Mike and Debbie Laird recently welcomed 312 golfers from all over Indiana to the 17th annual Jake Laird Golf Outing. The weather was perfect, and both courses at the Pebble Brook Golf Club were in pristine condition, which made for the most successful outing since its inception in 2004 after Jake Laird, an Indianapolis police officer, was shot and killed in the line of duty.

Joining during the opening ceremonies were Congresswoman Susan Brooks, State Representative Donna Schai-bley, Noblesville Mayor Chris Jensen and IMPD Assistant Chief Chris Bailey, who was also Jake's best friend.

Mike and Debbie worked very closely with the Hamilton County Health Department while utilizing Governor Hol-

A Hamilton County Health Department representative said, "With the excel-lent collaboration of many departments, this event was able to keep giving back to the community and supporting police offi-cers and firefighters."

The morning began with a surprise from Congresswoman Brooks for Debbie Laird. Brooks presented Debbie with a Con-gressional Record honoring her retirement from Janus Develop-mental Services, the work she did to better the lives of adults with disabilities and her service to police and fire agencies with her husband, Mike, through the Jake Laird Memorial Fund. Debbie said, "I was complete-

The city of Noblesville has contracted with Indianapolis-based consulting firm Hiron's to design a new city logo.

A statement provided to the Reporter from Noblesville Mayor Chris Jensen said, "The city is seeking to do a whole refresh of our brand to highlight both the history of Noblesville, as well as promote the progress made and growth to come. We don't currently know what the logo alone is going to look like, which is why we selected a firm with decades of experience in branding municipalities. As with any activity we undertake, public engagement is a high priority for us. We are eager to complete this project and have a new look for the city that stands for both progress and history,"

The new design would replace the current logo that features the historic court-house that sits in the middle of Noblesville's downtown square.

Emily Gaylord, Communications Di-rector for the City of Noblesville, was quoted saying, "We just thought it was time for a new brand because the current one is a building that belongs to the county. We'd like something that shows a city with a rich history that is ripe for progress."

City officials indicated the new design could include Ruoff Music Center, Hamil- ton Town Center and White River.

Noblesville will pay Hiron's up to $20,000 for their services.

Sylvia Shepler
chooses not to file for re-election to
HSE school board

By LARRY LANNAN
LarryInFishers.com

Sylvia Shepler, the longest-serving member of the Hamilton Southeastern school board, has chosen not to seek re-election.

At the noon filing deadline on Friday, Shepler was not on the list of candidates. She has been the at-large board member from Wayne Township. She began serving on the board in January 2000.

Two incumbents will be on the November ballot: Amanda Shera in Delaware Township and Clint Wilson in Fall Creek Township. Shera was elected to the board four years ago and Wilson was appointed by the board to complete the term of Mike Bottorff, who resigned his seat in late May 2019.

The at-large election works for HSE school board this way: There are three seats up for election, one in each of the three townships comprising the school district. Candidates must reside within the township where they are running. The entire school district votes on all three township seats.

Noblesville Schools dedicates Hallmark
Orthodontics Soccer Complex with new sign

The REPORTER

Noblesville Schools announced on Friday the dedication of the Hallmark Orthodontics Soccer Complex, home of Noblesville Millers soccer, with a ribbon cutting and unveiling of a new sign.

Hallmark Orthodontics purchased the naming rights to the existing Cumberland Road soccer facility at White River Elementary in a deal valued at $23,500 over three years.

"At Hallmark Orthodontics, we believe in the power of community," said Dr. Tasha Hall, co-owner of Hallmark Orthodontics.

"We hope to not only impact our patients' smiles, but also the community in which we live, learn and play. During these strange times in which we find ourselves, we hope to be a sign of support and evidence

“The golf outing was an event Deb and I thought would be around for a couple of years and be forgotten. We were completely wrong,” Mike said. “We have golfers and sponsors who start calling us as early as January for details of the next outing.”

Lindsay Fish, Director of Sales and Business Development for Title Sponsor, Indiana Grand Racing and Casino, said, “Indiana Grand is honored to have our long-standing relationship with the Jake Laird Memorial Golf Outing. We believe the funds raised to benefit our police and fire agencies is a cause worth supporting. By participating, we hope to be a small part of continuing to move the mission forward and allow the Jake Laird Memorial Fund to be a source of assistance for years to come.”

