Noblesville High School's Jazz 1 band has made it to the “Jazz Superbowl” Essentially Ellington Festival for the second year in a row. One of only 15 bands selected from throughout the United States and Canada, and one of only five bands to be selected back-to-back, this year students are expected to perform live in New York City this May.

Carmel detective, Westfield police officer named Officers of the Year

The REPORTER

Each year, Hamilton County Prosecuting Attorney D. Lee Buckingham II recognizes two officers in honor of their distinguished service to the community and the pursuit of justice. One investigator (usually holding an assignment as a detective) and one patrol officer are selected from the nominations garnered from within the Prosecuting Attorney's Office.

At a ceremony held on Feb. 15 in the Commissioner's Courtroom at the Hamilton County Judicial Center in Noblesville, Buckingham spoke not only before a gathered crowd of law enforcement officers, prosecutor's office staff, members of the awardees' families but also to others who were able to watch and listen remotely.

Hamilton County and its communities have consistently been recognized among the saf-

Westfield Education Foundation to hold appreciation event for all staff

Comedian Eddie B to headline night of magic, food, fun

The REPORTER

The Westfield Education Foundation (WEF) is honoring all Westfield Washington Schools' (WWS) staff from 6 to 8 p.m. on Friday, April 29 with a night of laughter and magic called “Laugh it Off” at The Center for the Performing Arts in Carmel.

Staff will be entertained by comedian Eddie B and magician Jeff Loeser. The Westfield High School Culinary Arts students will provide desserts. The host for the evening will be Washington Woods Elementary School Principal Tom Hakim. Entry is free for all Westfield Washington Schools' staff, but they must register in advance. Tickets will be available starting March 16.

Former Westfield teacher and current president of the Westfield Education Foundation Kyle Messmore said it's important that teachers know they are appreciated.

“We wanted to hold this program to show our support and appreciation for all of the staff in the Westfield Washington Schools district,” Messmore said. “These teachers are dedicated to providing the best education for our students. What better way to support their wellbeing than to provide them a night of appreciation and entertainment?”

Helping to support the event is the Rotary Club of Westfield. Rotary Club administrator Cindy Olson said she and the Rotary Club understand the power of giving.

“We understand the importance of appreciating Westfield Washington Schools staff,” Olson said. “They are our connection to Westfield students and

This week, Hamilton Heights School Corporation (HHSC) joins a nationwide observance in celebrating the vital role that local public schools play in students' and our nation's futures.

In addition to offering education for children in kindergarten through high school, public schools like Heights provide meals, special needs support, family resources, and school staff who help children navigate challenges and become successful. In addition, public schools strive to provide equitable access for students of all races, colors, lifestyles, languages, and abilities.

Strong public schools are the building blocks of our democracy and the foundation of success for young people across the country. Public education makes our communities stronger. It is the key to ensuring the future remains bright for the 90 percent of children

Finding joy in life's failures

It drove me crazy as a kid when my father used to tell me, “It's all in your mind.”

In a series of previous columns in January, we discussed the importance of carefully planning and establishing goals. As I have previously stated, in my experience, setting audacious goals has provided tremendous reward, and I have achieved more than I ever thought possible. However, what happens when your well-laid plans fall apart or a goal for which you have been striving fails? I am no stranger to failure, and through the years, I experienced my fair share of defeat.

In times of difficulty, my father's unpretentious (though agitating) expression rings loudly in my ears, pushing me on through the muck of tribulation. Even the best laid plans are not insulated from failure. In fact, it seems to me that the goals we prop up the most are the goals that fail most spectacularly. How then do we respond when our plans come tumbling down? The Bible, in the Book of James, says, “Count it all joy, my brothers, when you meet trials of various kinds, for you know the testing of your faith produces steadfastness.”

Count it all joy? Really? I can't say that joy is the first emotion I experience when I fail. Upon further reflection, however, I've come to realize that my character has grown the most in times of trouble. Thus, in the midst of trials, we can be confident that our suffering is not in vain. For the Lord uses our trials in order to build our character and make us more like Him.

