Darren Murphy announces run for judge of new superior court

By FRED SWIFT
ReadTheReporter.com

Darren Murphy this week became the first candidate to announce for judge of the new Hamilton Superior Court 7. He is currently a magistrate for the county courts, a post he has held since 2017.

Murphy will run in the Republican primary in May of 2022, and if elected, he will take office the following January as judge of the county's newest court, created this year by the Indiana General Assembly.

The candidate is married and the father of four children. The family lives in the Fishers area. Murphy was in private law practice in Noblesville for 12 years prior to being named magistrate.

He is veteran of the U.S. Army Rangers and saw action in the 1990 American mission to Panama in which dictator Manuel Noriega was removed from power. Murphy was wounded in the hostilities and received the Purple Heart for his service.

After military service, Murphy earned a law degree and started his practice with longtime local attorney Michael Howard.

Hamilton County judges and county officials asked for the new, additional court due to the increasing caseload in the local court system. The county has its original Circuit Court and currently six superior courts.

Judges are elected countywide, and serve six-year terms. With no incumbent for the new court, other candidates could be expected to enter the GOP primary race set for May 5.

Take the 4 Town Tour and Taste this summer

The REPORTER

This September, the Northern Hamilton County Chamber of Commerce (NHCCC) is offering you a way to enjoy rural and scenic bike ride along winding country roads.

This inaugural bike ride, called the "4 Town Tour," is set to become an annual event in Hamilton County. The ride is scheduled for Sept. 18 with options for a 50-mile ride, a 28-mile ride, and a shorter family ride in Cicero. The rides will be followed by a luncheon, open to the public, called the "4 Town Taste."

NHCCC President Liz Foley Nelson told The Reporter the organization represents businesses in and around the communities of Arcadia, Atlanta, Cicero, and Sheridan. The Chamber hosts events each month for its members and frequently for the communities it represents.

"The ride is to highlight the businesses of Northern Hamilton County, increase public awareness of this less-traveled area of Central Indiana, and to benefit the business programs at Hamilton Heights and Sheridan high schools," Nelson said.

Chamber Board Member Kevin Smith and his committee are organizing the ride with assistance from some very experienced riders.

"For 2021, given the construction on U.S. 31, the ride focuses on the three communities of Arcadia, Atlanta and Cicero, Indiana. After construction on U.S. 31 permits safe bicycle access across the highway (expected in 2022), future tour routes will expand to include Sheridan," Nelson told The Reporter. "The inaugural ride will offer a 28-mile and 50-mile routes, with a separate family ride of approximately five miles utilizing trails within Cicero."

BIKE TOUR

All three ride routes begin and end at Cicero Christian Church, 1715 Stringtown Pike, Cicero, and have several Support and Gear (SAG) stops planned throughout the ride.

According to Nelson, the Chamber welcomes sponsor organizations for the SAG stops and anyone interested should email jesy.ide@nhc-coc.org.

“The bike course, while almost exclusively on country roads, has a route designed to 1) take advantage of recently paved roads and 2) run through an amazing array of curves, small hills, shade and other interesting riding scenery – it’s not all straight country roads!” Nelson said. See examples below.

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault – it wasn't something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don't often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we're breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.

Indiana's new Youth Employment System now in full effect

The REPORTER

The state of Indiana's new youth-employment law is now fully in effect.

As of July 1, Indiana has eliminated work permits* completely, and now requires all employers with five or more minor employees (under age 18) to begin using the Indiana Department of Labor's Youth Employment System (YES) to track and report minor-employee information.

YES has been available since June 1, and thousands of employers have already set up their accounts and collectively registered tens of thousands of minor employees. Employers who fail to comply with the new law could face penalties of up to $400 per infraction, per minor employee.

YES is simple and easy to use. Employers can access the app via their smart device, such as your smartphone or tablet, as well as their desktop or laptop. Once they've set up their employer profile, they can enter your minor data — name, age and hire date — within minutes.

Indiana employers must keep all work permits issued prior to July 1, 2021 for two years.*

INDOT, Purdue University working on wireless electric vehicle charging solution for highway infrastructure

The REPORTER

The Indiana Department of Transportation (INDOT) and Purdue University last week announced plans to develop the world’s first contactless wireless-charging concrete pavement highway segment. The project will use innovative magnetizable concrete – developed by German startup Magment GmbH – enabling wireless charging of electric vehicles as they drive.

“As electric vehicles become more widely used, demand for reliable, convenient charging infrastructure continues to grow, and the need to innovate is clear,” INDOT Commissioner Joe McGuinness said. “We’re excited to partner with Purdue and Magment to explore incorporating wireless charging technology into highway infrastructure.”

