proposed locations and any reasonable alternatives offered by the neighborhood. “Just this week, the process achieved consensus on an overwhelming majority of residential permits considered. While the process is far from perfect, we hope that it can effectively balance the Federal government’s desire to quickly implement this technology with the preservation and protection of aesthetics in our residential neighborhoods.” Verizon Wireless is constructing 5G towers in residential neighborhoods throughout Fishers, with 112 now in place and a total of 400 applications expected this year. Although hamstrung by federal rules, state law allows the city to consider residents’ concerns on the placement of 5G towers in their neighborhoods.

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault – it wasn’t something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don’t often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we’re breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.

New heart technology could save those at risk of stroke

Community Health cardiologist first in Indiana to perform WATCHMAN FLX procedure

The REPORTER

Community Health Network cardiologist Dr. Michael Robertson is now the first in Indiana to perform the new WATCHMAN FLX procedure. Three patients at Community Heart and Vascular Hospital are doing well after having the latest technology implanted in their hearts last week. It's a device that could save their lives by reducing their stroke risk. The WATCHMAN FLX is designed specifically for patients with atrial fibrillation (AFib), an irregular heartbeat. In people with AFib not caused by a heart valve problem, more than 90 percent of stroke-causing clots are formed in the upper left chamber of the heart. The Watchman FLX is a small implant that creates a permanent barrier in that part of the heart to keep blood clots from escaping and causing a stroke. The WATCHMAN FLX is the latest generation of the WATCHMAN technology designed for reducing strokes. The broader updated device allows more people to be eligible for this lifesaving procedure. The device received FDA approval in July. Community Health Network cardiologists, like Dr. Robert Godley, have had great success with the original WATCH-

MAN device. "I like the WATCHMAN because it offers an excellent alternative to the very common, and previously difficult to manage, issue of intolerance to oral anticoagulants in patients with atrial fibrillation," Godley said. "We are now able to safely get these patients off of oral anticoag-ulants while still reducing their risk of having a stroke from AFib. The newest, upgraded version of this device, WATCHMAN FLX, is going to allow us to offer this therapy to patients who previously weren't a candidate for the procedure, and it's going to make the procedure safer and more effective for everyone."

Huskies outlast Millers in five sets

The young players on the Hamilton Heights volleyball team are growing up. The Huskies showcased their talent and maturity at The Mill on Tuesday, where they outlasted host Noblesville in a five-set epic. Heights won 25-27, 25-16, 25-27, 25-21, 15-13. The victory improved the Huskies' record to 7-4 for the season.

"It's a great win for our program and for us," said Heights coach Steve Ward.

Just to get into the fifth set, the Huskies had to make a comeback in the fourth set. The Millers led 21-18, putting them four points from victory. But Heights won the next seven points to force a fifth set. Jordan Fryman served aces on each of the last two points.

The fifth set was a battle early. Bella Hines served a pair of aces to put Noblesville up 4-3, then the Millers led 5-4. But Fryman took over again, smashing three kills during a run of four straight points. That put the Huskies up 8-5 and they never trailed again.

"She's a leader," said Ward. "She's a dynamic player that we can get looks for on the outside, middle and the right side. She does a good job of putting the ball down when she gets it."

Heights won the match when Fryman and Kelsey Smith teamed up for a successful block. Fryman had seven blocks for the game.

On offense, Fryman hit 18 kills, while Lexi Hayden put down 13. Smith dished out 46 assists and Jillian Osswald collected 24 digs.

The Huskies' service was strong as well. Fryman served four aces and Lauren Lewis hit three.

"When you start playing these bigger schools and doing things, you got to have tough serves," said Ward. "With those older girls that we have, the three juniors and the seniors, they really helped out."

Noblesville was playing its second match in two days, after taking on Yorktown Monday. Rose Crist had a big game with 22 kills and 16 digs. Ella Peter hit 11 kills and made five blocks, while Ava Harris had nine kills.

Riley Branch handed out 56 assists and also collected 15 digs. Diana Cox had 17 digs, while Hines and Gabby Weihe both served four aces.

