

Questions about Fishers, Carmel and Envoy

By STU CLAMPITT | ReadTheReporter.com

When the Highline project was on the agenda at the Aug. 16 Fishers City Council meeting, Councilwoman Jocelyn Vare raised multiple concerns including the fact that the company involved, Envoy, has State Senator Scott Baldwin as its CEO. Hamilton County residents have since been asking about multiple Envoy projects, so the Reporter spoke to city council members in both Fishers and Carmel about their most recent Envoy partnerships.

The Reporter’s attempts to reach Sen. Baldwin for comment were unsuccessful.

Fishers Highline Project ($10 million)

The Highline project is a private development to be located south of 106th Street between Lantern Road and Kincaid Boulevard. The project is supposed to involve apartments, restaurants and other amenities, which one councilmember compared to Fishers Marketplace. You can read the project agreement, which includes maps, a conceptual drawing, a list of prohibited businesses and other details at tinyurl.com/FishersHighlineDetails.

“I voted against the development project agreement between the City of Fishers and Envoy for several reasons,” Vare told the Reporter. Vare said she was only given three business days’ notice that the Highline project would be heard, which she did not believe was sufficient time to “vet and consider the details of the development.” She also told the Reporter, “There was no

Carmel Police Headquarters ($38 million)

The Carmel Police Headquarters expansion is a very different project. This is not private development, but is classified as a “Build Operate Transfer” (BOT) under Indiana statute IC 5-23-3, which reads in part, “A governmental body may enter into a BOT agreement with an operator for the acquisition, planning, design, development, reconstruction, repair, maintenance, or financing of any public facility on behalf of the governmental body.”

Noblesville Schools-themed roundabout sculpture coming soon to Field Drive and Cumberland Road

The REPORTER

Noblesville Schools announced on Sept. 20 the upcoming construction of a school-themed art sculpture at the roundabout intersection of Field Drive and Cumberland Road.

The art will celebrate the district’s distinctive N in school colors black and gold with the words “Noblesville” and “Millers” highlighted. Two 17-foot aluminum Ns facing in opposite directions will be featured and will be angled in the roundabout to provide visibility from many viewpoints.

The district launched a community art contest in 2019 to seek design inspiration for the project and received five submissions that featured a prominent N. Those winning submissions came from:

- Carter Metzger, Noblesville West Middle School sixth grader
- Amelia Wiggins, Noblesville High School tenth grader
- Kelsie Hayward, 2021 Noblesville High School graduate
- Jakob O’Dell, 2019 Noblesville High School graduate
- Donna Hess, Noblesville Schools receptionist specific roundabout to feature the art thanks to its location at the center of several schools, school facilities and athletic venues, including the new Noblesville High School multipurpose stadium coming in 2022.

The sculpture is being funded through the same construction bond used to build the stadium, with no impact to the tax rate and no use of classroom or referendum dollars.

The project is expected to be completed in October 2021.

State Rep. Tony Cook to retire at end of term

The REPORTER

State Rep. Tony Cook (R-Cicero) has announced he will retire in 2022 after fulfilling his current term as state representative for House District 32.

“Serving our community at the Statehouse over the last seven years has been a tremendous honor,” Cook said. “It’s time to turn to the next chapter, which includes prioritizing my family’s health as well as my own. I appreciate the trust the residents of House District 32 have placed in me, and I’ll make sure there is a seamless transition for the constituents.”

Cook said among the reasons for retiring is his need to focus on personal health issues as well as helping care for his elderly father.

As a former school superintendent and teacher, Cook’s passion for helping students and educators led him to champion several laws supporting Indiana schools. To help young Hoosiers, Cook worked on bills ensuring student access to mental health services and programs, requiring middle school students take a civics education class, expanding access to computer science classes and establishing Indiana’s Course Access Program. He also worked on legislation addressing funding issues in K-12 schools, improving the state accountability system for teachers and schools, and streamlining and eliminating duplicative and unnecessary teacher training requirements.

Cook was the driving force behind legislation often referred to as the “hot dog law,” which allows citizens to forcibly enter a vehicle to rescue an animal left unattended in the heat after notifying police.

Cook and his wife, Kathryn, reside in Cicero, and together they have two grown sons.

Sheridan Rotarians learn about Evergreen Indiana

Submitted by Steve Martin
On behalf of Sheridan Rotary Club

The Sheridan Rotary Club recently hosted Hannah Donaldson, a guest speaker from the Sheridan Public Library. Ms. Donaldson talked about and demonstrated the new ILS (Integrated Library System) recently installed at the library.

Evergreen Indiana is the name of the ILS, and it is a product of the Indiana State Library.

Evergreen offers several advantages to libraries, especially smaller libraries. First, because it is a state sponsored program, it is relatively inexpensive to install and maintain. Second, the holdings of each individual library are in the Evergreen database and gives all Evergreen library customers access to each other's collection materials. Currently that number adds up to 8 million collection items as opposed to Sheridan's 46,000.

In addition to providing library customers a first-rate automated library circulation system, Evergreen Indiana facilitates the use of inter-library loan transactions among member libraries.

Evergreen Indiana is good for local library patrons. It is a robust, full-service ILS software program. It facilitates borrowing materials from the local library as well as giving customers access to millions of library items from 129 other Indiana libraries.

- The Levinson will be open in less than two weeks. The mixed-use project in partnership with Rebar Development includes 85 apartment units, a four-level parking garage with 299 spaces and 7,100 square feet of commercial space.

Jensen also discussed the city's infrastructure and future road improvements – most notably the necessity to move forward on the expansion of Pleasant Street from State Road 37 to Hague Road.

"The expansion of Pleasant Street is my No. 1 infrastructure priority. We will break ground on the $125 million investment by the end of 2022," he said.

The City of Noblesville and the Indiana Department of Transportation have an infrastructure partnership for the construction of five new roundabout intersections to improve traffic flow throughout the community by enhancing east-west connectivity. Utility relocation work began this year along State Road 32 and the roundabout with State Road 38 will be in construction next year. The roundabout at SR 32 and River Road will be built in 2023.

Quick thinking from Carmel city employees saves man’s life

The REPORTER

At approximately 3:55 p.m. on Sept. 15, a 64-year-old man passed out while playing pickleball at the Monon Community Center. A Code Red was called to alert employees of the incident and Senior Lifeguard Matthew Selear and Recreation & Facilities Director Eric Mehl responded, along with off-duty Carmel Police Sergeant Dave Kinyon.

Selear arrived first and quickly recognized the man was not breathing and did not have a pulse. He initiated CPR with the assistance of Sgt. Kinyon. Mehl arrived shortly after and applied pads from an Automated External Defibrillator (AED) to the victim. The AED recommended a shock, and a single shock was delivered to the victim. Sgt. Kinyon and Selear then continued with another round of CPR.

