman ingests for the purpose of aborting a fetus, she not only ends the life of her unborn child, but also undergoes significant risks to her own body," Hill said. "Federal and state laws require physical examinations and in-person dispensing of mifepristone to ensure that physicians check for contraindications and that women fully understand the risks."

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent: Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead. And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter. So Paul departed from among them. Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Acts 17:30-34 (KJV)

Charles Allen "Chip" Gray

May 20, 1962 – July 30, 2020

Charles Allen "Chip" Gray, devoted father of two, caring son, brother and uncle, passed away suddenly on July 30, 2020, at the age of 58.

Chip is remembered with love by his father, Charlie; his son, Charley (Cara); his daughter, Apple; his sister, Cheryl (Jeff); his brother, David (Lori); his many nieces and nephews; his former spouse, Amy, mother to Charley and Apple; and by countless others whose lives he touched.

He is preceded in passing by his beloved mother, Joan. Chip was born on May 20, 1962 in Carlinville, Ill., the youngest child of Charlie and Joan Gray. The family later moved to Alma, Mich., where Chip met Amy, and graduated from Alma High School and Alma College. Chip received his M.B.A. from the University of Michigan and bled maize and blue his whole life. He was a dedicated automotive safety engineer, inducted into the Aptiv Hall of Fame with over 50 patents, whose inventions saved countless lives. Chip was extraordinarily generous in spirit, quick to offer a helping hand and sage advice to anyone. His love of golf was fabled throughout his entire life; he learned the game at a young age from his father and passed along that love of golf to his son at a similarly young age. Music was a lifelong love of Chip's, a passion he shared with Apple, whose musical tastes were so good as to influence Chip's tastes over his legendary stubbornness. Chip, along with Amy, Charley and Apple, held a zeal for exploring this country's most incredible landmarks. He loved to impart his wit and wisdom in writings to his loved ones. He, and those writings, will be sorely missed.

A celebration of his life will be held from 2 to 4 p.m. on Saturday, August 8, 2020 at Randall & Roberts Funeral Center, 1685 Westfield Road, Noblesville. The family asks that those in attendance wear face coverings during the celebration. Dress is smart casual.

Memorial contributions may be made to any of the following: The National Breast Cancer Foundation, P.O. Box 678572, Dallas, TX 75267-8572; or The Gift of Adoption Fund, 2001 Waukegan Road, Techny, IL 60082; or the City of Bloomington Animal Care and Control, 3410 S. Walnut St., Bloomington, IN 47401.

Joanne (Jo) Spivey King

September 1, 1935 – July 11, 2020

Joanne (Jo) Spivey King passed away peacefully on July 11, 2020, at the age of 84. Joanne was born in Indianapolis on September 1, 1935, to the late Russell Spivey, M.D. and Dorothy Ryker Spivey.

She enjoyed a happy childhood showing American Saddlebred horses with her sister, Susanne, and sewing clothes for her dolls. Joanne attended Pike and Broad Ripple High Schools and Butler University, where she met the love of her life and husband of 62 years, James (Jim) Floyd King. She was proud to be a member of the Pi Beta Phi Sorority.

Joanne graduated from Butler with a bachelor's degree in home economics and had a long and successful career with Purdue Extension. She began as an extension agent in Marion County, then moved to Boone County, and subsequently spent many years as the County Extension Director in Hamilton County. Her areas of expertise were many and included teaching clothing construction and tailoring, food preparation and preservation, and health and human services. Joanne was instrumental in the expansion of the Hamilton County 4-H Fairgrounds and construction of the Exhibition Center. She loved every aspect of her career including overseeing the 4-H program and county fair, working with Extension Homemakers and area farmers, and engaging with children and teens to solve problems and build leadership skills. She was a passionate advocate for principles of diversity, equity and inclusion and led frequent training sessions in this area.

Joanne was committed to serving her community and its residents any way she could. As a member of the Hamilton County Park Board, she was instrumental in opening several new parks in the county. She was involved with the Hamilton County Progress Committee, and was one of the founders of the Hamilton County Leadership Academy. She was a Sagamore of the Wabash Award recipient.

Joanne was a positive role model for so many, always quick with a smile and kind word. She was beloved by her children, Jennifer and Jeff, who will never forget her contagious belief in the power of a positive attitude. She also modeled and instilled values of gratitude, grace and compassion.