So how do we make this truth a reality in our daily lives? I believe it is about perspective and gratitude. We have been blessed with the gift of life each new morning and are provided an opportunity to honor Him who created us. During times of trouble or failure, my business partner is resolute in saying, “What does this make possible?” because in every disaster there are the seeds of an equal or greater opportunity, whether it be inward sanctification and character growth or outward gain. Therefore, if we are able to experience joy in failure or difficult circumstances, knowing that the present pain will lead to growth and sanctification, failure does not seem so great an adversary.

For many, the previous two years have been extremely difficult and trying. COVID-19, lockdowns, social unrest, inflation, economic turmoil, just to name a few. Yet, let us not miss out on the opportunities and blessing that might flow from these tumultuous times. Rejoice in the difficulty, knowing that your faith and character are being strengthened. Continue setting goals and looking for the gold among the sludge.

PREVAIL

Advocating for Victims of Crime & Abuse

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault - it wasn’t something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County (nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children). Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don’t often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we’re breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.

Carmel exhibit features images from World Photographic Cup

Gallery event to raise funds to support athletes with special needs

The REPORTER

As Team USA prepares to compete in the XIII Paralympic Winter Games in Beijing, a Carmel art gallery is making plans to celebrate the work of Team USA in the World Photographic Cup as well as support local athletes with special needs.

“This is the first time the finalists for the World Photographic Cup have been presented in a gallery open to the public,” said World Cup team member and Carmel photographer Roben Bellomo. “We invite the public to stop by and check out the exhibit at our First Friday event on March 4. Come enjoy some live music and watch the opening ceremonies of the Paralympic Games with us.”

BEHN Gallery will donate a percentage of sales to Special Olympics Indiana, The ARC of Indiana, GiGi’s Playhouse Indianapolis, and the Indiana Alliance on Prenatal Substance Exposure. Each of the organizations will also be on-hand to provide education and outreach materials. Plus, several Special Olympic athletes will be in attendance to share their personal journeys.

“We saw an opportunity to shine a light on Special Olympic athletes as well as the photographers who compete in the World Photographic Cup,” added Bellomo. “Both are immensely talented and deserve to be

Historic images from Carmel’s past made available by new Carmel Clay Historical Society collection

The REPORTER

Thanks to a partnership between the City of Carmel and the Carmel Clay Historical Society (CCHS), hundreds of historic photos have been scanned into the historic archive and are now available to the public through the Historical Society’s website. There is no cost to view the images, but there is a nominal fee for prints.

The photos had previously been stored at City Hall, where it was difficult to provide access to the public or researchers interested in viewing the images. As of today, more than 1,200 images have been scanned and made available.

“It is important to preserve our history as a city and make these images available to the public,” said Nancy Heck, Director of the Community Relations and Economic Development department. “This first batch of photos were sitting in boxes and folders in City Hall, and it was important to get them scanned so they can be preserved.”

The project is ongoing and will eventually include electronic images that are currently stored on the city’s servers. Providing digital photo files to the Historical Society will not only benefit the community but will also lessen the load that is carried on city servers for some of the older photos that are not accessed routinely for current city projects and can be stored elsewhere.

All citizens of Carmel may access the collections for free online and request both digital and physical copies of images for a nominal fee. Members of CCHS and students in Carmel get free copies of CCHS collections materials. Research requests can be made to Emily Hanawalt, Collections Manager and City Archivist, at ehanawalt@carmelclay-history.org.

Shaffer takes issue with funding of Carmel's Bike Share program

Dear Editor:
When it comes to Carmel's tangled municipal finances, even good news is bad news.
Take for example Monday's report to the city council on the city's Bike Share program. The unfortunate chap assigned to give the report did his best to put a smiley face on the thing. He noted the program involved 50 bicycles at seven locations that last year generated $11,746 in revenue.
Under the leasing arrangement, the city pays $150 a month for the use of the two-wheelers.
As a fourth-grade story problem, boys and girls, multiply the number of bikes by the number of months by $150.
Anyone have the answer?
That's right: $90,000.
Cyclists paid 13 percent of the cost of their wheels.
Alas, the balance fell to the humble taxpayers whose main role in the minds of city central planners is to shut up and pay up.
That's what they're peddling.