A short time later the Carmel Mayor Jim Brainard and the Carmel City Council presented these fine individuals with the Good Samaritan Award for rendering life-saving assistance. (Front row, from left) Michael Klitzing, Matthew Selear, Dave Kinyon, Eric Mehl and Mayor Jim Brainard. victim began to regain consciousness and was able to answer questions. After regaining consciousness, he was monitored and kept comfortable until Carmel Fire Department EMS arrived and transported him to the hospital.

This incident is another example of the importance of having AEDs in public locations, as well as training in CPR. The Carmel Fire Department has several initiatives in place to increase the number of trained citizens and public areas with access to life saving resources. Access to AEDs and CPR before EMS arrival has proven to significantly increase survivability.

Great work to the individuals who recognized the severity of the situation, relied on their training, performed flawlessly and saved a life.

career and workforce development in an industry sector that is not available elsewhere in the area. The ancillary increase in commerce from supporting trades and other industries will further improve our economy.”

The City of Carmel will also invest in the project through a Tax Incremental Financing (TIF) bond that will be considered for approval by the City Council. The TIF bond will be used for infrastructure improvements. Site development, parking facilities, streets and other infrastructure improvements will be funded by the increase in property tax revenues from the new building. The bonds will be backed solely by Republic Airways, and the City of Carmel and its taxpayers will have no liability.

The 105,000 square-foot training facility will be three stories tall and visible to travelers on nearby U.S. 31, providing passersby with a unique view of pilot-training simulators through large bay windows that will face the highway. Within the development, an “eagles nest” viewing deck will allow visitors, school students and other aviation partners a unique view of the excitement of aviation.

Construction will begin with the training facility, which will include 20 classrooms, 94 workstations, two cabin trainers and eight flight simulators. After the corporate headquarters is constructed, four more classrooms will be added along with two more flight simulators. The hotel adjacent to the training center will be expanded to 274 rooms and used exclusively as accommodations for trainees, visiting instructors, business partners and colleagues traveling to the aviation campus.

Phillip L. Munsey

April 4, 1946 – September 22, 2021

Phillip L. Munsey, 75, Noblesville, passed away on Wednesday, September 22, 2021 in his sleep at his home. He was born on April 4, 1946 to Raleigh and Hope (Johnson) Munsey in Indianapolis.

Phil attended Beech Grove High School and received higher education at Sams Technical Institute and Indiana Northern University, going onto pursue a career in technology and engineering. He was a man of many loves, most of all the outdoors – whether it be bicycling in Utah, rafting in Colorado, hiking in Tennessee, or simply camping in Southern Indiana. Even in the last weeks of his life, Phil took comfort by just sitting outside with his beloved companion Rosey. Another love of his was food, and when it came to this, he was adventurous! Uni shooters, pickled herring washed down with vodka, or a train trip to Chicago for an oyster lunch, anyone?

Though the best things are free, I'm referring to all the wonderful friends he had accumulated over the years, especially the ones made in the town of Cicero. Phil became very intertwined with the community while working at Sacred Heart. He even found a brotherhood through the Knights of Columbus. He was very loving, caring, respectful, and at times stubborn and set in his ways. Phil was a wonderful father, grandfather, and great-grandfather.

He leaves behind by his children, Tonya, Anthony, Matthew, and Anna; grandchildren, Aly, Tia, Austin, and Mady; and six great-grandchildren.

Phil's end was bitter, but his life was sweet. He will be profoundly missed by his family and friends. Thank you to anyone and everyone who played a part in his life. May God keep him at peace, and bless all of you.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at noon on Wednesday, September 29, 2021 at Sacred Heart of Jesus Catholic Church, 410 S. Pearl St., Cicero. Visitation will be from 10 a.m. to the time of service at the church. Cremation will follow then interment will be at Washington Park East Cemetery in Indianapolis.

Local redistricting coming as result of 2020 census

By FRED SWIFT
ReadTheReporter.com

Redistricting of congressional and state legislative districts as a result of the 2020 census has been in the news lately. And, the process will apply to Hamilton County commissioner and council districts and city and town council districts as well.

Based on growing populations, changes are likely in most local districts. For example, there is interest in Fishers to create a separate commissioner district from the present map, which has Fishers and Noblesville in the same district. With a population of nearly 100,000, Fishers would not be entitled to one of the three districts into which the county is divided since the total county population is now 347,000.

However, if the Southeastern School District of Delaware, Fall Creek and Wayne townships was to become a district, it would have a population of about one-third the county's total.

Currently, Clay Township is a commissioner district. But its population of about 100,000 is short of one third of the county's total. This will likely mean a portion of southern Washington Township will be needed to reach the ideal number.

This would mean Noblesville and the entire remainder of the county would become one district.

Four county council members are elected from districts, and three others are elected at-large. The four districts will likely require some changes to the benefit of districts in the southern portion of the county.

City and town councils are also composed based on population, and in several cases will need to be adjusted. Newest areas of Noblesville, for example, will have more representation with redrawing of council district lines.

Apparently, little has been done thus far in public meetings to approach the matter of redistricting. Municipal elections will be held in 2023 whereas the next county elections are scheduled in the spring of 2022, thereby requiring action before the end of this year.

Richard Paul Solberg

December 12, 1948 – September 20, 2021

Richard Paul Solberg, born December 12, 1948, in Omaha, Neb., died peacefully on September 20, 2021, at Riverwalk Village in Noblesville at the age of 72.

Richard served in the U.S. Navy during the Vietnam Conflict, was Honorably Discharged from Active Duty, and later joined the U.S. Navy Reserve. In his youth, he was a competitive swimmer, which prepared him to become a Rescue Swimmer in the U.S. Navy. He received a B.S. Degree in Economics from the University of Washington and a Juris Doctorate from Gonzaga University. He built several television and radio stations in the Pacific Northwest and New York. He worked as an attorney; engineer; and owner/operator of radio station 1230 AM KDHN in Hardin, Mont. After relocating to Montana, he was one of two federally certified electricians in the entire state.

Richard was intelligent, loving and a loyal friend, who enjoyed travelling and studying the Bible. He is predeceased by his parents, Robert and Jean (Perry) Solberg. Survivors include his loving wife of 23 years, Linda (Szewczyk) Solberg; daughter, Denell Solberg; son, Joel Solberg; stepdaughter, Jessica (Brock) McCracken; stepson, Joseph Ramirez; and grandsons, Quinten, Joshua, and Zachary McCracken.

Robert Steve McVey

October 26, 1938 – September 19, 2021

Robert Steve McVey, 82, Carmel, passed away on September 19, 2021. Steve was born on October 26, 1938 in Atlanta, Ind., to the late Lon Robert McVey and Florence Remsen McVey. He grew up in Sheridan and graduated from Sheridan High School in the class of 1956. Steve earned a BA in History from the University of Indianapolis and completed his Master's Degree in Public Administration at Baruch College, City University of New York.