"Heights is a good team and it's a different Heights than we've seen, and we just didn't have an answer tonight for that," said Millers coach Annie Phillips. "We played not to make a mistake versus to win the game. We didn't quite control the out-of-system play like we needed to. We were out of system 85, 90 percent of the time and we needed to better control the out-of-system play."

Noblesville, now 5-4 for the season, fell to Yorktown 25-16, 25-10, 25-15 on Monday. Crist had nine kills. Cox made nine digs and Weihe made four blocks. Harris and Peter both had three blocks. Branch dished out 14 assists.

Shamrocks beat 'Hounds in five sets

In a Monday all-county match, Westfield also needed five sets to get past Carmel, winning 25-23, 14-25, 25-23, 20-25, 15-7 at The Rock.

Kenzie Daffinee had another big game with 15 kills and four aces. Grace Stewart smacked 10 kills and made eight blocks, while Katie Sweet had nine kills and four blocks.

On defense, Ellary Detamore collected 18 digs, followed by Sarah Weglarz with 16 and Logan Mapes with 13. Mairin McAndrews and Lauren Harvey both had four blocks.

Lauren Evans had a great game for the Greyhounds, with 23 kills, 15 digs and three blocks. Savanna Rogers added 10 digs and nine kills, while Caroline Yuska contributed six kills and three blocks. Lexi Brehl had 14 digs and one ace, while Ella Bostic dished out 47 assists in addition to 13 digs and three kills.

Carmel rebounded on Tuesday to sweep Lawrence North 25-15, 25-17, 25-23. Evans had 14 kills, eight digs and two blocks, and Brehl collected 14 digs.

Bostic handed out another 37 assists and had four digs. Jaclyn Scherb and Valerie Trent both served three aces.

Westfield's junior varsity team beat Carmel in three sets Monday, 24-25, 25-12, 15-13. Kaylee Sutcliffe had 16 digs, and Dani Schade hit four kills and made two solo blocks for the Shamrocks.

The Greyhounds won the freshman match 16-25, 25-24, 25-10. Ballard handed out nine assists, Snedecker had 10 digs and Foster and Tucker both hit five kills.

Sheridan played two matches early this week.

On Monday, the Blackhawks were swept by Tipton 25-18, 25-10, 25-20. Allie Delphi collected 11 digs and also hit seven kills to lead Sheridan. Kaiden Wilson and Jacquelynne Bates both hit three kills, with Wilson making two blocks.

Taylor Bates dished out 14 assists, while Emma Went had 13 digs. Bates, Abbi Clouser and Lillie Dickerson all served one ace.

The Blue Devils won the junior varsity match 25-20, 25-13. Valerie Adams had three aces and two kills, Hailey Curry dished out four assists, Claudia Headlee hit two kills, Lilly Chesney made one block and Kayle Behrs collected two digs.

The 'Hawks dropped a four-set Hoosier Heartland Conference match to Clinton Prairie on Tuesday, 22-25, 26-24, 26-20, 25-16. Bates had a solid all-around game with 21 assists, eight digs, two aces and two blocks.

Delph hit 12 kills and made 10 digs. Dickerson had seven kills, Wilson had two blocks and Went collected 18 digs.

In the JV match, Prairie won 25-24, 25-16. Makaylee Wilson served two aces, Payton Warren had seven digs and four kills, Curry dished out five assists, Behrs made 12 digs and Laney Inman had two kills and one block.

The Blackhawks play an HHC match Thursday at Delphi.

No.1-ranked Miller boys beat Eagles

When the latest Indiana Soccer Coaches Association's boys soccer poll was released on Monday, Noblesville had moved up to the No. 1 spot in the Class 3A rankings.

From the beginning of the season, the Millers believed they were deserving of No. 1. They put that confidence to the test Tuesday at Hallmark Orthodontics Soccer Complex and passed with flying colors, taking care of 3A No. 9 Zionsville 3-0 in a Hoosier Crossroads Conference game.

"With the new ranking, I think they went about their business," said Noblesville coach Ken Dollaske. "I think that the entire time, even when we were ranked No. 2, we still thought we were deserving of No. 1. So, honestly, I don't think our mindset really changed too much."

