Noblesville's Madeline Reiff earns President's Volunteer Service Award

Submitted

Madeline Reiff, a freshman at Options Charter School of Noblesville, has earned the President's Gold Volunteer Service Award. It is a prestigious national award that recognizes middle and high school youth who make meaningful and impactful volunteer contributions to their community.

Reiff won this award for two reasons: She has made significant contributions to the White River Christian Food Pantry by volunteering over 500 hours, and by serving the guests on Thursdays and by helping multiple days a week. Her contributions included sorting the breads, stacking the shelves, making up drink and snack bags, cleaning, breaking down cardboard, buying diapers, and being part of the outdoor team who served hundreds of people in cars each week. She is an overall team player who greets people with a smile on her face, compassion in her heart and the desire to serve her community.

Reiff also designed, illustrated and wrote a book called

What Everyone Needs to Know, a book about the death of George Floyd. Her passion with animation allowed her to provide a profound perspective as a young African American girl. She provided a copy to the Noblesville Diversity Library located at City Hall, Options Charter School of Noblesville and New Hope Presbyterian Church in Fishers. Her book was given to Benjamin Crump, who then presented it to the family of George Floyd. Her book is powerfully written with expressive artwork to provide a voice of humanity.

Reiff has served at the White River Christian Church since she was eight years old. This is her seventh year of volunteering – or as she says, "Almost half of my life!"

She encourages other youth to engage in community service and not just for a class or for a project.

What you can do to improve your sleep quality, part 1

"Be thy sleep silent as night is, and as deep." – Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

I have a hunch that my subject matter this week will resonate with a few of you. Sleep . . . the kind that lasts for several hours, renews brain and body functioning, leaving us awake and refreshed . . . remember? I am sure there are people reading this and unsure of why I would select this topic, and if you are one of those people – good for you!

For most of my life sleep was never an issue: Wash face, brush teeth, jammies, head on pillow, done. And while I usually have no issues falling asleep, my brain knocks on my skull around 2 a.m. or so, maybe later or a bit earlier. One never knows! How common are sleep problems? Portillo's Westfield welcoming hungry customers

Restaurant celebrates grand opening by giving $25K to two local nonprofits

The REPORTER

Portillo's, the restaurant brand known for its menu of Chicago-style favorites, recently celebrated the grand opening of its newest Indiana restaurant, located at 87 E. State Road 32 at the entrance to Grand Park Sports Complex.

During the grand opening, Portillo's presented its charity partners, Open Doors and Westfield Education Foundation, with checks for the funds raised during the brand's Sneak Peek training meals on Nov. 1 and 2. In total, Portillo's presented more than $25,000 to these local non-profit organizations.

The new 7,800 square-foot restaurant features double drive-thru lanes as well as a large covered outdoor patio and the brand's first-ever beer garden. The interior features a diner theme, with an ode to rock 'n' roll with an electric guitar ceiling installation.

About Portillo's Hot Dogs

In 1963, Dick Portillo invested $1,100 into a small trailer to open the first Portillo's hot dog stand in Villa Park, Ill., which he called "The Dog House." Years later, Portillo's has grown to include nearly 70 restaurants across nine states. Portillo's is best known for its Chicago-style hot dogs, Italian beef sandwiches, char-grilled burgers, fresh salads and famous chocolate cake. Portillo's ships food to all 50 states via Portillos.com. Portillo's Home Kitchen is the company's fast-growing catering business.

Hamilton County Dispatchers publish their own cookbook

"From Capes to Aprons" provides collection of memorable 9-1-1 calls

The REPORTER

Five Hamilton County dispatchers are out with a new book. From Capes to Aprons is a collection of short stories from their 9-1-1 calls paired with recipes that served as comfort food during stressful times.

"The stories run the gamut – everything from bizarre, to funny, to disturbing," said one of the authors, Missy Haston, of the 115-page book. "Because of the high stress of this job, dispatchers and emergency service personnel often turn to food for comfort. This book features some of our favorite go-to recipes."

