

Carmel firefighters offer COVID vaccine to homebound residents

The REPORTER

The Carmel Fire Department is working with the Hamilton County Health Department to administer COVID-19 vaccines to people who are unable to leave their homes. This week, 18 homebound residents were vaccinated in Carmel.

The program is part of the Homebound Hoosier EMS Vaccine Administration Program and provides vaccines to at-risk, hard-to-reach, and immobile residents. Carmel Fire EMS Chief Jon Alverson was involved with planning and implementing this program to be used in Carmel, as well as playing a key role in working with fire departments throughout the state.

“This is one more way for the City of Carmel to help our residents who are most in need of the vaccination, but have been unable to get out to get the shots,” Mayor Jim Brainard said. “We are doing all we can to take advantage of science and new ways of administering potentially life-saving vaccines so that we can fight off this deadly pandemic virus.”

The Hamilton County Health Department is working with Carmel and other cities in Hamilton County to provide these vaccines to people where they live. Those who are homebound should call the Homebound Hoosier number at 1-800-986-3505 to schedule a visit.

Sandwich generation members pass down through families

I was thinking about my maternal grandmother recently, whom I loved deeply. She passed away from colon cancer when I was only nine. I have vivid memories of her and hold her close in my heart. “Grandma Grew,” as I called her (I don’t know why), was my favorite person in the whole world.

Then it suddenly hit me. My own mother was also in the sandwich generation. She was in a tougher position in some ways, as she had a small child at home. This had to be rough on Mom knowing her mother was terminal and had a special bond with her youngest daughter.

Growing up, I loved my “Grandma Day” where I would visit my grandmother every week on a Tuesday or Wednesday. It was even better when school wasn’t in session. Getting to spend an entire day with Grandma Grew was an incredible treat. She always made my favorite dinners or asked Grandpa to get McDonald’s Filet-O-Fish, which I loved.

Update #54 from Dr. Derek Arrowood, Superintendent, Hamilton Heights School Corporation.

As we enter into spring break, please remain diligent in fighting the spread of COVID-19 not only in our schools, but also in our communities and wherever your travels may take you over the next two weeks. While this situation is not yet in our rearview mirror, we can begin to see some light at the end of the pandemic tunnel.

The City of Fishers will pay local neighborhoods $66,659 in Vibrant Neighborhoods Matching Grant money recommended by a committee to spruce up areas at least 10 years old.

City officials told the Board of Works and Public Safety a requirement that a neighborhood may only apply for a grant one out of three years resulted in some applications being denied. As part of the action taken Tuesday, the board approved language removing the one out of three year requirement.

Find the full list of the applications approved and denied at this link.

Neighborhoods receiving the money will be responsible for compliance with all laws that apply.

In another action, the board voted to provide several fireworks displays this summer with a contract not to exceed $135,000 for Madbomber Fireworks. Fireworks events include:

- A June 15 city celebration for high school graduating seniors
- Spark Fishers

Junior high school students in Hamilton Southeastern (HSE) Schools will be on a four-day in-person class schedule beginning Monday, April 12, following a unanimous vote by the school board supporting the action recommended by Superintendent Allen Bourff. Monday through Thursdays will be in-person, with Fridays set aside as e-learning days.

Bourff cited junior high school family survey results, with 75 percent of parents submitting responses. A total of 82 percent of the responses favored in-person learning and 70 percent were in favor of the four-day in-person schedule, compared to the hybrid method.

Grandma would arrange my stuffed animals just the way I liked them upon entering her home. My favorite, a small red kitty, rises to the top of my memories. Grandma and I would play countless hours of Tic-Tac-Toe, Go Fish, and Old Maid. She possessed never-ending patience with me, especially when I showed her a new drawing for probably the 200th time!

Looking back now, I imagine Mom loved the arrangement as well! She was a stay-at-home mom, which I know can be challenging (speaking from my experience as a work-at-home mom.) I hope she enjoyed herself when I visited Grandma.

And when Mom and Dad traveled and I got to stay with Grandma and Grandpa, I felt like I hit the jackpot! I remember a big snowstorm hit during the school year when I was with them. Having those “snow days” at Grandma’s house made me over-the-moon happy. I’m not sure they were particularly thrilled to have their energetic, chatty granddaughter at home unexpectedly!

While my grandfather was still alive and probably did most of the caretaking when Grandma got sick, I know Mom had to have helped. She is an only child. I’m sure the stress was hard on her.

