Council considers resolution to admonish Governor Holcomb

By JEFF JELLISON Reporter Publisher

On Tuesday, the Hamilton County Council had a lengthy discussion on the possibility of issuing a resolution admonishing Governor Eric Holcomb if he doesn't move into Stage 5 of Indiana's Back on Track plan.

The discussion started with Hamilton County Council President Rick McKinney stating council members have received emails from constituents asking whether or not the council would support a resolution to admonish, advise or request Governor Holcomb to move the state into Stage financial arm tasked with such 5 of Back on Track.

During the discussion, council members referred to a recent resolution issued by Wabash County that stated, "Wabash County's economy is highly dependent upon retail, restaurant, tourism, the Governor on a public health and industry, and such economic restrictions have had a significant negative impact on the citizens and businesses of the area."

The council is the county's things as adopting and managing a county budget, establishing a tax rate, and making appropriations, re-appropriations and transfers of funds.

matter is not a task typically performed by a county council.

Overall, council members expressed their frustration with the lack of a matrix to move the state forward.

"I think the one thing that I struggle with, there haven't been matrix put in place that dictate how we move from stage to stage," said council member Ken

Massillamanv

Schwartz

Advising or admonishing Alexander. "Just having some of those identified, whether they are going to do it or we are going to do it, I think is the key thing so that we can let our businesses and people in our public understand how we are going to allow things to move forward."

"If you go on social media and you look at the people who are loudest, I think the governor, or certain people, might be under the impression that there is wide support for restrictions, and I just don't think that is the case," said council member Fred Glvnn.

Amy Massillamany, District 2 County Council Member, asked, "Has there been any dialogue around the health department perspective on what their thoughts were?" Massillamany continued, "Wabash is the only one I know of that has signed a resolution. They are drastically different in size and comparison. I'm just curious on the thought process."

Wabash County does differ greatly compared to Hamilton County, in population and number of COVID-19 cases.

According to the Indiana State Department of Health, as of Wednesday, Wabash County had a seven-day positivity rate of 3.47

Carmel Clay Parks & Recreation acquires land for new park on city's northwest side

The REPORTER

Carmel and Clay Township residents will have a new park to explore in northwest Carmel. On Sept. 3, Carmel Clay Parks & Recreation officially acquired and closed on 26.91 acres of land near 146th Street and Shelborne Road.

"This land acquisition is very exciting for Carmel Clay Parks & Recreation and our community," said CCPR Director Michael Klitzing. pool parties and family gatherings. It's tempting to want to gather as we have in the past to celebrate the unofficial end of summer. It can be easy to let our guard down and inadvertently spread the virus when simply wanting to have a good time.

With the Labor Day holiday upon us, followed by the start of cold and flu season, we could be facing a crucial moment in the pandemic. At present, we have about 90 percent of HHSC students attending and participating in on-site instruction and just two active cases of COVID-19 in our district (one student and one adult). The handful who were impacted at the start of the school year have since returned to school and are doing well.

No one's efforts to mitigate the risk of spreading COVID-19 can be complete unless the same efforts are taken at home and on weekends. Let's continue to remain diligent so we do not dismantle the progress we are making in curbing the spread in our community. This will continue to help us keep our buildings open and our students in school.

In addition to all things COVID-19 prevention, education and mitigation, our buildings are filled with a flurry of activity that we have come to associate with the first month of school. The callouts for school clubs, scheduling of school pictures, and settling into our daily school schedule cause me to see a newfound sense of the value and importance of our learning environment that we may have taken for granted in the past.

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault - it wasn't something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don't often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we're breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County. - Mike Bragg, GM of Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville

Team Sandwich

When you're a member of the sandwich generation, it's a blessing to be part of a team taking care of an elderly relative vs. being alone. Not everyone has a team so I consider myself to be lucky.

When I started this column almost two years ago, I shared various members of Mom's care team with you all. This included the hardworking people at her facility as well as my brother, sister-in-law, sister, my husband and me. Today I'd like to give a special "shout out" to my brother Mark, who just visited Mom this week when he was in town.

For a team to work well, each of its members should use their strengths. With his wife Janie's assistance, Mark has handled Mom's finances and insurance for almost four years now since she moved into an assisted living facility not far from my house.