Indiana FFA members celebrate National FFA Week

The REPORTER
National FFA Week is underway and FFA Chapters across the state and nation are celebrating by hosting events to educate, advocate and celebrate the agriculture industry and the FFA Organization.
In honor of National FFA Week, 115 Indiana FFA members met on Wednesday in the Statehouse to speak with legislators and promote the student led organization. The members were able to meet and hear from their elected leaders and state-wide officials, including Gov. Eric Holcomb and Lt. Gov. Suzanne Crouch.
"It is always a pleasure

Looking for Peace in the Midst of Turbulent Times?

These are crazy turbulent times. Life is so uncertain and unstable. Blustery winds of crime, disease, betrayal and fear are blowing all around us. Often, we are robbed of peaceful sleep by all the very real troubles of life. Even during these trying times would you like to live a peaceful and contented life?

In coming to this troubled earth, Jesus said that He came so that we might have life and more abundantly (John 10:10). He is our Good Shephard who leads us by quiet waters and green pastures (John 10:11; Psalm 23). Quiet waters and green pastures where there is no cause of fear and want. Turbulent times? Yes, but following our Good Shephard we can find a peaceful, abundant and contented life. Sound appealing?

Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. (Phil. 4:6-7)

You are invited to study with us, grow with us and turn to God in 2022. Let us help you lay hold of this marvelous peace. A warm welcome awaits you at the Stony Creek Church of Christ!

Indiana Senate advances K-12 transgender athlete restrictions

By GARRETT BERGQUIST
WISH-TV | wishtv.com

Senate Republicans on Tuesday defeated multiple attempts to water down a bill to bar transgender girls from joining girls' K-12 sports teams.

During amendment debate Tuesday afternoon, Sen. J.D. Ford (D-Indianapolis) offered an amendment that would have scrapped the ban and instead put into law a requirement that the IHSAA have policies in place governing the participation of transgender athletes, something the asso- ciation already does.

Senators defeated the measure on a party-line vote, along with another amendment by Ford that would have directed lawmakers to form a summer committee to study the issue more thoroughly.

The votes effectively clear the way for a final legislative decision on the measure. Because the Senate has not made any changes to the bill since it came over from the House, a floor vote in favor would send the bill to Gov. Eric Holcomb's desk.

Ford said the bill would send a message to LGBTQ children and their families that they are not welcome in Indiana.

In committee testimony, the bill's supporters have said the measure is necessary to prevent girls from having to compete against someone who has benefited from male puberty, thereby ensuring a level playing field.

The IHSAA has said since it adopted its current policy on transgender athletes in 2017, one transgender girl has formally applied for a waiver to play a girls' sport. The girl in question withdrew her application before IHSAA officials could ask her for more information.

VA to resume "reasonable accommodation" processing for vaccination requests

The REPORTER

Editor's note: The following release was authored by Steven L. Lieberman, M.D., who serves as the Deputy Under Secretary for Health, performing the delegable duties of the Under Secretary for Health, within the U.S. Veterans Health Administration.

The health and safety of Veterans and staff continue to be our highest priority during the pandemic. Despite use of highly protective masks, distancing, and other safety measures, we have been experiencing greater outbreaks of hospital-acquired infections in both our inpatient units and community living centers in association with the increased prevalence of the Omicron variant.

As future variants are expected to emerge, such as the recently appearing BA.2 variant of Omicron, we must do everything we can to protect the Veterans we serve and our co-workers in patient care positions. Recently confirmed by CDC medical studies, vaccination remains the best defense against COVID-19, including variants like Delta and Omicron.

As you know, VHA health care personnel are required to be fully vaccinated against COVID-19. Employees requesting an accommodation to being vaccinated against COVID-19 will have their request treated as a request for "reasonable accommodation" and reviewed accordingly.

