

Health Dept. discovers vaccination discrepancy

Residents in northern third of county slow to get vaccinated

The REPORTER

Hamilton County is the second-most vaccinated county in the state with 59 percent of its residents now fully vaccinated. That equates to 165,112 residents age 12 and older. However, a closer look into those statistics reveals a discrepancy that the Hamilton County Health Department is working to correct.

“When we break our vaccination numbers down by zip code, we see considerably fewer people getting vaccinated in the northern, more rural area of our county,” said Chris Walker, emergency preparedness coordinator for the Hamilton County Health Department. “We need to reevaluate how we’re reaching residents in the Atlanta, Sheridan, and Arcadia areas.”

The Westfield zip code of 46074 currently tops the county’s list with 76 percent of its residents fully vaccinated. That zip code is closely followed by 46290, a small pocket south of Carmel, and 46037 in Fishers. At the other end of the spectrum is 46031 in Atlanta with 33 percent of its residents fully vaccinated, 46069 in Sheridan with 39 percent, and 46030 in Arcadia with 40 percent.

“The numbers shouldn’t surprise us,” Walker added. “There are 49 vaccination sites in Hamilton County, but only two north of State Road 32. As we start to wrap up our mass vaccination clinic at the 4-H Fairgrounds, we need to find ways to ramp up vaccinations in the northern third of the county. How we do that remains to be seen. It could be a sustained vaccination clinic or pop-ups at summer festivals. We’ll know more soon.”

Largest crowd ever seen for Fishers Memorial Day event

By LARRY LANNAN
LarryInFishers.com

The cloudy skies and cool temperatures marked the beginning of the Fishers Memorial Day event, but the day began to warm and the sun started peeking from the sky as the ceremony continued. This was a stark contrast to 2020 when the pandemic prevented any in-person Memorial Day event.

I have attended every Memorial Day ceremony in Fishers since it became a city in 2015 and this was the largest crowd yet assembled. There was a good reason – the new Gold Star Families Memorial Monument was unveiled at Monday’s event.

Pleasant Grove cemetery vandalized

Vandalizing a cemetery is a disgraceful and illegal activity at any time, but doing it in the days leading up to Memorial Day adds insult to injury.

Located on 106th Street immediately west of College Avenue, the 175-year-old Pleasant Grove cemetery is the burial site of several veterans – at years ago, but the cemetery became least one who served in the War of 1812.

Vandals pushed over more than 40 tombstones, breaking some of them, according to Clay Township Trustee Doug Callahan. The small cemetery was originally part of the property of Pleasant Grove Methodist Church. The church relocated the responsibility of the township which maintains it.

There is a good chance that the vandals don't even know the true meaning of Memorial Day. If caught, perhaps a judge could give them a history assignment as part of their punishment.

Meanwhile, Callahan is planning for repairs of the damage. Carmel Police are investigating and apparently have some surveillance tape to aid them.

Hamilton County organizations launch campaign promoting hospitality careers

The REPORTER

To address the labor shortage in the hospitality industry, Hamilton County Tourism and Hamilton County Economic Development have launched a local advertising campaign to inspire individuals to consider hospitality as a future career choice. The organizations have created a hospitality job board with current positions in restaurants, hotels and more.

The need for job candidates to consider careers in the attractions, event, food service and lodging industries is greater than ever as the county’s hospitality industry emerges from the travel depression caused by the pandemic. In Hamilton County, pre-pandemic tourism and travel supported almost 10,000 direct local jobs.

“The pandemic and its ripple effects seriously impacted this critical local industry,” said Hamilton County Tourism President/CEO Brenda Myers.

Two in five American workers who began their career in travel and hospitality now earn more than $100,000 a year, making it a very vertical industry with a career path that can start as early as high school.

Deacon Rick Wagner named president of Guerin Catholic

The REPORTER

Dr. Peg Dispenzieri, Superintendent of Schools for the Diocese of Lafayette-in-Indiana, along with the School Governing Board of Guerin Catholic High School, has announced to faculty and staff that Deacon Rick Wagner has been offered, and has accepted, the position of President for Guerin Catholic High School.

“I am excited and grateful to Deacon Rick Wagner for accepting the invitation to serve as the next president of Guerin Catholic,” Dispenzieri said. “His leadership in a variety of areas, ability to inspire others, and love of sharing his faith is a blessing for the students, staff and the community.”

