Koteewi Lake opens to public

The REPORTER

Grab your pole, bait and fishing license (or your oars or just a pair of binoculars) and head to the newest recreational aquatic amenity to open in Hamilton County – Koteewi Lake. The lake is located in the county’s largest park, Strawtown Koteewi Park, operated by Hamilton County Parks and Recreation.

Before the lake’s official opening to the community, county officials, park board members and staff, DNR representatives and individuals that played critical roles in its construction, gathered with invited guests for a “cast call” at the lake’s boat ramp.

In lieu of a traditional ribbon-cutting ceremony, recognized guests, collectively cast their lines into the placid waters of the 19-acre recreational lake, following remarks provided by Hamilton County Parks Director Chris Stice. Earlier in the program, Stice presented handcrafted and mounted commemorative oars, etched with the ceremonial details to all those present who had participated in the planning and creation of the lake.

Community members are now able to enjoy, at no charge, the lake, its boat ramp, adjacent dock, nearby shelter and scenic vistas. The park’s other public offerings include The Taylor Center of Natural History, Koteewi Trace and the Adventure Area, comprised of an archery range, horse rental stable, and ropes challenge/zip line experience. During the winter months, guests are invited to enjoy the park’s tubing hill that

Speak up: A dialogue around suicide

Suicide continues to be a growing issue among the youth of today’s generation. In the U.S., suicide is the second leading cause of death for the ages of 10 to 24, and suicidal thoughts can affect anyone regardless of their age, gender, or background.

KHAYLA WILLIAMS

Due to current circumstances of COVID-19 and job loss, many people experienced mental health problems for the first time, such as depression and anxiety, due to isolation and quarantine. September is suicide prevention month, and this week is suicide prevention week. This raises important questions of what further strides we can take to play a role in suicide prevention.

One stride we can take is increasing the dialogue surrounding suicide. Four out of five individuals who die by suicide showed some signs. Some warning signs include seeming indifferent or detached during situations in which they usually wouldn’t and decrease in personal hygiene. More importantly, “high functioning” people may not show any signs. Hence, they are less likely to reach out for help.

Friends and loved ones are the ones who have the most contact with the person who is struggling, and therefore should be observant of people for signs of struggle. Often, the person just needs someone to talk to and listen without judgment. Saying the wrong thing is a fear some people may have, but it is established that bringing up questions of whether or not someone is suicidal will not increase suicidal ideation. On the other hand, the person who is struggling

Fishers citizens encouraged to take part in ‘Interrupting Racism Now’ program

Submitted by the City of Fishers

Last week, Fishers Mayor Scott Fadness unveiled a call to action for Fishers residents to begin a series of efforts to dismantle racism in the Fishers community. As its first priority, the City has committed to sponsoring 500 residents to undergo Interrupting Racism Now training by the end of 2020. Click here to read the full announcement.

Register Today

Change the conversation around race by attending this free one- or two-day training brought to you by the City of Fishers. Learn more about these efforts at fishers.in.us/race.

What is Interrupting Racism Now training?

Interrupting Racism Now is a one- or two-day training by national equity firm, Soul Focused Group. Led by moderators Mahdi Davenport and Dustin Washington, the training addresses the realities of systemic racism in America, both historical and present-day.

What’s the difference between the one- and two-day sessions?

The one-day class is a modified version of the full two-day session. You’ll learn the basic foundations of Interrupting Racism, but may not experience the immersive portions of the training.

What can I expect from the training?

The training will begin by educating the group on the origins of race and racism and how those decisions impact the systems and biases in place today. Throughout the session, the moderators will weave historical references with modern-day examples and personal experiences to help participants identify the role racism plays in their everyday lives.

Why is this a priority for Fishers?

Understanding the historical context of racism and the systems that perpetuate the existence of racism, even if subconscious, is critical to having productive and effective relationships to mitigate racism’s impact on communities of color. In early 2019, Mayor Fadness identified equity and inclusion as a key area of focus for his administration. As community members began participating in discussion groups and planning sessions, it became clear that race relations and disparities are the highest priority for Fishers to address. Interrupting Racism creates the foundation necessary to take action in a systemic and impactful manner.

