County making plans to celebrate bicentennial

Commission being appointed to oversee 2023 celebration

The REPORTER

Hamilton County will celebrate its bicentennial in 2023. Hamilton County was officially designated by the state and founded as a governmental entity in 1823.

A 2023 Bicentennial Commission has been appointed by the Hamilton County Commissioners to oversee the bicentennial's celebration through events and projects throughout the county. The Commission will consist of a representative from each township appointed by the township trustee. County Clerk Kathy Kreag Williams and County Surveyor Kenton Ward will co-chair the commission.

"I had the honor of serving on the 175th celebration and am excited to be a part of the 200th anniversary," Williams said. "Hamilton County has so many deep-rooted traditions as well as the many changes that have come with our growth. I look forward to celebrating it all."

Heighway

The 2023 Bicentennial Commission will be supported by an executive committee consisting of Jessica Petty, Hamilton County Historical Society; David Heighway, Hamilton County Historian; Brenda Myers and Sarah Buckner, Hamilton County Tourism; and a voluntary treasurer to be elected from the township appointments. Regular reports to the Hamilton County Board of Commissioners will be made.

"The Bicentennial is an opportunity to not only look to our past but also our future," said Heighway. "This community has experienced significant change over time, and this will be an opportunity to reflect on where we are and where we want to go."

The Commission will launch in the fourth quarter of 2020, then meet quarterly in 2021, nine times in 2022, monthly in 2023, and once in 2024 to review a program assessment and define the bicentennial's committee structure.

There will be many opportunities for folks to engage in the bicentennial through committee membership, by signing up for special projects, submitting programming ideas and using some of the materials for classrooms and clubs that will be developed for the celebration.

A web portal will be developed by early 2021 to allow anyone interested in knowing more to sign up for email information or to serve on a committee.

Local candidates need to speak up on issues

We have just over a month until the 2020 election, and we have yet to hear what any of our local candidates propose if elected. Come on now, talk to us.

Democrats have been telling us they want to offer an alternative to Republicans. But, so far not a word from commissioner or council candidates about what they would propose that differs or improves upon what county government currently offers.

Fishers launches inclusive social club for adults with disabilities

The REPORTER

A new social club for adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities has launched in Fishers. The mission of the Thrive Social Club is to connect citizens of all abilities in the community to participate in life enriching social activities.

The club was founded by the Fishers Advisory Committee on Disability and was the idea of committee member Mari Kennedy, who has an adult child with disabilities.

"We created Thrive to provide people of all abilities a welcoming and inclusive way to participate in all the social opportunities in Fishers," Kennedy said.

Fishers City Councilor and Chair of the Fishers Advisory Committee on Disability, Cecilia Coble, says the club can help to fill the gap that exists after high school.

"My daughter Crysta will be 18 years old in a couple of weeks," Coble said. "After she graduates from high school, the inclusive social opportunities that are in place in a school setting are difficult to find. Many individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities find themselves very isolated and disconnected from the community."

Sunblest Apartments fire ruled accident

The REPORTER

Fishers Fire Department Deputy Fire Marshal Josh Earl has ruled the cause of the Sunblest Apartments fire on Sept. 8 as accidental – which displaced eight families – from improperly discarded smoking material on an upstairs balcony. The building was a complete loss and the removal of the remains began Tuesday.

Seven of the eight families had renters insurance and all families were able to be relocated. Sunblest Apartments, Delaware Township Trustee and American Red Cross assisted families after the fire and the community donated over $12,000 in cash, gift cards and materials.

Firefighters arrived within two minutes of being dispatched, and 31 firefighters took an hour and half to bring the fire under control.

Dollar loss is estimated at: Structure, $1,000,000; and Contents, $700,000.

There were no civilian injuries, and two firefighters sustained minor injuries. Firefighters remind everyone the importance of properly extinguishing smoking materials, campfires, charcoal ash, and fireplace ash by wetting them down completely and placing in a metal container instead of a plastic one. Never place the ashes near a building or in your garage.

