Noblesville receives $25K conservation grant

The REPORTER

The City of Noblesville recently received a $25,000 Powerful Communities Grant from Duke Energy for habitat and forest restoration and conservation along the White River.

"We are grateful for Duke Energy's conservation efforts and funding to help preserve one of our city's amenities and open it both visually and physically to more resident interaction," Mayor Chris Jensen said.

The year-long project, which begins in mid-October, targets the east bank of White River between Maple Street and Division Street for invasive species removal, native species planting, and habitat restoration over two events during the year.

The density of invasive overgrowth has literally become a barrier to residents' access to long stretches of the riverbank."

County budget calls for $96.7M, lower property tax

By FRED SWIFT

ReadTheReporter.com

A $96.7 million county general fund budget was adopted Monday morning by the Hamilton County Council. The budget is for the 2021 calendar year, and will require a slightly smaller property tax rate than was levied this year.

County employees will receive raises according to a scale that takes into account job responsibility, longevity and performance. County Auditor Robin Mills said there is no overall percentage of increase.

The budget can be funded with a lower tax rate largely because of the ever-growing tax base, up more than $1.3 billion this year. The budget includes funding for county law enforcement, the courts, health department and numerous other services and administrative offices.

Thirteen non-profit organizations that provide various social services will receive nearly $4 million in assistance from the county next year as part of the budget, including some that are mandated by statute or annual contractual agreement.

The organizations are as follows: Aspire (mental health) $2.3 million, Janus (sheltered workshop) $775,000, Humane Society $140,419, and Cherish Center $67,000.

Also, Good Samaritan $50,000, Heart and Soul Free Clinic $15,000, Hope Family Care Center $15,000, Indiana Center for Youth Abuse $30,000, and Meals on Wheels $10,000.

And, Prime Life Enrichment $225,000, Prevail $180,000, Shepherd Center $40,000, and Trinity Free Clinic $15,000.

With the exception of the state-mandated funds, these amounts are granted to organizations that perform community services that might otherwise fall to local government to fund entirely.

Carmel's State of the City speech postponed

The REPORTER

Carmel Mayor Jim Brainard has announced he will postpone his annual State of the City address scheduled for November while the City continues to deal with the COVID-19 pandemic.

Previously scheduled as a "virtual" address to be shared on social media, Brainard said he felt it would be better to wait until such a time that everyone could gather together for a live speech, as has been the tradition for the past two decades.

"While we do have a lot of positive news to share about the state of our City,

I think it is more important to remain focused on the serious matters at hand," Brainard said. "Once we get a vaccine and we start to come out of this global pandemic, then we can take some time to reflect on where we have been and where we are going."

The annual speech is likely to be rescheduled to the spring of 2021.

Deputies on lookout for 'Operation Belt Up' violators

The REPORTER

Wearing a seat belt could mean the difference between life or death. That's the important safety message coming from Hamilton County Deputies, who will be on the lookout for unrestrained motorists over the next several weeks.

Operation Belt Up will begin on Thursday, Oct. 22 and finish on Sunday, Nov.

29. The overtime patrols, which will be taking place in the top 30 Indiana counties for unrestrained crashes, are paid for with National Highway Traffic Safety Administration funds, administered by the Indiana Criminal Justice Institute.

Quakenbush

"We see the results of not wearing a seat belt all the time, and it's heartbreaking," Sheriff Dennis Quakenbush said. "Motorists are 12 times more likely to be killed if they are unrestrained. Buckling up is not just an important, life-saving strategy - it's the law."

Last year, out of the total number of motorists involved in passenger vehicle crashes, 90 percent were wearing a seat belt. Despite this, unrestrained motorists accounted for over half of all vehicle fatalities in 2019 (308 out of 565), according to data from the criminal growth will outline monitoring protocols for measuring effectiveness and serve as a guide for similar efforts on other city-owned land,” Stottlemeyer said. “We are certain that year after year, more residents will discover that they can walk right down to the river without fighting through overgrowth to enjoy a long-under-realized amenity.”

Riparian Restoration goals include:

- Clear Asian Bush Honeysuckle and Garlic Mustard species from 850 feet of the east riverbank to an average depth of 75 feet from water’s edge, and enable new microclimates by planting Sycamore trees and other native species.
- Make the White River more visually accessible, and to make it physically accessible to individuals or groups wishing to interact with the river by clearing route impediments caused by overgrowth.