“The field of transportation is in the midst of a transformation not experienced since the invention of the automobile,” Nadia Gkritza, Professor of Civil Engineering and Agricultural and Biological Engineering and ASPIRE Campus Director at Purdue University said. “Through this research, we envision opportunities to reduce emissions and near-road exposures to pollutants, coupled with other transportation innovations in shared mobility and automation that will shape data-driven policies encouraging advances.”

The project is part of the Advancing Sustainability through Power Infrastructure for Road Electrification (ASPIRE) Initiative, an Engineering Research Center funded by NSF, the National Science Foundation, and involves the collaboration of universities, government laboratories, businesses, and other stakeholders developing next-generation charging technologies for the electrification of Transportation vehicles of all classes.

Phases 1 and 2 of the project will feature pavement testing, analysis, and optimization research conducted by the Joint Transportation Research Program (JTRP) at Purdue’s West Lafayette campus. In Phase 3, INDOT will construct a quarter-mile-long testbed at a location yet to be determined, where engineers will test the innovative concrete’s capacity to charge heavy trucks operation at high power (200 kilowatts and above). Upon successful completion of testing of all three phases, INDOT will use the new technology to electrify a yet to be determined segment of interstate highway within Indiana.

“This project is a real step forward towards the future of dynamic wireless charging,” said Mauricio Esguerra, CEO of Magment, “that will undoubtedly set the standard for affordable, sustainable and efficient transportation electrification.”

The project will include three phases and is expected to begin later this summer.

John David Proffitt
August 10, 1932 – June 30, 2021

John David Proffitt passed away peacefully on June 30, 2021 at the age of 88. He was surrounded by his wife, Judy, of 48 years, his two daughters and son-in-law. He is survived by his wife Judy, his two daughters Michelle (Dave) and Melissa (Tom), and his five grandchildren, John, Michael, Madeline, Nicholas, and Samantha. His mother, father, sister, brother-in-law and stepdaughter, Deborah, all predeceased him.

John came from humble beginnings, raised by his mother and older sister in Lebanon, Ind. His father left his family when he was five, and his mother played the organ in their church to support them. They had very little, but she worked hard to raise two children with respect and dignity. His mother passed away when he was just 15.

A family friend from the local Baptist church took over his care and sent him to Kentucky Military Institute in Louisville. He played basketball and swam when he wasn't studying. He was a good student. At his graduation, another Lebanon family friend had promised his mother they would help provide a college education for him. He received a partial scholarship to attend Wabash College and graduated in 1954. While at Wabash he was President of his fraternity Phi Gamma Delta. He was a generous alumnus throughout his life and was grateful for his education. He then joined the United States Army for two years.

As a child he was given a Perry Mason thriller by the local librarian and since that time he knew he wanted to be a lawyer. Upon his discharge from the army, he went to the University of Chicago Law School, on yet another academic scholarship, and received his law degree in 1959. He was an honorary member of Phi Alpha Delta, and Associate Editor of the University of Chicago Law Journal. When asked about his circumstances, he would say, "I love to tell the story of my life because it is really about other people."

His first legal job was with Stinson, Morrison and Heckler in Kansas City, Mo., but his high school sweetheart (who he married and had two children with) was homesick for Indiana and so they moved home. When looking for a legal job he spoke with Alan Nolan, a partner at Ice Miller, the firm where his daughter Melissa has now practiced law for 36 years. The firm was not hiring so Alan suggested that he talk to Frank Campbell in Noblesville about a legal position; and the rest is history.

He practiced the rest of his 50-plus-year legal career at Campbell, Kyle and Proffitt, the firm he co-founded, and served as Managing Partner of the firm for over 35 years. John met his wife, Judy, in the Hamilton County courtroom. After their marriage, they lived in Carmel. He ended his career as counsel at Altman, Poindexter & Wyatt, LLC.

He was known for his kindness, acute legal acumen, and involvement in local Republican politics. As a lawyer he served as a mentor to countless young lawyers, always taking them to lunch and interested in their careers. He was a litigator who loved the courtroom. His word was his bond; he had the highest integrity and was trusted and respected by all.

He was acknowledged throughout his career for his accomplishments. He was a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, a Fellow of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers, a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation, a Fellow of the Indiana Bar Foundation, and a member of the American Bar Association. He also was a leader in the legal profession. He served as President of:

the Hamilton County Bar Association, the Indiana Continuing Legal Education Association, and the Indiana Bar Association. He was listed in "The Best Lawyers in America" and "Indianapolis Monthly Magazines Best Lawyers in Indiana" each year since their first publications. His CLE publications and speaking events are too numerous to list. In 2007, Governor Mitch Daniels recognized him as a Distinguished Hoosier, and in 2017 Governor Holcomb appointed him a Sagamore of the Wabash. That same year he was recognized by the Indiana Bar Foundation as a "Legendary Lawyer."

