Ice carvers from across Midwest Missing Mom returning to Carmel this weekend I've really been COLUMNIST missing my mother lately. Please don't

Two days of professional ice carvings on Main Street, Carter Green headline winter weekend that includes ice skating, Fire Department Chili Cook-Off

The REPORTER

Nine of the top ice carvers from around the Midwest will bring their tools and talents to Carmel this weekend for two days of ice carving competitions and demonstrations for the fifth annual Festival of Ice presented by Allied Solutions, a fun and free event on Saturday and Sunday at two locations.

The Festival of Ice Weekend will begin Saturday in the Carmel Arts & Design District, where the sculpting will take place from 4 to 7 p.m. Visitors will be able to see the sculptures in front of these locations on Main Street: Woodys Library Restaurant, Agave Bar & Grill, Little Cairo Café, Muldoon's, The Pint Room Bar, Bub's Burgers & Ice Cream, and Anthony's Chop House.

On Sunday, the ice carving moves to Carter Green with an 8 a.m. start as the professionals begin the creation of giant-sized ice sculptures from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. While you are there to life, make sure you check out the Carmel Fire Department's 1 p.m.; hot coffees and sweet drinks from Rose & Lois; local craft beers from Bier Brewery; and a Live DJ. Make sure you cast your vote for the winning sculpture.

I miss the mom who would eagerly shop with me for hours on end. Our favorite destination was Glenbrook Mall in Fort Wayne, since I grew up in Mishawaka. It had an indoor ice skating rink and was huge.

Now Mom can barely take a step and must be pushed around in a wheelchair.

I miss the mother who would pass books along to me, my sister Vicky, and my niece Melissa. We practically had our own book club and would happily discuss various chapters. We especially enjoyed James Patterson novels.

Now Mom can't focus enough to read much more than a greeting card.

I miss the mom who painted beautiful ceramic creations, some of which are still in my home. Mom was incredibly artistic, much like her own mother, and taught ceramics classes to people for decades in her basement.

Now my mother pretty much just watches television and plays Bingo - and the latter only with a little help from the activity director or me.

I miss the mother who sang next to me when we went to church. Both Mom and Dad had beautiful voices. I knew that back in the day but didn't treasure or appreciate it as much as I should have.

I know I'm not alone in how I feel. In Festival, the Ice at Carter Green fact, my husband John was saying the same thing about his father just a few days ago. We both definitely miss the people our parents used to be. Some days the sadness overwhelms me.

But I get some glimpses of hope once in a while. Mom's been on hospice since last fall due to the cancer, and it has definitely given her a better quality of life for her remaining months. I walked into her apartment one day after knocking and was pleasantly surprised to see a young lady singing to her with a guitar.

Synergize invites you to kick off 2022

By DENISE MOE ReadTheReporter.com

If you live in Hamilton County, you've likely heard of Synergize. Over the past two years, the group has taken the area by storm. Its community of dedicated members, who live by the mantra "Relationships Over Everything," has doubled over the past year.

In January, Synergize will kick off its third year in business with a special event called Relationships Reimagined 3.0. This brand-new event will celebrate the evolution of Synergize and provide a first look into the group's initiatives for 2022 and beyond.

"We chose 'Relationships Reimagined' because Synergize when it comes to our friendships," said Synergize Founder Arron Stanton. "We help people reimagine our business relation-

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault – it wasn't something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County. (Nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children.) Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don't often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we're breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.

Hoosiers deserve transparency in COVID-19 data reporting so they can make their own medical decisions

For Hoosiers in every corner of the state, the response to COVID-19 has been confusing, frustrating, and for many financially costly.

One of the common most complaints is the the decision-making of officials at all levels of government.

As published in an Association of American Medical Colleges (AAMC) journal in February of last year, confusion has surrounded "whether people die 'of' COVID-19 or 'with' COVID-19." The journal noted a case in which a man significantly ill from terminal cancer entered a hospital while also infected with COVID-19 and later died. a COVID-19 death statistic.