- Utilize created tools such as a written Management Plan and a Work Plan Template to enable easier replication along other stretches of riverbank, thereby increasing community support stemming from scheduled projects.

Drivers under the age 34, particularly young male drivers, were more likely to be found not wearing a seat belt. Additionally, individuals not buckled up in crashes were three times more likely to get injured when the driver was speeding and seven times more likely when the driver was impaired.

“Wearing a seat belt is the easiest and single most effective thing you can do to protect yourself on the road,” ICJI Executive Director Devon McDonald said. “Make it the first thing you do every time you get into a vehicle. It could just save your life.”

Indiana law requires everyone in the vehicle, drivers and passengers, to wear a seat belt. Children under eight must be properly restrained in in a federally-approved child or booster seat.

To make sure everyone is buckled up properly, the department recommends making sure the lap belt is properly secured across the hip and pelvis, below the stomach. The shoulder belt should be positioned across the middle of the chest and away from the neck – never behind the back or under an arm.

If the seat belt doesn’t fit, or the car is older and only has lap belts, ask the car dealer or vehicle manufacturer about seat belt adjusters, extenders or retrofits.

Parents and caregivers can choose the safest car seat for their child by visiting TheRightSeat.com, or to find a certified Child Passenger Safety Technician, who can inspect and assist with the installation of a car seat, visit childseat.in.gov.

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault – it wasn’t something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don’t often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we’re breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.

Family, friends remember former Carmel student shot, killed in Alabama

WISH-TV | wishtv.com

Friends and family gathered Sunday night to remember Schuyler Bradley, an IU student and Carmel High School graduate who was shot and killed last week in Tuscaloosa, Ala.

On Sunday, hundreds of people gathered at the Acacia fraternity at Indiana University, where Bradley was a member, for a candlelight vigil. Bradley's fraternity brothers said that when he was shot, he was trying to break up an argument that escalated.

Bradley's family describes him as a loving and loyal man. They said he was always there for anyone who needed him.

"We are all saddened to learn of the death of CCS alumnus Schuyler Bradley over the weekend. Our thoughts are with his family and friends. He will forever be a Greyhound."

On Sunday, his mother spoke to the crowd through heartbreak.

Westfield man dies in car-truck crash on I-69 in Madison County

WISH-TV | wishtv.com

A Westfield man died Monday in a car-truck crash on Interstate 69 in Madison County.

Around 3:43 p.m. Monday, a Toyota Avalon car driven by Beau J. White, 48, Kokomo, was traveling north in the left lane of I-69 near mile marker 227 when it left the roadway and traveled into the median, hitting a diving cable barrier and driving into the southbound lanes and into the path of a Jeep Gladiator truck driven by Lee Arthur Ken Ingles, 50, Westfield. The vehicles collided nearly head-on, and the Jeep went off the road into a ditch, where it caught fire.

A state trooper was traveling in the area and saw the fire. He rushed to the burning Jeep, where bystanders were pulling Ingles out. Ingles was unresponsive, and life-saving attempts were unsuccessful, ISP said. Ingles was later formally pronounced deceased by the Madison County coroner.

White was taken to St. Vincent Hospital in Anderson and suffered from injuries that did not appear to be life-threatening, ISP said.

Multiple lanes of both directions of I-69 were shut down for the crash, investigation and cleanup.

The crash investigation on Monday was ongoing pending autopsy and toxicology results, ISP said.

B. Paul Hoffman

April 4, 1949 – October 15, 2020

B. Paul Hoffman, 71, passed away at his home in Darlington, Ind., on Thursday evening, October 15, 2020. Born April 4, 1949 in Frankfort, he was the son of the late Byron William and Marcia Marie (Davies) Hoffman.

After graduating from Sheridan High School with the Class of 1967, Paul finally got the chance to become a Boilermaker, enrolling at Purdue and earning his degree in Agriculture in 1971. He later earned an Associate Degree in Accounting from Indiana Business College in 2004.

Paul had a strong work ethic and always seemed to be on the go. After many dedicated years with Farm Bureau, Inc., Paul tried his hand at retirement. It was not a path he was ready to take, and he soon began his second career working with the State of Indiana in various capacities. After several years, Paul decided to give this retirement thing a second chance. Retirement gave him the opportunity to devote more time to the activities that he was truly passionate about. A lifelong farmer, Paul had a love for agriculture, and it showed in every fiber of his being. For many years he managed the Hoffman Family Farm, and even into retirement, couldn't give up being around the activity that he loved. Most recently he had been working for Co-Alliance, and Alan Lyon Farms.