Deacon Rick has been married to his wife, Carol, for 38 years. They have four children and nine grandchildren. In addition to his deacon formation coursework, he has a B.S. in Education, an M.S. in Psychology, and an M.S. in Educational Administration.

Wagner spent 30 years working as a teacher, coach, athletic director, and administrator in Catholic high schools and served as Principal of Guerin Catholic from 2007 to 2013. Upon leaving Guerin Catholic, he served as Principal and Vice President for Mission and Ministry for Bishop Chatard High School in Indianapolis.

“My years as Principal of Guerin Catholic greatly influenced my formation as both a man of faith, and ultimately, a deacon in the Church,” Wagner said. “I am honored to pay it forward by serving as its President. I am grateful to Bishop Doherty for this opportunity . . . I left Guerin Catholic eight years ago. When I returned, I was pleased to see that, while there have been some changes to the building and some turnover in the staff, the mission is alive and well.”

Most recently, Deacon Rick served as the Director of the Permanent Deacon Formation program for Saint Meinrad Seminary and School of Theology and has served as Interim President of Guerin Catholic since February of this year.

Wagner was ordained in 2012 and is assigned to St. Pius X Parish in Indianapolis. For his ministry of charity, he works with an organization serving the unsheltered homeless near downtown Indianapolis.

Mike Corbett explains his toll suggestion for Noblesville bypass

Dear Editor:

Thanks for covering my comments to the City Council at last week’s meeting. Public comments at Council meetings are brief so I’d like to elaborate a bit.

Like many residents, I have spent time sitting in traffic on State Road 32 in Noblesville, so I understand the need for a bypass. My argument remains that the current path is wrong, not that the bypass is a bad idea.

The main point I made to the Council is that now that we are faced with funding this project, we are approaching a point of no return. There is still time to change our minds, but that window of opportunity is closing. So far, it’s been mostly talk, but once we start destroying things (like homes) it will be very hard to turn back.

There was very little discussion among councilors at that meeting considering this vote was for a new tax for a project whose price tag has more than doubled in the last couple of years.

It will now cost more for this single road than the entire annual city budget, and that doesn’t even include the bridge.

Isn’t anybody nervous about that?

This has all the trappings of a potential money pit, yet the vote for this tax was unanimous and discussion was minimal.

My main objection to the tax they just passed is that it is being called a “user fee.” It’s not. User fees are paid by people who use the amenity and are optional. If you don’t want to pay, don’t use the road. This is a broad-based tax being paid by everyone who owns a car in Noblesville, whether they use the road or not. Considering this is a bypass, I suspect most people who use the road will be from out of town and they won’t pay a dime.

That’s what led to my suggestion that we make this a toll road. Now, that’s a user fee. Use the road, pay a fee. It doesn’t get much fairer than that. Tolling technology has come a long way since I used to throw change into those baskets on Chicago’s Tristate Tollway. I noted at the meeting that I’ve driven across the interstate bridge in Louisville without registering anywhere or having one of those transponders and I still get a bill in the mail. Driving is heavily regulated and hi-tech tolling is easy and efficient. I don’t like paying tolls, but it’s a valuable reminder that bridges (and roads) cost money.

I respect Councilor Hampton’s objection that a toll would defeat the purpose of the road because it would discourage drivers from using it. He also feels it would be unfair if he had to pay the toll every time he used the road because he might use it “15 times in a day.”

Two comments: I believe if a person uses the road 15 times, he should be paying more than the person who never uses the road. He might not like it, but it is fair. Secondly, if there is truly a demand for this road, a modest toll (I suggest $1 per trip) will not discourage people from using it. If it does, I suspect there isn’t strong enough demand to warrant spending this kind of money.

I knew the council wouldn’t vote to establish a toll road at last week’s meeting. My suggestion was meant to get our city government thinking about more creative solutions to moving traffic. Building highways through established neighborhoods is a discredited 20th century solution to traffic congestion, which forward-thinking cities are now correcting. A wheel tax is a heavy-handed solution to a very specific revenue shortfall. We can do better than this.

The price tag for this project will continue to rise, so I’m sure there will be more need for revenue collection in the future if this plan continues. A quick calculation reveals that if 10,000 drivers paid $1/trip to use this road every day, we could pay for the entire thing in a little over 30 years at current prices. By then it will likely be time to build a new one.

