

Hevesy to oppose Campbell for Republican chair position

Janus names Yolanda Kincaid as new CEO

Submitted

Hamilton County Republican Chairperson Laura Campbell of Carmel will have an opponent in Saturday's reorganization caucus. Fishers resident Paul Hevesy has announced his candidacy for county's Republican Party chair.

With the caucus vote one week away, Paul Hevesy has formally declared his candidacy for Hamilton County Republican Party Chairperson.

Hevesy is an 11-plus-year Fishers resident with over 20 years of corporate leadership experience. During his career, Hevesy says he has transformed corporate culture by promoting and engineering business efficiencies and led global teams driving consistent growth. He lives with his wife and four kids, and he is active in his church and in his community.

With this candidacy, Hevesy says he is looking to build fresh momentum for the Republican Party of Hamilton

Hevesy

County.

"As a long-time Hamilton County resident and fan, I realized that it's time I did more," Hevesy said during his announcement. "Our Republican Party is a party of freedom and hope, both of which I plan to magnify if given the opportunity by our precinct committeemen on March 6. A strong, vocal Republican Party in Hamilton County is important for Indiana. We have a lot of influence and we should use it – as a unified party – to bring hope and light to some very challenging times.

We have a great message and the more we are connected, unified, and focused, the better off our communities will be. The better Indiana will be. And in the end, the better the nation will be."

"Paul represents the leadership and drive we need," said Micah Beckwith, former Republican candidate for Congress in Indiana's 5th District. "His record of success in all his endeavors combined with his passion to reinvigorate the party as a whole will breathe new life into our local and statewide efforts. In my view, he is the only choice. Vote for him or accept the status quo."

Hevesy says he plans to connect with as many of the precinct committeemen and vice committeemen as possible over the next week to introduce himself, share his ideas, and solicit feedback.

For more information, Hevesy can be reached via phone at (317) 606-5460 or by email at paul.hevesy@protonmail.com.

HSE school board faces major decision

By LARRY LANNAN
LarryInFishers.com

Hamilton Southeastern Schools has faced a number of challenges in recent months. There have been issues on race relations. The district must find $5 million in budget savings in the coming school year due to a COVID-related drop in student numbers. Like most school districts around the nation, trying to have in-person classes while protecting the health of students and staff during a pandemic has been a challenge.

There are more I could list, but the most important decision school board members face is the hiring of a new superintendent. The current superintendent, Allen Bourff, has announced his intention to retire at the end of June this year. The board has announced a new superintendent should be named at the Wednesday, March 24 meeting.

The seven board members have been gathering the past two weeks in executive session to interview candidates for the opening. State law allows this be done in private.

In a board session on Feb. 23, Board President

Janet Pritchett said she was pleased with the candidates and expects she and her fellow board members will be faced with "a difficult choice."

The board has one more executive session set for Thursday, March 4, presumably aimed at discussing the new superintendent. Once the board decides on a candidate, a contract must be agreed upon before the decision is finalized.

Pritchett said the board will "hopefully" announce the new superintendent at the March 24 board session.

In the Indiana legal code, under "General Powers and Duties of School Corporation," the first one listed is to appoint the superintendent of schools. The board also has the responsibility to evaluate the superintendent.

The decision being made now by the Hamilton Southeastern Board of School Trustees will have a major impact on the community for many years to come. The decision on appointing the person to lead the local school system, the fourth-largest in the state, will tell the community a great deal about how education moves forward in Fishers and the outlying areas served by HSE Schools.

Crowded bar in Fishers prompts investigation

By RICHARD ESSEX
WISH-TV | wistv.com

The owners of Ale Emporium in Fishers have suspended live music indefinitely after the bar had problems with people not wearing masks or social distancing this past weekend.

Pictures posted to social media show a crowded bar on a Saturday night with very few people wearing masks. And it is hard to make the argument that social distancing was being practiced.

Tony Kwiatkowski, one of the Ale Emporium owners, told the Reporter's newsgathering policy is to keep people seated, patrons are asked to wear masks when not eating or drinking, and they don't allow anyone to stand around in groups. He said the band drew a bigger crowd than expected.