Renters and homeowners insurance makes recovery from these incidents so much easier. It doesn't always replace everything, but without insurance, it replaces nothing.

HSE is a large school district, and people are watching us

The Hamilton Southeastern (HSE) school district is the fourth-largest in the state in terms of student population. That means our school system receives a lot of attention statewide. HSE is also the largest Indiana suburban school system. Again, based on student population, Fort Wayne is the largest, followed by IPS, Evansville . . . then HSE.

The reason that fact is important centers on what I want to get across in this Republicans have an opportunity to tell us what they have provided for the county and what they want to do in the next four years.

The Board of Commissioners and the County Council are the policymaking bodies in local government. Candidates for these offices especially have an obligation to spell out some kind of program, if elected.

Most folks seem reasonably satisfied with local law enforcement, county highways, health care, parks, etc. So maybe the Democrats have nothing different to offer, but improvements can always be made. And, Republican candidates should tell us what they plan to do to meet the continuing challenges of our growing county.

Candidates for state and national office tell us what they see as issues facing the state and nation. On many of the issues they differ widely on what they would do if elected.

Government at the local level is very important to all of us in our daily lives.

So, let's hear from these folks.

How about it, candidates?

The founders of Thrive hope that the club can help to build community connections during this time of isolation due to COVID-19.

“As human beings, we all want to feel connected with others and to participate in community events,” Coble said. “The COVID-19 situation brought even more isolation to individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families. The Thrive Social Club will help us to connect with one other and engage in the community.”

The first club meetup will be from 9 a.m. to noon on Saturday, Oct. 3 at Flat Fork Creek, 16141 E. 101st St., Fishers. The club will volunteer with park cleanup as part of Keep Fishers Beautiful, a citywide initiative to support the vibrancy of the city and neighborhoods hosted by the City of Fishers. Attendees should bring their own lunch for a group picnic.

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault – it wasn’t something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don’t often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we’re breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.

commentary — people around Indiana and possibly outside our state are watching our school board election and the tenor of the debate among the citizenry within the HSE School District.

I will not address the school board election in this piece, but I do wish to warn everyone in Fishers and the HSE Schools boundaries (the HSE boundary takes in more than the city of Fishers) that we all need to take a deep breath and think ... think for more than a few seconds ... about the social media post you are about to send.

Look, I am not arguing that everyone commenting on HSE Schools are part of the problem ... most comments I see about our schools are no problem at all. But we must think about how we can have a civil argument ... disagreeing without being disagreeable.

I am not going to share specific examples of what is going wrong about our local school debate because doing so would just provide a megaphone to those that are not engaging in this discussion in what I would consider the right way.

I always start with this simple precept – everyone with students in HSE Schools wants the absolute best for their children. I moved here in 1991 and several years later my twin daughters entered kindergarten at Harrison Parkway, middle school at Sand Creek, went to Fishers Junior High and spent four years at Fishers High School. My daughters received a top-shelf education at HSE Schools which prepared them well for college, and they are both college graduates.

My wife and I saw up close and personal how HSE Schools work. As you might guess, all was not perfect all the time, but for the most part, my wife Jane and I were impressed by the teachers and staff at all those schools (Jane is not an easy person to impress).

My family had that outstanding experience with our local schools at a time when the student population was growing every year. It is a little like adding on to an airplane while still in flight. Somehow the teachers and administrators continued their high-quality work despite the challenge of rapid growth.

The key to continuing the high quality is recruiting and retaining the best teachers and administrators. That is a big reason I am writing this post at this specific time.

HSE is not at the top of the teacher pay scale in our geographical area. But local leaders have always told me we do not want to be at the bottom of the compensation list, but if HSE can stay in the middle, the quality of our community can be the main driver for staff.

Here is my point. Some social media posts locally have been savagely attacking school staff, administrators and board members. I understand what it means to be a public employee; I was one for 28 years and understand that public criticism is part of the game.

But when allegations are made that are just not true, or amount to personal attacks, that is when we are all impacted. Suddenly, that draw of a quality community is dented by the vitriol that comes across when teachers are attacked. There is no good reason for this.