I actually had a gut feeling even at that young age that Grandma was going to die. When Mom and Dad told me that she had passed on the morning of my First Communion, I sobbed in Mom’s arms in our kitchen. Strangely, I still wanted to receive the sacrament that day. Mom must have had great strength to let me do that!

Yes, I know I have my own challenges today as a sandwich generation member. But my boys were pre-teens when this started in 2013. Now at ages 18 and 20, they’re sad that their grandmother has her struggles at age 88, but they can handle it better.

Knowing that Mom also went through this makes me feel even closer to her – just when I thought our relationship couldn’t get any stronger!

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault – it wasn’t something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don’t often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we’re breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.

Carmel-based business Mr. Canary featured on Good Morning America

The REPORTER
Earlier this morning, Carmel-based Mr. Canary was featured on Good Morning America's Deals & Steals, putting the local woman-owned business in a national spotlight.

The program featured the company's popular Finch Sock Feeder with a discount and fast shipping. Bosma Enterprises is assisting the company with fulfillment, ensuring customers receive the bird feeders quickly and properly.

As part of the promotion, Mr. Canary agreed to produce and ship a certain amount of products within a certain time frame. Due to Mr. Canary's experience with Bosma, owner Jan Long was familiar with Bosma Enterprises, including the organization's supply chain capabilities and mission-driven approach, and knew Bosma could handle the increased demand. Mr. Canary began partnering with Bosma Enterprises in 2018 for warehousing and shipping needs.

"Mr. Canary was very fortunate to have this opportunity, and our company is always looking for opportunities to do good through business," said Long. "Bosma Enterprises does great work, and we have full confidence in their supply chain capabilities. More importantly, they do a tremendous job helping people who are blind and visually impaired connect to their communities, providing meaningful employment to a population too often overlooked in both our economy and society."

Bosma Enterprises provides job opportunities for people who are blind or visually impaired through a variety of business lines, such as warehousing, fulfillment, sales/marketing, GoodWorks® products and services, health care kitting, and contract packaging. The company is the business arm of Bosma, one of Indiana's largest nonprofit organizations. For more than 100 years, Bosma has provided training and rehabilitation services to Hoosiers who are blind or visually impaired.

"We're proud to call Mr. Canary our partner and appreciate the opportunity to help the company during this exciting time," said Bosma Enterprises President and CEO Jeffrey Mittman. "Our team is more than up to the task, and we look forward to shipping the first orders soon."

About Mr. Canary
Sisters Jan Long and Christina Mowery started the company selling The Original Mr. Canary Finch Feeder that was developed by their dad, Ray Mitchell. In 2012, Chris retired and now Jan maintains the 100 percent woman-owned business. The Mr. Canary Company operates with a clear aim; to run a business that makes quality products and a little difference in the community. The company's business model dares stereotypes and combines enterprise with social responsibility. Learn more at mrcanary.com.

Shaffer questions Carmel Redevelopment Authority's 2020 financial report

Dear Editor:

On Oct. 7, 2020, Carmel closed on two bonds to retire earlier refinancing bonds, with an expressed purpose of "refunding" $170.6 million outstanding balances.

In the Carmel Redevelopment Authority annual financial report for 2020 Debt Statement reports the ending principal balance on those two "refunded" bonds as of Dec. 31, 2020 as $0.00.

But, the Authority's combined cash and investments statement tells a different story. It lists receipts from the 2020 bonds totaled $188 million, of which $477,550 was disbursed and added $189.8 million to the Dec. 31, 2020 end cash and investments total. (Presumably the $188 million earned interest from October to December.)

Glaringly, however, both statements seem mutually contradictory. How can the receipts not be disbursed but the earlier bonds be paid off?

Inquiries to the Authority remain unanswered.

However, the three D's emerge:

1. Either a big Deficit in Authority total spending over total receipts.
2. Or, a potential technical Default on holding money borrowed for a purpose not executed.
3. Or, there's always the never-ending City Hall Deception.

Take your pick.

Westfield reader details problem of transparency with City Council

Dear Editor,

It seems to me that I must be confused about the term transparency in government.

The current Westfield city council members ran their election campaigns asking for more transparency. Yet, several times since being installed as councilors, they have again changed the city council meeting agenda with last-minute items without proper notification for a public meeting.

