Llamapalooza is back at 4-H!

The REPORTER

A sure sign of the Hamilton County 4-H Fair is an active Llama Barn. The barn was busy Friday with the Obstacle Class, in which handlers lead their llamas through an obstacle course. The official program says that the class "is designed to demonstrate the training and trust that has developed between the animal and the handler."

Activities continue in the Llama Barn throughout the Fair. Today's activities begin with the 4-H Junior Llama Showmanship at 9:30 a.m., with the 4-H Llama Field Obstacle starting at 1:30 p.m.

On Sunday, the Walk-A-Llama Games and Activities start at 1 p.m.; that event is open to public participation. The Parents' Llama Show is set for 2:30 p.m.

The Llama Barn activity wraps up Monday with the Llama Youth Judging Class at 10 a.m.

Carmel's Art of Wine postponed until Spring 2022

The REPORTER

The City of Carmel has decided to postpone the Art of Wine event that had been scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 23 in the Carmel Arts & Design District.

This annual event, which features wineries from Carmel and around the state, will move to the spring in hopes of enjoying better weather conditions.

"For the past few events, we've had to cancel the Art of Wine due to extreme heat or dangerous storms," said Nancy Heck, Director of Community Relations and Economic Development for the City of Carmel. "Our hope is that by moving this event to the spring, we will have a better chance of cooler calmer weather and a much more enjoyable experience for our visitors."

Sheridan Youth Assistance Program raises $15K at first golf fundraiser

The REPORTER

On June 7 at Purgatory Golf Club in Noblesville, Sheridan Youth Assistance Program (SYAP) held its inaugural fundraising golf tournament.

With 64 golfers enjoying a day of golf, challenges, and silent auction items, SYAP raised $15,000. These funds will help support the many programs and opportunities for youth in the Sheridan community.

As with most fundraising events, it would not have been possible without community support. SYAP thanks the Title Sponsor, Biddle Memorial Foundation, and the following sponsors: Gaylor Electric, Dr. Kent Erb, United Animal Health, The Farmers Bank, and George Kristo in memory of Dr. Linda Kristo.

SYAP also thanks all participants for helping make this such a successful event. Interested businesses, community members, and golfers should mark

The road reopening comes ahead of a busy week of events around Fishers' Nickel Plate District, including the Shop Fishers: Summer Series, running now through Friday, July 23; the Fishers Farmers' Market today at the Nickel Plate District Amphitheater (NPD AMP); Shakespeare in the Park: Much Ado About Nothing, next Wednesday evening at the AMP; and the Summer Concert Series with free shows on Tuesday and Friday evenings at the AMP.

Prevail announces Men's Leadership Summit

The REPORTER

Prevail's 100 Men announces its inaugural Men's Leadership Summit.

100 Men will host the summit from 8 a.m. to noon on Saturday, Sept. 11 at the Cambria Hotel Westfield-Indianapolis, 18592 Carousel Lane, Westfield. Breakfast and refreshments will be provided.

This leadership summit is specifically designed to inspire and mobilize men in breaking the traditional mold of what it means to be a male leader in the community. Attendees will learn the Web of Supports Model and how to engage in this interconnected system to better shape the community.

The Web of Support Model provides a clear and inspiring story that will help you understand the power of human connection and how your personal web serves as your safety net, filter, and launch pad. You will also learn the importance of anchoring others around you to strengthen those you love and care about as we build a stronger, more connected community. Please plan to join for a fun and inspiring day as attendees explore the web story and understand the power of connection. Everyone needs a web.

Keynote speakers include Kyle Miller, Director of Student Support & Counseling Services for Westfield Washington Schools, and Mike Hall, Westfield Middle School principal, with Westfield Mayor Andy Cook emceeding.

Early bird registration pricing ends July 30, so get your ticket now. Click here to register. For more information, please visit prevailinc.org or email Sara Roorbach at 100men@prevailinc.org.

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault – it wasn't something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don't often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we're breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.

Noblesville Lions Club needs sponsors for Dodgeball Tournament

The REPORTER

If you have community help and support in your budget, the members of the Noblesville Lions Club would appreciate your support for their upcoming fundraiser tournament. This will be the third year for the Dodgeball Tournament, and this year cornhole has been added.

The tournament will take place at 11 a.m. on Saturday, Sept. 11 at the Ivy Tech Gym in Noblesville. Competition will start around noon after waivers are signed, tournament brackets are completed, and the rules meeting is over. The event promises to be an active, ram-bunctious, and lively competition.