On Monday afternoon, inspectors from the City of Fishers were at the Ale Emporium to investigate.

"I just explained to them that it was just an isolated incident where there were some 21st birthday parties," Kwiatkowski said. "The band called up the birthday and the parties up to the stage to just sing happy birthday to celebrate, so people congregated toward the front where the band was playing."

He said looking back, he should have told the band not to call people up to the stage.

Ashley Elrod, the communications director for the City of Fishers, said they started getting complaints on Sunday. This is the first time they

IHSAA, Indiana Department of Health partnering to end vaping among Hoosier teens

The REPORTER
The Indiana High School Athletic Association (IHSAA) and the Indiana Department of Health have formed a new partnership to combat the vaping epidemic among teens. State Health Commissioner Dr. Kristina Box and IHSAA Commissioner Paul Neidig made the announcement jointly on Tuesday. “We’re extremely pleased to be partnering with the IHSAA,” Dr. Box said. “Nationally, 3.5 million youth are currently vaping and using e-cigarettes. In Indiana, we saw more than a 300 percent increase from 2012 to 2018. We must do all we can to stop this and to prevent the next generation from becoming addicted to nicotine, especially in these times when ensuring respiratory health among young people is crucial.”

“In addition to regulating, supervising and administering 22 high school sports, the purpose of the IHSAA is to assist in health-related situations like this one,” Neidig added. “We can help educate students, parents and educators about vaping by activating our statewide network of high school contacts and media resources.” The campaign includes posters for schools to display on campus, a robust social media program, a new “Don’t Puff This Stuff” website, and radio and television commercials that will be aired on IHSAA broadcast properties throughout the year. “We’re welcoming the IHSAA to our team with open arms,” Dr. Box said. “No youth organization in our state is better equipped to communicate with Indiana high school students and their families than the IHSAA.”

have received any complaints about this particular bar. “It is my understanding there is a violation of not distancing between parties, individuals are supposed to be seated, also no mask-wearing, being involved once you are up from your table, and those are all orders from the governor,” Elrod said. Elrod said the city doesn’t have a legal mechanism in place to fine business owners for violating the governor’s health order. The city’s health department will review proper procedures with the owners and staff. Fishers city officials could turn this investigation over to the Indiana Excise Police for further review. I-Team 8 was told the city has not turned any cases involving violations of the governor’s health order over to the Excise Police so far.

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault – it wasn't something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don't often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we're breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.

Joe Weingarten suggests Spartz “has nothing to do with everyday Americans”

Dear Editor:

Rep. Spartz votes against helping people with the COVID-19 relief package and is upset that the Democrats rejected her amendments.

She claimed the relief package was full of items that had nothing to do with the pandemic. Yet not one of her amendments have anything to do with COVID-19.

Let's take a look “improve government transparency and accountability, assist juvenile justice and foster care systems, and address concerns with standardized testing.” She went on to say “this bill does not address the concerns of everyday Americans.” So increased money for vaccines, money for small business, increased money for unemployment and direct payments to struggling Americans. According to her it appears these have nothing to do “everyday Americans.”

Maybe Rep. Spartz has nothing to do with everyday Americans.

Illinois reader wonders if voters are to blame for low standards for politicians

Dear Editor:

British political journalist Mehdi Hasan raised an interesting point in a recent interview with former White House Communications Director Anthony Scaramucci. In discussing Donald Trump's second impeachment Trial, Hasan suggested that over time, the media, numb to Trump's low standards, started grading him on a curve, and wondered if we are holding the whole Republican Party to the same low standards.

Scaramucci agreed, but haven't we all lowered our standards over time? As a baby boomer, I'm well acquainted with being “graded on a curve.” I once received a “B-” on a science test with 68 percent because more than half the class studied even less than I did.

Curve grading extends beyond impeachment trials.

The late Marion Barry Jr. served three terms as Mayor of Washington, D.C., entered jail on a drug charge, then won a fourth term as mayor. Virginia legislator Joseph Morrissey won his bid for re-election to the state House of Delegates in 2014 despite serving jail time for contributing to the delinquency of a minor. He ran his campaign from jail. Despite the Monica Lewinsky scandal, President Bill Clinton left office with a 66 percent approval rating. The Trump administration begat several books on sinking standards.

