County budget hearings wrap up

In spite of state cuts, county to see no income tax increase

The REPORTER

On Wednesday, the last day of budget hearings drew to a close with neither an increase in Local Income Tax (LIT) rates nor a reduction of the Rainy Day Fund to compensate for the shortfall of tax allocation from the state.

The Reporter spoke with Hamilton County Council Member At-Large Sue Maki, District 4 Member Ken Alexander, and District 2 County Council Member and Council President Amy Massillamany about the final day of hearings.

The day began with financial consultant Mike Reuter explaining that his investigation into the reduction in the state's allocation of LIT funds to Hamilton County is still ongoing, but that he had discovered some interesting facts.

Reuter told the council that among Marion County and the donut counties, Hamilton County has, in recent years, seen consistently the largest percentage of increase in LIT collections. This year, the county is seeing the largest decrease in collections of all those counties.

"I can't go into and no one seem to understand why we have this deep of a cut when Marion County barely has any,"

Update #65 from Dr. Derek Arrowood, Superintendent, Hamilton Heights School Corporation.

We are excited and ready to welcome students back to full-time, in-person learning with a new start time next Tuesday, Aug. 10. We are looking forward to providing a more traditional school experience after more than a year of educational adjustments due to the COVID-19 pandemic. We are also committed to providing a safe, caring, and respectful learning environment.

With the new COVID-19 variant looming over the country, I can understand there may be questions and concerns from our school community regarding safety. Our safety guidelines and expectations are outlined in our 2021-22 COVID-19 Re-Entry Plan which is posted on our website at hhschuskies.org.

The Hamilton County Health Department is urging residents to follow the ISDH's recommendation that all Hoosiers over the age of two wear masks in public indoor spaces, including school buildings. The recommendation follows the CDC's announcement last month. We support this recommendation and strongly recommend masks for students and staff. However, as of this writing, we are leaving the decision on whether to wear face coverings at school up to students, staff, and their families. Please note that masks are required on school buses as per the federal mandate.

While the coming school year will look and feel more like a traditional school year, we know we must remain vigilant and do our part to keep our students and staff healthy and safe. We will continue to monitor any changes in guidance at the local, state, and federal levels and/or if our current approach impacts our ability to provide a successful in-person experience. We are prepared to adjust our plan. We will continue to keep you updated through various forms of communication including these updates which will be

Carmel Clay Schools start times change due to bus driver shortage

By JULIE DOW
WISH-TV | wishtv.com

At Tuesday's Hamilton County Council budget meeting, one of the topics discussed was various departments' struggles to hire and maintain staff in the current economy. At the local level, Carmel Clay Schools (CCS) is facing the same issue with a shortage of bus drivers.

Also on Tuesday, CCS announced a change to school start times because of a bus driver shortage.

In an email to parents, Carmel Clay Schools Superintendent Michael Beresford says the district is down by 30 to 40 drivers.

That means current drivers will have to handle three to four routes each day, instead of the normal two.

Also, bus transportation will not be offered to kids who live within a one-mile radius around each school building.

According to an email sent to parents, students on special needs or early childhood buses will not be impacted.

Elementary schools will be using what the district called "double routing," where some students are picked up as much as an hour before the morning bell so that the driver can complete a second route. The process will be reversed at dismissal time. The superintendent in the email said no students would have to both arrive early and stay late.

The new bell times are:

- Elementary schools: 7:40 a.m. to 2:25 p.m.
- Middle schools: 8:25 a.m. to 3:25 p.m.
- High schools: 9:05 a.m. to 4:05 p.m.

Late start bell times are:

- Elementary schools: 8:20 a.m.
- Middle schools: 9:05 a.m.
- High schools: 9:45 a.m.

Fishers Arts Council presents artwork from two sisters: 'Painting Words and Emotions'

The REPORTER

Fishers Arts Council (FAC) presents the artwork of sisters Olivia (Liv) Ash and Ingrid Blount titled "Painting Words and Emotions" at The Art Gallery at City Hall in Fishers.

