Federal Hill named for Kentucky landmark 2020 reflections,

The name Federal Hill is becoming popular in Noblesville, or perhaps we should say, becoming popular again.

Federal Hill Commons is now a popular city park at the northwest corner of State Road 32 and State Road 19, or if you prefer, Conner Street and Cicero Road. It is not on Federal Hill, but close enough

A new $29 million dollar apartment complex is soon to be built west of the commons, and named Village at Federal Hill, but it's also not on the hill. The point is the name is catching on as new development is underway west of the White River.

The name for the hill is found in records from the 1870s. A school, actually on miliar with the name for the general area of west Noblesville.

There are not many hills around Noblesville, but the ridge line where the original part of Riverview Hospital stands is where the name Federal Hill originated. That ridge or hill runs on north through

The home Foster wrote about was probably unknown to most local residents.

In post-Civil War years, Luther Swain purchased the land now occupied by the hospital and built a home there. Swain and his wife were admirers of Stephen Foster and especially his song "My Old Kentucky" contributes to the city's character.

But, how Federal Hill got its name is owned by Foster's cousin, John Rowan, who named his estate Federal Hill. So, the Swains borrowed the name for their home and farm, a name that has been with us ever since.

It's another bit of historic trivia that

The COVID metrics for Fishers are better this week compared to the previous period, but the Fishers Health Department is not optimistic about what is in store during January.

Is this blessedness only for the circumcised, or also for the uncircumcised? We have been saying that Abraham's faith was credited to him as righteousness. Under what circumstances was it credited? Was it after he was circumcised, or before? It was not after, but before! And he received circumcision as a sign, a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. So then, he is the father of all who believe but have not been circumcised, in order that righteousness might be credited to them.

'Hounds tough out win over Anderson

By RICHIE HALL

CARMEL - For the past few games, the Carmel boys basketball team has been in "next man up" mode.

The Class 4A No. 2 Greyhounds are missing four players, including three starters, but they are still winning, with seniors and young players alike stepping up. They did it again Wednesday when Carmel toughed out a 44-30 victory over Anderson at the Eric Clark Activity Center, improving its record to 8-0 for the season.

Carmel coach Ryan Osborn was pleased to see his younger players helping out the team.

"It's a great opportunity for all those guys to step up and get big varsity minutes before we get to the tournament," said Osborn. "You go into the tournament, you've got guys that have the experience and can help you in certain situations. You never know what you're going to run into."

The Greyhounds ran into a determined Anderson team on Wednesday. Although the 'Hounds never trailed, the Indians kept it close in the first half. The first quarter was a defensive one, with Carmel leading 5-0 at the end of the period. Bryce Beery had three of those points and Brian Waddell the other two.

Things began to roll in the second quarter for both teams. Peter Suder got hot, scoring seven points, including a 3-pointer, and Beery's layin got the Greyhounds ahead 16-9. But back-to-back triples from Anderson's Marcus Armstrong cut Carmel's advantage to 16-15 by half-time.

It was Waddell's turn to shine in the third quarter, as he scored nine points. The senior made two 3-pointers and a traditional three-point play midway through the quarter, giving the 'Hounds a 27-19 lead. That helped Carmel withstand a 6-0 run by the Indians, and a layin by Jared Bonds ended the quarter, putting the Greyhounds up 29-25.

I think in the second half we responded well," said Osborn. "We got back to our stuff. I think in the first half, we got outside of what we typically do to try to create possessions. It shot us in the foot a couple times and kept the game really close in the first half."

The 'Hounds finally pulled away in the fourth quarter. Carmel finished the game on a 10-1 run, which began with Bonds hitting another layin. Suder and Waddell took over after that, which each player scoring four points.

"I felt like we did a better job defending," said Osborn. "Helped us to build a lead in the second half and I thought the seniors and Peter did a good job of finishing."

Waddell finished the game with 18 points and six rebounds, while Suder added 15 points and collected eight rebounds. Carmel's defense was strong with nine blocked shots; Bonds had three blocks, while Suder and Wil Leary both made two blocks.

The Greyhounds play at Fishers on Saturday.