So we’re all going to pay more to register our cars next year whether we use the proposed bypass or not, and no one from out of town will be helping pay the bill. I encourage the city to consider a toll road and get rid of the wheel tax.

HOSPITALITY

“The tourism and hospitality industry career pathway is very vertical,” said Hamilton County Economic Development Corporation Vice President of Workforce Strategy Michael Thibideau. “A front desk clerk at a hotel can move into general management or sales fairly quickly with or without a college degree. These jobs also provide valuable soft skills training that can be used throughout an individual’s career.”

Most workers in the travel industry earn middle class wages or higher.

“Among workers who began their careers in the travel industry, one-third earned at least a bachelor’s degree, compared to just 28 percent who began in health care, 19 percent in construction and 18 percent in manufacturing,” according to the U.S. Travel Association report “Travel: America’s Unsung Hero of Job Creation.”

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault – it wasn’t something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don’t often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we’re breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.

U.S. Army reserve Chaplain, provided emotional stories of heroism on the battlefield and the military hospitals. Indiana National Guard Brigadier General Timothy Winslow was overcome with grief as he spoke of families losing loved ones in war. Fishers Mayor Scott Fadness spoke of his own young sons in understanding the sacrifices military families endure. But the most important people at this event were the Gold Star families themselves, invited by the city to attend this ceremony and lay a flower at the memorial being dedicated on this Memorial Day.

Carmel Symphony Orchestra announces exceptional season of music for 2021-22

The REPORTER

An exceptional season of music that runs the gamut from beloved classical compositions to energetic pops favorites – and spiced by a couple of surprises! – has been announced for 2021-22 by the Carmel Symphony Orchestra (CSO).

“We’ve looked forward to this moment for well over a year now, to when we’d be back to full force and full strength and able to invite fans both existing and new to ‘Experience the Exceptional,’” said CSO Artistic Director Janna Hymes. “I can’t begin to express how proud I am of every single person associated with this orchestra, from the board of directors to the front office staff to those fantastic musicians on stage.

“The CSO was one of a handful of orchestras worldwide that not only live streamed but also continued to perform live on stage during the pandemic,” she continued. “We sold out every seat we were permitted to sell, and are so grateful for the support we received during a challenging time.

“Now we are ready to move onward with a fantastic schedule of music that we think is sure to please just about everyone!”

CSO is a professional orchestra that is among the resident companies of the Palladium at the Center for the Performing Arts. The majority of its concerts are performed at the Palladium, but the orchestra will venture beyond those walls and out into the Central Indiana community for several performances during the upcoming season.

The kickoff to the new season comes on Sunday, July 4 at CarmelFest. CSO will entertain the throngs of Independence Day revelers with a free outdoor concert beginning at 8 p.m. at the Gazebo, 3 Civic Square.

The next performance, also outdoors at 7 p.m. on Sunday, Sept. 5, represents the inaugural collaboration between CSO and Hamilton County Parks at the dazzling Coxhall Gardens, 11677 Towne Road. The two organizations have teamed up to present “Classical Mystery Tour,” the sensational tribute to the music of The Beatles backed by symphony orchestra. Classical Mystery Tour has been hailed just an incredible simulation . . . the crowd stood and bel-lowed for more.”

“So excited about this performance!” Hymes said. “I mean, who doesn’t love the music of The Beatles? It’s universal, spans all ages, and when you combine those outstanding songs with the power and majes-ty of symphony orchestra, well, you have something really special – something more than your standard tribute concert.”

Following Classical Mystery Tour comes

“Symphony Uncorked” – a duo of outdoor concerts at Martinsville’s Cedar Creek Winery at 4:30 p.m. on Sunday, Sept. 12 and on Sunday, Oct. 3 at Daniel’s Vineyard in McCordsville. Time for the Daniel’s Vine- yard performance will be announced soon.

not wait to welcome music lovers from throughout Central Indiana to our many and varied performances,” Hymes said. “We’re the Carmel Symphony Orches- tra, but we make beautiful music for everyone in this entire area – and we cordial- ly invite everyone to come and enjoy our concerts. We are a great, professional or- chestra, and we would love to have even more people discover CSO during the upcoming season.”

Golden Eagles win unforgettable first-ever sectional championship

By RICHIE HALL

ARCADIA - An Indiana high school sports team never forgets the first time it wins a sectional championship.