The same AAMC medical journal article quotes the chief medical officer for Indiana University Health's South Central Region in Bloomington as saying, "It's usually a cascade of events that lead to death - it's not one thing," when a person dies who has also tested positive for COVID-19. exhaustion with those who hold the levers of power comes from a lack of transparency. That is something I tacitly acknowledged when I raised concerns over COVID-19 statistics in a recent media interview. Regular Hoosiers lose confidence in government decision-making when there are inconsistencies and a lack of transparency in data. This is especially true if, like here, the data is so subjective in the first place. This lack of clarity leaves many to believe gov-

Barbara Louise Street January 26, 1927 – December 29, 2021

Barbara Louise Street, 94, formerly of Frankfort and Noblesville, passed away on December 29, 2021, in Lexington, Ky. She was born on January 26, 1927, to Mary Elizabeth Morgan and Leslie R. McCorkell in Cherokee, Iowa. She graduated from Frankfort Senior High School in 1945.

Barbara worked a variety of jobs, from the counter of a soda shop to a bookkeeper, but her favorite job was as a wife and mother. She married Herbert Max Street on December 30, 1961. They shared 28 wonderful years of marriage until his passing in 1990.

Barbara loved the Lord and was a member of Emanuel United Methodist Church in Noblesville. She enjoyed making quilts for family and prayer quilts for the members of her Sunday school class. Barbara loved spending time with her family and friends, playing cards and games, and reading.

Barbara will be lovingly remembered by her daughters Carol A. Street (husband Brent Potter) of Lexington, Ky., and Susan S. Cook (husband Kenneth) of Noblesville, along with many friends and relatives. She was preceded in death by her husband, Herbert, and two sons, Thomas Lee Walsh and Ronald Street.

No services are planned at this time. In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to your local library or animal shelter.

TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

I rejoiced greatly in the Lord that at last you renewed your concern for me. Indeed, you were concerned, but you had no opportunity to show it. I am not saving this because I am in need, for I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances. I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want. I can do all this through him who gives me strength.

Swimming Fishers sweeps the Mudsock meet

By RICHIE HALL

FISHERS - Fishers swim coach Joe Keller and his staff had a simple agenda for Thursday's Mudsock meet at the Hamilton Southeastern Aquatic Center.

"We just wanted them to come in and race," said Keller.

As it turned out, the Tigers raced pretty well. Fishers swept both the boys and girls competitions and earned the Mudsock trophy in both divisions at the conclusion of the meet. The Tigers girls were 119-67 winners, while the Fishers boys won 152-34

"We've been training pretty hard all through break and coming out of break, so I know they're a little fatigued right now and they're in a great spot," said Keller.

The Tigers boys swept all 12 events at the meet. Eduardo Sanchez and Kyle Ponsler were double winners for Fishers; Sanchez placed first in the individual medley and butterfly, while Ponsler triumphed in the 50 free and the breaststroke. Also getting wins were Taichi Kataoka in the 200 freestyle, Kyle Ponsler in the 50 free, William Jansen in diving, Keaton Chop in the 100 free, Nicholas Viola in the 500 free, Connor Carlile in the backstroke and all three relays.

"They're focused on what they want to achieve and tonight you could see some of that in how they raced and wanted to perform well," said Keller.

The Tigers swept the top two positions in each event at the meet. The Royals got third-place finishes in each of the relay, and Chouchi Ding also placed third in the 50 free.

The Fishers girls won eight of the 12 events. Nalanie Cortez swept the 200 and 100 freestyles, with other individual victories coming from Alexandra Stein in the butterfly, Emma Schumacher in the 500 free and Jo Jo Ramey in the backstroke. The Tigers swept all three relays as well.

Southeastern's Kennedy Fisher was a double winner in the 50 free and breaststroke, while Hannah Justice was first in diving. The Royals also won the medlev relay.

The Fishers swim teams swept the Mudsock meet Thursday at Hamilton Southeastern's Aquatic Center. The girls team (above) won 119-67, while the boys team (below) won 152-34.