On Monday, March 22, when I reviewed the agenda around 3 p.m., there was nothing on it to be further researched. Arriving at City Hall, I find the agenda has three items added. There were two Resolutions and one Ordinance. The resolutions appeared to be full of accusations and innuendo pointed at the current city administration and its appointees without providing any substance to support them.

The Ordinance was titled, "Ordinance 21-21: An Ordinance of the Common Council of the City of Westfield." There was no available documentation at that point in time to review and to study their proposed ordinance. As it turns out, this ordinance was written to terminate the State Road 32 project in Downtown Westfield. I had never heard of it before that meeting.

Therefore, transparency to this City Council means an agreed upon and published meeting agenda can be changed, without announcement and publication, voted upon without providing Westfield citizens time for input, and made law at the council's convenience.

Thus, my confusion exists because, to me, this does not seem to meet the definition of transparency.

So, I ask my fellow citizens of Westfield, what say you?

Carmel reader sarcastically thanks Mayor Brainard for "Dr. Fraudxi"

Dear Editor:

On this one-year anniversary of an executive action that saved hundreds, maybe millions, of lives, I want to thank forward-thinking Mayor Jim Brainard for shutting down the Monon Trail in central Carmel, and golf courses. He was following all that scieny science.

Brainard orders more closures, reminds residents not to use tennis courts, basketball courts – Hamilton County Reporter (readthereporter.com)

I also want to thank him for the several times members of my family were nearly hit by cars taking the much safer, as pronounced by Dr. Fraudxi (intentional) and Herr Brainard, detours on 3rd Avenue SW and Rangeline.

Rick McKinney responds to Ken Alexander’s Council Minutes

Dear Editor:
In response to Ken Alexander’s Council Minutes column on March 10: The designation of a “AAA” rating by S&P for Hamilton County was well-deserved and has been years in the making, not an achievement of those newly elected. It took years of saying “NO” to Commissioner-driven projects or resisting their attempts to influence how a project would be financed to reach this pinnacle.

A word of appreciation also goes to the Auditor and her staff as well for their work in keeping excellent financial records. I hope the current County Council can keep this rating that was so long in its attainment.

A comment by Councilor Alexander regarding the request to spend an additional $2 million that “it would have been easy to vote NO” was so audacious, I had to read it a couple more times. The implication that it took courage and foresight to spend millions MORE for an additional floor of a parking garage that will undoubtedly be used more for non-county government business or after 5 p.m. is an insult to the citizens of Hamilton County.

An additional court will not require the use of 125 spaces on a daily basis; furthermore, the county is not responsible for providing parking for jurors/attorneys/litigants or anyone else coming to downtown Noblesville. Given the flexibility of working remotely as necessitated by the pandemic in 2020, the widespread use of Uber and similar services, and the slow growth in county government employment, there is no pressing need for expanding a parking garage that hasn’t had a shovel of dirt moved yet.

The late and great U.S Senator Everett Dirksen from Illinois made the famous quote in regards to federal government spending: “A billion here, a billion there ... pretty soon, we’re talking about real money.” Well, the same philosophy applies here in Hamilton County, whether it is for a parking garage or a State Road 37 project’s cost overruns, sooner than later, the amounts spent will total REAL money! Citizens, follow the money!

There was a slight mention of the joint meeting with the County Council and Commissioners. I applauded the move to require the Council to be notified BEFORE applications for grants are submitted so they can be aware of matching funds that will be needed. However, what was missing were the price tags associated with the various projects.

Finally, the County Parks department remains energized for protecting land from development and providing outlets for citizens to enjoy wild spaces. The Council has been and continues to be a great partner with them in this endeavor, which benefits everyone’s quality of life. Thank you.

Joe Weingarten: What’s so hard to understand about a background check?

Dear Editor:
In response to Mike Pflum’s letter –

No, we don’t hold you or almost all gun owners responsible for the mass killing of people by guns. All we ask is that you and your fellow gun owners submit to a background check before you buy a gun. What is so hard about that?

Do you have a driver license? Oh, BTW before you buy that bottle of wine, you have to pass a test, an age test. Are you willing to go to a doctor that has no license to practice medicine? Or the many other licenses that are here to protect the public?

You say people texting kill hundreds more than a lone gunman ... hate to burst your bubble, but about 40,000 a year die of gunshots and about 39,000 of vehicle accidents.