I know a number of teachers in HSE Schools and they all, to a person, tell me the pandemic has resulted in a workload far beyond anything ever seen before. The teaching staff all care about their students and are trying their best under the worst circumstances they have ever seen. Attacking these people will not help, but it can hurt.

Teachers are highly-educated professionals. They either have their Master's Degrees (or higher) or are working on an advanced degree as they work. There is a teacher shortage in Indiana that has been documented by media outlets and our major universities that are seeing far fewer education students entering that field of study.

Teachers can go to another school district if they feel under attack here. And, many have lucrative private-sector options if the decision is made to leave teaching.

I am not saying teachers should be shielded from all criticism, but be constructive if you believe a change is needed. Anytime Jane and I offered such feedback to a teacher, we had a good, constructive conversation.

This pandemic has not been easy for our local school administrators. They are dealing with a situation like nothing experienced by them before. These leaders face the challenge of providing school virtually, in the classroom and combinations of both. Keeping students and staff safe in the middle of a major pandemic is a high priority. One can suggest other options without savagely attacking these people.

I understand the school board is elected and some say that makes them fair game. I started covering the HSE School Board in 2012 and have either attended or watched meetings online for about eight years. There may be a few exceptions here and there, but what I have mostly experienced are school board members that may not always agree, but always put the students first and work to take care of the district staff as best they can. With some of the budget problems I witnessed in my early years of covering the board, this was not always easy to accomplish.

I recently wrote a story about HSE School Board President Michelle Fullhart's Facebook post which she described as a "rant" about the tenor of debate among the residents of the HSE School District. Michelle just posted a Facebook message that she was surprised I wrote a story about that. Michelle, you are the president of the board and your comments on a subject like that carry a great deal of weight. If you choose to make such comments, it will get the attention of the news media.

When HSE School District voters overwhelmingly approved an operating referendum, an open house was scheduled for those interested in applying for the many new teaching positions about to open. The turnout was massive. It was difficult to speak with everyone and several school officials stayed late to talk with everyone. Teachers wanted to come and work for HSE Schools.

When I went back and thought about that night in May of 2016 when teachers flocked to that open house, I wondered – would that happen today? I would hope the answer would be yes.