Guerin Catholic will certainly never forget how it won its first-ever softball sectional title, not in a million years. That's because it seemed like Monday's final game at the Class 3A Hamilton Heights sectional would last that long, as the No. 2-ranked Golden Eagles were locked in a battle with No. 1-ranked Yorktown that ran well into extra innings.

It took 10 innings for a team to score, and that team was Guerin Catholic. Aliyah Dorsey doubled in a run in the top of the inning, then pitcher Izzy Kemp took care of business in the bottom of the inning, and soon the Golden Eagles were celebrating a 1-0 victory over the Tigers.

The game was a true pitcher's dual between two dominant throwers: Guerin's Izzy Kemp and Yorktown's Alanah Jones. Neither one gave an inch during Monday's game.

"The stats have been kind of equal for both teams as far as pitching goes," said GC coach Jeff Buckner. "And she's pitched a lot more innings and things, as we've been splitting between Izzy and Alicia (Flores). If we could score a run, or whoever was going to be able to score a run, that was going to go a long way today."

By the time the 10th inning had rolled around, Jones had thrown 22 strikeouts. At the beginning of the 10th, she induced a flyout for the first out, getting the lead off batter.

Sarah Dilley came up next, and hit a single to get on base. It was the fifth hit of the day for the Golden Eagles. Dilley then moved to second on a groundout, then Ana Macha drew a walk.

That brought up Dorsey. She took a 1-2 pitch into right field, sending Dilley home.

"On that last pitch, I just thought, 'I have to put the ball in play to score my teammates right here and help Izzy out in the defensive end," said Dorsey.

"We hadn't had a lot of good, productive at-bats in terms of putting the ball in play," said Buckner. "But we did some things to make her work a little bit. We had some runners on all throughout the game. And Aliyah has just been lights out for us at the plate all year. For her to strike out the three times and come back, that's a senior leader right there who just was waiting for the chance and she delivered."

Guerin flew out for the third out. That brought Kemp back up to the mound, with three outs between the Golden Eagles and the trophy. Kemp got a groundout for the first out, then issued her only walk of the game. But that was just a speed bump, as she tossed strikeouts for the next two outs, finishing the game with 19 strikeouts.

"I was just ready to go whatever

Millers overwhelm Raiders 'Hawks fall to North Vermillion for regional championship in Regional 27 final

By RICHIE HALL

WEST LAFAYETTE - It's always fun when a team surprises itself in a good way.

Noblesville softball coach Deke Bullard had been going through scenarios for the Millers' Tuesday Regional 4 game at Harrison. A 9-1 rout for Noblesville was not one of them.

"I told the girls that I had played this game 50 times in my head in the last three days," said Bullard. And that was not the outcome that I was thinking."

But the Millers will take it, as they are regional champions for the first time since 2018. Noblesville won its fourth regional title in program history and will return to Harrison Saturday for the Class 4A north semi-state.

Noblesville got up early, as it led off with back-to-back singles by Reis Sjöholm and Abby Harvey. Later, Cameron Grayson batted them both in with a center field hit.

That gave the Millers a 2-0 lead. The Raiders got a run back in the second inning, but Noblesville responded with three runs in the third. Ella White blasted a triple to score Sjöholm and Harvey, then Grayson's RBI groundout sent White home.

The Millers put up three more runs in the fourth inning. Harvey singled in Erin Clark and Sjöholm, then later scored on Grayson's double. Harvey struck again in the sixth inning, cracking a triple into left field to bring in Myah Stuckey.

"Here's the thing: We have hit well all season," said Bullard. "And we showed up early with our bats and we kept them going through the whole game. When you hit the way we did, good things can happen. And so, we got on early and we took advantage of our runners getting on base and were able to drive them in, and that's ultimately the difference in the game."

Harvey had a perfect day at the plate, going 4-for-4, driving in three runs and scoring three more. Sjöholm and Grayson each had two hits.

Grayson pitched another complete game, striking out eight against four hits and two walks.

Noblesville improved to 25-5 with the win. The Millers will play the second semi-final game Saturday at Harrison, taking on Penn at around 1 p.m. The first semi-final, between No. 3-ranked Lake Central and Columbia City, starts at 11 a.m. The winners play the championship game at 7 p.m.

North Vermillion led 2-0 after three innings. The Blackhawks erupted for four runs in the top of the fourth. Riley Reed led off with a base hit, then moved to third base on Addyson Ream's double. Caitlin Neese then singled in Reed for Sheridan's first run of the game.