So, before you claim the 2nd Amendment gives you a total exemption of any and all laws about guns – You can’t own a military machine gun without a special permit. Why should you own an assault rifle without one?

I almost forgot; do you have a license plate on your car? Didn’t you also have to provide proof of insurance? Why can’t we have a license plate for guns? To ensure that a responsible person owns that gun.

You state that “72 million (gun owners) were at home engaged in normal, day-to-day activities.” Sorry, but today about 110 people died of a gunshot. Tomorrow another 110 will die, and the next day after day.

Don’t forget before you go hunting you will have to get that license form DNR. Are you in fear you will fail a simple background check?

Maybe 10 people in King Soopers would still be alive today.

Noblesville boys, girls teams get wins

 Noblesville's Skyler Tolliver scored three goals for the Millers boys team during their 10-8 win over Park Tudor on Monday.

The Noblesville boys lacrosse team came back to beat Park Tudor 10-8 in a Monday game at Beaver Materials Field.

The Panthers scored first, early in the first quarter. The Millers' Blaine McNabb tied it up with a goal at the 8:21 mark of the period, but Park Tudor scored again for a 2-1 lead by the end of the quarter.

The Panthers then went up 5-1 in the second period, but Noblesville began its run late in the quarter, with goals by Doug Welkey and Aaron Bell coming within 40 seconds of each other. That cut Park Tudor's lead to 5-3 by halftime.

The Millers then quickly tied the game in the third quarter. Skyler Tolliver scored 26 seconds into the second half, then Jacob Purvis knotted the game with his goal at the 9:05 mark. The Panthers took the lead back during the period, but another Tolliver goal tied it up again, then Tyler Roberts scored with 22 seconds left in the quarter, putting Noblesville up 7-6.

Purvis opened the fourth period by scoring 48 seconds into the quarter. The Millers held the lead from there, with Tolliver and Roberts both adding goals.

"They played with more patience and were able to bounce back a bit after a few tough losses to some of the best teams in the state," said Noblesville coach Mark Milam. "Park Tudor played hard and should be very proud of their performance."

The Millers are 2-3 for the season.

Noblesville's girls lacrosse team won an all-county game with Guerin Catholic on Tuesday 9-7.

The Millers went up 2-0 to start the game, but the Golden Eagles came back to tie things up at 2-2. The teams exchanged goals before Noblesville added two more to take a 5-3 halftime lead.

In the second half, the Millers went up 6-3 before GC put in three goals in a row to tie the game again. But Noblesville answered with three straight goals of their own.

Emma Potter scored six goals for the Millers, and also had five ground balls, five forced turnovers and four draw controls. Chloe Barnett added two goals and got two ground balls, while Malloory Miller added one goal in addition to one ground ball and one forced turnover.

Chaney Cornell had two ground balls and two forced turnovers. Maddie Reel had nine total saves, including four saves on five free position shots and two ground balls.

Carly Wilson scored three goals for the Golden Eagles, with Caroline Kosiba adding two. Ella Bellflower and Alexandra Soucie each scored one goal. Claire Alic and Soucie each had three draw controls, while Emma Smith and Soucie both got three ground balls.

The Hamilton Southeastern boys lacrosse team picked up two wins last weekend.

On March 19, the Royals beat Carmel 13-9. Southeastern led 5-3 after the first quarter and 9-6 at halftime. Ryan Kemp scored four goals during the first half, followed by EJ Reichert with two and Logan Askins, Loudon Sundling and Connor Runhow all scored one.

Runhow then poured in three goals in the second half, giving him a total of four for the game. Garrett Smith also scored a goal. Nolan Knies, Evan Wang and Ty DeSplinter all had strong defensive games. Max Blackburn and Kyle Brenner combined for seven ground balls.

The next day (Saturday), Southeastern won its Senior Night game over Penn 20-1. The Royals led 11-0 at halftime.

Reichert led the way with six goals, followed by Kemp and Tate Medcalfe with three each and Sundling with two. Jake Robeson and Hayden Grace both collected six ground balls and Miles Tudor caused three turnovers.

Meanwhile, Carmel rebounded from its loss to beat Crown Point 25-3 on Saturday and Westfield 21-3 on Tuesday. Ethan Hall had six saves for the Greyhounds in their victory over the Shamrocks.

Carmel's girls lacrosse team won a Thursday game over Fishers 16-0 at Murray Stadium.