Academics, ethics, sports, and interpersonal relations are all subject to curve grading. It's easy to mock the Marion Barrys of the world, but someone, fully aware of their indiscretions, re-elected them anyway.

Long ago, there was another standard: “Fool me once, shame on you...”

Braun, Young offer resolution honoring 100th anniversary of Hoosier Gym, 35th anniversary of Hoosiers

The REPORTER

U.S. Senators Mike Braun and Todd Young on Tuesday introduced a resolution on the floor of the United States Senate honoring the Hoosier Gym. This basketball gymnasium and museum is located in Knightstown and was the filming location for the 1986 basketball movie Hoosiers, starring Gene Hackman and Dennis Hopper.

"Every weekend, Hoosiers head to the local gym to watch high school basketball, and this resolution honors one of our most iconic gyms where the movie Hoosiers was filmed 35 years ago," Sen. Braun said. "Not only am I honored to introduce this resolution on the first day of our boys basketball state tournament, in a few weeks the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament will descend on Indiana, which is a win for local economies throughout the state. My best wishes to all involved in both boys and girls state tournaments this year and appreciate the IHSAA and local school officials working to ensure this class of basketball players get the opportunity to play in our state tournament. A special vote of confidence for the Jasper Wildcats as they make a trip to Evansville this evening!"

"Hoosiers is a classic sports movie, but only because it accurately captured our state's obsession with basketball from the smallest towns to the largest cities," Sen. Young said. "As we begin the IHSAA tournament and prepare for March Madness, it's fitting that we honor these milestone anniversaries."

Muriel Haslun Heiland June 16, 1927 – February 20, 2021

Muriel Haslun Heiland, 93, passed away peacefully at home in Carmel on Saturday, February 20, 2021.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Florence and William Haslun; brother, Bruce Haslun; and sister-in-law, Jane Haslun. She is survived by her two brothers, William Haslun, Hartford, Conn., and Robert (Ursula) Haslun, Oberlin, Ohio; sister-in-law, Carol Erhardt, Falmouth, Mass.; two daughters, Andrea (Randy) Goode, Carmel, and Michele (Lawrence Schofer) Heiland, Louisville, Ky.; her grandson, Ryan (Laura) Goode; and great-grandson, Owen Goode, Carmel.

Muriel was born in New York City. She attended The Northfield School in Massachusetts. Muriel graduated from Smith College in Massachusetts. After the war, Muriel served as a Goodwill Ambassador to Heidelberg, Germany, writing human interest articles for a local New York newspaper. She spent the following year giving lectures relating her experiences to local community groups. Muriel moved to Louisville, Ky., in 1967. She retired from First National Bank of Louisville/National City Bank of Kentucky, vice president international division in 1991.

Throughout her lifetime, Muriel valued family more than anything else. In 1954, she created a multi-generational home after her mother passed away, moving with her husband and new baby to a home with her father and her two younger brothers. It brought her joy to have three generations sharing and caring for each other. It was wonderful that in recent years it was her turn to be cared for when she made a move from Louisville, Ky., to Carmel to daughter, Andrea's, and son-in-law, Randy's home.

Muriel cherished family holidays and celebrations. She adored gathering multiple generations together to share the bond of family, sometimes with events as simple as the Sunday night dinners in the 1960s with her grandparents, Edgar and Florence Chapman, and their fourth-generation great-grandchildren, Andrea and Michele. These family traditions began early in Muriel's younger life when as a small child she enjoyed summer family vacations on the lake in New Hampshire; again, with aunts, uncles and cousins of many generations. This tradition continued for many decades to eventually include her own two daughters. Later in her life, these summer family gatherings shifted to Cape Cod in order to be closer to brother, Bob, and sister-in-law, Ursula, who ran The College Light Opera Company during the summer months. She adored the Cape Cod family gatherings to celebrate birthdays and weddings with beloved nieces and nephews, Jane, Nancy, Chip, and Erik, and later with their children.