He believed in public service as a result of his humble roots and spent his entire career giving back to his community. He served as a board member of a great number of organizations including Riverview Hospital, the Carmel-Clay Symphony Orchestra, the Hamilton County Program Committee, as past President of the Hamilton County Chamber of Commerce, past President of the Carmel Civic Square Building Corporation (built the present City Hall and Main Street Fire Station), past President of the Board of Trustees for the Carmel Public Library, and former Chairman of First Merchants National Bank of Hamilton County.

He was a faithful man, starting with his mother's devotion to God. He was a member of St. Luke's Methodist Church, also serving on their Administrative Board. He loved to travel, play golf, bike, hike and go to sporting events. He and his wife, Judy, traveled throughout Europe and most of the United States and Canada. He was the past President of Harbour Trees Golf Club and the Meadows Country Club in Sarasota, Fla., where he had a second home. He and Judy would attend the Big Ten football games with friends. He loved to read; mysteries and historical biographies were his favorite. He was a member of the Sherlock Holmes Society of London, England, and the Illustrious Clients of Sherlock Holmes. He also loved all kinds of music from classical to opera to rock and roll. He loved all kinds of movies from Casablanca, to any kind of western, to 2001: A Space Odyssey. He was a lifelong Cubs fan, a love he shared with his granddaughter Madeline. He was only able to watch the Cubs National Championship after he found out that they won. He loved driving his convertibles and sporting a series of cowboy hats.

With all of these life-long accomplishments, family was the most important part of John Proffitt's life. He learned the value of family with his early losses as a child. As a result, instead of looking at the negative, he always looked at the positive. He was grateful every day of his life. He was proud of his daughters and loved his grandchildren dearly. He was kind, fair, hardworking, honest, loyal, funny, and driven by his faith and his values. He was known as "Mr. Wonderful" to his family. He said several years before his passing, "If I never live another day, I will be the luckiest man on earth. I have been so blessed." John Proffitt was a legend to his family, friends and so many others. He was grateful for his life and his many blessings.

He viewed funerals as a sacrament, so there will be a private family service on July 8. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made in his name to Wabash College (wabash.edu/give, (877) 743-4545, Wabash College/Annual Fund, 30 W. Wabash Ave., Crawfordsville, IN 47933-0352) or the Carmel Clay Public Library Foundation, Honorarium or Memorial Fund, 55 4th Ave. SE, Carmel, IN 46032.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

But if it is preached that Christ has been raised from the dead, how can some of you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? If there is no resurrection of the dead, then not even Christ has been raised. And if Christ has not been raised, our preaching is useless and so is your faith. More than that, we are then found to be false witnesses about God, for we have testified about God that he raised Christ from the dead. But he did not raise him if in fact the dead are not raised. For if the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised either. And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile; you are still in your sins. Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ are lost. If only for this life we have hope in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied.

Cailyn Henderson reaches IWGA Match Play championship

Westfield's Cailyn Henderson has made her way to the championship match of the Indiana Women's Golf Association Match Play Championship, which is taking place this week at Purgatory Golf Club in Noblesville.

Henderson, who just finished a sensational junior season at the University of Indianapolis, is seeded third at the event. She began her run to the final by beating No. 14 Ava Ray of Franklin 8 and 7, then defeated No. 11 Cybil Stillson of Napanee 4 and 3 in the quarter-finals, the first of two rounds played on Wednesday.

The semi-finals immediately followed, and Henderson advanced to the championship with a 4 and 3 win over Zionsville's Claire Edwards. Henderson will play Kayla Bengé, the top seed, at 7:54 a.m. this morning for the title.

Bengé advanced to the final by beating another Westfield star. Jocelyn Bruch, now at Purdue University, was seeded fourth, and she reached the semis with victories over No. 13 Braedyn O'Dell of Goshen 3 and 2 in the first round, and No. 5 Lexi Ray of Franklin 6 and 5 in the quarters. Bengé defeated Bruch 3 and 2 in the semis.

Two other Hamilton County golfers were among the 16 competing in match play. No. 12 Christina Pfefferkorn of Carmel, soon to be a senior at Guerin Catholic, fell to Lexi Ray in 19 holes in a first-round match. No. 15 Sydney Longstreth, a recent Camel graduate and Ohio University commit, dropped a first-round match to No. 2 seed Megan Yoder of Fort Wayne 4 and 3.

Players advanced to the match play round after their performances in an 18-hole stroke play qualifier. Henderson finished third with a 73, Bruch tied for fourth with a 75, Pfefferkorn took 11th with a 78 and Longstreth tied for 15th with a score of 80.

Cailyn Henderson talks with her father Rich Henderson during her semi-final round at the Indiana Women's Golf Association Match Play Championship, which is taking place this week at Purgatory Golf Club in Noblesville. Henderson won her semi-final and plays this morning for the championship.

