Carmel schools embarking on facility upgrades

By FRED SWIFT ReadTheReporter.com

Carmel Clay Schools will embark next month on the first of a three-year series of multi-million-dollar improvements to school facilities. It will be accomplished without a property tax increase, according to Assistant Superintendent Roger McMichael.

Bids will be accepted on Feb. 9 for an estimated $20 million series of improvements at Carmel High School that include new chillers and boilers, roof restoration, planetarium upgrades and parking lot expansion. This phase of the overall project will also include work at the soccer and baseball fields with some new bleachers, parking, lighting and a press box. Later this year another $25 million project will be bid that includes renovating and expanding the Performing Arts Department and remodeling the Dale Graham Auditorium. School officials say with many more students involved in performing arts, the current facilities are crowded and outdated. In 2022, the school system will undertake the $43 million construction of a new 50-meter natatorium to be largely devoted to competition swimming. The current swimming facility will then be primarily for recreational swimming. (Carmel swim teams have set national records, winning 51 state championships including 34 consecutive girls swim titles.)

Welcome back for Part 2 of Andy and Dreena's journey towards successful New Year's resolutions. Have you made a resolution in 2021? How's it working out for you?

Dreena's workshop smelled like heaven ... or at least she thought so. Furniture wax mixed with sawdust and the aroma from a freshly cut slab of walnut. Deena inhaled deeply, closed her eyes, and pictured her future. "You're kidding, right?" he said, but softened it with fairs or farmers markets, I can a smile. "Let's try for something a little more ... practical."

"You're right," Dreena agreed. "But what then? Furniture by Dreena? Designs by made sense. His inclination Dreena?" She paused, considering. "You know, I kind of like that one. Designs by Dreena. It has a nice ring to it."

"I think it's great," Andy said. "Can we talk about it over dinner? I'm starving."

They'd been over this taking his role as Dreena's resolution manager more seriously than his own health plans, but she couldn't blame him. She was nervous about "Dreena's Dreams sounds going to a bank, and besides, she was just getting started.

They spent the rest of dinner talking about the website, the business, and what Andy I'm listening.

"Sure, as long would be eating once his diet was over.

"You know," Dreena her inside. "I have reminded him, as gently as possible, "a resolution means you're changing a behavior, it's not just a short-term goal, Andy. At least, I hope so. I'd hate to get started with a business and then just give up."

Unconcerned, Andv continued to think about his favorite meals - pasta, and plenty of it. Burgers and fries. Enchiladas covered in white cheese sauce. "Ready to jog?" he finally asked, and together they headed out the door.

Later that evening, Andy dropped by his mom's house. Due to an illness, she spent most of her time at home. Andy brought groceries once a week and spent more dinners with his mom than not. Her arms, once a haven for a much younger Andy, had grown weak, especially at the wrists. Arthritis had been particularly unkind to his mom over the past year, and she had trouble lifting the bags to the counter. Andy knew she didn't like him "taking care of her" - she thought she was a burden. Andy, of course, didn't see it that way. She was his mom.

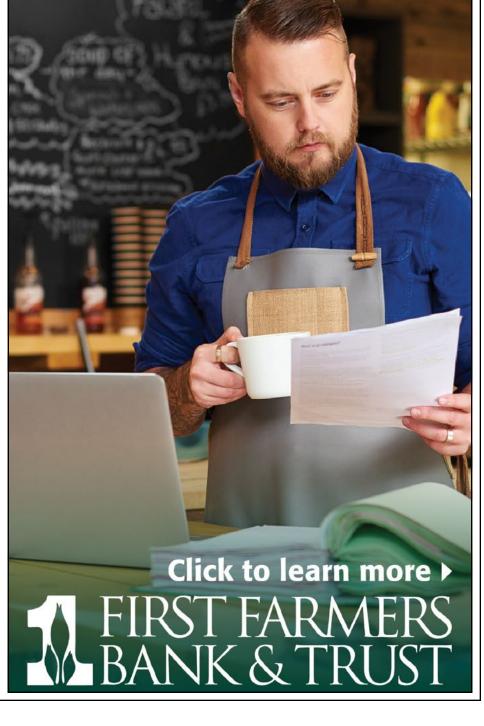

"I'm helping Dreena build a website, Mom," he told her, putting away the groceries. "And she's helping me stick to my healthy living plans."

Andy's mom smiled and Andy had to admit that patted him on the shoulder. "That Dreena," she said. "She's really something. Is she single?'

Girls basketball Shamrocks beat Tigers, clinch share of HCC championship

By RICHIE HALL

FISHERS - With a share of the Hoosier Crossroads Conference championship in sight, the Westfield girls basketball team sprinted to the finish line.