Gary Carroll, a golfer who has played in all 17 outings, said “If you’re looking for a quote, I’d say the Laird outing is the Greatest Spectacle in charitable golf outings. But for me, this is about supporting my friend, Mike, and his family’s sacrifice. It’s about supporting our public servants who put their life on the line every single day. I am thankful that in some way I can give back to our law enforcement officers through this outing.”

Mike and Debbie say they are looking forward to new opportunities to serve the police and fire communities and thank everyone for their participation in this year’s outing. For additional information please visit thejakelairdmemorialtourney.org.

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault – it wasn’t something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don’t often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we’re breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.

Indiana Senate Republicans offering paid spring internships

The REPORTER

The Indiana Senate Republican Caucus is offering paid spring semester internships in its communications, information technology, legal, legislative and policy offices during the 2021 session of the Indiana General Assembly, said State Sen. Victoria Spartz (R-Noblesville).

Qualified candidates may be studying any major and must be at least a college sophomore. Recent college graduates as well as graduate and law school students are also encouraged to apply. Positions are open to Indiana residents as well as nonresidents who attend a college or university in Indiana.

Interns earn a $750 biweekly stipend and benefit from scholarship and academic credit opportunities, professional development, community involvement and networking.

Senate internships are full-time positions at the Statehouse in downtown Indianapolis that typically begin with a mandatory orientation in late December and conclude at the end of the legislative session in April 2021. The Indiana Senate is currently developing plans to conduct legislative work amidst the COVID-19 pandemic and, as always, strives to provide a safe working environment for all interns, staff and senators.

"Interns have the opportunity to gain a better understanding of the legislative process at the state level and how bills become law, through this internship," Spartz said. "I encourage those interested in government or public policy to apply."

Letter to the Editor

Masks, social distancing could remain in effect for several more years

Dear Editor:

Austin, and much of Texas, is in a COVID hot zone. The ICUs are full. We don't go out much at all. Groceries all come via Instacart and the rest of shopping is done on Amazon or other varied online shopping.

Early in the summer, I worked on COVID vaccines and therapy grant proposals for BARDA and DARPA. While our scientists, and those in Britain and other parts of the world, are doing incredible work to develop vaccines, much of it is new RNA/DNA-based vaccine. We've never done this before, so there is a lot we don't know.

Also for us older folk, our immune systems may not respond as strongly. And, we have no idea how long any coronavirus vaccine may be effective.

The virus is here to stay – and will likely mutate again – not for the better. So, that means we should all get really comfortable with our masks and social distancing for the coming years.

There is good news on the therapeutic side with lots of trials of existing anti-virals and other new and repurposed drugs ongoing.

Knowing the difference between in-network, out-of-network providers

The REPORTER

Health insurance can protect against large bills from health care providers, but in some cases, consumers with insurance face sizable bills. According to the Kaiser Family Foundation, in the past two years, one in five insured adults had an unexpected medical bill from an out-of-network health care provider. The Indiana Department of Insurance offers these tips to help you better understand balance billing.

What is balance billing?

Balance billing arises when a health care provider who isn't in your plan's network charges more than your policy pays. The provider often bills you for the difference or balance. Balance billing can occur when a consumer actively chooses to see a provider outside of their plan's network, such as a specialist physician.

It can also happen when a consumer has little or no choice in which provider renders services – also known as a "surprise bill." For instance, a patient might not get to select an in-network ambulance provider or pathologist to study lab samples. While you can't always avoid balance billing, understanding your health plan can reduce your chances of receiving a surprise bill.

"Licensed agents, brokers, and companies are available to help you understand your plan, and which providers are in-network and out-of-network," said Indiana Department of Insurance Commissioner Stephen W. Robertson. "In Indiana, you should check the IDOL's website to make sure the agent is licensed in our state."

In-network vs. Out-of-network

Balance billing is a risk when you get services from an out-of-network provider, so it helps to understand the difference between in-network and out-of-network providers.

- In-network: In-network health care providers have negotiated a specific discounted rate with insurance companies. That way, insurers know how much care should cost. You can usually find who's in your plan's network on your insurer's website. The cost of services rendered by in-network providers can be predictable.

- Out-of-network: Out-of-network providers do not have an agreement with your health plan on the cost of their services. Payment for services from out-of-network providers could be covered, not covered at all, or partially-covered – exposing you to balance billing.

