Danyele Easterhaus recognized Confessions of a "fixer" for living the "Westfield Way" Oh, how I can relate

The REPORTER

Danyele Easterhaus, Executive Director of Student Impact, is the first Westfield Way Award recipient of 2022. She has been involved with Student Impact since 2005 and is extremely passionate about serving Westfield's youth community.

"For nearly two decades, Danyele has dedicated her life to meeting students exactly where they are; creating spaces where students can feel safe and be themselves," said her nominator. "She is passionate, fierce and embodies a relentless commitment to students."

The Westfield Way Award is a monthly presentation given to a deserving Westfield citizen or employee. It started with a simple idea from a dedicated Westfield resident; to honor someone in Westfield who embodies customer service, hospitality and the "Westfield Way" in the city.

Community members are welcome to nominate someone who they believe deserves this recognition. Nominations are reviewed and selected monthly, and the nomination form can be found by clicking here.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

Since, then, you have been raised with Christ, set your hearts on things above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things above, not on earthly things. For you died, and your life is now hidden with Christ in God. When Christ, who is your life, appears, then you also will appear with him in glory.

Sen. Braun introduce bill to promote access to medical countermeasures

The REPORTER

U.S. Senators Mike Braun (R-Ind.) and Tim Kaine (D-Va.) have introduced the bipartisan Promoting Access to Critical Countermeasures by Ensuring Specimen Samples (ACCESS) to Diagnostics Act, which supports quicker research and development of medical countermeasures, including diagnostic tests, vaccines, and therapeutics, in response to emerging infectious diseases.

This bill would require the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services to issue guidance for public and private sector entities' quick access to specimen samples to ensure a greater supply of diagnostic tests and other countermeasures.

"Diagnostic tests have been a critical component to curbing the spread of COVID-19 and other viruses and have enabled Americans to stay safe and continue to go to work, school, and attend social gatherings," Sen. Braun said. "It's imperative that diagnostic test developers have quick access to viral samples in order to respond to the growing demand for COVID-19 and other diagnostics, particularly as new variants continue to emerge."

By RICHIE HALL

Triplett moved in this school year from Charleston, Ill., and has gotten a crash course on what Indiana high school basketball is all about.

Triplett can also call herself a Hoosier Crossroads Conference champion, along with her Tigers teammates. Fishers sprinted to the HCC title on Saturday at the Tiger Den, overwhelming Avon 72-35 for the outright championship.

The Tigers, ranked No. 8 in the Class 4A ICGSA poll and No. 10 in the IBCA one-class poll, are 6-0 in the conference and still have one more game HCC game to play, against Franklin Central on Friday, which will also be their regular-season finale.

"I didn't think being a conference to be too much. champ was a huge deal, because back in my state, it was just like a common thing," said Triplett. "When we were in the lock- lead the way. er room, we poured water on our coach, it was just a whole celebration, so it was just I have to prove myself, because the school a whole eye-opener and seeing how competitive and a great accomplishment it is." Once she had dried off, Fishers coach Lauren Votaw took some time to reflect on what it means to win an HCC championship "It feels great, especially for my coaching staff and these players, because they've just worked so hard," said Votaw. "My staff Triplett. "I feel like I needed it. It's more in the preparation for each of these games, because winning the conference is hard. We have one of the toughest conferences, if not the toughest conference in the state. That means you have to go out seven times and compete. We have six of seven done, and I just feel like our kids have done a really good job of staying focused in those times." The Tigers got their offense going very quickly, although the Orioles didn't make it totally easy. Fishers led 26-16 after one quarter, with Olivia Smith scoring 10 points. Five other Tigers players scored, with Hailey Smith adding five points and Triplett four.

had to come out from the start and really FISHERS - Fishers junior Alycia set the tone, and I was very proud of the way that our kids did that early on today," said Votaw.

With the offensive tone set, Fishers stepped up its defense in the second quarter, outscoring Avon 23-4 to take a 49-20 halftime lead. The Tigers made two runs, first a 15-0 spurt that included six points from Joirdyn Smith. The Orioles interrupted the run with a pair of free throws, but Fishers simply added seven unanswered points.

The Tigers then continued to roll in the third quarter, adding another 15 points for a 64-31 advantage at the end of the period. Triplett and Hailey Smith scored four points during that quarter. Avon never stopped battling, but Fishers' depth proved

"Moving here, I just had the mindset of I originally came from, I was a starter, and I was just given the title," said Triplett. "So it's here, I have to fight for it and I feel like all the time that I've worked towards, it led up to this game."