The Shamrocks used a solid defensive effort to beat Fishers 54-33 last Thursday night at the Tiger Den. With the victory, Westfield finished conference play at 6-1, giving the 'Rocks at least a share of the title. This is the second time that Westfield has won an HCC championship, the first time was in 2016.

"I'm so proud of the kids, I'm so proud of their effort," said Shamrocks coach Ginny Smith. "I just couldn't be more pleased with the direction of this team. From a culture perspective, everything is really in a great place. They care about each other and they're putting each other above themselves, and that's just what you would hope to see as a coach. And I couldn't be prouder."

Westfield scored the first nine points of the game, starting with a basket by Chesney Tebbe. Olivia Robey took over after that, pouring in the next seven points. The 'Rocks didn't allow Fishers to get on the scoreboard until Hailey Smith made a free throw with 1:20 left in the first quarter.

Westfield led 11-3 after the first quarter. A jump shot by Katie Burton got the Tigers within 13-5, but the Shamrocks answered that with with playing well. a 7-0 run. Hailey Remaks made scored back-to-back baskets. The momentum carried Westfield to a 26-9 lead at halftime.

Huskies overwhelm Blackhawks

By RICHIE HALL

ARCADIA -Hamilton Heights cruised to its third straight victory last Saturday, beating county rival Sheridan 84-47 at the Huskies' gym.

It was another high-scoring performance for Heights, which is averaging over 80 points per game for the season. The Blackhawks played the Huskies close during the first part of the first quarter, but Heights used an 18-2 run that stretched through the first and second periods to take control and continued to build its lead from that point forward.

"I thought our guys did a nice job," said Huskies coach Chad Ballenger. "I thought our guys did a nice job. Offense really getting out and going. Defense, I think we made some mistakes here and there. But overall, I'm pleased. Big county game. They were on a nice roll until they got beat in overtime last night. They had already won five games and Tod's done a good job getting them playing at a different pace."

Ballenger noted that the Heights teams is missing seven players from both varsity and junior varsity who returned on Monday. Despite those absences, the Huskies were able to construct their latest win streak over rivals such as Lapel, Western Boone and Sheridan.

"Some of the guys that weren't playing as much minutes got a bunch of minutes the last two weeks, so that makes us better," said Ballenger. "We're going to come back next week and be deeper. I'm real pleased about that."

Heights led 8-7 early in the quarter. Both teams had their long-range shooting going early, with Noah Linville making a 3-pointer for the Huskies and Ethan Moistner hitting a 3 for the 'Hawks.

Gus Etchison scored backto-back baskets, the latter of which was the first of his five dunks for the game, to get Heights up 12-7. Kyle Eden cut the lead to 12-10 with a triple, but the Huskies then blasted off on their long run, which got them ahead 30-12 early in the second quarter.

Isaac Wilson scored nine points, accounting for half of the run, with Etchison adding four points. Braden Kinder finished the run with a 3-pointer, and Luke Carroll scored on a layin.

"Chad does a good job with them," said Sheridan coach Tod Windlan. "They're well-coached and they move the ball extremely well."

Heights used an 11-0 run late in the second quarter to lead 43-18 before Moistner made a jump shot for the last basket of the half. Etchison scored five points, a 3-pointer and another dunk. Etchison opened the second half with yet another dunk.

The Huskies kept the pace going in the third quarter, adding another 21 points. Etchison and Wilson each scored seven points during the period, with Wilson making a 3. Etchison made a three-point play and Carroll scored the final basket of the quarter to put Heights up 64-37.

Sheridan had a good quarter, with Moistner hitting three triples on his way to 11 points that period. Eden added six points, all on lavins.

Heights pulled away in the fourth quarter with a 12-0 run. After Etchison hit two free throws, the Huskies scored on five straight layins to go up 78-

Everybody stepped up for Heights. Etchison led the way with 30 points, eight assists, five rebounds and five steals. Wilson totaled 21 points and six rebounds. Carroll dominated the boards with 19 rebounds to go with 14 points. In fact, Carroll outrebounded Sheridan all by himself, as the Blackhawks had 16 rebounds as a team. Linville handed out six assists.

Moistner scored 27 points for Sheridan, including five 3-pointers, and collected seven rebounds. Kyle Eden scored 14 points while Corbin Murray handed out five assists. It was a tough weekend for the 'Hawks, but Windlan wants his team to keep moving forward.

"I told them, don't get their heads too far down after this," said Windlan. "Our first eight games, we were in tough, hardfought games all eight games."

The Huskies are 8-2 and play Friday at Tipton in a Hoosier Conference East Division game. Sheridan is 5-4 and plays Hoosier Heartland Conference games Tuesday at Clinton Central and Friday at Taylor, then hosts North Miami on Saturday. The 'Hawks are 1-1 in conference play.