Bike Cool Creek Loop this month in Carmel

The REPORTER

Conquer the CAB (Carmel Access Bikeway), Bike Carmel’s “Slow Roll Ride” presented by IU Health North Hospital, looks a little different than in past years.

In 2020, riders were all set to Conquer the CAB routes in Carmel by riding them together. But, due to the COVID-19 pandemic, event organizers have changed the ride to make it a self-guided event that can be done with family members and friends while observing safe physical distancing.

There are five CAB routes of varying distances. So far, riders have completed the City Center Loop (6.8 miles) in May, the White River Loop (7.2 miles) in June, the West Loop (9.7 miles) in July, and the Village Loop (12.5 miles) in August. This month, the distance will be bumped a bit and riders will conquer the Cool Creek Loop at 13.9 miles.

Now through Sunday, Sept. 20, you can explore the Village Loop and take a photo at any of the various routing signs and post it to the Facebook event.

One rider selected from the pictures posted will be awarded a $50 gift card to a local Carmel business selected from those pictures posted. Click here to see links to each of the five CAB routes, along with printable maps and queue sheets.

The City of Carmel, Bike Carmel and IU Health North Hospital are looking forward to another exciting year of bicycling in the community. More information can be found on the Bike Carmel Facebook page or by emailing bikecarmel@carmel.in.gov. Remember to keep safe physical distancing in mind, wear a mask when appropriate and keep the rubber side down.

Doctors warning parents about access to medicine cabinet after ‘Benadryl Challenge’

By KATIE WISELY
WISH-TV | wishtv.com

A dangerous trend continues to make its way around social media. It’s called the “Benadryl Challenge” and doctors are warning parents about access to their medicine cabinet.

A Riley Hospital for Children at IU Health doctor says peer pressure has always been powerful, and it aligns with social media. Dr. Blake Froberg says the medicine itself is easy for teens to access because a lot of families already have it at home.

The challenge starts with taking a heavy amount of Benadryl. Then, teenagers start recording the effects on TikTok, a popular social media app. Side effects include confusion, not talking or walking, and hallucinations. In extreme situations, seizures and heart problems occur, which could ultimately cause death.

Dr. Froberg says parents need to check their child’s social media and have honest conversations about what could happen.

“Anytime we hear about something where there is a medication or substance involved that can cause really bad effects, we want to get that word out to the public so that they are aware of it,” Froberg said. “We also want to bring awareness of what to do if someone is worried that their child or loved one has taken too much medication.”

Riley Hospital hasn’t seen any cases but questions from parents have been a topic of conversation.

The challenge was blamed for the death of a 15-year-old girl in Oklahoma. In May, three teenagers in Fort Worth, Texas, were rushed to the hospital after consuming large amounts of Benadryl.

The Indiana Poison Center is ready to help and can advise over the phone on what the next step should be and whether or not to go to the hospital. The Center can be reached 24 hours a day at (800) 222-1222.

KOTEEWI LAKE

was constructed using dirt removed during the lake’s excavation – a service provided at no cost by family-owned Beaver Materials. Koteewi Lake’s waters are meant to be enjoyed not only by anglers, but by naturalists, wildlife enthusiasts, canoeists and kayakers (providing their own crafts). Any other watercraft must be powered by nothing more than an electric trolling motor. Due to the lake’s dramatic drop-offs, swimming will not be permitted. The parks department strongly urges catch and release fishing practices be followed. The DNR will work with the parks department in policing the lake.

Strawtown Koteewi Park is located at 12302 Strawtown Ave., Noblesville. The access road leading to Koteewi Lake is across Strawtown Avenue, and just west of the Taylor Center.

For more operational details pertaining to Koteewi Lake, visit Hamilton County Park’s Facebook page or myhamilton-countyparks.com or call (317) 770-4400.