Understand your coverage

Your plan's coverage for out-of-network services usually depends on its network type, so it's essential to understand your coverage. Common network types include:

- Exclusive Provider Organization (EPO): A managed care plan where services are covered only if you use doctors, specialists, or hospitals in the plan's network (except in an emergency).

- Health Maintenance Organization (HMO): A type of health insurance plan that usually limits coverage to care from doctors who work for or contract with the HMO. It generally won't cover out-of-network care except in an emergency. An HMO may require you to live or work in its service area to be eligible for coverage. HMOs often provide integrated care and focus on prevention and wellness.

- Point of Service (POS): A type of plan where you pay less if you use doctors, hospitals, and other health care providers that belong to the plan's network. POS plans require you to get a referral from your primary care doctor to see a specialist

- Preferred Provider Organization (PPO): A type of health plan where you pay less if you use providers in the plan's network. You can use doctors, hospitals, and providers outside of the network without a referral for an additional cost.

What you should remember

Understand your health care coverage. PPO, HMO, POS, and EPO all have different in-network health care providers. Choose which coverage meets your medical needs and budget.

Know which health care providers are in-network and out-of-network. Planning ahead, when time permits, and staying within a plan's network can often save you from balance billing.

Indiana’s absentee ballot signature match law ruled unconstitutional

By MARILYN ODENDAHL
TheIndianaLawyer.com

Finding Indiana’s process for matching signatures on absentee ballots is unconstitutional, a federal judge has permanently enjoined the Secretary of State and other election officials from rejecting any mail-in ballot on the basis of a signature mismatch without providing adequate notice to the voter. A separate ruling halted the state’s purge of voter rolls.

In an order granting summary judgment to the plaintiffs in the absentee ballot case, Senior Judge Sarah Evans Barker of the Southern Indiana District Court on Thursday held the procedure the Hoosier state uses to verify signatures on mail-in ballots violates the Due Process and Equal Protection Clauses of the 14th Amendment.

Under Indiana law, an absentee ballot will be rejected if a county election board determines the voter’s signature is not genuine. The board is required to issue a certificate allowing the voter to vote in-person but only if the voter appears in person before the board not later than 5 p.m. on Election Day.

Otherwise, voters are not notified their ballot has been rejected and there is no procedure by which a voter can contest the decision of the board.

“(T)he Secretary (of State) argues that the signature verification requirement is a reasonable, nondiscriminatory restriction intended to confirm the identity of mail-in absentee voters and clearly furthers the State’s interest in preventing election fraud, ensuring the orderly administration of elections, and maintaining accurate records,” Barker wrote in the order. “While these interests ... are clearly compelling and significant, they are not sufficient to justify the State’s failure to provide voters with notice and an ability to cure before rejecting their mail-in absentee ballots based on a perceived signature mismatch.

“In fact, without such procedural safeguards, the signature verification requirement actually threatens to undermine the State’s interests in correctly validating the identity of voters casting mail-in absentee ballots,” Barker concluded.

Common Cause Indiana, which challenged the signature-match law, hailed the ruling.

“This is a historic win for Indiana voters,” policy director Julia Vaughn said in a statement. “This victory helps ensure no Hoosier voting by mail will be disenfranchised by Indiana’s flawed signature matching law. Election laws should protect people’s right to vote and the integrity of our election system. Indiana’s signature matching law failed to do either, and wrongly disenfranchised Hoosiers. The court made the right decision to block its enforcement.”

The case is Mary J. Frederick et al. v. Connie Lawson, 1:19-cv-01959.

The case is one of a litany of pending lawsuits seeking to expand absentee and mail-in voting filed since the onset of the pandemic.

In a separate ruling, the Southern Indiana District Court blocked Indiana from purging voter rolls. The court permanently enjoined the state from implementing Senate Enrolled Act 334 and from removing voters without written confirmation from the voters or without following the procedures mandated in the National Voting Rights Act.

SEA 334, passed by the Indiana General Assembly in 2020, allowed the state to cancel a voter’s registration without direct contact from the voter or without adhering to the NVRA’s notice-and-wait protection. The law withdrew the Hoosier state from participation in the controversial Crosscheck program and established the Indiana Data Enhancement Association.

Judge Tanya Walton Pratt granted the plaintiffs’ motion for summary judgment in Indiana State Conference of the NAACP, et al. v. Connie Lawson, et al., 1:17-cv-02897.

