WILLIS — LIBERTY

my career, thank you! My successes are a reflection of your hard work, effort and devotion to duty and I wouldn't have made it 30 years without you.

"To my wife, Stacey Willis – you have been an absolute rock. You have kept the home fires burning in my numerous absences and I couldn't have done it without you. The Marine Corps is hard on marriages for sure and many don't last. However, you have shown unwavering love and support and I will be forever grateful.

"To my kids, I have missed way too many birthdays, holidays, school events, and games. However, I hope my service has been a source of pride to you and the lessons I have tried and instilled in you from my Marine Corps experiences will pay off as you grow into adulthood.

"Semper Fidelis!"

Further, at a rudimentary level, the stakeholder theory faces serious questions of sustainability. How long can a firm that prioritizes the interests of stakeholders over profits stay in business? More important, who will invest in such a firm knowing that it may not see a return on their investment or, worse yet, lose their investment altogether?

It appears that WEF's ultimate goal is to reset the world's economic framework. WEF promotes its transformative ideology as a response the COVID-19 pandemic and climate change. Some call the stakeholder theory corporate socialism or communist capitalism. The implementation of such a system would likely lead to fewer corporations controlling greater amounts of the capital because smaller business would be unable to absorb the financial burden. Presumably, these ultra-corporations would be subject to increased top-down government control, much like the current Chinese regime.

Michael Rectenwald, Chief Academic Officer for American Scholars, writes that fairness requires lowering the economic status of individuals in wealthier nations to reflect those individuals in poorer nations with the goal of making developed countries feel guilty about their wealth. I wonder how many of our cultural elites would give up their private jets in order to promote Mr. Rectenwald's interpretation of fairness?

If the WEF achieves its mission, our nation's economic dominance will end. Energy will be unaffordable and shipped in from faraway lands. Healthcare will be abysmal. And consumption of traditional sources of protein will be greatly diminished.

Currently, values that built the West are being tested to their breaking point. Be aware and be informed. Global elitism and centralization can be rebuked and rejected by a people who understand the principles and price of freedom. Ours is a stubborn country and it does not take well to being told what to do.

PREVAIL

Advocating for Victims of Crime & Abuse

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault - it wasn't something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County (nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children). Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don't often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we're breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.

County to test outdoor warning sirens Friday

The REPORTER

Hamilton County Emergency Management (HCEM) will resume the weekly testing of the outdoor warning sirens at 11 a.m. on Friday, March 11. The sirens will also sound during the statewide tornado drill between 10 and 10:30 a.m. on Tuesday, March 15. HCEM encourages everyone to exercise your plan by going to your safe place during the drill.

“The outdoor warning sirens are intended to warn those who are outdoors,” said Emergency Management Executive Director Shane Booker. “Because sirens are not intended to warn those indoors, we recommend every household and business to have a weather radio.”

Learn more about outdoor warning sirens in Hamilton County at hamiltoncounty.in.gov/235/

Outdoor-Warning-Sirens.

Sirens are only sounded when:

1. The National Weather Service issues a tornado warning. Visit weather.gov/safety/tornado-wv for more information.

2. When public safety personnel see a funnel cloud or tornado.

3. When a trained weather spotter sees a funnel cloud or tornado.

On Sunday, March 6, the National Weather Service issued a tornado warning for a portion of Hamilton County. Only the sirens for the municipalities in contact with the polygon were sounded. For example, the sirens in Cicero were sounded; however, the sirens in Sheridan and Arcadia were not because they were not in the warned area.

When the National Weather Service issues a tornado warning, a message will be sent to cell phones in the county. FEMA, which manages the Emergency Alert System and the Wireless Emergency Alerts, is working to improve alerts to only those in the warned area. Emergency Management uses the same system to send non-weather-related emergencies to cell phones and weather radios. Alerts can include hazardous materials warnings, shelter-in-place warnings, law enforcement warnings, and more.

Emergency Management recommends everyone have a plan for severe weather, an emergency kit with supplies for at least three days, and multiple ways to receive warnings such as a weather radio and the free HCEM mobile app.

Resources to help you prepare for severe weather, emergencies, and disasters are available at ready.gov. The website also includes information and games to help children understand emergency preparedness.