With the bases loaded, Jacquellynne Bates was hit by a pitch and that scored Ream. Katy Crail came up next and singled in Neese and Maelei Casler. The 'Hawks now had a 4-2 lead. But North Vermillion tied the game with a two-run home run in the fifth inning, then added four runs in the sixth.

Sheridan Horseshoe League is up and running for 2021

The Sheridan Horseshoe League is up and running again this year.

The league meets at 6:30 p.m. every Tuesday night at Biddle Park in Sheridan. Men and women pitch together in games of horseshoe pitching. A game consists of 25 frames; a frame consists of two horseshoe pitches by each player (two shoes times 25 frame equals 50 pitches for each player per game).

The league is formatted like a bowling league. It establishes a handicap that is determined by a player's average, so even first-time pitchers have a chance.

The league is hosting tournaments this year, with the first one starting at 9 a.m. Saturday, June 12 at Biddle Park. If there are enough people, there will be another pitching at 1 p.m. There will be a fee to pitch that goes to the prize fund. Everyone is welcome to participate.

In last week's meeting, Greg Emry had the high scratch actual game, with Phil Kercheval getting the high handicap game. Team results after three weeks are as follows: 1. Ashpaugh Electric, 2. Gibbons Lawn Care, 3. Price Heating, 4. Deem Electric, 5. Traditional Concepts, 6. McKinney Hard Woods.

Tigers cruise to third championship

By RICHIE HALL
WESTFIELD - As he watched his Fishers baseball team celebrate its third sectional championship in the past four tournaments, Tigers coach Matt Cherry gave his players high marks for their performance in the sectional final.

"They played unbelievable," said Cherry. "I think we had the one error in the first. Other than that, I'm not sure that we did anything else wrong."

Fishers did many things right during their 4-0 win over Noblesville Monday in the final of the Class 4A Westfield sectional. It was basic baseball: Timely hitting, solid defense and an outstanding outing on the mound by Tate Warner.

Warner only allowed two hits to the Millers for the entire game, while striking out six and issuing only one walk.

"Oh, we were really pumped," said Warner. "When we got to school in the morning, we were just non-stop talking about this."

"Tate was unbelievable on the mound, pounded the zone," said Cherry. "C.B. (Caulin Brown) was great behind the dish, getting strikes. We played great defense. Just huge, huge credit to our guys."

Meanwhile, the Fishers offense scored two runs in the second inning to get on the board. Gavin Clayton singled in JP Preston for the first run, then Warner scored on a wild pitch.