This year's fundraiser themes are the Lions Club Scholarships and Vision Impairment Financial Support. The tournament in 2019 raised $7,000. The amount of the Club's scholarships in 2019 was $5,250, which was used for scholarships at Noblesville High School, Hamilton Heights High School and Ivy Tech.

Secondly, support from the tournament for vision in 2019 was $1,750, which includes Kid Sight Screening for children ages 2-6. The number of children screened in 2019 was 1,575. Lions Club also purchases eye glasses for needy children, makes leader dog financial contributions, participates in eye glass recycling, and contributes financial support to The School for the Blind.

Sponsorship support levels are $200, $400 and $600, and one super supporter at $2,100 and another at $3,000.

At each level as a sponsor, you will have the opportunity to enter a team in the competition: One team at the $200 dollar level, two teams at the $400 dollar level and three teams at the $600 dollar level. The $3,000 dollar supporter will have the option of five entries.

What do you receive as a sponsor?

- Upscale signage at the Tournament and at the Lions Pork Chop Dinner. Perhaps in the future at the Father's Day Car Show and at the Farmer's Market.
- Additional signage for your business or home.
- You may make team entries into tournament competition.
- Newspaper articles and a final round-up for the tournament listing, sponsors and amount raised.
- Listings on the Lions Facebook page.
- 100 percent of the monies raised above expenses goes to charities.
- Finally, something unusual, a hand-written thank you note.

If you would like additional information or would like to be a sponsor, please call the following individuals:

- Joe Arrowood: (317) 691-8352
- Gordon Resler: (317) 443-5119
- Bill Lynch: (317) 903-5653
- Charlie McMillan: (317) 557-1963

"Say Yes!" to music of Kander & Ebb with Actors Theatre of Indiana Trio

The REPORTER

Actors Theatre of Indiana (ATI) will present ATI Live "Say Yes!" The Music of Kander & Ebb at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, July 21 at Feinstein's.

"Say Yes!" celebrates the music of Kander & Ebb. You will not want to miss the non-stop hit parade featuring the ATI Trio and Terry Woods on piano, all coming from the elegant Feinstein's Cabaret Club located in The Hotel Carmichael in Carmel.

"Say Yes!" The Music of Kander & Ebb will feature the timeless music of composer John Kander and Lyricist Fred Ebb who met in 1962. They wrote songs for Frank Sinatra and Liza Minnelli. The two went on to create music from some of the biggest Broadway hits, including Cabaret, Kiss of the Spider Woman, Chicago and many more.

During this one-night-only performance, ATI's Trio will perform many of Kander & Ebb's Tony Award-winning hits. The Trio is made up of the three ATI co-founders, Don Farrell, Judy Fitzgerald and Cynthia Collins. These three will be accompanied by Terry Woods on piano.

ATI formed a partnership earlier in 2021 with Feinstein's and has been presenting local and national artists once a month. Shows are already scheduled through October 2021. Feinstein's was modeled after the legendary Feinstein's/54 Below in New York City. Two-time Emmy and five-time Grammy Award-winning musician Michael Feinstein officially opened Feinstein's Cabaret Club in The Hotel Carmichael in May 2021.

"Actors Theatre of Indiana is honored to partner with Feinstein's at Hotel Carmichael in presenting local and national top-quality entertainment for our 'ATI Live at Feinstein's' series," said Farrell. "Feinstein's is known world-wide as being a sophisticated destination for live-music of world-class musical talent."

The ATI Trio say they are excited to be part of this outstanding evening of musical theatre at Feinstein's.

Get tickets at atistage.org or by visiting pre-kindle.com/events/feinsteins-cabaret. The show starts at 7:30 p.m. and the doors open at 5:30.

‘Six-State Trooper’ project will target slow down, move over violations

The REPORTER

The Indiana State Police (ISP) will join forces with Kentucky, Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia State Police agencies for what is known as the Six-State Trooper Project. During this collective effort, troopers across Indiana will take to the highways July 18-24 with a primary focus on targeting drivers violating Indiana's Move Over/Slow Down law.

During this period, motorists can expect to see an increased presence of troopers on the roadsides conducting traffic stops. Drivers are encouraged to not drive distracted, to be increasingly aware of the need to move over or slow down as required by state law, and to give troopers room to work safely.