Indiana Secretary of State Connie Lawson’s office did not respond to a request for comment.

In the Frederick case, the court found the lack of

AG Hill: Indiana’s election laws “protect voters and ensure the integrity of the political process”

The REPORTER

Indiana Attorney General Curtis Hill on Friday applauded a federal court’s ruling that plaintiffs challenging Indiana’s absentee voting laws have failed to show that Indiana’s system is unconstitutional.

“Free and fair elections are the lifeblood of a representative democracy,” Hill said. “Today’s decision helps affirm that Indiana’s election laws are set up to protect voters and ensure the integrity of our political process.”

The plaintiffs in the case, Tully v. Okeson, asked the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Indiana to enter a preliminary injunction that would require Indiana to allow all voters in the state to cast ballots by mail in the Nov. 3 election. Indiana law grants vote-by-mail privileges to any voter who falls into one of 13 categories, “many of which are sweepingly broad,” Judge James Patrick Hanlon wrote in his ruling.

The plaintiffs argued that Indiana’s absentee voting law unconstitutionally burdens their right to vote.

“Some states have chosen ‘no-excuse’ voting by mail for all. Indiana has decided otherwise,” Hanlon wrote. “The question here, however, is not whether the policy is wise, but whether it is unconstitutional.”

Hanlon wrote that the plaintiffs did not show a reasonable likelihood of success in making a case that Indiana’s rule is unconstitutional.

Hill

notification of a ballot rejection or the opportunity for the voter to challenge the rejection is a violation of the Due Process Clause. Also, the court agreed the signature verification requirement for mail-in absentee ballots imposed a burden on the fundamental right to vote in violation of the Equal Protection Clause.

As part of their argument, the plaintiffs brought in Linton Mohammed, Ph.D., a certified forensic document examiner whose research focuses on handwriting and signature identification. He asserted that Indiana’s process of having election officials – without training, examination equipment or functional standards for signature comparison – compare voter signatures to determine which absentee ballots to count has resulted and will result in valid ballots being rejected.

Lawson sought to exclude Mohammed’s testimony, arguing the plaintiffs did not demonstrate the reliability of handwriting analysis.

The court admitted the testimony, explaining it was relying on his conclusions that signatures vary and tools are needed to aid in the assessment of the signatures. In a footnote, the court pointed to the irony in the Secretary of State’s arguing the unreliability of handwriting analysis.

“(This) is precisely the judgment required of untrained poll workers by existing law,” Barker wrote. “The Secretary’s own position in this regard highlights the importance of and need for providing due process protections before disenfranchising voters based on a signature comparison.”

James Russell Fairchild
February 19, 1950 – August 19, 2020

James Russell Fairchild, 70, Commiskey, Ind., formerly of Sheridan, passed away on Wednesday afternoon, August 19, 2020, at Ridgewood Health Campus of Lawrenceburg. Born in Lebanon on February 19, 1950, he was the son of the late Russell Boyd "Rut" and Annabelle (Wills) Fairchild.

Following his graduation from Sheridan High School with the Class of 1968, James attended Purdue University, earning Bachelor's degrees in both Industrial Supervision and Industrial Engineering Technology. James eventually hired on with Hill-Rom in Batesville, Ind. His meticulous nature made him a perfect fit for the company as a project design and engineering supervisor. James retired from Hill-Rom after 20 years of dedicated service.

As with most engineers, regardless of their specialty, they all have a common bond – they are tinkerers, and James was no exception. Able to fix just about anything, he enjoyed fiddling around with electronics, computers and CB radios, and was a certified ham radio operator. James was also a Radio Flyer Train enthusiast, and liked model RC road racing. It wasn't just small engines that piqued his interest; he had a deep appreciation for his dirt bikes, Corvettes, and Harley Davidson motorcycles.

James also had many other interests. He loved being around his family and friends, and never turned down an opportunity to go on a road trip. Whether it was a full-blown family vacation, or riding around with Deputy Ben Craig during his shift, James enjoyed every moment. Traveling gave him the chance to explore Route 66, the Appalachian Trail, and visit the numerous gravesites of the Fairchild ancestors, many dating back to the 1600s. James also enjoyed weight lifting and was very active in shooting sports.

His church family was also a very important part of his life. James was raised in the Terhune Church, and would later join Sheridan Wesleyan Church and the First Baptist Church in Greensburg, where he served as a Deacon, as well as a sound technician for worship services. He was also a participant in the Walk to Emmaus.