During recent surges in COVID-19 cases from Delta and Omicron variants, VA paused the processing of reasonable accommodation requests to ensure Veterans could receive the care they needed with necessary staffing. Today, we are resuming the processing of COVID-19 vaccine reasonable accommodations requests with a focus on ensuring employees' rights while optimizing Veteran care and safety.

We will process these requests in a timely manner, generally in the order they were received. Typically, the time frame for processing a request is 30 calendar days from the initiation of the review process by the management official or supervisor. Please note that an employee's approved accommodation request may result in reassignment to areas within the VA where it is safe for unvaccinated staff to work.

VA has listed specific positions within VA Form 10230a (Undue Hardship Review) where the standard accommodation of masking, maintaining physical distance, testing, and following other required safety protocols is either not possible or does not sufficiently mitigate the safety risk posed to patients and/or other staff members. While we will try to accommodate approved reasonable accommodation reassignment, positions cannot be guaranteed.

We will continue to be transparent with staff and Veterans as reasonable accommodation requests are reviewed and processed. Management officials or supervisors will notify staff regarding whether reasonable accommodation requests are approved or denied, as well as potential next steps.

Thank you for everything you continue to do to serve Veterans and protect fellow team members through the pandemic.

AG Todd Rokita provides legal guidance on off-label prescribing of ivermectin, other drugs to fight COVID-19

The REPORTER

Indiana Attorney General Todd Rokita on Wednesday affirmed that it is legal for health care providers to prescribe ivermectin, hydroxychloroquine and other medications to treat or prevent COVID-19 – even though they are FDA-approved for other uses – so long as prescribing those medications falls within a standard of competent care.

"Amid all the breathless politicizing of inaccurate data by officials and hospitals as well as the pandemic itself, Hoosiers deserve reasonable discussions and common sense conclusions," Rokita said. "They also deserve accurate interpretations of Indiana's laws, and that's what we're providing today, as we always have."

Rokita's legal guidance comes in the form of an advisory opinion issued in response to inquiries from five state lawmakers.

"Off-label prescribing and use of medications is a common and widespread practice in health care," the advisory opinion reads, "and falls within the standard of discouraging the off-label use of any medication. The Attorney General "provides legal advice, not medical advice," the opinion states.

"Experts disagree and studies conflict on prevention and treatment methods for COVID-19," the advisory opinion further states, "so it is not unreasonable for (health care providers) competent care unless additional circumstances would otherwise qualify it as malpractice."

Rokita's advisory opinion should not be construed as either recommending or discouraging the off-label use of any medication. The Attorney General "provides legal advice, not medical advice," the opinion states.

"Experts disagree and studies conflict on prevention and treatment methods for COVID-19," the advisory opinion further states, "so it is not unreasonable for (health care providers) to prescribe medications off-label and it be considered within the standard of care."

Rokita issued the opinion in response to separate inquiries from five Indiana legislators: Sen. Mike Gaskill, Sen. Eric Koch, Sen. James Tomes, Rep. Jim Lucas and Rep. Elizabeth Rowray.

"As a society," Rokita said, "we need to get better at having civilized, honest and open discussions about the issues so important to Hoosiers and all Americans. On COVID-19, that kind of dialogue involves respecting the unique relationship between doctors and patients in deciding whether to get vaccinated or use a drug such as ivermectin. And it involves trusting people to exercise their liberties to make the best decisions for themselves and their families."

the next generation of agriculturists for the state.

"Each year during National FFA Week I am reminded how powerful this organization is in securing our agricultural workforce by equipping students with the knowledge as well as the personal and professional skills they need for success," said Bruce Kettler, director of the Indiana State Department of Agriculture. "Throughout this week I encourage everyone to find a way to support a chapter in their area who is laying the foundation for our future leaders."

This year, the Indiana

FFA Association received a house concurrent resolution highlighting the impact of the FFA Organization, which is preparing more than 11,500 members in 91 of Indiana's 92 counties for the over 250 unique careers in the food, fiber and natural resource sectors.