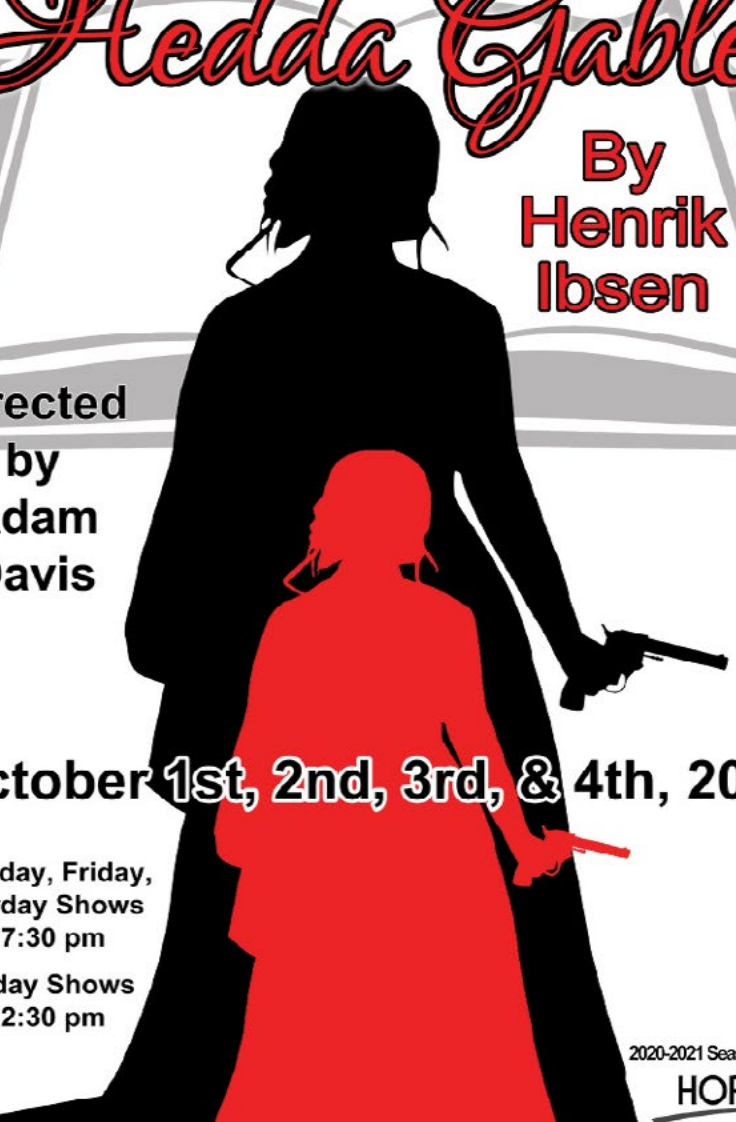

But that is why we should all take that deep breath and think before we write. When teachers come under unfair attack by parents, even a fairly small number compared to all in the school system, it hurts the reputation of our community's attitude toward those teaching our children.

If you have an issue with the local schools and are about to post, just think about a few things ... Do I truly understand the issue? Are my facts correct? How will this impact all that I am writing about?

I want to be clear that I welcome a robust debate about issues surrounding our schools, but how we conduct that debate is as important, maybe more important, than winning the debate. I was on the debate team in college. You had to have verifiable facts to win, and you could be marked down for personally attacking the opposing team.

All I ask is that you give deep thought to any messages posted on social media. They can take on a life of their own once posted. Think about your children, their classmates and friends and your own friends in the HSE Schools community. We want the best teachers and administrators to be drawn to this district. Let's work at not driving them away.

Carmel Symphony Orchestra to perform backyard concert

WISH-TV | wishtv.com

Since you can't see the Carmel Symphony Orchestra perform indoors, the group is taking its music outside.

The string quartet performed in a Carmel neighborhood on Sunday evening. Dozens of people pulled out lawn chairs to hear the orchestra in its first backyard concert.

The Carmel Symphony says this event happened out of creativity.

"This is perfect for this kind of neighborhood and having the cul-de-sac to play in. People just walk in, hear it outside in their yards and just walk down here enjoying this, isn't that fun," said Jeanelle Adamak, executive director of Carmel Symphony Orchestra.

Next weekend they plan to do the same in a Zionsville neighborhood. The concert will be held from 6 to 7 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 3 at the home of Bill and Brenda Culpepper, 3290 S. U.S. Hwy. 421, Zionsville. Bring a lawn chair, snacks, beverages, and wear a mask during this evening of beautiful music. RSVP by end of today, Sept. 30, to cpittenger@carmelsymphony.org.

The orchestra's season starts Oct. 10 with limited seating.

AG Curtis Hill: Federal courts should not micromanage states' election processes

The REPORTER

Indiana Attorney General Curtis Hill on Tuesday asked a federal court to stay its preliminary injunction against a 2019 state law permitting a county election board, but no one else, to request an order from a state court extending voting hours.

Such extensions may be necessary in the event of technical problems at polling places but cannot be undertaken without a court order.

A lawsuit by Common Cause Indiana argues that anyone should be able to request such a court order, but Hill noted that permitting all voters to file such lawsuits could inundate courts with demands for extended polling hours. Indiana law otherwise affords voters ample opportunity to cast their ballots even before Election Day, and the statute at issue does not preclude voters from filing claims under federal law in either state or federal court.

"This is but one of many lawsuits designed to throw our election system into chaos on Election Day," Hill said. "The U.S. Supreme Court has said that courts should not issue election-related injunctions at the eleventh hour, but here we go again, with various left-leaning groups urging federal district courts to re-write the election laws and micromanage election procedures."

As long as the federal court's injunction stands, Indiana cannot enforce the law under challenge.