About Hamilton County Emergency Management

Hamilton County Emergency Management is a county-level government public safety department tasked with emergency preparedness, response, recovery, and mitigation for emergencies and disasters. The department is the largest county-level emergency management program in the state, with nine full-time staff and nearly 200 volunteers.

General Assembly sends permitless carry bill to governor

By GARRETT BERGQUIST
WISH-TV | wishtv.com

A three-hour Senate debate on Tuesday evening ended with lawmakers voting to do away with the state’s concealed carry permit requirement.

The vote caps roughly two weeks of procedural maneuvering that began when a Senate panel rewrote the bill too close to a key deadline. Lawmakers brought back the bill through the conference committee process, which resolves differences between House and Senate versions of legislation.

After first gutting a Senate bill to make room for the permitless carry language, lawmakers eventually pasted the language into a House bill that originally dealt with multiple employer welfare agreements.

As happened at the committee stage, lawmakers clashed over whether the bill is in the best interests of public safety and law enforcement.

The bill’s opponents pointed to testimony by all the state’s law enforcement advocacy groups, multiple police chiefs, and Indiana State Police Superintendent Doug Carter stating the bill would make it harder for them to determine whether someone was allowed to carry a gun.

Democratic senators Fady Qaddoura and Eddie Melton recounted the ways gun violence had impacted their lives personally.

“Have you ever seen a friend take their last breath from gun violence? Have you ever been in a shootout as a child?” asked Melton, a Democrat from Gary. “I have. I cannot wrap my mind around how we will move forward as a state when we have children that are struggling with mental health issues.”

The bill’s supporters noted law enforcement’s opposition to the bill was not uniform, pointing to testimony by Hamilton County Sheriff Dennis Quakenbush, among others.

Sen. Jack Sandlin (R-Indianapolis) a former Indianapolis police officer, said most officers he has spoken with support the bill. He said officers have numerous procedures for dealing with potentially armed subjects and losing access to the state’s concealed carry permit database won’t change that.

“Law enforcement officers will still have to respond and conduct themselves appropriately under the law,” Sandlin said.

The bill now heads to Gov. Eric Holcomb’s desk. Holcomb told reporters last week he would review the bill carefully before deciding whether to sign it.

Fishers Arts & Culture opens RFQ for Techway Trailhead Art Sculpture

Sculpture will serve as centerpiece of new public plaza along Fishers' Nickel Plate Trail

The REPORTER

The Fishers Arts & Culture Commission (FACC) and Rebar Development (Rebar) on Wednesday released a request for qualifications (RFQ) for an artist, artist team, or creative company to design and install an art sculpture at the new Techway Trailhead, 8933 Technology Drive, along the Nickel Plate Trail.

The sculpture will serve as the centerpiece of the new trailhead plaza, part of Re-bar's $8.8 million Techway project announced earlier this year. The project includes a public plaza, parking, and a two-story office building at the entrance of Fishers Technology Park. Along with public art, the trailhead plaza will include bicycle racks, benches, a water fountain, and parking for trail users.

"We are excited to work with the Commission on this unique public-private partnership along the Nickel Plate Trail," said Shelby

Bowen, president and partner of Rebar Development. "We were attracted to invest in this project because of the city's investment along the trail and are thrilled to collaborate with the Commission to install an original piece of art for our tenants and the public to enjoy."

Artists are encouraged to maximize the use of color, texture, and lighting in their proposed work, which should not exceed a $50,000 budget. The trailhead sculpture is also required to use the daVinci Pursuit's innovative Art Port. The installation must be durable and projected to withstand weather conditions for up to 10 years with the ability to be part of a state-wide art sculpture exchange program through the daVinci Pursuit's Art Port program.

"The Fishers Arts and Culture Commission is excited to partner with Rebar Development on our third project along the Nickel Plate Trail," said David Decker, chair of the Fishers Arts & Culture Commission. "In conjunction with the Blazing the Trail mural and the sculpture at Hamilton East Public Library's new entrance plaza, we are continuing to invest in the vibrancy of our community. Art and cultural experiences are vital components of our vibrant and inclusive community."

Requests for qualifications are due by 4:30 p.m. on May 6. Qualifications will be evaluated by the FACC's Grant and RFQ Review Subcommittee comprised of local non-profit art organizations, Commissioners, and city staff.