In 1999, Indiana was the first state in the nation to pass such a law requiring motorists to move to an adjacent traffic lane – or reduce speed by 10 mph below the posted speed limit if unable to change lanes safely – when driving by a stationary police, fire or ambulance emergency vehicle stopped along the side of the road.

Over the years since, Indiana's law has expanded to include stationary recovery, utility service, solid waste haulers, road and street highway maintenance vehicles, as well as stationary survey or construction vehicles when displaying alternately flashing amber lights.

Lieutenant Josh Watson, State Police Indianapolis District Commander, along with district supervisors will lead several special patrols in the Indianapolis area over the next week. These patrols will target aggressive and reckless drivers as well as drivers who fail to slow down or move over for stationary emergency vehicles.

"Part of our mission as Indiana State Troopers is to ensure public safety on all Indiana roadways, the goal of these patrols is to educate motorists, generate voluntary compliance of Indiana traffic laws and protect our fellow emergency responders who work alongside Indiana roadways," said Lt. Watson.

Motorists that observe reckless driving behavior, suspected impaired driving, or suspected criminal activity are always encouraged to call 911 to report such activity, or call directly to the ISP Indianapolis Post at (317) 899-8577 when safe to do so.

Carmel reader applauds Rep. Spartz for helping pass Elder Abuse Protection Act

Dear Editor:

Remember the good ole days when you could leave your front door unlocked? When you didn't have to be cautious and alert at all times? Unfortunately, we live in an age where it's best to lean on the side of caution. We've all received a call from a scammer requesting personal information that often sounds legitimate but with no way of verifying whether it's a fraudulent call.

Be that as it may, I applaud the efforts of our Congresswoman Victoria Spartz on the recent passage of the Elder Abuse Protection Act. This bill will continue the Trump Administration's initiative to hold scammers accountable, and she worked with Democrats to pass this important legislation protecting seniors.

Under this new amendment to the law passed back in 2017, the Department of Justice (DOJ) is now required to take concrete steps to combat elder abuse. Under this new law, the federal government must do the following:

- Create an elder justice coordinator position in federal judicial districts, at the DOJ, and at the Federal Trade Commission
- Implement comprehensive training on elder abuse for Federal Bureau of Investigation agents
- Operate a resource group to assist prosecutors in pursuing elder abuse cases
- Require the Elder Justice Initiative to establish a national elder fraud telephone hotline, provide yearly recommendations to the Office of Tribal Justice, and publish online public resources aimed at preventing elder abuse in both English and Spanish.

- Require the Department of Justice (DOJ) to establish a permanent Elder Justice Initiative to coordinate the agency's efforts to combat elder abuse, fraud, and neglect. The bill would designate an Elder Justice Coordinator to support the initiative's law enforcement efforts and policy activities.

And finally, the law also requires the DOJ to collect data on elder abuse and investigations as well as provide training and support to states to fight elder abuse. The law specifically targets email fraud by expanding the definition of telemarketing fraud to include email fraud. Prohibited actions include email solicitations for investment for financial profit, participation in a business opportunity, or commitment to a loan.

Every year, America's senior citizens lose close to $3 billion due to financial exploitation, either from scam artists or unscrupulous caregivers. Thanks for rolling up your sleeves and fighting for Hoosier seniors like myself, Congresswoman!

Noblesville reader wonders why Rep. Spartz voted against Biden's American Rescue Plan

Dear Editor,

In a bit of good news, I just read that Noblesville is giving a $2,000 bonus to each of our police officers and firefighters, and $1,000 to other city employees (Indianapolis Star, June 28, 2021).

These bonuses were made possible by funds given to the city as a direct result of the passage of the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021. Our first responders continue to work hard to keep us safe in a really scary time, and they deserve this recognition.

But curiously, our 5th District Representative Victoria Spartz voted against the American Rescue Plan, putting political affiliation ahead of the people she is supposed to be representing. Taking care of the people who take care of us shouldn't be a partisan issue, and Spartz needs to start thinking about the impact of her ideology on the hardworking people of Noblesville and the rest of Indiana's 5th District.

President Biden's American Rescue Plan is helping the people of Indiana recover from the devastating COVID-19 pandemic, and that looks like good news to me.