The Millers scored twice in the first half. Brayden Doll got the first one, scoring on a free kick eight minutes into the game. Palmer Ault got the next goal seven minutes later, with Spencer Holland making the assist. In the second half, Noblesville put its third goal into the net during the 48th minute. Drew Barnes found the back of the net, with Ault on the assist.

Goalkeeper Gabe Ingle gave another solid performance, making several saves late in the game. Drew Cochran, Andy Stansfield, Colin Todd and Brady Horn all were strong on the defensive back line.

"They just went about their business, making sure that we were strong defensively, that we had good offensive pushes going forward," said Dollaske. "Same mentality the entire time."

The Millers are 4-0 in the conference and 8-0 overall. They will host Cathedral on Thursday.

Hamilton Southeastern's boys team, which moved up to No. 2 in this week's Class 3A rankings, held off Westfield 3-2 in an all-county and HCC game Tuesday.

It was a back-and-forth game: The Shamrocks' David Green scored the first goal on a penalty kick during the 24th minute. Southeastern answered when Isa Sayeed found the back of the net 10 minutes later, then followed that up with another goal in the 37th minute. That made the halftime score 2-1.

Green added a second goal 15 minutes into the second half to tie it at 2-2. The Royals took the lead for good a few minutes later when Sam Kay converted a PK.

Southeastern is 5-0 in conference play and 10-0-1 for the season, and will host Cathedral on Saturday. Westfield is 1-3-1 in the HCC and 3-3-1 overall, and hosts 2A No. 13 Brebeuf Jesuit on Thursday.

The Guerin Catholic boys team, ranked No. 5 in 2A, used a second-half flurry to beat Cathedral 4-0 on Tuesday.

Peter Hall scored the first goal of the game eight minutes into the second half. Keegan Perhaps found the back of the net three minutes later. Lukas Pinon added the third goal in the 64th minute, and Jack Demmings completed the scoring with under three minutes left.

The Golden Eagles are 5-1-1 and host Covenant Christian on Thursday in a Circle City Conference game.

Guerin Catholic's girls team, ranked No. 8 in 3A, swept past 1A No. 9 Heritage Christian 7-0 on Tuesday.

Hailey Abel, Quincy McMahon, Alyssa Ferry and Calli McGee all scored goals for the Golden Eagles. Olivia Labus and Bailey Cappella teamed up with the Guerin Catholic defense for the shutout.

The Golden Eagles are 5-1-1 and host 3A No. 6 Evansville Memorial on Saturday.

Sheridan's girls dropped two games early this week.

The Blackhawks fell to 1A No. 16

Faith Christian 7-0 on Monday. Faith scored an early goal, but Sheridan coach Brian Prange said that once "the girls settled down in the first half, they started to find passing lanes and shots on goal."

On Tuesday, the Hawks lost to North Montgomery 7-2. Emma Alexander scored in the first half, while Kadance Voege got a second-half goal.

Carmel's girls team, ranked No. 2 in 3A, stayed in the driver's seat for a Metropolitan Conference championship by beating 3A No. 16 North Central 1-0 Monday at Murray Stadium.

Susie Soderstrom scored the Greyhounds' goal in the first half off a pass from Ava Cabellon. Erin Baker earned her 10th shutout.

Carmel is now 5-0 in the MIC and 11-0 overall. The 'Hounds continue MIC play tonight at Warren Central.

In the junior varsity game, Carmel won 8-0. The Greyhounds freshman team played Noblesville on Monday and won 3-1.

The Carmel boys team, ranked No. 6 in 3A, also picked up a 1-0 MIC win over 3A No. 5 North Central on Tuesday.

Medard Mikobi scored for the Greyhounds, with Steven Overbeck providing the assist. Henry Giesel recorded the shutout, his sixth clean sheet of the season.

Carmel improved to 4-0 in conference play and 7-1-1 overall. The Greyhounds play another MIC game Thursday at Warren Central.

The Fishers boys team, ranked No. 13 in 3A, beat Brownsburg 2-1 on Tuesday in an HCC contest.

The Tigers improved to 2-4 in the league and are 7-4-1 overall. Fishers will play at North Central on Thursday.

In the junior varsity game, the Tigers beat the Bulldogs 7-0. Evan Myers and Andrew Marslender both scored three goals for the Fishers JV team, which is unbeaten for the season.