Steve began working as a clerk at the Indianapolis Office of the FBI in 1956 and became a Special Agent upon completion of his college degree in 1962. His first assignment was in the Tampa, Fla. Office, followed quickly by assignments in St. Petersburg, Fla., and Monterey, Calif., where he was sent to learn Russian. Steve served in the New York City Office for nine years in both the Counter Espionage and Criminal Investigations squads. He was often asked to talk about his cases and experiences while working for the FBI. Two notable NYC cases that he had a hand in included the Manhattan bank robbery upon which the movie Dog Day Afternoon with Al Pacino was based, and the half-million-dollar theft of jewelry belonging to the actress Sophia Loren. Steve returned to the Indianapolis Office in 1972 where he became one of the FBI's first profilers and the Internal and External Training Coordinator. At the time, every officer involved in hostage negotiations and every local police officer and State Police officer received part of their training from Steve. As Indiana's only profiler, Steve consulted in a number of prominent serial killer and sexual assault cases, including the kidnapping and sexual assault of Anita Wooldridge in Kokomo and the apprehension of serial killer Herbert Baumeister. Both of these cases resulted in TV documentaries on FBI Files and A & E's Investigative Reports, respectively.

Following his retirement from the FBI in 1988, Steve enjoyed a second career as a tenured Associate Professor in the School of Technology at Purdue University in Kokomo where he taught Organizational Leadership. He was a much-admired teacher and made a difference in the lives of many of his students. During his time at Purdue, he published books on workplace and school violence. He also continued to train and teach local police thru his consulting business Personnel Services.

Steve's hobbies included gardening, making stained glass windows and colorful bird feeders, antiques and scrounging, and storytelling. He liked to engage in lively discussions on current events, religion, science and philosophy. He recently published a book on reconciling science and religion. He loved all kinds of animals, especially dogs, cats, mules and donkeys. While his children were young, he raised a number of mules and donkeys and was a member of the Midwest Mule and Donkey Association.

Above all, Steve was a dedicated and loving husband, father and grandpa. He will be greatly missed by his wife of 21 years, Sherry Lynch McVey; and by his children, Kimberly McVey Allanson (Tim), Kristen McVey Watson (Chris), Sean McVey (Angie), Carolyn Lynch Grover (Steve) and Matthew Lynch. In addition to his wife and children, Steve is survived by his eight grandchildren, Jenna Grover, Kate Grover, Tyler McVey, Riley McVey, Samuel Watson, Charlotte Watson, Ted Allanson (Rachel) and Keegan Allanson; and two great-grandchildren, Lyla and August Allanson. He was preceded in death by his only sibling, Daniel Neil McVey (Jane Ann).

Visitation will be from 10 to 11:30 a.m. on Saturday, October 9, 2021 at Indiana Funeral Care, 8151 Allisonville Road, Indianapolis. A memorial service will follow at 11:30 a.m.

In lieu of flowers, please send memorial donations to Former Agents of the FBI Foundation, 3717 Fetter Park Drive, Dumfries, VA 22025-2048; or Sheridan Youth Assistance, 24185 Hinesley Road, Sheridan, IN 46069.

When the Hart speaks One tough lady

A writer is an artist who paints a picture with a pen instead of a paintbrush. The beauty is still a picture one sees with her mind, using one's own imagination.

When God holds her pen the beauty is magnified. Words are the brushstrokes of the details of a story.

A good writer shows, in her words, a picture of a barn. A better writer shows you the inside of the barn. A gifted writer makes you want to stay in the barn.

These were my thoughts June 24, 2021

– the day I began to write my book.

Would I ever be able to write so that my readers found such delight in my writing that they would want to read more of my words, continue turning the pages in my book, and find the barn (my writing) a beautiful place to stay?

I hope so. As you lean in to hear or read someone's story, you hear her perspective from the way she was raised, the experiences she lived and the situation in which she currently finds herself.

I want to tell my story. It is the story of a life that has not gone as planned. It is a story of redemption, built from the shrapnel of broken dreams.

So many times I have told myself ... it's not supposed to be this way.

But God had a plan. He has held my pen. It's a hard story but it's a beautiful story.

As I write, I find the layers of emotions begin to rise. I've said to my friends that I think I may need therapy by the time I am finished, yet ... perhaps writing is my therapy.

Voices of doubt haunt me as I write. Voices that remind me of not feeling smart enough, brave enough, young enough and educated enough. Hushing those voices is daunting at times. I can't duct tape the voices in my mind. If I could, I would do so.

So, I continue to write. I have plenty of time.

COVID pushed up my retirement date. I have no excuse not to find the time to write. Hoping for an early Spring launch date.

Stay tuned. My story will be told. My thoughts will be shared. There will be tears. There will be laughter.

There will be lots of times you may be able to say ... I know exactly how she feels.

I just hope I can keep you in the barn.

If you heard some whooping and hollering last Tuesday morning, it was probably me. Yes, y'all (my friend Cindy from the south has rubbed off on me) our family finally received some good news that day. And with my recent "downer" columns, I'm overjoyed to share that news with you.

As you may recall, my family, like many others in the sandwich generation, has been battling the dreaded "c" word – cancer – since the end of February. My 89-year-old mother was diagnosed with inflammatory breast cancer. When I saw how bad the rash was on her chest (it looked like someone had beaten her with a baseball bat) I was a sobbing mess. Things did not look good and we wondered if she'd even make it to the end of this year.

After a whirlwind of doctor and women's health center visits, we talked to a doctor who presented various options to Mom. At age 89, she was not interested in chemotherapy, radiation, or surgery. Who could blame her?

But the doctor did say she could take a pill each day – essentially hormone therapy – that might slow the cancer's progression. He warned Mom that there were potential side effects. She wanted to give the pill a try.

I was nervous during those first few weeks wondering if Mom would have hot flashes, fatigue, or any other issues. But she didn't feel any ill effects from the medication.

We didn't know for sure if the pill was definitely working, but we had some hope with our July visit. Her rash was improving and her blood work looked better. Our oncologist told us we could come back in two months vs. six weeks. That was encouraging.

Fast forward to last Tuesday. When the oncologist examined Mom, my jaw dropped. You could hardly see a rash. He scooted back confidently in his chair, declared that Mom was doing great, and proclaimed that we didn't have to come to back to see him for three months. I blinked back the tears of joy as he fist bumped both Mom and me!

When Mom's facility van came to pick her up in her wheelchair, I nearly shouted the good news to Emily, the activities director. I told her to spread the word to the staff! I couldn't ride in the van due to liability issues and had to return to work, but I hope everyone gave Mom hugs and exclamations of joy when she returned.