Other players that competed in the qualifier were Carmel's Angelica Pfefferkorn (81), Fishers' Kennedy Brooker (81), Westfield's Margaret Wentz (84), Carmel's Ava Nguyen (87) and Carmel's Maya Berglund (100).

BOYS STATE JUNIOR CHAMPIONSHIP

The best boys golfers in the state have been at Purdue University's Ackerman-Allen Course this week, competing in the Indiana Golf Association's Boys State Junior Championship.

Players competed in two rounds of stroke play, with the top 64 advancing to the match play round. Sixteen Hamilton County golfers made it to match play, with four of them reaching the Round of 16.

Westfield's Will Harvey advanced with a 5 and 3 first-round win over Fort Wayne's Cameron GeRue, then beat another Fort Wayne golfer, Grant Norman, 2 and 1 in the second round.

Alec Cesare, also from Westfield, reached the Round of 16 with victories over Seymour's Owen Marshall 4 and 2 in first-round play, then defeated another Westfield golfer, Ryan Ford, 2 and 1 for a second-round victory.

Fishers resident and Cathedral graduate helps support single mom, earns full scholarship to Purdue

By CHARLIE CLIFFORD
WISH-TV

The Chick Evans caddie scholarship is sending a stellar, central Indiana cad-die to Purdue University on a full schol-arship.

Fishers resident Kaiden Miller is off to West Lafayette later this week to begin classes early after his recent Cathedral High School graduation.

After beginning his caddying career as a seventh-grader, Miller has worked as a caddie predominantly at Prairie View Golf Club in Carmel and its sister course, Wood Wind Golf Club in Westfield, over the past few summers.

The Chick Evans caddie scholarship equates to an estimated $120,000 value over the next four years of Miller's aca-demic pursuits at Purdue, and he earned it. "Waking up day to day, it's around 5:30 a.m., you hop in the shower, you come out to the golf course, and you're doing whatever they need you to."

He said the Chick Evans caddie schol-arship "definitely feels like waiting to get one of those golden tickets. My mom brought it straight to me at the table, we opened it, and there it was ... an accep-tance letter."

The nationwide foundation that re-wards dedicated high school students just found a son who goes above and beyond for a single mother who needs a hand.

"She is my biggest cheerleader," Mill-er said. "For the past four years, she has driven me out to the course every morn-ing."

Rachel Miller, Kaiden's mother, plays a significant role in this story. Her sacri-fice and strength made it possible to keep Kaiden's scholarship dream alive.

"I do have an autoimmune condition, and it does affect me," Rachel Miller said. "It looks like MS (multiple sclero-sis) it's called CIDP (chronic inflamma-tory demyelinating polyneuropathy), so a lot of neuropathies. There are days where I'm bedridden and exhausted."

"Kaiden's been, my partner. He's my greatest accomplishment."

Rachel Miller's caring nature clearly carried over to her son. Kaiden's attitude on the golf course mirrored his work in the classroom at Cathedral. For the past two school years, after scholarships were factored in, Kaiden paid the remainder of his own junior- and senior-year tuition bills.

"It's amazing. He started out as a young, shy kid before seventh grade, and it's just been remarkable to see him be-come an adult," Rachel Miller said.

"Caddying will continue into col-lege," Kaiden Miller said. "It probably will continue sporadically for the rest of my life."

This opportunity is an excellent re-ward for the most important walk of life: The one we do together.

Kokomo summer college baseball team to wear 'Willy Wonka' jerseys

By GREGG MONTGOMERY
WISH-TV

In a world of pure imagination, a sum-mer college baseball team says it's feel-ing whimsical with one-game jerseys to celebrate the 50th anniversary of "Willy Wonka & the Chocolate Factory."

The Kokomo Jackrabbits said their jerseys mimic the suit worn by actor Gene Wilder in the 1971 movie, with the team's name across the front in a "Won-ka-style font" and, on the back, just the player number. Not only will the players wear them at Friday's game, fans will have a chance to buy them afterward.

"The name 'Willy Wonka' still in-spires fun, even 50 years later," said Jackrabbits general manager Michael Lieberman in a statement. "We wanted jerseys that reflected that same whimsi-cal feeling. From all the feedback we've received, these hit the mark. In Wonka's own words, they're scrumpdiddlyump-tious!"

The Northwest League team of the Great Lakes Division will play the Battle Creek Bombers starting at 6:30 p.m. Fri-day at Kokomo Municipal Stadium.

Nine fans at the game who have en-tered in a drawing will take home jerseys. Bidding on the other jerseys will start on-line at 5 p.m. Friday, with bidding start-ing at $50.

The Jackrabbits aren't the only base-ball team trying out new gear to keep fans interested. Major League Baseball and its apparel partners this year have tried out "Local Market" caps — featuring area codes, emojis and a variety of fonts in a single word — as well as All-Star Game jerseys with the team names changed to just three-letter abbreviations.