Muriel treasured the family genealogy that her brother, Bill, diligently researched, compiled, and presented to the family. She recently remarked that there was a picture in the family genealogy of her as the youngest in a picture of four generations, and then in 2019 she was featured in a family picture as the oldest of four generations. She viewed her connection of the family span of generations as quite remarkable.

Muriel's connection with her son-in-law Randy (also in international banking) was a unique and special one spanning 45 years. She appreciated any opportunity to linger over dinner and reminisce with Randy about the early years of international banking when they both worked for FNBL/National City.

After retiring from banking, Muriel spent several years substitute teaching at Kentucky Country Day School in Louisville. Again, this was a way she enjoyed being connected and involved with family through the school where her daughter Andrea taught for 32 years and grandson Ryan graduated.

Muriel had a special bond with grandson Ryan. Muriel's love of literature, history, and politics created a connection that had them engaged in endless conversations. (Their combined knowledge even earned them the title "trivia team champs" one night at a local restaurant – a fact she referred to proudly.)

Birthdays were never overlooked with Muriel and there probably wasn't a single one that was celebrated without the traditional family angel food cake with Great Aunt Ida's Norwegian mocha icing. In June, the family gathered together to celebrate her 93rd birthday with the newest member of Muriel's family in attendance, Owen Francis Goode. It was time for her to introduce the fourth generation to Great Aunt Ida's mocha icing.

A memorial gathering of the family will be scheduled on Cape Cod at a later date.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

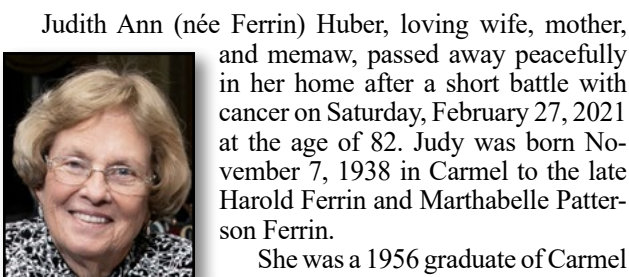

This is also why you pay taxes, for the authorities are God's servants, who give their full time to governing. Give to everyone what you owe them: If you owe taxes, pay taxes; if revenue, then revenue; if respect, then respect; if honor, then honor. Let no debt remain outstanding, except the continuing debt to love one another, for whoever loves others has fulfilled the law. The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery," "You shall not murder," "You shall not steal," "You shall not covet," and whatever other command there may be, are summed up in this one command: "Love your neighbor as yourself." Love does no harm to a neighbor. Therefore love is the fulfillment of the law. And do this, understanding the present time: The hour has already come for you to wake up from your slumber, because our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed. The night is nearly over; the day is almost here. So let us put aside the deeds of darkness and put on the armor of light. Let us behave decently, as in the daytime, not in carousing and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and debauchery, not in dissension and jealousy. Rather, clothe yourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ, and do not think about how to gratify the desires of the flesh.

Royals, Shamrocks advance to semi-finals

By RICHIE HALL

CARMEL - Basketball fans found some familiar and welcome sights at Carmel's Eric Clark Activity Center Tuesday night as play began in the Class 4A Sectional 8 tournament.

There was a nice-sized crowd. Student sections were back. And the games were exciting, too. The first contest saw Hamilton Southeastern tough out a 44-40 victory over rival Fishers. In the second game, Westfield put on a blistering long-range shooting performance to beat Zionsville 61-47. Both teams advanced to the Friday semi-finals, where the Royals will play host Carmel and the Shamrocks will take on Noblesville.

WORKING FOR IT

Southeastern led for most of the opening game, but the Tigers made their district-mates work for it. The two teams traded the lead four times during the first quarter, which began with baskets by the Royals' Dalton Retzner and Vinny Buccilla for a 4-0 advantage.

"We talked about two things," said Southeastern coach Brian Satterfield. "One was getting off to a great start and I thought we did that, just being locked in. At the defensive end, I thought we did a pretty good job of that for the most part tonight."

Jeffrey Simmons got Fishers on the board with a 3-pointer, then Myles Stringer's rebound basket put the Tigers in front 5-4. The back-and-forth continued for the entire quarter: Southeastern scored four straight points, including a 3 by Isaac Bowman, and Fishers answered that with four consecutive points; Bryce Williams' layin put the Tigers ahead 9-8.