Abby Stuckwisch, 2021-22 Indiana FFA Southern Region Vice President, shared what this resolution means to her and the FFA Organization.

"Indiana FFA is honored to have a legislature that supports and promotes agriculture education and the experiential learning provided by Indiana FFA," Stuckwisch said. "I feel truly blessed to be able to witness this proclamation of support."

FFA Advocacy Day is one of many events that will be taking place this week to raise awareness about the importance of the organization, the agriculture industry and agricultural education. Local chapters will be hosting community service projects and workshops, and will be joined by the Indiana FFA state officers, who will be traveling around the state to promote the organization.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

Concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered to him, we ask you, brothers and sisters, not to become easily unsettled or alarmed by the teaching allegedly from us—whether by a prophecy or by word of mouth or by letter—asserting that the day of the Lord has already come. Don't let anyone deceive you in any way, for that day will not come until the rebellion occurs and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the man doomed to destruction. He will oppose and will exalt himself over everything that is called God or is worshiped, so that he sets himself up in God's temple, proclaiming himself to be God.
2 Thessalonians 2:1-4 (NIV)

Jack LeRoy Glover

October 16, 1941 – February 21, 2022

Jack LeRoy Glover, 80, Fortville, passed away on Monday, February 21, 2022, at IU Health University Hospital in Indianapolis. He was born on October 16, 1941, to Donald and Marjorie (Abel) Glover in Mattoon, Ill.

Jack worked as an inspector for Allison Gas Turbines while serving as Fishers Fire Chief and Town Marshall. He enjoyed playing golf and poker with the boys. Most of all, Jack loved spending time with his family.

He is survived by his wife of 40 years, Patty Glover; children, Jeff (Amy) Glover, Katherine Glover, Martha Compton, Penni (Tony) Spencer, Jason (Tiffani) Glover, and Kelly (Stephen) Tutrow; brother, Donald (Jane) Glover; grandchildren, Katie Glover, Emma Glover, Megan (Rick) Watson, Elizabeth Cook, Hannah (Rachel) Ricker, Nicholas (Megan) Compton, Allison (Matt) Compton, Brian (Mary) Stiles, Dylan (Kelcey) Stiles, Kai Byers, Hunter Glover, Lucas Glover, Madison Petrey, Kase Tutrow, Benjamin Tutrow, and Sofia Tutrow; and his great-grandchildren, Brayden, Maci, Lily, Thatcher, Jack, James, Benjamin, CJ, Adilyn, Kaliya, Will and Charlee.

In addition to his parents, Jack was preceded in death by his brother, James Glover.

A Celebration of Life will be held from 4 to 6:30 p.m., with sharing of memories at 6:30 p.m., on Monday, February 28, 2022, at Randall & Roberts Funeral Center, 1685 Westfield Road, Noblesville.

Jennifer Dawn Nicholson (Rogers)

September 18, 1958 – February 19, 2022

No doubt she was singing as she became present with Jesus on Saturday, February 19, 2022. She was an amazing Christ follower, wife, mom, grandma, friend, teacher, singer, performer... She truly lived life to the full in all areas.

She ministered faithfully side by side with her husband, Dave. Jen was a gifted worship leader, doing so in every church they served. Jen was also an amazing teacher. Whether leading as the Choral Director at Noblesville High School, teaching younger children at Noble Crossing Elementary, Directing Chapel at Noblesville First UMC Preschool, or teaching private lessons (piano, voice, ukulele, etc.); she gave her all to her students.

Jen led women's Bible study groups, spoke and sang at conferences, and felt honored to sing the national anthem at Market Square Arena/Bankers Life Fieldhouse, Victory Field, multiple banquets and at many other venues.

She loved God with her whole being and was able to love whomever she met with His grace and kindness. She was passionate in her walk with Jesus and in her music. She wrote songs as well as performed (The Belfry, Epilogue Theater, Westfield Players, and others).