Rep. Spartz introduces bipartisan resolution to investigate war crimes committed by Putin's military commanders

The REPORTER

This week, Rep. Victoria Spartz (R-Ind.), along with Rep. Marcy Kaptur (D-Ohio) and over 70 of her colleagues introduced H. Res. 963 supporting investigation into war crimes in the International Criminal Court committed by President Putin and his military commanders. This resolution is also co-led by Sens. Lindsey Graham (R-S.C.) and Chris Coons (D-Del.) in the Senate.

"Military commanders who are willing to obey orders to purposely kill innocent civilians should be held accountable as much as the person who makes these orders," Rep. Spartz said.

"My colleagues and I would like to express our support for holding these generals accountable in The Hague."

"Putin the war criminal has long pillaged and murdered those whose love for freedom offends him," Rep. Kaptur said. "The great wars of the 20th century taught us that an attack on Liberty

AG Rokita warning against home improvement scammers

The REPORTER

As spring approaches, many homeowners across Indiana will begin planning for home improvement and repair projects around the house.

Home improvement projects can bring added comfort as well as value to your home. Whether you are making improvements such as replacing windows and doors, adding a home office, or updating a kitchen or bath, it is important to hire a professional to keep projects from becoming a source of frustration and a costly endeavor.

Indiana Attorney General Todd Rokita is warning Hoosiers to take precautions and do their research before hiring a home improvement contractor.

"Hoosiers can protect themselves by doing their research, asking the right questions, and getting a written contract that defines the full scope of the work and specifications for the job," Rokita said.

Consumers can look to sources like the Indiana Builders Association (IBA) as a part of their research. The IBA has more than 2,600 members, many of whom perform home improvement services. The IBA also offers homeowner resources to connect consumers to industry professionals for their next project.

"Our members are invested in making their communities better. Fly-by-night and out of state contractors who come in town after a storm to take advantage of our friends, family and neighbors gives the whole industry a tarnished reputation," said Paul Schwinghammer, IBA 2022 President. "The IBA is a trusted resource when it comes to making an informed home-buying, remodeling, or general repair decision. Additional info can be found at buildindiana.org/homeowners."

Consumers should do their homework to prevent the headache of doing business with an unscrupulous contractor. Rokita and the Indiana Builders Association offer the following tips to avoid falling victim to a home repair scam:

- Ask your family, friends, and co-workers for contractors they have used who have done good work.
- Before signing a contract or making a payment, contact the Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division and the Better Business Bureau for complaint information on contractors you are considering.
- Get multiple bids from local contractors. Avoid contractors who spontaneously show up at your door offering a "bargain" price for painting, driveway sealing, roof repairs, etc.
- Get a written contract before making a payment. Indiana law requires home improvement contracts exceeding $150 to be in writing. Before signing the contract, make certain it includes:
  - The price of the job
  - Payment schedule

Rokita

- A detailed description of the work and materials

- Estimated start and completion dates

- The contractor's name and address

- A name and telephone number of the person to contact if problems arise

- The contractor's e-mail address

- The contractor's signature

• Never pay for the entire project before the work begins.

• If you do make a down payment, remaining payments should be tied to completion of specified amounts of work.

• If the contractor is arranging financing, the contractor should provide you with an installment sale contract disclosing various credit terms like the finance charge and the APR.

Even if preventative measures are taken, problems may still arise. Take time to talk to your contractor to resolve these issues. If problems continue, put your complaints in writing and send them to the contractor. Be sure to keep a copy of these complaints for your records.

The Consumer Protection Division of Attorney General Todd Rokita's Office works to safeguard the rights of Indiana citizens every day. If you have questions or complaints regarding home improvement scams or other consumer issues, visit IndianaConsumer.com.

Tickets on sale Friday for Houndmouth concert on June 18 at Fishers NPD AMP

The REPORTER

The Nickel Plate District Amphitheater and MOKB Presents have announced Houndmouth live in concert on Saturday, June 18 in Fishers.

This show is the first concert announced as part of the summer concert series that will take place at the Nickel Plate District Amphitheater. Additional shows and events will be announced soon. Tickets for Houndmouth go on sale this Friday, March 11 at npdamp.com.