Matt Brewer's two free throws gave the Tigers an 11-9 lead with 54.6 seconds left in the period. But the Royals would begin a 7-0 run that stretched into the second quarter. The first period finished with a basket by Loudon Sundling to tie the game, then John McCall's free throw finished the quarter. Southeastern led 12-11 and would never trail again.

Sam Jacobs started the second quarter by scoring four consecutive points. Later, the Royals' Dalton Retzner made a layin to give HSE its biggest lead of the game at 21-14, then a Jacobs basket put Southeastern ahead 23-16.

The first half finished with two free throws by Charlie Smith, getting the Tigers within 24-20 at the break. The two teams traded baskets for the first part of the quarter, with a McCall floater giving the Royals a 30-24 lead. Simmons and Smith made layins to cut the lead to 30-

Huskies pull away from Yorktown

Hamilton Heights pulled away from Yorktown in the third quarter, and that led the Huskies to a 66-53 victory in the opening game of Class 3A Sectional 24 at New Castle on Tuesday.

Heights led 17-13 after the first quarter, with Gus Etchison draining four 3-pointers during that period. The Tigers came back to tie the game at 24-24 at one point before the Huskies pulled ahead 36-34 at halftime when Etchison hit a buzzer-beating triple. Lucas Letsinger also had two 3-pointers during the quarter.

Heights blasted ahead in the third period, outscoring Yorktown 21-8 to take a 57-42 lead. Etchison poured in another 11 points. The Huskies then held their lead during the fourth quarter, making five of seven free throws along the way. Noah Linville went 3-for-4 from the line.

“We relaxed, we made shots, our defense was really good,” said Heights coach Chad Ballenger. He credited his Huskies with rebounding better in the second half, and said his team “really got to control the tempo” once it had the lead.

Etchison finished the game with 30 points, making seven 3-pointers. Letsinger had three triples for nine points. Luke Carroll led the rebounds with seven, followed by Etchison with six and Isaac Wilson with five.

The Huskies are 16-4 and play Muncie Burriss at 6 p.m. Friday in the first semi-final game at New Castle.

28, which Retzner answered with two free throws. A Williams basket was the last score of the period, which finished with Southeastern up 32-30.

Williams scored again to open the fourth quarter, and the score was now tied at 32-32. Buccilla got the Royals back in front with a floater, and the Royals would stay in the lead until the final buzzer. Fishers got within 36-35 during the middle part of the period, but a 6-0 run put the Royals up 42-35, matching their largest lead of the game. McCall made two baskets and Buccilla hit a layin.

“We’ve got guys that have been in there and put in all the time and the effort,” said Satterfield. “It’s a special group and the season’s been a little up and down with a lot of things that have gone on. We were able to find a way tonight.”

The Tigers made one last push, getting to within 42-40 with 7.5 seconds remaining. But Fishers had to foul, and Alex Totton clinched the game by making two free throws.

Retzner finished the game with 13 points, while Buccilla and McCall both scored 10. Retzner and McCall both collected five rebounds. The Royals, now 12-10 for the season, assisted 14 of their 15 baskets, with Buccilla dishing out five and McCall handing out four.

ter. Zionsville got within 28-19 midway through, but the Shamrocks finished the half with back-to-back 3s from Nic Depasquale and Benji Welch.

The Eagles came out on a rampage to begin the third quarter, going on a quick 7-0 run that led Westfield to call a timeout. When play resumed, Haffner threw in his third 3-pointer of the game. The junior was hot in the period, making two more 3s.

“I thought that was a key moment in the game was, how were we going to respond to that,” said ‘Rocks coach Shane Sumpter. “And we sure did.”

Smith scored the final points of the quarter by making two free throws, giving the Shamrocks a 48-33 lead. Those foul shots were the start of a 13-0 run by Westfield that stretched well into the fourth quarter. Smith scored 10 of those points, including two triples. The other three were scored by Haffner, who nailed his sixth 3-pointer of the game.

When the dust settled, the ‘Rocks led 59-33 with 4:47 left in the game. Zionsville went on a 14-0 run, draining four straight 3s, but Westfield had too big a lead to make up. Alex Romack gave the Shamrocks the last word, hitting a layin with 19.4 seconds to go.