There is no way to give even a glimpse of her love, passion and commitment in this space. You can enjoy her songs and antics on YouTube. Two of her favorite life guiding phrases are: "Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice!" Philippians 4:4. "Music moves the soul like nothing else can." Jennifer Nicholson.

Her dad, M. Neil Rogers, and mom, Dottie (Skaggs) Rogers, arrived in heaven ahead of her, as well as three undelivered children. She will some day meet again with her loving husband, David "Dave" Nicholson; son, Josh (Hollie) Nicholson; daughter, Hannah Huntington; and her favorites, the grandchildren: Claire, Landen, Max and Sam; as well as sisters, Stephanie (Don) Fantuzzo and Allison (Mark) Gallo; brother, Mark (Bridget) Rogers; best friend, Beth Winchell; and 16 nieces and nephews. Although we all first look forward to seeing Jesus, it will be a great reunion with Jen in heaven.

Visitation will be held from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday, February 26, 2022, with a Celebration of Life at 1 p.m. at Noblesville First United Methodist Church, 2051 Monument St., Noblesville.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions are encouraged and may be directed to the Jennifer Nicholson Music Scholarship Fund (p2p.onecause.com/jennifernicholson).

'Hounds cruise to regular-season finale win

The Carmel boys basketball team got everything it could ask for out of its regular-season finale, which it played Wednesday at the Eric Clark Activity Center.

The Greyhounds, ranked No. 4 in the Associated Press Class 4A poll and the IBCA one-class poll, cruised past La Lumiere Blue 74-30. The Lakers' Blue team is the regional squad from the famed La Porte prep school, and it agreed to come down to Carmel to give the 'Hounds a game during this week, the last regular-season week before sectionals.

Carmel had been facing the prospect of two weeks between its final regular-season game, which took place Feb. 18 at Warren Central, and a March 4 semi-final contest at Class 4A Sectional 8 at Noblesville, as the Greyhounds drew a bye into the semi-finals. Carmel coach Ryan Osborn was happy to get a game played, as he said it helped the 'Hounds to "have a decent routine in the middle of this week, and then hopefully a normal prep week next week."

"I do appreciate those guys coming down and playing," said Osborn. "It helped us out a lot."

Carmel outscored La Lumiere in each of the four quarters. The Greyhounds led 22-14 after the first period, with five different players scoring. Sam Orme threw in three 3-pointers for nine points.

Carmel's defense ramped up in the second quarter, allowing the Lakers only five points. An 11-0 stretch got the 'Hounds up 35-17; Jared Bonds scored six points on three baskets, including a dunk.

Carmel led 37-19 at halftime. Charlie Williams hit two free throws to close the first half, and that was the beginning of another 11-0 spurt for the Greyhounds. Carmel continued to cruise in the third quarter, pouring in another 21 points for a 58-27 advantage by the end of the period. Garvey Dual had an exceptional quarter, scoring nine points. Carmel then outscored La Lumiere 16-3 in the fourth; the 'Hounds made a 21-0 run that began in the third quarter and stretched well into the fourth period.

"We've been talking about screening more and having better ball movement, getting multiple sides of the floor," said Osborn. "And I thought we shared it well."

Carmel's Sam Orme scored 15 points, including four 3-pointers, for the Greyhounds during their 74-30 win over La Lumiere Blue Wednesday at the Eric Clark Activity Center.

Ten different players scored for the 'Hounds, with three reaching double figures. Orme and Charlie Williams both had 15 points, while Dual scored 13 points.

Orme finished the game with four 3-pointers. Carmel shot the ball well from outside as a team, going 8 for 12. Spencer White made a pair of 3s, while Dual and Logan Reinhart both had one.

Williams led the rebounds with six, while Dual dished out four assists and blocked two shots. Josh Whack handed out five assists; Carmel had 21 assists as a team.

The Greyhounds are 17-5 will play the winner of the Tuesday first-round game between Sectional 8 host Noblesville and Zionsville on Friday, March 4.

"We'll probably take some time off tomorrow and come back Friday, Saturday, Monday, Tuesday and just work on our stuff," said Osborn. "And then when we find out who we're playing, we'll start our normal prep for whoever we're playing."