Additionally, the NPD AMP will continue to host the Fishers Farmers Market and local and regional live music residents and visitors have come to expect. Updates on the 2022 summer schedule can be found at npdamp.com.

"Concert season is here! We can't wait to bring a summer schedule with some old favorites, like Tuesday Night Concerts, as well as larger national acts to the NPD AMP," said Sarah Sandquist, director of Fishers Parks, which manages the NPD AMP. "With the Nickel Plate Trail opening this spring and this announcement kicking off our summer lineup, downtown Fishers should be on everybody's summer bucket list."

Houndmouth is an American alternative blues band from New Albany, Ind., formed in 2011, consisting of Matt Myers (guitar, vocals), Zak Appleby (bass, vocals), and Shane Cody (drums, vocals). After playing locally in Louisville and Indiana, the band performed at the SXSW music festival in March 2012 to promote their homemade self-titled EP. Geoff Travis, the head of Rough Trade, was in the audience and offered a contract shortly after.

In 2012, the band was named "Band Of The Week" by The Guardian. In 2013 Houndmouth's debut album, From the Hills Below the City, was released by Rough Trade. This led to performances on Letterman, Conan, World Cafe, and several major festivals (ACL, Americana Music Festival, Bonnaroo, Lollapalooza, and Newport Folk Festival). SPIN and Esquire.com named Houndmouth a "must-see" band at Lollapalooza, and Garden & Gun said, "You'd be hard pressed to find a more effortless, well-crafted mix of roots and rock this year than the debut album from this Louisville quartet."

On their latest album Good For You, Houndmouth share a collection of songs set in places as far-flung as the Alamo and the Hudson River, each populated by a motley cast of characters: fairy-tale princesses and vampires, parking-lot lovers and wanna-be beauty queens. The fourth full-length album from the band, Good For You is a lovingly gathered catalog of those wild and fleeting moments that stay lodged in our hearts forever, taking on a dreamlike resonance as years go by. For more information, please visit houndmouth.com.

Tickets for the Houndmouth show go on sale at 10 a.m. Friday, March 11 and will be available at npdamp.com and mokb-presents.com for $20 advance or $25 day of show. For ticketed shows the venue is an all-ages facility and children ages 2 and under are permitted for free. Fans can also bring their own lawn chair and blankets.

Governor Holcomb can take a stand for Hoosiers with disabilities by signing HB 1242

In 1987, President Ronald Reagan officially established March as National Disability Awareness Month.

Today, 35 years later, I reflect on the past and look toward the future. I see a lot of great things that have happened, but I am worried.

There are 54 million Americans living with disabilities. For many of those people, having a job is not only a paycheck but a purpose. Knowing these stakes, we face the harsh reality that 60 percent with disabilities are unemployed.

We are at a crossroads in Indiana. The Ability Indiana program has historically been a great "win." Businesses across the state that employ people with disabilities can apply to become Certified Ability Indiana Organizations (CAIO). The way it works is the state purchases products and services they use anyway from these CAIOs that provide employment and training programs for Hoosiers with disabilities. Through the program, Indiana taxpayers realize annual savings of $2,300 per worker. How? CAIO employees become taxpaying citizens and have a reduced need of government entitlements. In addition, state agencies receive high-quality products and services at fair market prices.

In 2018, HB 1257 was passed to increase program transparency. Governor Eric Holcomb signed the legislation into law. Unfortunately, it did not increase opportunities. In fact, state purchases from CAIOs that employ Hoosiers with disabilities is lower. It is time the state strengthens its own regulations.

House Bill 1242, now heading towards Governor Holcomb's desk, is a step in the right direction. It would help answer critical questions. Is the state living up to its own standards? Is it doing all it can to create job opportunities for Hoosiers with disabilities?

HB 1242 would do several things. It address-

Robert Ellis Frash June 23, 1930 – March 4, 2022

Robert Ellis Frash, passed away on March 4, 2022, at his home in Palm City, Fla. He was the cherished son of Elizabeth Hyre and George William Frash.

Robert was an astounding person who embodied much of what is best about the world and, more pointedly, the country of his birth, the United States of America. Most knew him as “Bob,” which is curious because it is a rather ordinary name for such a truly extraordinary person.