Mark's always had a good head on his shoulders in regards to money. He has been using it well to ensure Mom can stay in her wonderful apartment for the rest of her life. He updates my sister and me once a year to keep us in the loop on Mom's finances. He's also been in the insurance business for decades so he understands all of that stuff about Medicare, supplement plans, etc.

Thank you, Lord.

I already take care of my business and family's finances, which is almost more than I can handle. I cannot imagine dealing with Mom's investments and bills on top of everything. It's definitely not one of my strengths.

And insurance is at the top of my list of things in life that drive me Absolutely. Insane. I don't understand it and I certainly couldn't fathom navigating Medicare. By the way, when you Google "Medicare," the word "nightmare" often follows closely. Coincidence? I don't think so.

I recently read a wonderful book that talked about dividing and conquering tasks between siblings when it comes to caring for an elderly parent. It made me appreciate my brother and his wife Janie more than ever.

People may see me visiting my mom and taking care of various things for her like groceries, doctor appointments, over the counter medications, etc. But they don't realize all of the "behind the scenes" work that Mark and Janie do week in and week out. For example, Janie recently caught an error on one of Mom's bills. I was thankful for her attention to detail.

So, Mark, Janie – I just want to say I appreciate you and I'm glad you're on Team Sandwich with me. It's wonderful to know that all of us working together help to make this stage of Mom's life as good as possible.

Deer reduction zone season begins Sept. 15

The REPORTER

Deer reduction zones give hunters opportunities to harvest deer in defined urban areas and along portions of Indiana highways, in addition to harvests allowed by statewide bag limits elsewhere in Indiana. One new zone was added this year in Griffy Lake Nature Preserve. Click here to view an interactive map.

There is a statewide bag limit of 10 for deer harvested in reduction zones during the reduction zone season. A doe must be harvested first in a zone and be checked toward the bag limit for the deer reduction zone season before harvesting a buck to count toward the deer reduction zone bag limit.

The deer license bundle cannot be used to harvest a deer toward the deer reduction bag limit. Archery equipment and crossbows can be used in deer reduction zones starting Sept. 15.

More information

• The reduction zone season is Sept. 15, 2020 through Jan. 31, 2021.

• Bag limit: 10 deer, of which only one can be antlered. Individuals hunting in a designated reduction zone who are attempting to satisfy the reduction zone bag limit must harvest an antlerless deer in the Deer Reduction Zone before harvesting an antlered deer (a.k.a. earna-buck). The earn-a-buck requirement only applies to the reduction zone bag limit. The reduction zone bag limit is in addition to all other bag limits. See the hunting guide for deer bag limits.

• A Deer Reduction Zone license, resident youth hunt/trap, lifetime comprehensive hunting, or lifetime comprehensive hunting/ fishing license is required unless you meet a license exemption under state law.

• The Deer Reduction Zone license allows the individual to harvest one deer per license. A valid license is required for each deer taken. Purchase a license.

• Where allowed by local ordinances, firearms legal for deer hunting can be used in reduction zones with a Deer Reduction Zone license or to count the deer towards the reduction zone bag limit from Nov. 14, 2020 through Jan. 31, 2021. The season does not override any local ordinances restricting discharge of firearms and bows.

• The season does not override any local ordinances restricting discharge of firearms and bows.

• It's illegal to hunt, shoot at, or kill a deer or to shoot at any deer from within, into, upon, or across any public road.

• Hunters must obtain permission from landowners to hunt on their property. (For a private land permission form, see Permission to Hunt on Private Lands.)

• Deer Reduction Zones may be altered annually at the DNR director's discretion based on deer population management needs.

Royals roll, Tigers win on Senior Night

By RICHIE HALL

With senior leadership, a big-hitting freshman and tons of talent, the Royals are rolling this volleyball season.

Hamilton Southeastern improved its record to 8-0 Thursday night with a Hoosier Crossroads Conference win over Avon. The Royals swept the Orioles 25-14, 25-13, 25-19 to run their HCC record to 2-0, taking an early lead in the conference standings.