Maddie McGarty scored four goals and handed out one assist to lead the Greyhounds offense. Julia Cherubini had three goals and Hannah Kim added three goals and one assist. Goalkeepers Kristyn Jenkins and Emma Mallon recorded the shutout.

Hamilton County players named to IBCA All-State teams

Three Hamilton County boys basketball players are among the 15 seniors and 15 underclass players that have earned IBCA/Franciscan Health "Supreme 15" All-State honors for 2020-21, it was announced Wednesday.

Carmel's Brian Waddell was named to the Supreme 15 Senior boys team, while his Greyhounds teammate, junior Peter Suder, was named to the Supreme 15 Underclass boys team. Westfield junior Braden Smith was also named to the Supreme 15 Underclass boys team.

The IBCA also named Large School All-State teams (15 seniors, 15 underclass) and Small School All-State players (16 seniors because of a tie in voting, 15 underclass). Hamilton Heights' Gus Etchison was named to the Large School senior team, while Fishers junior Jeffrey Simmons was named to the Large School underclass team.

The "Supreme 15" is the top honor awarded, and players were voted to that group without regard to school size. The Large School and Small School all-state teams are secondary accolades -- the Large School group including players from Class 3A and Class 4A schools and the Small School group including players from Class A and Class 2A schools. Players who make the Supreme 15 are not considered for Large School or Small School honors.

In addition, 89 more seniors and 90 more underclass players were selected honorable mention all-state. The honorable mention laurels are awarded without regard to school size.

Hamilton County players earning honorable mention are as follows: Guerin Catholic's Joseph Bobilya, University's Camden Brown and Guerin Catholic's Kaleb Edwards all received the award on the senior team, while Hamilton Heights sophomore Luke Carroll, University junior Larry Pierce and Carmel junior Charlie Williams received honors on the underclass team.

IBCA names Players of the Week

Last Saturday afternoon, 16 teams took to the court at four different Semi-State locations, each looking to punch their ticket to Bankers Life Fieldhouse on April 3. By the time the dust settled, eight teams earned their spot in the State Finals, and three young men have been awarded the Week 20 IBCA Player of the Week honor for their respective districts. All three are seniors, plus nearly everyone earning "Top Nominee" status are Seniors as well.

Kouts Senior Cale Wireman, Lawrence North Senior Shamar Avance, and Barr-Reeve Senior Curt Hopf are the winners for March 15-March 20 in the recognition program coordinated by the Indiana Basketball Coaches Association. Wireman takes home honors in District 1. Avance was awarded for his play in District 2. Hopf is the recipient for the second time in District 3.

The now 29-2 Kouts Mustangs took on a gritty opponent in Southwood Saturday, knocking off the Knights by an 86-70 final score. Senior Cale Wireman had an extremely efficient day, contributing to the cause in multiple ways. He was a solid 7-12 from the field, 2-5 from 3-point range, plus he knocked down 10 free throws on his way to 26 points. The 5-11 guard also collected four rebounds, he dished out four assists, and he picked the ball off four times, as Kouts makes its first ever trip to the State Finals.

In the Class 4A South Semi-State game, the Lawrence North Wildcats held off the Panthers of Bloomington South, 54-52. 6-0 guard Shamar Avance was the key to the Wildcats win, as he scored 16 points on 5-7 shooting, plus he made 5-6 shots from the free throw line. The Senior added three rebounds and four assists, and Head Coach Jack Keefer said his lead guard "had a tremendous floor game", and that he "was our motor and made everyone better." The Wildcats return to Bankers Life Fieldhouse for the first time since 2006, and they will make a run at their fifth title in five tries.

The Barr-Reeve Vikings are enjoying an outstanding season, posting a 28-2 record to date, with each of their losses coming in overtime to state finalists Carmel (Class 4A) and Blackhawk Christian (Class 2A). Senior front-liner Curt Hopf has been a big part of that success this season, and Saturday he was certainly up to the task. The 6-9 Bellarmine University signee scored 20 points, as the Vikings took care of Tindley in impressive fashion, 72-25. Additionally, Hopf snagged 16 rebounds and blocked four shots. Barr-Reeve makes its seventh trip to Indianapolis in 20 years, as it tries for a second title.

This is the 13th season for the Indiana Basketball Coaches Association Player of the Week program, but the first season it is presented by Franciscan Health, a corporate sponsor of the Indiana Basketball Coaches Association.