Actors Theatre of Indiana unveils 2021-22 season

The REPORTER

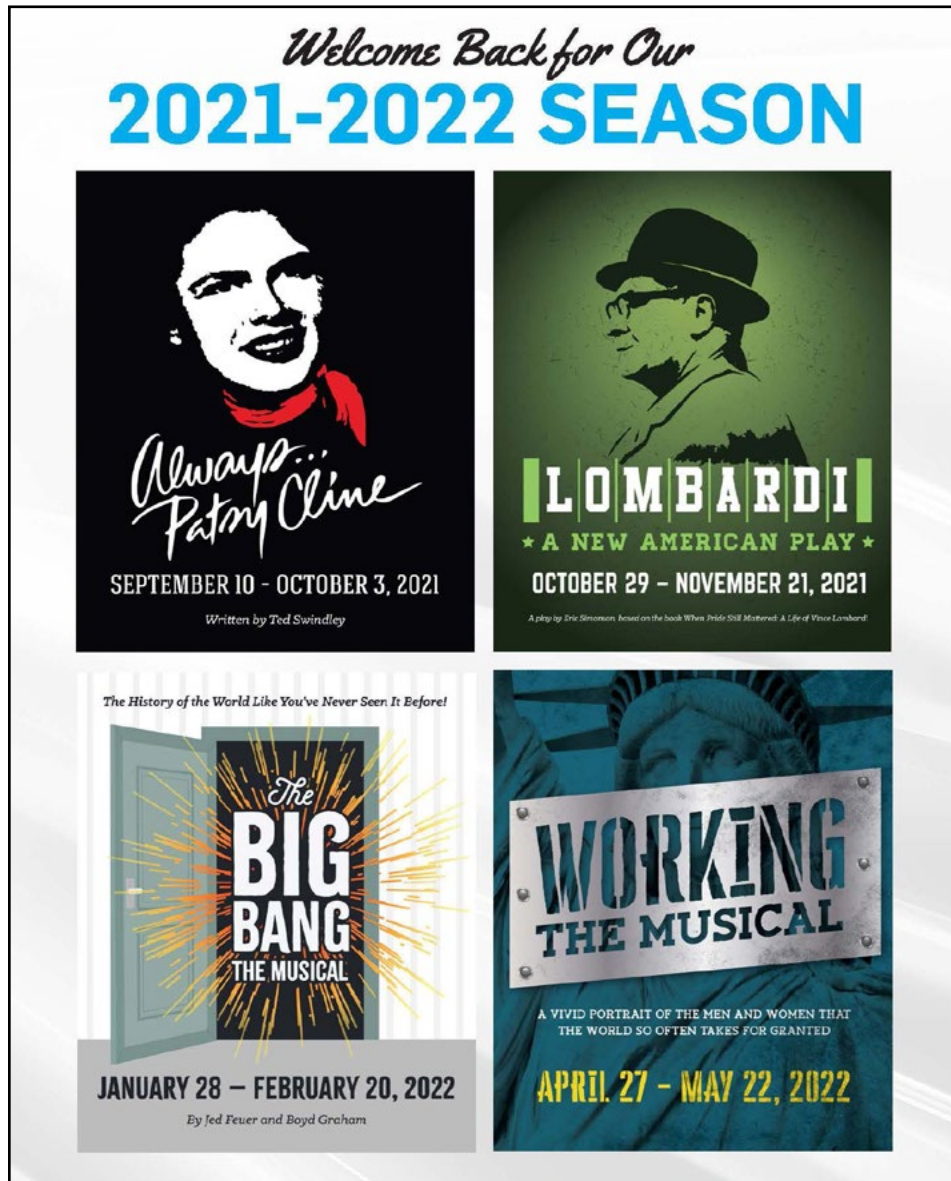

Actors Theatre of Indiana (ATI) will return to live and in-person theatre for the 2021-2022 season. The upcoming season is packed with exciting, high-quality professional performances that will engage and inspire the audience, and maybe teach them something new along the way. ATI will present the new season beginning Friday, Sept. 10 at The Studio Theater, part of The Center for the Performing Arts Carmel.

The new ATI season will kick off with Always ... Patsy Cline, running from Sept. 10 to Oct. 3. This true tale of friendship is told through the letters of Louise Segar, a devoted fan who befriended Patsy Cline at a Texas honky-tonk. It was the kind of relationship that many fans would love to have with their heroes. Featuring Cline's unforgettable hits, this funny and touching tribute celebrates the life and career of the legendary singer who died tragically in a plane crash.