Giving back to the community and the activities he cared about was also important to Paul. He was a member of the Darlington Lions Club and was a longtime volunteer with the Indiana State Fair, doing a little bit of just about everything. Paul was also a member of the Darlington Congregational Church where he participated in their Thursday Night Men's Bible Study.

Paul was also a HUGE Purdue fan. A Boilermaker through and through, he was proud to be a member of the John Purdue Club. Paul was also a very dedicated Sheridan Blackhawk fan and he never grew tired of reminding people that he played on the very first team Bud Wright ever coached at Sheridan. He also loved following his St. Louis Cardinals.

Family was above all else, the most important thing in his life. He loved being a part of whatever activities his kids and grandchildren were involved in.

Paul is survived by his daughters, Hope Rachelle Wooldridge (Craig), Lafayette, and Kasey Leigh Hoffman (John Folsom), Pittsboro; grandchildren, Addyson Leighanne Wooldridge and Leo Byron Wooldridge, both of Lafayette; and his sister, Etta Marie Lakes, Sun Lakes, Ariz. Paul is also survived by his granddog, Ruckus Ru; and by his grandcat Ezra Grayce.

He was preceded in death by his parents; brother, Fred Delbert Hoffman; and brother-in-law, JeRome Lakes.

Visitation will be held from 2 to 8 p.m. on Wednesday, October 21, 2020 at Kercheval Funeral Home, 306 E. 10th St., Sheridan. Everyone is encouraged to wear your favorite Purdue or Sheridan Blackhawks attire, or something from your favorite team.

Private family services will be held on Thursday morning.

Paul will be laid to rest at Bunnell Cemetery in Frankfort. Pastor Seth Stultz will be officiating. Everyone is invited to attend the committal service at the graveside following services at the funeral home.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be presented to the F.B.O. – B. Paul Hoffman Trust, c/o Fountain Trust Company, P.O. Box 98, Darlington, IN 47940.

Donna Carole Kishbaugh (Waters), born in Sheridan, passed away on Monday, October 12, 2020. She is survived by her husband, Greg; son, Dagan; and daughter, Bronwyn. She is survived, as well, by her mother, Carole Christy, and her two brothers, Darryl Waters and Darren Christy, as well as countless other aunts and cousins.

She was a loving and beloved wife, mother, sister and daughter. Donna passed away as she lived, always seeking another level of success, always pushing herself to learn and experience more. She was a beloved and close friend to thousands of people, many of whom turned to her for comfort and support. But mostly, she served as inspiration.

She attended Sheridan High School, where she edited an underground newspaper, and as an assistant to the boys' wrestling team, she became the first female in school history to 'letter' in a boy's sport.

She was the first member of her family to attend college, graduating from Indiana University, where she pursued her dream of ballet dancing. Sidelined by injury, she would follow another life-long passion and receive her degree in theater, with a minor in anthropology.

She went on to earn her Master's degree from Columbia College in Chicago, where she met Greg.

She worked in advertising in Chicago before moving back to Indiana, where she raised her young family. There she built her art business, The Art of Donna, in which she designed artwork for many celebrity clients, participated in New York Fashion Week, and became a staple at numerous cons.

She was an avid traveler and lover of different cultures. She was a vegan who strongly supported all causes that honored and protected animals. (In her house, spiders were carefully carried outside so they would not be harmed). She was a space enthusiast, and an avid lover of art, literature and music. She loved fashion, especially shoes, and long, hot baths, which she turned into works of art every night with a variety of specialized bath bombs. She was a firm advocate for equality for all people.

Never one to settle for a second, she returned to Columbia College last year, completed her thesis and was awarded her Masters of Fine Arts degree. Next, she was planning to study for her doctorate and to publish her thesis as a collection of short stories.

She worked as a college professor, teaching English, theater and writing. She was beloved by her students, many of whom described her as the first instructor they felt ever really cared about them.

She was a masterful marketer, working with film director Guillermo del Toro, as well as editing, planning and promoting all of her husband's work. She was on the Board of Directors for The Center for Ray Bradbury Studies at IUPUI, and she and her husband had recently formed their own publishing company.

She was kind, thoughtful, selfless, funny, brilliant and never turned her back on anyone who needed her help, even if they were complete strangers.