As I drove home, I thought back to 1991 when Mom first battled breast cancer. She defeated it through a lumpectomy and radiation and it didn't rear its ugly head again until 30 years later. I was overcome with joy, gratitude, and amazement.

Yes, Ladies and Gentlemen, my mama is one tough lady. Whoot whoot!

Does GenZ hate free speech?

Editor's Note: The Sheridan Student Column is brought to readers by Sheridan High School's 10th grade English class, taught by Abby Williams.

My generation is a unique one. Growing up in modern times has shaped us into who we are, and given us challenges previously unfaced by other generations. Parenting practices have overall evolved to be more gentle and affirming, making us more fragile when people disagree with us.

We have grown up in a new era of technology, making us (among other things) more politically active at a younger age than ever before; and this has all happened in an increasingly divided political and social landscape, where those with differing opinions are seen as "others" and avoided.

All of these have contributed to GenZ's negative attitude toward those who disagree with us and our willingness to shut down conversations surrounding controversial topics. We see many things as dichotomous, when they really aren't that simple. There isn't one straightforward solution to complex issues such as systemic racism or climate change. We need discussions between diverse thinkers in order to identify problems and come up with viable solutions.

But how can this happen when, due to our faults in understanding disagreement, we don't allow these conversations to occur? Universities set the stage for what happens in the rest of the world, with what occurs in academia spilling over into other arenas. As explored in The Coddling of the American Mind by Greg Lukianoff and Jonathan Haidt, the lack of protected free speech on college campuses, which happened just as the student body shifted from Millennials to members of GenZ, is dangerous to our society.

Regardless of the way things have gone, it isn't too late to make it better. GenZ has the power to accomplish great things, and we're going to have to live up to that if we want our society to continue improving rather than to collapse. The internet gives us the resources to educate ourselves on any topic of our choosing, and our political involvement and activism can be used to do good. Once we realize that a culture of censorship (whether that's self-censorship or censorship by an institution) is harming us, we can move past it and give ourselves a chance to recover.

In regard to the political division, there is more that we agree on than that which we disagree on. Recognizing this and allowing conversations to address these issues, as well as those that are more sophisticated, will be invaluable to our future and the future of generations to come.

So no, GenZ doesn't hate free speech. We have just inherited a society with major flaws and not been equipped with the tools to fix them. We have applied a solution that was within our wheelhouse (attempting to take away free speech) and it has failed miserably, so now we're looking for where to go next.

Finding better solutions can be aided by those who educate us – and classrooms are the place to start. I've had teachers who shut down discussions due to their own beliefs in what is correct. I've also had teachers who encourage discussions among students in the pursuit of truth. The classrooms that are havens of free speech have been, in my experience, more productive, and have helped students to truly learn to think critically and display those thoughts in a civil manner.

The decisions my generation makes will affect every generation that comes after us – so I implore us, as well as our educators, to undo what we have done and once again encourage thoughtful, respectful discussions.

After all, we can't make progress solving other problems until we address this one.

‘Convenient’ foods lead to inconvenient health issues

"If more of us valued food and cheer and song above hoarded gold, it would be a merrier world." – J.R.R. Tolkien

This week's topic relates more to the "food" aspect of Tolkien's quote than the "cheer and song" – although those are important to everyone's lives as well! In particular, I am addressing this week the food choices we make based on the nutritional value of those choices. And yes, I know that the pandemic has influenced our food choices as we have looked for "comfort" during this troubling time!

True confession here ... if you happen to run into me in the grocery store, chances are I will be surreptitiously glancing at the items in your cart. I suppose it is just a professional hazard of mine as I am both confounded and amazed often times at what I observe in others' grocery carts! Appearing most of the time are the processed, packaged foods which are so convenient to prepare ... and so unhealthy when eaten on a frequent basis. We are advertised-to, marketed, and frankly bombarded with these "tasty and quick options" for meal preparation. I also note that the snack aisles appear to grow every week with a plethora of yummy, salty snacks! In particular, I am concerned about children who are frequently offered these items.

Federal health statistics show that 12.3 percent of Americans 20 and older have diabetes, either diagnosed or undiagnosed. About 37 percent have pre-diabetes, a condition marked by higher-than-normal blood sugar. That's up from 27 percent a decade ago. An analysis of 16 studies involving almost 900,000 people worldwide, published in the most recent issue of the journal Diabetologia, shows pre-diabetes not only sets the stage for diabetes but increases the risk of cancer by 15 percent. Children are being diagnosed pre-diabetic at an alarming rate in recent years.

In referring back to the quote at the beginning, however, my point this week is also the monetary cost of food. Although the price of produce and healthy foods can fluctuate depending on season of the year, etc., the price of highly processed food is significant regardless of the season! "Convenience" comes not only at a cost to our health, but a budget hit as well. And I am sure you have noticed the rate hikes in all food items during the pandemic.

An example I will give is the cost of a simple baked potato with salsa, grated parmesan or spices vs. a box of "instant" mashed potatoes. There are many other examples of which you readers are aware so I won't use space here to cover those. You don't need a cookbook these days to come up with healthy and simple recipes using nutritional items – the internet has you covered! If you have any doubt of the nutritional value of the shelf-stable, processed foods, the labels will tell you most of what you need to know. If you suffer from high blood pressure, always read the labels for sodium content of that item.

So – who do I think I am, right ... do I ever eat processed foods? Of course – in moderation, which is the key to most anything. Potato chips – once in a while. Frozen entrees – not often, but a bean burrito sure heats up quickly in the microwave when a person is in a hurry! Whether you live alone, are feeding a family, or you are somewhere in between, try to stick to the "80-20" rule ... with whole, natural (organic when possible) and unprocessed food items as your go-to menu items. Bon appétit!

Indiana's only LDS temple located in Hamilton County

What's the story behind that huge Mormon church at 116th Street and Spring Mill Road topped by a gilded statue with a horn?

In the first place, it is not a church. It is Indiana's only Latter-day Saints' temple, and the statue atop the 96-foot tower. Sometimes mistaken for Gabriel with his horn, it is actually Maroni, an ancient prophet and angel in Mormon tradition.

No regular Sunday services are held in the temple. Services are held in a more modest church immediately to the south. The temple, dedicated in 2015, is essentially for the 46,000 members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints living in Indiana.

The white limestone building is considered a holy place where members may visit to pray and meditate. Wedding ceremonies and certain types of baptisms are performed there. Non-members are generally not permitted to enter, while regular church services next door are open to anyone.

The interior of the 34,000 square-foot temple is elegantly appointed with a great deal of marble, fine woodwork, stained glass, original artwork and oriental rugs. But, perhaps surprisingly, there is no large sanctuary or auditorium such as found in most churches.