James was a member of the Sheridan Masonic Lodge F&AM #309.

James is survived by the love of his life, Peggy Louise (Fox) Fairchild. She and James were married on August 29, 1970. Also surviving are his daughters, Jennifer Louise Martin (Pat), Levant, Kan., and Cheryl Lynn King (Colby), Commiskey, Ind.; granddaughter, Jayden Elizabeth King; two sisters, Linda McClay (Robert), Sheridan, and Mary Lou West (Alden), Hendersonville, N.C.; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Graveside services will be held at 2 p.m. on Monday, August 24, 2020 at Crown View Cemetery in Sheridan.

The family requests that visitors do their best to follow local and state recommendations, including wearing masks and practicing social distancing.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be presented to Our Hospice of South Central Indiana, Inc. - Jennings County, 245 Norris Ave., North Vernon, IN 47265.

Friday night football - Week 1

Sheridan holds off Western Boone;
first win over Stars since 2010

For the first time in a decade, the Sheridan football team is starting its season 1-0.

The Blackhawks had been frustrated by their longtime opening-week opponent, Western Boone. The Class 2A No. 1 Stars had beaten Sheridan nine times in a row, but the 10th would be the charm: The ‘Hawks denied WeBo a two-point conversion try with under a minute remaining, and Sheridan held on for a 21-20 victory Friday at Bud Wright Stadium.

It was the first win for the Blackhawks over the Stars since 2010, and it came in front of a capacity crowd. The victory came in sight for Sheridan in the fourth quarter, when they scored with 7:04 remaining to take a 21-14 lead.

In the Blackhawks’ only pass attempt of the game, Cale Cummings caught a 34-yard pass from Silas DeVaney to put his team on top. Cameron Hovey then made a two-point conversion run to give Sheridan a seven-point lead.

Western Boone scored with 31 seconds to go, cutting that lead to 21-20. The Stars went for two, running up the middle, but a group of Sheridan defenders were there to stop the run.

The Blackhawks’ defense made a statement at the beginning of the game when Gabe Holler made a fierce tackle that resulted in Western Boone gaining no yards. Then, Sheridan scored the first points of the game, with Hovey making a two-yard touchdown run in the middle part of the first quarter. Hovey followed that up with an extra-point kick.

WeBo tied the game at 7-7 in the second quarter, and that would stand as the halftime score. Hovey made a four-yard touchdown run just before the midpoint of the third period, and the ‘Hawks led 13-7 after three.

Hovey rushed for 111 yards in the game, with DeVaney gaining 63 yards on the ground. Peyton Cross helped out the Blackhawks with 62 rushing yards.

After the game, Sheridan coach Bud Wright told his team to stay focused after beating the two-time defending 2A state champions. The ‘Hawks have another big game coming up: They travel to old rival Clinton Central next Friday in what is also their first Hoosier Heartland Conference game of the season.

Last-minute defensive stand secures victory for Guerin Catholic Guerin Catholic does not have the biggest football team in the state this season. But in their season-opener Friday against McCutcheon, the Golden Eagles played bigger than they looked, especially on defense. That led Guerin to a 14-7 victory over the Mavericks at the Eagles Nest, a game that wasn't decided until the final minute.

McCutcheon had the ball near the GC 10-yard line with 59 seconds left, but the Golden Eagles induced four consecutive incomplete passes from the Mavs. That gave Class 3A No. 9 Guerin Catholic its second straight Week 1 victory, and its fifth in the last six years.

"We're small, we're feisty," said GC coach Tom Dilley.

The Golden Eagles scored one touchdown in each of the first two quarters. Max McGreal hauled in a 23-yard pass from Sam Miller in the first period, then Jagger Albert took off for a 51-yard rush into the end zone in the second quarter. Addison Lushin kicked both extra points.

Dilley was also pleased with how the younger players performed, as Guerin has several new players on the field this year.

"There were a lot of guys in brand-new spots," said Dilley. "All of them, one way or another, did what they had to do. They didn't do it well every time, they didn't do it perfectly by any means, but they played hard and they battled and they tried to do their part and play for their brothers. So from that standpoint, I'm proud of them."

The Golden Eagles play next week at Decatur Central, the No. 5 team in 5A.