Born on June 23, 1930, he grew up during the Great Depression, in the most modest of circumstances, on the farmlands surrounding Churubusco, Ind. During frigid winters, he used an outhouse, walked miles to school, and had to put a heated brick by his feet at night to get to sleep.

In spite of that, Bob treasured his upbringing. He often said that difficulties of childhood taught him the tenacity that later leveraged his success. In fact, it was perhaps because of his harsh upbringing that he became determined to move beyond the boundaries of his small town and attain prominence. After playing basketball in a high school (reminiscent of the movie Hoosiers) he joined the Air National Guard during the Korean War. There he quickly rose to the rank of Master Sergeant and ran the motor pool at Baer Field in Fort Wayne. Bob was always proud to serve his country during a time of war and was active in the VFW and American Legion throughout his life.

It was after leaving the Air National Guard that he began to build what would become a vast network of businesses and real estate holdings. Bob, who was ever the quintessential entrepreneur, built his first construction company from one Caterpillar D2 bulldozer to a fleet of more than 150 pieces of heavy construction equipment. When asked what was most central to his business success, he replied that “he always kept his word.” Indeed, throughout his nearly century-long life, Bob had a reputation of honoring his commitments, no matter the cost.

However, Bob was not only passionate about his business dealings. He was raised to understand the primary importance of family. Principal family figures were, of course, his mom and dad, but his Aunt Juva, his mother’s only sister, was a prominent force throughout Bob’s life. Juva Marsden served as Bob’s counsel, cheerleader, matriarch, and an eternal ray of sunshine – especially during troubled times. One could not overstate the admiration and gratitude Bob felt for his Aunt Juva. Bob often referred to her as a saint, and indeed, in many ways she was.

Over a span of nearly two decades, Bob had five children, Pam, Bob Jr., Frank, Robin and Juva. Although his children were raised in two different states, Bob always did his best be an ever-present figure in their lives and instill the value of family in all. Tragically, Bob lost his second son, Frank, in 1986. Although, he was forever burdened with this loss, Bob stoically never lost sight of his duty and love to his surviving children. He had a special bond with each of them and played a pivotal role into their adulthood and parenthood of their own. To that end, Bob lovingly leaves behind eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

In 1985, while on vacation, Bob met Marie Driscoll, in Santa Domingo, in the Dominican Republic. It was a fairytale romance – they met in February and were married in November. Not too long after they were married, Bob and Marie retired to Florida in 1993. Not surprisingly, Bob did not adapt well to retirement. Just two years later, he and Marie were back in Indiana running a landfill on the north side of Indianapolis. Together, they built upon their success and purchased another much larger venture in Noblesville. Remarkably, through their industriousness, and the goal of revitalizing largely untenable land, both landfills have been repurposed into thriving industrial complexes. Bob and Marie were married for 37 years, during which time they not only built a substantive business empire but were best friends who never lost sight of their love for one another, sharing in numerous adventures while traveling the world. They especially enjoyed ocean cruising and visited every continent in the world but Antarctica.

No memory of Bob would be complete without mention of his innate lust for life. Throughout his life, he participated in many different activities. Growing up he farmed, hunted, rode horses, sold lake ice, and ran a roller-skating rink. He was an avid boater and water skier through much of the first half of his life. At an early age, he was a member of the Hamilton Lake Ski Club, where he helped host numerous annual waterski shows. Bob’s water ski accomplishments include induction into the 100-foot water ski jump club, aerial waterski kite flying, barefoot water skiing, and much more. Bob visited Cypress Gardens nearly every year and became good friends and water ski mates with the famous Jimmy “Fly” Jackson. Bob spent many winters vacationing in Michigan where he rode and raced snowmobiles. He later began snow skiing and won a Gold Medal in Snowmass, Colo. Bob also played tennis whenever time allow. He hunted, often on horseback in remote regions of the Rocky Mountains.

Bob Frash was a farmer, mechanic, military leader, skilled heavy equipment operator, capable civil engineer, loving husband and patriarch, avid sportsman and so much more. Remarkably, he excelled at everything he did. His drive and determination for success, in any and all endeavors, was dogged and astonishing. Bob did not know or accept failure, truly. He was benevolent to his fellow man and will be dearly missed by many.