There are 161 LDS temples worldwide and 10 more under construction to serve 16 million Mormons. Indiana is not a Mormon stronghold. Most American members have traditionally been found in the western U.S., especially Utah and other western states. And, Mormon is not an official name for the church – in fact some prefer the term not be used.

Church membership is growing, especially overseas, but the church does almost no commercial advertising, relying on social media and its young missionaries. There are 65,000 missionaries serving worldwide. About two dozen are found here in Hamilton County at any one time.

Noblesville Schools makes clarifications, changes to board meetings protocol

Submitted by Noblesville Schools
Editor's note: The following information was sent to the Reporter last Wednesday.

The district has announced a series of clarifications and changes to their school board meeting protocols including:

- The board will not tolerate abusive or inappropriate language.

- Disruptions such as signage, clapping, booing, name calling, shouting or cheering during meetings will not be tolerated.
- Any member of the audience who is disruptive will be given a warning and if the disruptive activity continues, the audience member will be asked to leave.
- If several individuals are disruptive, the board president may choose to end the board meeting or call a recess.
- Public comments may not reference specific employees, patrons, or students.
- For safety purposes, meeting attendees may not bring large bags or backpacks into the meeting room and may be subject to inspection by a gun-detecting safety dog and/or law enforcement.

- Public input may be gathered in person or virtually, at the discretion of the presiding officer.
- Proof of Noblesville residency will be required when registering to speak.
- The total amount of meeting time designated for public comment is 45 minutes. Any speakers unable to make a public comment during this time may leave a written comment.

- The purpose of public comment is to share information with board members, not to engage in conversation or debate.

You can find the Public Participation at Board Meetings policy at tinyurl.com/4p9r9fpd.

Noblesville Schools announced earlier this month that the format of upcoming school board meetings and public comment (in-person or virtual) will be evaluated on a regular basis. Be sure to check noblesvilleschools.org/domain/35 for meeting status.

FISHERS HIGHLINE

substantive or meaningful justification for the $10 million investment in Tax Increment Financing [TIF] provided during the meeting. Having not been given the opportunity to fully evaluate the proposal prior to the meeting, I could not in good faith support it.”

Vare’s third concern involved the potential for conflict of interest.

“As chief executive officer of Envoy, Republican State Senator Scott Baldwin’s involvement in the project was not disclosed, which raises the question of a conflict of interest,” Vare said. “The possibility of such a conflict and the city’s financial support certainly warrants further scrutiny. But every Republican member of the Council remained silent and not one raised a concern. That should concern all of us. If the deal is indeed a good and fair one, the City should have welcomed vigorous discussion in front of the public. Elected officials have a fiduciary duty to the community, which means we must make decisions in the best interest of residents. Put simply, I was not convinced.”

Fishers City Councilman John Weingardt spoke against Vare’s concerns both at the meeting and in a conversation with The Reporter.

When asked specifically about not disclosing to the public that Sen. Baldwin is the CEO of the company that may be given $10 million in Fishers TIF money, Weingardt said it was not a concern.

“I guess I don’t see an issue because he’s got two other projects here in Fishers doing very well,” Weingardt told the Reporter. “Yes, he happens to be the state senator, no question about it, but you look at his credentials: As an entrepreneur, as a business owner, he’s been very successful. I look at the person who’s running the project. I look at character, I look at collateral, and I look at credit. I check all three of those boxes. Yes, he’s a state senator, but I also see that he’s been successful in real estate. He’s done very well. And I wish we had more elected officials like him.”

According to Weingardt, a TIF district allows a political jurisdiction to designate an area so all the taxes there are collected to use for infrastructure within that same area.

“This enables us to put together a project that’s much more robust than if we did not have any type of TIF financing whatsoever,” Weingardt said. “Good case in point: Go to Fishers Marketplace. If we did not have TIF we would not be able to have that level of quality that exists. We design our TIFs to put every safeguard in place that they don’t cause issues down the road for taxpayers. And this one won’t, in my opinion.”

It should be noted that the Highline project location is just outside the State Senate District 20 area, but other parts of Fishers are in District 20.

Envoy projects in Fishers have included Spark, Edge, and now Highline.

At the Aug. 16 meeting, the council agreed to the project for the financial agreement, but not for the required rezone. Public comments will be allowed when the Highline project comes before the Fishers Plan Commission, which meets the first Wednesday of each month at 6 p.m.

The Sept. 1 plan commission meeting was canceled. The city website does not yet have an agenda posted for the Oct. 6 meeting.

CARMEL POLICE HQ

City Council President Sue Finkam and Councilman Tim Hannon about the project, transparency regarding the concern over potential conflicts of interest, and the nature of BOT agreements.

BOT projects are not open for bidding in the normal sense of the word, but rather rely on a Request for Proposal and Qualification (RFPQ). The city is not required to give the project to the lowest bidder, but rather one which comes down to, according to Hannon, “intangibles.”

Envoy will build the facility, ensure it is functional, then hand it over to the city at the end. BOT projects also involve a guaranteed maximum cost. Any cost overruns are the responsibility of the contractor, not the city.

“The police station expansion is unique in that it is a Build Operate Transfer process, which had never been done within Carmel and required actual legislative approval to be able to do that,” Hannon said. “One thing I also thought was very unique and I was very much in favor of: the process is apolitical. There was a very specific line in the proposal packets that went out that said anyone bidding on this could not directly contact anyone on the decision-making team.”

The decision-making team included Councilman Hannon, Carmel Police Chief Jim Barlow, Deputy Chief Jeff Horner, Director of Communication James Crider, Deputy Director of Redevelopment Jenell Fairman and City Judge Brian Poindexter.

“It also said they could not contact any elected officials either, which would include the mayor and city council, and if they did contact either elected officials or anyone in the decision-making process they would actually be eliminated from consideration. So that, to me, I believe is unique in the process as well. That puts politics out of it, and in fact if there is any ‘politicking’ so to speak, it would disqualify any vendor associated with that. I thought that was significant for the process.”

According to Hannon, this BOT project is a chance at redemption for Carmel.

“It’s particularly timely because we really screwed up the Hotel Carmichael project so badly,” Hannon said. “Everything that could go wrong and could be done wrong went sideways. This I think is our chance to kind of redeem ourselves.”

When asked about BOT’s being a so-called no-bid contract, Finkam told the Reporter, “It went through an extended bid process. That is how I would say it. It went through an extended one where they put out an RFPQ. The vendors were pre-qualified. They put in a bid with the maximum guaranteed price and then they were interviewed. So it’s a better process than the regular process. It’s not like we just select somebody like the mayor can do for the engineering, where they can just select anybody they want. This is a more defined process. And it has penalties in it so they could not talk to anybody about it during the bidding process.”

The Reporter also asked Finkam why, in the interest of transparency, Baldwin’s connection to Envoy was not communicated to the public during this process.