SPEAK UP

may be scared to be honest out of fear the other person might overreact. Suicidality isn’t something people can snap out of, but showing little acts of care can help along the way.

Phrases may have positive intentions but sometimes do more harm than good: “You have so much to live for.”

This belittles people’s emotions and experiences. Their mental state can make it nearly impossible to be grateful for good things. Other times they know and already feel guilty.

“Suicide is a permanent solution to a temporary problem.”

This phrase can have mixed reactions depending whom it is being said to. Because many months may have passed leading up to this suicidality, the situation may not seem temporary to the person struggling.

David Foster Wallace makes an interesting comparison:

“...The person in whom its invisible agony reaches a certain unendurable level will kill herself the same way a trapped person will eventually jump from the window of a burning high-rise. Make no mistake about people who leap from burning windows. Their terror of falling from a great height is still just as great as it would be for you or me standing speculatively at the same window just checking out the view; i.e. the fear of falling remains a constant. The variable here is the other terror, the fire’s flames: when the flames get close enough, falling to death becomes the slightly less terrible of two terrors. It’s not desiring the fall; it’s terror of the flames.”

The most important phrase to explicitly say: “How can I help?”

So, how should this conversation proceed? Here is an outline:

1. Make sure you are emotionally secure enough to have this conversation.
2. Approach the situation with empathy. Listen to understand and not to reply. Let them know you care.
3. Ask directly if they are thinking about suicide.

4. Show your support using phrases to encourage them to be open and give more details if they’re comfortable.

5. Ask if they have a plan.
6. Help remove lethal means.
7. Stay with them and ask them what you can do to help: Talk, distract, or just be there?

8. Make plans for the future (i.e. hanging out on weekends).

9. Identify other supports such as parents, family, friends, teachers or colleagues.

10. Make plans to potentially seek treatment or contact their doctor/therapist.

11. Escort them to mental health services or an emergency room, if necessary.

Prevention of suicide isn’t just talking with someone who is suicidal; preventative measures can start early. One of the biggest early prevention methods is increasing early mental health education and simply being kind. If you say you will be there for someone, be there! Many people won’t reach out on their own due to their fear of being a burden.

Another major preventative is taking steps to decrease the stigma around mental illness and not being dismissive when someone opens up about their mental health struggles. Learn that it’s OK not to be OK, and furthermore, to prioritize your mental health over productivity.

Check on your friends CONSISTENTLY! It is not just on your friends to come to you when they are struggling. Ask how they are doing genuinely and be open to discussing difficult feelings. It is important to keep in mind that having suicidal thoughts doesn’t make you inferior. It’s time to start showing empathy for each other and make the world a happier place.

If you are feeling suicidal, or concerned about someone who is, in the U.S. call the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline 1-800-273-8255. If you are suicidal with a plan, immediately call 911 in the U.S. or go to your nearest emergency room.

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault – it wasn’t something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Noblesville Preservation Alliance creates new flea market fundraiser

Submitted

The Noblesville Preservation Alliance (NPA) regrettably announces the cancellation of the 2020 Historic Home Tour, traditionally held each year on the third Saturday in September.

Sadly, this is not a time to allow large groups (however adoring and appreciative) inside private homes. This decision was made with great reluctance as NPA knows that many look forward to this annual event, and NPA depends on revenue generated by the Tour. However, the health and safety of the community must take precedence this year.

Happily, NPA will hold a wonderful outdoor event on Saturday, Sept. 19. The brilliant idea to replace the Home Tour with a neighborhood Flea Market was a creative response to stark

NPA purchased Preservation Hall, 1274 Logan

St., last October to serve as agency headquarters and a community event venue. There is now a loan to repay and an exterior renovation to complete. Before the renovation can begin, NPA must raise $25,000 to match the City of Noblesville Façade Grant. This is a challenging for fundraising, but NPA believes the first annual (that's the plan!) NPA Flea Market will be perfect for the times.