The exhibit is open now and continues through the end of the month. There will be a free public reception at the gallery from 6 to 8 p.m. on Friday, Aug. 13 with refreshments and live music by Emily Ann Thompson.

Ash says she prefers large-scale works. "I am content in creating a piece when it expresses the emotion I imagine."

Ash says she also prefers working with acrylic on canvas as it dries quickly enough to keep up with her mind. She gravitates toward texture and abstract works, "imagining the emotional landscape behind the artistic one."

For Blount, "Each piece represents either an emotion or word/phrase/poem that the painting evokes to me as an artist."

For this exhibit, Blount has expanded from her base of alcohol inks to include acrylics and gypsum. "The art process behind the pieces was two-fold," she explained. Her first objective was to grow in her use of color combination and larger pieces. Her second objective was to use new techniques to expand her style.

Together, the sisters present 45 colorful expressions of words and emotions on canvas.

The gallery is part of the City Municipal Complex at One Municipal Drive, Fishers. It is open weekdays from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and from 10 a.m. to noon during the Fishers Summer

Farmers Market.

Also, during the Aug. 13 reception for Liv and Ingrid, a raffle will be held for a Conner Prairie Basic Family Membership, in anticipation of the upcoming Art on the Prairie event on Sunday, Aug. 22. Winners do not need to be present to win.

Sheriff's deputies teach bike safety at first ever rodeo

The REPORTER

The Hamilton County Sheriff's Office will play host to its first ever on campus Bicycle Rodeo. This rodeo will be presented by members of the Hamilton County Sheriff's Bike Unit. The bicycle rodeo will be open to the first 60 county residents who register.

The event will take place from 5 to 7 p.m. on Monday, Aug. 16 in the front parking lot of the Hamilton County Sheriff's Office, 18100 Cumberland Road, Noblesville.

Deputies will emphasize the importance of wearing a helmet and demonstrate fundamental bicycle riding skills. Basic rules of the road will also be taught while the children ride through an orange traffic cone obstacle course.

"Connecting with the kids in our community is the best part of this event. The fact we are able to also teach the about bicycle safety is an added bonus!" said Sheriff Dennis Quakenbush.

Parents and/or guardians must provide a bicycle in good working condition. Please bring a helmet to this event as they are required. If you are unable to bring a helmet, the Sheriff's Office will provide one for you. All other items will be provided by the Hamilton County Sheriff's Office.

If you or someone you know is interested in this event, please send an email to ryan.mcclain@hamiltoncounty.in.gov and the number of spaces you need will be reserved. Further paperwork will be provided upon signing up.

Community, leaders turn out for park's reopening

So many positive things in Carmel

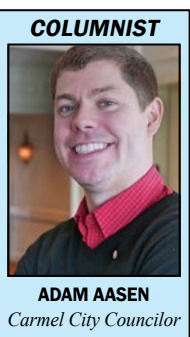

Decades ago, Carmel was a bedroom community.

It was a very nice city with top-notch schools but it was a place where people lived but not necessarily where they worked or went out for entertainment. Many Carmel residents made the long commute to downtown Indianapolis every day to work and ventured into Marion County often for dinner or a show.

Carmel has grown as a city. We now have more than 100 corporate headquarters within our city limits, offering residents many options for a short work commute. In the last 25 years, our population has increased from 25,000 to more than 100,000. We've gone from about 40 acres of park land back then to more than 800 acres today, including amazing recent expansions to the Monon Trail.

Entertainment options have exploded with a flourishing downtown. We have world class cultural and entertainment venues like The Palladium, the acoustically-perfect 1,600-seat concert hall which will host giant names like John Legend and Ben Folds this fall. Residents can take a short drive, walk or bike ride to Midtown Plaza to enjoy a meal at Sun King and watch free movies and sporting events on the large outdoor TV screen in the public plaza. You can even enjoy a romantic staycation at the Hotel Carmichael, a Marriott Autograph Collection hotel that overlooks the Monon.

tive city design, we still offer the same amenities that make us feel like a small town.

I cherish the times I watch my two-year-old daughter skip through the splash pads at Central Park or dig through the sand at Founders Park.

I love seeing residents gather for the annual Fourth of July parade, one of the best and most attended in the state. Crowds show up for our wonderful fireworks display and CarmelFest event every Independence Day and it just feels like true Americana.

I love seeing longtime residents filling up their plastic water jugs at Flowing Well Park and waiting in line for pancakes at the Carmel Lions Club.

As we continue to grow as a city – which is a good thing – we can't lose our small town charm.

To me, Carmel offers the best of both worlds: the amenities, entertainment and business of a big city while still offering the community spirit of a small town. It's why my family chooses to call it home.

City Councilor Adam Aasen (R-SE District) represents southeast Carmel, which is east of Keystone Parkway and north of 96th Street. The district borders the north along Main Street from Keystone to Gray Road and along 126th Street from Gray to the eastern city limits.

Carmel to unveil mural honoring Black Hoosier heroes

The REPORTER

The City of Carmel will join mural artist Israel Solomon in the official unveiling of a new mural honoring Indiana's Black heroes and heroines in the Carmel Arts & Design District at 10:30 a.m. on Friday, Aug. 6

The event will take place in the alley parking lot on the north side of Drs. Lauck & McLean Optometry Eyewear building, 301 1st St. SW (a half-block south of Main Street, between Range Line Road and Veterans Way).

Join Mayor Jim Brainard, artist Israel Solomon, building owner Brad Subrin, Tamika Catchings of the Indiana Fever and Lily McAndrews of Be The Change Indy for a ribbon cutting and remarks at the site of the new mural.

This new addition to Carmel's growing inventory of public art began to take shape in June thanks to a collaboration between current and former local high school students who approached city officials and brought in the Indianapolis-based artist Israel Solomon. The large-scale mural features Black heroes and heroines who hail from or have had an impact in the state of Indiana.

The $15,000 project was the collaborative efforts of the Carmel Redevelopment Commission, Carmel Midtown Community Development Corporation, Carmel Clay Parks & Recreation and building owner Brad Subrin. The students who brought the project to the city included Lily McAndrews, Izza Khurram, and Adell Urtel, along with Cami Carillo and Dariush Khurram, who formed the group Be the Change Indy to raise awareness about social justice issues both globally and locally.

Solomon, a visual artist and art educator spends his time impacting the community, including working with the Children's Museum of Indianapolis. In 2018, Solomon produced a solo exhibition at the Indianapolis Arts Garden, which highlighted his love of vibrant color and geometric shapes.

Rep. Spartz leads bipartisan letter to FBI Director Wray requesting briefing on constitutional violations

The REPORTER
Congresswoman Victoria Spartz (R-Ind.-05) and Congresswoman Zoe Lofgren (D-Cal.-19) led a bipartisan letter with members of the House Judiciary Committee requesting Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Director Christopher Wray to provide a briefing on efforts to prevent further misuse of Section 702 data, including the establishment of the Office of Internal Auditing (OIA). Section 702 of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act is a statute that authorizes warrantless targeting, for foreign intelligence purposes, of electronic communications of foreign nationals who are located abroad. According to the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court, the FBI has repeatedly violated the constitutional rights and civil liberties of Americans through widespread and repeated misuse of Section 702 data collections on U.S. citizens, including those located inside the country.

When Director Wray appeared before the House Judiciary Committee on June 10, a number of committee members raised concerns with the FBI's misuses of Section 702 data and subsequent efforts to assure privacy, data protection, and proper due process for U.S. citizens. Members further requested a briefing on the FBI's promised reforms, including the establishment of the OIA.

"The FBI has systematically failed to comply with Section 702 restrictions and its own regulations to protect Americans' civil liberties," said Rep. Spartz. "The core function of the government is to protect our constitutional rights, and members of Congress should be briefed by FBI officials regarding the bureau's efforts to remediate this issue."

Powell: Next decade will prove pivotal for America

Dear Editor:

Despite his all-too-human foibles, President John F. Kennedy publicly lived the type of leadership and vision America needs today.

What America has been given lately are the ramblings of career politicians or the blowhard egos of billionaires.

America, if we are to be free again, must come to grips that the cancer of Corporate Communism has metastasized in the body politic of our nation.

Since 1972 when Kissinger and Nixon opened the Pandora's box, American freedom has melted away, along with American factories, American culture and now at the end American pride.

The adversary was ever so clever and cunning, ever so silent and deadly in the infiltration of our institutions of government, education, unions, seminaries and religious denominations, Wall Street, technology, healthcare, the military, and intelligence agencies.

This immediate decade ahead will see for the first time since the 1860s Americans fighting for our own FREEDOMS on our own soil.

It is my hope and prayer as a pastor of souls that we can regain our freedoms peacefully.

Freedom is in the American DNA, and no mRNA will change that reality.

No concocted bioweapon designed by the Communist Chinese or traitorous Americans who have chosen to join the ranks of Brutus, Judas and Benedict Arnold can destroy the dignity of the individual over the collective.

Free will is God's greatest gift and greatest curse to humanity.

In 2031, we can have cut out the Godless metastasized cancer of State Capitalism or we can live as slaves to pharmaceutical cocktails given to us by oppressive puppet governments around the globe.

That epic free will decision lies in the hearts and souls of every child of God on this planet. For me, I choose FREEDOM FOREVER.

Cicero reader opposes "federal government takeover of voting"

Dear Editor:

Message to the League of Women Voters of Hamilton County...

Have read your letter to the editor in the Reporter? You can't be serious with your desires for passing the mass garbage and federal government takeover of voting!

The federal government has proven that they cannot do anything good, or for that matter above poor. The federal government is great at building another massive, overstaffed, power-grabbing bureaucracy. They create the problem then blame others, allowing for the politicians to pass laws that fix issues created by them. So, so sad, and another real reason for true statutory TERM LIMITS for all elected positions.

One remedy that may fix and repair the VOTER turnout issue is to make Election Day a paid national holiday, and if a working person cannot prove they voted, then no pay.

Voter ID is a mandatory issue and needed in all states. Just our thoughts from the cheap seats.

As a conservative, I can only hope Senator Young does not support the latest power grab of our federal house of crooks!

Consumer alert: Did you purchase any of these recalled products?

The REPORTER

Indiana Attorney General Todd Rokita strongly encourages all Hoosiers who purchased consumer products that were recalled in July to take advantage of the remedies available to them.

"No Hoosier should have to accept paying for a faulty product that is defective or does not work properly," Rokita said. "If you recently purchased a good or item that is in any way defective, you should immediately find out what the company that made the product is offering as a solution and take advantage of it."

According to the Consumer Product Safety Commission, the following consumer products were recalled in July:

- Removable Foam

Facial Interfaces for Oculus Quest 2 Virtual Reality Headsets from Facebook Technologies

- Model Years 2020 and 2021 Can-AM Defender HD10 side-by-side vehicles from BRP

- Rechargeable Hand-held Fans from Rite Aid
- Model Year 2021 RZR Pro XP and RZR Pro XP 4 Recreational Off-Road Vehicles from Polaris

- Barrington 5-Drawer Chests from Bel Furniture
- Caldwell E-Max® Pro BT Earmuffs With Rechargeable Lithium Battery Packs from American Outdoor Brands

- Arroyo and Hideaway Wood Burning Fire Pits from Real Flame
- Ozone 500® Girls' and Boys' Elevate 24-Inch

Bicycles from Academy Sports

- SOWTECH Espresso Machines with Glass Carafes from LoHi Tech
- Creekside Kids Five-Drawer Chests from Canyon Furniture

If you believe you recently purchased a recalled product, stop using it and check its recall notice (linked above for all aforementioned products). Then follow the notice's instructions, including where to return the product, how to get the product fixed, how to dispose of the product, how to receive a refund for the product, or what steps must be taken to receive a replacement product.

New wing opening at Cicero library Sunday

The REPORTER

Hamilton North Public Library (HNPL) invites the public to a special ribbon cutting ceremony and open house at Cicero Library in celebration of the official opening of its recent addition, the Michael E. Jenkins Wing, on Sunday, Aug. 8.

The ribbon cutting ceremony will take place inside the library at 1 p.m.

Directly following the ribbon cutting, the public may gather into the new Jenkins Wing for the open house until 4 p.m.

This event had originally been scheduled for March 22, 2020, but was canceled at the time due to COVID. Construction on the new addition was started in the spring of 2019.

Named after Mike Jenkins, a former longtime HNPL Board member and retired Hamilton Heights teacher, the new wing houses a 125-person capacity meeting room, full kitchen, and a makerspace, a place where creative types can create. Both the new meeting room and the makerspace will be available for public rental and will be used to host library events for years to come. Each room boasts large windows for optimum lighting.

Special recognition should be given to HNPL's Director, Ann Hoehn, past Library Board Presidents, Steve Griffith and Lee Templeton, and Maintenance Supervisor, Mike Hiatt, who were instrumental in the successful completion of the new wing.

HNPL – Cicero is located at 209 W. Brinton St.

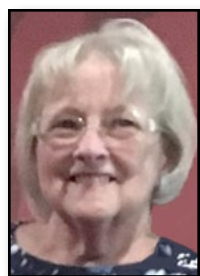

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

But thanks be to God, who always leads us as captives in Christ's triumphal procession and uses us to spread the aroma of the knowledge of him everywhere. For we are to God the pleasing aroma of Christ among those who are being saved and those who are perishing. To the one we are an aroma that brings death; to the other, an aroma that brings life. And who is equal to such a task? Unlike so many, we do not peddle the word of God for profit. On the contrary, in Christ we speak before God with sincerity, as those sent from God.

Susan Jane Smith

January 23, 1947 – February 17, 2021

Susan Jane Smith, 74, Noblesville, passed away on February 17, 2021 at her home in Noblesville. She was born on January 23, 1947 to Richard and Agnes (Ammerman) Roberts in Noblesville.

Susan completed dental technician training with honors and worked at Riverview Hospital in Noblesville as a Candy Striper prior to marrying Donald Smith, her husband of 32 years. She enjoyed traveling in the United States, camping with her family, gardening, hosting holiday dinners for family and friends and giving advice for those in need. She was a seasoned cook and liked to experiment with recipes to make them her own. Most of all, she enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren.

She is survived by her son, Jeffrey (Jennifer) Robinette; her grandchildren, Elizabeth, Emily, Michael, and Abigail Robinette; her sister, Linda Slayten, Plainfield; her brother, David Roberts, Noblesville; and her husband's children, Brenda (Mark Hadley) Gerkin, Gary (Elizabeth) Smith, Mark (Jo Ann Harris) Smith; and their grandchildren, Bryan Riddle, Amy Bryant, Joshua Smith, Jacob Smith, Jediaiah Smith, and Andrea Smith; and several great-grandchildren.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband and their grandson, Spencer Smith.

A Celebration of Life will be held at 1 p.m. on Monday August 16, 2021 at Randall & Roberts Funeral Home, 1150 Logan St., Noblesville. The visitation will be held from 11 a.m. to the time of service at the funeral home.

In lieu of flowers, gifts can be made in Susan's memory to the Courtney Cox Cole Infusion Center, 395 Westfield Road, Noblesville, IN 46060, where the gracious staff and nurses always met her with cheerful smiles.

IndyCar drivers, retired Colts players raising money for United Way of Central Indiana

The REPORTER

IndyCar owner George Steinbrenner IV knows a thing or two about horsepower, but not the kind of horsepower generated at Hickory Hall Polo Club in Whitestown. Steinbrenner, along with NTT INDYCAR drivers James Hinchcliff and Conor Daly and several retired Colts players, will raise money for United Way of Central Indiana on Thursday, Aug. 12.

"Hundreds of thousands of Hoosiers are living just one emergency away from poverty," Steinbrenner said. "We're excited about supporting United Way's mission to ensure Hoosier families achieve financial stability and strive for a brighter future."

The family-friendly event, dubbed Horsepower, will include tailgating and a polo match. Gates open at 4:30 p.m. with the match beginning at 6 p.m. Organizers aim to raise $50,000.

"A lot of families are hurting right now, many as a direct result of the pandemic," said Ann Murtlow, President and CEO of United Way of Central Indiana. "Money raised from this event will go a long way to getting people back on their feet and stabilizing families who are in real need."

Tickets for Horsepower must be purchased in advance online. Tickets are $100 per car, including all occupants. Guests are encouraged to bring their own food, drinks, chairs, and blankets.

Participants can take part in a tailgate competition by purchasing a tailgate box for $400. The 10-by-10-foot premium parking spaces are adjacent to the polo field and provide prime viewing. Prizes will be given to tailgaters with the best theme spirit and most creative set up.

"And if you're really into the VIP experience, we've got a treat for you," Steinbrenner added. "Guests can purchase a VIP Access Package that includes complimentary food and host bar, two celebrity meet-and-greets, and a VIP favor. Not to mention, the satisfaction in knowing that they're further supporting a worthwhile cause."

The public can also bid on silent auction at e.givesmart.com/events/lvH.

Girls golf

Golden Eagles, Shamrocks pick up more tournament victories

It's been a busy week for the Guerin Catholic girls golf team, but it's also been a very successful one.

The Golden Eagles won their third tournament in as many days on Wednesday, triumphing at their own Guerin Catholic Invitational at Pebble Brook. GC put together a team score of 333, with Brebeuf Jesuit the runner-up by scoring 341.

Christina Pfefferkorn was the meet medalist with a 70, continuing her personal streak: Pfefferkorn has been the individual medalist in all three of Guerin's victories. Audrey Kunce scored an 84 to take third place individually.

The Golden Eagles' early win streak becomes more impressive when one notes that their team score has dropped significantly since the start. Guerin Catholic scored a 360 on Monday while winning the Cathedral Irish Invitational, then a 344 during a Tuesday victory at the Lafayette Jefferson Booster Invitational.

"The trend's in the right direction," said GC coach Mark Mathews. "With the exception of Christina, most of the girls still have some things they can improve on, for sure. We'll get better and better as the season unfolds and we're just looking forward to working towards that number we need for sectionals. That's our biggest goal."

Team scores: Guerin Catholic 333, Brebeuf Jesuit 341, Bishop Dwenger 374, Cathedral 386, Bishop Chatard 398, Guerin Catholic second team 466, Cardinal Ritter 479.

The Westfield girls golf team won the Seymour Invitational Wednesday at Shadowood Golf Club. The No. 2-ranked Shamrocks scored a 300 for their second tournament victory of the season.

Medalist: Christina Pfefferkorn (GC) 70.

Other Guerin Catholic scores: Audrey Kunce 84, Izzy Pinion 87, Jenny Zerla 92, Sarah Rigg 104.

Guerin Catholic second team scores: Grace Cates 98, Gracie Navarro 117, Avery Wall 122, Maris Bulger 129, Addison Rogers 131.

Westfield had another impressive result Wednesday, as the Shamrocks won the Seymour Invitational at Shadowood Golf Club.

Second-ranked Westfield scored a 300 to collect its second tournament win of the season. Sam Brown led the way with a four-under par 69, earning her medalist honors for the second time in three days. Brown has finished under par in all three of her tournament rounds this season.

Sophie McGinnis carded a one under par 72 for the individual runner-up spot. Brette Hanavan made a 50-foot eagle putt on her way to a 77, giving her a top-five finish. Freshman Addi Kooi scored an 82 and Allie McKeown added an 83.

The Shamrocks also had a second team play at Shadowood, and that squad was the runner-up with a 342. Claire Thompson led with an 83, followed by Mallory Mortl 85, Sam Lemieux 85, Sophie Thompson 89 (a personal best) and Sadie Edwards 93.