As a family, Joanne, her husband Jim, and their children spent many happy summers boating and water skiing on the Ohio River and at Morse Lake, where Joanne and Jim lived for nearly 40 years. They also enjoyed spending winters in the Florida Keys, as well as Bradenton and Anna Maria Island, Fla., and visiting other states in their RV.

Joanne was preceded in death by her husband Jim (just two months prior). She is survived by her loving sister, Susanne (Sue) Spivey Cooper; son, J. Jeffrey King; daughter, Jennifer King Burk (Phil Burk); and four grandchildren, twins Nicholas James Burk and Brandon Paul Burk, and twins Abigail Judith Burk and Samantha Joanne Burk.

A celebration of life will be held at a later date.

Memorial contributions may be made to Purdue Extension Hamilton County, 2003 Pleasant St., Noblesville, IN 46060-3697.

Arrangements are entrusted to Hartley Funeral Home Cicero Chapel where you may send condolences at hartleyfuneralhomes.com.

Girls golf

Carmel, Westfield off to solid starts

By RICHIE HALL

Once the IHSAA girls golf season begins, the elite teams don't waste any time showing who they are.

That happened early during this busy opening week. Third-ranked Carmel and No. 4 Westfield each had success in their first two events, the Bloomington South Invitational on Monday at Bloomington Country Club, and the Hamilton Southeastern Invitational Tuesday at Stony Creek Golf Club in Noblesville.

At Bloomington, the Greyhounds finished with a 287, one stroke behind second-ranked Evansville North, the team champion with a 286. The Shamrocks were a close third with a 292. Carmel's Katie Kuc shared medalist honors with North's Faith Johnson, with both carding 68s. Freshman Michaela Headlee added a 70 for the 'Hounds. Meanwhile, Sophie McGinnis and Sam Brown both had 71s to lead Westfield.

On Tuesday, both Carmel and Westfield were on top at Stony Creek. The Greyhounds' Blue team won the invitational with a 289, while the Shamrocks' Green team scored a 291 for runner-up honors.

Headlee led the Carmel scoring with a 70. She and another freshman, Claire Swathwood, are expected to make big contributions to the team this season.

"We have been consistent through our first two tournaments," said Carmel coach Kelly Kluesner. "We've got two good additions in Claire and Michaela playing for us."

The Greyhounds will play in two more tournaments this week, the Crooked Stick Invitational on Thursday and the State Preview Saturday at Prairie View.

"We have four tournaments in our first week, but it gets the season going," said Kluesner.

Westfield's McGinnis improved four shots from her Bloomington South score to card a 67, good for medalist honors.

"I think I'm playing really solid," said McGinnis. "I'm hitting the ball really well. I'm happy where my game is and just keep practicing and hopefully it can get better from here."

Southeastern's Blue team finished third with a 299. The Royals, tied for 10th in the first poll of the season, were led by Amber Luttrell's 72.

Fishers and Hamilton Heights competed at the HSE Invitational as well. Sydney Zebrauskas led the Huskies with a score of 73, while Kristi Lilek was in front for the Tigers with an 83.

GOLDEN EAGLES START STRONG
Guerin Catholic had a nice start to its season, with a victory on Monday and a close runner-up finish on Tuesday.

The Golden Eagles won the four-team Cathedral Irish Invitational on Monday at Maple Creek Golf Club, scoring 378. Christina Pfefferkorn was the meet medalist, shooting 78.

Heights placed second at Maple Creek with a 418. Zebrauskas scored an 88 for the Huskies.

On Tuesday, Guerin Catholic traveled to Battle Ground Golf Course for the Lafayette Jefferson Booster Invitational. The Golden Eagles scored 352 to place second, one shot behind Lebanon's 351.

Pfefferkorn was again the medalist, with a score of 73. Other scores were Audrey Kunc 88, Jenny Zerla 90, Isabella Pinion 101 and Anna Jacoby 115.

Guerin Catholic will play at the Zionsville Invitational today at Golf Club of Indiana.

Indianapolis Motor Speedway to run the 500 without fans

The Indianapolis Motor Speedway today issued the following statement:

"It is with great regret that we announce the 104th Running of the Indianapolis 500 will take place on Aug. 23 without fans. This tough decision was made following careful consideration and extensive consultation with state and city leadership.