NPA Flea Market will be held from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at select homes on Logan and Clinton streets and side sides in between. The Preservation Hall sale will include architectural salvage, other treasures and collectibles. Live music will be provided by John Gilmore, Mike Stewart and friends on the Preservation Hall porch.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them. Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears. And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified. I have coveted no man's silver; or gold, or apparel. Yea, ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me. I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all. And they all wept sore, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him, Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

Friday night football - Week 4

Royals run to Mudsock trophy

By RICHIE HALL
FISHERS - There is always something to be said for a big play in a big football game.

Hamilton Southeastern had plenty of big plays Friday at TCU Field, as the Royals hosted Fishers for the Mudsock game. They added up to a 21-9 victory for Southeastern, which claimed the Mudsock Trophy for the first time since 2018. In addition, the Royals are now 2-0 in Hoosier Crossroads Conference play.

“At the end of the day, it’s us taking that next step in our program, getting better, and setting that tone and our commitment level in terms of how we’re going to prepare and how we’re going to practice,” said HSE coach Michael Kelly.

“It’s awesome,” said Southeastern senior quarterback John McCall. He credited his team with overcoming a shaky start, then “just being able to focus and win this thing.”

McCall’s focus and resolve were the backbone of the Royals’ first touchdown, which came in the first quarter after a long drive that took over seven minutes. On two occasions during that drive, Southeastern faced fourth down. The first time was a fourth-and-1 situation, but McCall punched it two yards for the first down.

The second was a little more precarious: The Royals were a 4th-and-7 on the Fishers 26. But McCall broke out for a 12-yard run. A few plays later, Southeastern was facing 3rd-and-11 at the 15. No problem: McCall powered his way into the end zone.

“The first drive just set it off,” said McCall. “We just got to keep capitalizing when the defense gets stops or we have good field advantage. We can’t keep going third and out. We just got to keep it moving so the defense can get some rest.”

The Tigers got on the board early in the second quarter. Carson Dunn made a 51-yard run to get the ball to the HSE 10, then moved it down to the 1. Lucas Prewitt did the honors, getting the ball into the end zone. Christian Wayne made the extra-point kick.

Fishers’ defense stepped up next. After holding the Royals to a three-and-out, the Tigers blocked the punt and it led to a safety. Fishers now held a 9-7 lead and would keep it until the third quarter.

Southeastern got the lead back early in the third with a remarkable play from Blaine Wertz. With the Royals at the Tigers’ 29-yard line, Wertz got the ball and found himself surrounded by Fishers defenders. But he broke free and powered into the end zone. HSE now led 14-9.

The Royals got their final touchdown of the game late in the third quarter. After six straight running plays to get Southeastern from its own 13 to the Fishers 38, McCall teamed up with Martice Taylor for a pass play. Taylor took the ball and turned it into a 38-yard touchdown. Alex Geroulis made the extra-point kick, as he did for the Royals’ other two scores.

“It’s no secret we rely heavily on our run game to help us create some offensive opportunities in the passing game,” said Kelly. “I thought our guys competed and played hard. It says a lot about just where we’re at right now and the type of mentality we want to play with.”

Southeastern’s defense stepped up in the fourth quarter. Noah Wolf made an interception early in the period. Then with the Tigers rushing towards the end zone in what looked to be a certain score, the Royals’ Mikah Phillips punched the ball out. Southeastern’s Giovanni Ragland recovered the fumble, and the Royals were able to hold on from there.

“I think Coach (Steven) Stanley, our entire defensive staff has done a remarkable job,” said Kelly. “They put in a great defensive game plan. Week in and week out, I think our defense is setting the tone in playing fast, physical football and flying around and making plays.”

Nate Haas had a hand in 13 tackles for the Royals, six solo and seven assists. Ragland and Cole Earlewine both had six tackles, five solo and one assist. Wertz totaled 144 yards rushing, while McCall had 117 yards on the ground. McCall went 6-for-11, totaling 68 yards through the air. Taylor made four of those catches.