Bob is survived by his wife, Marie; children, Pam Frash, Robert Frash Jr. (Kenda Sweet), Robin Shaul, and Juva Zimmerman; eight grandchildren; and eight great-grandchildren.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his son, Frank Frash; brother, William Frash; aunt, Juva Marsden; and one grandson, Tim Bricker.

Visitation will be from 4 to 8 p.m. on Wednesday, March 16, 2022, at Randall & Roberts Funeral Center, 1685 Westfield Road, Noblesville. Services will be held at 11 a.m. on Thursday, March 17, 2022, at Our Lady of Grace Catholic Church, 9900 E. 191st St., Noblesville. Bob will be laid to rest at noon on Friday, March 18, 2022, at Eel River Cemetery in Churubusco, Ind.

Memorial contributions may be made to Our Lady of Grace Catholic Church, 9900 E. 191st St., Noblesville, IN 46060.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

Timothy, my son, I am giving you this command in keeping with the prophecies once made about you, so that by recalling them you may fight the battle well, holding on to faith and a good conscience, which some have rejected and so have suffered shipwreck with regard to the faith. Among them are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan to be taught not to blaspheme.

Thomas John Bleisch

January 7, 1966 – March 8, 2022

Thomas John Bleisch, 56, Noblesville, passed away in his home, surrounded by his family, on March 8, 2022, after a two-year battle with brain cancer. He was born on January 7, 1966, to Charles and Marilyn (Conrad) Bleisch in Lansing, Mich.

Tom married the love of his life, Annette (Powers), in 1991 after meeting at Michigan State University. They went on to have three children, Joshua Thomas, Zachary Charles, and Samuel Powers, along with two daughters-in-law, Morgan Raters and Hallie Nolan. Tom used his degrees in Chemistry from Michigan State and Ohio State during his 30-year career at Eli Lilly as a medicinal chemist, where his research impacted countless lives.

Tom's family meant more to him than anything else in the world. He was unendingly proud of Josh, Zach, and Sam and supported them unconditionally. He loved cheering them on at swim meets and driveway "Bleischketball" games. The boys spent countless weekends together, camping and backpacking in wild places through Boy Scouts of America. Their most memorable trips included Isle Royale, Philmont Scout Ranch, and Machu Picchu. Tom shared his love of Michigan State sports with his entire family and loved cheering on the Spartans during football and basketball season.

Anyone who knew Tom knew that he was the most loving father and husband a family could ask for. He is survived by his parents, Marilyn and Charles Bleisch; wife, Annette; sons, Joshua, Zachary, and Samuel; daughters-in-law, Morgan Raters and Hallie Nolan; brother, Michael (Penny) Bleisch; sister, Kristie (Will) Grindey; godsons, Manuel and Elias Macias; and many nieces and nephews.

Tom was kind, inclusive, hilarious, and faithful. In his free time, he volunteered with the Our Lady of Grace Youth Ministry and served as Scoutmaster for Troop 101. He touched so many lives and we will miss him endlessly.

Visitation will be from 4 to 8 p.m., with Rosary beginning at 7:30 p.m., on Monday, March 14, 2022, at Our Lady of Grace Catholic Church, 9900 E. 191st St., Noblesville. Mass will be held at 11 a.m. on Tuesday, March 15, 2022, at the church.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made in Tom's name to Bethlehem Farm, 572 Bethlehem Farm Lane, Alderson, WV 24910 (bethlehemfarm.net); and Our Lady of Grace Youth Ministry Scholarship Fund, 9900 E. 191st St., Noblesville, IN 46060 (ologn.org).

Noblesville's Ashlynn Shade named Gatorade Indiana Player of the Year

In its 37th year of honoring the nation's best high school athletes, Gatorade today announced Ashlynn Shade of Noblesville High School is the 2021-22 Gatorade Indiana Girls Basketball Player of the Year. Shade is the second Gatorade Indiana Girls Basketball Player of the Year to be chosen from Noblesville High School.