Haston recently retired from the Hamilton County Communication Center, which operates 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Dispatchers stand ready to receive calls from citizens, visitors, and anyone needing some form of assistance.

"Whether it's for simple information or a life-threatening traumatic emergency situation, dispatchers manage hundreds of calls a day," Haston added. "Often, when the public thinks about an emergency situation, they think of those who arrive on the scene first.

But nearly every emergency starts with that initial phone call to 9-1-1. We're the ears to everything happening in the community."

From Capes to Aprons is available for purchase at Barnes & Nobles as well as Amazon for $25.

Noblesville family checks big item off their bucket list

Jamie and Amy Shinneman met at Noblesville High School in 1989. Amy was born with a rare form of Muscular Dystrophy that causes very weak muscles and affects her ability to walk. She has never had the opportunity to run in her life. And yet, on Nov. 7, Amy, Jamie and one of their sons, Luke, participated together in the famed New York City Marathon using a duo bike chair. All three finished together with a time of 3:26, and raised over $20,000 for the Muscular Dystrophy Association in the process. I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault – it wasn't something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don't often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we're breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.

Attorney General Todd Rokita categorizes Black Lives Matter as political organization

Submitted

In response to state lawmakers’ inquiries, Indiana Attorney General Todd Rokita on Thursday released an official advisory opinion categorizing Black Lives Matter (BLM) as a political organization that public schools should treat the same as other such groups.

“Black Lives Matter is unequivocally a political organization,” Rokita said. “Promoting or displaying some politically-based materials while prohibiting the promotion or display of others could create a liability for schools and could violate the First Amendment.”

By adopting neutral policies regarding the display of signs and other materials, Rokita states in the advisory opinion, educational leaders can help “ensure the focus remains on the mission of our schools – educating our children.”

Rokita produced the advisory opinion in response to a request from two state legislators – Sen. John Crane, R-Brownsburg, and Rep. Michelle Davis, R-Whiteland.

“I appreciate the Attorney General issuing this opinion regarding the Black Lives Matter movement,” Sen. Crane said. “At a time when too much of a student’s educational experience has been politicized, this opinion provides needed clarity about the underpinnings of the BLM movement, as well as reinforcing the importance of fair-minded presentations of all subject matter in our school classrooms.

Rokita

Our children in Indiana deserve a high-quality education that inspires their critical thinking in the pursuit of a society that truly dignifies all people.”

Rep. Davis also expressed agreement with Rokita’s guidance.

“Everyone should be treated equally and with respect,” Rep. Davis said. “However, the political activism and controversial ideology of this group is dividing communities rather than uniting them. While schools should provide a well-rounded education that includes differing views and perspectives, it’s not their role to persuade students to believe in one ideology over another.”

Councilman Brad Beaver tours construction of new county parking garage

The REPORTER

The new county parking garage with 475 spaces will support both county staff and the public to enjoy activities and events in downtown Noblesville, as well as conduct their daily business.

“This five-story parking garage is the biggest public improvement in downtown parking in 20 years,” said Hamilton County Councilman Brad Beaver. “And it’s being built with no tax increase.”

Building the parking garage will not only help relieve parking congestion in downtown Noblesville, but it will also free up land – currently being used for county parking – for development.

Duke Energy Foundation donates 40 storm radios to Good Samaritan Network of Hamilton County

The REPORTER

The Duke Energy Foundation is donating 40 storm radios to the Good Samaritan Network of Hamilton County to distribute to underserved residents in preparation for winter weather.

“Severe weather can strike suddenly, and we want our customers to be prepared,” said Mark LaBarr, Government and Community Relations Manager at Duke Energy. “When unforeseen outages occur, emergency storm radios can serve as a lifeline by providing critical alerts, important information and a sense of security. They can also be used as a cell phone charger, enabling residents to stay connected to us via phone/text, social media or our app to report outages.”