Quick first-quarter start sends Mount Vernon past Noblesville

Mount Vernon got off to a quick start at Noblesville Friday as both teams played their season opener at the Millers’ Beaver Materials Field.

The Class 4A No. 5 Marauders scored two touchdowns in an eight-second span to lead 14-0 with 9:20 remaining, and that was the boost that would send Mount Vernon to a 40-17 win over Noblesville. Despite the loss, first-year Millers coach Dave Sharpe said he was “very optimistic” after the game.

“We had all sorts of underclassmen get a lot of valuable time against a really high-quality opponent,” said Sharpe, who noted that the Marauders were clicking on all cylinders: Offensively, defensively and special teams.

The Millers kept things interesting in the first quarter, with Chance Yeager taking the ball in from the three-yard line for Noblesville’s first touchdown of the season. Grayson Addison converted the extra-point attempt, and the score was now 14-7.

But Mount Vernon pulled away in the game’s middle periods, scoring 14 points each in both the second and third quarters to take a 42-7 lead.

“Their execution was very good and our little mistakes were magnified,” said Sharpe. “I’m watching the film right now, and we’re going to find some good things. Our mistakes cost us a lot of field position and points. But our main focus is getting better and fixing those little mistakes, because little mistakes can have drastic consequences. I’m very proud of how hard we played, but obviously there’s a lot of room for improvement.”

Noblesville added 10 more points in the fourth period. Addison made a 36-yard field goal midway through the quarter, then with four seconds left in the game, Andrew Petrulis punched the ball in from the one-yard line, with Addison again making the extra-point kick.

Holden Montarsi was the Millers’ leading rusher, gaining 58 yards in 13 carries. Quarterback Connor Meinerding made 3 of 8 passes for 29 yards, with Chance Yeager catching two passes. Blaine McNabb had a solid defensive night with 7.5 tackles (seven solo and one assist). McNabb and Jacob Hofmann both made one sack and a tackle for a loss, with Mason Bohland and Isaiah Twiehaus also getting one tackle for a loss.

Noblesville plays at Terre Haute South next Friday, and Sharpe is wanting his team to look forward.

“We’ve got some encouraging bright spots,” said Sharpe. “I can’t wait for tomorrow to work with the boys and then have a JV game, and then can’t wait for Monday. We told them it’s ancient history and we can only live for the present and the future. Can’t look back at the past.”

Osborne helps Carmel cruise past Plainfield

Carmel, the defending Class 6A state champion, got its 2020 season off to a solid start with a 31-6 victory at Plainfield on Friday night.

Zach Osborne led the way for the 6A No. 2 Greyhounds, as he had a hand – but mostly a foot – in all four of Carmel’s touchdowns. Osborne started with an eight-yard touchdown run late in the first quarter to get the ‘Hounds ahead 7-0.

In the second quarter, Osborne found Colton Parker for a 14-yard pass play score at the midway point of the period. Later, Osborne made another short jog into the end zone, scoring from three yards out.

Finally, Osborne notched his third touchdown run with 8:29 left, taking the ball in from the six-yard line. Spencer Hanna completed the Carmel scoring with a fourth-quarter field goal; he also made all four extra-point kicks.

The Greyhounds had an efficient rushing night, needing 29 carries to gain 208 yards. Osborne led the running game with 58 yards, with Zach White adding 53 yards in nine carries.

Osborne completed 12 of 21 passes for 109 yards. Parker caught seven of those receptions for 63 yards, including the touchdown pass.

The ‘Hounds return home next Friday for a big game: Class 5A No. 3 Cathedral will come to Carmel Stadium for a 7 p.m. kickoff.

Solid defense gets Royals a win at LC

Hamilton Southeastern had a great first game on both sides of the ball, and that led the Royals to a 24-0 victory at Lawrence Central on Friday.

It was the first time Southeastern had shut out a team since 2017. First-year coach Michael Kelly praised his defensive linemen and his defensive backs, with the linemen doing “a tremendous job” with the defensive pressure and the backs getting into the zones. Giovanni Ragland had five tackles, while Jake Karwowski and Loudon Sundling both made four stops.

“I thought overall our defense played outstanding,” said Kelly.

The offense did pretty well, too. The Royals scored their first two touchdowns with one-yard punches into the end zone.

Jace Alexander got the ball in during the first quarter, then Blaine Wertz made his score in the second quarter.