Triplett is also enjoying playing high school basketball in Indiana.

"It's a lot more competitive," said up-pace, it's more physical and they take it a lot more seriously, and I love it."

Three other Fishers players reached double figures. Joirdyn Smith and Hailey Smith both had 12 points, while Olivia Smith contributed 10 points.

The Tigers are 16-4 overall, and will finish up the regular season on the road. Fishers plays Tuesday at Lawrence North, then heads to Franklin Central on Friday.

The Sheridan wrestling team successfully defended its Hoosier Heartland Conference championship on Saturday.

The Blackhawks edged out Eastern 258.5-246 at the HHC meet, which took place at Clinton Central. Sheridan had a very consistent tournament, with all 13 of its wrestlers placing in the top five, 12 of them reaching the top four.

"We had a talk yesterday at practice that, even if we do lose a match, we settle for nothing less than third place, and we wrestle back and do whatever it takes to wrestle back," said Sheridan coach Steve Leonard.

The Blackhawks had three champions at the tournament. Junior Shane Cox won at 106 pounds, beating Clinton Prairie freshman Kadie Fearnow by a fall in the third period. Senior Austin Bond was the 126-pound champion, in a 4-1 decision over Eastern's Eli Ferguson. Another senior, Noah Ehrie, won the 145-pound title bout with a second-period pin over Carroll junior Hunter Simpson.

The conference title is another chapter in the Blackhawks' highly successful season. Sheridan coach Steve Leonard attributed that to the dedication of his athletes - "A

The Blackhawks will now prepare for the sectional tournament, which takes place next Saturday at Frankfort. It will be a loaded field, with three teams ranked in the top 20 of IndianaMat.com's ratings: Carmel is No. 8, Hamilton Southeastern is No. 16 and Westfield is No. 18.

"We're just hoping to get a few kids through and let them know that we've got some good kids in the pipeline," said Leonard. "It's a big win for us just to get a few kids out of sectionals." Leonard said the Frankfort sectional is one of the toughest in the state, "so if we get a couple three kids through, that's huge for us."

Huskies win all-county game over 'Hawks

By RICHIE HALL

SHERIDAN - An all-county boys basketball game went Hamilton Heights' way Saturday night.

The Huskies traveled to Sheridan and took care of business early, winning 71-36 at Larry Hobbs Hall. Heights scored the first seven points of the game and never looked back.

The Huskies made three separate 7-0 runs during the first quarter to hold a 21-4 lead at the end of the period. Tillman Etchison started things off with a 3-pointer, and that was followed by Dean Mason hitting two free throws and Luke Carroll making a dunk.

"I thought we played real well," said Heights coach Chad Ballenger. "We did all the things we needed to. Our word for the night, we wanted to be disciplined. We really had a good weekend of basketball."

Carroll wound up with seven points during the quarter, and his late steal lead to an easy basket for Etchison. Mason was 6 of 6 from the line in the period.

The Huskies continued to roll in the second period, jumping out to a 31-11 lead late in the quarter. Isaac Tuma scored six points during that run. Sheridan battled back with a 9-0 spurt as halftime drew near; Ethan Moistner hit a 3-pointer and Evan Grinstead made a layin. Grinstead finished the second quarter with seven points.

The Huskies' Cooper Vondersaar finished the first half with a 3-pointer, and that gave his team a 34-20 lead at the break. It also started a 9-0 run that included the opening minutes of the second half. Carroll, Etchison and Mason all made baskets to give Heights a 40-20 lead early in the third.

Carroll continued to dominate during the second half, with eight points in the third quarter alone. His free throws with 4.6 seconds left gave Heights a 55-27 lead after three periods. That was part of a 16-0 spurt for the Huskies that bridged the third and fourth quarters and gave them a 63-27 lead.

Heights was missing several kids, so Ballenger was pleased to see other players step up.

"Some other kids rose up and played," said Ballenger. "Luke did a good job. I thought Tillman ran the show. Sheridan does a lot of stuff that you don't see all the time. They play that 1-3-1 and into a 2-3 and 2-2-1, three-quarter court and a lot of stuff that we haven't seen, so they keep you off-balance. But it's good. It's a good win and gets us going into next week."