The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) recommends putting storm radios in disaster supply kits to monitor conditions during power outages. The storm radios pick up broadcasts of official National Weather Service warnings and are also equipped with a flashlight and cell phone charger. They can be charged using a traditional wall plug, hand crank or the sun. The radios can be used over and over again and for a variety of types of storms, including winter storms, tornadoes, major thunderstorms, or flooding.

“It can be a frightening experience when the power goes out during a storm,” said Nancy Chance, Founder and Executive Director of the Good Samaritan Network of Hamilton County. “We’re grateful to be able to partner with the Duke Energy Foundation to distribute these storm radios, which will enable vulnerable residents to monitor current information and get in touch with their utility provider to report an outage.”

Customers can report an outage to Duke Energy by texting OUT to 57801, by calling (800) 343-2525, or at duke-energy.com/outages.

Shamrocks romp to regional victory

It was a long, late bus ride home for the Westfield football team Friday night and Saturday morning.

But it also was a happy ride, as the Shamrocks came home as regional champions for the second consecutive year. Westfield played the Class 6A Regional 2 game at Fort Wayne Carroll on Friday, and hit the afterburners in the second half, pulling away from the Chargers for a 37-14 victory.

"It was a pretty dominant second half," said 'Rocks coach Jake Gilbert. Carroll had gotten within 16-8 midway through the third quarter, but Westfield ran off three consecutive touchdowns to keep control of the game.

The Shamrocks showed determination in their opening drive. A penalty pushed Westfield back to its own five-yard line where it was first-and-27. But Maximus Webster made a 13-yard pass to Jackson Wasserstrom, and Micah Hauser bulldozed another 13 yards to set up a third-and-1. Hauser then punched the ball another yard to get the 'Rocks the first down.

Westfield would eventually be rewarded for that drive, as the Shamrocks made a long march to the Chargers' two-yard line. Webster punched the ball in for the touchdown, and Caleb King made the extra-point kick.

King would get the only points of the second quarter, kicking a 36-yard field goal early in the period. The kick put Westfield ahead 10-0, and that would be the halftime score.

The Shamrocks extended the lead to 16-0 in the third quarter when Hauser ran in to the end zone from the four-yard line. But Carroll made things interesting when it connected on a 36-yard pass play touchdown, then made a two-point pass. Westfield's advantage was now cut in half at 16-8.

But there was nothing to fear. The Shamrocks embarked on an 80-yard drive, beginning with a pass from Webster to Gabe Aramboles. The freshman turned a short throw in traffic into a 60-yard pass play, taking Westfield from its own 20 to the Chargers' 20. The Shamrocks then kept their feet on the ground, and headed towards the end zone. Trevon Hatchett finished the drive by making a five-yard touchdown run.

Midway through the fourth quarter, Hatchett scored a second touchdown for the 'Rocks, as he punched the ball in from Westfield's lead was now 30-8, but it wasn't done yet. Carroll was trying to put a drive together, but it ended quickly when Tyler Dikos intercepted a pass and took it down to the Chargers' 23. That was all Hauser needed, as he scored from there on the Shamrocks' first play of the drive. King again made the extra point.

Carroll did get one more touchdown late in the fourth, but Westfield had the game well in hand by then.

Hot-shooting Millers sail past Huskies

By RICHIE HALL

NOBLESVILLE - During halftime of its 1000th game Friday night, the Noblesville girls basketball team honored its past by spotlighting former coaches and players.

All of those players have contributed to a Millers program that - at the time - had a 606-393 record. A little while later, the current group of Noblesville players picked up win No. 607, and proved the future of the program is very bright.

The Class 4A No. 2 Millers used scorching 3-point shooting to pull away from backyard rival Hamilton Heights 67-41. The Huskies were able to hang with Noblesville in the first quarter, but a big run in the second period broke the game open, and the Millers kept up the pace in the second half.