“Really proud of our effort today, and our defensive effort was really good with Zionsville,” said Sumpter. The coach complimented the Eagles as “a good team,” noting their two star sophomores: Logan Imes led Zionsville with 14 points and Nicholas Richart added six points.

“I got a lot of respect for them,” said Sumpter.

Smith finished the game with 23 points, including five 3-pointers. Haffner’s six 3s equaled 18 points, while Depasquale added 10 points. Haffner led the rebounds with seven. Smith dished out eight assists, with Welch handing out four.

Westfield improved to 17-4 after the victory, while Zionsville finished its season 14-8.

Westfield's Braden Smith reacts after his teammate Benji Welch makes a 3-pointer during the Shamrocks' Sectional 8 game with Zionsville Tuesday at Carmel. Westfield beat the Eagles 61-47 and plays Noblesville in the Friday semi-finals.

Williams led the Tigers with 12 points, followed by Simmons with 11 and Smith with 10. Smith also had six rebounds and five steals, while Simmons pulled five rebounds.

Fishers finished its regular season 14-6. The Tigers were relatively young, with two returning starters and a handful of players with varsity experience, and had to learn a new system without the benefit of summer practices. First-year coach Garrett Winegar said he thought “this group was really resilient in what we were able to do.

“We ended the regular season 14-6 and had a really nice run there, winning 10 of our last 12 games after being quarantined twice,” said Winegar. “I’m proud of those guys for how they worked and how we defended. I think we defended well most of the season. Just got to find a way to score a little more.”

THIRTEEN 3-POINTERS

After an early series of basket-trading, Westfield pulled away from Zionsville thanks to an incredible shooting performance that resulted in 13 3-pointers for the Shamrocks.

The Eagles led 5-4 in the first quarter before Westfield finished the period on a 13-2 run. Cam Haffner made the Shamrocks’ first two triples, and just like that Westfield led 10-5. Braden Smith added five points, including his own 3, and Luke Van Dyke made a layin to give the ‘Rocks a 17-7 lead after one.

Westfield continued to roll in the second period, pouring in another 17 points to take a 34-19 lead. Smith threw in two more 3s during the early part of the quar-

Trailblazers fall to Heritage Christian

University's boys basketball season came to an end Tuesday night in a 62-45 Class 2A Sectional 42 loss to host Heritage Christian.

The host Eagles put together a 16-0 run over a five-minute stretch spanning the first and second quarters to turn a 4-4 tie in to a 20-4 lead that University could not overcome.

Senior Camden Brown had 14 points in his final game to lead University as he battled foul trouble on the night. Junior Larry Pierce had 12 points and senior Matt Jones had nine on a trio of three-pointers.

Kasey Ash-Simpson had five points and handed out a team-high five assists.

The normally staunch University defense had a rough night as they allowed more than 60 points for just the third time this season and only the seventh time in the last four seasons (97 games). Heritage Christian blistered the nets for 62 percent on 24 of 39 shooting.

University coach Brandon Lafferman tipped his cap to the victorious Eagles. "Congratulations to Heritage Christian. They played really good team ball to-night and made a lot more plays than we were able to make on either end of the floor."

"I'm proud of my teams, especially the seniors (Camden Brown, Larry Pierce and Adam Witzman), on completing this Covid ridden season. We had ups and downs, and it definitely ended with a rough performance."

University battled back late in the second quarter to trail just 28-18 at half-time and got within nine early in the third quarter, but the Eagles made 9 of 10 field goal attempts in the period and University committed six turnovers to put the game out of reach, 49-28 after the third quarter.

Heritage Christian improved to 11-8 and will play Irvington Prep Academy on Friday night.

The Trailblazers finish the season at 14-7. Despite returning just one starter, University won their fourth consecutive Pioneer Academic Athletic Conference championship and recorded wins over Class 2A No. 7 and Circle City Conference champion Covenant Christian and over the co-champions of the Indiana Crossroads Conference (Cardinal Ritter) and the Hoosier Heartland Conference (Eastern). This was the program's 10th consecutive winning season.