Fishers police use K-9s, drones to try to find man seen looking into cars

WISH-TV | wishtv.com

Police officers in Fishers were looking for a man caught looking into cars just after midnight Tuesday.

The Fishers Police Department said a resident reported a suspicious person in the 14900 block of Denison Drive and provided a description of a vehicle seen leaving the neighborhood. FPD located the vehicle and tried to pull the driver over, but the suspect fled on foot.

K-9s and drones were used to search a wooded area but the man was not found.

Police describe him as an early 20s white male with dark hair and a black sweatshirt. If you discovered anything missing from your car on Tuesday morning, please call the Fishers Police Department at (317) 773-1282 to file a report.

Historic En Plein Air Art Show to open at Indiana State Museum

The REPORTER

Take a glorious tour of Indiana through the eyes of 42 talented Hoosier artists at the Historic Indiana En Plein Air Art Show, Oct. 10 through Nov. 27 in the Indiana State Museum's King Bridge Gallery.

The exhibit of 60 oil, pastel and watercolor paintings is included with admission to the Indiana State Museum. Adult tickets are $17, seniors (ages 60 and up) are $16, youth (ages 3 to 17) are $12 and children younger than age 3 are free. Save $1 by purchasing tickets online at indianamuseum.org. The museum, located at 650 W. Washington St., Indianapolis, is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Wednesday through Sunday.

The artwork by members of the Indiana Plein Air Painters Association (IPAPA) showcase views of the state from Lake County to Jefferson County, Steuben County to Posey County and many places in between.

"This exhibit combines the very best of Hoosier art and the accomplishments of statewide historic preservation," said Mark Ruschman, senior curator of art and culture at the Indiana State Museum and Historic Sites. "We're honored to host the inaugural exhibition for this unique artistic partnership between IPAPA and the Indiana Department of Natural Resources."

All the paintings in the show, mostly executed on-site, depict one of Indiana's 2,000 listings on the National Register of Historic Places. They depict a full range of the state's listed sites, from county seat towns to ethnic heritage sites, historic houses, farmsteads, grand civic buildings and tranquil parks.

The Indiana DNR – Division of Historic Preservation & Archaeology (DHPA) and IPAPA developed the exhibit and catalog to mark the 50th anniversary of Indiana's historic preservation program. DHPA has just nominated the 2,000th property to the National Register, St. Ferdinand Parish Historic District in Dubois County.

"Plein air painting – the practice of painting outdoors – has a long and storied history in Indiana, inspired by the work of T.C. Steele and the Hoosier Group, Frank Dudley and so many others," said Cathy Ferree, president and CEO of the Indiana State Museum and Historic Sites. "What we see in the Historic Indiana En Plein Air show is that the beauty of the Indiana landscape continues to excite and motivate artists around the state to do their best work."

After the exhibit closes at the Indiana State Museum, it will travel to Fort Wayne Museum of Art, where it will be on display from December 2020 to January 2021. Other venues for the show include Historic Brown County Art Gallery, April-May 2021; Richmond Art Museum, June-July 2021; and Midwest Museum of American Art (Elkhart), August-September 2021. Consult each institution's guidance for visits regarding COVID-19 safeguards.

The exhibit catalog will be for sale at each venue.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

Men, brethren, and fathers, hear ye my defence which I make now unto you. (And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he saith,) I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, and taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day. And I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women. As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished. And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me. And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

David L. "Dave" Rodgers

November 25, 1935 – September 15, 2020

David L. "Dave" Rodgers, 84, formerly of Sheridan, entered the gates of heaven on September 15, 2020. Our hearts find comfort in knowing he is reunited with his bride, Barbara A. "Barb" Rodgers, once more.

Born November 25, 1935 in Lewisburg, Ohio, Dave was the son of the late Marion and Hilda Rodgers. He grew up on a dairy farm and learned the value of hard work at an early age. He was a curious kid, always tinkering, creating and reading. When Dave turned 16, he got his driver's license and drove himself to the airport where he performed his first "solo" flight. He loved cars, motorcycles, airplanes, boats and anything mechanical. He was a 1953 graduate of Lewisburg Union High School in Lewisburg, Ohio.