"As dedicated as we were to running the race this year with 25 percent attendance at our large outdoor facility, even with meaningful and careful precautions implemented by the city and state, the COVID-19 trends in Marion County and Indiana have worsened. Since our June 26 announcement, the number of cases in Marion County has tripled while the positivity rate has doubled. We said from the beginning of the pandemic we would put the health and safety of our community first, and while hosting spectators at a limited capacity with our robust plan in place was appropriate in late June, it is not the right path forward based on the current environment.

"We encourage Hoosiers to continue making smart decisions and following the advice of our public health officials so we can help get Indiana back on track.

"Penske Corporation made a long-term investment to be the steward of this legendary facility. While we were very excited to showcase the investments and enhancements we have made in the guest experience, we know we have reached the right decision. As much as Roger Penske and everyone associated with the '500' wanted to race with fans this year, we ultimately reached this conclusion in partnership with the state of Indiana and city of Indianapolis.

"Our commitment to the Speedway is unwavering, and we will continue to invest in the Racing Capital of the World. We encourage everyone to watch this year's race on NBC, and we look forward to welcoming our loyal fans back to 'The Greatest Spectacle in Racing' on May 30th of 2021."

Pacers stay hot, beat Magic for third straight win

By WHEAT HOTCHKISS

Courtesy nba.com/pacers

T.J. Warren and the Indiana Pacers stayed hot on Tuesday.

Warren scored 32 points as the Pacers (42-26) rolled to a 120-109 win over the Orlando Magic (32-36), their third straight victory in the restart to the NBA season.

After scoring a career-best 53 points on Saturday and then tallying 34 points and 11 rebounds on Monday, Warren followed those performances up by hitting his first eight shots on Tuesday. He finished the second night of the back-to-back 13-for-17 from the field and 4-for-5 from 3-point range in just 29 minutes, topping the 30-point plateau for the third straight contest.

"I'm just really in rhythm, really picking my spot, really being efficient, and just playing hard overall," Warren said after another brilliant performance.

Myles Turner added 21 points and six rebounds while going 7-for-11 from the field and 4-for-5 from beyond the arc. Victor Oladipo chipped in 13 points, five boards, and two steals in the victory.

Turner and Malcolm Brogdon got the scoring started with a mid-range jumper and a layup, respectively, before Warren and Aaron Holiday each knocked down a 3-pointer as Indiana opened the game with 10 unanswered points. Warren, Holiday, and Oladipo then each hit treys to give the Blue & Gold a 19-3 lead less than five minutes into the contest.

The Magic started cold, opening the game 1-for-9 from the field. Warren, on the other hand, remained red hot. The 6-8 forward did not miss in the opening frame, adding three floaters, another three, and a pair of free throws on his way to 17 points in the first quarter.

"I think we all just want to kind of follow him around for a day and see what he's doing in the bubble," Pacers guard T.J. McConnell quipped after the game. "It's been remarkable what he's doing. We just keep giving him the ball."

As a team, Indiana went 7-for-12 from beyond the arc in the first quarter, led by as many as 23 points, and took a 43-22 lead into the second quarter.

"I just thought we did a good job establishing ourselves on both ends of the floor," Pacers head coach Nate McMillan said about Indiana's opening flurry. "Our defense was really solid, (we) rebounded and (were) able to get out in transition. Our ball movement was really good all night."

The Pacers extended their lead early in the second quarter. McConnell scored eight points during a 10-2 run that pushed the margin to 26.

Orlando answered with a 12-2 run of its own, but buoyed by a pair of 3-pointers from Turner, Indiana managed to push the lead back to 21 by halftime.

The Magic briefly avoided letting the game get out of hand at the start of the third quarter. Aaron Gordon scored five points as Orlando opened the second half with eight unanswered.

Orlando trailed 78-66 with 4:34 remaining in the frame, but Indiana reeled off a 10-2 run over a two-minute span to stave off the threat and took a 92-76 lead into the fourth quarter.

The Pacers kept the Magic at bay down the stretch, not allowing the margin to slip to within single digits until the final minute.

McConnell finished the night with 12 points on 6-of-7 shooting, four rebounds, and five assists. Brogdon added 12 points, four rebounds, and eight assists, while Holiday finished with 12 points, four boards, and four dimes.

Nikola Vucevic led Orlando with 24 points and 10 rebounds. Gordon added 20 points and seven boards and Terrence Ross scored 20.

The Pacers will be off Wednesday before returning to action on Thursday afternoon against Phoenix.