There was a large crowd at The Mill to witness the historic game, and it was a battle in the first quarter. Noblesville led 3-0 at first, but Heights jumped ahead 5-3 when MyKayla Moran made two free throws and Mia Shields hit a 3.

Both teams then traded 8-0 runs. The Millers went first, cruising to an 11-5 lead after Ava Shoemaker nailed a 3 and Reagan Wilson poured in the next five points, on a layin and a triple.

The Huskies' answer to that run started with a 3 from Ella Hickok, then Camryn Runner made a layin to cut Noblesville's lead to 11-10. That would be the score at the end of the first, and Runner opened the second period with a 3 to give Heights a 13-11 advantage.

After that, it was all Millers, as they went on a 15-0 run. Meredith Tippner scored the first two baskets, Ashlynn Shade added five points and Brooklyn Ely drained back-to-back triples. When the dust settled, Noblesville led 26-13, although the Huskies were able to cut that lead to 28-21 by halftime. Runner scored the final five points of the half.

"Noblesville's just a really good basketball team," said Heights coach Keegan Cheery. "The first half, we were on the ropes and showed some resiliency. I was proud of the fight and the way we closed that first half.

Noblesville coach Donna Buckley admitted that her team played "a little tight during those opening minutes.

"It was awesome, and I thought our kids were a little nervous," said Buckley. "And Heights played pretty well."

Wilson scored the first three points of the second half on a free throw and a layin, but Shields' triple got the Huskies within seven again at 31-24. But then it became a Millers three-for-all, with Noblesville putting in five 3s during the third quarter. Kaitlyn Shoemaker and Ely had back-to-back triples, then after a Kaylee Rhoton basket, Ely nailed another 3 to give Noblesville a 40-26 lead.

Runner drained a 3-pointer to cut the lead to 40-29, but the Millers then took off on a 22-0 run that lasted well into the fourth quarter. Ava Shoemaker and Ely finished the third period with two more 3s, putting Noblesville up 46-29. Shade then got going at the start of the fourth, scoring five straight points. Kaitlyn Shoemaker, Tippner and Shade all hit 3s to finish the run and give the Millers a 62-29 advantage. Noblesville finished the game with 12 3-pointers.

"Third quarter, we came out and hit some shots and it was good to just get rolling. We had so many kids hit some big 3s. I thought Brooklyn Ely just really opened that game up. And then you take her away, and Shoemaker and those kids really did a great job of making big plays."

Ely finished the game with 17 points,

Golden Eagles pick up first win

Guerin Catholic used a stellar defensive effort to pick up its first win of the season Friday, beating Greenfield-Central 37-25 at the Eagles' Nest.

Katie Koger had a solid game for GC, making three 3-pointers on her way to a team-leading 16 points. Hannah Weitzel hit two 3s and scored seven points.

run game, which was a goal. I was really pleased with the defense."

Gilbert noted that the Chargers were averaging 40 points per game, so holding them to 14 was an accomplishment. Westfield's offense did well, too.

"Micah Hauser ran really well," said Gilbert. "I was pleased with our offensive line. Gabe Arambales made a couple big plays."

Hauser finished the game with 151 yards rushing on 25 carries, while Arambales caught five passes for 112 yards. Webster went 11-of-20 through the air for 216 yards.

Mario Chalmers and Dillon Thieneman each had 10 tackles for Westfield, with Hauser and Evan Cannon both making six stops. Dikos made a fumble recovery in addition to his interception; Gilbert said Dikos was "probably player of the game on defense."

The regional win was the sixth in the Shamrocks' program history and the first time Westfield has won back-to-back regionals since 1992 and 1993.

The Shamrocks are now 10-1 for the season. They will host Merrillville next weekend for the Class 6A north semi-state, a rematch from last season. The Pirates beat Penn 39-7 on Friday to win the Regional 1 championship.