Westfield dropped a 4-1 dual meet at Harrison on Monday.

The No. 1 doubles team of Carson Kessler and Brett Barnes got the Shamrocks' victory.

Girls golf Huskies host two meets

The Hamilton Heights girls golf team played two dual meets early this week. On Monday, the Huskies beat Frankton 195-219 at Bear Slide. Sydni Zebrasukas was the meet medalist with a 43. Other Heights scores were Rebekah Steffen 49, Anna Rickey 51 and Kaylee Rhoton 52.

On Tuesday, the Huskies hosted Hamilton Southeastern and Taylor in a three-team meet, also at Bear Slide. The Royals won with a score of 164, while Heights carded 196 and Taylor had 255.

Southeastern's Grace Dubec was the meet medalist with a 37. Ashley Marcinko and Kaley McHaffie both added 40s, and Katy Pippenger and Gabby Willard each carded 47s.

Zebrasukas scored a 46 for the Huskies, followed by Rhoton 48, Steffen 50 and Lola Wilson 52.

Colts RB Marlon Mack out for season; Jonathan Taylor to fill top spot

WISH-TV

Indianapolis Colts running back Marlon Mack is out for the season, and Jonathan Taylor will step up into the spot, Coach Frank Reich said Monday.

Mack was injured in Sunday's 27-20 loss to the Jacksonville Jaguars. The Colts take on the Minnesota Vikings at Lucas Oil Stadium on Sunday.

Reich confirmed a report that first came from the NFL Network.

The Colts reported Mack, a fourth-year veteran out of South Florida, was entering a contract year in 2020. He'd been off to a solid start in Sunday's contest in Jacksonville, with four rushing attempts for 26 yards (6.5 avg.) and three receptions for 30 yards, when he went down grabbing his foot in the second quarter after hauling in short pass over the middle from quarterback Philip Rivers. Initially ruled questionable to return with an ankle injury, Mack was eventually downgraded to out just before halftime.

Reich said Monday, "The one injury note that I can give you is that I can confirm that Marlon Mack did rupture his Achilles and he will be out for the season. That's really unfortunate. I mean, Marlon is beloved in our locker room – has such immense amount of respect and love for this guy. He is a true Colt. He was just looking so good in training camp and even in his few snaps yesterday, he just looks like lightning, man. He just looked like lightning out there. It's very unfortunate and very bad timing for him and his family. I haven't had a chance to talk to Marlon yet, but did leave him a message today saying I really believe the best football is still ahead for Marlon Mack. That guy is a class act in every way and a great player."

The coach also confirmed Taylor "will step into the starting role. "He looked good yesterday. ... He'll step up and he'll do a great job."

Reich added, Nyheim (Hines) is still going to be an important part of the mix – on all downs, not just on third down. But then Jordan (Wilkins) will step up. We've got a lot of confidence in Jordan. I'm a big Jordan fan. He's an excellent runner and he'll do a good job for us."

Fever's Allemand named to AP All-Rookie Team

Indiana Fever guard Julie Allemand was named to the Associated Press All-Rookie Team on Tuesday.

Allemand is the fourth Fever rookie to make the AP All-Rookie Team, joining Teaira McCowan (2019), Kelsey Mitchell (2018) and Tiffany Mitchell (2016).

In her rookie season with the Fever, Allemand became the first rookie in WNBA history to average at least 8.0 points, 5.0 assists and 4.0 rebounds per game. The 5-foot-8 guard was the ninth rookie in league history to record at least eight assists in six games during her inaugural WNBA season.

In the third game of her WNBA career against the Dallas Wings on July 31, Allemand's 11 assists tied a franchise record for the most assists in a single game. She joined Coquese Washington and Vice President of Basketball Operations and General Manager, Tamika Catchings, as the only players in Fever history with multiple games recording at least 10 assists.

Allemand was the only rookie to start every game this season, as she ended the 2020 season averaging the second most assists in the WNBA at 5.8 assists per contest.

She is joined on the AP All-Rookie Team with Crystal Dangerfield (Minnesota Lynx), Satou Sabally (Dallas Wings), Chennedy Carter (Atlanta Dream) and Jazmine Jones (New York Liberty).