Carroll reached double-double status with 21 points and 15 rebounds. Etchison scored 12 points, with Tuma and Mason see the result." each contributing 10 points. Tanner Maynard added nine points; both he and Etchi-son knocked down two 3s. "Tanner Maynard hit some big shots tonight and came through," said Ballenger.

Etchison handed out four assists and Carroll made four steals.

Moistner led Sheridan with 12 points, including two 3s, and also had two blocked shots. Grinstead finished with 10 points and five rebounds, while Caleb Wright dished out four assists.

"I thought we definitely struggled with them," said Blackhawks coach Chip Flemmer. "But we kept telling them, we're fighting regardless if you're up 30 or down 30. Doesn't matter, we're going to keep battling. I was glad they didn't throw in the towel. We just kept getting after it. We just didn't

The victory also marked the 200th career win for Buckley as the Noblesville head coach.

"It's a huge honor," said Buckley. She is in her 14th season as the Millers coach, and said that to be at Noblesville long enough to reach that milestone "is truly a privilege and I'm thankful for it. onds remaining gave the University boys a up 52-47. thrilling 53-52 road win over Class 2A No. 16 Covenant Christian.

University held the Warriors scoreless for the last 3:52 of the game and forced a turnover with 42 seconds remaining to get the ball back. After a timeout, University sophomore Sabien Cain, who scored a game-high 28 points, drove the lane. The Covenant Christian defense collapsed on Cain and he dished to Ozlowksi who was all alone on the left block.

Covenant Christian ran the clock down to 16 seconds before calling timeout and set up a play to get the ball to Brock Buckley, who led the Warriors with 21 points. Cain had tremendous defense on Buckley and received help from Nate Jeffrey and Seth Hogg to force an off balance shot that did not get to the rim. The ball bounced out to Covenant Christian's Wyatt Wash who got as the horn sounded setting off a Trailblazer celebration. University came out on fire, racing to a 23-11 lead after the first quarter. Cain had 14 points in the opening period, including four three pointers. University stretched their lead to 28-11 in the first 45 seconds of the second quarter before the Warriors tightened up their defense. The Trailblazers still led 32-22 with 3:10 left when Larry Pierce scored off an assist from Jeffrey. The Warriors scored the least ten points of the half to knot the count at 32 at halftime. Covenant Christian took the lead at 34-32 on a Buckley steal and lavin. The Warriors stretched their lead to 42-37 in the middle of the third quarter before Cain drilled a three pointer then completed an old fashioned three point play for a 43-42 University lead. Covenant Christian added two foul shots and led 44-43 after three. Pierce put University back in front one minute in to the final quarter off a Robert Russell steal. The Warriors scored the next five points before a Ozlowski bucket with 5:10 left pulled the Blazers within 49-47. Wash hit a three pointer for Covenant

Pierce split a pair of foul shots with 3:41 left and Covenant Christian went to a delay game. The Warriors would not score again. The Trailblazers forced multiple turnovers and Cain hit another three pointer with 1:39 left to cut the lead to 52-51. University's pressure defense forced an errant Warrior pass with 42 seconds left to set up the winning sequence.

University coach Brandon Lafferman was excited to have a full compliment of players and pleased with his team's defense. "This is the first time we've had all nine varsity players on the bench since Greenwood Christian (Dec. 4). It was an awesome game and I'm proud of my guys. This is a difficult place to play. I'm thrilled we came out of here with a win. I'm really proud of Sabien Cain. I thought on top of his offense performance, he really showed toughness off a three pointer that was blocked by Cain and played phenomenal defense. He got his teammate involved at the end of the game to help us close it out."

Pacers fight back, but fall to Phoenix

By BRENDAN ROURKE Courtesv nba.com/pacers

Coming off two impressive wins, the undermanned Pacers looked to knock off another championship-ready squad, the league-leading Phoenix Suns.

Unfortunately, the Blue & Gold (17-30) fell short of another heroic victory. After fiercely competing in the first half, Phoenix (36-9) outscored the Pacers, 33-20, in the third quarter. Trailing by 22 in the fourth, the Pacers battled back to cut the deficit to as few as six. But, late mistakes and missed rebounds stifled Indiana's chances. The Suns left Footprint Center with a 113-103 win

"Phoenix is a really good fourth-quarter team," Rick Carlisle said. "So, to win the fourth by eight (29-21) is a positive for us. In the end, (there were) too many turnovers, and we had some miscommunications on defense that was costly."

In total, Indiana committed 18 turnovers that turned into 22 Suns points. Meanwhile, the hosts only surrendered 11.