Dunn was the leading rusher for Fishers, with 114 yards. Quarterback Lucas Prewitt completed 8 of 12 passes for 96 yards, with Landon Morris making four receptions.

Seth Dunnuck made 16 total tackles (10 solo, six assists), while Billy Reiter had 13 stops (seven solo, six assists).

“I’m proud of our kids,” said Tigers coach Curt Funk. “We fought the whole time. It’s a good game, we lost to a good opponent in Hamilton Southeastern.”

The Royals are 3-1 overall and play at Westfield next Friday. Fishers fell to 1-1 in HCC play and 1-3 overall; the Tigers host Brownsburg next Friday.

Hamilton Southeastern quarterback John McCall rushed for a first-quarter touchdown and passed for another score in the third quarter.

'Rocks beat Millers for 3rd straight victory

Westfield ran its win streak to three games in a row on Friday, as the Shamrocks beat Noblesville in a county rivalry and Hoosier Crossroads Conference game at the Millers' Beaver Materials Field.

Westfield jumped out to a 14-0 lead after the first quarter, thanks to Maximus Webster. The junior scored on two short touchdown runs, the first one a nine-yarder less than two minutes into the game. Webster would later punch the ball in from the two-yard line for the second TD.

Grayden Addison got Noblesville on the board with a 41-yard field goal late in the second quarter. But with under a minute to go until halftime, Webster connected with Jackson Wasserstrom for a 13-yard passing touchdown. That gave the 'Rocks a 21-3 halftime advantage.

"We feel great to be 3-1," said Westfield coach Jake Gilbert. "I'm very proud of how our kids played tonight. Our defense was spectacular. It takes a lot of discipline to play against this offense and our guys got it done play after play. It was a very impressive performance."

The Shamrocks added to that lead midway through the third when Sean Sullivan nailed a 43-yard field goal. Sullivan had already kicked three extra points.

"That was a huge kick," said Gilbert.

The Millers scored a touchdown late in the fourth quarter on a 51-yard run from Holden Montarsi. Addison kicked the extra point.

"I thought our defense did a pretty good job of letting us hang around and give us a lot of chances to move the ball," said Noblesville coach Dave Sharpe. "But for us, the story of the game was, we had so many false start penalties. It kills some momentum when the 2nd-and-3 turns into a 2nd-and-8. For some reason we were a little quick twitchy on the left side of our line. It really killed a lot of our momentum in the first half."

Webster finished the game 10-of-19 for 132 yards. Micah Hauser led the rushing with 135 yards, and also caught three receptions. Reid Scheppers also made three catches. Dillon Thienemann had 12 tackles on defense (three solo, nine assists), with Hauser making 10 stops (two solo, eight assists). Popeye Williams had three tackles for a loss and two sacks.

"Offensively, we were sloppy with penalties and drops, but we executed well enough to win," said Gilbert. "Micah Hauser averaged 12 yards per carry so that had a lot to do with it."

Montarsi totaled 107 yards rushing for Noblesville. Skyler Tolliver had eight tackles for the Millers, six solo and two assists.

"We'll look at the film and find a way to get those two-yard gains into four-yard gains and to be that clock-consuming, ball-controlling offense with a good defense behind us," said Sharpe.

Westfield, now 2-0 in the HCC, returns home to Riverview Health Stadium next Friday to host Hamilton Southeastern. The Millers, 0-2 in the conference and 1-3 overall, plays at Zionsville next Friday.

Golden Eagles fall to Braves

Guerin Catholic finally returned to action Friday night after two weeks of not playing, hosting Brebeuf Jesuit at the Eagles Nest.

It was a battle between the two teams that are tied for No. 5 in the Class 3A coaches poll, and the Braves got the upper hand, beating the Golden Eagles 28-7. The game was also the first one for Guer-in Catholic in Circle City Conference play this season.