“I guess I don’t feel any need to communicate it to the public,” Finkam told the Reporter. “From a city council standpoint, the company was vetted through the RFPQ process. I have never heard that he was involved. To me it is a non-issue. The company is either qualified or they’re not. Every one of us has the opportunity to have a different job. His position didn’t give him a leg up.”

Finkam used the example of her own company and how there is no statutory prohibition against her bidding for city work if she were to choose to.

“I should still have the opportunity to bid for city work,” Finkam said. “I haven’t, but I should have an opportunity for city work because they are a large employer, and if I wanted to try for it, I should be able to do that and be evaluated equally. I don’t see anything wrong with it, but I understand how other people might.”

It should be noted that Finkam has not, in fact, ever bid for work in the political subdivision where she is an elected official.

“As long as all the rules are followed it’s a non-issue to me,” Finkam said. “This particular bidding process was all done publicly. I want to be clear about that. Just because it did not go through the regular bid process doesn’t mean it wasn’t A) public and B) highly scrutinized. It had more eyes on it than most of our other projects would have.”

Hannon told The Reporter he had no idea Sen. Baldwin is Envoy’s CEO.

“I would just say for myself, I was not aware of that, which shows you how politically naïve I am,” Hannon told the Reporter. “I didn’t know the head of Envoy actually was a state senator.

I can’t speak for the other folks on that. I don’t know. There must not be any prohibition for him to be able to bid on that.”

Hannon is correct, as was Finkam, that there is no statutory prohibition against an elected official owning a business that bids on a project in their own political subdivision.

At a June 21 Carmel City Council meeting discussing Envoy as the contractor for the $38 million police station project, Hannon said it came down to “intangibles,” to “who would stakeholders be most comfortable with in selection.”

In this case, it was a company whose CEO happens to be a local state-level elected official.

Hamilton Heights' Trey Ehman (13) rushed for 153 yards and a touchdown during the Huskies' comeback win over Twin Lakes last Friday.

Huskies come back, beat Twin Lakes

Hamilton Heights proved last Friday night that once again, it's not how you start, it's how you finish.

The Huskies quickly found themselves down 14-0 midway through the first quarter of their home game with Twin Lakes. But Heights regrouped on both offense and defense, eventually coming back to win 26-17.

"I'm very proud of my kids," said Huskies coach Jon Kirschner. "We're in really good shape and we feel good about where we are. We got a gritty win."

After that initial scoring binge, which took place in the first six minutes of the game, the Indians were held to only three points for the other 42 minutes.

Heights, meanwhile, got on the board late in the first quarter on a 19-yard pass play from Guy Griffey to Isaac Tuma. Jonathan Glenn's kick got the Huskies within 14-7.

Griffey threw another touchdown pass in the second quarter, sending a seven-yard throw to Gavin Bramel. That made the score 14-13 at halftime. Twin Lakes kicked its field goal early in the third quarter, keeping it ahead 17-13 as the game entered the fourth quarter.

Heights took the lead with 8:01 to go in the fourth when Trey Ehman made a seven-yard touchdown run. Then with 37 seconds left, the Huskies put the game away when Griffey and Bramel connected on a 25-yard passing touchdown. Michael Lecher made the extra-point kick.

"At the end of the day, we got a good, solid victory," said Kirschner. "And kudos to Twin Lakes. They played tough, they were very physical. They gave us some fits offensively just by some of the things they were doing."

"Trey Ehman, he had a really good game tonight. I'm very pleased with how we came out in the second half and all facets of the game were much improved. We cleaned up a lot of stuff in the second half. We made a few adjustments and we came out on top."

Griffey had a solid game, completing 16 of 28 pass attempts for 230 yards. Bramel and Tuma each made five catches. Ehman totaled 153 yards rushing.

Heights improved to 4-2 with the win, and returns to Hoosier Conference East Division play Friday when it plays at rival Tipton.

For the second year in a row, Westfield won a pivotal Hoosier Crossroads Conference showdown with Brownsburg.

The Shamrocks hosted the Bulldogs at Riverview Health Stadium last Friday. Just like last year, it was a close contest between, as Westfield coach Jake Gilbert put it, "two very even teams."

The score was tied at 21-21 going into the fourth quarter. The difference-maker turned out to be the Shamrocks' Caleb King, who drilled a 34-yard field goal midway through the period. Westfield then hung on for a 24-21 victory, a win that puts the 'Rocks all by themselves on top of the HCC standings at 4-0.

"We got to feel good about winning this one," said Gilbert.

Neither team led by more than a touchdown during the game. Brownsburg scored first at the 5:36 mark of the first quarter, but Westfield responded with a touchdown pass towards the end of the quarter. The ball was thrown to Jackson Wasserstrom, who tossed it to Ian Bruch. The senior took the ball 61 yards to the end zone, and King's extra point tied the game up.

Micah Hauser punched the ball in from the one with 6:57 left in the second quarter, and King's kick made the score 14-7. But the Bulldogs also scored from the one with 15 seconds left, so the halftime score was 14-14.

Westfield again took the lead in the third quarter, when Maximus Webster connected with Gabe Arambolles for a 15-yard touchdown pass. King again made the extra point kick, going 3-for-3 in the game. The 'Rocks led 21-14, but a short Brownsburg run tied the game at 21-21 going into the fourth.

King made his big field-goal kick with 6:31 left, and that would be the game winner. Brownsburg tried to tie the game with a field goal attempt, but Vance Farrar blocked it, preserving the victory. Coleton Vondersaar also blocked a punt earlier in the game.

"The kickers did great and blocking the two kicks was enormous," said Gilbert.

The coach had good things to say about his

Carmel rolls past NC for third straight win

Carmel rolled to its third consecutive win last Friday, beating North Central 45-0 as the Greyhounds celebrated Homecoming at Carmel Stadium with a Metropolitan Conference win.

The 'Hounds took care of business in the first quarter, scoring 21 points. Desmond Duffy scored two touchdowns starting with a 16-yard reception from Zachary Osborne midway through the period that got Carmel on the board. Then with under two minutes left in the quarter, Duffy took a 46-yard pass from Osborne into the end zone. In between, Ethan Hall punched the ball in from the one-yard line.

In the second quarter, the Greyhounds added another 17 points. Duffy and Osborne connected for their third touchdown pass of the night, a 24-yard throw. Ben Sponsler kicked the extra point, as he did for all of the first-quarter scores, then minutes later nailed a 21-yard field goal.

Osborne threw one more touchdown reception with 25 seconds left in the half. That one was an 11-yard toss to Reese Bellin. Sponsler kicked the extra point, making him 5-of-5 for the night.

The second half was played under a running

Strong second half powers HSE past Eagles

Hamilton Southeastern bounced back from last week’s tough loss with a decisive Hoosier Crossroads Conference win on the road last Friday.