A memorial service will be held for her at 2 p.m. on Saturday, October 24, 2020 at Kercheval Funeral Home, 306 E. 10th St., Sheridan, with visitation following the service.

In lieu of flowers, her family asks that donations be made to the Humane Society in her name.

Soccer semi-state previews

The Fishers boys soccer team made history on Saturday when it won the program's first-ever regional championship. The Tigers triumphed at the Kokomo regional over Homestead and Fort Wayne Carroll, and will now play Saturday at South Bend St. Joseph for a semi-state championship.

After history-making regional title, Tigers boys soccer getting ready for Chesterton

With all of the success that Fishers High School has had in athletics over the past 14 years, it's easy to forget that the school is still young and has quite a bit of history to make.

The Tigers made some history on Saturday. The Fishers boys soccer team triumphed at the Class 3A Kokomo regional, beating Homestead 4-0 in the semi-finals and Fort Wayne Carroll 1-0 in the championship game. It's the first time the Tigers had won a regional in boys soccer.

"We are very excited and very proud of our post-season run," said Fishers coach Phil Schmidt. "We faced a lot of adversity, injuries and tough close losses throughout the season. I'm proud of these boys for staying together, working hard, and getting into a position to make a state run."

The Tigers went into the regional with a record of 10-6-1, which means they are now 12-6-1 after their big victory.

"The goal of the regular season is not to win every game," said Schmidt. "The goal is to keep getting better every single day, learn from each and every game and play your best come tournament time. I believe we did that and the lessons we learned along the way made us better, tougher, and stronger for the post-season. The run we have made, thus far, is something these boys and these families will value and treasure for their entire lives. We have beaten quality teams and put ourselves in the 3A Final Four! I couldn't be prouder of our players, coaches, and program."

The Fishers roster is full of seniors, and they have been mixing in well with a group of talented younger players as well. The Tigers' leading goal scorer is a sophomore, Noah Reinhart. He has nine goals for the season and has assisted on five others.

Senior Angel Roque has the most assists with six and also has four goals to his credit. Two more seniors, Ian Bowron and Moneeb Sayed-Elawad, each have scored seven goals, while sophomore Keiji Nakamae has five goals and four assists.

Senior Nick Rambo and junior Tyler March have held firm as the Fishers goalkeepers. March has eight saves on the season and a 0.883 goals against average (GAA), with Rambo making six saves on a 0.632 GAA.

The Tigers are doing all of this against one of the toughest schedules in the state. MaxPreps ranks Fishers' schedule as one of the top 10 in all of Indiana. During their post-season run, the Tigers have beaten teams such as No. 4 Hamilton Southeastern in the sectional championship, in addition to No. 8-ranked Carroll.

"We play one of the toughest schedules in the state and have faced most of the top teams over the course of the season," said Schmidt. "We lost a few close games to top teams, but have found ways to beat top ranked teams in the post-season. We know we can play with anyone because we play great team defense, play really hard and with a ton of heart. Our guys do not want the season to end! We have a great group of boys and I know win or lose they are going to give it their all."

Fishers will travel to South Bend St. Joseph on Saturday to compete in the 3A north semi-state. The Tigers will take on another ranked team, No. 3 Chesterton, in the first game of the day at 11 a.m.

The Trojans are 19-2 for the season, including an undefeated 7-0 on their way to a Duneland Athletic Conference championship. Chesterton barreled through their DAC schedule, scoring 39 goals while giving up only three.

The Trojans won the Crown Point sectional with victories over Kankakee Valley 7-3, Valparaiso 3-2, and Crown Point in a 4-3 penalty-kick shootout. Chesterton then triumphed at the Goshen regional, scoring 2-0 victories over Plymouth in the semi-finals and Munster in the championship.

Senior Zack Bowser has been a dominant force for the Trojans, scoring 36 goals for the season. He has more than three times the number of goals of Chesterton's second-leading scorer, junior Ryan O'Dell with 11. Senior goalkeeper Charlie Eaton has 52 saves for the year.

"Chesterton is a great program with a strong history" said Schmidt. "They won state two years ago and have been highly-ranked every year for a long stretch. We know we have our hands full against a talented, well-coached and well-organized team. They have very talented attackers and get numbers back defensively. They are an impressive team. My belief is that our tough schedule has prepared us to play a team like Chesterton. I believe it will be a great game that will come down to who can finish the key plays in the key moments of the game. I know we will play our hearts out and I can't wait to compete together as a team at semi-state."