The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the court, distinguishes Shade as Indiana's best high school girls basketball player. Now a finalist for the prestigious Gatorade National Girls Basketball Player of the Year award to be announced in March, Shade joins an elite alumni association of state award-winners in 12 sports, including Skylar Diggins-Smith (2008-09, Washington High School, Ind.), Nneka Ogwumike (2007-08, CyFair High School, Texas), Maya Moore (2006-07, Collins Hill High School, Ga.), Candace Parker (2002-03 & 2003-04, Naperville Central High School, Ill.), and Lisa Leslie (1989-90, Morningside High School, Calif.).

The 5-foot-11 junior guard led the Millers to a 25-4 record and the Class 4A state championship this past season. Shade averaged 20.9 points, 8.3 rebounds, 4.1 assists and 3.7 steals and tallied 31 points, seven rebounds, five assists and five steals in the team's 76-52 win over Franklin Community High in the state title game. A two-time First Team All-State selection, she is ranked as the nation's No. 3 recruit by ProspectsNation.com. She concluded her junior year with 1,698 points in her prep basketball career.

A state champion cross country runner in middle school, Shade has volunteered locally as a youth basketball coach and counselor. "Ashlynn can hurt you from the inside-out, which makes her very tough to guard," said Erin Trimpe, head coach of Carmel High School. "Ashlynn finds ways to get to the rim, elevate over the defense and she can score at any level of the court."

Shade has maintained a weighted 3.94 grade-point average in the classroom. She will begin her senior year of high school this fall.

The Gatorade Player of the Year program annually recognizes one winner in the District of Columbia and each of the 50 states that sanction high school football, girls volleyball, boys and girls cross country, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, baseball, softball, and boys and girls track & field, and awards one National Player of the Year in each sport. The selection process is administered by the Gatorade Player of the Year Selection Committee, which leverages experts including coaches, scouts, media and others as sources to help evaluate and determine the state winners in each sport.

Shade joins recent Gatorade Indiana Girls Basketball Players of the Year Jessica Carrothers (2020-21, Crown Point High School), Madison Layden (2019-20, Northwestern High School), Sydney Parrish (2018-19, Hamilton Southeastern High School), and Amy Dilk (2017-18, Carmel High School), among the state's list of former award winners.

Gatorade has a long-standing history of serving athlete communities and understands how sports instill valuable lifelong skills on and off the court. Through Gatorade's "Play it Forward" platform, Shade has the opportunity to award a $1,000 grant to a local or national organization of their choosing that helps young athletes realize the benefits of playing sports. Shade is also eligible to submit a short video explaining why the organization they chose is deserving of one of twelve $10,000 spotlight grants, which will be announced throughout the year. To date, Gatorade Player of the Year winners' grants have totaled more than $3.5 million across more than 1,300 organizations.

Since the program's inception in 1985, Gatorade Player of the Year award recipients have won hundreds of professional and college championships, and many have also turned into pillars in their communities, becoming coaches, business owners and educators.

Track and field

County teams start season at indoor meets

The indoor track and field season started this past weekend with several Hamilton County schools competing in qualifiers for the Hoosier State Relays, which take place March 26 at Indiana University.

Westfield was the first team out of the blocks, as the Shamrocks competed at the opening HSR Qualifier at Indiana Wesleyan University last Friday. Westfield picked up two wins, with the boys 4x400 relay and 4x800 relay teams each taking first in their respective event.

The Shamrocks returned to Indiana Wesleyan on Saturday for the second HSR Qualifier. Hamilton Heights and Noblesville joined them, as did the Carmel girls team.

The Huskies boys had a great day in the field, winning two events. Colin Wilson won the shot put with a huge throw of 56 feet, 3 inches, while Peyton McQuinn triumphed in the pole vault. Westfield's boys also got a victory in the distance medley relay event (1200, 400, 800, 1600).

In the girls meet, Carmel was first in the 4x400 and 4x800 relays, while Noblesville picked up two field event wins. Hannah Alxander won the shot put and Laina Lillge was first in the pole vault. Westfield's Liz Smith was a winner in the 3200 run.

Guerin Catholic also competed Saturday at the Red Devil Classic HSR Qualifier at the University of Indianapolis. The Golden Eagles boys team picked up a victory in the 4x800 relay.