Shortly after graduation Dave entered the Navy, but not before marrying the love of his life, Barb. They were stationed in Annapolis, Md., and then Newfoundland, Canada. Dave served for four years as an electronics technician, followed by four years in the reserve. While stationed in Newfoundland in 1957, Dave and Barb started their beautiful family. After various moves between Michigan and Ohio, they eventually settled in Sheridan, planting roots and embedding themselves into the community some 50 years ago.

Dave was an entrepreneur at heart. He and Barb were best known for establishing Rodgers Finishing Tools "RFT" in 1970, but his other ventures included owning a gas station, a solar energy company that catered to marine craft, and even a small airport. He owned and operated Howard County Airport where he was a single engine instructor and an instrument rated multi-engine pilot with a commercial license.

Dave enjoyed all of his professional successes, but his real enjoyment came when he was able to use his hands. His ability to build and refurbish things was an art. He built ultra-light aircraft and refurbished motorcycles, planes, sailboats and even an old 1915 Model T car. Dave loved to sail and convinced Barb to live on a 35-foot sailboat for a year during early retirement.

The only thing that rivaled his love for his hobbies was the love he had for his family. A man of many talents, never boastful but always willing to teach and share his knowledge and wisdom with them. His soft blue eyes, Ralph Lauren Polo cologne smell, beautiful smile and hugs you could feel for days will be missed the most.

Dave is survived by his four children, Steven Rodgers, Melanie Rodgers, Chris Rodgers (Sheryl) and Douglas Rodgers (Tina); nine grandchildren, Malissa Crawford (Brad), Michael Rodgers (Gina), Kelly Isley (Doug), Nick Rodgers (Whitney), Grant Rodgers, Andrew Rodgers (Emily), Alexander Rodgers, Taylor Rodgers and Meredith Rodgers; 12 great-grandchildren; and nephew, Jeff Shafer (Susan).

He was preceded in death by his parents, Marion and Hilda Rodgers; his siblings, Beverly Shafer and Jimmy Rodgers; and his wife of 64 years, Barbara Rodgers.

A private memorial service will be held on October 4, 2020 at Kercheval Funeral Home in Sheridan.

Due to COVID-19 restrictions, a public celebration of Dave and Barbara's lives is being planned for a later date.

Please visit KerchevalFuneralHome.com to leave condolences and share your best Dave story with the family.

Royals tough out four-set win for the Mudsock trophy

The Hamilton Southeastern volleyball team won the Mudsock trophy on Tuesday, beating Fishers in four sets at the Tiger Den, 25-19, 23-25, 25-18, 25-20.

The match had been postponed for a couple weeks, and it was worth the wait. Both teams played at a high level, with the Royals coming out on top to keep their Hoosier Crossroads Conference record (4-0) and overall record (15-0) perfect for the season.

"Fishers is about as well-coached as they come," said Southeastern coach Jason Young. "Their program has just unbelievable talent. It's a rivalry like none other, and it's wonderful again to have friends play friends."

The Royals won the first set, then were engaged in a back and forth battle in the second set. Fishers led 10-6 early in the set, with Jada Allen starting a run by hitting back-to-back kills.

Southeastern fought back to take an 18-15 lead. Olivia Phillips, Delaney Garner and Taylor Lauri were among the HSE players hitting kills and Emi Robinson served an ace during that run. But the Tigers came back to take a 19-18 lead, thanks to an ace and another kill by Allen.

Grace Dunnuck later hit a kill to get Fishers up 23-22, then Allen and JaNyah Henderson teamed for a block to give the Tigers two set points. Fishers won the set minutes later.

The Royals came out strong in the third set, leading 3-0, then absorbing a Tigers comeback to take a 9-5 advantage. Fishers made another comeback, but the Royals would later go on a 5-0 run to lead 18-11. Taylor Harden and Avery Hobson both hit kills during that time.