The Royals ran away from Zionsville in the second half, and the end result was a 41-21 victory. The game was tied 14-14 at halftime, but Southeastern outscored the Eagles 27-7 in the second half.

“I thought we came out and controlled the game on the offensive side, and coming up with four big takeaways was very important,” said HSE coach Michael Kelly.

Zionsville scored first with a one-yard run early in the first quarter. The Royals answered quickly, with Sam Jacobs throwing a 21-yard touchdown pass to Ian Bucher to get on the board.

Both teams scored again late in the second period. Blaine Wertz took the ball in from the two-yard line to get Southeastern ahead 14-7. But a long touchdown pass during the last minute of the half brought the Eagles back to tie it up, 14-14 at the break.

In the second half, the Royals reeled off 21 straight points to lead 35-14 by the fourth quarter. Jacobs connected with Jack Wafford on a 24-yard pass play score, then Jacobs streaked 91 yards for another touchdown. Owen Jones also came up with two big runs in the fourth quarter, scoring from 39 yards with 8:47 left. Zionsville scored on a short pass a couple minutes later, but Jones’ 47-yard touchdown run clinched the game.

“I think our kids responded well in the second half,” said Kelly.

Three Southeastern players topped 100 yards rushing: Jacobs totaled 194, Jones had 149 and Wertz rushed for 120 yards. Wafford made five catches. The Royals had 621 all-purpose yards.

Southeastern is 3-1 in conference play and 5-1 overall. The Royals return home Friday to host Noblesville in an all-county and HCC game.

Tigers take care of Avon, 35-25

The Tigers scored first, as Lucas Minns carried the ball into the end zone from 18 yards out. The Orioles could only answer with a field goal, so Fishers led 7-3 after the first quarter.

In the second quarter, the Tigers extended their lead to 21-3. Carson Dunn helped out with a 42-yard rushing touchdown, then Minns threw a scoring pass to Jeffrey Simmons later in the period. Avon scored on a passing touchdown seconds before halftime, but Fishers held a 21-10 lead at the break.

The Tigers scored two more touchdowns in the second half. Dunn zoomed into the end zone from 30 yards in the third quarter, then Minns connected with Simmons for a seven-yard score in the fourth quarter.

Minns had an efficient night, going 11-for-18 on 133 yards. Simmons was the top receiver with six catches totaling 100 yards. Dunn finished with 127 yards on the rushing. Jack Alvarez led the defense with eight tackles, while Dominic Oliverio and Brady Wolf both made two sacks. Wolf made 2.5 tackles for a loss, with Oliverio and Caleb Myers both getting two.

The Tigers are 2-2 in HCC play and 4-2 overall. Fishers continues its homestand Friday by hosting Franklin Central in an HCC game.

Millers fall to Franklin Central Noblesville dropped a tough Hoosier Crossroads Conference game at Franklin Central last Friday, 28-22.

The Flashes scored two touchdowns in the first quarter to take a 14-0 lead. The Millers got on the board in the second period when Gage Gulley took the ball in to the end zone for a two-yard touchdown. Logan Shoffner then made a two-point conversion run, and Noblesville was within 14-8 at halftime.

Gulley struck again in the third quarter, running the ball in from the three-yard line for his second touchdown of the game. Jack Letourneau stepped up and made the extra point, and the Millers led 15-14. But Franklin Central scored on a two-yard run, then made a two-point run to lead 22-15, and never trailed again.

Both teams scored a long-run touchdown in the fourth quarter. Connor Meinerding blasted off for a 54-yard scoring rush with 5:01 left, and Letourneau’s kick got Noblesville within six. But the Flashes held on to the ball for the remainder

Golden Eagles fall to Bishop Chatard

Guerin Catholic fell to Bishop Chatard 33-10 last Friday at the Eagles Nest in the Golden Eagles' final Circle City Conference game of the season.

The Class 4A No. 9 Trojans scored first on a two-yard touchdown run. Guerin Catholic answered that with a field goal by Evan Guenthner, cutting Chatard's lead to 7-3. After that, the Trojans steadily increased their lead, going up 14-3 at halftime and 20-3 after three quarters.

Chatard led 33-3 in the fourth quarter, but the Golden Eagles fought to the end, as Ryan Zimmerman threw a 31-yard touchdown pass to Ryan Glenn during the game's final minutes. Guenthner made the extra-point kick.

"I thought we could've played better," said GC coach Tom Dilley. "I thought we could've certainly executed better and played more physically, so I don't think that was indicative of our kids' best effort. That's on me. They weren't prepared."

Zimmerman and Sam Miller shared quarterback duties, with Miller going 11-for-16 and each player totaling 67 yards. Glenn had five catches for 70 yards.

The Golden Eagles finished conference play 0-3 and are 1-4 overall. Guerin Catholic will play Friday at Northview.

Webel scored again in the second quarter with an eight-yard run, then Jacob Jones rushed 11 yards into the end zone. Herron followed that with a 55-yard punt return for a score, and Reners dashed off for a 57-yard run to make the score 45-0, which is where the first half finished.

Jones added two more long-run touchdowns in the third quarter, and Eli Kolb ran 57 yards for a score in the fourth period.

Webel led the rushing with 113 yards, one of three Blackhawks runners that reached 100 yards rushing. Jones finished with 108 yards and Reners totaled 142 yards.

Girls golf 'Hounds, Millers triumph at regionals

The latest installment of the friendly girls golf rivalry between Carmel and Westfield played out at the Roncalli regional, which took place last Friday at Smock Golf Club in Indianapolis.

The Greyhounds won that round, as they claimed the regional championship. Carmel totaled a team score of 301, with the Shamrocks placing second by scoring 306. Both teams will advance to this weekend's state meet, which takes place at Prairie View Golf Club in Carmel.

Carmel had two players finish in the top five. Ava Hedrick finished second with a score of 72, while Claire Swathwood tied for third by carding a 74. Hedrick made three birdies in her round, while Swathwood had two. In fact, all five of the Greyhounds' players had at least one birdie: Sophie Mock and Michaela Headlee both drained two and Ava Nguyen made one.

Carmel claimed the program's 13th regional championship. That puts the Greyhounds in a tie with Penn for second-most girls golf regional titles. The school with the most is Martinsville with 21. Carmel qualified for its 30th appearance at state, second only to Lafayette Jefferson's 31.

Westfield also landed two players in the top five. Samantha Brown carded a 72, and won meet medalist honors in a playoff. Sophie McGinnis finished in fifth place by scoring 76.

Brown made three birdies in her round, with McGinnis draining two. Brette Hanavan and Addi Kooi both made one birdie as well. Westfield will be making its seventh appearance at state.

"We put together two consistent nines and that has been one of our strengths this year," said Shamrocks coach Trevor Neu. "We are excited to be heading back to Prairie View for the State Championship. I was really proud of Sam Brown who played a really clean round and won the individual medalist in a playoff."