Legendary boys basketball coach Ray Crowe to be inducted into National High School Hall of Fame

Ray Crowe, the legendary boys basketball coach who guided Crispus Attucks High School to four state finals appearances in the 1950s, will be inducted posthumously into the National High School Hall of Fame this summer.

Crowe, the first Indiana high school basketball coach to be inducted into the National High School Hall of Fame, is part of the 2022 Hall of Fame class which also includes Notah Begay, the late Walter Payton, Sanya Richards-Ross, and Thurman Thomas.

The Hall of Fame induction ceremony will take place on July 1 in San Antonio, Texas as a highlight of the annual Summer Meeting of the National Federation of State High School Associations (NFHS).

Crowe, who passed away in 2003 at the age of 88, took over the reins of the Crispus Attucks boys basketball team in 1951 installing an uptempo, aggressive style of play and established what would become one of the greatest eras of Indiana high school basketball.

He taught his Attucks teams to play with discipline and sportsmanship; players were not allowed to trash-talk or complain to game officials while facing blatant racism and discrimination from opposing teams, fans and game officials.

After reaching the IHSAA Boys Basketball State Finals in 1951, his first year as coach, he guided Crispus Attucks to three consecutive state championship games in Indiana’s famed single-class basketball tournament. In 1955, Crowe became the first African-American coach and Attucks became the first African-American school in the country to win an open state title. He then coached the Hoosier State’s first-ever undefeated state champion in 1956 (31-0) and state runner-up in 1957. The “Flying Tigers” went 61-1 during their two championship seasons.

During his seven seasons (1950-57), Crowe coached the Tigers to a 179-20 record (.899) including a state record 45-game winning streak. Remarkably, all this success came despite playing all their games on the road or at a neutral site because they did not have a suitable school gymnasium to host games.

Crowe was known as coach, mentor, father figure, teacher and guardian to his players and other members of the Indianapolis African-American community.

He coached several players that went on to great careers including the legendary Oscar Robertson (the Big O and 1983 National High School Hall of Fame inductee), Hallie Bryant and Willie Gardner, both of Harlem Globetrotters fame, Willie Merriweather, Albert Maxey, Ed Searcy, Bill Brown, Bob Jewell, and Bailey “Flap” Robertson.

Following his final game as coach in 1957, he became the Crispus Attucks High School athletic director for 11 years during which he helped lay the groundwork for a modern gymnasium. Its playing floor is now named Ray Crowe Court and he holds a prominent place in the Crispus Attucks Museum which sits adjacent to the school gym.

Beginning in 1967, he was elected to the Indiana House of Representatives (1967-75) and ultimately became the Chairman of the House Education Committee. In 1976, he became director of the Indianapolis Department of Parks and Recreation. He also served on the Indianapolis City-County Council from 1983-1987.

Inducted into the Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame in 1968, Crowe was also cast in the movie, Hoosiers. He didn’t have a speaking role but played the part of the South Bend Central coach in the state championship game and could be seen consoling his players during the post-game scenes.

In 1991, Crowe was named a Sagamore of the Wabash by Indiana Governor Evan Bayh. The award is the highest honor an Indiana governor can bestow and is a personal tribute to someone who has rendered a distinguished service to the State or to the Governor.

A residence hall at the University of Indianapolis was re-named in 2012 for Crowe and his brother - Ray & George Crowe Hall where they both graduated when it was known as Indiana Central College.

Ray Crowe Elementary School in Whiteland, IN, was dedicated in July 2021 near the family farm he grew up on in Johnson County just south of Indianapolis. He graduated from Whiteland High School in 1934 where he was a two-sport star lettering in basketball and baseball.

“The games won, the championships, those things are for the moment and then they are sweet memories. The enduring satisfaction has been watching young men turn their basketball experiences into successful lives away from the court. I don’t know what higher honor a coach could ever ask for.” ~ Ray Crowe

The 2022 Hall of Fame Class was chosen after a two-level selection process involving a screening committee composed of active high school state association administrators, coaches and officials, and a final selection committee composed of coaches, former athletes, state association officials, media representatives and educational leaders. Nominations were made through NFHS member associations.

Crowe becomes the 18th individual from the state of Indiana to be inducted into the National High School Hall of Fame. Others that have been inducted from Indiana and year of induction include:
