Heights Cub Scouts adopt, improve school playground

Cub Scout Pack 103 spent the morning of Aug. 14 spreading new mulch around playgrounds at Lincoln Park, west of the Hamilton Heights Student Activities Center (former middle school building).

Seven scouts and six adults spent a combined 20 hours as part of the Crossroads of America Council's "Adopt-A-School" program. The service project was part of the Pack's partnership with Hamilton Heights School Corporation and was

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville, I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault - it wasn't something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don't often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we're breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.

Governor Holcomb honored at Indiana India Business gala

POOJA GARÓ

For The Reporter

The fourth annual Indiana India Gala was held on Aug. 10 at the Indiana Roof Ballroom in Indianapolis.

Carmel resident Raju Chinthala, founder of Indiana India Business Council (IIBC), attests that the IIBC contributes to strengthening Indiana-India relations by generating economic and social growth.

Carmel City Councilor Miles Nelson and Congresswoman Victoria Spartz were in attendance, along with other business owners and community leaders.

The IIBC is responsible for bringing several partnerships to life and transcending borders and building relationships. IIBC creates international ties that bring together Indiana and India along with bringing together diversity and leadership by engaging stakeholders, business and government entities. IIBC serves as the area's direct tie between business and government leaders.

This year, IIBC honored Governor Eric Holcomb and Infosys Vice President head of Midwest Region Richard Cardwell by awarding them

1840 - The first meeting of the Indiana Horticultural Society was held at the Statehouse in Indianapolis. The organization was inspired by Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, then pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in the city. Farmers came to the capital city to show their best produce and to discuss new ideas and practices in growing crops.

1917 - The 38th Division of the National Guard was organized at Camp Shelby, Miss. It was made up of units from Indiana, Kentucky, and West Virginia. The Indiana regiments included the 137th and 139th Artillery and the 151st, 152nd, and 76th Infantry. These units included volunteers from all over the County Democrat newspa-

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

As God's co-workers we urge you not to receive God's grace in vain. For he says,

"In the time of my favor I heard you, and in the day of salvation I helped you." I tell you, now is the time of God's favor, now is the day of salvation.

We put no stumbling block in anyone's path, so that our ministry will not be discredited. Rather, as servants of God we commend ourselves in every way: in great endurance; in troubles, hardships and distresses; in beatings, imprisonments and riots; in hard work, sleepless nights and hunger; in purity, understanding, patience and kindness; in the Holy Spirit and in sincere love; in truthful speech and in the power of God; with weapons of righteousness in the right hand and in the left; through glory and dishonor, bad report and good report; genuine, yet regarded as impostors; known, yet regarded as unknown; dying, and yet we live on; beaten, and yet not killed; sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; poor, yet making many rich; having nothing, and yet possessing everything.

We have spoken freely to you, Corinthians, and opened wide our hearts to you. We are not withholding our affection from you, but you are withholding yours from us. As a fair exchange—I speak as to my children—open wide your hearts also.

2 Corinthians 6:1-13(NIV)