On a bright note, six Pacers finished in double figures. Chris Duarte and Lance Stephenson led the squad with 17 points apiece. Goga Bitadze had another impressive showing, finishing with 16 points and 11 rebounds, while Jeremy Lamb added 14 points and finished with a +4 rating.

'(I'm) just staying working," Bitadze said of his recent success. "After games, and staying ahead of the game."

The Pacers' defense held Devin Booker to 11 points on 5-of-23 shooting. But, Mikal Bridges and Bismack Biyombo made up the difference. Bridges finished with a gamehigh 23 points on 10-of-15 shooting, while Biyombo tied his career-high with 21 points and hauled in 13 boards. He and 13-year veteran JaVale McGee (13 points) outrebounded Bitadze and Isaiah Jackson, 25-14.

Phoenix jumped out to a 12-4 lead after Indiana started 1-of-6 from the floor. The Suns held the lead over the next few minutes. But Indiana kept fighting. Trailing 16-10, the Blue & Gold rattled off a 10-2 run to earn a two-point lead. Keifer Sykes added the final punch, nailing a baseline trey from the right side. Phoenix called a timeout with 1:51 remaining to regroup.

The Suns grabbed a 22-20 lead for a brief moment, but the Pacers' first-round rookies quickly flipped the script. Jackson knotted the score with two free throws. Then, Duarte followed with a fortunate trey through a foul. Indiana led 25-24 after one.

Phoenix and Indiana traded early 6-0 runs to produce a one-point game with 9:50 remaining in the second. However, the Suns regained a six-point lead after getting a few shots to fall. Leading 36-35, Bridges hit a triple from the left side. Chris Paul capped the Suns' spree with a jumper to force a timeout with 7:37 remaining.

Phoenix's lead bounced between six lead with 2:47 to play.

after practices, (I'm) getting extra work in, and eight points as the squads battled. Paul found the points for the Suns, while Stephenson and Bitadze added four each for the Pacers. Lamb's three-point play at the 4:52 mark broke the streak and trimmed the Pacers' deficit to 51-46.

Three consecutive turnovers hindered the Pacers from catching the Suns before the break. But, a Duarte triple and a Bitadze layup from the rookie's dish cut the deficit to 57-54 with 55.5 seconds left. Unfortunately, Bridges added one last jumper, giving the Suns a five-point edge at the break.

The Pacers came up empty on their first five possessions, and Phoenix's lead swelled to 65-54 on Paul's fadeaway with 9:51 remaining in the third. Rick Carlisle called a timeout in an attempt to refocus the squad.

after Duarte connected on a driving layup. However, an 8-2 Suns spurt pushed the margin to 75-61 at the 6:05 mark. Transition buckets by Biyombo and Bridges helped widen the gap.

Things got worse for Indiana as the period continued. The squad suffered a 3:48 scoreless streak, and the Suns' veterans increased the deficit even more. Biyombo's alley-oop finish off Paul's 13th assist pushed the lead to 81-61 with 4:02 to go.

Eventually, the Blue & Gold found some footing and cut into the Suns' advantage. The squad mounted a 7-0 spree – four from Stephenson – to come within 13 of the

However, that was as close as they got in the frame. Biyombo continued to hurt Indiana in the paint, and a Landry Shamet triple with 54.1 seconds left pushed Phoenix's lead to 92-74 before the fourth quarter.

Biyombo hurt Indiana in the paint to begin the fourth, hitting two early buckets to keep the lead at 20 on two occasions.

But, soon after, the squad started to rally. Trailing 98-76, Indiana mounted an 11-3 run to cut Phoenix's cushion to 101-87 with 7:51 to play. Bitadze capped the run by slamming home an offensive rebound.

Anchored by two triples from Torrey Craig, the Blue & Gold rattled off a 10-2 The Pacers briefly cut the lead to eight spree. Bitadze also capped this one, connecting on a running reverse layup through a foul with 4:27 to go. The athletic play cut the deficit to 105-97.

With 3:59 left, Duarte drained a stepback jumper to cut the lead to six. However, the squad failed to gather in several rebounds on the other end. Eventually, on the fourth attempt, Cam Johnson made Indiana pay with a trey. It pushed Phoenix's lead to 108-99.

The squad deflated after the fourthchance bucket fell. The Blue & Gold stumbled offensively on its next three consecutive possessions, misfiring once and turning the ball over twice. The Suns put the game away without another threat.