NOBLESVILLE GIRLS PLAY ST. JOSEPH

After the Fishers boys take on Chesterton, the Noblesville girls will play their 3A north semi-state game. The defending state champion and No. 1-ranked Millers will take on the host, St. Joseph, with kickoff around 1 p.m.

The Indians are 16-2 for the season. St. Joseph started the tournament by breezing through the South Bend Adams sectional, taking care of Mishawaka 9-0 and Adams 3-0. The Indians returned to Adams for the regional, beating Penn 1-0 in the semi-finals and Chesterton 2-0 in the championship.

Senior Georgia Place is the leading scorer for St. Joseph, with 24 goals, while senior Natalie Moore has 14 goals and 11 assists to her credit. Senior Hannah O'Connell is the Indians' top goalkeeper, with 47 saves and a 0.365 GAA.

Noblesville will enter the game with a 15-0-1 record, having won its fourth regional title in five years. The Millers beat Homestead 2-1 and Fort Wayne Carroll 4-0 to triumph at the Logansport regional.

Senior Jenna Chatterton leads the Noblesville scoring with 10 goals, followed by two sophomores: Ava Bramblett has eight goals and Meskerem James has seven goals.

BOTH GUERIN CATHOLIC TEAMS AT SEYMOUR

Guerin Catholic will send both of its soccer teams down to Seymour on Saturday, and the Golden Eagles will attempt to make it a semi-state sweep.

The Guerin girls play first, taking on Columbus North at 1 p.m. for the 3A south semi-state championship. The Bull Dogs are 18-1-1 for the season and swept the Conference Indiana title with a 5-0 record.

Columbus North started its tournament run at the Whiteland sectional, where it beat city rival Columbus East 7-0 and Center Grove 2-0. That sent the Bull Dogs to the Bloomington South regional, where they edged out No. 2-ranked Evansville Memorial in a 3-2 shootout in the semi-finals, then beat Bloomington South 2-1 in the championship.

Junior Jenna Lang has been a force for Columbus North, scoring 43 goals, while senior Lauryn Whitley has 22 assists for the season. Sophomore Mallory Gilley has been solid as the Bull Dogs' goalkeeper, with 59 saves.

The Golden Eagles are 15-1-2 for the season. Guerin Catholic played at the East Central regional, where it cruised past Brownsburg 5-0 in the semi-finals, then came from way back to beat Mount

The IHSAA has announced the pairings for the boys state singles and doubles tournament, which begins on Friday at North Central.

In singles, Guerin Catholic senior Cole Metzger will take on Brownsburg's Peter Petrovic in Match 4 of the quarter-finals. The winner will play in the Saturday morning semi-finals and play the winner of Match 3, which will be contested between Terre Haute South senior Canaan Sellers and Fort Wayne Can-

The other two quarter-finals will see North Central senior Ajay Mahentiran play Bloomington North sophomore Nicholas Shirley in Match 1, and South Bend St. Joseph junior Daniel Pries take on Whiteland senior Quinten Gillespie in Match 2.

In doubles, the Hamilton Southeastern team of sophomore Paul Schneider and junior Andrew Spirrisson will play in Match 3 against Munster juniors Charlie

Soccer, volleyball semi-state matches available via pay-per-view on IHSAAtv.org

This Saturday's semi-state matches in the IHSAA Boys & Girls Soccer State Tournament will be video-streamed exclusively in a pay-per-view model for the first time.

With COVID-19 still limiting attendance at different tournament venues, the IHSAA has partnered with select IHSAA Champions Network affiliates from around the state to stream all the live play-by-play action exclusively to its video portal at IHSAAtv.org. This also will allow spectators who are unable or uncomfortable attending in person to still watch the event.

The 12 soccer matches (three at each of the four semi-state sites) are scheduled for this Saturday (Oct. 24) with the winning team in each game advancing to the state finals the following weekend.

Likewise, all volleyball semi-state matches on Oct. 31 and all football semi-state games on Nov. 20, also will be available through pay-per-view.

Live video access will be available for $14.95 per game or $19.95 for access to

all the soccer matches that day. With an all-access purchase, viewers may be able to see up to four matches simultaneously. The same prices will be in effect for the volleyball and football semi-states.

Each game will also be available to purchase on-demand following its conclusion.