"I Fall to Pieces," "Sweet Dreams" and "Walking After Midnight" are just a few of the 27 featured songs. Fans who remember Cline will get a chance to look back, while giving new fans an idea of what she meant to the country music industry and why she was such a superstar. You'd be "Crazy" to miss it.

Right in the heart of football season will be Lombardi, being performed from Oct. 29 through Nov. 21. This Tony-nominated Broadway play follows Coach Vince Lombardi of the Green Bay Packers through a week in the 1965 NFL season as he attempts to lead his team to the championship.

Although football's Super Bowl trophy is named for him, few know the real story of Lombardi the man, his inspirations, his passions and ability to drive people to achieve what they never thought possible. Sport produces great human drama and there is no greater sports icon to bring to theatrical life than Hall of Fame Coach Vince Lombardi. "Winning isn't everything, but the will to win is everything."

The year 2022 starts off with a bang –

The Big Bang. From Jan. 28 to Feb. 20, 2022, you'll find yourself in the living room of an elegant Park Avenue apartment in New York City. Jed and Boyd, along with their pal Albert on the piano, stage a backers' audition for an $83.5 million, 12-hour-long musical depicting the history of the world from creation to the present.

Eighteen sidesplitting numbers portraying Adam and Eve, Attila the Hun, the building of the pyramids, Julius Caesar, Columbus, and others give potential investors a taste of the impending extravaganza. In the process, the opulent Park Avenue apartment "borrowed" for the occasion is trashed as the two snatch its furnishings to create makeshift costumes while singing and clowning their way through inventive recreations of the past. This is one history lesson you'll never forget. (Note that this performance is rated PG-13.)

The 2021-2022 ATI season will wrap up with Working: The Musical from April 27 to May 22, 2022. This examination of 26 people from all walks of life proves that it's more than just a job for the average working American.

Based on Studs Terkel's best-selling book of interviews with American workers, Working paints a vivid portrait of the men and women that the world so often takes for granted: The schoolteacher, the phone operator, the waitress, the millworker, the mason, and the housewife, just to name a few. Nominated for six Tony Awards, this classic has been updated for a modern age, featuring new songs by Tony Award-winning Lin-Manuel Miranda, as well as favorites by Stephen Schwartz, Craig Carnelia, and James Taylor.

For 2021-2022, ATI will not provide any season subscriptions, only single tickets. Regular single tickets will be $48, senior tickets are $42, and student tickets are $26. Wednesday and the first Saturday matinee will be $30.

You can call the box office at The Center for the Performing Arts at (317) 843-3800 to order your tickets beginning July 23, or visit atistage.org.

Attorney General Todd Rokita sues to recover more than $154 million on behalf of taxpayers fleeced by virtual schools

The REPORTER

Indiana Attorney General Todd Rokita has filed a lawsuit against a consortium of virtual schools and affiliated entities seeking more than $154 million in monies misappropriated from the State of Indiana.

Indiana's lawsuit targets Indiana Virtual School (IVS); Indiana Virtual Pathways Academy (IVPA); Indiana Virtual Educational Foundation (IVEF); and other related entities and individuals.

"This lawsuit is historic because it represents the largest amount of monetary damages ever sought by our office following a State Board of Accounts investigation," Rokita said. "This massive attempt to defraud Hoosier taxpayers through complex schemes truly boggles the mind. This case demonstrates once again that public servants must remain ever vigilant in our work to safeguard the public treasury from opportunists."

IVS and IVPA operated online charter schools that were sponsored by the Daleville Community School

Corp. from July 22, 2015, to Aug. 26, 2019, when Daleville officials revoked the charters. Daleville officials revoked their sponsorship of the schools because IVS and IVPA failed to meet minimum academic standards and failed to comply with accounting and related provisions required by Indiana law, among other reasons.

The State Board of Accounts (SBOA) conducted a special investigation and concluded that public funds were misappropriated through malfeasance, misfeasance, and/or nonfeasance.

"The State Board of Accounts is committed to creating a culture of accountability where public officials and institutions are held to the highest standards," said State Examiner Paul Joyce. "We appreciate the Attorney General for bringing this action on behalf of all the citizens of the State of Indiana."

Because the virtual schools misrepresented the number of enrolled and attending students, the SBOA found that the schools wrongfully received more than $68 million collectively from the State of Indiana.

The audit also uncovered that the schools wrongfully disbursed more than $85 million collectively in public funds to vendors with related individuals in situations where there was no invoice or no itemized information on the invoice.