Brebeuf scored two touchdowns in the first quarter, both of which were pass plays from Drake Hagerman to Brendan Petrie. The first one was an 85-yard reception, the second was 25 yards, and it put the Braves up 12-0.

The Golden Eagles scored their touchdown in the second quarter. Jagger Albert made a five-yard rush into the end zone, then Addison Lushin followed it up with a successful extra-point kick.

That got Guerin within 12-7, but it would not score again. Hagerman and Petrie connected for a 20-yard passing touchdown late in the second, then Brebeuf added 10 more points in the third on a short run by Hagerman and a field goal.

Albert finished the game with 92 yards in 32 carries. Golden Eagles quarterback Sam Miller completed 7 of 17 passes for 93 yards, with Elijah Edwards making three of those receptions.

Guerin Catholic is 1-1 for the season and will go on the road next Friday to play Roncalli in another Circle City Conference game.

Huskies smash Northwestern

Hamilton Heights broke through for its first win of the season on Friday, and did so big time.

The Huskies traveled to Northwestern to begin Hoosier Conference East Division play, and came home with a 41-7 victory. Heights scored two touchdowns in each of the last three quarters, while holding the Tigers to one score in the third period.

“Once we got rolling, it was a good night for us,” said Huskies coach Jon Kirschner. “It was a very exciting night.”

Trey Ehman and Isaac Tuma provided many of the fireworks for Heights. Ehman rushed for 225 yards, including two touchdowns. First was a 15-yard run early in the second quarter that got the Huskies on the board.

Midway through the third period, Ehman streaked down the field 89 yards for his second touchdown of the night. Not only that, he then ran in a two-point conversion. It was his second two-point run of the game; the first came late in the second period and followed a six-yard touchdown pass from Guy Griffey to Gavin Brammel.

Tuma took over in the second half, catching three touchdown passes. He hauled in a 57-yard scoring reception with eight minutes left in the third quarter. Tuma took two more long passes (a 44-yarder from Griffey and a 51-yarder from Vincent Harley) into the end zone in the fourth quarter. Tuma finished with four catches totaling 172 yards.

Overall, the Huskies totaled 491 yards of offense. Kirschner said that anytime they needed something big, they got it.

“Defensive stop, or a big run or a big pass play, something like that,” said Kirschner. “It was a very balanced attack.” He commended the coaches and players for buying into the game plan and sticking with it.

Heights is 1-3 and returns home next Friday to host Western in another Hoosier Conference East Division game.

Carmel wins in double OT

Carmel needed to bounce back from consecutive losses, and the Greyhounds did that in dramatic fashion Friday night at Carmel Stadium.

The Class 6A No. 9 ‘Hounds fought off Pike in double overtime, 45-44. The score was tied at 31-31 at the end of regulation. The Red Devils went first, with Anthony Cialdella throwing a 10-yard touchdown pass to Xavier Simpson.

Carmel matched Pike on the next play, as Baron Smith ran the ball in from 10 yards to score. The ‘Hounds got the ball first in the double overtime, and Nick Beidl came through with a seven-yard passing touchdown from Zach Osborne. Cialdella and Simpson teamed up for another 10-yard touchdown pass for the Red Devils, but they went for two and could not convert that pass.

The Greyhounds led 31-10 at one point during the third quarter. Osborne connected on three passing touchdowns: One to Daniel Mullins in the second quarter, and two to Parker, a nine-yarder with under a minute left in the first half and a 30-yard throw late in the third.

Parker got Carmel on the board and erased an early 7-0 deficit with a nine-yard TD run late in the first. Hanna, who kicked all six extra points, also made a field goal midway through the third. Pike tied the game in the fourth quarter with two touchdowns.

Osborne rushed for 72 yards, while Jordan Jones gained 70 yards. Osborne finished the game 8-of-17 through the air for 117 yards, with Parker making four catches.

The Greyhounds are 1-1 in the MIC and 2-2 overall. Carmel goes on the road for its next two games, playing at Lawrence North next Friday.