Southeastern got one more touchdown in the third period, when John McCall found Will Gerig for a six-yard scoring pass. Alex Geroulis kicked the extra point on all three TDs, then added a 23-yard field goal in the third period as well.

“Our offensive line did a nice job,” said Kelly. He also was pleased with the running and passing during the game.

“Jace and Blaine both did a great job,” said Kelly. “John did a nice job delivering the football when his number was called.”

Southeastern will play its first home game of the season next Friday, welcoming North Central for a 7 p.m. kickoff.

Cathedral overwhelms Shamrocks

Westfield got a tough season-opening assignment on Friday, as Cathedral came to Riverview Health Stadium.

The Class 5A No. 3 Irish jumped out to an early lead and carried that momentum to a 56-20 victory. Cathedral led 15-0 after the first quarter, but the Shamrocks got on the board early in the second when Maximus Webster threw a 20-yard touchdown pass to Reid Schepers.

The Irish took over after that, scoring three straight touchdowns to take a 36-7 lead into halftime. The third quarter followed roughly the same pattern: Webster sent a 27-yard touchdown pass to Mason Piening early in the period, but Cathedral responded with two more scores of its own. Sean Sullivan made extra-point kicks after both of Westfield's touchdown scores.

Westfield got one more touchdown, when Nick Talley threw a 15-yard scoring pass to Ian Bruch late in the fourth.

Talley and Webster both had fine passing games, with Talley completing 9 of 14 attempts for 115 yards, and Webster making 7 of 14 for 99 yards. Piening led the receptions list with five. Micah Hauser gained the most rushing yards with 42.

The Shamrocks will play again at Riverview Health Stadium next week, the first of a three-game homestand to start the season. Westfield welcomes Harrison next Friday for a 7 p.m. kickoff.

Tigers fall to ninth-ranked North Central Fishers dropped its season-opening football game on Friday, falling to North Central 40-20.

The Class 6A No. 9 Panthers jumped out to a 14-0 lead by the end of the first quarter. The Tigers got on the board early in the second when Landon Morris caught a three-yard pass from Lucas Prewitt. But North Central scored again later, giving it a 20-6 halftime advantage.

Fishers began the second half with a bang, as Dominic Oliverio took a kickoff return 90 yards into the end zone. The Panthers answered by scoring after a seven-play, 80-yard drive. But the Tigers kept things interesting: Carson Dunn caught a long screen pass to get Fishers to the North Central four-yard line, then a couple plays later, Prewitt scrambled in to the end zone from six yards.

Wayne Christian made both extra-point kicks for Fishers after its two third-quarter touchdowns. The Panthers got one more score in the third quarter, then added another touchdown in the fourth while holding Fishers scoreless in that period.

Prewitt finished the game with 141 yards on 11-of-24 passing. Morris caught four of those throws. Dunn led the rushing with 35 yards. On defense, Evan Miller led with eight tackles, while Tyler Green, Curtis Kearshner and Billy Reiter all had six stops. Kearshner made two sacks, while Joel Coston had one. Green and Kearshner both had two tackles for a loss.

The Tigers will play their home opener next Friday, welcoming Pike for a 7 p.m. kickoff.

Fast start sends Lapel past Huskies

After several days of schedule changes and wondering if it would even get to play, Hamilton Heights did indeed get to play a Week 1 football game.

The Huskies traveled to Lapel on Friday night to take on the Bulldogs, who won 42-19. Lapel scored the first three touchdowns of the game, starting with one in the first quarter to give it an 8-0 lead at the end of the period.

The Bulldogs added two more TDs, and two more successful two-point conversion attempts to go up 24-0 midway through the second period. Heights got on the board with 3:14 left in the half when Gavin Brammel caught a 24-yard touchdown pass from Guy Griffey. Michael Lecher made the extra-point kick.

Lapel added another touchdown with eight seconds to go in the half, giving it a 30-7 lead at the break. The Bulldogs scored twice in the third quarter, taking a 42-7 lead into the fourth period.

The Huskies kept battling, though. Cooper Vondersaar caught two long touchdown passes from Griffey, one for 55 yards and the other for 29 yards.

Griffey finished a solid passing night with 180 yards, completing 10 of 24 attempts. Brammel caught three of those passes. Troy Ehman led the rushing with 41 yards.

Heights will go back on the road next Friday, traveling to North Montgomery for a 7 p.m. kickoff.