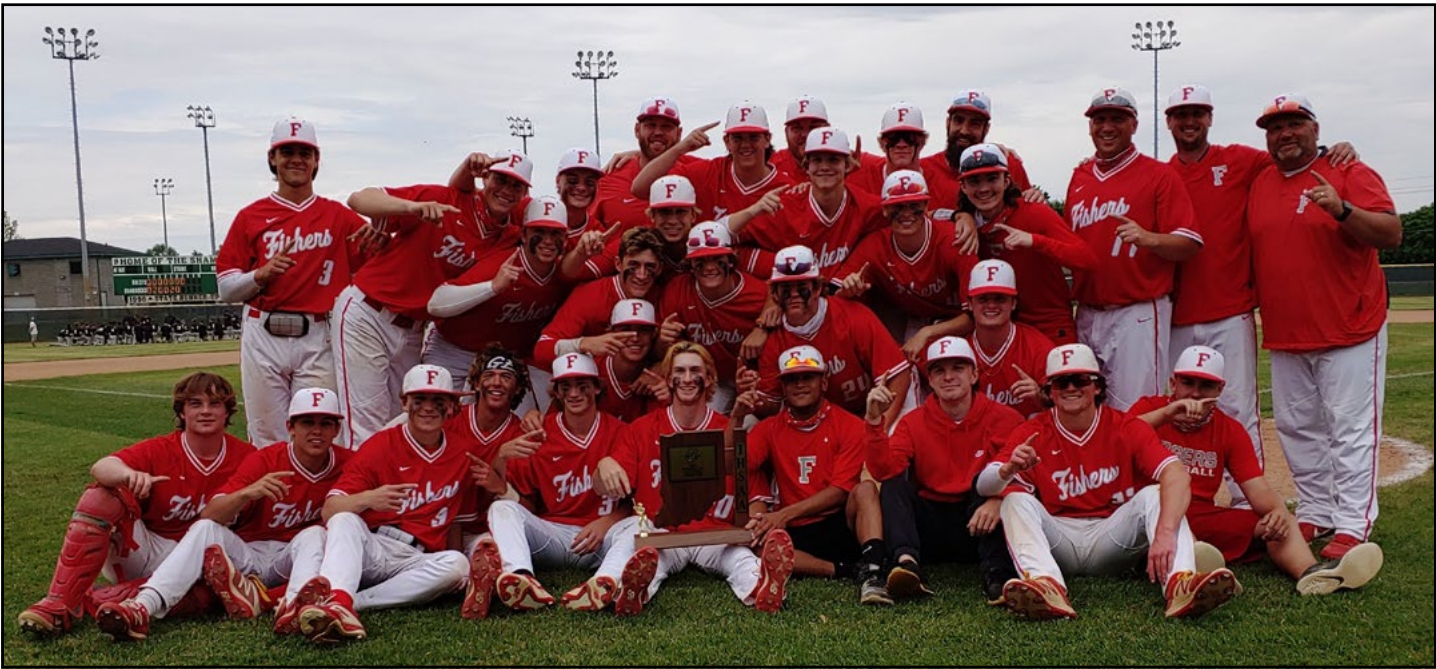

The Tigers scored their other two runs in the fifth inning. Dom Oliverio led off with a triple, then was sent home by Carson Dunn's sacrifice fly. Joey Brenzcwski got on with a base hit, and eventually scored on a wild pitch.

Brown also hit a double for the Tigers, who are now 20-12 for the season.

"We faced a lot of adversity early," said Cherry. "It was a great opportunity to talk about life and how they're going to face adversity in life early in the year. And they've grown. They've learned a lot about it. And they've come together and this is the result of it. They've learned how to fight through adversity and compete and knowing that there's always another day."

Noblesville's two hits were a double from Conner Bloss and a single by Drew Niswonger. The Millers finished their season 15-17, but not before getting coach Justin Keever's 300th career win Saturday in their semi-final win over Westfield.

Noblesville's Dean White slides safely back to first base after a pickoff attempt during Monday's sectional championship game.

Huskies win first title since 2016

For the first time in five years, the Hamilton Heights baseball team is a sectional champion.

The Huskies won their first title since 2016, and third overall, by triumphing in two games Monday at the Class 3A Yorktown sectional. Heights beat New Castle 1-0 in the championship game, this after beating county rival Guerin Catholic 4-1 in the morning semi-finals.

"Very excited for the kids and the school to experience a sectional championship in baseball," said Huskies coach Ryan VanOeveren. "We're just thrilled to have the opportunity to play and continue on to play next weekend in the regional."

The Huskies got their run in the third inning. Harrison Hochstedler got on base after a dropped third strike, then advanced to second base on Joe Mayo's sacrifice bunt. Sam Allen came up next, and his right field hit sent Hochstedler home.

"I had a feeling it would be low-scoring," said VanOeveren. "We've got a pretty good defensive team as well as a pretty good pitching staff. Very low-scoring game, but we came out on top."

Both teams were held to two hits by their opponent's respective pitchers. Lucas Letsinger was on the mound for Heights, and he threw a solid game, striking out seven and issuing just one walk.