"We're working on how we swim our races and constantly learning that and tinkering with things," said Southeastern coach Christian Hanselmann.

Both teams will now prepare for the Hoosier Crossroads Conference swim meet, which Fishers will host on Saturday. With a big dual meet on Thursday and another major event on Saturday, this stretch is similar to a sectional format, where the preliminary races are on Thursday and the finals are on Saturday.

"That's how we approach it," said Keller. "At this point in the season, everything is all about how you execute. The performance is based upon all the work and all the effort that you put forth. And we're starting to see it come around."

"In between that, it's fine tuning," said Hanselmann. "It's attacking our racing. What I'm asking everyone is how much better can you get in 27 days or 41 days. That's what we've got."

Shamrocks swept by Eagles

The Westfield swim team was swept by Zionsville Tuesday in a dual meet.

The Eagles boys team won 148-28 and the Zionsville girls were 125-61 winners. The Shamrocks were led by Macy Hoaglan, who won the girls 50 freestyle, and Noah Brauer who placed first in the boys 100 breaststroke.

The Shamrocks also had strong swims by Isa Amaya, Ellie Ketcham, Evan Lake, Ben Morse and Aiden Yonkus, who achievied unrested season best times.

Westfield will swim in the Hoosier Crossroads Conference meet this weekend.

Girls basketball Huskies dominate on Senior Night team dominated its Senior Night game on Thursday, beating Lewis Cass 46-10 in a Hoosier Conference East Division contest.

It was a stellar defensive effort for the Class 3A No. 7 Huskies, as they never allowed the Kings to score more than five points during a quarter. Heights led 17-1 after the first period, with Camryn Runner pouring in eight points, including a pair of 3-pointers. Also during that first quarter, senior Mia Shields had five points and senior MyKayla Moran added four points.

"Really happy for both MyKayla and Mia," said Heights coach Keegan Cherry. "Thought they both played really well and did a nice job handling the festivities associated with the evening.

The Huskies led 27-3 at halftime, then went ahead 40-8 after three quarters. Three Heights players finished in double figures: Runner led the way with 18 points and four 3s, while Shields drained three 3s while scoring 15 points. Moran finished the game with 10 points.

"Overall, thought the team played really unselfish tonight and did an excellent job of moving the basketball."

The 10 points the Huskies allowed was the least number of points given up by a Heights team since Nov. 18, 2016, when the Rhoton 1.

The Hamilton Heights girls basketball Huskies beat Eastern, also by the score of 46-10.

> Heights is 2-0 in East Division play and won its ninth consecutive game. The Huskies are 13-3 overall and travel to Westfield on Saturday afternoon for a date with the 4A No. 6 Shamrocks.

> "Reality sets in tomorrow when we get to work preparing for Westfield, one of the best teams in the state," said Cherry. "I hope we are able to compete. Regardless, it will be an opportunity to learn and get better. And hopefully prepare us for remaining conference teams and the tournament."

Makalusky helped out with 10 points, including two 3-pointers, while four other players combined to go 6-of-7 from the free-throw line.

The Warriors cut into Southeastern's lead slightly by halftime, getting within 25-21 at the break. Warren then scored to make it 25-23. But the Royals made a quick run to get up 33-23, including back-to-back 3s from Makayla Hinshaw and Olivia Brown.

Later, Riley Makalusky scored off a great pass from Maya Makalusky, and HSE led 40-28. The Royals led 42-33 after three periods, and kept their lead around that margin throughout the fourth quarter.

"We came out, had some good possessions, both offensively and defensively, hit those two 3s to get around that 10-point lead," said Southeastern coach Brian Satterfield. "And then I was hoping we could just keep pulling away, but that's where you got to give them credit. They kept fighting back."

Brown had another outstanding game. She led the Royals' scoring with 16 points, shots. Southeastern, now 11-6, is off until next

Friday, Jan. 14, when it returns to Hoosier Crossroads Conference action at Westfield.