Rokita is also seeking recovery of the audit costs SBOA incurred to conduct the investigation along with other penalties and punitive relief (amounting to three times the actual loss by the state). The attorney general is also seeking an order that the defendants disgorge any other ill-gotten gains unjustly and wrongfully received and diverted.

This matter has also been referred to federal and state criminal investigative agencies.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

"Where, O death, is your victory?

Where, O death, is your sting?"

The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Therefore, my dear brothers and sisters, stand firm. Let nothing move you. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord, because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain.

Horse Arena will be busy during the Fair

Young equestrians have been getting the chance to show off their skills at the Hamilton County 4-H Fairgrounds over the past couple days, as the Hamilton County 4-H Fair's Horse Arena has had daily activity.

The action began Thursday, the Fair's opening day, with the Horse & Pony English Show. On Friday, riders switched styles for the Horse & Pony Western Show.

Today will be another busy day at the Arena, with two events scheduled. First up will be the Horse & Pony Dressage, which begins at 8 a.m. The second event is the Horse & Pony Contesting Show, which starts at 6 p.m.

On Sunday, there will be two more events at the Horse Arena: The Horse & Pony Hunter Show starts at 10 a.m., to be followed by the Horse & Pony Jumper show. That event will begin 30 minutes after the Hunter Show finishes. Activity wraps up at the Horse Arena on Monday with the Horse Versatility Show, which starts at 10 a.m.

You can catch all the action at the Horse Arena on Hamilton County Television's website, hctv1.com, where events will be shown live and can also be watched on demand.

Rachel Deeter leads her horse, "Ajax" Zippos Double Skip, through an obstacle during the 4-H Horse & Pony Western Show on Friday. The Western Show is one of several events being hosted by the 4-H Fairgrounds Horse Arena during the Hamilton County 4-H Fair.

Pacers hire four assistant coaches

INDIANAPOLIS – The Indiana Pacers announced Friday the hiring of Lloyd Pierce, Ronald Nored, Mike Weiner and Jenny Boucek as assistant coaches for Head Coach Rick Carlisle’s staff. Per team policy, terms were not disclosed.

Pierce joins the Pacers after being head coach of the Atlanta Hawks for the past two and a half seasons. Pierce is currently working with Team USA as part of the USA Basketball Men’s National Team coaching staff as an assistant coach that will soon head to Japan for the 2021 Olympic Games. Prior to his time with the Hawks, Pierce spent time in assistant coaching roles with the Philadelphia 76ers, Memphis Grizzlies, Golden State Warriors and Cleveland Cavaliers. Before he coached in the NBA, Pierce was an assistant coach at his alma mater, Santa Clara University, from 2002-07, and played four seasons at Santa Clara.

Nored returns to the state of Indiana after spending the past three seasons as an assistant coach for the Charlotte Hornets. Prior to his time with the Hornets, Nored was the head coach of the Long Island Nets of the NBA G League for two seasons and spent time with both the Boston Celtics and their G League affiliate, the then-Maine Red Claws. Nored started his coaching career in Indiana at Brownsburg High School. Nored played collegiately at Butler University and was a part of the team that reached back-to-back National Championship games in 2010 and 2011.

While at Butler, he was a two-time Horizon League Defensive Player of the Year.

Weinar joins the Pacers after 13 seasons with the Dallas Mavericks, four as an assistant coach. Weiner was on staff as part of the Mavericks 2011 NBA Championship team. Prior to joining the Mavericks, Weiner worked with the University of Florida men’s basketball program. Originally from Urbana, Illinois, Weiner earned his master’s degree in sport management and his bachelor’s degree in sport science from Florida.

Boucek joins the Pacers after spending the past three seasons as an assistant coach with the Dallas Mavericks. Prior to her time with the Mavericks, Boucek was a player development coach with the Sacramento Kings, becoming just the third woman to coach in the NBA. Prior to joining the Kings, she spent two decades coaching professionally in the WNBA, including tenures as the head coach of the Seattle Storm (2015-17) and the Sacramento Monarchs (2007-09). Boucek was involved in the WNBA since its inaugural season in 1997 when she played for the Cleveland Rockers. Following a career-ending injury in 1998, she began her coaching career. A native of Nashville, Tennessee, she played collegiately at the University of Virginia from 1992-96 and was a two-time GTE All-American, two-time ACC selection and two-time defensive player of the year.