The Tigers cut that lead to 19-16, as Emily Waldrop, Allen and Mikayla Christiansen all had kills. Southeastern held on, though, and won the set on back-to-back spikes by Hobson and Garner.

The Royals hit the ball hard, but used several light touches at the net to win points as well.

"That's part of the game plan," said Young. "We wanted to try to mix things up as much as possible. We'd been a little bit predictable in the past few matches, so it was nice to mix things in and get things going nicely."

The fourth set was more back and forth, although the Royals were able to steadily increase their lead as it went on. Garner hit back-to-back kills to give HSE an 18-12 lead. Fishers continued to fight, but a Harden kill gave the Royals match point at 24-20, and Southeastern won the next point to clinch the match.

Harden led the offense with 17 kills, while Garner had 16 kills, as well as two aces and two blocks. Lovie Wallace hit eight kills.

Emily Weber handed out 23 assists, with Phillips dishing out 17. Robinson served two aces. Carly Mills collected 30 digs, while Jordan Engelmann had 14 digs.

Waldrop hit 18 kills to lead the Tigers, with Allen hitting 13 and Christiansen nine. Henderson made five blocks and Allen had four. Camryn Haworth dished out 44 assists to go with 21 digs and two blocks. Samantha Perdue had 15 digs and Waldrop had 14.

"It's a very high bar, and Fishers, Indiana has phenomenal volleyball," said Fishers coach Steven Peek. "It's a really high bar, so you can play well and be the losing team when you play Mudsock. I do think that we played well tonight. I absolutely think we're better today than we were two weeks ago, which is definitely a sticking point for us as we get near the post-season. We have to improve constantly."

Fishers is 15-5 and plays at Noblesville at 7 p.m. tonight, while Southeastern will host Noblesville on Thursday.

Sheridan split its early-week matches, beating Christel House Academy on Monday and falling to Rossville on Tuesday.

The Blackhawks beat Christel House 25-13, 25-9, 25-6, hitting a season-high 29 aces. Lillie Dickerson led Sheridan with 22 total service points, including 11 aces. Taylor Bates served six aces, with Emma Went Jacquelynne Bates and Kaiden Wilson each hitting three. Allie Delph served two aces and Lilly Chesney hit one.

Delph hit 10 kills for the 'Hawks, followed by Wilson with eight, Dickerson with four and Jacquelynne Bates with three. Taylor Bates handed out 16 assists.

On defense, Delph, Chesney and Dickerson each made one block. Sierra Duke and Taylor Bates both collected two digs, while Kayla Beahrs, Jacquelynne Bates and Dickerson each had one dig.

Sheridan lost to Rossville in four sets, 25-17, 25-12, 18-25, 25-23. Went had 12 digs, with Jacquelynne Bates adding seven digs, five kills and three aces. Delph hit 14 kills and collected nine digs.

Wilson hit seven kills and made two solo blocks, while Taylor Bates handed out 28 assists to go with nine digs, one solo block and one block assist. Dickerson had four kills and three block assists, while Payton Warren spiked three kills and made two block assists.

Chesney had one solo block and one block assist, and Duke collected seven digs.

In junior varsity matches, the 'Hawks beat Christel House 25-22, 25-13. Claudia Headlee had seven aces, Chesney served three and Kendra Blankenship hit two. Chesney had four kills, followed by Blankenship with three, Headlee with two and Makaylee Wilson with two. Hailley Curry handed out six assists, while Wilson had five digs and Curry had four.

Sheridan's JV fell to Rossville 25-18, 24-25, 15-10. Wilson made five digs and also had two aces and two kills. Laney Inman served two aces, Beahrs had eight digs, Chesney had eight digs and five assists, Curry contributed five digs, four assists and two kills, while Blankenship and Valerie Adams both hit three kills.

The Blackhawks varsity plays tonight at Traders Point Christian Academy.

Carmel won a four-set match over Pike on Tuesday, 25-20, 21-25, 25-16, 25-10.

Macarty McQueen had a good all-around game with 12 digs, 11 kills and three blocks. Savanna Rogers added 11 kills and six digs, while Caroline Yuska hit 10 kills and made one block. Ella Bostic dished out 44 assists and served three aces.