Heights off until March 4 sectional game . . .

Huskies overwhelmed on the road by Raiders

Hamilton Heights was overwhelmed by Harrison in its regular-season finale, as the Huskies lost to the Raiders 86-49 in a Wednesday away game.

Harrison outscored Heights in each of the four quarters, leading 18-6 after one period and 37-21 at halftime. The Raiders then added 49 points in the second half.

Luke Carroll led the Huskies with 13 points and eight rebounds. Isaac Tuma contributed nine points and collected four rebounds.

Heights is 10-11 and will play next week in Class 3A Sectional 24 at New Castle. The Huskies drew a bye and will play the winner of Tuesday's first round game between New Castle and Jay County in the March 4 semi-finals.

'Rocks finish season with win over Kings

Westfield finished its regular season with a victory on Wednesday, beating a tough Lewis Cass team 52-43 at CSI Gymnasium.

The Shamrocks and the Kings were tied at 12-12 after one quarter. Cam Haffner scored eight points for Westfield, while Alex Romack added four. The 'Rocks began to get some separation in the second quarter, using a 10-0 run to take a 24-14 lead late in the period. Romack added another four points, and Jonah Spinner helped out with a pair of layins for four points.

Cass finished the half with back-to-back baskets to cut the Shamrocks' lead to 24-18 by halftime, then opened the third with a jumper to make it a four-point game. Westfield answered with another 10-0 spurt; Haffner scored the first four points, then Romack added six more.

"I thought our passion and energy needed to be a lot better in the second half than it was in the first half," said Shamrocks coach Shane Sumpter. Fortunately, that changed in the second half, with Westfield increasing its energy and enthusiasm.

"I thought that picked up a little bit and we were able to grind away and get a lead and hold on," said Sumpter.

Romack had a fantastic third quarter, scoring 12 points. The 'Rocks led 43-25 after three periods. Cass slowly chipped away at Westfield's lead in the fourth, but the Shamrocks held them off. Trey Buchanan helped out with a 3-pointer during the first part of the period.

Romack scored 22 points, while Haffner finished the game with 12 points.

Westfield is 18-6 and will now head to Class 4A Sectional 8 play at Noblesville.

Westfield's Kai Butterworth looks past two Lewis Cass defenders during the Shamrocks-Kings game Wednesday at CSI Gymnasium. Westfield won 52-43.

The Shamrocks are focused on Fishers, which beat Westfield 73-48 on Feb. 12.

Indiana Fever present Anthem Assists Award to Daniel and Kelley Cox

Daniel and Kelley Cox were both awarded the Anthem Assists Award, the Indiana Fever announced Tuesday evening at New Castle High School.

After the loss of their newborn son last April, Daniel and Kelley Cox created Archie's Promise. The organization aims to support families experiencing infant loss, with fundraising efforts contributing to medical bills and funeral expenses.

"Learning about the Cox family's tragic loss and how they have helped contribute to other families in need is inspiring and the main reason we wanted to honor these individuals throughout the state. The Cox family displays how powerful Hoosiers are when we are able to help each other through the toughest of times," Fever President Dr. Allison Barber said.

This past December, New Castle and New Palestine High Schools teamed up during a basketball game to support Archie's Promise.

"We are really humbled that we were nominated for this award. It means a great deal to us to help other people and also be able to hear people say Archie's name to know that his life is continuing to live on," Daniel and Kelley Cox said.

For more information or to donate to Archie's Promise, visit their foundation page here.

To nominate a community leader, friend, student, co-worker, neighbor, relative or volunteer that is making a difference through their commitment to inspiring change, please visit the nomination link here. Each Anthem Assists Award recipient will receive four tickets to a select Indiana Fever game in 2022, an Indiana Fever Gift Bag, in-game recognition and more.

Anthem Assists will honor individuals throughout the state of Indiana who have made an overwhelming impact in the lives of others by advocating for equity and inclusion in education, health & wellness, female empowerment and corporate citizenship.