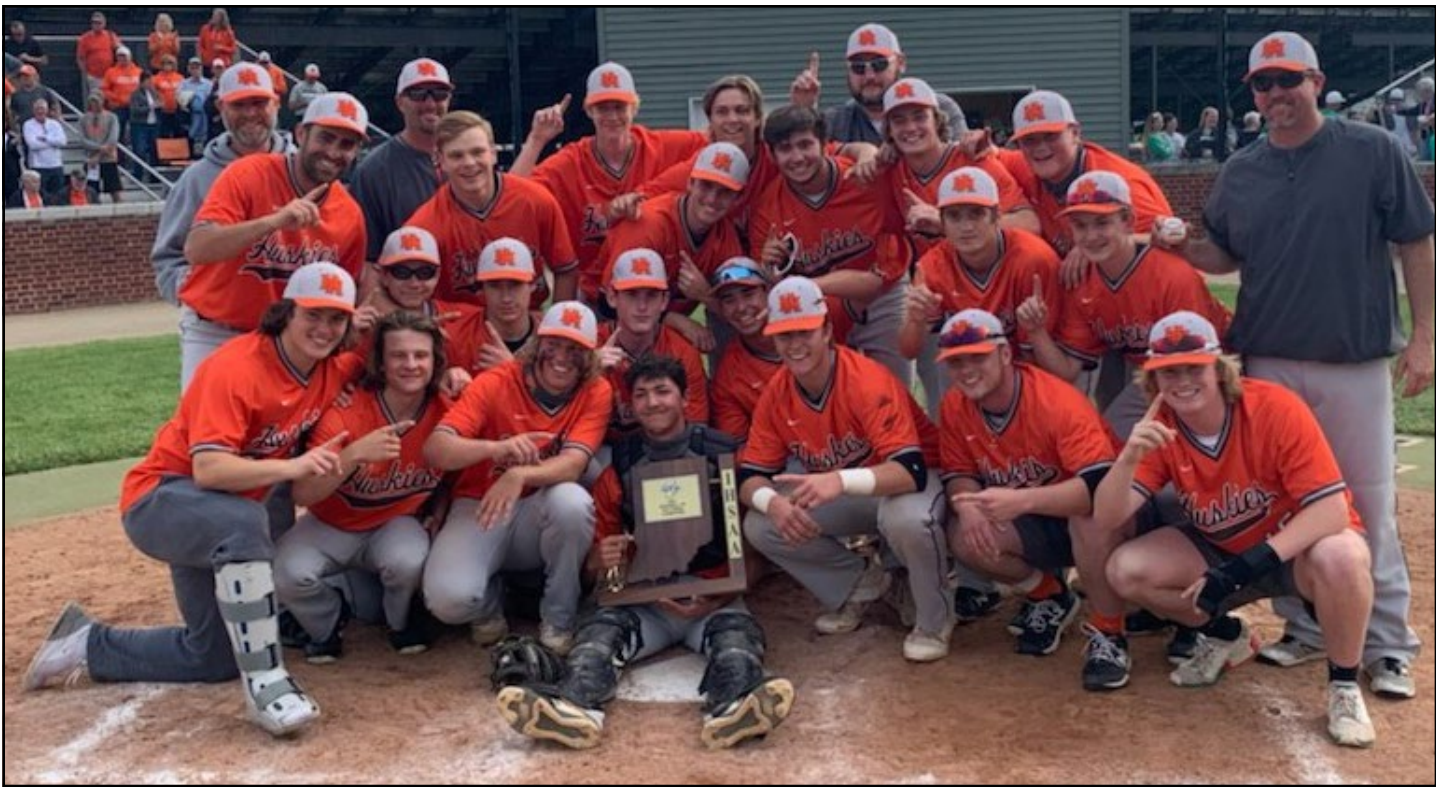

"Lucas Letsinger was phenomenal," said VanOeveren. Letsinger gave up his one walk to New Castle's first batter of the game, but induced catches to retire the next three batters, ending the scoring threat.

"Once he settled down, once hit the middle of the game, he was in command, controlling both of his off-speed pitches and his fastball command," said VanOeveren.

Jared Michael got Heights' other hit, after Allen's RBI single.

In the semi-final game, the Huskies got on the board in the top of the third inning with two runs, starting with Mayo scoring on Jared Michael's double. Cooper Vondersaar came in to run for Michael, and he scored after Dean Mason reached on error.

Nate Hulen added a run in the top of the fourth inning, getting home on Mayo's RBI groundout. The Golden Eagles scored their lone run in the fifth inning when Josh Schaff doubled home

The Hamilton Heights baseball team claimed the Class 3A Yorktown sectional on Monday by winning two close games. The Huskies beat Guerin Catholic 4-1 in the semi-finals and defeated New Castle 1-0 in the championship. Heights plays at the Belmont regional on Saturday.

Clay Patton. Heights pushed the lead back up to three in the seventh inning when Vondersaar scored on an error.
Erik Malott was 3-for-3 for the Huskies, including a triple in the fifth inning. Michael went 2-for-4 at the plate. On the mound, Michael pitched a complete game, striking out 11 against four hits and two walks.
Anthony Ferrucci went 2-for-3 for Guerin Catholic, and also threw six strikeouts in four and one third innings. The Golden Eagles finished their season 10-19.
Heights is 19-9 and advances to the Belmont regional on Saturday. The Huskies play No. 2-ranked Leo in the first semi-final game, which starts at 11 a.m. Norwell and Wawasee play the second semi-final at 1 p.m., with the championship scheduled for 8 p.m.