Southeastern, which is ranked No. 1 in MaxPreps' Class 4A volleyball ratings, enjoyed a 20-8 lead in the first set before closing it out 25-14. Senior Delaney Garner hit a kill to bring up set point, and junior Emily Weber finished the job by making a kill that gave HSE the set.

The Royals cruised through the second set, winning nine of 10 points early in the set to lead 13-4. Junior Lovie Wallace, senior Olivia Phillips and sophomore Avery Hobson each hit a kill during the run, with freshman Lauren Harden and senior Carly Mills both serving an ace; Mills' ace was a well-placed hit that landed just inside the far service line. The Royals won the set on another kill by Hobson.

"We run a pretty fast offense," said Southeastern coach Jason Young. "A lot of timing goes into that. A lot of reps. The kids today looked pretty sharp. When we're in system, we're looking pretty good at this point."

Avon gave the Royals a tough battle in the third set. At three different times, the Orioles won four points in a row. But in each case, Southeastern was able to on a run of their own to get itself out of trouble.

After two straight Avon blocks tied the score at 7-7, the Royals roared back to win 10 of 12 points to take a 17-9 lead. evident in the first set. The Tigers, ranked Wallace began the run with a kill, Mills served another ace, Garner sacked a kill and junior Meghan Slaninka served an ace as well.

The Orioles' final run of the match got them within 20-17, but Southeastern let them get no closer. Hobson ended the match with a kill Harden had 10 kills for the match.

"It's a difference-maker," said Young. "Obviously, she's a special player. She's able to get points when we need them. Every day that she's been in our gym, she's gotten better. It's been nice to see a progression. Tonight, I thought she was really, really good."

Garner added nine kills and made two blocks, while Hobson hit eight kills. Weber handed out 24 assists and Slaninka served three aces, Junior Emi Robinson collected 11 digs, while Mills had 16 digs.

"We're blessed to have, in my opinion, one of the top defenders in the state," Young said of Mills. "She's going to Indiana University for a reason. She's led from day one. She's determined. Obviously, last year we came up a little bit short, so again, it's a focus on getting better every single day. And she's been one of the catalysts of the seniors to really take us up that mountain."

The Royals will now prepare for next week, which begins with two big matches. Southeastern plays at Yorktown on Tuesday, then travels to Fishers on Thursday for the Mudsock match.

In an earlier match, the Royals beat Harrison 25-12, 25-12, 25-16 on Tuesday. Harden had 11 kills, Garner hit nine kills, while Brooke Elliott had five kills. Weber dished out 16 assists to go with four kills, while Phillips handed out 11 assists. Robinson and Taylor Lauri both collected 10 digs.

Fishers picked up a Senior Night win Thursday, overcoming a determined Perry Meridian team in four sets. The scores were 20-25, 25-10, 25-10, 25-23.

The emotions of Senior Night were No. 10 in the MaxPreps Class 4A ratings, had also not played a match since Aug. 24. But they were able to get the win and keep their record unbeaten for the year at 5-0.

Mercury outlast Fever

Phoenix avoided a season sweep against the Indiana Fever on Thursday night as the Mercury won 105-81. Fever forward Candice Dupree moved up the WNBA record books in career games played on Thursday by appearing in her 464th career game. Dupree moved ahead of Tangela Smith for sole possession of seventh all-time in WNBA history. She pitched in 14 points, five assists and four rebounds.

Led by 16 points from Kelsey Mitchell, five Fever players ended the night in double figures. Thursday was the 10th game this season Mitchell led the Fever in scoring.

Rookie guard Kamiah Smalls tied a WNBA rookie record for the most three-point shots made without a miss to start a career with Lindsey Yamasaki, which was set in 2002. Smalls went 1-for-2 from 3-point range to end her perfect shooting clip at 5-for-5 to start her career.

Rookie of the year hopeful, Julie Allemand, added 10 points, five rebounds and three assists against one of the best backcourt tandems in the WNBA. The fifth leading 3-point shooter in the WNBA went 2-for-4 from beyond the arc on Thursday. Allemand is now 32-for-70 from 3-point range this season.

Tiffany Mitchell and Teaira McCowan came off the bench to add 14 and 12 points each, and combined for 13 rebounds.

Skylar Diggins-Smith led all scorers with 28 points and eight assists for Phoenix. Diana Taurasi poured