The Class 3A No. 1 Millers scored both of their goals in the second half. The 3A No. 3 Royals came out tough in the second half, and got a shot off the crossbar, but Noblesville goalkeeper Gabe Ingle made a reaction save.

IMS, Gleaners Food Bank join forces to help ensure no one runs on empty

Indianapolis Motor Speedway and Gleaners Food Bank of Indiana are teaming up to drive awareness for Gleaners’ vital mission to end hunger in Central Indiana, especially its No One Runs On Empty awareness campaign.

Gleaners becomes an Official Charitable Partner of IMS through the new partnership, announced Sept. 29 at IMS during Race Week for the INDYCAR Harvest GP presented by GMR and the Indianapolis 8 Hour races Oct. 1-4 at the Racing Capital of the World.

“IMS always has looked beyond its gates to help the Central Indiana community, so this partnership with Gleaners Food Bank of Indiana is an ideal extension of that mission,” IMS President J. Douglas Boles said. “Gleaners tirelessly works to provide meals for hungry Hoosiers, a need that has become even more acute during these challenging times. We’re honored to help, and we encourage all race fans to donate to Gleaners as often as possible.”

A variety of promotional assets at IMS and around Central Indiana will be used to encourage fans to regularly donate to Gleaners. The No One Runs On Empty awareness campaign, launched in early July, highlights advocacy and volunteerism, and encourages financial support for Gleaners’ hunger relief programs.

An estimated 1.5 to 2 million Hoosiers face food insecurity, a number that has climbed significantly from 1 million prior to the COVID-19 pandemic. The need in Marion County increased dramatically more than in the other 20 Indiana counties served by Gleaners, but all counties have seen increased need.

The No One Runs On Empty awareness initiative is made possible through the generosity of the Anthem Foundation. Anthem issued a $1 million challenge to encourage community giving. Gleaners is approximately halfway to that goal and hopes to meet the challenge by the end of this year.

IMS also will host two community food distribution events with Gleaners later this year as part of the partnership.

“For the past seven months, Gleaners has been in the midst of an extraordinary effort to respond to the COVID-19 pandemic,” said Joseph Slater, chief operations and financial officer of Gleaners Food Bank of Indiana. “Since March, we’ve been distributing approximately 1.5 million meals each week. Some distributions, such as the Mega Fresh Mobile hosted by IMS last Memorial Day, have served nearly 5,000 families in one day.”

This partnership is a continuation of Gleaners’ No One Runs On Empty initiative. Racing was the launching platform for the program that focuses on education, advocacy, volunteerism and giving. NTT INDYCAR SERIES sophomore sensation Colton Herta drove the No. 88 Gleaners Food Bank of Indiana for Andretti Harding Steinbrenner Autosport in the GMR Grand Prix in July and the 104th Indianapolis 500 presented by Gainbridge in August at IMS.

Fans are encouraged to promote Gleaners’ mission by posting to social media with the hashtags #NoOneRunsOnEmpty and #Donate88.

Gleaners was founded in 1980 and is a respected leader within Feeding America, the nation’s food bank network. Since that time, Gleaners has distributed more than half a billion pounds of food and critical grocery products through more than 585 hunger relief agencies, schools and community partners serving hungry Hoosiers.

In addition to food distribution to agencies, Gleaners serves the most vulnerable populations, seniors and children, through specialty programs such as School-Based Pantries, Mobile Pantries, Summer Meals for Kids and Senior Hunger Initiative programs. Fresh Connect Central began as an initiative focused on the distribution of fresh, nutritious fruits and vegetables in 2017 and has grown to include meat and dairy. Gleaners also serves as the reclamation site for Kroger Central Division, and a FEMA disaster relief staging site.

Charity Navigator has recognized Gleaners as a 4-Star organization, the highest rating for charity demonstrating fiscal management and accountability. In addition, Gleaners is an accredited charity with the Better Business Bureau and has earned a Platinum Seal of Transparency from GuideStar.