Center Grove took third place with a score of 325; the top three teams advance to state. University's team placed sixth with a 346, but the Trailblazers did send a player to state: Becky Williams' score of 79 was one of the top five by individuals not on an advancing team, earning her a chance to play at Prairie View.

Williams made one birdie in her round. Sydni Zebrasukas drained two birdies on her way to an 80, while Abby Bladen had one birdie.

Guerin Catholic's Christina Pfefferkorn also qualified for state, as her round of 78 placed her on the individual list. The Golden Eagles' Jenny Zerla carded an 89, making one birdie in her round.

Team scores: Carmel 301, Westfield 306, Center Grove 325, Zionsville 342, Franklin Community 342, University 346, Perry Meridian 352, Lebanon 353, Brownsburg 354, Southmont 356, Plainfield 358, Northview 385, Terre Haute North 395, Western Boone 395, Terre Haute South 398, Lawrenceburg 416, Madison 419, Jennings County 430.

MILLERS WIN AT THE EDGE

As the sun was preparing to set at The Edge (formerly Edgewood Golf Club), the host of the Lapel girls golf regional, one of the members of the Noblesville team noted that it had been a long day.

"Yes," said Millers coach Justin Werkley, "but it was worth it in the end."

Indeed, Noblesville waited out a rain delay that pushed back the start of the regional by an hour, then went out and played a consistent round of golf – one that gave the Millers another regional title.

Noblesville totaled a score of 313 to win the Lapel regional last Saturday, thus defending its championship. It's the first time the Millers have won consecutive regional titles in 19 years; the last time Noblesville did so was during a streak of five championships in a row from 1998 to 2002.

"We played really well today," said Werkley. "Just a good day to have a good day. The goal is always just to advance, but to get a win is a nice extra, nice cherry on top."

The top three teams at the regional advance to the state finals, which begin Friday at Prairie View Golf Club in Carmel. Hamilton Southeastern will join the Millers at the state; the Royals finished a close second with a score of 315. Batesville finished third with a 331 and qualified for state for the first time in school history.

The Noblesville girls golf team defended its title at the Lapel regional last Saturday at The Edge Golf Club. The Millers won the program's 13th regional championship and will play at this weekend's state meet.

GOLF

Noblesville had two golfers finish in the top five. Caroline Whallon led the way with a 74, good for runner-up honors. Whallon carded a 34 on her back nine.

Jordan Adam placed fifth by scoring 77, followed by 81s from Sophi Stutz and Olivia Anderson, both of whom were playing in their first regional. Erin Burt, also a first-time regional participant, rounded out the Millers scoring with an 87. Noblesville's consistency won the day, and Werkley called it "the name of the game."

"We were steady, we didn't make a lot of mistakes," said Werkley. "The rain delay this morning and the tough conditions, they were just mentally tough and gutted it out all day."

The regional victory was the 13th for the Millers. Noblesville is now tied with Penn and Carmel (which won its 13th regional title yesterday at Smock Golf Club) for second in terms of most regional championships. Martinsville leads the list with 21 regional titles.

The Millers will be making their 28th appearance at the state meet, tying them for third place with Columbus North. Lafayette Jefferson has the most state appearances with 31, followed by Carmel with 30.

The Royals had the top individual at the regional: Yanah Rolston scored a 69 to earn medalist honors at this regional for the second time. Rolston won in 2019, when she was playing at Heritage Christian.

"I played pretty good," said Rolston. "My short game was pretty solid and putting, so I think that's how I got some birdies."

Rolston played bogey-free golf through her first 13 holes, "so it was a pretty solid day," she said.

The Southeastern team played consistent as well. Lauren Stewart was next in line with an 81, Ella Bui scored 82, Marissa Spreitzer added an 83 and Cora Zink scored an 84.

"We're excited about Yanah," said HSE coach Steve Guenin. "She had a great day today. We weren't great today by a long shot, but we did a lot of nice things and obviously, we just did enough today. Nothing great, nothing fancy."

Southeastern qualified for state for the 17th time in the program's history.

"We don't want to ever take that for granted or anything like that," said Guenin. "We want to recognize how special it is, because it just doesn't happen for everybody all the time. We'll work hard to get prepared to do the best we can out there. More importantly, can we get out there and enjoy the experience and being a part of that. We'll talk a lot about that this week, getting ready for Friday."

Two county individuals also played at the regional. Fishers' Lilly McVay carded an 82 and was part of a three-woman playoff for the fifth individual advancing spot. Mount Vernon's Alaina Nugent won the playoff to advance to state. Hamilton Heights' Ashlyn Tharp also played at the regional, scoring a 91.

Team scores: Noblesville 313, Hamilton Southeastern 315, Batesville 331, Mount Vernon 349, Lapel 350, Richmond 358, Heritage Christian 358, North Central 361, Union County 382, Delta 392, Greenfield-Central 393, Daleville 402, Park Tudor 403, New Palestine 408, Greensburg 416, Franklin County 421, Winchester 425, Rushville 445.

Meet medalist: Yanah Rolston (HSE) 34-35=69.

Noblesville scores: Caroline Whallon 40-34=74, Jordan Adam 39-38=77, Sophi Stutz 43-38=81, Olivia Anderson 39-42=81, Erin Burt 41-46=87.

Fishers score: Lilly McVay 39-43=82.

Hamilton Heights score: Ashlyn Tharp 47-44=91.

In sectional play last Monday, Westfield triumphed at the Guerin Catholic sectional at Pebble Brook with a 295. In addition to the team trophy, the 'Rocks also claimed the meet medalist: Brown earned that honor with a score of 71. Brown had two birdies in her round.

Carmel placed second with a solid score of 305, while University placed third with a 328; the Trailblazers' Williams was the individual runner-up with a 74.

Guerin Catholic finished fourth, but had two players advance to Smock as individuals, Pfefferkorn and Jenny Zerla.

Over at Harbour Trees, Hamilton Southeastern ran away with the Noblesville sectional championship.

The Royals claimed the program's 12th sectional title with an outstanding score of 299. It was the first time this season that Southeastern broke 300, and the Royals picked the best time to do that.

Spreitzer was the meet medalist with a score of three under par 68, by far a personal best. She made four birdies in her round.

Noblesville placed second with a 333, and Lapel took third with a 360. Whallon led the way for the Millers, carding a 72 to finish as individual runner-up.

Fishers placed fourth as a team with a 367, while Hamilton Heights took sixth with a 396. Both schools did qualify one golfer on to the regional, McVay for the Tigers and Sharp for the Huskies.

PREVAIL

Advocating for Victims of Crime and Abuse

prevailinc.org

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault – it wasn't something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don't often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we're breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.
