It was the day our nation came together, one nation, under God. I woke up with a sense of overwhelming sadness and disbelief? Did her husband goodbye as two planes, full of people, really crash into the Twin Towers in New York? I watched it, but ...

So surreal.

The date of 9/11/2001 would be forever in my mind and heart. I would always remember where I was when my world was changed.

I remember the newscasters reporting what happened. I remember the look of terror and disbelief on their faces. They were trying to hold it together. We all were.

Time seemed to stand still that day. Businesses ceased to operate. We simply huddled around our televisions, watching and waiting, for whatever would be next. We hugged a lot. We made phone calls to our loved ones. We wanted to hear their voices.

Did a plane actually crash into the Pentagon? Did passengers aboard a jetliner force hijackers to crash into a field in Pennsylvania?

It just all seemed unbelievable. I remember waiting for the next tragedy to come across the newsfeed. "Please Lord, make it stop."

Kids were dropped off at daycare. Sadly, they were never picked up by their mom or dad. How was anyone able to explain that to a child?

A wife kissed they left for work. There would be no welcome back home later that day. Only one side of a bed would be occupied.

Phone calls were made. Messages were left on voicemail. A final "I love you" was recorded.

There was a fog of overwhelming sadness over our nation. I remember sitting in my living room and sobbing.

I still wipe tears as I hear the final words of the passengers on those flights. If it's taught me anything it's that I will never take my tomorrows for granted. I cherish today. I don't leave feelings left unsaid.

I remember meeting in church, with friends, to pray for our nation. We prayed for safety. We sought God's direction and guidance as we moved forward to know what to do.

We all hurt. We all prayed.

"Please Lord, heal our land. Please Lord, bring us comfort in the midst of so much uncertainty. Please Lord, give our leaders wisdom and guidance."

To be honest, I miss the nation I saw on September 12, 2001.

Carmel International Arts Festival celebrating artists online this year

The REPORTER

The Carmel International Arts Festival (CIAF) has given an outlet for artists for more than 20 years.

The two-day event has taken place in the Carmel Arts & Design District every year since 2006, regularly bringing in about 30,000 attendees to listen to live music, grab a bite to eat and purchase artwork from around the globe.

But due to COVID-19, the 2020 edition of the popular festival won't be taking place in person.

While the in-person event will return Sept. 25-26, 2021, CIAF organizers have put together an online festival for 2020 to showcase artists. The online event continues through the month of September.

"I am so incredibly proud of the efforts being made by our team to promote all of the 2020 artists that should last weekend of this month," CIAF Executive Director Rachel Ferry said. "We have taken extra efforts to highlight all of the artists on our social media platforms as Normally, the in-person festival would feature 150 artists from all over the world in nine different one-of-a-kind mediums: 2D, 3D, Ceramics, Fiber, Glass, Jewelry, Painting, Photography, and Wood. Each artist has submitted his or her work and a jury has selected the artists who will present their works at the festival.

Historians theorize that the woodlands that year failed to produce enough nuts to supply adequate food for the hungry creatures. Although some farmers patrolled their fields with rifles, much of the crop was destroyed within hours.

1886 – Natural gas was discovered in a well near Eaton. From a depth of 992 feet, a huge flame shot into the night sky, visible in Muncie, 10 miles away. Further exploration found the largest known gas field in the world, encompassing 17 Indiana counties. The discovery ignited the historic Indiana "gas boom" which had a profound effect on the state's economy.

Sharon Kay Anderson December 8, 1944 - September 8, 2020

Sharon Kay Anderson, 75, passed away on Tuesday afternoon, September 8, 2020 at her home in Sheridan. Born December 8, 1944 in Noblesville, she was the daughter of the late Omer T. and Virginia H. (Holland) Whaley. She attended Sheridan High School and later hired on with Delco Electronics in Kokomo. She retired in 2001 after 27 years with the company. She was a proud member of U.A.W. Local 292.

Sharon was always the first one to the car when it was time for a road trip. Short day trips or traveling half way across the country, getting to watch the countryside go by was the second-best part of the adventure; the first was finding a new casino, or stopping by an old favorite. Las Vegas was the "promised land" in the West and Biloxi, Mississippi, her destination to the South, but when Indiana built one the next county over, it was like a dream come true. Sharon loved to play the slots and Anderson was as good a place as any to take a crack at the one-armed bandit.

Visiting casinos wasn't her only reason for hitting the open road; she also enjoyed chasing the sun. Cooler fall temperatures were Sharon's sign to start finding a warmer spot to be. Florida was her home away from home during the winter months; she was able to spend her winters outdoors, soaking up the sun. When Indiana warmed up again, Sharon returned home to start working around her property, getting her flower beds and garden ready for summer. It also meant getting to spend more time with family; summer days spent grilling out and swimming in the pool, as well as sharing endless laughs and making memories. Sharon also enjoyed solving crossword puzzles while sitting on her deck.

Family was very important to her, and that was especially true when it came to her grandkids. She was always their biggest supporter. Sharon was the rock for her family. She will be deeply missed by everyone who had the pleasure of knowing and being loved by her.

Sharon is survived by her son, Perry "Les" Anderson (Ronna), Tipton; daughters, Marshell Kay Anderson, Kokomo, and Melanie G. Ewing (Marshall), Tipton; grandchildren, Paige Leslie Anderson-DeSouza (Billy) of Utah, Austin Perry Anderson (Lindsey) of Utah, Danielle Kaye-Lyn Hadley (Mike), Dayton, Ohio, Devon Marshall Ewing, Tipton, and Dylan Omer-Lee Ewing, Tipton; great-grandchildren, Alex Ortega, Alayah DeSouza, Brixton Anderson and Jaxson Anderson; brothers, Donald Whaley (Lois Osborne), Lebanon, Wm. She was preceded in death by her parents; brother, John Whaley; sister, Peggy Mc-Dole; sisters-in-law, Patty Anderson and Scarlet Whaley; brothers-in-law, Charles Birden and Billie B. Birden; her great-grandchild, Adrianna Ortega; and by her loving husband of 52 years, Perry Marshall Anderson on September 25, 2012. She and Perry were married in 1960.
